MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2272 Communication from Mayor Caliguiri submitting the name of George Jacoby as Director of the Department of Supplies.

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2273 Resolution by Mayor Caliguiri submitting the name of George Jacoby as Director of the Department of Supplies.

Which was read.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. I think Mr. Jacoby is well known to all of us. If anyone wants to have him come in on Wednesday, then I suggest we hold it for a week and hear from him. If not, I'm prepared, frankly, myself, to vote for him. I think we're fortunate to have a man of that caliber moving into that position.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, members of Council should have received today a copy of the memo I sent to Mayor Caliguiri dated December 29 relative to the issue of the now vacant position of Director of Supplies and vacant position of Treasurer of the City of Pittsburgh.

I'd just like to say that on numerous occasions we have had opportunities to appoint persons to positions such as directors of departments and we have made every attempt to give to those persons who are presently on our payroll the first opportunity to be considered and in many instances they certainly were head and shoulders above any other applicants. But also there has been some attempt to make sure that we spread these opportunities out among everybody in the City of Pittsburgh and in that regard I requested that the Mayor consider submitting to us the names of qualified minority females for the position of Director of Supplies and Treasurer. And while I recognize that, perhaps, it's the Mayor's prerogative to select whoever he wishes for Treasurer, it seems to me that particularly in the instance of Director of Supplies that we have a unique opportunity to make available to some qualified female minority an opportunity at Director in this City. We do not now have a director in this City who is a female minority. Certainly there are many people ably qualified to serve this City and I would hope that Council would give the Mayor at least an opportunity to digest these suggestions prior to taking any action relative to the position of Director of Supplies.

Let me just conclude by saying that my remarks are not in any way intended to suggest that Mr. Jacoby would not be a fine Director of Supplies. That would be far from the truth. But I do think that when we have these opportunities and where Council is involved in the process, that we should reflect upon everything that we're trying to do and sometimes we have to look beyond the individual in question to what I consider to be a larger issue. That is making sure that everyone who can be represented in City Government is represented and I just think it's a fine opportunity to do two things; one, increase the number of females that we have as department heads and two, to give this City for the first time a minority female as head of a department.

FROM: William Russell Robinson,
Member of Council

DATE: December 29, 1982

SUBJECT: APPOINTMENTS:
Treasurer and Director of Supplies

I respectfully request that you consider submission of the names, to Council, of qualified minority females to fill the positions of: Director of Supplies and Treasurer.

WRR/clc

(END OF INSERT)

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Robinson. In that respect, Mr. Stone, if I understand your motion it's to waive the two week waiting period?

Mr. Stone:

I have a problem, unfortunately. If that had happened prior to the time of the naming of Mr. Jacoby, I think I may have been more receptive. Regretfully we've known now for almost three weeks, if not more, that Mr. Yatch was leaving. I didn't suspect that the Mayor was going to nominate Mr. Jacoby, but I think everyone here is aware that we've had the opportunity to work with him in the Finance Department of this City. I would like to believe that there's no one who has found any fault with his ability. I find that Department of Supplies to be a department that is perhaps one of the most important departments in the whole City of Pittsburgh since the amount of contracts coming through there. Mr. Jacoby is also a lawyer over and above his financial abilities.

I'm not aware of the letter that Mr. Robinson had mentioned and that's the reason I made the remarks that I had made to have someone who knows finance, to have someone who is a lawyer, to have someone who has that kind of capability. It's kind of a rare person and I think we're lucky to have someone there. While I would like to address the issue that Mr. Robinson has indicated, I for one, at this time at least, would be in favor of Mr. Jacoby and I have to be out front and say that at this moment because he's been nominated. Had it come before, I think it may have been a different picture.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. I just think that there's a couple of things that we have to bear in mind. One, the overriding commitment of this City to provide equal opportunity I think is unquestioned. I think the evidences of that are unquestioned also. But I think that on numerous occasions as Council has addressed the issue of specifically increasing the number of women who are in supervisory positions as well as the number of minority supervisory positions. So the issue has been forced on a constant basis.

Also, it's obviously the Mayor's prerogative to select those persons who he thinks will best fit into his cabinet and I certainly don't challenge his right to do that. Unfortunately, at least I was not aware of the Mayor's decision to replace Director Yatch with Mr. Jacoby and other than what I read in the newspaper I had no official notification. The only opportunity that I had to make any response, any official response, was after I had a semi-official notification that that was what the Mayor was going to do.

I'm simply saying that it seems to me that if the position is as sensitive as Mr. Stone suggests and needs a person with the kind of qualifications that he indicates, certainly it would be in our best interests to wait a period of time to make sure we have the right person and also if indeed Mr. Jacoby is as qualified as Mr. Stone says he is, then I don't think there would be any difficulty in him standing the test. It just seems to me that if the Mayor so chooses to address the issue that we ought to give him some opportunity to do that. It doesn't jeopardize Mr. Jacoby's position in any shape, form or fashion. I certainly have no objections to Mr. Jacoby serving that position. I simply would like to let this Council have some opportunity to see if indeed there are some minority females that could be considered either for the Director of Supplies or Treasurer. As Council is aware, Mr. Jacoby will be moving from the position of Treasurer to Director of Supplies, thus leaving that position open. I'm unaware of any minority female in the City of Pittsburgh that's been considered for either position and no one within City government is being considered. I just think that if we took a little time that perhaps the Administration would choose to address it. If they don't I certainly have no problem with that.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I whole-heartedly support my colleague, Councilman Robinson, in regard to his concerns. It's important for Council, I believe, especially now, to keep in mind that currently there is only one black director. There is only one female director. We certainly have a history of directors that certainly do not reflect the composition of minorities and females in this City. I am not aware of any pressing reason why we cannot extend to George Jacoby the same courtesy that we extend to all the Mayor's nominees and that is the opportunity to appear in front of Council and to answer any questions that any of us may have.

I myself have certain questions that I would want to pose to Mr. Jacoby and in seeing that there is not any pressing or urgent reason as to why Council should act upon the nomination today, I whole-heartedly support Councilman Robinson for the reasons that he has so stated and also for the reason that I have stated, that I have questions for Mr. Jacoby.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd like to voice my opinion. We have a resolution before us that's for Mr. Jacoby. That's what I'm looking at right now. I think we have some side issues that are surfacing here that are worthy of discussion, but however, I feel Mr. Jacoby, and we have not only done it for this individual but for others who have gone into other positions within this City wherein we knew the people, especially on boards and commissions and authorities, we have done this within the City of Pittsburgh. Rather than having them come before this Council, if we do them personally, their past reputation, etc., one would have to say that Mr. Jacoby and his performance before this Council has been noteworthy of one who really, in a short period of time, knows the intricate mechanisms of the financial problems of the City of Pittsburgh and the management of our Treasury Department, probably as good or better than anybody that I've ever seen. And the fact that I've been very close to this financial picture of the City of Pittsburgh and working with it over a number of years very diligently, I would highly recommend him now for the Director of the Supplies Department.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, first of all, Mr. Flaherty is wrong, we have two minority people right now as directors. But that isn't the issue. As Chairman of Supplies, I would like to make a motion that we bring in Mr. Jacoby this Wednesday.

The Chair:

We have a motion on the floor. I think Mr. Stone's motion, originally, was to bring him in Wednesday then he said that maybe we should waive the two week waiting period and vote on him now. In view of the fact that there have been some questions raised, and if we voted now I think there would be some negative votes and I think it would be unfair to Mr. Jacoby. I think what we ought to do is have the regular motion and have the two week waiting period and bring Mr. Jacoby in this Wednesday or the following Wednesday.

Mr. Woods:

Can we get him in this Wednesday? I make a motion that we bring him in this Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think the points that have been raised today by every party, and I think you would agree, are valid points. I think the one who said the thing that is probably most on target is Mr. Givens. He said that what we're doing is talking about side issues. The side issue is that the Mayor knows full well. It's no surprise to the Mayor, Mr. Robinson, that we only have one black director. It is also not unknown to the Mayor that we have a thirty-three percent black minority population in this City. It's gone from thirty-one to thirty-three. It is no surprise to the Mayor that he could go out and have a search committee, look for the best and the brightest in the community. But for reasons that may be very, very valid, the fact that Mr. Jacoby is in the job, has worked with Mr. Schmeiser and with other people, he may be, at the moment, the best person to fill that job.

But I think the issue that is more important than the nomination before us is the one that Mr. Robinson has raised. The issued that Mr. Robinson has raised is really the key issue. I think the memo or the message that should go to the Mayor, because it's after the fact, it's been decided, nothing is going to change, is that indeed this Council would like to point out to the Mayor that the population of this City is now over thirty-three percent minorities and women minorities are hit the hardest and that we would like to see in future appointments, before it just becomes pro forma where we just go from one to the other, that indeed he submits to this Council and makes a conscientious effort to go out and look for minorities in light of the fact that the Mayor has just appointed a committee to look into women's issues.

I think that's really, as you said, Mr. Givens, it really is a side issue. But it's one that shouldn't be dropped. I would suggest that we go ahead with the recommendation for Wednesday and take it from there, but we do not drop the recommendation, Mr. Givens and Mr. Robinson, that that memo or the feeling of this Council —

Mr. Givens:

I would hope that the Wednesday meeting would not get into the side issue but into the recommendation of the individual who is before us.

Michelle Madoff:

You're interrupting me.

The Chair:

We already had a motion and a second. We had the motion passed.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not allowed to interrupt. The point I'm making is that I would hope that as a second motion, this Council would send a feeling of this Council that in future, in light of the fact that he has appointed a committee to look after the welfare of women, that he would conscientiously go out and look for people who can fill vacancies that will be upcoming in the City by attrition or by whatever promotions there might be. I would hope that you would support that, Mr. Robinson, although I'm not saying that you shouldn't support what you have now because, you know, I'm very sympathetic. But I'm looking at the real world.

Mr. Robinson:

So am I. You said yourself that thirty-three percent of the City is minority. That's the real world. I'm the real world. Linda Johnson is the real world.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me define my term, the real word. Defining the term means the Mayor, as you say, has the power to do what he wants to do. And he's going to do what he wants to do. We know what that is. Fortunately, the appointment is a good one. Thank God. If it was a bad one, we'd all be raising the roof, black, white, purple, minority, or what have you. I don't think, though, that the issue should be pushed aside because we're going to have a pre-determined appointment. I think we ought to pursue the issue as you raised it and not let it ride after this appointment, which I believe will take place on Wednesday.

I'd like to see a letter - why don't we wait. We'll draft it, I'd like to see Mr. Robinson draft it because I don't want to steal his thunder and I would like to support it with him and make that a formal resolution at the next meeting because we know what's going to happen in the appointment.

The Chair:

Okay. Mr. Jacoby will be in Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a motion. Unfortunately we didn't get it to Mike Perry in time but I think the law says you can do it as a floor resolution. Is that correct, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

As a motion.

Michelle Madoff:

A motion from the floor. My Council colleagues will recall, if they were here four years ago, or three years ago, the year we had the big increase in the budget, that at random I contacted a dozen people in the City and asked if they would be willing to give $40 to the City of Pittsburgh, and I checked with our Finance Office and Law Department and it is indeed a tax deductible item.

Since then, I've talked to an executive of Dravo who wishes to remain anonymous but who pointed out to me that when they go into the new building, or at that time they were thinking of going to the Dravo Building, that if they needed police service he would no want them to call Moon Township where he lives, call the Police Department in Moon Township, he would not want them to call the Fire Department in Moon Township, and he feels he gets more than $10 worth of services out of the City. As Mr. Stone said during his finance address, if anybody says they're not getting $10 or better out of the City, they're absolutely not being honest and realistic.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 2274 WHEREAS, the City is the heartbeat of the County; and

WHEREAS, the fiscal well-being is important to City residents as well as all suburbanites living in the City's bedroom communities; and

WHEREAS, any suburbanites not only are dependent on the City for their jobs but also have the advantage of being protected by City services such as Police, Fire, Paramedics, snow removal, etc.; and

WHEREAS, suburbanites presently pay only $10 for the advantages of these services.

NOW, THEREFORE,
BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor

and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh institute a voluntary head tax of approximately $40 for all suburbanites and create a separate trust fund to administer these voluntary contributions.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I've already had indications that if we had public service spots, and we are all invited to do public service talk shows, and we talk about that and say, "Will you be willing?", I think we will generate some revenue that could be used for very meaningful purposes in the City. I would hope that somebody would second my motion.

The Chair:

Michelle, if I may. I can just see the newspapers now. We're going to be the laughing stock of Pittsburgh. You won't get $20. Voluntarily you won't get $20.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. DePasquale, I've already received, I don't know where you were, sir, but I've already received, and I can give you the names of the people, when I tried it just calling twelve people, I got about eight names of people who gave us checks. I stood here with the checks. People gave me the checks. What do you mean they won't do it? They've already done it.

Mr. Flaherty:

I somewhat agree with your remarks. I imagine that we will be able to raise more than $20, but more importantly, I think, regardless, it will be insignificant, but I believe that Michelle Madoff has put forth an idea that can help but explain and put the spotlight on a serious problem that we now experience and unless we receive some outside aid, I believe that in a few years it is going to be a crisis situation in this City.

So, more for symbolic reasons than for strong practical reasons, I support the resolution.

The Chair:

Thank you. Roll call vote.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think Michelle needs an education.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd be happy to share my education with you.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods

AYES 8

NOES 1

(MR. DEPASQUALE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if we could, I'd like a copy of that to go to our State Legislative body.

The Chair:

And a copy to the Smithsonian Institute.

Michelle Madoff:

How about Ripley's Believe It Or Not.

The Chair:

If that one works, Michelle, I'll tell you what, I won't be so explicit, I'll meet you under Kaufmann's clock, okay?

Michelle Madoff:

I want it in Ripley's Believe It Or Not that Jeep voted no.

Michelle Madoff:

I asked Mr. Perry of a transcript of the notes, we were supposed to be on Cable today, why are we not? It was voted and passed by this Council.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Givens introduced legislation

Michelle Madoff:

That has nothing to do with it. It was already voted and passed by this Council. You were to look at the tape to check it. Did you do it? Would you please do it today? It has already been approved by this Council.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

Our first order of business is a resolution by Councilwoman Madoff. Would you please come up and read the resolution?

Michelle Madoff:

Ladies and gentlemen, this is the first time I've had the pleasure of standing up here other than the time I was sworn in so this is really a momentous occasion.

I will give you a little history or background. The Women's Political Caucus approached me several months ago to have a resolution passed giving an award to an outstanding woman of the month. I couldn't agree more heartily. The Mayor, as you know, has formed his own committee to help and work on women's issues. I think Council is going to do their thing, the Mayor is going to do his thing and we're going to work together, right Dick?

Mayor Caliguiri:

Right.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 2323 WHEREAS, the role of women needs to be expanded expanded in society; and

WHEREAS, their accomplishments and achievements, both professionally and personally, of women in our society have largely been underrated; and

WHEREAS, Captain Therese Rocco, as head of Pittsburgh's Missing Persons Bureau for twenty-two years and in charge of Youth and Missing Persons for the last two years, is the City's top investigative policewoman; and

WHEREAS, Captain Rocco has gained a national reputation as being an expert in the field of missing persons has spoken before countless local organizations, and has instructed courses in law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, her personal competence and the compassion she demonstrates has earned the respect of her co-workers and the gratitude of the families of missing persons in helping them get through a very difficult time in their lives.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognize Captain Therese Rocco as "Woman of the Month" because of over twenty-two years of her dedicated service to the citizens of Pittsburgh.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Council, along with the Women's Political Caucus and other women's organizations, will continue this award monthly so that in some small way the contributions of these unsung heroines will be acknowledged as making Pittsburgh "a better place to live."

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to invite Jean Star, the membership Chair of the Women's Political Caucus of Allegheny County to please come up and make the presentation to one of my very dear favorite people in the world, Therese.

Jean Starr:

Thank you, Councilwoman Madoff. We're very pleased that this was Councilwoman Madoff's idea and our idea jointly and we think it's a fantastic idea. We think that the award of the month going to Captain Therese Rocco, we can't think of a better person and more -- I guess I'm overwhelmed. I was in the field of law enforcement in school and I am just honored and pleased to be able to give this award to Captain Therese Rocco on behalf of the Women's Political Caucus and all the other women's groups, the League of Women Voters, and many other groups, we are very honored that you are the first woman to receive this award. Congratulations.

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder if the Mayor would step up and say something.

Mayor Caliguiri:

Thank you, Michelle. It's indeed a pleasure to be part of this first Woman of the Month Award. We're so pleased in the City that we do have a task force on women to begin to acknowledge what women have done here in the City of Pittsburgh. There is much to be said and I am just so pleased and proud to see that the first recipient is in fact a City employee, but one that is certainly deservedly so. Therese Rocco has shown the ability and many, many other attributes that she has done over the last twenty-plus years in helping other people. I can't think of a better person to receive this first Woman of the Month Award than Therese.

Therese, congratulations and I'm sure in the months to come that many, many others that will receive this award will receive it in that grace that you were the first and to come in your footsteps.

Again, congratulations to you and to you, Michelle, and everyone else connected with this award. Thank you so much.

Michelle Madoff:

Before we hear from our honored guest today, I do want to point out that this is not going to be the Michelle Madoff award of the month, but Mr. Stone, in one of our meetings, mentioned somebody on the North Side, I don't recall her name, but some of the things he said about her seemed to be very outstanding. We would appreciate if you would pass the name on to the Caucus. I do not have that name but I think she would be a worthy recipient.

Mr. Stone:

Michelle, before we lead to the other one, I'd be remiss if I didn't mention that Therese Rocco and I go back many years to my days in the District Attorney's Office.

I don't know who will be the future Women of the Month, but I don't know that there will be one who has earned it as much as this one has, who year after year has had to fight those problems and, as the Mayor has indicated, I think on behalf of all of us in Council, we're glorified and honored to have one of our own to have gotten this first award. Congratulations.

Captain Therese Rocco:

Honorable Mayor Caliguiri, Honorable Members of Council, Political Women's Caucus and ladies and gentlemen, I am totally at a loss for words because I feel very, very humble in receiving this award. Humble in a sense that I know that I have only done a job in a job which I have been adequately repaid for in the form and in the essence of personal reward.

I hope that I can continue to serve in the dedication that I have served in the past. I am really, really appreciative to know that I am the first woman to receive this award, but I know that there are many, many, many more dedicated women in our government, in our society, who will be very, very happy to be in this very position that I'm in and I know they too will be entitled to this great recognition.

I want to thank all of you and, most of all, I want to thank God because he has made many things very great and possible for me. Thanks again, all of you.

The Chair:

I think that Councilman Stone spoke for the entire Council on our sentiments when he said what he did say but we certainly want to add our congratulations to Therese Rocco and the NOW Organization.

Talking about names in the future and women in the future to be honored, I couldn't help but see in the back of the room another great personality in the City of Pittsburgh who has done so much for the school guard and she's here today, Mildred Slatig. Mildred, would you stand up and take a bow?

I would like to mention that Mildred has done a real outstanding job.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2275 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Yarrowrough Development in the amount of $17,629.95; Rome Electric in the

Michelle Madoff presented

No. 2294 Resolution creating a Special Trust Fund known as the "Voluntary Head Tax" to deposit voluntary contributions received from suburban persons who work in the City for purposes of contributing to City services they enjoy.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Michelle Madoff moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing consideration of a bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so it will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I'd like to say that the reason for that is that I think the public might be interested to know that we've already collected twelve hundred dollars. Some of the money from people in the City who feel that ten dollars with inflation is not satisfactory and are making their own contributions.

Also,

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2273 Resolution approving the appointment of George Jacoby as Director of the Department of Supplies.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. Relative to Mr. Jacoby, I've had the opportunity to work with him in the Finance Department of the City of Pittsburgh. I've known him to be very qualified for this position as well as to have the credibility beyond reproach. We have needs for a Supplies Director but we need the talents of a lawyer as well. Mr. Jacoby, in addition to his financial capabilities, is also a lawyer so, in effect, we're getting some of his leadership as an attorney and also as a fiscal individual, and I think I can't overemphasize that matter because it's so important to this Council.

It's with a great deal of pride and honor that I take this opportunity to move for the approval of Mr. Jacoby as our new Supplies Director.

Mr. Stone moved for approval of the appointment.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I echo the comments of Bob Stone. I think as a person who came before this Council, he had expressed himself with the in-depth knowledge of one that was the Treasurer of the City of Pittsburgh and one that I felt if I had a question to ask that he had all the information right at the tip of his hands.

Michelle Madoff:

Since Mr. Jacoby has give me his word that he will work with the Mayor and with the companies on repossessions and will try to save the City money, I not only vote aye but I vote aye twice.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the appointment?

And on the question, "Shall the appointment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the appointment was approved.

The Chair:

Mr. Jacoby is approved as the Director of the Supplies of the City of Pittsburgh.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Givens presented

Bill No. 2315

Report of the Committee on Public Works for January 5, 1983 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2239

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing and directing that the Bureau of Cable Communications, Department of Public Works, broadcast all of Council's regular legislative sessions, standing committee meetings."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would just like clarification. Mr. Perry, on Item 2, the broadcast coverage shall begin immediately following passage of this resolution. You and I discussed that and I believe there's a time lag. Could you clarify that for me, please? I'm a little confused.

Mr. Perry:

We could take it either way. Either pass it here in Council or after the Mayor approves it and it gets an effective date.

Michelle Madoff:

You want to do it legally, is that correct?

Mr. Perry:

Let's wait until we get an effective date which will be approximately January 24.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to know so that I don't get my back up saying, "It's supposed to be here, where are the cameras?" It will not be until after the 24th of January?

Mr. Perry:

I would say around there.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted clarification. Thank you.

(BEGINNING - COUNCIL'S REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 2239 - 1/5/83)

Mr. Givens:

I would like to call Brother Richard Emenecker to the Council table. As the Chairman for this particular Committee, in talking with the Bureau Director on it, there are some limitations that Council will have to be constrained with as far as the overall capability of that particular bureau, and I would like if Brother Richard would expound upon that; what can we do, what can't we do, what are your limitations, what services other than Council will the cable bureau be trying to --

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, excuse me. If I understand the bill at this point, it's whether we broadcast Council's regular meetings. Let's stay on that issue. You're saying other than that.

Mr. Givens:

Well, there are other limitations imposed upon the bureau as to how much coverage he can give any entity of Government, and I would like Brother Richard to explain some of the limitations.

Brother Richard Emenecker Bureau of Cable Communications

First of all, speaking to the motion, we see no difficulty in doing Council's Monday afternoon legislative meeting and the Wednesday morning's Standing Committee Meeting; in other words, this meeting of Council.

We would be able to commit to doing that for all of 1983. We would do it essentially the way we did the budget hearings. It would be a three camera setup, and we would use the same rules of procedure. A camera would be on the chairman, the person recognized by the Chair or an overall shot of Council. The only variation to that would be periodically if three, or if two Council members are in a dialogue back and forth and a third one happens to be in the center as you have seen, we periodically have had to have a modified shot. But, we are prepared to commit to the time, material, and resources of personnel to do the Monday afternoon meeting, and the Wednesday morning meeting each week.

Mr. Givens:

Now, would approximately —

Brother Emenecker:

One other thing on that. That would be done live, and it would also be played back. The Monday afternoon would be played back 5:30 Monday evening and the Wednesday morning meeting would be played back at 5:30 Wednesday evening. The other point would be that at the Wednesday meeting, it would be gavel to gavel of the Standing Committee, but it would not include post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

Why not?

Brother Emenecker:

My feeling on the post agenda is that it is very open ended, and my understanding is that it is not a formal, official part of the Standing Committee Meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

So what.

Brother Emenecker:

Well, what we are trying to do is to treat Council as a body, and when Council meets as a body, the Legislative Meeting and the Standing Committee Meeting goes gavel to gavel of the meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

Who makes that decision?

Brother Emenecker:

Council would have to come up with a different interpretation and I'll follow that, but I think — I wanted to point that out.

Michelle Madoff:

May I comment on that, Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

I would like to go through that particular point. Now, we have some 50 — traditionally, we have been getting some 50 to 52 hearings a year, and the limitations on — can you cover those particular hearings or any of those hearings?

Brother Emenecker:

At this point and time, we would prefer not to make a commitment to cover public hearings of Council simply because we are trying to — with a small staff and one production facility — cover all departments, authorities, and Council, and there are limits — I'm not saying that I regret those limits. I think that they are limits that we can all live within, and therefore to be somewhat balanced in presenting information about City Government activities and services, we're prepared to commit the Monday afternoon and the Wednesday morning, and the other times, we would be doing productions about informations about City Government activities and services.

If we were to do the public hearings, we literally would have to commit all our resources to this Chamber; a minimum of three days a week, more like four days a week, of staff time. It would provide us with very minimal amount of time to do programming of an informational nature about City Government activities and services, other than what Council does.

Mr. Givens:

In observing the Government Channel 17 and seeing what has been on there since we really got into production, I see a tremendous repetitive and maybe, you know, two or three programs that have been presented so far. How many programs has the bureau presented on the Government channel?

Brother Emenecker:

I submitted a report in Council about a month ago, I believe. It was probably eight or nine productions that we have been able to do, but we were not able to do any productions while we were doing the budget hearings because, as you know, they were very expensive. So, what we are trying to do as we look at it, we're going to increase the information capability. We would be devoting two days a week to Council, and the rest of the time, which would be about two days, two working days from production to productions about Government activities and services other than Council.

So, I'm trying to work out a balance. It's the first time that the City has done any of this, and I would ask Council's indulgence, if you will, for at least the first six months of next year to allow us to achieve what we believe to be a balance, and saying our first commitment would be to Monday afternoon and Wednesday morning. That would not be changed.

Mr. Givens:

Could we ask for a report from you quarterly as to the progress and how it's coming along and something by the first of July as to whether or not you will be able to conduct public hearings, and those hearings I would have to say if they are limited in scope, then the President of Council then would, knowing which ones are very controversial and which ones have the most public attention, those that change the form of Government, whichever the case might be, would probably subject them to a public hearing.

For example, the hearing yesterday, the people that lived on the North Side, I'm sure would have liked to have seen that, you know, that particular presentation was almost the second longest that we had within Council, but one that had a good exchange of ideas on the community and how they are to survive in the growing environment. And I ask for that report.

Secondly, to go back to your question of the post agenda, I think that that is something that Council must sit down and think about.

Michelle Madoff:

Right now.

Mr. Givens:

No, no. I don't think we have to think about it now.

Michelle Madoff:

Why not?

Mr. Givens:

Well, Michelle, he threw a kind of thing in here, and for the first time, I just heard it. I would like to think about it a little bit as to whether or not he should -- if he has the capability because we have to appreciate that time is his problem, and the fact that our post agenda in some cases go beyond the thing, and one thing all of us have to be aware of; when you go into a post agenda, it is a singular person giving that presentation, and although it might have deep concern about government -- in fact, I think many of our post agendas are more serious of what happens in government, and more food for thought and direction comes out of the particular post agenda items. However, being in a political arena, one has to be very sensitive to this particular area. As a result, I would like to discuss it with each of my colleagues to be sure that we are going down the right pathway.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you through, Mr. Givens? Brother Richard, I would like to call your attention to the record of Monday, October 4 and to a subsequent record which is not dated here, which was a Wednesday meeting -- Monday meeting. They are both Monday meetings? Why would they both be Monday meetings? I want the Wednesday and the Monday meeting. One is Monday and one is what?

Mr. Perry:

They are both Monday meetings.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, there is something missing, the point being that last year, if memory serves me well, and I have 20/20 vision, 20/20 hearing and 20/20 memory that we discussed at this Council at my recommendation that we televise on cable all of the budget hearings; is that correct?

Brother Emenecker:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

And then I came back and I said, "You know, if memory serves me well, and based on the two former reporters that covered Council for the Press and the Post, they found the meeting so boring that if a reporter has found it boring, we were going to bore our audience to tears and tune them off before they even got tuned in, and I thought it was very important to cover, not only the budget hearings, but the regular meetings. It was voted on in this Council and agreed upon that we would do that.

Mr. Givens felt that he was head of the cable committee, I disagree with that. I thought Sophie was head of the cable committee, and she agrees with that. We have decided that there would be a meeting with you --

Mr. Givens:

Define yourself, Michelle. Which committee? Sure, Sophie is in charge --

Michelle Madoff:

Head of the Cable Committee --

Mr. Givens:

Cable Advisory Committee.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I'm talking about. The Cable Advisory Committee.

Mr. Givens:

That's right. Define what you're saying, please.

Michelle Madoff:

It was decided that because of the pressure of time, as budget hearings were going on every day, and Sophie would form a Committee and I think she was gracious enough to include Mr. Givens because he heads that Committee and decide what the priorities would be, and it was decided — Sophie correct me — that we would do only the budget meetings for that year because the time was pressing, and you felt that that was all you could handle. Is that correct?

Brother Emenecker:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

And it was also correct that following the New Year, you would then be able to do the Monday and Wednesday meetings, is that correct?

Brother Emenecker:

I stated that we would be able to do it if Council wished that —

Michelle Madoff:

But it already passed, and it was already law that we would do it. We were only postponing it for your convenience and for the limited facilities and capacities that you had. It was already approved and voted on by this Council.

Mr. Givens:

What's your point, Michelle, that you —

Michelle Madoff:

Don't interrupt. I can speak for myself. I will not interrupt you.

Is that correct? We voted on it. We had agreed upon it. It is a matter of record. And there is another record.

Mr. Perry:

In fairness to Brother Richard Emenecker, he did ask me about televising Council's regular meeting, and he asked me what he should do, and I told him. I said, "Mr. Givens will be introducing legislation next Monday." And I told him, "So there won't be any squabble, yes or no — I told him not to televise until this piece of legislation is"

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, with all due respect to you, and I think you were being very gracious — I don't think it was your intention to be a bottle neck at all. I think you were being courteous. And I think, with all due respect to Mr. Givens, if Mr. Stone or Mr. DePasquale introduced the bill that I introduced earlier, that was passed by this Council, there would not be introducing of another bill to reinvent the wheel. It already passed, and Brother Richard was absolutely right and on target, and I owe him an apology with my conversation with him the other day because I did not know that he was ready to go ahead, pending this bill that Mr. Givens was going to reintroduce on a bill that already passed.

Now, let's take it from there since it's after the fact.

The Chair:

I think there was a motion made, but there was never any bill passed.

Michelle Madoff:

It was voted on, and this Council is on a tape, and it was voted on.

The Chair:

There was never any bill passed.

Michelle Madoff:

Out of courtesy, I decided that we just let it ride because the Chairman felt too strongly about it and you felt that you wanted to be gentlemanly and Mr. Perry said let's not have a hassle, I backed off.

And the thing I want to point out is something that Mr. Givens has just said, and I hope that my colleagues would concur. Probably the most important thing that the public needs to know is who stays for the post agendas, what the subjects are because they are the gut of what happens in this City. It's a real gut informational part of the meeting. Generally our meetings will run from 10:00 to 11:30 and the post agendas start generally no later than 11:30, and we're over by 12:30 unless it's a very serious matter. And if it is a serious matter, our public has every right to know about it. And the very least we can do is cover the post agendas.

And furthermore, which I feel equally as strongly about, is that we have — how many people were here yesterday? We had about 200 people here with a very major concern about this community and it is still ongoing. It is very pressing. It is not just one hospital. It affects all hospitals. We run into Allegheny General, and we run into Oakland. And we run into Divine Providence. In my estimation, Divine Providence acts as good neighbors. Allegheny General did not act as a good neighbor.

The University has moved to encroach on the Oakland area. They practically moved Jeep out of the area. I think the public has a right to know which of the hospitals are responsible and which are not.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chairman —

Michelle Madoff:

I'm talking. It's my turn and you are going to let me finish.

Mr. Givens:

Stay on the post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not on the post agenda. I've now gone from the post agenda to saying that I want to amend this bill to include "post agenda and the major public hearings".

If it's a zoning hearing, and nobody is objecting to it, it's going to take three minutes, we don't need to waste your time on it. If it's a major —

Mr. Flaherty:

What —

Michelle Madoff:

That is a motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I second the motion. But I have a question to Brother Richard —

The Chair:

Hold on. Mr. Robinson asked for the floor, but we are going to do this — Do you want to speak on the amendment?

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you. Mr. Chairman, I had an opportunity to speak with Brother Richard about this overall issue yesterday and shared with him some concerns that I think I should very briefly share with Council. It seems to me that this issue that we are struggling with relates to the fact that the nature of use doing the public business has been changed and will be changed because of the advent of Cable Communication and that most of our discussion on whether or not Council sessions and our Committee sessions should be cable casted in mute. It seems to me that the law is relatively clear that Channel 17, the Government Channel, is available so that the Government of the City of Pittsburgh can project its program, etc., to the general public and certainly it's been used for that purpose.

Certainly, the Mayor, as an elected official and the administrative head of the City has had access to that system and if anyone watched it last night, the Mayor was on talking about the international Fire Fighters helping the Muscular Dystrophy efforts. It seems to me that members of Council, as individuals and as this body, have a perfect right to have access. The question is under what set of circumstances are we going to have access.

Now, we have a Committee structure within this Council. We have a president, we have a presiding officer. It would seem to me that we need to recognize that it's not business as usual that cable is here to stay, we did the budget hearings, we are going to have to do other hearings. Members of Council are entitled to be on cable. We might as well sit down at some point and come up with a reasonable procedure to have our meetings to put on cable, whether they be post agendas, or standing committee meetings or what have you. To continue to go back and forth about how long it's going to take us to get on there and what meetings should go on there, to discuss that in public, it's no good. I think Council Bill 2039 is — the ordinance itself, is very direct. Every time I see the Mayor on there or the Department heads, it just makes it more clear that certainly this Council has a right and an obligation to be on there, and Brother Richard should have been about the business of putting us on there a long time ago. And to delay that is to deny every member of this Council their right to have access to Channel 17. Not for our own personal projection, but to conduct the legitimate business of the City of Pittsburgh.

I think the amendment is for that issue, and I think unless this Council makes some direct request to Brother Richard to provide access to each Committee Chairperson and to make some provision to have our sessions cable casted, all we are going to end up in is a lot of recriminations and a lot of members of Council going off and doing things on their own.

Let's get about the business of televising the meetings and giving each member of Council their opportunity to be on Channel 17.

Michelle Madoff:

Could you clarify that for me, Mr. Robinson? Do you mean like the Mayor and like Department Heads they should just go to Brother Richard and say that they would like to have some time on or do you mean that when you're holding a post agenda here and you are discussing a very important issue with Department Heads and not able to get information that you have asked for over and over again, and you want to discuss it at a meeting, the public has a right to know that. What do you mean?

Mr. Robinson:

I believe that every Council session, every public hearing, every public meeting, that is held in this room to start with should be available over Channel 17.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. Robinson:

Any business that members of this Council or the Mayor conduct on behalf of the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh, if we have the technological capability, should be available on Channel 17. You should all have the same access as anyone else does to conduct the public's business, and I think we have to set some perimeters so that we don't get on there and start doing things that are political or personal.

Michelle Madoff:

Right on.

Mr. O'Malley:

I would just like to say that I agree with Councilman Robinson. I also agree with him that that should not be discussed at this table. We have — once we decide who the Chairman of the cable is, I think it should be up to that Chairman to ask two or three members of this Council to sit on that board with her and to draw up rules and regulations and guidelines on how we are going to conduct our meeting.

I have sat here for four weeks during the budget hearings, and some members of Council couldn't get a word in edgewise.

Michelle Madoff:

They had nothing to say.

Mr. O'Malley:

I think all members of this Council have something to say, it's just that other members don't want to take the time to listen.

And I think we should have guidelines. I don't think that the cable should be used for grandstanding.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree, especially on —

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm not finished yet.

And I also agree with Councilman Robinson that as Councilperson as a Chairman of every committee, they certainly should have access on their own time when the rest of us don't have to here to explain their point of view regarding their committees to the public. And we need a format and a guideline, and I think it should be up to the Chairman of that Committee to set those guidelines and to present them to this Council.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. I have some questions for Brother Emenecker in regard to the amendment. To try to put everything into some kind of perspective, and please correct me if I am incorrect, are you saying that you now can't cover all proceedings of Council because you have inadequate staff? I can understand that because I am aware that you have other shows you have to produce, and we are in here almost every day, but is staff, the chief impediment for not being able to cover all proceedings of Council?

Brother Emenecker:

Yes.

Mr. Flaherty:

How would you have to expand your staff in order to cover all proceedings?

Brother Emenecker:

We would have to have a totally separate production crew set up just to handle everything beyond the Monday and Wednesday morning, or we can do it all with the crew that we have now, but we would not be able to do anything else.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Well, you have to do other things, and I believe everyone on Council is also —

Brother Emenecker:

That also includes the information. I mentioned in Council earlier, we are getting a much more elaborate system which we will be able to provide over 1,000 pages of information. That takes time to gather that information.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Specifically now, in regard to the amendment which only holds for cable coverage for the post agenda sessions. The post agenda sessions, as I'm at the end of Council's Committee Meeting, and they are usually short. Would you need any more staff — I can't see how you would need any more staff to cover the post agenda sessions since you are here to cover the Committee Meetings. It seems to me the only thing you have to do is keep the camera on for another 20 minutes or so.

Brother Emenecker:

We probably could do it. I would have to check the Union Agreement in terms of the production personnel. They start at 8:00 in the morning, whether there is any union provisions that they cannot work more than four hours, or they must break at lunch at some given time. I don't think so, but I would have to examine that.

If your meetings — if your post agenda lasted for up to an hour, we probably could do that. The only difficulty I had, and that's why I brought it up, is saying that we would not do the post agenda, is it is my understanding that that is not a formal part of the Standing Committee, and the motion on the table is to do the Legislative meeting, and the standing Committee meeting.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. In response to that, from my experience it seems that, at the most, only ten percent of the total number of post agenda exceed an hour, and I think ten percent is very conservative of approximations. So, essentially, you are saying that the only problem that you have as far as cable casting a post agenda is that you have to check the union contract?

Brother Emenecker:

Right, but I believe that we would be all right.

Now, I have one other point that would have to be clarified by Council; who is in charge of the post agenda, when does it start, and when is it over.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay.

Brother Emenecker:

Because right now, we are going gavel to gavel —

The Chair:

More importantly, what is on there.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, exactly.

The Chair:

That's why Mr. Robinson's point is well taken.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, that is — now that I feel that we have clarification on the technical capability of cable casting our post agenda meeting, I feel that it is imperative that we on Council give our approval for coverage on the post agenda because as was brought out, the post agenda is not a formal part of the Committee meeting, and I think that is the beauty as to why perhaps it should be broadcast.

As Councilman Robinson has brought out, the Mayor is utilizing cable, the Directors are utilizing cable, and the post agenda is an opportunity for members of Council to also utilize cable; but more importantly than that, the post agenda is not in the controlled setting that a Committee meeting is or a final action session is, and often time in a controlled session, I think there are important issues that tend to be controversial at times that are often times effectively reduced or in a sense quashed and I think in recalling some of the post agendas here, I think they were extremely sensitive, and I think if perhaps it was up to the consensus of this Council, those issues may not have been aired, and I feel that it's imperative that at times an individual member of Council, if that may only be one, that they have the constitutional right and they have the responsibility if need be to probe an issue or to ask some questions on an issue, and I think that it is imperative that we have post agenda sessions because they are free of not being watered down, not being restricted. I think they are very fresh, and I think some of them would probably be of more interest to the public than our average Committee meetings would be or our final action sessions.

The Chair:

If I may for a moment. As I listen to everyone's comments here, I would like first to say that I am not afraid of anybody looking over my shoulder to see what I'm doing, whether it's at this Council table or anywhere else, but from what I have listened to as far as the technical requirements are concerned, too often everyone wants a run on T.V. and the worst thing you could do is to go there when you don't know what you're doing yourself.

I think the suggestion by Brother Emenecker is a valid one. We do those meetings that we have, and as far as the other things, you can refer that to a Committee to find out how we're doing it. I have seen post agenda items here that don't even belong at this table.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, usually, you are not here for them.

The Chair:

Well--

Mr. DePasquale:

That's because they're not of interest.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right. Public business. They're not interesting.

The Chair:

We listen to you even though we are not--

Michelle Madoff:

No, you don't listen, you're never here. Don't worry about it. You don't have a problem.

The Chair:

You're out of order at this point.

Michelle Madoff:

But you made a statement that was out of order, and I thought we ought to just address it.

The Chair:

Well, learn to shut up sometime, you'll see it may help your listening power.

Michelle Madoff:

Sir,--

The Chair:

Let's cut it out. That's enough.

Michelle Madoff:

I think the word, "shut up" is out of order because you are a male chauvinist pig.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chairman, I am to point in this Council, if I might use the point of privilege, of ejecting people from this Council by the unanimous vote of those Council people who are present. If I hear continuously this type of dialogue going back and forth, then I will submit such a request.

Michelle Madoff:

Starting with, "shut up." I think it's a good beginning.

Mr. Givens:

I am very serious, Michelle, and I think other fellow Council members are very serious.

Michelle Madoff:

So am I. And my lawyer is very serious too.

Mr. Givens:

We must bring order to this Council, and if the only way to do that is to eject a person, then I am for it.

The Chair:

If I may continue uninterrupted, I would like to complete what I started.

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me Mr. Chairman, but I felt this has to come to head sooner or later.

The Chair:

Relative to the amendment at this time, I think we are somewhat premature. I think we ought to do as Brother Emenecker has suggested and to cover that way. See where we go with it, and gradually build from it rather than just some sort of blurred blotching kind of thing which I don't think helps Council or helps the public, and I would just end with one remark, and I think it's imperative, because I think that has also been brought up but needs emphasized. At this table, we are not running a road show or a television program. We are running City Council's business, very serious business, and we should not be looking at a camera or speaking to a camera, but rather continuing this meeting, and the object of television is to let the public know what we do ordinarily, not what we do when they are watching us. I think that is an extreme caution that needs to be emphasized there.

Now, on the amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

What is the amendment?

The Chair:

The amendment is that we—we have presently Bill 2239 which is to cover the television and the regular Legislative sessions and Standing Committee.

And amendment was made by Michelle to cover the Post Agendas and important meetings.

Mr. O'Malley:

Chairman, in clarification, please. I would like to make a motion—

Michelle Madoff:

You cannot make a motion on my motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

Can I talk, Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

It is illegal to make a motion on my motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm asking for clarification. When would it be possible for me to make a motion to have the Chairman of the Cable Advisory Committee set up guidelines in which this Council can conduct its business.

The Chair:

In the event that this motion would fail, it would appear that that is the time to do it.

Mr. O'Malley:

What I want to do is I want to have the Chairman set up guidelines so we can conduct our meetings by it.

Mr. Givens:

That kind of clarified my point. I was indicating that I would abstain from any voting to at this particular time to have your amendment be adopted to for the Post Agenda for the mere reason that I think this has to be discussed either by Council or the Committee on Council that is set up by each of our Council people; all of us have the opportunity to put someone on that particular board, and I think the board is a fine Advisory Board of Council. It's too bad that we didn't take all of their suggestions all along. But again, it is an advisory board, and it must come back to this Council, any final form to be debated and voted up or voted down, but I feel that we should not jump into this thing too quickly and too hastily, otherwise, we must have a kind of a group within the industry itself, within the televising of the City of Pittsburgh. And if we are to have a Post Agenda, and there is extra time being generated from the Cable Bureau, then how much are they going to be able to do. We must consider the other facets of Government, and the other information that must be given out, and we must then as described here by Bill Robinson take a fair share of that time, but we cannot take the major proportion of that time. These guidelines they must be drawn up, and I think the fact that we have three bodies of Government. We have the Mayor, we have the Controller, and we have the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, but somewhere, these three bodies must get together and say how much time they will need and then, that has to be budgeted.

Now, we just went through a budget session. I had talked to Brother Emenecker before the budget session on his capabilities and his limitations and etc., and at that particular time, it was thought that this was the best that we could do for this particular year. I would assume in coming years, that this thing will grow into a 24 hour. If need be, they will put in another Government station if they have to, if they want to cover any interest generated in the public eye to want to look at what is happening within Council.

So, I'll ask that this amendment be withdrawn, and placed into the Committee and from there be studied and brought back to this floor whereupon each Council member can debate the issues, and the various points, and vote it up or vote or down.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond.

The Chair:

Wait. Wait. Wait. I don't want to go into debate. I'm getting ready to call--

Michelle Madoff:

I think before we call it, we need clarification--

The Chair:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

Two people have asked me for clarification--

The Chair:

Hold on. You have spoken twice on it. Tom has spoken twice on it--

Mr. Flaherty:

I have spoken once on it, Mr. Chairman.

The Chair:

Okay. I stand corrected. Mr. Robinson has spoken on it. Mr. O'Malley has spoken on it. Mr. Givens has spoken on it twice.

Mrs. Masloff:

I want to say something.

The Chair:

Sophie has not spoken on it, and then I'm going to call the question.

Mrs. Masloff:

I want to bring up this matter of Post Agenda. In most instances, a Post Agenda is called by an individual Council member. They think that when that matter is brought here, it's earth shattering. It may not be to the people out there, and it may be. I don't know.

Now, I don't think that every issue that is a Post Agenda item is of interest to the general public, and I think it is ridiculous to waste time, our cameras, and all of our people on all of the Post Agenda items just because a particular Council member thinks it's earth shattering. It may not be, but they think so. So, I think we have to have some guidelines as to the Post Agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

Sophie, I don't disagree with you—

Mr. Flaherty:

Roll Call vote, please, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Flaherty?

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye, and the reasons why I am supporting the amendment is that I feel that the public has the right to know, and as far as what is important to the public or what is not important to the public is not up to this Council to decide. It's up to that individual who is watching the cable, and I feel that Council in trying to restrict coverage, especially in view of the testimony or the answers to my questions from Brother Emenecker that he does have the technical capabilities to broadcast Post Agneda sessions. I think that Council to get into the whole field of trying to restrict what is going to be broadcast or to be selective is hovering upon a very dangerous field of sensorship, and if need be, this Council should be going in the opposite direction and saying to Brother Emenecker what can we do, how can we help you as far perhaps expanding your staff or expanding your technical capability.

I feel very strongly. That's the direction we should be going in; a progressive direction, rather than a regressive direction.

Mr. Givens:

Yes. As I indicated as Chairman of this particular committee, and this particular bill, I abstain on this vote hoping that the other Council members would want for this to go into committee. Sensorship is one thing on the one hand, and I'll be very frank. This is a political body. We are elected officials. Sensorship is one restraint, but I hate to see it go in the other opposite direction where any individual would use this form to project himself. I abstain. I am for the information for clarity. I am for the Post Agenda being broadcast, but I feel that we have to sit down and draw up guidelines for that Post Agenda.

Mr. Perry:

Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

I believe that the bill as already—the contract that we signed with Warner Cable already entitles us to give the public the right to know; to not disenfranchise the public, to abide by the first amendment, and while I have no objections to having a committee determine minute things, such as if we have a zoning hearing, where there are no objections that we are in and out in five minutes, and those things would not be covered, or a Post Agenda that is informational where you would say to the Chairman of that Committee, "is that important, do you want coverage?" When we have an issue like the self service stations, and where Mr. O'Malley rightfully presented his case and did an outstanding job, I think he had every right it was important to point out that when Mr. Larry Yatch came before us having done 6 months of work on a study on whether we should go to a separate fleet, the members of this Council didn't bother to attend, and I think the public has every right to know that, and I will put every member of this Council on notice, that whether it passes today or it doesn't pass in the near future--and this is not a threat--I spoke to Brother Richard yesterday. I will have legal action taken to see that the original contract is enforced. I trust Sophie to see that the frivolous things are not going to put in, the things that are going to take five minutes that say they're going to vote for this--

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman--

Michelle Madoff:

And I vote, of course, in favor of my motion, but I want the Council to know what is going to happen.

Mr. Perry:

Mrs. Masloff?

Mrs. Masloff:

Abstain.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. O'Malley?

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote no, but I would just like to make my statement that I think we have to establish guidelines and we have to establish a format, and keep these Council meetings from getting completely out of hand, and after the vote, I'm going to make my motion to establish those guidelines. No.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Robinson?

Mr. Robinson:

I vote Aye, and I would like to explain my vote very briefly. I think it is rather clear that Channel 17 is the Government Communications Channel. I think it is rather clear to each elected official in the City of Pittsburgh has access to that channel. In that regard, I think that we address the issue of our committee assignments and exercise our options as Committee Chairpersons under the rules of Council and have a regular Committee meetings that would be on firmer ground to request from Brother Richard, coverage because that indeed would be for the good of this Council.

One, the Post Agenda is unfortunately are used in lieu of regular Committee meetings, and I would suggest to members of Council that if you have your regular Committee meetings at a regularly scheduled time, you can do your thing, whatever it is, and still be on firm ground.

Also, in reference to Mrs. Masloff's comments about Councilman O'Malley, in terms of being fair to everyone concerned, we are here talking about Channel 17. Councilman O'Malley did not appear on Channel 17, which is the Government Channel.

Michelle Madoff:

He did, sir. It was Warner Cable.

Mr. Robinson:

Wait a minute. I believe Councilman O'Malley appeared on Channel 59, which is a community access channel to which all of us as citizens are entitled to go on. All of us can go to any of the neighborhood stations and produce the Bob Stone Show, the Ben Woods Show, and do your thing. That's why I'm saying that there are a lot of options out there, but let's concentrate on Channel 17 because we have a right to it, and I vote yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse, it was done in this Council.

The Chair:

Michelle, your're out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

It's not out of order to get the facts out.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Woods?

Mr. Woods:

I vote no until there are some guidelines set up, besides that, I'm shy.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. DePasquale?

Mr. DePasquale:

No. We are boring the public enough now.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Stone, Chairman.

The Chair:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Ayes, three; Noes, four; two abstain.

The Chair:

The motion fails. Okay. All in favor on the bill 2239?

Mr. Woods:

Opposed.

Michelle Madoff:

When will it start.

Mr. O'Malley:

My motion falls in there. These guidelines have to be established also, Committee Meetings—I would like to make a motion that Mrs. Masloff, Chairwoman of the Cable Committee set up a committee with two additional members of this Council on it to set the guidelines and format for Committee meetings, also for Post Agendas and Public Hearings.

Mrs. Masloff:

Wait a minute. That's too much responsibility.

Michelle Madoff:

All of us.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question for Councilman O'Malley. The way Council seems to function now is that all members of Council reside or participate on all committees. We in Council are—our Committee meetings are in—Why not have all members of Council submit their ideas as to what the guidelines be. Would you be willing to change your amendment.

The Chair:

I don't think that's what he meant. He want's somebody to start something, and then you add to it.

Mr. O'Malley:

I don't think that's how a committee system is supposed to function with nine of us rambling on.

Mr. Flaherty:

We ramble on in everything else.

Mr. O'Malley:

That's the problem. That's what I'm trying to correct here.

I have no problems with Sophie appointing whoever she wants to sit on that table.

Michelle Madoff:

I do.

Mr. Flaherty:

I do.

Mr. O'Malley:

She is the Chairwoman of that Committee. I think it is her prerogative to appoint to that—

Mr. Flaherty:

I think we are getting in dangerous ground where a few Council people are going to—
The Chair:

Tom, let him finish now. When you talk, he listens. Let him talk now, and you listen.

Mr. Flaherty:

And then I'll talk.

The Chair:

I'm surprised at some of you people. You always want your share, but you don't let anybody else give there.

Mr. O'Malley:

The suggestion that I would like to make is that I would recommend that each member of this Council would have input to that Committee; that they could meet with the Committee, they could submit their ideas to Mrs. Masloff, and she can either put them into the legislation or take them out of the legislation. So, I think every member of this Council certainly has the right to have their input and to air their views. Also, once she presents this piece of legislation to this Council, they also have the alternative to vote it up or to vote it down.

Mr. Givens:

Sophie is in fact the Chairwoman of Council's Advisory Committee, and that is a functional body, and I would hope that each of the Council people would like to submit a letter to that particular body to look over the capabilities of the bureau. Brother Richard sits on that particular committee as an advisory, and to submit to that committee some type of form, and the fact that committee was formed by Council, and the fact that the committee represents the citizens and a cross section of the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh and that they are in fact representing the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh; and how do they, the citizens want their Council to be viewed. I think it should be taken out of the hands of the people at this particular table, and put into the hands of the Citizens Advisory Committee, and let them make the decision as to how this body will be presented to the public.

The Chair:

I have a motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Roll call vote.

The Chair:

Call the vote.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Flaherty?

Mr. Flaherty:

I am absolutely opposed because we are getting into the realm of the Government is going to regulate what goes out to the public. We all came up, I believe with grade school educations about how that is such a corrupting effect in an other Country where the Government regulates the media, and I feel that we are going completely in the wrong direction on this because the possibility exists, the way I understand the amendment, where Council could come back and say, "we don't want any of our proceedings broadcasted," and if a majority of the members of Council support that finding, then there won't be any cable casting of any proceedings of Council.

I think we are into a very sensitive realm. I think this Council should be the last people to have input into what happens in these proceedings, and I feel very strongly that we should have hands-off, and that if anything, we should have hands-off, and that if anything, we should give the capability to Brother Emenecker. I feel that he is removed from the Political realm, certainly much more than we are, and it should be open, and everything should be broadcast.

The Chair:

Keep going, Mike. I hope that everybody won't make another debate every time they vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm entitled to explain my vote.

The Chair:

You certainly are, but to be quite honest with you, I think everybody said it in debate. Why do you have to say it again when you vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

That's the first time I expressed my—

Michelle Madoff:

That's democracy.

Mr. Flaherty:

That is democracy Mr. Stone.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

On the amendment I vote, no, and for previous reasons stated. To set up guidelines, I feel, as Tom described, I think the Citizens Advisory Committee is the instrument that this Council should use to set up guidelines as to what procedures will be viewed by Channel 17. For that reason, that's why I leave it in the hands of the Citizens Advisory Board with the input of each of Council members any suggestions we would like to give them. But ultimately, that they come up with some form that still I feel must come to this Council for final vote.

Mr. Perry:

Michelle Madoff?

Michelle Madoff:

Sophie Masloff just stated, so we can all hear her, that she feels that she has had enough input from everybody—she knows everybody's view points already, and I think that we should be voting as a body, not a committee of three as a dictatorship, and I vote no.

Mr. Perry:

Mrs. Masloff?

Mrs. Masloff:

Aye.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. O'Malley?

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye, and I would like to comment on what Mr. Flaherty said. Every elected body, including the United States Congress have specific guidelines that they must follow. Each Congress member is permitted five minutes to speak on a topic. I don't think setting guidelines for Post Agendas and for Committee meetings is any way regulating the media. I don't think this Council is trying to regulate what the public sees or what the public doesn't see.

I think what some of us try to do is try to establish a format and guidelines so that we can conduct public business in a proper manner instead of some members of this Council using the media for their own personnel gains. I vote yes.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Robinson?

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to vote yes, and I would like to explain my rationale. First of all, I think that the request is in order inasmuch as the rules of Council certainly give to Mrs. Masloff the power to do exactly what Mr. O'Malley is more specifically requesting her to do.

Certainly the President of Council can structure the committees in any fashion he thinks is appropriate. I think it makes good common procedural sense.

Second of all, again, all members of this Council have a legal Constitutional right to access to Channel 17 and have a right under the current ordinance. Also, I don't think anybody on this Council should believe that any vote that this Council takes on rules and regulations can supercede the right of every member of Council to have access to Channel 17.

In that regard, in pursuant to the rules of Council, on the second Friday of each month at 10:00 a.m. in Council Chambers, the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development will convene. I have sent a notice to the President of Council, to members of Council, and I have made the appropriate request of Brother Emenecker to cover that session—those sessions on Channel 17.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Woods?

Mr. Woods:

I vote Aye, and Tom, 2239 is already passed, so our Legislative and Committee meetings are already going to be one. Nothing can be changed by that, but I believe we should—I believe they will come up through the Post Agenda. So, I vote Aye.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Depasquale?

Mr. Depasquale:

Mr. Stone, Chairman.

The Chair:

Aye.

The motion passes, we will now move to the Committee on Planning, Housing, and Development.

Brother Emenecker:

May I answer a question that was asked earlier.

The Chair:

No. There is nothing on the table. The amendment—

Michelle Madoff:

That is very rude. I want to hear what Brother Richard has to say.

Mr. Flaherty:

I think he should be entitled to comment.

Michelle Madoff:

And Courtesy.

The Chair:

We have now voted. There is no more subject on the table.

Michelle Madoff:

Ayatollah has spoken Brother Richard.

Mr. Flaherty:

I put forth a motion to hear what Brother Richard Emenecker has to say, and—

Michelle Madoff:

I second the motion. Would everybody like to hear Brother Richard speak and give him a courtesy of a response?

The Chair:

All in favor—

Mr. DePasquale:

Opposed.

Mr. Flaherty:

Roll call vote. Any member can ask for a roll call vote.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order.

The Chair:

We have no subject on the table at this time.

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, we do. I believe the rules, and correct me if I'm wrong, the rules of Council indicate if anyone is at this table, they have to be here by unanimous consent. It was my understanding that both yourself and Councilman DePasquale objected to Brother Richard Proceeding. It would seem to me that he can't proceed.

The Chair:

Let the Chair give you a posture position. Brother Emenecker was called here on Bill 2239. He has questions about it. There are no more questions of Brother Emenecker. We then took the amendment and voted that down. We then went back to 2239 and voted on that subject. We then went to the matter of Mr. O'Malley asked, and that matter was disposed of. There is nothing further on the table at this point.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I have a question of Brother Emenecker.

The Chair:

On which Bill?

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question of Brother Richard in regard to 2239.

The Chair:

We passed that subject.

Mr. Flaherty:

What do you mean we passed that subject.

Michelle Madoff:

If Mr. DePasquale wanted to ask a question, you wouldn't rule it out of order.

Mr. Flaherty:

Are you so afraid—

The Chair:

We'll hear from Brother Emenecker. Go ahead.

Brother Emenecker:

The question was asked when will the first meeting of Council be cable casted. Our response is the first meeting of Council, after the effective date of the resolution will be cable casted.

Michelle Madoff:

What does that mean, I'm sorry?

Brother Emenecker:

It's after—

Mr. Perry:

It's after it's passed by Council, sent over to the Mayor, returned to this office, given a number, advertised in the paper. Maybe about 10 to 15 days.

Michelle Madoff:

The reason I'm asking is I was wondering if you were saying since, we lost the vote to go ahead without having procedural methods set up that you were going to wait until the procedure was set up before you started cabling. What do you mean about that? You're going to go without the procedural rules?

The Chair:

He's going on the Legislative and the regular Standing Committee meeting, starting—

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't know Brother Richard didn't know how to speak.

Brother Emenecker:

It will not include the Post Agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

I knew he took the vow of abstinence, but I didn't know he took the vow of silence.

(END - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2239 - 1/5/83)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES 1

(MR. WOODS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 2316

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for January 5, 1983 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1864

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution approving a Conditional Use under Section 993.01(a)A8 of the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Article V, Chapter 993 to Divine Providence Hospital for permission to construct a 62-stall parking lot on certain property bounded by: Sherman Avenue; Eloise Street; Wolfrom Street and Greeves Way. The property is zoned "R4" Multiple-Family Residence District and identified as Block 23-K, Lot No. 174 in the Allegheny County Block and Lot System, 22nd Ward."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd like to offer an amendment to Bill 1864. Each member of Council received from me a draft of that amendment and it is directed specifically at making sure the intent of substitute Bill 1864 is carried out. If I might, I'd just like to read that. I'm requesting that we add a Section 7 to the bill that will read, "The Zoning Administrator of the City of Pittsburgh, and the Director of the Department of City Planning of the City of Pittsburgh, shall within 30 days maximum of this resolution prepare a report detailing the process to address and assure compliance with Section 5 and 6 of this resolution."

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you clarify it for me before I vote on it?

Mr. Robinson:

Section 5 reads that after the measures have been or will be taken to provide ingress and egress design so as to minimize traffic congestion in the public schools. Section 6 reads that the code used, in all other respects, will conform to the applicable regulations of the district in which it is located.

Michelle Madoff:

Having read 5 and 6 previously I didn't understand the need for 7. What you're saying is that you want a report that, indeed, these two things have been met. Is that correct?

Mr. Robinson:

Both in 5 and 6 the section suggests that there are some things that have not yet been done or will be. It is simply saying that it is appropriate for our own credibility to make sure that we have some kind of documentation that some process has been initiated or will be initiated to accomplish the goals of 1864.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you for clarifying it.

The Chair:

Roll call vote on the amendment.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the amendment passed finally.

The Chair:

Discussion on the bill itself.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I want to tell you that I have had a lot of soul searching on this issue. There are people who have called my office and implied that I had made up my mind before I heard the facts. That is not true. If anything, I had decided some time ago and had advised the Chairman of the hospital that I was going to vote against the issue originally because I was concerned about the people in the long run having the property come back to them so that they could develop housing at the appropriate time.

I had asked for certain things. One particularly was that the property, and I think Mr. Stone gave us the terminology was first right of refusal, that a letter be given to the community that they would have indeed the first right of refusal, and I had asked for ten years, figuring that in ten years that area would be developed and it would be time to turn that property back — I had asked for three years originally and was told it had to be ten because of a debt service that had to be paid or the development couldn't take place.

I must say that I was pleased and surprised when they came back and said that in five to eight years we anticipate we will be able to make that first right of refusal back to the community.

I'm sure if I lived next door to the lot I would have the same kind of feelings and I would have trepidations. Nobody wants anything in their backyard. Council is in a very awkward position. I speak for myself when I say I don't want anybody to believe that I had my mind made up in advance because I would like to remind the groups on the North Side, I don't know if they're present today, when the issue came before Council on the designation of the North Side as a Historic Landmark I was a minority vote and held firm on my ground to support them. When Allegheny General Hospital wanted to put in a banking facility because it was generating more traffic and the people couldn't park their cars, I voted against Allegheny General Hospital doing that, and the issue was for them to get their cars off the street and into a parking lot. As a matter of fact, I even think this was one of the lots that was suggested that they put their cars in.

I think it would be inconsistent if, indeed, I were to vote to say Allegheny Hospital, get your cars off the street and then when Divine Providence is doing that saying I'm going to vote against them.

I think in the overall weighing vote, and it is a tough issue, calls have come in and I think if you weight them they're about a pound each on both sides, one has to vote their conscience. And I think any group made up of thinking citizens knows that they can't always get everything they want from this Council, and we have many, many times been with them, perhaps nine out of ten times and this is one time where I feel I must vote with the hospital because I think it's the moral thing to do.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I, for certain reasons, am going to change my vote from how I had voted in the committee meeting. I do this with a sense of ambiguity to a certain degree and ambivalence. I think there are strong arguments to be had from each side.

The reason primarily why I am changing my vote is on Saturday I spent a few hours over touring the Mexican War Street area and also touring the grounds of Divine Providence Hospital and the entire Allegheny Center area. I found the experience enlightening and I suppose it was the final cap of some of the problems that I had as to how I will vote on this issue.

In speaking in broad, general terms, this issue, if it was concocted by a screen writer, could not be any more better than putting a head on a nail of a confrontation between a community and between a strong institution. I don't agree with Councilwoman Michelle Madoff that this Council sides nine out of ten times with the community.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't say this Council. I spoke for myself.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay, yourself. It seems to me that just the opposite occurs. Consistently, hospitals, universities, from my experience, from my three years on Council, have received, if not unanimous approval from this Council, often times near unanimous approval. In fact, I can't recall, perhaps one of my colleagues could correct me, but I can't recall within recent memory of Council denying a request for an institution.

Now, what we are doing here today, we are overriding a unanimous decision by the supposed experts in this City on City Planning. I don't think any of us would argue the fact that they probably have more combined expertise on urban planning than this Council has.

Some of the criticisms of the Planning Commission I saw on Saturday. As far as traffic congestion, I have a very conservative estimate here that you are going to impact a community that is sided on three sides by an eighteen foot alley, you are inviting, with a new parking lot there, a conservative estimate of 65,000 cars into that area annually to and throw. The Planning Commission had great concern with this with the size of the alleyways and also with safety for school children. But more importantly, the Planning Commission came forth and said that this is a blatant institutional intrusion into a residential area. Homes, residences, are completely surrounding this parking lot. There is a concern that this parking lot, as far as the argument put forth by Divine Providence, that this is the lynch pin for Phase III or whatever you wish to call further hospital expansion in that area. I have problems with that argument. But I don't think that they can be concretely argued because they are speculative, as is the hospital's belief that in five to eight years they will no longer have to utilize that lot and will consider - they have committed to giving first priority to the Mexican War Street society, but only if they decide at the end of five to eight years that they aren't going to use the lot.

The bottom line is that I am extremely concerned about the fate and the experience of the community in this matter. The bottom line is that the Mexican War Streets pay more in taxes per square foot than any other neighborhood in this City. Improvement to that community, to that housing stock, has been more dramatic in that neighborhood than in any other neighborhood in the City. If we have a gem and if we consistently like to compare one of our neighborhoods to Georgetown, it is the Mexican War Streets.

What are we going to do? We are going to put a parking lot in the middle of our gem because we agree with speculative thought that this is important to Divine Providence Hospital.

I think this Council owes the residents of that community a vote in a small mod of appreciation for the sweat equity and the hard dollars that they have put into the very humble, small properties over there, and we should owe them a vote of appreciation for building a tax base that is in crucial stages and if something isn't done soon on the expansion of institutional land is going to go down the shoot. We all talk about Oakland, how bad Oakland is. Seventy-five percent tax exempt. How did it ever happen? How was the residential character of Oakland destroyed? It was piecemeal. It was a parking lot here, an office building there, a wing expansion here, a library there. That's how Oakland came about and the same thing is happening in central and lower North Side. We discuss this every time a hospital wants to expand, especially in North Side, and every time Community College wants to expand, we talk about this, but we give them our approval.

This is a classic script as to where this Council, I think, has to lay its actions behind its vote. We have to make a strong commitment to the neighborhoods in this City and not talk about giving them stability, giving this City, as a whole, unison, a good solid tax base. I know that it was brought up, I'm speaking in regard to information that was relayed to me after Council's hearing, and it only could be relayed then because it was my understanding that when the hospital met on Tuesday, which was the same day Council had its hearing, when the hospital met with health system agencies, they said that if Council did not give their approval to the Kyle Street lot, then they could negotiate for the central parking at the Allegheny Center garage.

We're all aware the Allegheny Center garage is in very dire straits. We are all aware that we are financing that bond issue. We are all aware that the payments on that bond will grow more if that lot is not feasible. I think that we have a good alternative here. If this Council denies this property to Divine Providence, Divine Providence, I predict, will sit down and negotiate an agreement with the Allegheny Center garage.

I just want to reiterate that I think the hospital also has strong votes and perhaps if this wasn't in another era when we only had twenty-five percent tax exempt land and not forty-seven percent as the latest study in the Pennsylvania Economy League says, then perhaps we could go along with the proposal. But having that overriding concern, having this overriding concern that alternative housing on that lot will accrue ten-fold the taxes to the City that a parking lot will, I urge my colleagues to support the immediate community that is impacted and that is our gem and let's keep it a gem.

The Chair:

Point of clarification, Mr. Flaherty. Are you aware that the Mexican War Streets are a member of the City Planning Commission?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, with your indulgence, I would like to respond to Mr. Flaherty's comments relative to Council's actions in reference to major institutions.

As Chairman of Planning, Housing and Development, I can think of two instances where Council went to great pains to make sure that there was some even balance between the concerns of the community and the institution. One was the recent discussion around a proposed addition for Community College of Allegheny County. I remember urging my colleagues not to take any action on the bill at all until we had some assurances from Community College that they would agree to establish a more substantive procedure, that it would directly concern the people on the North Side particularly concerned about an expansion of the college. I believe, Mr. President, we forwarded a letter to the Chairman of the Board. A meeting was accomplished so certainly I think that is one instance in which we moved to try to create some balance.

The other is perhaps a more obvious example and that relates to the proposal on the part of the University Health Center to build what became now as a giant garage on Terrace Street in the 4th Ward.

As Council will remember, there was a great deal of controversy surrounding the building of that particular garage and, again, as Chairman of Planning, Housing and Development, I urged my colleagues to separate the issues out. We had a separate hearing on the giant garage and we had a separate hearing on the Oakland study in which I amended the bill on that to specify the site in question. Mr. Flaherty should be aware that because of Council's aggressiveness the site of the garage was changed. The garage which is presently under construction is not being built on the original site, it is not being built on the site relative to the University Health Center and the Oakland study.

Again, I just offered these as two examples of where, I think, Council has made some attempt to not only represent the interests of the major institutions but also to represent the interest of those people who live in the surrounding community. I am certainly not suggesting what you had said is invalid in reference to Divine Providence, but you did raise the concern that many members of Council voted that way and I didn't appreciate it and I think it should be reflected in the record.

Mr. President, if I might, I'd like to make a couple quick comments on the bill. I indicated at the session last Wednesday on January 5th that I would abstain. One, so that I could take a closer look at all the facts but also because I am requesting from the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Divine Providence Hospital, Samuel Stroh, that I wanted a response to a letter that I gave to him on January 4th. That letter was specifically relative to the issue of the hospital paying to the City of Pittsburgh a user's fee or service charge in lieu of taxes, and I indicated at that time that my consideration of that letter would not be any final determiner in terms of whether I would be for or against the proposal, but I felt, in fairness to Mr. Stroh and his Board, he should have an opportunity to respond. I did get a response from Mr. Mulvihill who is the legal counsel for the hospital relative to this issue dated January 6th and I received another letter dated January 7th from Mr. Stroh and his Board. With Council's indulgence, I would like to indicate that Mr. Stroh and his Board felt that the property in question was one in which they were going to be paying taxes and therefore some sort of user fee and was in support of it and if I might, I would like to quickly read this letter which will be included in the public record.

Re: Divine Providence Hospital
Application for Conditional Use
Council Bill No. 1864

Dear Councilman Robinson:

I have, pursuant to your letter to me dated January 4, 1983, discussed with the Executive Committee of the Board of Divine Providence Hospital the question of paying the City a "user fee" for services rendered. I have defined for the Committee a "user fee" as a voluntary payment not required by law.

The Committee is of the opinion that the hospital's voluntary commitment to pay real estate taxes on the property involved in the conditional use, not only on its present value but on a value that could be at least tripled by the $104,000.00 anticipated cost of the required improvements, constitutes a "user fee" in that the property involved in the conditional use would be legally exempt from real estate taxes.

We feel that the hospital cannot, and should not be asked to, make an additional payment beyond this substantial voluntary commitment.

Thank you for the courtesies extended during your Committee's and Council's review and determination of the matter referenced.

Yours very truly,

Samuel Y. Stroh

Dear Mr. Stroh:

In view of Council's consideration of Council Bill 1864 of 1982, and in order to more fairly make a determination of the issue before Council, I would appreciate your board addressing the issue of paying the City of Pittsburgh a "user fee" for services rendered.

As you are aware, this issue was raised at the public hearing on Council Bill 1864.

I would appreciate your consideration of this matter prior to Council taking final action on the bill.

Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

(MR. MULVIHILL'S RESPONSE)

January 6, 1983

The Honorable William Russell Robinson
City Council
Fifth Floor, City-County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Mr. Robinson:

On behalf of the Divine Providence Hospital Board of Directors, Medical Staff, Administrative Staff and employees, I want to thank you for giving of your time so generously at the public hearing on January 4th and for your serious consideration of our request for the conditional use which is so vital to the hospital's renovation project.

Mr. Stroh will be sending a reply to your letter of January 4, 1983 in the very near future.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable President and Members

City Council
City of Pittsburgh

Re: Divine Providence Hospital
Application for Conditional Use
Council Bill No. 1864

Dear Mr. President and Members:

In view of Council's concern expressed at the hearing of January 4, 1983, regarding the subsequent sale by the hospital of the property which is the subject matter of the above-referenced bill, I have polled the Executive Committee of the Board of Divine, and they have authorized me to commit on behalf of the hospital as follows:

If the conditional use is granted by City Council and Divine makes a subsequent disposition of the property, Divine does grant the right of first refusal to the Mexican War Streets Society, Inc. and/or any local governmental or quasi-governmental entity such as the Urban Redevelopment Authority or the Historical Society and will give the above a period of six (6) months to meet the final offer being considered by the hospital from any other potential purchaser.

We will inform the Mexican War Streets Society, Inc. and Council in writing of our intention to sell and the price and conditions of sale, if any, and the six (6) months shall run from the date of that writing.

I represent that the above is a binding commitment on the Board and that the Executive Committee is authorized to act in this manner and that their action and this letter will be automatically ratified by the full Board of Divine and made a part of the minutes of the meeting at which it is ratified.

Yours very truly,

Samuel Y. Stroh

(END - LETTERS RE DIVINE PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL)

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, it's very interesting, some of the remarks that Mr. Flaherty made. When you talk about the community versus the neighborhood and the rights of those people within that particular community, and I'm to think that the Divine Providence, I think, was there before the turn of the century and were they not part of the community from the very beginning. Do they now, in fact, have a say in what happens to their destiny over there?

Yes, I think all of us did walk the particular mall area, the particular Divine Providence and the property in question behind the Greek church. But one should go out and walk it at nighttime as I did with my wife. I would be afraid to some degree for people to have to park in the Allegheny Mall and have to walk from there almost some three and a half blocks to the front entrance of the hospital through a park area, wherein if you went from the Greek church from a residential community across Northern Avenue right to the front entrance to the church itself. And if they think of traffic flow, I think we try to indicate here that we will work continually with the community depending upon what happens in that particular lot, but all the traffic in that area, thinking of one way traffic, the Mexican War Street is not unique to their small streets, narrow streets, narrow alleyways within the City of Pittsburgh. We just have to look to areas like Lawrenceville, Bloomfield, the South Side, the North Side, and throughout the whole City of Pittsburgh this is a common problem.

Divine Providence on the other hand indicated that within five to eight years that they will give the Mexican War Street group the first crack at development of this on the appraisal of that particular property at that time. The Historical Landmark Society has signed off on the directions and what the parking lot will look like and one only has to appreciate if it remains in its present status that would diminish the real estate value of that particular area.

It's very interesting to note, Mr. President, that almost some five years ago that same City Planning Department that did not approve of this particular site plan did so several years ago and one would have to say that yes, the Mexican War Street has increased in value, yes, the City of Pittsburgh, this Council in fact, has poured millions upon millions of dollars into that neighborhood so that could come about.

It's interesting to note that the Greek church back at that time disapproved of this and now, through letters that was submitted at our public hearing, now approve of that particular parking lot behind their property.

The people that are here today, I think, signify the human needs that we must have within the City of Pittsburgh, that we must have hospitals to take care of our people. Underlying all this, if the neighborhoods cannot wait five to eight years, we're talking about many, many construction jobs for this particular site, some $11 million, we're talking about jobs that are going to be created in that hospital, some 37 some jobs, we're looking at this unemployment rate as we have today and if I can get one job any place in the City of Pittsburgh, I'm going to be there. I can't see how any Councilperson can sit here and keep jobs creativity within the City of Pittsburgh when there's people out there sitting in the soup lines. And when there's people out there losing their homes and their mortgages, our hospitals are going to be inundated with people and are right now. If you go to St. Francis Hospital East Wing, you'll find out what is happening to our society because men and women cannot work and support their families.

I submit to anyone that votes against this particular expansion of this hospital is one that does not have concerns of those human needs. Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd also like to respond to Councilman Flaherty. I also have toured that area and talked to a great number of people Thursday and Friday. The conclusion I came to is that the people that live in the immediate vicinity of that lot that have to look out their window and have to look out their door, who have to look at this lot constantly, were in favor of, and particularly when Mr. Coyne called me - Mr. Coyne lives at the end of that property - and he called me and stated that he was in favor of Divine Providence putting a parking lot in.

He also stated that he preferred to have housing but since there is no developer with adequate financing and place, that he felt that he and his neighbors shouldn't have to look at this lot for the next five to ten years, which is a reality, not something assumed.

He also let it be known to me that a lot of the opposition to this lot were from people that live a block or two or three blocks away from the lot.

I talked to two other women Friday. One of them called my in opposition to the letter. I asked her her reasons and she said that she would prefer to have housing. I stated to her, as I stated to Representative Murphy when he told me that he had a developer in place that if he has a developer in place with financing, he'd have the developer contact me and I would change my vote. Well, as of this afternoon there's no developer in place and I haven't been contacted. When I explained to this woman that it might be an additional five or ten years before there is development on that lot, would she prefer to have the lot the way it is or have the lot changed into a parking lot under the guidelines of the Historic Review Commission. She really didn't know but she said if that was the only two alternatives that she had, then she would prefer Divine Providence to build a parking lot there.

One of the greatest concerns of the residents is that they felt that this parking lot would devalue property values. You have to look at that while I can't imagine anything that would devalue the property over there more than this present lot as it now appears. I think the improvements offered by Divine Providence in accordance with the specifications by the Historic Landmark Society would definitely be an improvement to the area. And as I stated, the majority of the residents that I talked to that lived adjacent to that lot are also in favor of the parking lot.

Also, Mr. Murphy contacted me and said that Divine Providence never contacted Allegheny Center parking mall. I talked with Mr. Stabile and Mr. Stabile informed me that indeed they did contact him, that they quoted Divine Providence a price of $65 per lot per month and they were really not interested in the long term contractual obligations ten or fifteen years for which Divine Providence was looking for. At $65 per lot, the same number of stalls would cost maybe $24,000 a year. This cost will just have to be passed onto the patients.

These are a number of reasons why I'm in favor of the lot.

Michelle Madoff:

I plan to be very brief. I think we owe a response to the people who came here and so valiently presented their case opposing the hospital. I have hundreds of telephone numbers but I don't have addresses. If people would contact either Mike Perry or myself by sending their address to 510 City-County Building, I would like to mail them a copy of the thing that I had the greatest concern with which is that the property would indeed revert back to the community for development at the time a developer was found, and obviously with taxes and interest rates it's not going to happen shortly, to send them a copy of the commitment of first right of refusal. I think that's important that they see that.

I had a call from a very dear friend, probably my closest friend, who lives in the Mexican War Street, owns three properties there, urging me not to vote for the hospital but when I explained the facts of life, he understood that I had to vote my conscience and was not very upset on the same reasons that Councilman O'Malley has just touched on.

Secondly, from a female point of view, I have four friends who have been raped in the last year. Some are close friends, some are daughters of some very prominent citizens in this community and perhaps some of you know who they are. They were raped because the areas were dark. I keep my house lit up like the Fourth of July, no matter what the electric bill cost me because I feel it's safe. I think by turning that parking lot into a lit facility it will benefit the community to wit that property is going back to the people and I have confidence that the Bishop and people are not lying to us and that that indeed will happen.

In answer to my colleague, Councilman Flaherty, who I believe is voting his conscience, the only thing I resent, Councilman Flaherty, is that when I say something, I don't lie either. I said that I personally had supported the North Side community on the issue of historic designation. I think you supported me on that at the time, Council did not vote for it. But we voted against odds, put our necks out on the guillotine and in the hospital issue, I don't think you were here yet on the Allegheny General, not to have the cars parking in the street. They've had that problem with Allegheny General for years. I put my neck out. I agree with you. Council didn't vote unanimously, but I have tried to vote my conscience, and I speak only for myself. And as a female, I speak for myself and as a member of this Council, I think, for the best interest of the community and I think I've said enough.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I have a few extremely brief remarks. Once again, we on Council are acting in a piecemeal fashion. I know that some of my colleagues have addressed the fact that there is no alternative housing proposal for the lot. If we on City Council, the state government, the federal government, all forms and units of the government, if we are criticized for one thing it is for being short sighted in reacting to crises and situations as they come up every day instead of planning. The Planning Commission can afford to be a little bit, just a little bit, more academic that we are in these matters because they are appointed, they are not elected officials, they are not under the numerous political pressures that Councilmembers are under. And if we look for vision, then hopefully that vision will come from the Planning Commission.

This Council acted very short sighted in regard to the Bianca Funeral Home. When Community College wanted to take over the Bianca Funeral Home which, I believe, was a near unanimous vote. Well, it has ended up that the community went to court, they won in court, and now there is a developer that is talking about investing $12 million worth of housing, it's my understanding, on that site. I think we have to give some room to breathe to the Mexican War Streets. They have come a long way in a few short years. And as Councilman Givens has said, we have put probably millions of dollars into that area, and that's all the more reason why it's asinine to put a parking lot in the middle of an area where we have already sunk millions of dollars. There is no rationale in doing that. I say, let's give the War Streets room to breathe, the community groups or the society. Let's give them room to breathe. Let's give them time to have a planner in there and not have the attitude we wanted a planner yesterday or we wanted a planner before the vote on Monday. They have dramatically changed this neighborhood around in a decade and we owe it to them to give them a reasonable amount of time.

In closing on one other thing, we have heard about safety. Well, if there's a safety factor, it's a safety factor to children. If there's rapes over in that area, it's not rapes because of the Allegheny Center parking garage, and if you have to walk through the park to get to that hospital, you have to walk through the park coming from the Kyle Street lot. It's the exact opposite. You come out of the Allegheny Center garage, you walk on the street, the nice lighted street that encompasses that lot, you walk on it and you walk right into the entrance and you never put one inch of footing into the lot. Amen.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, could you define the vote aye and no? Which means what?

The Chair:

If you're voting for the parking lot, you vote aye. If you're voting against it, you vote no.

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye and with that I submit to Mr. Flaherty that if he goes into any neighborhood in the City of Pittsburgh that he'll find parking lots in the residential communities and vice versa.

Michelle Madoff:

Before I vote, the people that applauded Mr. Flaherty, I want you to know that I supported him and we've been minorities on this Council on many issues relating to the North Side but you can't get everything from me. I'm human.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON, MR. STONE AND MR. WOODS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1864 - 1/5/83)

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. Chairman. Members of Council have received, and hopefully had time to review a substitute bill that had been prepared by our Solicitor, and I would like to, if I might, I would like to make a motion to accept the substitute bill and then give an explanation.

If I might, this particular bill addresses the issue that was before the Planning Commission, and that was whether or not to grant the Conditional Use to Divine Providence Hospital. If Council members remember from presentation that Mr. Lurcott made yesterday, he gave us the rationalization as to why the Planning Commission felt this project should not go forward, all right. And we had testimony pro and con. The substitute bill in an affirmative way indicates that every issue that was before the Planning Commission relative to conditional use is being addressed, has been addressed, or will be addressed, and this Council in this bill is saying that we will give our approval for Divine Providence Hospital to move forward now.

While Council absorbs that, let me just say a couple of other things. Mr. Givens did raise a concern with the Chairman of the Board of Divine Providence, and Council has before them a letter that addresses that concern. I'll let Mr. Givens speak to that as to whether or not that is adequate.

One other thing. I gave to Mr. Stroh a letter yesterday relative to the issue that I raised around the service fee, the potential for us getting a service fee from Divine Providence Hospital, the same kind of fee that we are getting from some of the other institutions, and Mr. Stone made a specific reference to Montefiore Hospital.

I, myself, am not ready on this bill to take any final action on Monday at least until I get some response, some final response from Mr. Stroh and his Board as to whether or not that service fee issue has been addressed. He indicated, as I understand it, yesterday that he was not aware of any service fee that had been tendered or would be tendered, but I sent him a letter asking him and his Board to please reconsider that, and I myself would just like to wait until Monday before I give a final vote on it, approval or disapproval until I can at least get that letter.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

No. This fee is a fee that the City attempts to get from all the major institutions in the City that do not pay taxes to us. Usually, this issue comes up when they want something from us being very honest and fair about it. We usually ask them if they would be willing to give us a service fee. And that's what I have asked of them.

Mr. Woods:

In other words, what you're saying, you're not asking them to — you're just going to abstain when your vote comes, is that what you're saying, until Monday?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. Until I get something in writing.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

No, I didn't say that. I'm going to move on it but I'll abstain until I get that on Monday.

MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTSMr. Woods

Bill Robinson is not referring to this particular piece of property. He is saying, like Montefiore Hospital voluntarily gives us an additional, like $40,000 —

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, just by way of trying to clarify for Councilman O'Malley, I think Councilman Woods is exactly correct. I don't think it's exactly the same as Mrs. Madoff's situation because in this case being fair to all people, Divine Providence Hospital is asking us for something as others have. It is fair, and it is the practice in the City of Pittsburgh to request from those institutions a service fee to raise the question with them. I first raised the question with their legal Council, and he sent me a letter saying that they haven't given anything, and they have no intention of it. I raised it again with the Chairman of the Board. He said that that was his understanding. I said to myself I will give them a letter, and they can respond to that any way they choose. They may choose to say they feel they're doing enough and — Mr. Stone even suggested that based on some of the other tax contributions they make to the City, perhaps they would say that they don't think they ought to make it. All I'm saying is that Mr. Stroh deserves an opportunity to explore that in response to us because we ask it of all institutions.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTSMR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS*MR. GIVENS COMMENTS*MR. O'MALLEY COMMENTS*Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to abstain, and let me give my reasons. First of all, I had some concerns about the original bill which I think were addressed in the substitute. It seems to me that we want to make sure that there is some sort of monitoring, particularly those things in the bill that suggest that the traffic congestion and other things will be taken care of. The monitoring is going to have to be done by Planning. It's going to have to be some cooperation between the Hospital, the City, and the Community to make sure this thing works, and also, I think that it would be appropriate to request from Planning some timely reports as to the progress so that everybody's capability is kept, and I certainly will contact Director Lurcott in that regard.

Specifically about the extension, I'm abstaining in difference to Divine Providence which did have an opportunity to respond in writing to Mr. Givens, and I would assume that they will respond in writing to my communication around the service fee.

Since I did raise it at the hearing and I thought it was relevant then, I think they deserve an opportunity to respond to that in whatever fashion they think is appropriate.

Also, so that no one is confused what my final vote will be, the issue of the service fee is not the issue upon which I'm going to make a determination on whether I'm for or against. The service fee issue is not an issue of taxing as Mr. Givens has suggested. The service fee issue was an appropriate issue to raise. It has been raised before. I raised it in writing. I raised it in public, and I think while it does not specifically relate to the property and total conversation yesterday about what Divine Providence is, was, and would like to be, and I think it is an appropriate question to ask of them. Would you consider a service fee, and if they can't or won't, simply respond to us in writing so that also it can be a part of the record. That's all.

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye for mainly the same reasons that Tom Flaherty voted aye, and also I would like to add that they voluntarily pay the taxes which will go up substantially once developed, and they also promised that in five to eight years they will turn it over to the community or another developer for homes, and I think in that time period it will be ready to develop for that reason.

MR. DEPASQUALE COMMENTS

The Chair:

If I may, I'm voting yes, and the reason is the same. Yesterday I expressed myself at the meeting relative to the deep concern I had. When someone comes in as early as the Divine Providence Hospital did here and make your request for a conditional use, they were granted the same, and through no act of their own, they're delayed in attempting to carry out that permission. It would be grossly unfair, and I think legally wrong to then change it when they didn't create the problem. I have, and I expressed yesterday my concerns, and I hope in the future, our Planning Department, as well as our Zoning Commission, Board of Adjustment, whenever they have a situation of this type that they set deadlines and constantly meet those deadlines, and when you release that deadline to another deadline forcing everyone to make some sort of compromises it becomes totally impossible for some decision to be made one way or the other. Regretfully, I think that neither group here, while both sincere, ever were going to meet a total compromise, but I think with a deadline it gets closer to that.

We have probably from my observation of this and having been over there in '75 and '76 as Councilman DePasquale mentioned, we went over there for a tour then. I think the lines are kind of drawn, but I think we are as close as there ever will be a compromise. And again, I don't think we should let pass the fact that some of the delays here were of our making and should have been a little bit stronger in enforcing it, but I am impressed with the fact that at least the Hospital is somewhat determined to have this in their overall needs, and they have done everything that they should do to comply. So, in that light, my vote is yes.

(END - REMARKS ON BILL NO. 1864 - 1/5/83)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Stone moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

I just have couple quick issues, if I might. On several occasions, Council has been requested to address the issue of unpaid property taxes on property that is being sold by the Urban Redevelopment Authority to individuals.

This issue has been raised again. The problem seems to be that once the URA sells this property to a buyer, that buyer is then confronted with a tax bill which they were under the impression that it had been paid. Once URA took the property over and created a great deal of frustration. It might be appropriate for the City Clerk to send a letter to the Executive Director of URA asking him to forward all bills that relate to the sale of URA property and a tax status report letting us know whether there are current taxes and whether they are going to be paid and whether or not the potential buyer of the property is aware of any outstanding tax obligation. Hopefully this kind of procedure will give us a better handle of informing people as to what the tax issue relates to.

On January 5, 1983, we did have a post agenda and the Executive Director of the URA, Mr. Brophy, assured Council that by March 31, 1983, that we would have a signed agreement with the present developers who, I believe, are still Grant-Liberty Associates, and by April 10, 1983, a financial package would be in place and the developers would be able to move. For the record, this ought to reflect the dates that become due and Council ought to make sure that Mr. Brophy does forward this information to us in writing.

The last item relative to Community Action Pittsburgh. Without going back through the whole history of that situation, Council should be aware of the recent Community Action Pittsburgh loss. It is the weatherization contract. There was a public hearing held last Friday at which time the Department of Community Affairs took testimony on the issue. As of January 1 of this year CAP is no longer operating the Weatherization Operation Program and URA is in line to receive those funds. I would like to have entered into the record a copy of the memo I forwarded to the President and all members of Council dated December 9, 1982, relative to the CAP's relationship to the City of Pittsburgh and I would encourage the President, the Mayor and members of Council to take some sort of action on these recommendations. Thank you.

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, January 17, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

ABSENT:

Michelle Madoff

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

Our first order of business is a presentation by Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am extremely honored to appear here today and I can honestly say that if it was not for such a special occasion, I doubt if I would appear here today. I am suffering a real bad case of the flu so if everybody will just please stay with me as I read this proclamation in regard to a young man who, I think, has captured the consciousness of the trauma of unemployment throughout this country, and is certainly becoming quite an enflamed artist and I suppose a sign of a real artist is an individual who can accommodate and who is in step with what is happening in our environment and in our times. I'm sure that you are probably aware of the gentleman, Mike Pickering, who is a college student from Ohio that has captured the frustrations of unemployment in a dirge called Steel Mill Blues which has received popular acclaim throughout the country.

Mr. Flaherty presents

Bill No. 2380 WHEREAS, Pittsburgh has always been universally recognized as the steel capital of the nation; and

WHEREAS, the bulwark of Pittsburgh's economy, the steelworker, has been ravaged by unemployment and economic depression because of the Reagan Administration's callousness; and

WHEREAS, this domestic and community wreckage is emotionally portrayed in the lyrics of the popularly acclaimed "Steel Mill Blues"; and

WHEREAS, "Steel Mill Blues" grew out of Mike Pickering's keen perception of his uncle's unemployment and its devastating impact on those around him; and

WHEREAS, the United Steelworkers of America has joined with two local Pittsburgh companies, Air Craft Communications and KDKA-TV to provide voluntary support for the promotion and distribution of "Steel Mill Blues" as a benefit for unemployed steelworkers and their local foodbanks across the country.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that "Steel Mill Blues" is becoming the national anthem for the unemployed as evidenced by national media coverage and the public's overwhelming response.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh give heartfelt thanks to Mike Pickering and join the nation in proclaiming "Steel Mill Blues" as the rallying point to create economic justice and jobs for all.

Mr. Flaherty moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am going to ask Mike to say a few words and then if he would give us a real treat with a rendition of Steel Mill Blues, but before asking Mike to come up here, I would just want to acknowledge Gary Hubbard who is an editor of the National Steelworker Newspaper. Please stand, Gary, and if you would care to come up and say a few words in regard to how the steelworkers are helping out.

Gary Hubbard:

I don't want to take too much time of the proceedings here. I just want to say on behalf of the Steelworkers' Union, which is now involved with the national promotion of Steel Mill Blues, and we're just delighted that the song that Mike Pickering wrote couldn't have been done better by anybody in our organization and that it says something from the heart that is happening to literally thousands of steelworkers around the country as well as here in Pittsburgh. And it is our hope that what takes here today will take place in City Councils across the country to get recognition for the lyrics of the song that says something about the trauma that's going on and what's wrong and how we can make it right. More importantly, the proceeds from the record, as many of you probably know, are all going to support food banks operated by our union and by our locals around the country as well as here.

Thank you very much for your time.

Mr. Flaherty:

Thank you, Gary. I would also want to acknowledge Toby Gaines and Justin Smith who are the directors of aircraft who have voluntarily utilized their company to press and promote the record.

Finally, before we have the real star of the hour, I would like to acknowledge Mike's parents, Fran and John.

It's all your's, Mike. You're in the spotlight here.

Mike Pickering:

I'd just like to thank everybody. I got recognized here but there were so many more people who helped on Steel Mill Blues. All I did was write it. If it wasn't for KDKA and Justin and the Steelworkers, it wouldn't have gotten anywhere. Thanks again.

MIKE PICKERING SINGS "STEEL MILL BLUES"

The Chair:

Thank you very much, Mike.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. President, I'd also just like to acknowledge that Sam Shapiro and the owners of National Record Mart, their seventy stores, also distribute this song throughout their chain and all the proceeds go to the steelworkers' relief fund.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2327 Communication from Daryl H. Smith, Director, Department of Lands and Buildings, requesting interim approval to make payment to Air & Power Service for the installation of a compressor in the No. 2 EdPac unit located in the computer room at the Public Safety Building. connection with the Project; and providing for the deposit of the funds in a bank account."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill No. 1788, could you explain a little bit what we're doing there?

Mr. Robinson:

Basically, what we're doing is we're giving authorization to the Urban Redevelopment Authority and our Planning Department to apply for an Urban Development Action Grant to assist in the building of this particular office building. The grant, originally, was going to be filed for in the last quarter, but HUD advised the City not to file. We got communication from them recently which indicated that this was the appropriate quarter in which to file.

Bill No. 1788, which had been tabled, was brought back on the table so that we could authorize the following of the application in the first quarter of 1983.

Mr. Givens:

Was there any amount stated in the action grant?

Mr. Stone:

I don't think any of them mention the amount, Dick.

Mr. Givens:

What address, they say South Aiken, but do they give an address where the office building is going to go up?

Mr. Robinson:

That information was in a cover letter that Mr. Brophy forwarded to us but I do not see it here in the body of the bill.

Mr. Perry:

The address? 568 and 580 South Aiken Avenue.

Mr. Robinson:

I think that's the Penn Shady Hotel. That's the address of the old hotel.

Mr. Givens:

Why isn't that in the body of the legislation?

Mr. Robinson:

It is in the body of the legislation, but it's not here on our file copies.

Mr. Perry:

The private investment will be $4,240,000.00.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens
Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 8

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 2379

Report of the Committee on Supplies for January 12, 1983 transmitting one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Five, Traffic, Article III, Towing, Chapter 521, Scofflaws, by amending Section 521.02, Notice to Owner, Redemption or Sale by City, to allow the vehicle to be sold at public auction not sooner than thirty days from the date of certified mailing."

Which was read.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to amend that bill. Instead of saying "from the date of certified mailing" to say "from the date of receipt of certified mail".

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Flaherty:

On Bill No. 2265, I am opposed and I would like to have my records from the Committee Meeting brought forward.

(MR. FLAHERTY'S COMMENTS ON BILL NO. 2265 - 1/12/83)

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed because it is dramatic enough to have your car towed and I would hate to see anyone to have their car sold.

(END OF COMMENTS)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Robinson	(Pres't)

The Chair presented

No. 2411 Resolution authorizing the Director of Finance and the City Treasurer to work with the ACTION Mortgage Delinquency Task Force plan to prevent unemployed home owners from losing their homes in the City of Pittsburgh through Treasurer's Sale.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Stone moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Is that going to be introduced as a bill or a resolution today? Is it going to be taken up today?

Mr. Perry:

Wednesday, in Committee.

Michelle Madoff:

Is this similar to the one that Judge Papadakos and Gene Coon introduced?

The Chair:

No. That was mortgages with the banks, Michelle. These are delinquent tax sales in the City of Pittsburgh. They're handled by the Treasurer's Office, I believe, every quarter. There's one coming up in the spring.

Michelle Madoff:

And you're asking that we do what?

The Chair:

They eliminate or delete those who are unemployed who are delinquent in their taxes from that sale this coming sale.

Michelle Madoff:

That's very commendable.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 2310, the actuarial services, why was that necessary when actuarial services on ages are available from almost every insurance company?

Mr. Stone:

Specific employees.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, our specific employees are no different than any other specific employees. There are insurance reports that tell you - you don't need to spend $4,000 to find that information out.

Mr. Stone, I have a lot of interaction with people in the insurance business and we all understand what actuarial reports are and how they come down and how they're determined and they're pretty much standard among all insurance companies. Granted, we have an assortment of people but they could be fed into a computer very quickly. I don't see why we need to spend $4,200 for that. And who is Mercer? What work do they do for the City? How do they tie in with us?

Mr. Flaherty:

I had requested the same information at last Wednesday's Committee Meeting and there was no one at the table nor was there anyone in the audience that could supply information as to who this individual is, William Mercer, and how he was selected and what services it is that he's providing. I had requested that information on Wednesday from the City Treasurer's Office and I still have not received a response.

Michelle Madoff:

Who's committee is it in? Is it Mr. Stone's committee?

Mr. Flaherty:

It's in Finance.

The Chair:

I asked Mr. Schmeiser to come here today and answer that question. Mr. Schmeiser went to New York to sign some bonds and therefore couldn't be with us this afternoon.

Michelle Madoff:

Then I move to hold this bill.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommittal?

And on the question, "Shall the recommittal pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 6 NOES none

(MR. GIVENS AND MRS. MASLOFF ABSTAINING)

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the recommittal was approved.

Also,

Bill No. 2311

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the transfer of two hundred nineteen thousand, one hundred and nineteen dollars ($219,119.00) from the CETA Trust Fund to the 1983 General Fund of the City of Pittsburgh for Reimbursement of Indirect Costs, Comprehensive Employment and Training Program, CETA, for Fiscal Year 1982."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Givens presented

Bill No. 2413

Report of the Committee on Public Works for January 19, 1983 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2332

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1135, approved November 3, 1980, entitled, 'Resolution vacating portions of Tunnel Street, Center Avenue, Court Place, Sixth Avenue, Bigelow Boulevard and Grant Street in the First Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, and providing for the conveyance of portions of Grant Street, Bigelow Boulevard and Sixth Street, excepting and reserving all utility easements in Tunnel Street, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof; and creating a special trust fund in connection therewith,' by providing for the execution of an Agreement with 500 Grant Street Associates, or other entities, necessary for the transfer of the building located at the corner of the Grant Street and Fifth Avenue in the First Ward of the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

On Bill No. 2332, Council had requested that the City Solicitor provide us with some information relative to the significance of changing the name on these agreements of what the impact would have on the parties to the agreements. I think each member of Council received a letter from Mr. Pellegrini dated January 21, 1983 which responds to our concerns. I asked Mr. Pellegrini to be here because I have a couple of questions concerning his last paragraph. If I might read that paragraph, it says, "Resolution No. 1135, approved November 3, 1980, establishes various rights and obligations among the various property owners located within the Grant Street East Project Area. With the purchase of the one Mellon National Building from the U.S. Steel Corporation, it is necessary for the new property owner to assume those rights and obligations that were previously those of the U.S. Steel Corporation."

With Council's indulgence, I have couple questions for Mr. Pellegrini because I think his response is incomplete and does not give the specific information that we requested.

Dan, correct me if I'm incorrect, the resolution that you mentioned in your communique from November 3, 1980, 1135, was that the legislation that originally turned over to the U.S. Steel Corporation, that portion of land which was identified as Parcel A?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Parcel A was not owned by the City. It was owned by the Urban Redevelopment Authority. That was a vacation ordinance. 1135 was for the new street patterns. It authorized the vacation of the old street pattern there and the acceptance of a new street pattern in the payment of money for, as I recall, they paid us $935,000 and we had to pay Port Authority $466,000.

Mr. Robinson:

Was there any transfer of land from the City or Urban to any parties pursuant to Resolution 1135.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The streets were vacated. There was no land, per se, transferred.

Mr. Robinson:

The streets. So there was land transferred. The street is land.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The street is a vacation and the reversionary rights go to the property owner. In a sense it's a transfer of land but it wasn't a deed transfer that lawyers normally think of as a transfer of land.

Mr. Robinson:

What was the purpose of vacating the streets?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The purpose was to build the Grant Street East Project, the Steel Plaza.

Mr. Robinson:

Then my point would be that in effect we transferred land. I'm leading to a point. My point is that some of the agreements and arrangements that you make reference to in this communique would seem to me to relate specifically to transferring land from the City or Urban to a private individual and if certain kinds of conditions under which that transfer was supposed to occur, if we now are making arrangements for them to transfer to somebody else, then you're pretty much saying these rights and obligation are going along. I have two questions. One, did U.S. Steel meet all the obligations that they had to us originally and are the new parties aware of all the obligations that they're going to be carrying?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Mr. Robinson:

Was U.S. Steel aware that in the transfer of this land for the building of that building, and I would assume it's the one behind us where the Carlton House used to be, that they were required to develop and implement a minority business enterprise program?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That was part of the agreement.

Mr. Robinson:

That was part of the signed agreement.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Now, are you aware of any mechanism that the City, or any agency of the City, ever put in place to make sure that that portion of the agreement was implemented?

Mr. Pellegrini:

My understanding is that there wasn't an agreement reached very early on with the parties concerning it. I haven't followed it since we signed the agreement. I'm not aware of it, no.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me relate two things. One, there was an agreement and I would assume that the parties to the agreement were responsible for implementation and certainly whoever signed it for the City would be responsible. You might want to check that. And if there should have been some mechanism and there should be somewhere in our files a copy of some sort of plan that U.S. Steel was going to implement and certainly some means by which we could determine if they did what they said, I think we need to have that before we start transferring this property to somebody else.

The second thing is that Mr. Mulvihill, in a written opinion and also in an appearance before this Council, and I believe you came with him, indicated that there was an outside agreement, that is an agreement between U.S. Steel Corporation and some outside individuals relative to the issue of minority business development and that in your opinion that agreement would suffice to address Council's concern that minorities and women would have an opportunity to participate in substantial manner in that project. I personally took issue with that because neither you or Mr. Mulvihill were a party to that agreement and neither one of you knew anything about it and I thought that we should not be proceeding taking the word and taking the advice of persons to whom we have not been privy to their conversation. Subsequent to that, of course, the agreement was signed and we had our own provision put in it.

The point I'm leading to is that certainly when we start talking about these rights and obligation, the obligation to develop that Minority Business Enterprise Program was placed on U.S. Steel. We had an obligation to see to it that it worked. I have yet to see any demonstration that it worked or to see any demonstration that any substantive arrangement was worked out. Now we're being asked to transfer this land to somebody else and to transfer to them all these obligations. I'm saying that if we're transferring all these obligations to them, are we transferring to them the obligation for this Minority Business Enterprise Program and if we are, what documentation do we have that this new organization, this new group, 500 Grant Street Associates, is aware that they must have on file with the City and implement a Minority Business Enterprise Program.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Number one, U.S. Steel is going to finish the completion of the construction of the building. My understanding is that the agreement between U.S. Steel and Mellon Bank, as you're aware, it's very difficult in mid-stream to say, "Okay, U.S. Steel contractor leave the job, someone else will take over." All those contracts will still be those of U.S. Steel. So, my understanding is that 500 Grant Street Associates, which is the alter-ego of Mellon Bank, will not be engaged in construction. The agreement is necessary because under New Bigelow, the Dravo Building, there's a garage, there's other easement rights that have to be addressed. U.S. Steel is still under and obligation for the rest of the development of the Grant Street East Project which there are probably three or four more buildings that are going to be constructed to comply with that provision. This was also an agreement with the Port Authority who has just passed a similar resolution as the one before Council today and they've also agreed to the terms. So, it's not just an agreement with United States Steel. It's an agreement with all the parties.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm not concerned with what actions Port Authority might have taken in this matter. I am concerned about whether or not we lived up to our obligations and whether or not we asked U.S. Steel to live up to its obligation originally. I would assume that because the bill is before us, 2332, we still have some involvement in the total process of completing that project.

Also, I don't believe that anything in the discussions or negotiations around establishing a Minority Business Enterprise Program ever suggested that it would be limited to construction. And until I actually see, and hopefully Council would agree, that we actually see the documents, the plan, the mechanism for implementation, I think it is fair for us to assume that it has never taken place. If Council will remember when this issue first came up, I was very adamant that we could not transfer that land until we implemented certain legislation that was on the books in the City of Pittsburgh. Part of that legislation called for the creation of a Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee which is now in place and was put in place prior to us transferring these streets, this land, etc. And certainly, they had the responsibility. If they have the plan, if they've done the monitoring, if they can answer the questions, then I think it's appropriate for Council to get that information from them. But as someone on the Solicitor's staff who assured this Council that we were meeting our obligations, it seems to me that before you start talking about preparing legislation to transfer this land again that we ought to make sure that everybody who was a party to the agreement did what they said they were going to do. The people who signed that agreement, as far as I'm concerned, are obligated and if they have not met any of their obligations, we cannot take any action here until we have assurances that those obligations are going to be met.

Mr. Pellegrini:

My understanding is that a plan was submitted to the MBE Committee and they're the ones that are responsible for monitoring compliance. This transfer can still take place without Council's approval. What it does though, it will not tie in One Mellon National to the agreements and U.S. Steel will still be responsible. But this, in effect, is for the benefit of the City because One Mellon National, Mellon Bank, 500 Grant Street Associates, becomes party to the agreement.

Mr. Robinson:

Dan, I think the fact that, as you said, it's to the benefit of the City, even makes my point more relevant. Let me get at it from another way. When this bill was in Committee on Wednesday, both Mr. Stone and myself raised some concern about the specifics. We asked that it be held until Monday until we could get the kind of information that you tried to provide us with today. Your letter does not detail some of the things that you're saying now and certainly we suggested that we wanted more specific kinds of information. You're telling me now that the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee did receive a plan, did monitor, does have the information, it would seem, again, that it is in Council's best interest to get that information before we move forward. And if indeed all these actions can take place without our approval, no one is being jeopardized if we wait at least a week until Reverend Simms and his committee can assure us that all the obligations have been met.

I'll tell you why I'm so concerned about this. It seems to me that if we're going to require people to do things, we're going to take up your time and the time of people in your office to make sure that we're abiding by the law. The least we ought to do is be involved and enforcing the law and making sure that the laws are enforced equitably for all parties and not be trying to rush through agreements for anyone's convenience. What will happen is the same thing that occurred when we originally tried to transfer the land. You will have people raising all kinds of concerns about who should do what, who's obligated where, why doesn't the City do this, why doesn't the City do that? I'm simply saying that if we put it all together now, get all the facts and the figures now, then we protect ourselves. We protect the City of Pittsburgh by seeing to it that what we asked to have done back in 1980 was done and if it wasn't done, we can identify those persons who we should hold responsible.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I understand your concern. The only thing I'd just like to point out to Council and then Council can do what it likes to do, is that U.S. Steel and Mellon Bank is going to be closing, as I understand it, in the next week or so. I think that's information that you have.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me just make one comment on that then I won't have anything else to say. On numerous occasions, exactly what you have said has been used as a justification for this Council to move forward to override its own decision, its own will. This whole notion that other parties outside this Council have time schedules that we must adjust to, I don't think is in the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh. It seems to me, Mr. Pellegrini, that your main concern should be for us here, not for U.S. Steel, not for Mellon Bank, what have you, and that you should be a bit more concerned that perhaps what I am saying is correct and maybe you could be a little bit diligent in getting that information and asking Mellon Bank and U.S. Steel to wait maybe a few more days until Council can get the kind of information it needs.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Councilman, if you would have told me that you wanted this information, I would have had it for you today. The only thing the letter asked for that I received from Council was why was this necessary. I think my letter responded to that. If someone would have told me on Friday, I would have had the information and the answer to you as to whether they complied. I could have called Mr. Simms and found out. But I just didn't know.

The Chair:

May I make a suggestion? Is it alright if we ask Mr. Simms to come over here and move on to the other bills?

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may for just one moment. The reason, Danny, that came up on the name, I was wondering why it wasn't to so and so, their successors and assigns. And that's why we asked why it came back. At least that was why I was probing it. But I can see now why you need to do it and that to have the assignee or the purchaser be obligated to the same rights and obligations. It has to be a one on one proposition. So, you've answered my question.

In fairness, Mr. Robinson, with the exception of answering whether or not in fact it has been done, this is necessary to make the tie in the second party to the same thing that the first one was tied in. So, legally, he has done what's right to obligate the second purchaser, Mellon, into carrying out what was done before.

Whether in fact, the administration thing was carried out is another issue. But what Danny has done is he's answered my question by obligating the second person.

Mr. O'Malley:

Danny, it says here the transfer of the building, is the City going to collect sales tax on that transfer?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Real estate transfer tax? Yes. If it's anywhere near the sale of the U.S. Steel Building then it should be in the same area.

Mr. O'Malley:

That sales tax we're going to collect, I imagine that building was built under our abatement. Is that sales tax going to be based on the abatement, the price of the property, or the real value of the property?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Whatever the sale price is, we'll get two percent on the real estate transfer. I don't know what the sale price is going to be but it's a 54 story building and the U.S. Steel Building was 64 stories and it sold for about $240 million. It should be a nice sum of money.

Mr. O'Malley:

So, it's two percent of the total gross?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right. And the State will get another one percent.

The Chair:

Mr. Simms, would you come to the microphone? Mr. Robinson had a question on minority representation and participation in the U.S. Steel contracts on Grant Street in regards to the buildings.

Mr. Robinson:

Reverend, my concern relates to, I don't know if you're specifically familiar with this bill, but back in 1980 we passed a bill on November 3, Resolution No. 1135, we vacated some streets and in effect transferred some lands for the building of the U.S. Steel Building, the new building. At that time, the issue came up of the implementation of the Minority Business Enterprise Review Committee, of which you are now the Chairperson. My concern on the bill before us, which is 2332, is as we prepare to transfer the rights and obligations from U.S. Steel Corporation to 500 Grant Street Associates, have we done anything to make sure that U.S. Steel Corporation submitted to us the Minority Business Development Plan, did we do anything to see that it was implemented and are we monitoring it? And then as we get ready to transfer over, are the new owners going to be aware of any obligations they might have? Mr. Pellegrini indicated that perhaps you had that information and could share it with Council.

Mr. Simms:

When the, I think it's Parcel A, which was the parcel of land that was transferred to URA as a part of the development of Steel Plaza, I think it was called at that time, that parcel was to be used by the Port Authority to develop the light rail station. We had asked the Port Authority, since they were monitoring the project at that time and the MBE Review Committee was, as you know, in the process of organizing itself and working through its procedures, we had gotten assurances through the Port Authority that they would receive the MBE plans for that parcel since URA was a party to it in transferring it over. As you recall, the concerns from a lot of interested groups in the City about the practices and policies to be followed by private developers in the whole building of the Renaissance and efforts downtown, those kinds of concerns gave really the impetus to the MBE Review Committee's efforts and the legislation that you submitted to empower the Committee to do its work. The arrangements between the developers and some of the other private interest groups, those arrangements preceded the MBE Review Committee beginning its work.

I have talked to many of the parties involved in the projects and many of the people who represent interest groups in the projects. We've not had the same degree and extent of difficulty, I think, in living up to some of those obligations on this development as has been true in some others. While none of them are perfect, we think that the Port Authority's monitoring of the light rail transit portion and the developers and the cooperation with some of the other interested groups in this project has probably worked out to the best at that time.

Mr. Robinson:

Two questions. One, the agreement that was signed between the City and U.S. Steel obligated us, the City, to see to it that the project had implemented an MBE program. I don't believe it gave to your committee or anyone else the power to transfer over that obligation to the Port Authority and say to them, "You make sure it's done".

Mr. Simms:

I think you're right. I think the question was, one of the conditions of the ordinance that really founded the MBE Review Committee was that the Committee was to develop its policies and procedures. The Committee had convened itself and had been working to develop a set of policies that would be consistent for carrying out its work. This project was going at the same time. In order that the MBE plan would be there and activity could happen, that's when we asked for the cooperation of the Port Authority. You're right.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, do we have on file whatever kind of plan that Port Authority required U.S. Steel to implement and are we involved in that monitoring process?

Mr. Simms:

They did submit to us a copy of the information that they got. At that point, we used that to support us during the time we're developing our policies and procedures. I can get that to you if you'd like to see it and the other results from the documentation that they've sent on that.

Mr. Robinson:

Did the plan that Port Authority asked U.S. Steel to implement, did it relate not only to Parcel A where the transit site was going to be, but it also relates to the site where the building was actually going to be constructed?

Mr. Simms:

No, I think that was the Parcel A site where the Transit Authority would do its work.

Mr. Robinson:

So the building of the structure itself was not under the purview of Port Authority, it was still under our purview to make sure there was an MBE plan?

Mr. Simms:

As I understand it, the structure itself that the arrangements and the conditions under which that was to happen, that those conditions and arrangements were made prior to the MBE Review Committee being empowered to do its work. Those arrangements had been negotiated with other interested groups as to how that MBE plan would be submitted, how it would be monitored, and their interest in that whole matter, again, gave the impetus for us to begin our work on it. So, those arrangements were made with other parties who were interested in it.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me raise the same concerns with you as I raised with Mr. Pellegrini and that is that both Mr. Pellegrini and Mr. Mulvihill, Mr. Mulvihill at that time was our City Solicitor, submitted two written opinions to Council and then came to Council and explained those opinions relative to these agreements that you're making reference to, these agreements signed by outside parties. At that time, I asked both Mr. Mulvihill and Mr. Pellegrini if they knew the names of the organizations or the persons who negotiate agreements and their response was no. I asked them were they, Mr. Pellegrini and Mr. Mulvihill, a party to the agreement. They said no. I asked them did they know the contents of the agreement. They said no. I asked them then, how can you in good conscience say to this Council that we can move forward to transfer Parcel A and be relatively assured that there will be the involvement of minority and women when in fact you had not been informed about the nature of the negotiations around that issue.

Subsequent to that, the Administration under Mr. Matter's leadership, made available to this Council an agreement which did in fact obligate United States Steel Corporation through their realty division to implement a Minority Business Enterprise Review Program. It did not suggest that somebody else was going to carry it out. It did not suggest that it related to the rapid transit system. It related specifically to the construction of the building which sits right behind us where the Carlton House was. And whether your committee or some other committee was supposed to implement that, my concern is that from what I've heard you say, we do not now have on file a copy of that plan or that mechanism, nor do we have anything to substantiate that that portion of the agreement was carried out. And since we don't, I have some real problems about now transferring over to another party all these rights and obligations. That's just a comment.

My question is that if we assume that there is no plan, if we assume nothing has been implemented, if we assume there has been no monitoring on our part, the City is part owner, and that is not to say something has not been done on the City's part. What, if any role, can your committee play to make sure that as this property is transferred from U.S. Steel to 500 Grant Street Associates, that 500 Grant Street Associates understands that they have to have a plan on file, they have to implement it and there must be a mechanism for monitoring?

Mr. Simms:

At this point, Councilman, I think the benefit of your earlier counsel to the Committee is really going to be a benefit to us here. As you recall, the MBE Committee, in developing its procedures, we view development as being more than simply the physical construction of a facility on a site. In consultation with you we added in our criteria that there are some long-term benefits that are of interest to the minority community developments. At that point, we're talking about a lot of things. We're talking about leasing of space, we're talking about investments, the use of consultants, a lot of long-range, on-going efforts that will come under the interest that we're talking about. When we look at those areas, we should be talking about building the facility, but there are points in the plan that meet to this transfer. And I think if that's the question you're asking, I think the benefit of your earlier counsel will hold us in good state here.

Mr. Robinson:

Could you give us some time frame as to when you can meet with 500 Grant Street Associates to inform them of their obligations as you understand it and to also consult with Mr. Pellegrini to make sure we're on firm legal ground? The reason I ask for the time restraints is if that Mr. Pellegrini suggested that U.S. Steel and Mellon Bank are under some kind of pressure to conclude this total agreement and it seems to me that if we're to conclude the total agreement that they can't do that without your input and that at some point this Council needs to have some documentation which would indicate that you are satisfied that some process is in place and that 500 Grant Street Associates knew about the process and agreed to it before they signed their name to the dotted line.

Mr. Simms:

Fine. I'm available to Mr. Pellegrini and the other parties in the Grant Street Associates and I can get the information to our committee and we can proceed in a very timely manner.

Mr. Robinson:

Would it be appropriate to ask you to have that back to us in two weeks?

Mr. Simms:

I can do that, yes.

Mr. Robinson:

I would appreciate that. If that meets with your approval, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Okay.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you going to hold the bill?

Mr. Robinson:

No, if Reverend Simms says he can get that information back to us in two weeks, I'll go along with that.

Mr. Simms:

Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Michelle Madoff:

I've reviewed all these bills and there's nothing we can do to hold them up. We have to go forward. But I would like it recorded for the record and I will be doing this on all Water bills, that something has to be done about our decaying water lines. We are doing less than one percent of repairs. As you know, we had 1,188 leaks in twelve months. We don't supply water just for the City but for the suburbanites and something is going to have to be done and we are in very dire straits with our Water Department. I'm waiting for that study to come back and I would hope that we will not have the foregone conclusion that it will be an authority.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote no on Bill No. 2297 and Bill No. 2298 because I am not aware of how those very large contracts were awarded and who they were awarded to.

Michelle Madoff:

May I comment on that? I have asked, and it has passed this Council and Mr. Flaherty is absolutely correct, that we are not to get any bills, Mr. Perry, that just give us a contractor without giving the name and not giving us the principles. We want to know who the people are. I must assure you though that I did check into these and they're people that are putting our valves in. They have long term contract but they pay piece-meal. We do a part of it and another part and sometimes doing it in blocks we get our price down. I think one is Casciato and I forget the other name, but I checked them. But you're absolutely right. The point is that we should not be voting in a vacuum. The media and the public should have the same right to know as I know and the name should appear on the bill and you're right.

Again, would you get a message, a note, out please once more, to everybody submitting a bill, including the Water Director, asking if they would not only the name, I want to know who the principles are. Is it Mr. Darling or is it Mr. Cousins? I want to know who we're dealing with.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I would like to commend the last two speakers on knowing who the awardee was because as I read the bill it says they're hereby authorized to advertise for proposals. They're going out for proposals, they haven't even awarded it yet.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Stone, in the first two bills, --

Mr. Stone:

2297 and 2298.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm talking about the bills in general. I got a call from my aide and we discussed these bills, Mr. Cosentino was in my office to ask if it was alright with me to go ahead and not only put some out for bid but to continue with some of the contracts he already had because they do them in stages. I know who the contractor is who is doing the present work. I don't think that the Councilmembers know who the contractors are doing any of our work. It's a general bill not a specific bill that I'm addressing. We passed it in this Council.

Mr. Flaherty:

In regard to the section that Councilman Stone referred to, if he would continue to read the sentence, it says, "are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals and to award and enter into a contract or contracts for the relay of water lines and appurtenances". This once again is the same practice where Council is giving a blank check to a director. Here we are going to give a director $420,000 and we're saying go out and award this to someone to do the work. And we don't know who he's going to award it to because he hasn't even advertised for a proposal. He does not have to come back in front of this Council. There's absolutely no safeguards, no safe checks on accountability whatsoever.

The Chair:

With one exception. They're taking bids and proposals and of those bids and proposals they're going to select a contract. We don't know who it's going to be.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond to that? It's my department. In certain areas of the Water Department, Mr. Flaherty, there are I think only one or two people and only one person in this area qualified who even knows, we don't even know where our lines are. We don't know our schematics of the City, this one person does and thank God we have him.

Mr. Flaherty:

Who says.

Michelle Madoff:

I say because I studied it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Are you an expert on water lines?

Michelle Madoff:

You better believe it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I'm not and I need information before I vote for $420,000. Just some basic information as to who is going to get the contract and how they were selected and who selected them.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to support you completely because I introduced a bill before you ever got to Council that we should not be voting in a vacuum, that we ought to know who the company is and not just XYZ company but who the principles are behind the contract and if indeed a contract is being awarded to somebody the reason why it's being awarded. For example, do you ever get letters, I'm sure you do, saying the reason we've awarded something to somebody else even though they weren't the lowest bidder is because they couldn't give us the equipment and they didn't meet the specifications and I think you're absolutely right. We must have information and not vote in a vacuum. I'm only responding to Mr. Stone who once said I didn't know what page the Water Department was on when it was printed ten minutes before, but indeed, I do do my homework and in this particular area I do know what's going on and indeed it is going to be awarded to somebody. And you're right. That should be given to us before the contract is awarded. I agree with you. I agree with you.

The Chair:

I'll direct this question to Mr. Stone and perhaps Mr. Albert. Once these contracts are awarded, does Council still have to authorize the spending of these projects?

Mr. Stone:

We're authorizing them now for them to go out. This is the accepted practice. We authorize and they carry out.

Mr. Flaherty:

It's time the practice is changed because there's absolutely no controls over it once it leaves this Council's table. We're giving a carte blanche check to a director and God knows, he could give that to his brother-in-law, he could give that to anybody he wanted to and it would be completely legal. We are relinquishing our controls and our accountability on the matter.

Mr. Stone:

The Home Rule Charter so provides every four years there's an election of the Mayor and at that time, if you're successful, it changes. If you're no, it continues.

Michelle Madoff:

As long as we keep having coverage of these meetings and the media reports what goes on here factually, the people will vote as they see fit.

Mr. Givens:

I've had concerns in this particular area and I've voiced them over the years without anyone in Council wanting to enjoin me. I'm glad now that Mr. Flaherty has enjoined me in something that I want to resolve. However, in my personal investigation and to my committees that I've been charged with through you, Mr. President, I have not found any irregularities and my evaluation of the Home Rule Charter indicates that Council is to appropriate the money that the Administration has then to go into contractual agreements that this Council has forbidden to go into any contractual agreements. Third, that we have the Controller's Office of the City of Pittsburgh whose job in government it is to evaluate the work that has been performed and to see that it's been carried out in the scope of work that the City so depicted in the arbitration.

I don't know these companies personally. They could pick XYZ company and I wouldn't know if the City of Pittsburgh is getting good, bad or indifferent. I think that's the Office of the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh who is invested with that responsibility to check up on these particular things. It's very difficult for us to judge these particular contracts. However, I feel we're going to have to get much deeper into government that what this Council has. In order to do that, I could envision having substantial more staff up here in order to check into this. And are we then not having duplication of effort between the City Finance Department, Eddie Albert and his job, going out and surveying as well as that of the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh. Until somebody gives me hard proven facts that the contracts that are awarded in the City of Pittsburgh are not being carried out according to the scope of work, then I would think that the given practice that we've had in the past years is one that has been acceptable, at least to me, and until something is proven differently I'd have to go along with that particular procedure. If an when it doesn't, then I think this Council should then take some appropriate measure.

With that, Mr. President, I vote aye.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Givens, one of the faults they find with the Controller's Office is that they're not paying the vendors or the contractors on time. The very reason is that they want to make sure that everything is carried out to the letter. The contractors in some cases are being held up, I think, a lot longer than they should be.

Michelle Madoff:

I am going to vote aye on all bills with a warning that the next time a bill comes before Council without the staff of Council that we already have so we don't have to go out and hire anybody else, Mr. Givens, giving us the company without the principles, the bill will go back whether it is in Water or anything else. That is fair warning. The last time I will vote, and the reason I will vote for these is that I checked my own bills and I know who I'm dealing with. It's a bill that passed that we just forget about conveniently.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

Michelle Madoff:

With reference to the bill that you're introducing to waive Rule 8 on Wednesday, if you take a look at today's list, there seems to be an inordinate number of City sales coming up. I don't know whether it's the result of my bill where they're putting the books out and they're putting it on television and we're getting better sales or whether part of it is people that are relinquishing their homes because they're unemployed. It would be interesting to know that. I wonder if Councilman Flaherty would look into that?

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Flaherty presents

Bill No. 2416 WHEREAS, Congressmen Bill Coyne and Douglas Walgren and other members of Congress and church organizations have confirmed reports of the repression of the people of El Salvador by its Government which is responsible for the killing of 18,000 citizens of that country and three Maryknoll nuns and a lay worker from the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Government of El Salvador, aided and financed by the United States, denies the most basic democratic rights to the Salvadoran people; and

WHEREAS, the sending of aid and military advisers to the Salvadoran Government is hauntingly similar to the actions leading to the Vietnam War in which many of Pittsburgh's young people were killed; and

WHEREAS, the $200 million given or planned to be given to the civilian-military junta in El Salvador which is used to aid the brutal repression of the people there should be used to provide social services and jobs in Pittsburgh and throughout the country.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does hereby resolve that President Reagan's certification of human rights progress by the Government of El Salvador ignores the true conditions in that country. We urge Congress to reject Reagan's certification and to halt all U.S. military aid and intervention in El Salvador.

Mr. Flaherty moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just wish to give a very concise, brief reason for my introducing the resolution. As members of Council are possibly aware, today at noon in front of the City-County Building there was a protest of approximately 300 people who were joining as a group to urge Congress to attempt to revoke the certification that the President gave on Friday or certainly to cut back on the military aid that is now going to El Salvador. Currently there is $25 million earmarked for El Salvador and it's important to keep in mind that these expenditures are earmarked strictly for the operation of the military and President Reagan refuses to appropriate any funds which are certainly essential and needed there for the health and social well-being of El Salvador.

I know some members of Council may have the criticism as to what is the relevancy of the resolution in regard to the City of Pittsburgh. Quite a few other cities throughout the country, if you go to Baltimore, to Detroit, Chicago, San Francisco, their City Councils have offered similar resolutions and all this resolution is just enjoining with out local Congressmen from the area in expressing our opposition to the treachery and to the brutal repression of the people in El Salvador that is currently occurring. It is simply a statement of grass roots support. Simply one on quite a few issue that I think our current President needs.

In closing, I would just want to add that our former U.S. Ambassador to El Salvador, Robert White, who was replaced upon President Reagan's assuming office, he was Ambassador under President Carter, he called the current junta in El Salvador as one of the most out of control, violent, blood-thirsty groups of men in the world. I think it's important to keep in mind that we reflect the democratic principles that were in charge just a few years ago when President Carter refused to send one cent in military aid to the junta in El Salvador and I also would just want to add that this is certainly in step with the referendum question that Council had passed in relation to jobs with peace referendum. I have a copy of a resolution that was sent to Congress from the Allegheny County Labor Council which is also urging President Reagan to quit, in their words, throwing our money down the drain to a repressive brutal dictatorship and start to re-focus it on some of the serious problems that are affecting us here in the country.

Mr. Stones:

Mr. Flaherty, I would like to know whether you would have any objections to an addition to a small part at the end. You're indicating to halt all U.S. military aid and intervention and anyone who is a student of international politics knows that kind of cut-offs might be difficult but I'd like to make this suggestion. I think you might agree with it so let me try it.

"And to halt all U.S. military aid and intervention in El Salvador until such time that El Salvador becomes in compliance with respect in word and in deeds towards the human rights of its people."

Mr. Flaherty:

I certainly understand the proposed amendment, but that is exactly the core of contention. We are saying that now they are not in compliance with the establishment supposedly of approximately a half a year ago where they had free elections and now even our experts in the State Department are saying that those elections were so rigged and so exclusionary of all interested political parties in El Salvador and I think that amendment would actually water the entire essence of the resolution as to where the resolution is not saying anything.

I would hope that we would just be supportive of the democratic leadership in the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House which is adamantly opposed to any more infusion of military aid to El Salvador and I would hope that this Council would feel that we are in good hands in supporting them.

Mr. Stones:

Mr. Flaherty, just so you understand where I'm coming from. In international politics, sometimes international politics make stranger bed partners than one might think. I didn't have any use for the government in Yugoslavia, the communist government, either but it was there and our United States Government tends to still deal with them even though they are communistic.

Aside from that, the alternative to no aid at all turns out giving the country to the communist government and I wonder whether that's in our best interest as well. What I'm only trying to do is, and I think that's basically what the idea everyone is attempting to do, and that is to monitor the situation so that at least they stay under our wing so that we can exert some pressures to make them comply. We need two things as I see it. We need control over it so we can do something about seeing the conditions improve. If we do not give the aid and we lose control and that government there turns elsewhere we not only lose the country but lose the ability to control. That's the light in which I was suggesting the amendment only. That's where I'm at, frankly.

Mr. Flaherty:

I think we could probably argue for days as to if the overwhelming populous of El Salvador is being aided and abetted by communistic sources. Once we had established if they were or not, even if they were then we'd have to argue the point of do we want to side with communists or do we want to side with fascists. That's another argument. I, myself, know who I would side with if it came down to that point. But I think we all know and I agree with you, Councilman Stone, that international relations are certainly much more complex than saying here is A and here is B.

So, I am sticking, as the author of the resolution, with the original intent and the language of the resolution.

Mr. Given:

Mr. President, I see the third whereas in here to me, as a Vietnam veteran, gives certain overtones that that particular war was not fought in such a way that it gave some type of a victory to those men who had fought in that particular war. I would like that to be removed from this. There is no similarity, as far as I'm concerned, between the Salvadoran government and that of the Vietnam government at the beginning of that particular conflict over there. May I remind everyone in this particular room that South Vietnam is now controlled by the communist party and no one dare raise any objections to what they have to say. Otherwise, they'd be put in a concentration camp and slaughtered as they have been done.

There's a similarity between this whereas, sending the aid and military advisor to the Salvadoran government and it's hauntingly similar to the action leading to the Vietnam War. I ask that that be removed from this resolution and I put that in the form of a motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I believe that is a real rallying point as to why we should approve this resolution. I don't think there's anyone who wants another Vietnam War where we had 60,000 of this country's finest who went over there and had not returned and probably 100,000 more return not being the same as when they went over there. I think that it is hauntingly similar as to what is happening. Right now the U.S. government has 100 military advisors in Honduras to build up that country's army for use in El Salvador. It's starting in a trickle fashion just as we did in Vietnam. It started out with a handful of advisors and then it went to a couple thousand troops as I'm sure you are aware of, Councilman Givens, as a veteran of the Vietnam War, and before we knew it, we were in a quagmire that we were very fortunate to get out of at all. I think there can be some very visible, very basic, similarities drawn between what is happening in Vietnam and what is happening in El Salvador. We shouldn't be condoning a government that is repressing the people, a government where two percent of the people own eighty percent of the land and they're keeping the people virtually penniless and I think it's criminal for this country to go ahead and stick by, and for this Council to support a ultra-conservative republic and administration who's sole and primary interest in foreign investments.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I have before me and I presume, Mr. Flaherty, you saw it earlier at the rally, a statement by professor John Beverley, Hispanic and Latin American Studies, University of Pittsburgh, and obviously he's done a lot of research and a lot of study and probably is, if anybody in this room, an expert.

I would like to submit his statement as part of the record and I'm not going to take the time of this Council to read all of it, but I would like to read a couple of lines from his statement.

(STATEMENT FROM PROF. BEVERLEY)

Statement on the Reagan Certification for Aid to El Salvador

Since 1979, our government has sent over half a billion dollars, including over $150 million in military aid, to the government of El Salvador. In the same period of time, there have been 30,000 political slayings in that country, according to the present U.S. Ambassador to El Salvador. To understand what this means, consider that El Salvador has a population of about 5 million. If the same percentage applied in the United States, it would mean that roughly one and a half million U.S. citizens would have been the victims of political assassination in the last three years. There is an equation here of dollars and death.

Last year, over the Reagan Administration's strenuous objections, Congress amended the El Salvador section of the Foreign Aid bill to stipulate that the President would have to certify human rights in El Salvador before the aid appropriated could be released. President Reagan issued the first such certification last July; this Friday he renewed his certification. In the words of the State Department report to Congress, "No major reverses were registered in the commitment of the government of El Salvador to the criteria of certification." This is a diplomatic way of saying that the murder, kidnapping and torture of the people of El Salvador continue. State Department spokesperson Thomas Enders noted, for example, that political assassinations have been reduced from an average of 800 a month to less than 200 a month. The Salvadoran Legal Aid society and human rights organization give a figure which is closer to 600 a month, not including "disappeared" persons. But even if Enders' figure is an accurate one, what does it mean for our government to be sending military aid to a regime that is killing 200 citizens a month. Would Reagan have argued that the Nazis were "making progress" on human rights violations because the number of people sent to concentration camps decreased towards the end of World War II? Every morning mutilated and dismembered corpses appear along the streets and roads of El Salvador. That is the way the power elite in El Salvador "advertises" its commitment to human rights.

Congress was, in particular, concerned with progress in the investigation of the murder of two American trade unionists and the four American religious women in El Salvador. Yet Major Roberto D'Aubuisson, who has been directly implicated in these assassinations, presently sits as head of the Salvadoran Assembly. Is it any wonder that progress in bringing to justice those involved in these murders remains stonewalled? In addition, two American journalists and a woman working with a human rights organization have "disappeared" in El Salvador; and last October an American tourist, Michael Kline, was killed in cold blood by government security forces.

Elections were held in El Salvador last March, under the guns of the army and police. The opposition forces represented by the Democratic Revolutionary Front (headed by a former Vice President of the country), however, were effectively debarred from participating given the climate of fraud and violence which surrounded them. Congress asked President Reagan to certify also that the Salvadoran government was making "good faith efforts" to begin discussion with all major factions in the country which have publicly declared their willingness to find a political solution to the conflict. In October the opposition, including guerrilla Farabundo Marti Liberation Front, presented directly to the Salvadoran government a proposal for peace talks without pre-conditions; in tandem, the governments of Venezuela, Mexico, France and the Pope offered themselves as mediators. The government of El Salvador has categorically rejected any dialogue with the opposition and any effort at international mediation.

We can only conclude that continued U.S. aid to El Salvador is making a bad situation worse, since the government there has no real incentive to change its ways.

(END - STATEMENT FROM PROF.
BEVERLEY)

Michelle Madoff:

When somebody raised the issue of what has this got to do with Pittsburgh, Mr. Flaherty, one thing that we might point out is that $25 million in military spending given to a brutal government could be better spent helping the needy and the unemployed youth of Pittsburgh. And I might add there is an analogy between Vietnam. Nobody said that the Vietnam men and women who were required to go and who volunteered as heroic people of our country didn't go to protect their country willingly or unwillingly. I was there at the reading of the names on the memorial in Washington and I cried as everybody else did as the last name was read. It was a very touching, very moving thing. The people who fought are not being condemned, it is the people who sent them into war that are being condemned and Councilman Flaherty is saying, "Let's not have it happen again", and I second that motion. I don't want to change one word of it.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'm going to abstain on this vote because of that third whereas that I asked to be removed. If Mr. Flaherty would know something about history as I have, actually lived it, the Vietnam people that asked for our assistance as early as 1956, we did not send anything over there to them until 1962. As Michelle Madoff said she cried, well, I cried in 1962 when my comrades in the outfit, the first air commando, that I had served with were the first people that were killed over there and many of them. I submit to you that if something is not done in Central and South America, if we do not aid them down there, we won't have to worry about Central America, South America, Mexico, we'll have them sitting on our border as we do down in Cuba today.

I submit to this Council that until you're briefed in the knowledge of what is happening and the internal affairs has been discussed here, it's an intricate, time-consuming, intelligence-gathering, and only the highest echelon of our government which we give trust in by voting them into that particular government, it's only these people that have a knowledge of what is happening in the internal affairs of all the countries throughout this world. We must give some faith and trust into these government officials that must execute their particular office that they are sworn by oath to uphold the Constitution of the United States of America.

For that reason, I leave it in their hands, the hands of our Congressmen who are briefed on these most delicate matters to make those final decisions and not this Council of the City of Pittsburgh that I would have to say even this individual Councilman who has served down in that particular area in El Salvador, who has very dear friends in El Salvador, that knows the area and has lived in that particular area, I would have to say that even I do not know or am I privileged to what is going on down there and I put the trust of this country and what we are doing down there in the hands of our federal officials.

I abstain for the reason that I feel this Council is not knowledgeable of all the inputs and what makes a final decision and what happens in foreign countries in this world of ours.

Mr. Stoner:

I'm voting aye on the bill, I'd be less than fair. Sometimes when we say it the words don't mean anything, I think they do. And to go from one extreme to the other doesn't make the bill any better. I would hope that a little bit of wisdom had gone into this and that would be that we keep control so that we can do something about improving the condition.

I am for it but I would be for it stronger without any reservations if it had the additional language I suggested.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the resolution?

And on the question, "Shall the resolution pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 7

NOES none

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the resolution passed finally.

Mr. Flaherty presents

Bill No. 2417 WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Baseball Club was recently granted a new Three Rivers Stadium lease and relieved of valid obligations for maintenance and an estimated $11 million worth of repairs; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Baseball Club sought a new stadium lease primarily based on its premise that it could not operate under the former lease and that the Club's value was such that it may be preferable to declare for bankruptcy; and

WHEREAS, within a few weeks of the new stadium lease's life, which provided great financial relief to the Baseball Club, the Pittsburgh Baseball Club sold approximately 48% of its corporate stock to the Warner Cable Company for an estimated $6 million; and

WHEREAS, there is a strong presumption that the value of the Pittsburgh Baseball stock has increased in value by the assumption of the City taxpayers' new responsibility for the repair and maintenance debt consolidation and the financial infusion of an increased annual City subsidy; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Baseball Club and Warner Cable Company have reaped windfall benefits by the stock value increase.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh ask that the Pittsburgh Baseball Club and Warner Amex Company voluntarily make a substantial contribution to the Stadium Authority in lieu of the corporate profits accrued at the expense of the good faith and credit of the Pittsburgh City taxpayers.

Mr. Flaherty moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, my purpose for introducing the resolution comes on the heels, as I'm sure we are all aware, of the merger between the Pittsburgh Pirates and Warner Cable. I would have hoped for a public sensibility that they could have waited a little while longer. Where the new lease went into effect, I believe just a couple days prior to Christmas, and within approximately a three week period we have this very joyous marriage between Warner Cable and the Pittsburgh Pirate Baseball Company.

At the public hearing on the then proposed Stadium agreement, I had asked Dan Galbreath some questions in regard to the impact of cable TV, on the future financial condition and overall operation of the Pittsburgh Pirate Baseball Club. I must say that he sort of replied to me as if I were from Mars or something, and talking about some strange futuristic concept called cable TV. Needless to say, his reactions and his response was kept to a minimum and essentially said that cable TV will have no impact whatsoever on the Pirates and we have not even begun to delve into that opportunity and what its ramifications may be for our ball club.

I think its very important, I think common sense will tell any of us that, especially keeping in mind that the Pirates were on the verge of bankruptcy under the old stadium agreement. They were in a position where bankruptcy was certainly a clear alternative that they may have to go if they did not receive a new pact. Well, I think it's very coincidental that as soon as the new pact the marriage is consummated, then we have the new child and that is Warner Cable and the Pirates getting together and starting a new family to say in regard to this.

I think it's also common sense that the City by giving a new financial infusion as far as annual subsidy increases to that stadium and by assuming the responsibilities for maintenance and the $11 million worth of repairs that the Pirates were contractually responsible for but had not put a nickel into, that that certainly revitalized the financial shape of the Pittsburgh Pirate Ball Club and it goes without saying that it certainly revitalized and enhanced the value of their stock. I think Warner Cable probably was not interested in purchasing their stock when they had the baggage and the responsibility for maintenance and repairs of the Stadium and had a greater responsibility as far as subsidizing the Stadium as they do now where the Pittsburgh Pirates now are a free spirit, they're breathing free life and its the City taxpayer that has assumed more responsibility for this issue.

I think its imperative that someone in the government address this issue because it seems to me much too cozy, much too quiet that this happened. And I get calls from people. The public says, "What is happening here? We picked up the responsibility now Warner Cable is coming in and they have this great deal now with the Pirates." It comes down to common sense that I would hope that the Pirates and Warner Cable also would make more public what the intricacies of this new stock transaction is and also let's just try to put it in perspective. If we build a house and we own a house, aren't we going to rent it if we choose to rent it? Aren't we going to rent it not for any sum than is less than what the mortgage of that house is going to be? I mean, aren't we going to try to utilize that rent money on that house to eventually pay for that house? The same principle should be in effect over at the Stadium. Now we're letting Warner Cable come into the Stadium, utilize a public site to make millions of dollars, and what are they paying to the public to come in and utilize that stadium? Who is to say that in ten years from now the Pirates can make a profit with two people in that stadium in attendance. It is certainly the wave of the future that professional sporting teams are going to be making their money from cable TV. But where we are tied in, where we have to return to and what we have to rely on to retire the debt service on that stadium, is public attendance. That's what we have to rely on. Public attendance. The Pirates don't have to worry about public attendance. They don't have to worry about that at all. Cable TV is much more important to them and will accrue more money to them than if they put two million people into that stadium annually for Pirate games.

The resolution is consciously broad and it is just putting the seed out there that the Pittsburgh Baseball Club and Warner Cable at least explore the possibility of making a substantial contribution to the Stadium Authority in view of the fact that we made the financial condition of the Pirates a little bit more rosier.

Mrs. Masloff:

Tom, you didn't make clear here. You know, the company that bought in was Warner Communication. They not only bought into the Pirates, they have American Express, they have other things. Another company is Warner Cable of Pittsburgh. Who are you talking about?

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm talking about Warner-Amex.

Mrs. Masloff:

Warner Communications.

Mr. Flaherty:

Warner-Amex is the national company.

Mrs. Masloff:

Warner Communications is the national company.

Mr. Flaherty:

Warner Communications Amex. The Amex comes in for American Express. It's Warner Cable and American Express. And they are the ones that are involved in the stock transaction. I am sorry for causing that confusion and I have no problem in saying where I have the Warner Cable Company that should read Warner-Amex.

Mrs. Masloff:

Warner Communications. Is that what you mean? How do we know that they've accrued profits? How do you know they will? If the Pirates don't have a good year, they might not.

Mr. Flaherty:

It's not depending on attendance. In a cable contract, you can --

Mrs. Masloff:

This is not a cable contract. This is a company that has a consortium that not only has cable but has all this as one big company. Warner Communications is a company that not only has cable, it has everything. They have many, many businesses. They're not dependent on the cable contract.

Mr. Flaherty:

Sophie, I am certainly aware of that but there has already been an agreement established where Warner Cable here is going to cablecast X number of Pirate games over the next five years for a fee of $3.00 and now that I'm on this point, eventually, Warner Cable, just by virtue of having the contract here, I predict within a few years there will no longer be free broadcasting, public broadcasting, network broadcasting, of Pittsburgh Pirate games. Eventually, cable is going to come in and be the predominant telecommunications vehicle in the Pittsburgh area. They are going to be broad cablecasting Pirate games for a fee.

As far as the incidentals go, I have no problem on any amendment that you may want to offer to the bill, but I think the spirit of the bill, the intent of the bill, is to say three weeks after we give a new public financial infusion into the Pittsburgh Pirate Baseball Company, they go and they very happily engage in a major stock transaction with Warner Cable Company. What I think was the impetus for that stock transaction and what made that stock transaction most fruitful for Warner was the new stadium agreement. I just think it's imperative that someone in the government, may it be the Mayor's Office, may it be City Council, that someone start asking some questions because we did put a larger responsibility on the City taxpayer in the stadium agreement.

It's a broad resolution. It's just asking for them to come public and to explore more the idea of perhaps making a contribution.

The Chair:

Taking the prerogative of the Chair, Mr. Flaherty, I could go along with your resolution in regards to the Pirates and Warner Cable making a contribution to the Stadium Authority. I think it's very much in line. But Mr. Flaherty, you talk about the day when there's nobody in the Stadium and the Pirates will be repaid by cable TV or whoever for the empty seats. I want to tell you something and this is before you were born and I don't mean to slight you. They talked about this back in 1949 and 1950. The very same thing. What happens someday when TV says, "Hey, we'll TV that place, the ball game. We don't care if there's any people, we'll pay for every empty seat." The management of the ball clubs at that time obviously said good. If we're going to be paid for 50,000 empty seats every game, that's the greatest thing that ever came down the pike. So, thirty some years later they're still talking about it. Someday it may become a reality. I would assume that the Pirates obviously would get their share if the seats were empty and it's being cabled or TV'd one way or the other. But also the City of Pittsburgh would demand their share as the owners of that stadium.

So, in regards to the City being short-changed, no, I don't think that's going to happen, if we ever get to the day where they do TV all the ball games and pay for the empty seats.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to respond very briefly to that, Mr. President. The only avenue that the City has now to retire the debt service which cannot exceed $1.8 million annually, that is tied to attendance at the game. Certainly the financial livelihood of the City is very dependent, as we are all aware, on the amusement tax that each person pays the ten percent amusement tax on each ticket and also on the parking tax and other nuisance taxes, miscellaneous fees that go along with any event that is at the Stadium.

What I am saying is that I am not aware now of Warner Cable who is going to broadcast the games of any agreement that they have with the City in paying the Stadium Authority or as the Public Authority for going in and utilizing our public site to make profits.

Mrs. Masloff:

What about the other stations that broadcast the games?

Mr. Flaherty:

They certainly are not as lucrative. What we are talking about now where the public is going to have to pay. Before private industries paid through commercials. Now there's going to be a direct cost to the viewer of the game. If you watch a game now on KDKA TV, you don't pay anything. Perhaps Iron City Brewery is paying for your viewing of it, but in the future there isn't going to be a third party that's paying. It's going to be the viewer directly.

Mrs. Masloff:

How do you know that?

Mr. Flaherty:

That's what's happening right now. There's an agreement right now where they're going to charge $3.00 a game. I think in the first year it's going to be for 42 or 48 games. Right now they have a five year plan in existence.

The Chair:

Sophie, why don't you get a report from the Stadium Authority as to what protection we really have and if what Mr. Flaherty is saying is true and we're relying only on actual attendance, then obviously we have a problem if the place is empty and whether they pay for each seat to the Pirates or whatever. So, would you find out just what protection we have there and if we don't have that protection make sure we get it then get back to us.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would like to substantiate that my office has also been getting many calls. I would like to give you some of the questions that are being asked of my office. I have been asked to hold a post agenda hearing and ask the following questions: In the contract between Warner and the City, did Warner agree to provide the coverage of City Council? If so, when and so on. In the post agenda, they are asking on the $6 million the 48% of the stock, is the Club only worth $15 million? They doubt it. How did they come up with the magic number of $6 million? They think they need documentation, even if you have to do a disclosure subpoena, of how the figure was determined. They want to know the explanation of the cost, terms and conditions of the stock purchased by Warner of the Pirates. I also understand the American Express refused, the division of Warner, American Express, refused to buy into this. I want that clarified.

Other people are asking questions like, explain the cost, terms, conditions of the stock purchased by Warner of the Pirates. When did preliminary negotiations take place? When did the idea first come into being and from whom? When did Warner and the Pirates first consider such a purchase and how did it affect these corporations actions? At the time of application of Warner for the City cable franchise, at the time of the renegotiations of the stadium agreement, at the time of Warner's request for a rate increase?

If the plans were in existence, why was it not the responsibility of the Pirates or Warner or the Administration to disclose such plans as they were ongoing to not only the City Council but to the public? If Warner is in need of a rate increase, where did capital come from, that was one of the big questions that is being asked on our telephone, to purchase the stock?

The Chair:

Michelle, you're opening up a whole new avenue. If you want to have a hearing, we'll have a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm only telling you the questions coming in. How is Council going to get the expertise necessary to make a statistical evaluation of this rate request by Warner.

The other thing is, I'm not going to read all of them, but the one that really bugs me is when are the community groups, the seventeen community groups, going to start getting a percentage of the profits if they're going to start buying the Pirates and other things. That concerns me greatly.

Mrs. Masloff:

Community groups aren't supposed to get a profit. The community groups are supposed to participate.

Michelle Madoff:

The community groups were supposed to get a percentage of the profits when they had profits. And they'll never have profits if they go this route.

The Chair:

I don't know about the community groups, I know minority representation was supposed to get something.

Michelle Madoff:

That's right.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. I find a little bit of a danger in this kind of a resolution. As much as its been brought out by Michelle right now, pretty soon we want to know what a business corporation is doing. If there's one thing you ought to turn off any corporation in this time when you start looking to find out what they're doing and tell them how to run their business. But, we just talked about Parcel A and if all of you will recall, I think I was the single vote against the transfer of that property to U.S. Steel because, at that time, I thought of the tramatic effect it was going to have on all the people having to go around it. Nevertheless, we sold them a piece of property and there after this Council got involved. We went over and met with J & L and some of the other companies relative to the efforts that they were going to do so that we kept steel here and we helped them with the oxygen furnaces and the electric furnaces and we were called in at the Carlton House to try to look at these problems and every time the corporations had their opportunity to do that they went out, at least U.S. Steel, they bought Parathon Oil and we were told that they were going to build a building and they did, and now they've sold the building. Nowhere along the line did anyone say, "Well, since you sold your stock or since you got cash for some of your debts so that you can accelerate payments, we want you to give a substantial contribution to the City of Pittsburgh.

In that sense, I think we're leading into a dangerous precedent. Somewhere along the line the issues have to be divided. We had our public hearing, we had our vote on the Three Rivers Stadium, that issue was resolved. We heard the plusses and the minuses and this Council voted that at that time there would be a take over of it. As far as the medallions are concerned, they've come in at fifteen, as I understand it, $15 million. That's more than anyone anticipated. They were corporate contributions. None of them had to give the money. They gave the money. Maybe behind the scenes someone asked them to do it or pressured them or did something, but it's there.

As far as ability to get money, it's not soley from the attendents, it's also from the development of that particular area, a very vital right that we got back. As far as any subsequent arrangements, I don't know how your stock goes up when you sell a portion of it, and I think in this case, the Pirates have been saying somewhere along the line that they were heavily in debt and they lost millions of dollars over the past couple of years and at this point there was nothing they gained in money. They still had their debt so they sold a piece of it, apparently to get some money. That doesn't increase their value, it just lowers their debt. But for us to say to them even before we ascertain a profit figure, you give a substantial contribution to the Stadium Authority, I wonder if that's in the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh. At least my answer is no and I think it's leading to a dangerous precedent.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm offended. Mr. President, I attended the advisory board meeting of cable, the first televised meeting, and to my surprise, I probably should have known it but I did not know, that Warner had the option to come to this Council for their rate increase in August. That would have been resolved before the elections. But no, they chose not to do that and now they're going to come in for a rate increase and I want to know how they can afford to negotiate and buy a Pirate contract to show Pirate games, where they got the money and yet come to us for a rate increase.

Mrs. Masloff:

It's two different companies.

Michelle Madoff:

It's not two different companies. They're two divisions of the same company.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, in response to what Councilman Stone has said, I agree with what he is saying about this Council should not be prying into the books of corporations and I don't think ever in the past this Council had an interest into the prying into the books of corporation.

Incidentally, with this resolution, we are not prying into the books of corporation. The word is very clear, voluntarily, I have it included there. But I think that it is important to keep in mind that such as the U.S. Steel Building or any of the other examples that were used were not dependent upon an astronomical infusion of public funds. We are talking about a hearing which was a relatively short time ago, back in July, we're talking about a hearing that probably, as far as magnitude, was the major public policy issue that confronted the Mayor's Office and City Council for the year 1982. We are talking about an issue which has shown, I think, an acute lack of sensitivity in that here corporate powers come in, as soon as the marriage is consummated the come running in and they are going to reap profits, I think, very questionable as to did the public subsidy increase. More importantly, I go back to what I said earlier, Dan Galbreath refused to give this Council any shred of information as far as what his ball club's plans were as far as cable TV. And I think it's very naive for any of us to think that Warner and the Pittsburgh Pirates got together within three weeks after the new pact was consummated and they rushed through that twenty day period and now come up with a very complex, major, stock transaction. I venture to say that Mr. Galbreath had probably had his conversations with Warner Cable a couple years ago or shortly after they were awarded the cable contract. If he is a baseball owner worth his salt, which I think he certainly is, I think he's very shrewd financially, I'm sure that he was very seriously conveying the possibilities of cable TV, going back to what our President has said, to 1949.

The Chair:

In regards to a voluntary contribution, I will vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the resolution?

And on the question, "Shall the resolution pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff	Mr. DePasquale
	(Pres't)

AYES 4 NOES 2

(MRS. MASLOFF AND MR. STONE VOTING NO)

(MR. O'MALLEY ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the resolution was defeated.

The Chair:

I see that Mr. Doc Fielder, the astute Chairman of the 12th Ward, has been here all afternoon with the District Magistrate, Mr. Tibbs, and I think we ought to get to that resolution next.

Michelle Madoff:

I thought he was here to see us because we're so entertaining.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 2418 WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh has committed itself at a public hearing in 1982 to act in a judicious and prudent manner to assist in the design and construction of a Multi-Purpose Recreational Facility in the Twelfth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, Council has indicated its desire to designate the Twelfth Ward Multi-Purpose Center Project as a part of some future bond issue and Capital Improvement Program in 1983; and

WHEREAS, there has been demonstrated community support for this effort by the CONCERNED CITIZENS of the Twelfth Ward and others.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does encourage and request that the Mayor and Capital Budget Review Committee; as well as the Director of Finance, include, identify and specify the proposed Twelfth Ward Multi-Purpose Recreational Facility Project in the first City of Pittsburgh bond issue for 1983.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, on the word encourage, I don't think it's strong enough. I think the people of this community are due their just rights and encourage is not a good word. We're going to go out for at least a $30 million bond and it should be a priority. It should be mandatory priority before other monies are spent. And if not mandatory, certainly priority.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might respond, Mr. President, the reason the word encourage is used is that this is consistent, my posture on this Council for the last five years, trying to work in a cooperative spirit with members of Council and the Administration. I think we should always give the Administration an opportunity to respond to our request. I don't think there is any doubt in anyone's mind that the Administration has struggled with the project for some time and has forwarded to Council their honest evaluation of its present status. Certainly when the bond issue, the first bond issue for 1983 goes out, this Council has to approve it, it will not be approved without our votes. And I would hope that between now and June, which is the projected date for the next bond issue, that the Administration will take serious our commitment to the people in the 12th Ward to build that multi-purpose center. They will do everything they can on their end to make sure that when we get the documents identifying those projects for that bond issue, that the multi-purpose center in the 12th Ward is in there. If it is not in there, then I will use a stronger word and I will attempt to get stronger legislation. But I think until we have closed off all possibility that the Administration will cooperate with us, we should still try to encourage them.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, what is the earliest date that we can get some assurance from the Administration that they're going to install that recreational facility?

Mr. Robinson:

What we probably would have to do is get some clarification from the Administration relative to the memo that Mrs. Brown, our Director of Parks and Recreation, sent to us indicating that the Mayor felt that at that time he didn't think the facility could be designed or built, but that at a later date it would be re-assessed. We probably need to get some clarification from both the Mayor and Mr. Matter, Mr. Matter is the Chairperson with the Capital Budget Youth Committee, as to when they will review this matter and if they would be kind enough to review it prior to submitting any legislation for the first bond issue in 1983 so that we will be advised in advance as to what their stand is on this multi-purpose center.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, you are aware that there is a hearing scheduled February 24?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the resolution?

Bill No. 2419 WHEREAS, the severe economic conditions which exist in the United States of America are impacting unfavorably on all segments of the economy; and

WHEREAS, Government officials at all levels are earnestly attempting to find remedies; and

WHEREAS, one segment of the populace which is adversely affected is property and homeowners; and

WHEREAS, in Allegheny County Sheriff Eugene Coon and Judge Nicholas Papadakos have attempted to postpone mortgage foreclosures on homeowners; and

WHEREAS, the Federal and State Government are confronted with numerous requests for mortgage payment assistance; and

WHEREAS, at the State and Federal levels of Government legislation has been drafted to provide relief to veterans and conventional mortgage holders.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of its citizens do recognize and support the study recently concluded by Action Housing, Incorporated relative to the mortgage foreclosures and housing financing issues in our community.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council and the Mayor strongly support the Emergency Mortgage Relief Act recently introduced into the Congress of the United States of America.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I just have one other concern. I did receive a letter from Mr. Brophy, Director of our Urban Redevelopment Authority, concerning the Convention Center Hotel Project. Council had requested that Mr. Brophy forward to us confirmation that the developers could, in fact, develop the land and the hotel and that the Federal Government through the UDAG Program would help finance it. Mr. Brophy has forwarded a letter with some timetables and I would like to have a copy of this letter included in the public record.

(LETTER FROM URA - 1/24/83)

January 24, 1983

Councilman Wm. Russell Robinson
City Council
510 City-County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Councilman Robinson:

This letter is to give you an update on the status of the Grant-Liberty Hotel, as reported to the Board of the Urban Redevelopment Authority on January 20, 1983.

Three issues are to be resolved by March 31, 1983 for this hotel-office complex to proceed further.

First, staff of the URA and members of the Grant-Liberty development team are now in discussion with HUD's UDAG office in Washington concerning the nature of the security instrument to govern payback provisions of the UDAG loan to the developers.

These very technical discussions should reach a conclusive point by the end of January.

Second, assuming the issue of the security instrument is resolved favorably, Grant-Liberty will pay a $500,000 commitment application fee to Metropolitan Life Insurance so that the formal processing for the Metropolitan's debt and equity financing can be concluded.

Third, assuming Metropolitan formally commits in writing to finance the complex, the documentation to this effect will be submitted to HUD so that HUD staff can decide by March 31, 1983 as to whether the UDAG being requested will be granted.

I am hopeful that all three matters will be resolved favorably and within the timeframe described above.

If you have any questions on this status report, please do not hesitate to call me, or, in my absence, Joseph Gariti, URA General Counsel.

Sincerely,

Paul C. Brophy
Executive Director

cc: Brooks Robinson

(END - LETTER)

One other thing on this matter, if I might. We have requested that Mr. Brophy have a signed agreement by March 31, 1983 with the developers and some kind of written assurance that the UDAG funding will be forthcoming by April 10. If Mr. Brophy does not have that material for us, something in writing, I will introduce legislation to terminate the agreement between Grant-Liberty Associates and Urban Redevelopment Authority and to also terminate our agreement with Urban Redevelopment Authority to develop the specific parcel of land in question.

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm honored today to present a resolution honoring Bev Smith who, unfortunately, is not able to be here today, but I'm sure that a lot of you are aware that she is going on to greater endeavors in Miami, Florida.

This past Saturday, they had a full capacity at the Ebenezer Church honoring Bev and I had the opportunity there to present the resolution and I had predicted that it will be unanimously and enthusiastically adopted by Council. I know that Council President DePasquale and Councilman William Robinson were present at the Ebenezer Church and I'm sure that they will attest to how moving and how humane the entire afternoon was.

Mr. Flaherty presented

Bill No. 2445 WHEREAS, Ms. Beverly Sloan Smith, a life long resident of Pittsburgh, has touched so many people's lives in so many beautiful ways and has contributed to making Pittsburgh indeed someplace special; and

WHEREAS, Bev has had a distinguished and honored media career, and promoted professionalism in her field, as a Consumer Affairs Editor for five years with WPXI-TV, three years with WAMO and since 1979 has had her own show on KDKA Radio and Television; and

WHEREAS, Bev by popular acclaim has the most melodious voice in Pittsburgh media history; and

WHEREAS, she has given unselfishly of herself in the field of public service as Director of Consumer Affairs for Allegheny County and has reached out to the children of the City by designing and teaching a program for the Pittsburgh Public Schools which aided the underachiever; and

WHEREAS, she was active in charitable institutions and organizations such as the National Conference of Christians and Jews and has received numerous Public Service Awards marking her as an outstanding woman.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh extend our sincerest thanks to Bev Smith for her humane works, as we will greatly miss her vibrant personality.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Bev have continued success in her Miami endeavors and hope that she will continue to grace Pittsburgh with not too many infrequent visits.

Mr. Flaherty moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Bev Smith and I have been personal friends for many years. I had hoped that some day she would be running for City Council. I am very sad that she is leaving us. She is leaving because she needs to earn a living and she's been offered a better job. I believe she's going to Florida, it will be there gain and our loss and I hope some day she comes back and becomes a permanent resident of this City. That's a very, very special lady. I have seen Bev Smith fill up a church with people hanging from the rafters on public issues. She's probably one of the most unique women in this community.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might add a few kind words to those that Mrs. Madoff has added. I've known Bev Smith for 25 years. I had the occasion to grow up with her in this City and to share many moments with her. I am indeed pleased to move for adoption on this Resolution because I think certainly she is deserving. Unfortunately, she was unable to do the many things that she can do in our community but she has left us a great legacy of service.

At the service at Ebenezer this past Saturday, I indicated that in the first book of Corinthians, 13th Chapter which has 13 verses, that all of us are reminded that faith, hope and charity are three things that we should always be concerned about. Of course, the greatest of these is charity. I think Bev Smith gave of herself in a charitable fashion without asking for reward or any kind of recognition, and that certainly her faith in God and her faith that all things are possible if you only believe has carried her to this new height.

I think this City will miss her and hope that she will come back on many occasions to share with us again her charity.

The Chair:

I'll only add that I was there, as Mr. Flaherty said, along with Mr. Robinson and it was moving and there was a tremendous crowd there and it was a very nice affair and we're all sad to see Bev leave town.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. Perry, point of clarification. I asked you to submit this last week and you wanted to hold it for this week and it was going to be a joint bill.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. O'Malley requested that this resolution be submitted today.

Michelle Madoff:

And I requested it for last week but that's okay. As long as it's done, that's the important thing.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd like to have Officer Cianca step up here. I think everybody is familiar with Officer Cianca. He's been a Pittsburgh personality certainly for as long as I can remember and also became a national personality.

My father has been a police officer for 37 years and also just recently retired. He retired in August. He had the opportunity to work with Vic a number of years ago and he has the highest regards for him, not only as a police officer but as a man. Myself, I'm sure along with thousands of other Pittsburghers and Mrs. Madoff and all my Council colleagues, are certainly going to miss Vic when he retires.

Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 2446 WHEREAS, on January 31, 1983, Pittsburgh Police Officer Vic Cianca will retire from service as an employee of the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, Officer Cianca has served the City of Pittsburgh in an outstanding manner for 31 years; and

WHEREAS, Officer Cianca's sense of public dedication and overwhelming pride in his work has brought favorable attention unto the City of Pittsburgh and its police members.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby recognize and thank Officer (Mr.) Cianca for his 31 years of outstanding service and dedication to the City of Pittsburgh and wish him a rich and happy retirement.

Mr. O'Malley moved to approve the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. O'Malley:

Vic, would you like to say a few words?

Officer Cianca:

I want to thank the Mayor and members of Council and all the friends here. It's very sad that I'm leaving. I don't think I ever disgraced the City Administration, my uniform or myself. I can hardly realize it, but I'll realize it tomorrow when I get up and go to put my uniform on and know that I'm no longer a cop.

Michelle Madoff:

You know, something that ought to be on the record is that this is the Tuscanini of Traffic.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may, it's customary for us to honor people who do things in the City of Pittsburgh and too often we don't honor those who are members of the City of Pittsburgh such as our employees. I want to commend Councilman O'Malley for taking time to honor one of our own, one of Pittsburgh's finest, Vic Cianca. He's been with us, obviously, many years and he has brought to the City of Pittsburgh that which we all say, Pittsburgh is something special. He's brought national attention to the City of Pittsburgh by virtue of the manner in which he has conducted traffic and I don't know that anyone on those corners who have passed over these many years with him who didn't understand his directions.

Nevertheless, somehow I'm told that some of those indications were not the kind you find in books and that at one point had caused some question of whether or not he should appear on some TV program. But, as I stated earlier, that wasn't in the book but it was his way of communicating with people who he met on a daily basis, thousands upon thousands in a day.

Like the City, it's unique and so is he. And I think we in the City of Pittsburgh ought to be grateful for the uniqueness of Mr. Vic Cianca. If sometimes he deviated from the book, he did it in our best interest but I think as well he did one other thing that is probably unique and that is that I know of no man who has done it with as much love as he has done. If that's what it takes, then we need more and it's quite obvious that he feels it strongly and coming to the end of that program for him is one that he's feeling very strongly and this is about the third or fourth time that I've talked to him, but I know that he feels deeply. But let him know that from all of us in the City of Pittsburgh there will always be a warm spot for his service and dedication and that unique way of handling us as we traveled past, either walking or riding, on those street corners.

Thank you, Vic, very much.

The Chair:

On behalf of the Chair, I doubt if anybody other than the Pittsburgh Steelers has brought more fame to the City of Pittsburgh. People all over the country know Vic and obviously know his association with the City in his traffic duties.

Vic, you've certainly been a credit to this town and we're going to miss you, believe me. Thank you.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, members of Council and guests, it's a great pleasure for me today to introduce a resolution that I think represents much of what I believe in and I think much of what the City is all about and hopefully what this Country is all about.

The resolution I want to introduce today is a resolution to put this Council on record as supporting the new Equal Rights Amendment which has been introduced into the House of Representatives and into the Senate of the United States as House Bill 1 and Senate Bill 1. To my knowledge, this is the first Council across this Country that will be considering such a resolution and I do this with full recognition that this Council has always been in the forefront of the equal rights effort, we've always been in the forefront of providing opportunities to women and it would seem to me that now is a fitting time for us to let the people across this country know and let the women of the City know that this Council still stands foresquare behind them.

With us today are Ms. Phyllis Wetherby who is the President of the First Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Organization of Women, Ms. Helene Torpey who is the President of the Squirrel Hill Chapter of the National Organization of Women, Mr. David Hauser who is the Secretary of the First Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Organization of Women and Mrs. Kathleen Wilson who is the Co-President of the East End Chapter of the National Organization of Women.

If Ms. Wetherby would come forward to accept this resolution, I'd like to read it and hopefully it will be adopted and if she has a few kind words to share with us. As she comes forward, I'd like to say that for those of you who are unaware, the original Equal Rights Amendment was not passed but because of many courageous men and women it has been re-introduced into the Congress and will be acted upon again very soon. And I would encourage those of you who believe in equality and justice for all people that you would do what you can to impress upon the President, our Legislators and our Senators, the necessity of passing the Equal Rights Amendment.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 2447 WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh has by previous Resolution supported the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment; and

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh has by previous Resolution supported the extension of the time required to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress has before it House Bill 1, which calls for the enactment of the new Equal Rights Amendment.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of its citizen's does support enactment of House Bill 1 and reaffirms its commitment to equal rights for women.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council and the Mayor strongly encourage the members of Congress from Western Pennsylvania to support and work for passage of House Bill 1.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd also like to indicate that I would hope if this is passed that we would also send a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, to our U.S. Senators, to our Representatives in Congress from Western Pennsylvania, to our Governor and to our Senators and Legislators from Western Pennsylvania to let them know that Pittsburgh City Council and the City of Pittsburgh is going to be in the forefront once more to make sure that everyone in this Country has equal rights.

Mr. Given:

Bill, on this House Bill No. 1, I haven't seen a copy of that particular bill. Does that bill address that of what the Democratic platform has given for women's rights?

Mr. Robinson:

House Bill 1 is basically the same Equal Rights Amendment that's been supported by N.O.W. and it is basically the bill that is supported by the Democratic party.

Mr. Givens:

I'm going to abstain and the grounds that I'm abstaining on is the fact that I have not seen House Bill 1. I can only assume that Bill is telling me right here and some of the other actions that these particular groups reflect here are not the reflections that I have on certain of the equal rights movement for women within this country. I have to so express that right now.

So, because of that, primarily, because I've not seen House Bill No. 1, I have seen and read through and agree with the Democratic party's platform. In fact, I was at the mini-convention and voted as a delegate in that particular process. You're indicating that they're one and the same and if that's the case, fine. If not, then I'd have to refrain and that's why I'm abstaining.

Michelle Madoff:

I can't believe that anyone would not vote for equal rights for all people and I would also like to suggest that the four members representing various groups, I think I'm a member of either one or two of the groups, Squirrel Hill and the Downtown member, would you please submit to the Women's Political Caucus and work with them, names of women who are outstanding women in the community? We are honoring Pittsburgh women once a month. Last month, as you know, we honored Officer Rocco. And if you give us names — I don't want it to be Michelle Madoff's award, I don't want it to be a Women's Political Caucus award, but I'd like it to be a woman's award of all input from both women and men who care about women who are doing things in the City.

I would like to just point something out that's very important and I hope you will address it when you speak to us. It has come to the attention to the leadership of our country that there are more people who vote, who are registered voters, who are women. More registered voters who are women who vote. I know I got elected because women finally decided to support women whether they had shared their viewpoints or not, thinking even sometimes the worst woman can certainly be as good as some of the men who are serving in Council or in other offices. And I would hope that there would be a concerted effort from all the groups to try to get some more women into this Council. And there's another woman running.

Mrs. Masloff:

I am voting aye, of course, but I thought that Pennsylvania has already supported this. Hasn't Pennsylvania been supporting this?

Ms. Wetherby:

That's right, but we're back to ground zero again.

Mr. O'Malley:

I've read House Bill 1 and I certainly support equal rights for all people. I vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the resolution?

And on the question, "Shall the resolution pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone

Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 8

NOES none

(MR. GIVENS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the resolution passed finally.

Ms. Wetherby:

Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

This resolution has been before the Congress and the United States since, I think, three years after we got the vote, 1923. All I have been working for for the past twelve years is constitutional representation which comes to every man in this country when he is born.

Yes, Michelle, there are many women more qualified than men to serve in this Council. More qualified than some men. I cannot support a woman who denies women's rights. That is beyond my ability nor my ability to persuade members of the chapter that have elected me to support. We are going to support feminists. We certainly are going to support women. There is no question about that. But, given the choice, you know, Millicent Fenwick, after New Jersey NOW endorsed Lauderberg, called up and said she understood and please send her member blank. So the thing about it is that Millicent Fenwick voted for the House leadership that included Jesse Helms and she understood why she could not be endorsed. So that when there is a party as the Democratic Party did that fully supports equal rights for women and a party which denies it as the Republican Party did, in fact, we do have choice and we do make that choice. Now in Western Pennsylvania there are people in both parties. This can be non-partisan as well as non-biased on the basis of sex election this time. But it is clear to me that in all of our legislative bodies, from the City Council to the State House to the Congress, women are not represented in Pennsylvania and there is no question that there are many, many qualified women out there. There are also feminist men and we are not simply going to support women because they are women. We have also been denied by women many, many times.

But that simple resolution is what we're asking for. It's a beginning. It just means that I'm a full American if we ever get it passed. So far the State Legislatures have shamed themselves. We have not lost, the country has lost. We will eventually have full equality for all citizens of the United States.

I want you to understand, and this is why I asked my friends and my colleagues to come up with me, that I cannot accept this as being an award to me or to my chapter of the National Organization for Women. That little preposition is really important. It's an organization for women not of women. And everybody in this room can belong if they support our issues.

I want, again, to introduce Helene Torpey who has been with us in this action for about four years. She's President now of Squirrel Hill N.O.W. Kathleen Wilson has been in this almost as long as I have. In fact, in 1972 when I was shoved off to Brazil because we were getting too close, Kathleen took over as President of First Pittsburgh N.O.W. David Hauser came to us about two years ago when the countdown campaign began and he's secretary of First Pittsburgh N.O.W. Kathleen is Co-President of East End N.O.W. There are eight N.O.W. chapters in the immediate vicinity, at least four of them have a significant number of members in the City of Pittsburgh and we are certainly interested in politics. In fact, I was one of the first co-conveners of the Women's Political Caucus. But we came back to N.O.W. because, in fact, we do feel that it's important to support feminists because they are feminists. So, we do, in fact, support feminists, people who support the Equal Rights Amendment.

Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

May I suggest, with the number of members that you have, that you start monitoring this Council and other legislative bodies by just having one person each session, at every meeting, because I don't know what's going to be on our cablevision. It was my motion to cablevision on the government station what goes on here. I'm afraid that we're going to keep the gut of the meetings out of the cable so that you can't watch it in the evening. I would like very much for you to watch and I would also like to go over the records with you. They are transcripts that are available to you to show you why people here are voting yes for you today. On occasions when their vote had to be counted, they did not vote with you and I'd like to show you who they were and what the issues were.

Mr. Givens:

I would just like to add to that, if I might, that as far as equal rights for women I have no problem. But some of the organizations that are represented here today and their stand on the abortion issue, and that's one of the major issues that will come up in this equal rights movement for the women, that I stand, and I stand here today, for the rights of those unborn children. And I think that's the bottom line as to what's going to happen. When you piggy-back those types of issues —

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Givens, we're getting a little afieled. Let's not get into the abortion issue. I understand your feelings.

Mr. Givens:

I'm giving my point loud and clear. Michelle knows that when she has these people here —

Michelle Madoff:

Michelle didn't have these people here. Michelle didn't know these people were going to be here but she welcomes them here.

Mr. Givens:

She want them monitoring and I suggest that the other side will be monitoring also.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2420 Resolution providing for a contract or contracts or use of existing contracts in connection with Renovations of Various Public Buildings at a cost not to exceed $50,000.00; chargeable to and payable from Capital Project LB 83-14 (4-25-15-0001-83) Renovations of Various Public Buildings, Department of Lands and Buildings.

Also,

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Givens presented

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2439

Report of the Committee on Finance for January 26, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2310

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of William M. Mercer, Incorporated, in the amount of $4,200.00 for special actuarial services rendered in connection with the City of Pittsburgh Pension Funds."

Which was read.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm voting no on Bill 2310 which grants a warrant in favor of the William

M. Mercer, Inc. for an actuarial service that they had provided for the Treasurer's Office. I believe we have the expertise in the Treasurer's Office right now to do this and I feel that it's a waste of taxpayers' dollars once again to go out on a non-competitive consulting fee.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like my remarks on Bill 2310 to be brought forward and I disagree with Mr. Flaherty. He has to understand that the actuarials is quite an art and people have specialized training that they go into and they're forecasting what our liability will be in future years and we need the best expert advice. Our people are treasures, they're financiers but they are not in the actuarial business. I wish they were, but they are not.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS REMARKS - BILL NO. 2310 - 1/26/83)

Mr. Givens:

I just have one question, especially about the pension, and going back to last October and November when this was presented to Council and seeing that chart they gave us where by the year 1995 or something like that where some $30 million will have to come from the local treasury into supporting the pension. That is the peak period, and they gradually built up on that. If this report has anything to do with that, I would submit that each Council, that each budget pay an equal share henceforth from this year all the way until the pension plan is in a sound actuarial shape.

What we are doing here is depicted on that particular graph that was given to Council. We start off this year with about $100,000, $200,000 and work up in the year 1995 to almost $30 million, and that is today's dollars; so we would have to assume, with any normal inflation, that that could be up to $60 million, $70 million. Now, could you imagine just today if we would take $30 million out of our income what we would have to do to the people of the City of Pittsburgh? Each year this will continue to increase, but it doesn't increase in proportionate shares. I think if government is going to be truthful with the people out there, that each budget session we should give a proportionate share to reduce that down in 30 equal payments or how many payments we have to do in order to get it down to an actuarially sound pension system.

Now, is this particular piece of legislation going to address that particular issue?

Mr. Schmeiser:

No, this $4,200 isn't for that study. This is just for our labor negotiations.

Let me point out that that $30 million is not in today's dollars; it's in future dollars.

Mr. Givens:

Could you then relay my concerns to the actuarials so when they come up here next October and November and they give us $200,000 for the year 1984 and still another $30 million for 1985, I'm not going to buy it; and I would say go back and ask them to do it over again, equal payments.

Mr. Schmeiser:

That is what the other fund is for where we put in $1.3 million. We put it in every year to even that up.

Mr. Givens:

Will it be $1.3 million each year?

Mr. Schmeiser:

That is what we are hoping, or increase it.

(END - MR. GIVENS REMARKS - BILL NO. 2310 - 1/26/83)

Michelle Madoff:

I am voting no on Bill 2310 and since this last meeting was not televised, I think while Mr. Givens' comments will be brought forward, I'd like to explain why I am not voting for $4,200 expenditures for an actuarial report.

Number one, they're available almost gratis from almost every insurance company. Once we've done one and we do deem it necessary to pay for one, it is a matter of updating it each year, just how many people have left by attrition or how many people are being hired. And I think this is just a plum for somebody and I think this goes back to the issue, not only of my bill, Mr. Robinson, my voting no on 2310, but on your bill, sir, of 2411. This Council has monies available to it, I think it's $50,000

The Chair:

Michelle, what you said Wednesday is a matter for the record. You're getting off the field. Are you voting aye or no?

Michelle Madoff:

I am addressing the bill. I may speak on the bill, according to Robert's Rules, for five minutes twice. Robert's Rules. I have not used up ten minutes, I have not even used up five minutes. And if you didn't interrupt me I'd be through sooner.

We have a fund set aside for hiring advisors in the form of supposedly attorneys. And as Mr. Flaherty said, one attorney's opinion can be as valid as another or as any member of this Council. But in order for someone to get that advice, it used to be that you could go to the President of Council, as I have in the past, and say, "Mr. DePasquale, may I hire someone to address an issue?", and generally he will say yes. Now it appears we have to get five votes from members of Council. The chances of my getting five votes out of this Council, unless it's an issue for the public and it isn't going to put this Council in a bad light, is about as much chance as we're going to have seventy-five degree weather today.

And that gets back to the issue on both of these bills - that this Council is the legislative body. We're the same as the Congress or we're the same as the House in Harrisburg. And we do not, we do not, have a fiscal advisor. We do not have anybody to advise us whether that $4,200 could have been saved or whether it was necessary. We don't know whether we're going to be looking at some rate increases for Warner, whether we are equipped to make rate structure opinions. And I think that until we get a fiscal advisor for this Council, the public is being cheated.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to make one comment on Mr. Flaherty's statement that a positive vote on 2310 for William M. Mercer would be a waste of taxpayers' money. I disagree with that because Ron Schmeiser, our City Treasurer, was up here Wednesday to inform this Council that the people on his staff either had the expertise, the qualifications, or were capable of doing this actuarial service. There's no dispute on this Council with Mr. Schmeiser's qualification or his honesty. He said that a mistake in the calculations of our union contracts and our fringe benefits could cost this City hundreds of thousands of dollars and one or two percentage point.

I'd just like to state the I don't feel that it's a waste of taxpayers' money and on Mr. Schmeiser's recommendation, I vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 6 NOES 3

(MR. FLAHERTY, MICHELLE MADOFF
AND MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2336

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Jack W. Shearer Equipment, 1962 Ohio Street, Johnstown, PA 15904, in the amount of $1,983.41 in payment for repair of a Back-Hoe Loader furnished for the benefit of the City and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2342

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring $218,000.00 from the Department of Parks and Recreation's Code Account 1843, Senior Citizens Program to the Department of Parks and Recreation's Senior Citizen Program Trust Fund."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2411

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Director of Finance and the City Treasurer to work with the ACTION Mortgage Delinquency Task Force plan to prevent unemployed home owners from losing their homes in the City of Pittsburgh through Treasurer's Sale."

Which was read.

Mr. Stone:

I'd like to amend this bill and add the following paragraph:

"Furthermore, the Director of the Department of Finance shall submit to Council timely reports concerning properties that were removed from the Treasurer's Sale."

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on Bill 2411, at our last Wednesday session, it was suggested that a member of Council serve on a review panel and the Chair was given my name as a recommendation. The issue came up as to whether or not it would be appropriate for a member of Council to serve on that review panel and our Solicitor was supposed to provide us with some information before we took a final vote today. I was wondering if the Clerk or the President has that information.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I'm reading from a letter January 31, which was just handed to me earlier. It says in the last paragraph of page one, "in so far as whether it is legal to direct Councilmembers to serve on this panel, Section 201 of the Home Rule Charter vests all administrative powers in the Mayor and heads of units of government. It would be illegal as an infringement on the Mayor's administrative power to place a Councilmember on an executive panel. Under the Home Rule Charter Council's expression of a policy is for administrative officials to execute."

The Chair:

Did that come this morning? Because I didn't get a chance to open my mail yet.

Mr. Stone:

I just got this today so it's the first time I saw it.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'm going to make my usual speech and I might add some to it. My usual speech is that I don't think that there's any inconsistency between this Council establishing legislation and identifying those persons who should carry it out, in this instance, as in any other instance, and if Mr. Pellegrini's opinion is not to the point. The point is not whether this Council should direct a member of Council to serve. The issue is whether or not this Council feels that there should be a member of Council on that panel. Again, it appears that this is an issue that the Administration feels can only be resolved in the Courts. I just think this is a convenience that is used any time this Council attempts to exercise its power that we get an opinion from the Solicitor indicating that we're infringing upon the Mayor's rights. I think if this Council is going to be bold enough, and I certainly commend you for being bold, if we're going to be bold enough to interject ourselves into the Treasurer's Sale process to disrupt the normal acquisition of sale of delinquent properties, that it certainly is fitting that a member of Council be on that particular panel. It was this Council, through your initiative, Mr. President, that established this procedure, recommended Council Bill 2411, not the Administration. It was you, Mr. President, who determined the persons who should serve on that Committee. Not the Administration. And I would dare say that we are well within our legal rights to have a member of Council serve on this Committee as we have had members of Council in the past, at our direction, serve on committees. And I would suggest that if in this instance we back away from this responsibility that we immediately call the Solicitor, establish a meeting to go over previous legislation that we have approved, where members of Council have been designated to serve, and find out if, in fact, we are operating in a legal fashion.

I would hope that if it's Council's desire to have a member of this body serve on that Committee that we do that and that we vote for that and that we not shrink away from our responsibilities based on the notion that we're infringing upon the prerogatives of the Administration.

One last comment. It's my understanding that it's the prerogative of the Administration to conduct the Treasurer's Sales. It's my understanding it's the prerogative of the Administration to take properties that are tax delinquent and dispose them in accordance with the law. Mr. President, we are interjecting ourselves into a process that is clearly the purview of the Administration. If we're going to go halfway in, let's go all the way in and make sure that our intent is carried out. I would hope that your intent, in part, was to make sure that those persons who, through no fault of their own, have lost their jobs and perhaps might lose their homes, could be protected by this Council at least in part. And I would think that the public is under the impression that this Council is taking that bold move, that this Council has determined that it's very important to this City that we do this. I would encourage the members of this Council to study very carefully the decision of the Solicitor.

One last comment. If Council is unready to take this bold move, then I would suggest that the bill be referred back to Committee and if we have some opportunity to sit down with the Mayor, sit down with the City Solicitor, and hash out this matter because it would appear that over the last two weeks we have gotten a number of communications from the Administration which have suggested that we're walking on the Mayor's executive prerogatives. If there is a legal question, rather than go to court, why don't we sit down as reasonable men and women and try to work it out?

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may, I can't agree with you more heartily, but I have to backtrack just a bit. It was this Council that made the first move, took the first initiative in regard to a moratorium on mortgages. It was just a resolution. The Chair followed up and also the courts did in the person of Judge Papadakos. Then it was Council's intention that those in the City who would come under the delinquent tax section where they had to either pay the taxes or lose their homes in some sort of auction, that they would be deleted from the present sales or the future sales coming this spring and the ones thereafter until employment was secured and the economy improved.

As far as a member of Council serving on that board, I think I'd like to see it happen. But I wouldn't want to see this bill held up if a member of Council isn't on that board. If you're talking about us working something out in the meantime, I see no problem with it whatsoever. And I see no problem whatsoever with a Councilmember serving on that board. In fact, I think somebody should be on there. But their interpretation saying no, it can't be, I wouldn't want that to hold the bill up.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think that Mr. Robinson was very eloquent and I think that your comments are very cogent and right to the point. But if indeed, as you say, we don't want to hold this bill up even though we can sit down as responsible members of the Administration and of the legislative body and in good faith work together instead of working against each other, this should never have happened. We should never be in this position. Because, if indeed, if indeed the Mayor feels that we're stepping on his prerogative toes, why wouldn't he in good faith say, or the Administration in good faith say, "We welcome a member of Council and who do you wish to appoint?"

It seems to me I asked you, Mr. Robinson, last week if you were willing to serve and you said if it was possible and acceptable to Council that you indeed were willing to serve and Council supported that. Now, I can't imagine why the Mayor or the Administration would say they did not want somebody who's worked as hard on these issues as Bill Robinson to get the input of his knowledge and his expertise not to serve. And I am going to stick to my guns and I want Mr. Robinson on that committee.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I whole-heartedly agree with what Councilwoman Michelle Madoff has said, but more importantly, with Councilman Robinson. I believe that it is time once again that Council show some bold initiative in regard to asserting ourself as the legislative body in the City. And I think it's crucial if we are going to have effective checks and balances that a member of City Council certainly reside on the committee. It's important to keep in mind that there isn't going to be a Treasurer's Sale for a couple more months. In fact, right in the body of the bill it refers to the Spring Treasurer's Sale.

The Chair:

I believe it's in June, actually.

Mr. Flaherty:

Right, June. So, we are not talking of time being of great essence in regard to this issue and I would think that it certainly is a very pressing problem and I would think that if there is a delay that it would only be a week or shortly thereafter. It's very important to keep in mind that the bill is broad in concept. We had our City Treasurer, Ron Schmeiser, speak in last Wednesday's Committee Meeting in which he said that as far as the criteria or the guidelines that are going to be utilized to weigh each plea or each home-owners' case in regard to mortgage foreclosures, that that has not even been established yet. It says so right in the furthermore that it's going to be up to the Committee to establish and review the conditions and circumstances of those owner-occupies homes. I think it's essential that since this Council, since you, Mr. President, were the initiator of this very important bill and that it wasn't the Mayor's Office, I think it's important that this Council guarantee that the bill indeed have teeth in it and that it is just not a puff-piece. We're dealing with people's lives here, with their homes and I think it's imperative that Council certainly exert every safeguard that we have and the best check, the best safeguard is to have one of our own sit on that commission.

The Chair:

Bill, do you want to make a motion to recommit until we resolve this?

Michelle Madoff:

But only for a week, Bill. No longer.

Mr. Robinson moved to recommit Bill No. 2411.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

I hear a lot going back and forth and, unfortunately, none of it addresses the issue. Number one, we're talking about whether or not we're going to pass this action and I think the sooner the Treasurer gets it the more he can begin working without letting these people be traumatically affected between now and the spring. The second one is that the Mayor is not involved and to attack the Mayor for what the Solicitor wrote is totally unfair. And really, as I said earlier, it doesn't address the issue.

As I stated earlier, I just got this letter, but as I read it, the issue and since we've been very strong about demanding our rights under the Home Rule Charter, it appears to me that the Solicitor is doing nothing more than demanding the rights for the Administration in this bill. And all he is saying is that this Council can't direct that a Councilmember serve on that panel. He has not said the other issue, can a Councilman serve.

So, in view of that, it would appear to me that we ought to pass the bill and at that point send a letter to the Mayor asking if he would appoint someone from Council or specifically appoint Mr. Robinson who has indicated his desire to serve. And we won't have the hangup of who's rights are being infringed under the Home Rule Charter. That's the issue the Solicitor has addressed. And the only issue. He hasn't said he can't serve, he just said that we can't direct that he serve.

The Chair:

I didn't read the letter except what you said, but I gather from what you read, Bob, that he also was saying that a Councilperson could not serve on the Board. You're saying that he's saying that Council can't direct a person.

Mr. Stone:

No. Council can't make the Mayor put one on. In their legislation is what he's saying. But can the Mayor appoint, and he doesn't answer that issue. It would appear to me that's the issue he's addressing. It's a matter of jurisdiction only. We shouldn't go into that Constitutional issue as a hangup. This particular piece of legislation is too important for these people at this time. We ought to try somehow to get something done with it.

The Chair:

Vince, could you address yourself to what Councilman Stone said, that as far as a lot of us are concerned that Danny is saying that Council can't direct a member to serve, he's saying he isn't expressly saying that a Councilmember can't serve on it?

Parliamentarian:

I think the proper one to explain the letter is the Solicitor. I would think that is his problem.

Michelle Madoff:

Most of his letters are in double-speak.

The Chair:

Why don't we get Danny over here to clarify that?

Mr. Robinson:

If I just might, I'd like to respond to Councilman Stone's comments. First of all, I don't think the issue that he set is the issue. I think that the record from last Wednesday will show that we did not ask the Solicitor to determine that this Council could direct a member of Council to serve. I will stand by the record. I would hope that Mr. Stone is incorrect because I'm sure he would clarify his position. I believe he's incorrect and I believe the record will reflect that what we requested was from the Solicitor to determine if indeed a member of Council could serve. Again, it seems to me that the Solicitor, in serving the best interest of the City, would address that question, both questions, knowing that our intent was to determine if a member of Council could serve, whether the Mayor appoints that person or whether someone on this end of Council appoints him. I still think that that was the question that we asked. It's unfortunate that the Solicitor, perhaps, didn't understand what we were asking.

Also, it seems to me that if we're going to be following some rules and procedures, that it would have been wise for the Chair or the City Clerk to address the issue of the Solicitor's letter as soon as possible during this session. Mr. Stone indicated that he just got the letter, I have never seen it and I believe other members of this Council have never seen it. It's rather obvious we were supposed to have the letter before we took action. That's all I'll say on that point.

The Chair:

The letter was apparently delivered this morning. I didn't open my mail.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. The last point I want to make, and I realize that we're running into a time question. In 1980, when, Mr. President, you appointed me Chairman of Planning, Housing and Development, there was certain committees on which I was supposed to sit because I was a member of this Council. I hope these comments don't embarrass anybody, but this shows you the seriousness of this question that I have raised about this issue of prerogatives.

I was supposed to serve on the Vacant Property Review Committee because I was Chairman of Planning, Housing and Development. Mr. Givens, who was the previous Chairman, served on that Committee until such time that he was no longer the Chairman of Planning, Housing and Development. I was denied my opportunity to serve on that Committee by way of a letter of a Director of a Department in this City who indicated to me that I was an ex-officio member of that Committee. I immediately raised this issue with two of my colleagues who were in a position to address it and do something about it. They did nothing. I only bring this up now to suggest to you that this problem is a little more serious than some people want to believe. I then went to the Mayor of this City, Richard Caliguiri, and explained to him what I perceived to be an unfortunate situation. And only after I said to the Mayor of this City that I will not introduce any more legislation into Planning, Housing and Development did the Mayor of this City and the Director in question finally decide that I was entitled to serve on that Committee. It was rather obvious to me that the law said I was supposed to serve. I got a copy of the law and I shared that with the appropriate people. The Mayor swore me in five minutes after I made my phone call.

That's why I'm so concerned, members of Council, because this is not an isolated situation. If we're going to play the game, let's play it fairly and squarely and by the rules. And when members of Council are denied their Constitutional rights to serve, to participate, I don't think anyone can stand up and defend that. Every word I said I can document and at the appropriate time I'll give the names, the dates and the places. I think it was an outrage and a disgrace that a member of Council had to suffer under that after going to the appropriate people on this Council and asking them to resolve it in their professional capacity. I have a lot of questions about this bill, Mr. Stone, and I have a lot of questions about members of Council having their prerogatives denied them because someone doesn't like them.

Mr. Stone:

Bill, hold on. Let me clear the air. I've just been handed a legal opinion here and I'm only trying to say it as I see it. I'm not favoring anybody, I'm just saying that I don't think we have the issue that has been expressed here. The question of whether someone can serve is not answered here. I don't know whether he got the right question or he didn't. All I'm taking is that the City Solicitor says that we can't set it up and we can't say that a Councilperson must be on it. He does not answer the second question. That has no personality involved. That's only what I'm reading from a sheet of paper that was handed to me only because we requested that reports be given and that the end of it carries the amendment that was necessary today. That's all I'm saying.

Mr. Flaherty:

I believe that the issue is starting to become the City Solicitor's Office. Councilman Stone refers to an opinion from the City Solicitor's Office. We can talk about the theories of the City Charter and the philosophies, but let's talk about the real world. The real world is that the City Solicitor serves and is appointed and continues as long as he may continue at the behest of the Mayor's Office. The real point is that the City Solicitor consistently supports the Mayor's Office. The real world is that the City Solicitor consistently supports the Mayor's Office when it is in direct contact with this City Council. And the real point is that this City Council better stop being rubber stamps and errand boys for the Mayor's Office. Nobody is speaking against the Mayor's Office in regard to the issue of mortgage foreclosure. But I think that the Mayor's Office can speak for itself and I think the City Solicitor can speak for itself and in the real world the City Solicitor, often times, does speak for the Mayor. And in the real world the City Solicitor's opinion is just an opinion as good as anyone's opinion on this Council because we are elected by the people and the City Solicitor isn't. It's about time that the real issue is, are we going to be an errand boy for the Mayor, are we going to be a rubber stamp, or are we going to start to think for ourselves? I think this is an issue we should start to think for ourselves and show we have some guts and maybe play a little hardball with the Mayor's Office.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I move that we hold this for a few minutes to get Mr. Pellegrini here?

The Chair:

I suggested that earlier but we had a couple more speakers. Somebody get Mr. Pellegrini.

Mr. Flaherty:

Could we all have a copy of the opinion, too? It seems there's only a couple members of Council that have this opinion.

The Chair:

The question has been raised here in regards to whether a Councilmember could serve on the panel in regards to delinquent taxes. There's some sort of consternation in regards to some misinterpretation. Mr. Robinson seems to feel that you're saying that no Councilmember can serve on that panel and Mr. Stone is saying that your answer was that no Councilmember could be directed by Council to serve on that panel.

What we're asking, we know what you said in regards to appointing a Councilmember, but can a Councilmember sit on that panel?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I don't think anyone would have any objection if all the Councilmembers would want to show up at the panel. I don't envision this as a formal voting panel. I think the ultimate decision will lie in the Director —

The Chair:

Dan, I don't want to interrupt you, but I think what we're asking, very simply, can a Councilmember legally serve on that panel?

Mr. Pellegrini:

If the Mayor would like to have a Councilmember sit in, there's no difficulty in doing that.

Michelle Madoff:

And if he doesn't want one?

Mr. O'Malley:

He answered the question, Michelle. That's the end of it.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to know if the Mayor doesn't want a Councilmember that we've all decided we'd like to have serve, that's Mr. Bill Robinson.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think everyone has to realize the different rules. Under the Home Rule Charter, the Administrative powers are vested in the Mayor under Section 201. Council has the legislative powers and by taking this action, what Council is doing is asking the Administrative branch to set up a procedure to carry out their will. By enacting this resolution today you're saying to the Administration we do not want owner occupied properties sold at Treasurer's Sale. It's up to the Administration to carry out your will. Your participation was in the passage of this legislation. With the timely reports section that was included in the bill by amendment, Council can then monitor the actions of that panel and take remedial action through legislation that's necessary. That's how, under the Home Rule Charter, that this City operates.

Michelle Madoff:

Dan, how many people sit on various boards and commissions that are members of City Council?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Under the Home Rule Charter, it mandates that on authorities that members of City Council sit, there is no other authorization under the Home Rule Charter for Councilmembers to sit on any other board and commission.

Michelle Madoff:

Maybe we ought to open up the Home Rule Charter. How does one go about doing that?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think you should ask Councilman Flaherty.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that's a smart-ass remark. It's unnecessary. I would like the answer to the question. It's a very serious question.

Mr. Flaherty:

Through referendum. That's the only way you can change it.

The Chair:

Does everybody understand Mr. Pellegrini's explanation?

Mr. Robinson:

No.

The Chair:

I understood it to say that a Councilmember could serve on that panel if the Mayor appointed him.

Michelle Madoff:

How do we open up the referendum to change it? Obviously, when this was drawn we didn't know the problems we would get into, the discrimination that we would get into, where the Administration would say I don't want certain people on committees. I'm not an authority. I'm too dangerous. I've never been appointed to anything in four and a half years because I might investigate whatever I'm on.

The Chair:

Let's stay on Mr. Robinson's question. Mr. Robinson, do you care on what was said?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, if I might. Dan, let me clear up a couple procedural things because perhaps this is where some of the confusion is coming in. It was my understanding that the City Clerk sent a communique to you, probably last Wednesday or Thursday, asking the question about Bill 2411, and that that question was whether or not it was appropriate for a member of Council to serve on the committee that was identified in 2411. I didn't see the communique.

Mr. Pellegrini:

To serve on this panel, and if so, you are requested to include this provision in the amendment. What I understood that to mean was whether or not you added an amendment to the bill requiring a member of City Council to sit on the commission or the panel.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, let me just refer to the bill itself. I don't know if you have it in front of you, but it says at the very end, the bill identifies the persons to serve. I would assume the author of the bill, in cooperation with the Solicitor's Department, put this together. I perceive that to mean that those persons will serve, that they don't have any choice, that they will serve. I would assume that the member of Council who suggested the inclusion of someone, and that was Mrs. Madoff, was suggesting that in light of the last paragraph which simply identifies now. If identifies means to direct and I would assume that's what she wanted to do, and if there was nothing inconsistent as I understood it, and the question was raised to see if a member of Council could serve, whether they were appointed by the Mayor, by yourself, or whomever, that was my understanding of the charge that you were given and that's what I read from that letter. Your opinion indicates that it's illegal for us to direct that someone — we've already directed, Dan, four people right here. That's the first thing.

The second thing relates to the powers. Is it your understanding that this committee would have the power, the power, to stop the Treasurer's Sale of a house that was delinquent in taxes and met all the regulations and rules to be taken and sold by the Treasurer of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Let me answer the second question first. What the bill does, it authorizes the City Treasurer and the Director of Finance and the City Solicitor, ultimately it would be up to the Director of Finance because he's the one under the Treasurer's Sale Act of 1947 that has to place the properties at risk and the other two members on the Board would serve in an advisory capacity to him. So, it's really one person making the decision. It would authorize him to take out of the sale owner occupied property and consider that as a factor. Otherwise, he would only be authorized to use the normal criteria for inclusion or exclusion in the sale. And this authorizes him to take it out.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, on another point. If indeed the persons who are identified in this last paragraph, other than the Director of Finance, are serving in an advisory capacity, wouldn't it be more appropriate for Council to have established an advisory committee or the Mayor to establish an advisory committee or the Director of Finance to establish an advisory committee? The reason I asked that question is that it seems to me that this bill gives the impression that this committee is indeed going to be legally empowered to stop Treasurer's Sales. From what you said to me, the only person in the City of Pittsburgh who's authorized to stop it or to start it would be our Director of Finance. I'd just like to hold that point for a minute because I'd like an answer to that question.

The second thing is, did it dawn on you or your office, when you put this bill together, that it might be in violation of state law?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I didn't put this bill together.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, well I assume, I assume someone in the Solicitor's Office looked at this before it got this far because I have a serious question from what he said and your opinion as to whether or not legally, under state law and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we can divide any mechanism to circumvent the legal taking and sale of property. In effect, what we're doing is exonerating taxes which is obviously illegal.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Treasurer's Sale Act provides a method for the selling of property. What we are devising is a method of excluding property from that process. No taxes will be exonerated as a result of this bill. All they will do is, the property will not be taken, taxes will continue to accumulate on the property until the person is better able to pay those taxes. But it does not exonerate any properties from taxes.

Mr. Robinson:

Then how come the Mayor or the Director of Finance, on their own, either the Mayor or the Director of Finance or a combination, simply have said, "Look, anybody who has lost their job without any fault of their own, due to the recession or depression, we are going to exempt you properties from Treasurer's Sale." Why is it necessary for us to create a piece of legislation which gives, I think, a false impression, or let's say a misleading impression? The power is already there to do exactly what this bill is calling for. Why do we have this bill and how come the Solicitor's Office didn't flag this down?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Well, number one, what the Treasurer's Office is doing and this bill is doing, is giving the Treasurer authorization to exclude property from taxes. In a way, it acts as a protection for him to allow taxes to accumulate. Without the bill, the Treasurer could be criticized for excluding properties from the sale where other properties owing the same amount of taxes are included.

Mr. Robinson:

Then explain this to me. And I'm asking you to explain this with full knowledge that you did not put this together. I'm trying to get some legal clarification here. If indeed the Finance Director and the Treasurer are protecting themselves, this process is somehow designed to protect them, would you please tell me what is the role of the Director of Planning and why does he need to be protected? How does the Director of Planning fit into all this?

Mr. Pellegrini:

My understanding is that the Director of Planning is just an additional person to give additional input. Why he's on there, you know, you could have another person on there, but you need other people to exercise and give advice to the Director of Finance.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd just like to close by saying that my previous remarks stand and at this point seem to me that what we have in Council Bill 2411 is a bill that one, is perhaps illegal, a violation of state law. Two, I think it is a bill that gives the impression that there are people in this City who have the power to stop Treasurer's Sales, who, in fact, have no legal power to do that. And three, at best, this Committee is going to be advisory and the only person who can stop the sale is the Director of Finance, and if that is the case, I think the Director of Finance ought to be directed by this Council or the Mayor to do that if we think that's in the best interest of the City, and not create another layer of bureaucracy to carry out a task that is obviously already assigned.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'd just like to point out two things. I disagree as to your interpretation on points one and two, that's it's illegal under state act and that it's not necessary. I think we have to ultimately realize that the purpose of this bill was to exclude properties from Treasurer's Sale of those people who are unemployed and are now unable to make their payments. I think the bill also directs that the Director of Finance provide criteria for excluding properties for sale which will be submitted to Council. It provides a mechanism for that event to occur. The court established a similar mechanism for the Sheriff's Sale. While everyone is talking about who has the authority, the Mayor or Council, I think this bill performs a laudatory purpose and the way it's drafted will carry out the purpose that Council intended it to.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask a question, Mr. President? Would you meet with the Mayor and ask him whether he would have any objections, since it's his prerogative or purview, according to your legal opinion, at the will of Council to have Councilman Robinson to serve on that committee? And report back.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'd be very happy to meet with the Mayor.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, would you be willing to hold for one week until we get that answer?

Mr. Robinson:

I already made that motion.

Michelle Madoff:

And I seconded it.

Mr. Flaherty:

In reviewing this bill, what is the name of this panel or this committee or this board or this commission?

Mr. Pellegrini:

There's no name in the bill.

Mr. Flaherty:

Exactly. There's no name and I scrutinize this bill very carefully and there's no language which formulates a commission or board or panel. Maybe the bill was just drafted sloppily, but this is what we have to deal with now. So, how can there be, you've used the word panel, you've used the word board, commission, what do we actually have in front of us? A board or a commission or a panel?

Mr. Pellegrini:

What you really have is an executive panel. It's not a board or commission in the sense that we have as denominated in the Charter. Boards and commissions, under the Charter, would have the members appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by Council. What we have here is an executive panel that would make those determinations.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay, now, is the Action Mortgage Delinquency Task Force, are they going to have input into this too?

Mr. Pellegrini:

As I recall, that was in the first section of the bill and that asks that the Director of Finance and the City Treasurer work with Action Housing who has a program underway to assist those individuals whose homes are going to be foreclosed.

Mr. Flaherty:

But are they going to have input into establishing the criteria as to what homes are going to fall in this special category?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'm sure the Director of Finance will consult with them.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, it seems to me that it's very amorphous as to who's going to have input into the Commission and it's conceivable, I don't even know who sits on the Action Mortgage Delinquency Task Force. And I don't know how many individuals are on there but it seems that perhaps if they have six or seven individuals then those six or seven individuals conceivably could also sit down with the Director of Finance, the City Treasurer, Solicitor and Director of Planning, to establish some criteria.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right. And the Director of Finance could adopt those criteria.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, the point I'm making is that I don't think we have a committee or we don't have a panel or board or a commission. It's sort of just like an ad hoc group of sorts. And it's certainly not clearly defined in the legislation and, in all respect to you, I don't think your opinion clearly defines it either.

It seems to me that the bottom line is going to be given to the Treasurer. The second page of the bill says that if the property owner falls in this class, a special category property be established by the Treasurer. So actually, we're not circumventing the Treasurer. The final say on it is going to be the Treasurer as to if the recommendations of this ad hoc group are accepted at all.

So, I think it certainly puts a lot of holes in the basket of water that is made in the opinion.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Just because it doesn't have a name doesn't mean it isn't a panel. What it does is, it formalizes and sets up a method by which owner occupied houses can be excluded from the sale. And I think we have to realize with all the talk about who can serve and who can't serve that the ultimate purpose of bill is to ensure that these homes aren't sold.

Mr. Flaherty:

Do all other boards and commissions have a name to them?

Mr. Pellegrini:

All the formal boards and commissions do have a name. If you want to put a name in, it would be very easy. Call it the Owner Occupied Treasurer's Sale Board or Panel.

Mr. Flaherty:

The point I'm making is that I don't think the bill formulates an official board or commission and since it does not formulate a board or commission, then it is not under the jurisdiction of what governs the formulation or the make-up of a board or commission.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right. As I stated before, boards and commissions have a specific meaning under the Home Rule Charter. And I cannot call this a board or commission because the Home Rule Charter states that those boards appointed by the Mayor, where individuals are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by Council, is to nominate a board or commission.

The Chair:

Point of order, Mr. Flaherty. I think the bill is rather explicit. You were asked one question, Mr. Solicitor, and I think you answered that question. Whether you answered it properly for certain peoples benefit or not is beside the point.

We now have a recommittal bill and we have a second. Under discussion did you care to talk to the amendment, Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I think you were the draftee of this particular bill. The intent is there. I think some people are talking about schematics and the bill itself, if they want to be amended or have to be amended we can do that. But I think the purpose of the bill is for the Director of Finance and our City Treasurer to get with Action Mortgage Delinquency Task Force to plan to prevent unemployed home owners from losing their homes in the City of Pittsburgh through a Treasurer's Sale. That is the intent and with that I call for the vote.

The Chair:

Tragically, it became a political football. I'm sorry about that.

Now can we have a roll call vote to recommit 2411?

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote to recommit and I think I have made my arguments very clear, but I just would want to add to those previous arguments that the semantics and the language of legislation is extremely crucial. Anyone who has any experience in dealing in a legislative body knows that a may and a will, for example, can change the entire meaning of a bill. And since this is such a crucial issue, I think it is even more so important that the semantics, that the wording of this bill be very concise. Because if it isn't, that is what often times opens up the loopholes, the legal arguments, not to carry out the intent of the bill. And probably one of the biggest faults Congress and State Legislature and certainly this City Council is that they just tend to brush off the language in a bill and just have a very cavalier attitude as to what the bill is saying.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no and I'd like to so indicate that I think we have to get this thing out front. Even though June is here, there are problems that still must be worked out in formulating this particular task force. Guidelines must be enacted and we must give the Administration time to do that and that we're legal in everything that we do.

The fact that our Legal Department has been criticized for having opinions that favor that of the Mayor, it's interesting to note that in this particular bill that our Department of Law so indicates that there are no legal impediment to the enactment of this bill. For that reason I want this bill to be passed today.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote yes that we recommit with the understanding clearly that Mr. Dan Pellegrini has given his word that he will speak to the Mayor, hopefully today, if he's in town, and recommend at the will of Council that Mr. Robinson serve on that committee. And let's get on with it and not delay it any further. We can delay it no later than Monday.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote no and I'd just like to add that I think this bill goes a long way to giving relief to many of the unemployed people in the City of Pittsburgh and the past half hour discussion of whether a member of this Council sits on this board is not addressing the problem. I think it's insignificant whether one of us sits on that panel or not because I believe that the Administration is certainly an honest Administration and I think what we should address is the problems of the unemployed and what we can do to help them. I vote no for recommitment. I'd like to see the bill come up on the floor for a vote.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote yes and I'd just like to say that it's utterly amazing that this Council can just brush aside legal ramifications and implications of the bill. Notwithstanding whether a member of this Council serves or does not serve, but the fact that we can brush aside the fact that we are perpetrating a fraud, a political fraud in the people of the City of Pittsburgh. If there were members on this Council who honestly believe that this bill was sound and if they were well on solid footing not to have a member of Council involved, they could have addressed that question Wednesday. Every member of this Council who was at the session Wednesday agreed to have the Solicitor check it out. Again, check the record and you'll see what it was that the Solicitor was asked to address. It wasn't what Mr. Pellegrini addressed. I just think it's ironic that in our haste to try to score some political points with unemployed steelworkers and others in this City that we're willing to perpetrate a political fraud on them. We're trying to make them believe that we're going to give them something they don't already have. It's rather obvious that the Finance Director and the Treasurer have the power to do exactly what it is this legislation is requesting to do.

I thought initially that this legislation made a lot of good sense. I thought it was a fine example of this Council standing up and trying to help those who couldn't help themselves. I didn't ask to serve on that panel. I said I would serve if it was legal and it was proper and I certainly would not serve without the approval of the sponsor of the bill or the President of this Council. I believe we ought to respect the rules. To move forward on this bill simply because we want to help some people, I think we not only endanger the total process of our own rules that we seem to violate regularly, but I think we also bring in the question whether or not we are acting in the best interest of other home owners who also find themselves tax delinquent for reasons equally as good as the recession, equally as good as Reaganomics, equally as good as they have lost their job due to no fault of their own. I don't know of any outstanding citizen in this City who owns property who has property taxes who doesn't try to pay them if they can. Where they don't pay them and where they make no valid attempt and where they do not respond to the calls of the Treasurer to come in and work something out, we exercise our powers under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to take those properties and turn them over to somebody who can pay the taxes, someone who can do something productive.

I am particularly concerned that now that all the issues are coming out on the floor, there seems to be a mad rush to pass this bill, that we're not even willing to stop and think for one short week the overall implications. I would hate to think that there's some home owner out there who is not unemployed, or who is not a steelworker, but has a valid concern that they can't pay their taxes, who will find that they're not going to get this kind of advantage simply because we're unwilling, unwilling, to make sure that we're proceeding in a legal fashion and also proceeding in a fashion that is consistent with every procedure that this Council approved two years ago when we re-organized. Mr. President, I say it again and again, we violate the rules of Council each and every day for our own personal convenience, and you, Mr. President, are responsible for making sure that those rules are obeyed. And I request that the Chair make sure the rules are obeyed by every member of this Council. I vote yes to recommit.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Robinson, in regards to the delinquent taxes, I think it was stressed more than once by the Solicitor and we're not saying these people don't have to pay those taxes, we're giving them some sort of amnesty or some time. I want to make that point clear. All people in the City of Pittsburgh have to pay their taxes eventually.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, the problem is imminent. The people that are entitled to assistance now and not an hour of debate, not another week of delay. They need it now and we ought to be giving them it now. I don't think it ought to be delayed, they ought to get our vote and our confidence today. My vote is no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommittal?

And on the question, "Shall the

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. Flaherty Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

I'm going to support the bill. I don't have any great confidence in the bill, though, and I have to agree with what Councilman Robinson says. This,

I will vote aye. I have utmost faith in Mr. Dan Pellegrini's integrity that within one week, having given me his word or I will trip him when we go to the garage, and slash his tires, he will have an answer that will be a favorable answer saying, "Yes, indeed, we welcome

Mr. Robinson to serve with the Mayor so Council and the Administration can work as one."

Mr. O'Malley:

Just for the record, I'd like to say that I disagree with everything my colleague, Councilman Flaherty just said. And I think that the bill goes a long way to giving help and relief to the people who really need it, and I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, in the interest of my personal integrity and since my name has been bantered back and forth, and I assume I will see it and hear it again, I would like some documentation of my position on the bill, having already commented on the other issues.

It's rather obvious to me that the Treasurer and our Finance Director have been acting in a responsive fashion where persons in this City have been delinquent on their taxes. And I certainly would like to commend them. I think the record will reflect that the last Treasurer Sale, when a number of people panicked because they received notices that their property was going to be sold, that Mr. Schmeiser and Mr. Jacoby and everyone on their staff, Mrs. Goldberg and others, bent over backwards to try to work out a reasonable payment schedule for anyone who sincerely want to pay their taxes. Only in those instances where people had just refused to pay, refused to make any attempt, did they move to sell their properties and even after that, everyone here knows that you still have six months to redeem your property. So, I want the record to reflect that I was part of that process. I was one of many Councilmembers who attempted to help people in this City who were sincerely frightened, mainly the elderly, who were sincerely frightened that the property would be sold out from under them. I believe that this bill 2411, doesn't accomplish anything that Mr. Schillo, our present Treasurer, and Mr. Schmesier, our Finance Director, cannot do without this type of legislation. I will not suggest that there was not sincerity, honesty and decency as motivating factors in putting this together and again, I commend you, Mr. President, for doing that.

Also, it should be noted that there are many unscrupulous people in this City who took it upon themselves during the last Treasurer's Sale to prey upon many elderly and many unsuspecting souls by telling them that if they gave them X number of dollars that they would go and talk to certain members of Council or that they would make sure that their taxes were taken care of. I was on the radio during that period of time and I said very forthrightly that no one in this City should have to pay any elected official to do his or her job. Again, I say it. Any elected official who takes money to try to help a person work out their tax problems or get any other service in this City is a disgrace to this City and I would hope that those people who are truly concerned about the unemployed, people who might lose their homes, would have a little compassion in their heart to let government do what it can do because certainly, this government in the City of Pittsburgh has always, and I include every member on this Council and the Mayor, has always done what we could do to relieve people's misery because we're decent, honest people, and we believe in that.

The last thing is, I think that if, indeed, we believe that the unemployed steelworkers and other unemployed people deserve some opportunity to have a chance to pay their taxes at a later date, again I would hope that we would not be opening the doors for unscrupulous people who would seize upon this opportunity as a way of bilking these people out of the few dollars they have by suggesting to them that again they can give them a few dollars, or a lot of dollars, and come downtown, give it to some public official or someone in their community, and their taxes are going to be fixed. I don't believe that's the way this City should operate. I would hope that it doesn't operate. And I for one, anyone in my community that's approached like that and tells me about it, I'll be back on the radio again. I think this is a matter of personal integrity and certainly, at this point, with me. And I'm not going to back away from my conviction in this regard. I'm going to vote no on 2411.

The Chair:

Excuse me. Are you saying there was an accusation made that some public official accepted money to vote for this bill or to push this bill?

Mr. Robinson:

No. During the last Treasurer's Sale I spoke to a number of individuals who were approached by community people, I don't want to repeat rumors, but by community people, who were using various names of members of Council and other people in government as a means of saying, if you give me a few dollars I'll go down and see them for you. I'm saying I think anybody on this Council who's name I've heard, if I told them that I heard their name, they would be incensed. I don't think, I don't think, that any of us should leave ourselves open to have people misuse us like that and give to the public the impression that we're sitting around here trying to take advantage of their misery. I'm on record right now. Anyone that needs public service from this City where I can accomodate them, it's free of charge. I've already been paid. I'm elected and I get my $32,500 a year.

The Chair:

I think we all feel exactly like that, Bill.

Mr. Stone:

In view of that remark, let it be said that I didn't ask anybody for any money, I never got any money from anybody and I think those kind of remarks shouldn't be made here unless there's a little more basis for it than has been stated here.

Mr. Robinson:

I'll bring you the documentation, Mr. Stone.

Mr. Stone:

And if it's so, then follow it down.

Mr. Robinson:

I did follow it down, Mr. Stone.

Mr. Stone:

If somebody's gotten some money, then there's a way to handle that. But I just want it clearly understood as far as I'm concerned. But let's go back to the bill.

Mr. Robinson:

I hate to interrupt you, but my personal integrity has been questioned here today, Mr. Stone, and if you don't mind, I think it's appropriate for me to raise these concerns. Because as sure as you and I are sitting here, someone will interpret my vote today as a vote against unemployed steelworkers. Somewhere along the line, Mr. Stone, there will be some misunderstanding of what Councilman Robinson said and what Councilman Robinson did. And I simply want the record to reflect all the issues that are at stake.

The Chair:

I vote aye but I'd like to clear the air in regards to unemployed people. The bill states unemployed, not steelworkers. I don't mean, Bill, because of what you said. So many people have said to me, "Why the steelworkers better than anybody else?" I said it isn't the steelworkers, it's unemployed people. Period.

The other, we're not asking that these people be absolved from paying taxes. We're just giving the time to make those payments somehow, somehow, in due time. Thank you.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 8

NOES 1

(MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Robinson presented

Bill No. 2440

Report of the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development for January 26, 1983 transmitting two ordinances and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 1814

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, Zoning, Chapter 909, Section 909.06(b) Special Exceptions in use which may be authorized by the Zoning Board of Adjustment, by deleting "Amusement Arcade" from Exception No. 19, which includes athletic club and social club; and by inserting a New Exception No. 26 specifically for "Amusement Arcades" in "C3", "C4" and "C5" Districts." (AS AMENDED BY SUBSTITUTE)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

There are a number of people in the audience who would like us to take this one bill separately. I wonder if you would do so?

The Chair:

Yes. If I may, in regards to discussion on the bills before we vote, the Chair takes the prerogative saying that I don't find any problem with any of the bills, but in regards to the bill you're discussing, Bill No. 1814, 903.02, under definitions, amusement arcade means any establishment with four or more mechanical or electronic device located for engaging in games of skill or amusement. I would like to see that section re-amended because over the weekend I received several calls from people showing me where it's going to create a hardship and it's also going to cause unemployment. If I recall, formerly if you had six or more of these video-type machines you needed an arcade license. Now we're saying that if you have four or more of these machines you need an arcade license. So formerly, where they had five they didn't need a license and now if they have as many as four they're going to need a license. I'd like to see that part re-amended.

Mr. Woods moved to amend Bill No. 1814.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Under Section F-903, the issue that you just raised, Mr. Brown stated himself as a representative of the Zoning Board that he himself has four children and that he finds that is unenforceable, that there are so many places that will have four and I believe the question is from six to four, according to what I'm reading, not five to four. There were six previously and someone recommended five and we decided to go to four and there were people who said they'd like to make it three. We will absolutely lose control because these arcades will then spread out. Instead of having more than six in one place, we'll have four in one and five in another and so on. Or four, four, four. I don't think we ought to change that section because either we want to regulate arcades or we do not want to regulate arcades. And if we amend it, what is being told to us by the Zoning Board is that they have lost them in court, that they really have no handle on it and they need to confine the number of arcades.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, correct me if I'm wrong. I thought the original arcade bill said six or more becomes an arcade.

The Chair:

Right.

Mr. Woods:

If you could regulate it then —

Michelle Madoff:

You can't regulate four.

Mr. Woods:

That doesn't make sense. All I'm asking, I made the motion and Mr. Flaherty seconded it, it to leave it the same, six or more becomes an arcade.

Michelle Madoff:

It is the belief of the Zoning Board that people will probably not go to four. It will be easier to regulate under four. And if you make four the number then you can regulate. It becomes an arcade if there are four machines with a lot of youngsters standing around. It doesn't become an arcade, they feel, they have to have some basis so it's not unconstitutional. They'd like to make it three, but they think four is a better number than six.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I have seconded Councilman Woods' amendment because I don't see what the difference is between six and four and I think it's certainly the trend in this City we're putting a lot of petty nuisance fees on people. We're bleeding a lot of people to death and I think it's starting to become inane. Now we're talking about someone who has four video games is an arcade. That rationally makes no sense to me. I think this bill does its share of moralizing and that's what I think it is. It's going to keep our school children out of these, as some people may say, "evil arcades". I'm not all that concerned about it. I'm going to vote for it. But I'm not going to overkill and get into an idea of saying that four video games is an arcade.

Also, it's my understanding when we had the public hearing that there were no owners or taverns owners or cigar store owners that have arcades, none of these people were contacted in regard to the public hearing. I'm sure that that was an honest mistake, but regardless, this is a bill that certainly impacts that category of merchants and I think they should have been entitled to have their say at the public hearing. We are beyond the public hearing stage now.

The Chair:

On what Mr. Flaherty said, in regards to mom and pop stores I understand, and it's a fact no doubt, that they have rather great difficulty competing with supermarkets and therefore these video machines are their way of making up the difference in the income that they lose through the sales of the markets who obviously can sell at a cheaper price. It's really their lifeblood. It's the thing that saved them.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, it doesn't say video games to begin with. It says amusement arcade means any establishment where four or more mechanical or electrical devices are located engaging in games of skill or amusement. That means a jukebox, a pool table, then you get into video games or poker machines or whatever. You know, most bars, and I hate to pick on bars, but they have a pool table and a jukebox and maybe a poker machine and two video machines. Do you mean to tell me that they're going to have to get an arcade license? It's a little ridiculous with this four. You're going to have every bar in the City coming in with an arcade license.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I discuss my bill? I am not married to the concept of going from six to four. That really isn't the gut of the bill. The gut of the bill is the first page which came about when the people of Market Square and PPG, with Renaissance II, felt that it was inappropriate to have an arcade where we're having Renaissance II and the Zoning Commission took a look at the bill and said it is also inappropriate to have it next to churches or synagogues, elementary or secondary schools, close to another amusement arcade, public library, museum, concert hall or cultural center, senior citizens lounge or designated housing for elderly, public playground or park. That's the gut of the bill. I have really no very, very strong feelings, but I would like to address what I tried to address before you jumped the gun on me.

There are a lot of people here today concerned with arcades. This gets back to an issue, and I want you to hear it folks, Mr. Perry, how was this hearing advertised? Would you address the people in the audience? In the legal notices?

Mr. Perry:

In the Press legal notices.

Michelle Madoff:

How many times have I raised the issue of a public hearing being advertised in the legal notices in such small print that unless I wear my bifocals and my magnifying glass I can't read them?

Mr. Perry:

If you want to change it, I'll change it. But I'm following the law.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, this is not a criticism of you. The problem is one that you are obeying the law. Is that correct?

Mr. Perry:

That is correct.

Michelle Madoff:

And the law says all you have to do is put it in the legal notices and who reads them? So, what happened is that these people feel very disenfranchised that on an issue that concerns them greatly they never had a chance to be heard. Is that correct?

Now, I think this exemplifies, maybe it's not the most burning issue in the City, the fact that we disenfranchise people because we don't have either press releases or we don't have display ads, perhaps on the comic pages where people will be sure to read them or across from the horoscope, or maybe the sports pages.

I think we need to see a resolution before Council on that. I've asked for it several times and it's been defeated several times, but I'll try again. Would you prepare that for the 1983 year, that we now have display ads as opposed to just little notices in fine print? I am willing to yield on the — Mr. Flaherty, Mr. Woods?

Mr. Woods:

What's that, Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

I realize when I speak it's not terribly important, but I'm trying to support you.

Mr. Woods:

I didn't hear what you said, Michelle. I'm starting to get like you and talking when other people are talking. I'll get up and walk around, too.

Michelle Madoff:

If you have something important to do I certainly welcome you doing that.

I'm saying that I am not married to the concept of —

The Chair:

We know you're not married. We read it in the paper. I'm sorry.

Michelle Madoff:

Are we already to do business? The issue is not the lowering, I have no great feelings about remaining at six, Mr. Woods. That is not my problem and if the President would like to make that as a formal resolution to remove paragraphs 771.04 and 903.02, Sections E and F, F also goes to four or mechanical electronics, I accept that as a motion. Did someone want to make that as a motion?

Mr. Stone:

Hold on. It needs more than that. It needs Section 909.06(b)26, then your E and F, you have to pick up the next one. 903.02, Definition. It's the same thing. That has to change as well. That's why I was trying to look at the original bill.

Anywhere we have a reference from six to four has to change.

Michelle Madoff:

We've looked at it and it's the third page and it's all E and F.

Mr. Stone:

But look down below, Michelle, right before Section 2. There's another section there to which there's an A under it. It starts the alphabet all over again.

Michelle Madoff:

That's under F. That's E and F. That falls under F, Definition. 903.02 is (a) under F. That's why we're taking E and F. That's (a) under F.

Is that a motion, Mr. DePasquale? Are you making that as a motion?

The Chair:

Yes, but I see what Mr. Stone is saying. You have it under 909.06 —

Michelle Madoff:

No sir. It's under E and under F. (a) is under F.

Mr. Stone:

I don't think so.

Michelle Madoff:

It can't be E, F, A. The alphabet doesn't run E, F, A, Mr. Stone. It's E, and there's a section that's F and under Section F there's a section (a) and we're removing that.

The Chair:

Why don't we make the amendment to read to delete any section changing the term licensing arcades from four back to six. We're changing it from six to four. We want to delete that and leave it the way it was before. Six or more constitutes an arcade.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. Now, before we vote on the bill we're going to vote on the amendment first? Let's do that.

Mr. Woods moved to amend Bill No. 1814.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

And on the bill itself?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, this bill addresses itself essentially to locations and zoning, period. The bill only addresses zoning and we're going to vote on that. However, there is another bill being prepared that is going to be submitted under the licensing sector which will address to issues. One that children of school age cannot frequent the arcades and I've talked to the people here today and they assure me they have done as Carrick has done in the community representation. They just don't let young people in during school hours but they feel the same responsibility and I'm delighted to hear that.

Now, that will be handled as a separate bill under license. And in that bill it has been recommended by one of the arcade owners that we also say that no one of school age can frequent an arcade where they sell alcoholic beverages. I believe that is already part of the law but we're going to try to strengthen that because they can go in and play the games even though they don't drink, but they're being exposed to that element.

But that will be a separate bill not to be addressed today. Today it's strictly on the zoning. Can we vote on that?

Mr. Flaherty:

In regard to today's bill, it is going to grandfather all current establishments, correct?

Michelle Madoff:

That is correct.

Mr. Flaherty:

So they are not going to be —

Michelle Madoff:

That's correct. That's why this bill was introduced because we couldn't stop the arcade, that big splashy one, going into Market Square. And this is why this bill, hopefully, was put through in a hurry, to stop any more going into that kind of area.

The Chair:

I'm not an expert on Liquor Control Board rulings, but I believe there is a section that states that no minors can even go into a bar. And I know that on occasion minors go into a bar that serves food and order food, they weren't allowed to eat the food.

Mr. Flaherty:

You only have to be eighteen to work in a bar in any capacity.

The Chair:

I'm not talking about working. You can actually work in a bar and not be able to drink there. I understand that. I'm talking about the cases where people under eighteen years of age, or even twenty-one for that matter, go into a restaurant where they serve alcoholic beverages and they cannot be served unless they're with an adult. I'm talking about food. I'm saying that if a kid comes into a bar, the bartender can legally say, "I'm sorry, you'll have to leave".

Michelle Madoff:

Right. This is a two-prong bill. We could not handle the issue of students who are supposed to be at school in this bill. This is strictly a zoning bill. There is another bill being prepared and it will be here very shortly.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd just like to make a couple quick comments on Mrs. Madoff's concern relative to school children. As Council is aware, and I will have my comments brought forward from Wednesday to substantively address that issue, but I did have occasion to speak to a Mrs. Jean Fink who is the Vice-President of the School Board concerning this matter and I think consistent with what I have suggested, she suggested that the City of Pittsburgh contact the principals in the schools and in the middle schools to identify what they are doing in this regard because, certainly, the School Board is aware of the problem and the principals of the high schools and middle schools have the power to address this concern. Again, I think that we should also be aware, and I discussed this with Mrs. Madoff, there is presently before the United States Supreme Court a case that deals with the whole issue of video arcades and restricting their placement, who can go in, etc. It would seem to me that before we moved to draft any kind of legislation restricting persons from entering video arcades and playing the machines that we might want to identify at what stage the lawsuit is that is before the United States Supreme Court, if for no other reason, that we don't waste a lot of time and money, where a case is before the Court and the resolution of that case might give us some direction.

Again, I would hope that members of Council and the people in the Administration who are concerned about this problem would give the School Board ample opportunity to address it because the basic responsibility for youngsters of school age during school hours does fall with the School Board.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond to that? I just read, I believe it was this morning's or this weekend's paper, that there is a tremendous shortage of truant officers and there's no way the school's are presently supervising their own students who are not attending and what we're just doing is putting a little muscle into the bill and supporting our community groups who came here and uniformly, across the board, testified that they do not want youngsters in arcades. They do not want their children in arcades and I think that by putting that in the licensure section of our regulations we will not be hurting anything.

I have the same letter you have, Mr. Robinson. I believe you're referring to the letter from the Zoning Commission signed by Mr. Pellegrini giving a legal opinion suggesting we wait until Alladin's Castle versus the city of Mesquite comes down with an opinion.

Either we're leaders or we're followers and I think we ought to be leaders. We care about our kids and I don't want to wait for anything that comes down because if our Administration, in it's infinite wisdom, after the courts have ruled that people can have self-service stations uses tax dollars to go and fight that, then they can fight to see that our children are kept out of places they shouldn't be.

These are two separate bills. Let's vote on the zoning bill today.

The Chair:

Are you offering an amendment, Michelle?

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm not. I'm just answering Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like my comments from Wednesday on Bill 1814 brought forward and also I'd like a copy of the letter that Mrs. Madoff and I made reference to.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS - BILL NO. 1814 - 1/26/83)

Mr. Robinson:

I have some comments. Mrs. Madoff made reference to a letter that was forwarded to members of Council. Inasmuch as my name is made reference to in this letter, I think it would be appropriate for me to comment, because I think the letter is giving a misrepresentation of what my position is.

My position on the matter of youngsters being in video arcades and whether or not we have jurisdiction over them being in there is on the record from before, and I will stand on those comments; but I would like to say that I think it would be appropriate for me to read the section of this letter which I think gives this representation. Both Councilman Woods and myself are mentioned, and I won't presume to speak for Ben Woods. I will speak for Bill Robinson.

The letter begins, "Ladies and gentlemen," and I will only read the paragraph I have question about. "The recently published skeptical comments of Councilman Bill Robinson and Ben Woods notwithstanding, truancy is a serious problem in Pittsburgh, and a great deal needs to be done about it. Our request, which is backed by over 200 signatures of residents in the Homewood-Brushton area, is an honest, legitimate attempt to require the business sector to comply with state compulsory attendance laws."

First and foremost, I am very much aware of the truancy problem in our schools. I think anyone that has two eyes can see that too many youngsters are not in school. Many of them are bold enough to stand right outside the school building during school hours, so I am more than aware that truancy is a very serious problem.

I also recognize that truancy is a serious problem when it relates to young people frequenting video arcades. I was in a video arcade myself last Monday morning playing a Pac-Man machine and there were two youngsters there who I'm pretty sure should have been at Peabody High School, and they were having a good time, so I recognize the problem as one who plays Pac-Man machines and sees youngsters there during school hours. Needless to say, I was on my own time, I am an adult, and I am responsible for myself.

I think also it should be noted that when the issue came up in this Council, I made reference to the petition that was forwarded to us making the demand that we pass some kind of law to restrict young people in video arcades. I said I didn't think we ought to put any undue pressure on the businesspeople to make them enforce the laws around youngsters going to school. I still stand by that.

I also indicated I felt it was the primary responsibility of the Pittsburgh Board of Public Education to make sure that youngsters are in school during school hours. I think if you read the law, particularly Purdon's 24, which our Solicitor and I'm sure Mr. Stone are aware of, it very specifically speaks to the issue of a school code. I discussed this matter with Mr. Pellegrini at some length, discussed it with him this morning. Also, I sent a letter to a number of petitioners indicating that I felt that they first ought to approach the School Board to address the issue of jurisdiction and that they also ought to look for some remedy other than trying to get business owners to restrict youngsters. I also indicated in that letter and to this Council that I didn't think our zoning laws were the appropriate place to try to find a remedy. I think Mr. Brown's comments and Mr. Pellegrini's comments substantiate my position from the very outset around the zoning laws. The zoning laws are not the appropriate place to do this, and I certainly am more than willing to make do what can be done to make sure young people are in school during school hours; but I still think, if for no other reason, out of respect, we should get some official word from the School Board. I have written to Dr. Wallace on this matter. I also wrote to Reverend Elmer Williams, who represents District One School Board, which is Homewood-Brushton, East Liberty. I have not heard from them. I am sure they are concerned about this matter.

I hope as this letter is entered into the record that my comments also will follow this letter so that no one is misled that Councilman Robinson made some skeptical comments about truancy. My comments are on the record. I will stand by those comments, and I have no problem with trying to do what we can in City government to make sure the young people attend school.

(END - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS -
BILL NO. 1814 - 1/26/83)

(LETTER - 1/25/83)

TO: Members of Pittsburgh City Council, Mayor Richard
Caliguiri and D. Pellegrini,
Solicitor, City Law Department

FROM: Mae Norris, Patti Martin, residents of Homewood-
Brushton, City of Pittsburgh

DATE: January 25, 1983

RE: Restrictions on businesses with video games from allowing children of compulsory school age to patronize them during school hours

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The recently published, skeptical comments of Councilmen Bill Robinson and Ben Woods notwithstanding, truancy is a serious problem in Pittsburgh and a great deal needs to be done about it. Our request, which is backed by over 200 signatures of residents in the Homewood-Brushton area, is an honest, legitimate attempt to require the business sector to comply with the State Compulsory Attendance laws.

We tend to agree with the comments of Dennis A. Leone, spokesman of the Alexandria Virginia Public School System, when he told an Alexandria Journal reporter on October 9, 1975:

"For the most part, truants have been left alone. In the past, truancy has been considered (just) a school problem. (Now) society is beginning to realize that truancy is more than just a school problem."

Regarding the issue of cooperation from the business sector in fighting truancy, research reveals that there is much precedence, both locally and nationally, in this area. For example:

- Before the Crimes Code was amended in 1972, there was a provision in the School Code (Sec. 3501) making it a summary offense for an owner, or an agent, of a motion picture theater to permit children to attend during school hours.
- A Baltimore City ordinance (1046) prohibits any "operator of an establishment or his agents or employees (to) knowingly permit any minor between the ages of 6 and 15 years, inclusive, to remain upon the premises of said establishment between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. during any school day unless he has written proof from school authorities excusing him from attendance at that particular time or unless accompanied by a parent or guardian or a person 21 years of age or older."

An October 7, 1975 article in the Alexandria (VA) Gazette identifies "a store owner" and "an apartment manager" as persons who called the police to pick up two truants.

Again, we say that combatting truancy requires the effort of parents, teachers, school administrators, police, business people and public officials. As Mr. Leone said, "Truancy is more than just a school problem".

Very truly yours,

Mae Norris
Patti Martin

(END - LETTER)

Mr. Robinson:

I'd just like to make one comment on that. I'd just like to indicate that because there seems to be some difficulty with our Solicitor's Office serving two masters, Council and the Administration, I raise the issue of these letters so that whatever we attempt to do, we still try to do it in a cooperative fashion. From what I understood of the letter, the Solicitor would not be available to assist us in preparing the kind of legislation that both you and I think are necessary and I think the record ought to reflect that, that if we have to do that without the help of the Solicitor, we should put it on the record that he feels we should take another course. But I support your efforts and once the legislation is drafted I'd be more than happy to support it.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, I probably couldn't get five votes out of this Council but perhaps you could, that we have our own attorneys look at it.

Also,

Bill No. 2364

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Nine, 'Zoning', Chapter 911 'Fee Schedule', Section 911.01 'Fees Established' by increasing the Fee from $4.00 to $6.00 when filing certain applications for an occupancy permit and by Amending Title Ten, 'Building', Chapter 1009 'Permits, Certificates and Fees', Section 1009.15 'Fees' by establishing a fee of $25.00 for the Annual Recertification of Group Care and Group Residence Facilities."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2366

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1445, approved December 29, 1981, entitled, 'Resolution adopting and approving the 1982 Capital Budget and the 1982 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1982 through 1987 Capital Improvement Program', by adjusting a project line item authorization."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2367

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the Issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness for work to be done on the exterior of the residential structures at 1131 Sheffield (22R214), 1133 Sheffield Street (22R215), 1419 Page Street (007B171), 1440 West North Avenue (007B323), 1225 West North Avenue (0007C015), 1118 Liverpool Street (22L224), 1607-13

Sedgwick Street (22L092-22L090), 1406 Columbus Avenue (22F255), 1104 Bidwell Street (22R184), and 1240 Liverpool Street (22L260) in the Manchester Historic District in the 21st Ward."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2368

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the Issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness for work to be done on the exterior of the commercial structure at 23 Market Square, (Block and Lot 1-D-127) in the Market Square Historic District in the 1st Ward."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens
Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 2441

Report of the Committee on Supplies for January 26, 1983 transmitting two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2362

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the letting of a contract or contracts or the use of existing contracts for the furnishing and delivery of office equipment and furniture for the Bureau of Building Inspection, Department of Fire, Code Account No. 1478, Equipment and for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 2362, I see our Supplies Director sitting in the back, and he's given me his word that he's going to start looking at buying repossessed equipment in good condition and here we have $18,800 to be spent, and I understand it's not for anything very special or unique, for office equipment and I think this is a perfect example of how the City could really save some money.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to make a comment also. The contract comes through the Supplies Department but that happens to be for the Department of Fire, so I suggest that you talk to the Department of Fire and ask them to go out and look for used equipment then that contract will come through my department. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

We asked the firemen who were here the other day, I don't think you were here last week, they were here and we asked them what kind of equipment, whether it was special equipment.

Mr. Woods:

But understand that it just comes to the Supplies Department. We don't pick it out. They pick it out, what they want. You make reference to Mr. Jacoby back there and you shouldn't. He only hands out the contract for what other people want. That's what I'm referring to.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, this Council ought to be unanimously trying to save funds. I think we all agree on that. And with the repossessions we can get tables that are ten times as good as what we would pay for and desks and chairs that are a hundred times better than what we could afford to pay in the City for ten cents on the dollar. Do you disagree with that, Mr. Woods?

Mr. Woods:

No, Michelle, I really agree that we should save money. That's why I don't want to go for fiscal officer and for our own attorney —

Michelle Madoff:

I know you don't want a fiscal officer so we could save some money. I realize that. But if we want an office and a desk or anything —

Mr. Woods:

Fifty thousand a year for a grants person?

Michelle Madoff:

I certainly hope we have a grants person, a full time lobbyist and a fiscal officer for this Council so we can save money. I don't imagine the public would not want a fiscal advisor for Council.

The Chair:

Can we please vote on the bill?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods raised it. I didn't want to let his pearly words go unnoticed.

Also,

Bill No. 2373

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 869, approved August 24, 1981, effective August 31, 1981, entitled, 'Providing for the letting of contracts and the use of existing contracts for the purchase and delivery of Various Radio Equipment for the Department of Supplies of the City of Pittsburgh, and providing for the payment thereof.' by increasing the amount by $72,887.00."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone

Michelle Madoff Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff Mr. DePasquale

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, this morning at 10:30 there was a scheduled meeting in Mr. Robinson's office to discuss what we were going to do about the cable coverage and as I stated before and as appear in the media, I see no reason why we have to be discussing it because it already passed. I have a copy of the transcript from Mr. Perry dated, I believe, October 20, 1982. On October 20, 1982, this Council agreed that we would not only cover our Finance Meeting on Wednesdays but our final vote on Monday afternoon and that we would cover the post agenda meetings. There was some discussion subsequently because I had originally recommended that we cover the budget hearings and the budget hearings were going to be so voluminous that we would wait until the first of the year to cover other hearings. The issue has come up about should we cover post agendas, and I agree with Councilwoman Masloff that when there is a hearing where nobody is objecting to a zoning, it is a waste of everybody's time. Or if somebody wants to ask about their own property being picked up, that's a waste of time. But when Mr. Stone said, "I've been trying to get information on a fire station" or Sophie says, "I've been trying to get some information on a salt retainer" or when somebody wants to get some information from somebody at a post agenda hearing, the public has the right to know what really goes on on this Council and how we come to conclusions, not just reading a resolution and saying aye or nay and having a little debate on the subject but seeing what the input is from the Directors.

Either we go ahead and start to televise the post agenda hearings where the people can see what is really happening so we don't keep information from the public other than innocuous hearings, and by innocuous I mean something that nobody is objecting to, I'm being redundant but I want to be very clear, then I will take legal action and I have told Brother Richard it's not a personal thing but it is a matter of seeing that the public's right to know is not impacted on. I think Mr. Robinson and I had a discussion on this today and perhaps he would like to comment on my comment.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mrs. Masloff and Mr. Woods and I did meet and I believe that each member of Council received a copy of the contents of that meeting. We were supposed to meet this morning. Unfortunately we were unable to do so. At that meeting, we did agree that we would cover all standing committee meetings, all meetings that Chairpersons of committees called if it was a regular scheduled meeting, that we would handle all hearings, but that we would reserve any decision on post agendas until every member of Council had an opportunity to respond. It was our collective opinion that the post agendas perhaps, perhaps, are covering materials that can be secured from the Department Heads or the Mayor's Office or perhaps there's another way to address that issue, but rather than us as a committee say yes or no, we were inviting other members of Council to review our decision and also to particularly give us some input relative to post agendas.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to say something. Michelle referred to a transcript of minutes. I would like to see the original bill where it said what would be covered by Council that this Council passed by a majority. Then if any member of Council wants to sue, that's your prerogative.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Woods, let's be very succinct and let's get to the bottom line. Do you think the public has the right to know when we have post agenda meetings that are not on one person's information they can get privately but on a subject that Mr. Stone has raised, issues you've raised, Mr. Givens has raised, Mr. O'Malley on self-service stations, etc., etc., on substantive issues they —

The Chair:

I think we should discontinue that type of conversation.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. President, if I'm correct, a few weeks ago I introduced a piece of legislation that passed this Council that we set up a panel chaired by Sophie Masloff who is on the Cable Committee, to set rules and guidelines that this Council is to follow and to make recommendations.

The Chair:

And Mr. Robinson and Mr. Woods are on that panel.

Mr. O'Malley:

Right. And I think that we ought to refrain from discussing this until these rules and regulations and the guidelines are brought before us so we can look them over.

Michelle Madoff:

In 1984. We'll wait until 1984, folks. You stay in the dark until 1984, don't worry about it.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm not finished. The reason I introduced this legislation is because I think we need rules and regulations to keep people from grandstanding on this Council.

Mr. Flaherty:

We're going to get into censorship now.

Mr. O'Malley:

We're not going to get into grandstanding.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I don't know whether we had a full moon last night or whether it was the start of TV today, but I think this meeting has been long enough.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, February 7, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Givens	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

ABSENT:

Mr. Stone

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

There are a few resolutions that we'll read first since there's quite a few people here that are recipients and interested in them.

Michelle Madoff:

It's with great pleasure that I present this resolution today and I believe that our honoree is not here because her plane won't be in until later this week. So, we're going to have her mother, Louise Hyman, Jean Hyman and Richard Stern from Heaven step up here. That's not the Heaven where you go to leave Council, it's where you go to have a good time while you're still on earth.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 2486 WHEREAS, Phyllis Hyman has attained prominence and acclaim as a singer and performer; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hyman appeared on Broadway in the Tony Award-winning musical Sophisticated Ladies, received the prestigious Theatre World Award for most promising new talent, played a cameo role in Bob Fosse's Lenny, was the featured vocalist on the two movie scores, The Fish That Saved Pittsburgh and Children of Sanchez; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hyman's albums include, Phyllis Hyman, Somewhere in My Lifetime, You know How to Love Me, and Can't We Fall in Love Again, her most successful LP to date; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hyman grew up in St. Clair Village in Pittsburgh, sang in All-City Choir at Carrick High School, received the first music scholarship given by Robert Morris Business School, and worked as a legal secretary at the South Side office of Neighborhood Legal Services before leaving to tour with the New Direction, perfected her singing style and stage presence in Miami, and then progressed on to New York; and

WHEREAS, Phyllis Hyman will appear with a full orchestra, live on stage, at Heaven on Thursday, February 10, for two performances at 7:00 and 10:00 p.m.;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the Citizens of Pittsburgh, hereby join the family and friends of Phyllis Hyman in declaring the week of February 7 as "Phyllis Hyman Week" in recognition of her outstanding achievements in the field of entertainment and do hereby recognize her as an outstanding citizen of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

I had the pleasure of seeing her on Broadway. It was a great show and Ms. Hyman was terrific. If you get a chance, take it in. Thank you.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd like to ask Mr. Bill Conway to step up, please.

What we're going to do with this resolution, I think for the third year in a row, we're going to proclaim February 6 through February 13 as National Crime Prevention Week here in the City of Pittsburgh. What this is to do is to honor all the community people who have volunteered their time and their efforts to make the City of Pittsburgh and our streets a safer place to live.

I've been working with Bill now for almost three years. And in those three years we have established over 600 block watches in the City of Pittsburgh. We have over 10,000 people participating in our block watch program. Where we have an effective block watch, we've noticed a reduction in crime from anywhere from five to thirty-two percent.

Mr. O'Malley presents

Bill No. 2487 WHEREAS, February 6th through February 13th is National Crime Prevention Week; and

WHEREAS, decreases in Federal and State funding of Social Service Programs will ultimately lead to an increase of crime; and

WHEREAS, the city must rely on community projects such as the Neighborhood Block Watch Program to fill the void being created; and

WHEREAS, these programs are staffed by volunteers who get no compensation and very little recognition.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby proclaim the week of February 6th through the 13th, 1983 as "Crime Prevention Week" throughout the City of Pittsburgh and express our appreciation to all the community volunteers who give of their time and money to fight crime in their communities.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Conway:

Thank you, Councilman O'Malley. I would like to point out that this is the fourth year that there has been a local observance in Pittsburgh of National Crime Prevention Week. This is the third year that I have appeared before Council accepting such a resolution.

There are some other individuals here that I'd like to call special attention to. Other members of the Coalition and they include Mary Alice Babusci from the Center for Victims of Violent Crimes and also Beverly Lovelace from Neighborhood Centers Association which is working on the North Side. We have a special guest, I understand, who has just flown into town and you've seen him on the billboards all across the county, and that is McGruff the Crime Dog. I'm very happy that he could make it today. Thank you.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd also like to acknowledge one of our community relation officers, Carl Burns. Carl has done an outstanding job in the Oakland area. I'd like to say that it's because of our community relation officers and the dedication of people like Carl Burns that we are having a reduction in crime and that we are making our streets safer for our people to live and to walk and to work.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. O'Malley, I think you're to be commended and I hope that by having this on cable people will get in touch with you or any other member of Council will forward it to you if they want to do something about having a crime watch set up in their area. I think this is why putting this on the government station is so important. You have a chance to talk about what you've done and also to help those who want to do it.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to add that if anybody who's watching this program would like to set up a block watch in their neighborhood, they're welcome to call my office and we'll send out all the needed information.

The Chair:

Congratulations, ladies and gentlemen.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council and guests assembled here, for the fifth year I am introducing into Council a resolution to recognize February as Afro-American History Month. This is done to not only have the City participate in this significant celebration, but to share with many people, the history and heritage of people of African ancestry which covers more than 600,000 years.

Today with us are Miss Emma Lucas, who is the President of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History, an organization of which I am very proud to belong. I would like Miss Lucas to come forward.

Also with her today is Miss Patricia Rodriguez, a student at Chatham College, and Mr. Rodney Regan, a recent doctoral student who has been accepted to attend Atlanta University. Would both of them come forward?

As has been our custom in the past, and with Council's indulgence, after the reading and accepting of the resolution we've always had a very small presentation so that our public record will reflect some of the rich heritage of people of African ancestry. I'd like at this time to read to Council the resolution.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2488 WHEREAS, Afro-Americans have been an integral part of this nation, this state, this country, and this City's history for more than three hundred years; and

WHEREAS, the first week of the month of February has been traditionally designated to recognize their many deeds and accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, many distinguished Afro-Americans made history as residents of our City, such as Dr. Martin R. Delaney, Louis Woodson, George B. Vashon, Henry Ossawa Tanner, Robert L. Vann, Daisey Lampkin, Dr. Alma Illery, Honorable Homer S. Brown, Honorable Paul Jones, and Percival L. Prattis; and

WHEREAS, in February, 1926, Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson, the Director of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, launched the celebration of Negro History Week; and

WHEREAS, this celebration has been expanded to a full month of recognition; and

WHEREAS, throughout the nation, distinguished and honored people of African ancestry will be honored during Afro-American History Month.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh, shall recognize and observe the month of February as Afro-American History Month.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Is there a show going on at the University, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

I believe that each member of Council has received a copy of a program prepared by the Association of Afro-American Life and History. Miss Lucas might be able to illuminate on your question. Miss Rodriguez and Mr. Regan, with Council's indulgence, would like to make a short presentation.

Miss Lucas:

With response to that question, on Saturday the 12th, at 12:30 at the Carnegie Library in the Hill District, we will have a program. On that program we will feature a paper by Doctor Edwin McKenzie on Daisy Lampkin, who is a Pittsburgher, and many of you may have heard of her. We will be highlighting her contributions and we ask that you join us on Saturday.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Miss Rodriguez:

Black Contributions To History. Many black people have contributed to the historical foundation of our country. You know their names, they are now recognized as national figures who have helped bring change to our society. People like Martin Luther King Jr., Rosa Parks, Thurgood Marshall, Frederick Douglass, Harriet Tubman, Jackie Robinson, just to name a few.

They didn't start out with the intention to etch their mark on society but destiny decreed that they would be remembered by us all because their personal dreams were seeds that grew and spread to a nation.

Many of them came from humble beginnings and later were thrown into national prominence for their efforts on behalf of black people everywhere. We must all remember as we celebrate Black History Month in February that change that benefits everyone can begin anyplace where people decide to exercise control over their own fate, no matter how humble their origins or their race.

Historical change has happened right here in Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh, too, has had its own black contributors, some who reached national prominence and some who didn't. Only time will tell if these black Pittsburghers will be remembered in the history books. If not, their lives will still be bright memories in the minds of this community.

Who are these black contributors from Pittsburgh? Let me share their names with you, in case you are not already familiar with them.

First, there's Robert L. Vann, who desired to see a black community newspaper and struggled to see his dream fulfilled. He founded the Pittsburgh Courier, one of this country's first black newspapers.

Your may say he was not a Martin Luther King Jr., who spurred the conscience of a nation. And I would say, not true. Did you know that in the early 20's Mr. Vann's fiery editorials in the Courier were instrumental in completely changing the voting habits of 85% of this country's black people. Not many politicians can lay claim to that type of feat, even today.

Then there's Daisy Lampkins, one of the few early black socialites who believed in men like Robert L. Vann and helped to financially support the creation of the Courier. She may not have had the quiet reserve of Rosa Parks, but she offered not only funds but physical backing. Mrs. Lampkins personally went out and got subscriptions, not just here in Pittsburgh but traveled throughout the South to do the same, boosting the paper's circulation to national levels.

Yes, there's many more black contributors whom I could name like Homer S. Brown, an attorney who became Pittsburgh's first black judge, K. Leroy Irvis, Legislator, and former Legislator Joseph Rhodes who began his education at Westinghouse High School. There are musicians like Earl "Fatha" Hines, Georgie Benson, and Walt Harper. Athletes like Wilbur Stargell that call Pittsburgh home. Vocalists like Mary Lou Williams, Phyllis Hyman and Vivian Reed.

So, I ask you to remember black history is not just the acknowledgement of a race's past, but its contributions to its future. Remember too, the Pittsburghers who have played a positive part in the past and present to that future, whether they are famous or not.

I have tried to highlight that positiveness in a photographic exhibit at Chatham College, titled, "Positive Images - A Photo-Essay of Black Men in Sepia-Tone". It portrays the positive aspect of the black man in many roles and occupations from the construction worker that helps to build Renaissance II, to surgeons like Dr. Lamar Cato and Dr. Howard Bryant performing surgery.

I invite all of you to see this exhibit which is presented by the Black Studies Program in observance of Black History Month.

It shows you what I could never tell you in words, what blacks are doing in making history, right now, here in Pittsburgh.

Thank you.

Mr. Regan:

On behalf of the Pittsburgh branch of the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History, it gives me great pleasure to deliver this presentation for Afro-American History Month. I feel that Afro-American History Month is of great importance because, for too long, both the heritage and past achievements of Afro-Americans have been ignored in the pages of history and this brings to mind the Pittsburgh woman we honor this month, Mrs. Daisy Lampkins. And it is through such events as Afro-American History Month that we can begin to correct the misconceptions concerning Afro-Americans, thereby helping all people understand America and its history much better. Justice and understanding will give the Afro-American their rightful place in American society, and this is why the theme for Afro-American History Month is the United States Constitution and the black American.

Thank you.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2489 WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is committed to the concepts of equality of opportunity and due process for all the people of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh continues to make real those concepts through its Commission on Human Relations, its programs to develop minority business, the Mayor's Task Force on Women and the implementation of fair employment practices; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is in compliance with the decree of United States District Court Judge Gerald Weber in regard to the composition of the work force for the Department of Police and the Department of Fire; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is still committed to equality of opportunity and due process for all of its people.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does request and strongly recommend that the Mayor, Superintendent of Police and the Solicitor refrain from initiating any action to disturb the decree and ruling of Judge Gerald Weber except upon a finding of facts to substantiate such action by the Commission on Human Relations, City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't understand that.

Mr. Givens:

I don't understand it either and my point is that there's a decree by the judge, a federal judge, in fact. I can understand what Bill is talking about. If there was a problem there then I think that problem, if anything, should come out by this Council. The judge made a decree and if the Administration is going to do something, I don't know what they can do other than the judge himself lifting this restraint.

Michelle Madoff:

My inclination would be to vote against it because I don't understand it. I'd like to know what we're voting on. Would someone care to explain it?

The Chair:

Bill, has there been any action in regards to violating that decree?

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, I think Council will remember that during our budget hearings and subsequent to that I raised the concern that many issues were being raised relative to our Police Department. One of those issues was whether or not the decree that Judge Weber issued relative to minority hiring and hiring of females possibly might be disturbed by the City of Pittsburgh and whether or not we might take the lead that some other cities had taken to try and have orders such as this one lifted. Certainly it is within the power of the City of Pittsburgh to petition the court, and specifically Judge Weber, to lift his order. It's not a permanent order. It seemed to me that if indeed we are going to remain committed to equal opportunity and opportunity of advancement for all people in the City of Pittsburgh, then certainly we would not want the Mayor or the Solicitor or the Superintendent of Police to initiate any actions to lift this order until such time that our Human Relations Commission determined that the goals that were established by Judge Weber have been met. Certainly I think this is consistent with the purpose of the order. I think it's consistent with our long standing commitment to equal opportunity. And I think it also speaks to the whole notion that while many of us like to react to situations, certainly this Council has been an inactive posture on many issues and I think this is one that we ought to come forward and say where we stand relative to the issue of minorities and women being recruited and being adequately reflected on our Police Department. The resolution is geared directly towards that purpose.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, may I ask a question? Mr. Robinson, would you have any objection to holding this a week so we have a little more detail on it? I'm just a little disturbed that I don't understand it and I don't like to vote in a vacuum. I know what you're trying to say, that we should have equality for everybody and you know I've always voted a thousand percent in that area. But I would like to see what the judge's decision was, how it pertains, what we were planning to do. I'm very confused. I thought we weren't going to touch it.

Mr. Robinson:

Judge Weber's decision has been in effect for some time. The judge hasn't done anything since he issued the order. There has been some discussion in Council, and the record will reflect it, as to whether or not we are perhaps not being fair with other persons who want to apply, whose names are on the list who are eligible, but who cannot be selected because we need four eligibility lists - one black female, one black male, one white male, and one white female. Often times we do not have full lists for those four categories. Therefore, we are unable, by way of the judge's order, to recruit persons from those lists. It seems to me that certainly members of this Council have been well aware of what that issue is. Two of my fellow colleagues raised this issue last summer and we discussed it extensively and on several occasions, and I think the record will reflect this, that I have suggested that we not take any action to disturb that order until such time that we have the evidence that indeed the City of Pittsburgh's Police and Fire Departments reflect the population. This particular resolution, if you read the last paragraph, very specifically indicates that we don't want the Superintendent of Police, we don't want the Mayor, we don't want our Solicitor, engaging in any legal actions to try to vacate Judge Weber's decision until such time our Human Relation Commission determines that the facts will dictate that we do that. I think that's very clear and very much to the point.

One other concern, if I might. I think that Council is well aware that in both Boston and in New Orleans that this issue has come up in terms of actions taken by City officials and police departments to, in effect, reverse the trend towards trying to make police departments and fire departments representative of the populations that they serve. I just think that since this is a trend across the country there's no reason for this City to stand around and wait for something to happen. I think that certainly being on the record and certainly being out front in terms of being in favor of equal opportunity, opportunity of advancement is consistent with what this City is supposed to be all about or what our public policy is supposed to be all about. It seems to me that if Judge Weber, in his infinite wisdom, decided that we needed to pursue a course of mandatory and compulsory recruitment, that until such time as he makes a decision that we should change it, that we should not be engaged in any kind of activities that disturb that order.

Michelle Madoff:

Then why did we have this resolution today?

The Chair:

I think it's rather clear, Michelle. I think the Councilman is one hundred percent correct. He's just asking that they don't disturb that decree.

Michelle Madoff:

We couldn't anyway.

The Chair:

What's a week's delay going to do? A week's delay isn't going to serve any purpose, it's not going to change.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question for Councilman Robinson. Are you aware of any initiative coming from the Mayor's Office, Bill? Or from our City Solicitor in regard to seeking relief from Judge Weber's decree?

Mr. Robinson:

I've raised that very question with Miss Melanie Smith who is our Director of Personnel and in charge of our Civil Service Commission. She indicated that she personally was unaware of any actions that might be initiated. I think that in order to be fair with everyone concerned and in no way to embarrass anybody, this is an issue of some sensitivity in this City. It has many ramifications. I don't believe that anything negative can come from this resolution particularly when we indicate that while we respect the right of the Superintendent and the Mayor and the Solicitor to make a determination as to whether or not they want to have that order vacated, we're asking them not to do that until our Human Relations Commission, which is well qualified to find fact in this regard, would indicate that there is such. I don't think that it's always necessary for us to have some act occur before we take action. As one who is very sensitive about this issue and one who believes that Judge Weber's decision was correct, I certainly would hope that we would do what we can to do several things. One, to make sure that our Police and Fire Departments adequately represent the people of the City, two, to make sure that we're on the right side of this whole issue of equal opportunity, and three, that we give due respect to those persons who perhaps feel that there's another way or other ways to make sure that everyone has an opportunity to serve the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. O'Malley:

If I can pick up on that, if my memory serves me correctly, we asked that question, if the City had any intention to go back and find Judge Weber to try to have his order rescinded. Dave Matter, and I'm sure the record will reflect it accurately, Dave Matter said in essence no, that the Administration had no intention of going back and asking Judge Weber to rescind his order and that the minority representation of the Police Department was actually comparable to all other officers.

It's my understanding that Judge Weber's order is to be in effect until the minority representation on the Police Department reaches the same proportion as minority representation of the population in the City of Pittsburgh. The Human Relations Commission, which Mr. Robinson is referring to, it would seem to me that their only input into this issue would be to see that Judge Weber's order is, in effect, carried through and that minority percentage of the Police Department reaches that of the population. I can't see the Human Relations Commission following through on any other type of documentation. And I can't see Judge Weber's order being rescinded until that percentage is reached.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, I think perhaps some of my colleagues are missing the point. Certainly the Human Relations Commission, pursuant to the City Code, is well within their rights to initiate actions and to initiate actions relative to this whole issue of minority recruitment for police and fire departments. I don't think that there's any real doubt about that. Certainly the Human Relations Commission can be requested to intervene and I don't think there's any doubt about that. Certainly those people who feel aggrieved can go to the Human Relations Commission and ask for their assistance. I don't think there's any doubt about that. Whether or not there is presently any action planned by the Administration is a moot point, it's not really relative. What today would appear to be not an issue, tomorrow becomes an issue. Today someone indicates that perhaps they're not going to do something and tomorrow they do it, and they do it be the rules. I don't have anything in front of me which indicates that the Administration, the Solicitor, the Superintendent of Police, or anyone else in City government, has no interest in vacating the order. I can think of perhaps several reasons why people should feel the order should be vacated. Perhaps they're good reasons. I won't argue the merit of those reasons. I personally think that certainly the Human Relations Commission and the integrity of the Commission is such that if indeed a finding of fact was necessary, they're well qualified to do that, well qualified to assist us. I don't think that we should put ourselves in a position where possibly we will take a backward step without utilizing all the resources that are available to us in the City of Pittsburgh. If indeed the City decides that they want to have that order vacated, this Council, more than likely, will not be involved in that process. And if we are involved, it will be only, only, after some action is taken. The Mayor, the Superintendent of Police and the City Solicitor are well within their rights to take an action to vacate that order. I'm simply suggesting to this Council that the long-range advantages to us of having minorities and women adequately represented in our Fire Department outweigh the disadvantages and that this resolution is an affirmation of our faith that indeed we will be able to provide equal opportunity for people who want to be police officers and who want to be firepersons in the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Councilman, I voted for the resolution and if I hear our colleagues correctly, they're saying that by law this decree can't be disturbed, therefore, why the resolution.

Mr. Robinson:

That's not true.

The Chair:

Okay, I won't disagree with you on that. I'm just saying what our colleagues are saying. I think you get the message and I believe they get your message. So if we may, we voted already to approve it, does anybody want to rescind their vote?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I don't think we voted on it yet. It was just made as a resolution.

The Chair:

We voted.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I asked that we did not vote as you were voting. It was done so quickly, because I didn't even understand it. And I don't think we should vote when we don't understand and a lot of people have asked questions. So, I think the vote should have been held until we discussed it.

I'd like to mention something. Are you aware, Mr. Robinson, that the police have promoted seven new policemen?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, I am.

Michelle Madoff:

And that they're males?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, I am.

Michelle Madoff:

There's a sentence here in your fourth paragraph, "Whereas, the City of Pittsburgh is still committed to equality of opportunity and due process for all people". I really think that the gut belongs right here in Council in that how we vote on the issues as they happen show how our sentiments lie. I can speak for myself that I have a one thousand percent voting record for minorities, women. I know that you do, and we know who on Council does and who does not. The only thing I'm concerned about on this is that we're stirring up trouble where trouble doesn't exist. I am going to support the issue of equality for everybody forever. And I'm just wondering what we're doing by this resolution. I don't quite understand.

But I'd like to ask you a question, if I may, Mr. Robinson, and I'd like the President of Council to answer me if he would, and I see Mr. Buckley is here. How many policemen did we budget for in the budget this year?

The Chair:

Thirteen forty.

Michelle Madoff:

I've got four different figures coming in.

Mr. Buckley:

Fourteen hundred.

Michelle Madoff:

We budgeted for fourteen hundred.

The Chair:

Thirteen forty.

Michelle Madoff:

We budgeted for thirteen forty. This Council felt there should be fifteen hundred police --

The Chair:

Michelle --

Michelle Madoff:

This is very important, bear with me for a moment, Mr. President, I've got a very important point to make about this bill.

This Council felt there should be fifteen hundred police. Council said we'd settle at fourteen hundred. We've only appropriated funds for thirteen hundred and forty. We have something around twelve hundred policemen and we're going to lose fifty by attrition and only one class put on that we can actually put on this year just by logistics.

Now, it takes six votes of this Council, are you listening folks, Councilmembers, colleagues? It takes six votes of this Council to get those policemen put on board. It takes five votes to pass and six to override the veto. And I say to you, Mr. Robinson, that we don't have equal representation, we still have that option through this Council. And I'd like to know what we're doing about getting some more police on Council. That's the issue. We have six votes. The issue is --

Mr. O'Malley:

The issue is the resolution brought up by Mr. Robinson. That's the issue that's on the table.

Michelle Madoff:

But the issue is that by six votes if the Administration decided we're not going to abide by Judge Weber's order, and I don't believe they are, then we still have the six votes --

Mr. Flaherty:

That's not true, Michelle. That's up to the Mayor's Office. They Mayor can do whatever he wants. That is not an issue that came through Council and if the Mayor, in his wisdom, asks for relief on Judge Weber's order, there is nothing in a legal or in an official sense that this Council can do. Six votes, nine votes, twelve votes. There's nothing we can do.

Michelle Madoff:

But, Mr. Flaherty, has he done that yet?

Mr. Flaherty:

No he hasn't done that yet.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Robinson made his resolution clear. There's no further discussion. We had a vote, if anybody cares to rescind their vote or change it, please do. Otherwise, the vote stands and the resolution carries.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'd like to make an amendment to this resolution if I might.

The Chair:

The resolution carried, Dick.

Mr. Givens:

I know. I would like to amend the resolution if I might.

The Chair:

With the permission of the maker of the resolution.

Mr. Robinson:

I will not accept any amendment.

Mr. Givens:

Let me then state for the record, if I might, Mr. President, what that amendment might be and if he does not want to do that then I'll put a resolution in this coming week. I agree with what Councilman Robinson is trying to say and I believe it's seven to eight years that this decree has been upon the City of Pittsburgh and my amendment would be, and I'm reading from the Be It Resolved part of his resolution, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh does request and strongly recommend that Judge Weber make a complete and comprehensive report to this Council and to the Administration and its citizens on the effects of his decree and that we hold any action, be it from the Administration or anybody, until this report comes in from the judge. I think anyone who puts any type of restraints upon its citizens ought to then come back and using the help of this governmental body for whatever research work that the judge might want, for whatever funds he might want to evaluate what is happening right here. I think that report would be very reflective of what is the actual world in our Police Department on the streets of the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Mr. Clerk, would you see to that? Thank you.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2490 WHEREAS, President Ronald Reagan has begun to visit selected work sites to demonstrate his concern for working people; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan visited last February 1, a car factory in St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan has declared at the plant that economic recovery has begun; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan has stated that economic recovery is like a seed whose germination goes unnoticed and then suddenly is visible everywhere; and

WHEREAS, Pittsburgh is in the winter of the economic depression with 14 percent of our area workforce unemployed and countless others seeing reduced wages;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the City of Pittsburgh formally invites President Reagan to visit Pittsburgh to show us the first sprouts of recovery. We particularly hope that President Reagan can find recovery at the steel mills of Hazelwood and the South Side.

Mr. Stone moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it's such an important resolution, how do you plan to proceed with it?

The Chair:

We plan, first of all, to write a letter to the President inviting him to come to the City of Pittsburgh. Fully bear in mind, we know it's going to be next to an impossibility. If he does choose three or four more cities to go to, Pittsburgh is just one of how many hundreds. Hopefully, he would include Pittsburgh in his itinerary so he can see first hand. We read and hear about the situation in Pittsburgh, but unless you actually see it like we do, you don't realize the situation.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think what you are thinking about is while the national average of unemployment went down, Pittsburgh went up one point.

May I respectfully suggest that we ask the President to come or to send one of his top administrators if he cannot come. And may I also suggest that you send it in a night letter because he will then read it. If you send it in a letter it gets lost in the basket. I have used this technique over the years and it's very effective. I'm sure we can afford a night letter when we send out bids that come into thousands of dollars for telegrams. May I suggest that we do that and ask if he cannot personally come, would he send a top administrative aide and who would that person be and would he let us know as soon as possible so that we can have a reception for him.

The Chair:

Thank you. We'll do that. Thank you very much.

Mr. Flaherty presented

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Michelle Madoff presented

No. 2460 Communication from Richard M. Cosentino, Director, Dept. of Water, requesting interim approval to make payment for repairs to a back-hoe loader at a cost not to exceed $1,006.81, payable from Code Account 1705, Repairs.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Water.

Michelle Madoff:

Send a note to the Director that that is another thousand dollars to repair another back-hoe for the same old back-hoe that is eighteen years old. We should be buying them from repossession. I have the word of the Mayor and of the new Supplies Director that he will attempt to do so. Would you please go on record as saying I will not approve another repair to another back-hoe until they look into buying one of the $70,000 ones for $18,000 because the men are working with their bare hands, with shovels, and we're not cost effective and we better get those back-hoes. We're only getting one this year and none until next year. That is the most expensive way to operate a city and I will not approve another repair. And may I please get an update of the figure for last year and this year for repairs and rentals for equipment used in the Water Department. It's in the thousands of dollars.

Mrs. Masloff presented

No. 2454 Communication from Daryl H. Smith, Director, Dept. of Lands and Buildings, requesting Raymond Fischer, Superintendent, Bureau of Repairs and Bruce MacDonald, Architect, to attend a one-day seminar on Basic Supervision, on March 15, 1983 at the Pittsburgh Airport Sheraton, at a cost not to exceed $360.00, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1361, Misc. Mr. Robinson presented

No. 2475 An Ordinance supplementing Ord. No. 28 of 1978, entitled, "An Ordinance furthering the development and implementation of business development and participation programs for minorities and women by authorities, boards, funds, and agencies authorized and/or receiving financial assistance from the City of Pittsburgh and the filing of reports with Pittsburgh City Council," by providing for penalties for failure comply with this Ordinance.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Robinson moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so it will be on the Agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, is this in line with the other resolutions you've made just to keep Council apprised of what's going on so that we have a handle on it?

Mr. Robinson:

No, this specific resolution relates to penalties for failure to comply with Ordinance 28 which was passed in 1978.

Michelle Madoff:

But what we want to know is whether Ordinance 28 is being implemented. And this would give us some handle on it also, will it not?

Mr. Robinson:

No, this just prescribes some specific penalties if the City Solicitor determines that Ordinance 28 is not being complied with.

Michelle Madoff:

How do we know if it's being complied with?

Mr. Robinson:

In Ordinance 28, there are some specific requirements and some reports have to be filed and all you have to do is check the records.

Michelle Madoff:

I presume you are doing that so you'll let Council know?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. Woods for Mr. Stone presented

No. 2476 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant to Joseph M. Metro, Martin M. Metro, Bernard Metro and Veronica Metro, c/o Peter J. Mansmann, Esquire, 220 Grant Street, Pgh., PA 15219 in the amount of $5,000.00 in full settlement of lawsuits, arising from flooding on May 11, 1979 and causing damages to plaintiffs real and personal property located on Boundary Street, City of Pgh., payable from Code Account No. 46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 2477 Resolution providing for the issuance of a $34,500.00 warrant in favor of Bridget A. David in settlement of claim for property damage resulting from work performed by the Dept. of Public Works, payable from Code Account No. 46, Judgments. The Law Department is authorized to spend not in excess of $1,000.00 for closing costs payable from Code Account No. 46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 2478 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant to Budget Rent-A-Car, 1402 York Road, Abington, PA 19001, in the amount of $1,809.05 in full settlement of claim for automobile damage on Sept. 24, 1982 at Bingham Street by a Dept. of Police vehicle, payable from Code Account No. 46, Judgments.

Also,

No. 2479 Resolution amending Res. No. 285, appr. March 31, 1982 and eff. April 5, 1982, by providing for an increase in the appropriation from $35,000.00 to $70,000.00 for professional services in connection with the Clean Community System Program of Keep America Beautiful, Inc., chargeable to and payable from the Mayor's Miscellaneous Services Account, Code Account No. 1017.

Also,

No. 2480 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with an agency or agencies to provide labor market orientation services as required by the U.S. Dept. of Labor in connection with the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Summer Program, at a cost not to exceed $75,000.00, chargeable to and payable from CETA T-3 Trust Fund, federal funds.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Woods for Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2481

Report of the Committee on Finance for February 2, 1983 transmitting one ordinance and sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2305

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Mayor, Director of Finance, Treasurer and Controller, City of Pittsburgh, to establish an Infrastructure Trust Fund."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill No. 2305, Mr. Robinson, how soon will you have the other bill available that would make it palatable for me to vote on this? You were introducing another bill that would specify what the money would be for, where the money was coming from, so that we do not indeed go back to the capital fund, which is a tremendous interest-bearing burden on the City taxpayers, and not duplicate the efforts. And I changed my vote to vote with you on this providing that you would have that other bill available.

Mr. Robinson:

I believe that the record will reflect that I indicated that there would be an additional piece of legislation in the near future that related to the sources, or at least one source from which money could come, to go into this infrastructure trust fund. The purposes for which the money in the infrastructure trust fund can be spent are contained in Section 2 of the legislation. It's very clear and explicit. This bill does not take any money out of any existing funds. This bill only authorizes the establishment of the infrastructure trust fund to do some very specific things which are, construction, maintenance, repair, financing of bridges, streets, sewers, slopes and related projects.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, that's what we do with our capital dollars now. What I would like to do is see a section added that in this bill we cannot take any money out of our capital bond money to do this.

Mr. Robinson:

I don't think that it would be appropriate to add any sections to this bill which would indicate that you cannot take money out of the capital budget. It's rather obvious that the capital budget programs for specific projects which can be changed. There is a Capital Budget Review Committee of which Mr. Dave Matter, the Mayor's Executive Secretary, is the Chairperson. They meet regularly, they review projects regularly. And even though we have approved projects for the capital budget, many of those projects will not be completed on schedule because the Capital Budget Review Committee will make a decision not to complete it.

This particular trust fund give us the flexibility to put money into it that has not already been assigned and to do some very specific projects. Let me give you an example. If, indeed, the Capital Budget Review Committee decides they do not want to do a project that we in Council deemed necessary and important, we can tap the infrastructure trust fund to perform that particular function to do that particular project. I think Council is well aware that all members of Council from time to time have been requested to be very diligent about specific projects. Without mentioning the names of any of those projects, Council knows the great deal of controversy that usually arises when we attempt to complete a project that the Administration has decided that they don't want to do. The stumbling block is that they have already made arrangements to shift the money. There are monies in the City of Pittsburgh that have not yet encumbered, that are not yet identified for use. And I think that putting them into the infrastructure trust fund will go a long way to solving some of our problems around funding projects that we think are essential, particularly projects in the neighborhood.

Mr. O'Malley:

Where's this money coming from, Bill?

Mr. Robinson:

Again, the monies for the infrastructure trust fund can come from a number of sources. One, it can come from monies that are in the general fund. It can come from unencumbered money. It can come from interest --

Michelle Madoff:

What kind of unencumbered money?

Mr. Robinson:

Each year, Council has to pass a resolution about the first or second week of February to identify where unencumbered money from the previous year will be spent. We will be doing that in the next week or so. That's one source of money.

Another source is from interest from loans. For example, the City of Pittsburgh loaned to the Kossman Development Corporation $4.5 million at eight percent interest for twenty-seven years. If that loan is paid back, plus the interest, that money should come back to the City of Pittsburgh. We could tap that money. There are monies that come back from our UDAG Program. There's roughly $400,000 now in the bank from the Giant Eagle UDAG Project which has not been identified for youth.

So, there's lots of money, in a general sense, there's lots of money to put into the infrastructure trust fund. I don't think we'll have any problem at all finding any money.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond, Mr. President? Section 2 clearly clarifies where you want to spend the money and I agree with you that we've had, and I've given some other smaller examples, the Royal Street slide. There's one today where we're paying $37,000 for a wall that we took down that damaged somebody's property, now we're buying up the house. We had that little thing in Elliott-West End where the poor people there couldn't get five thousand dollars because it was a fight between Equitable and the City. But I would like to clearly have it clarified that no money from the general fund could come into this money because what we're doing is taking tax dollars, which are the first payment we have to make every year and pay off our debt service, and put it in this money. If there's other funds, fine. But I don't think we should duplicate the monies that are being spent in the capital bond money for special projects. And I agree with you that very frequently we are told by the Administration that money is going to be used for a project and then they delete that project or they switch it around.

You recall when we went out on the bond I asked every department to give me a list of projects that were absolutely necessary. We went out and we borrowed $70 million and we're paying it back at $207 million and yet we didn't go out on those projects. We went out and bought Eazor and bought other things. I want to be sure that we have some input on priorities but I don't think we want to create two infrastructure trust funds. We already have one with the creation of the capital bond money which is used for that purpose.

Mr. Robinson:

If I just might, one last comment on this because certainly I covered all this material on Wednesday and I'm sorry if members of Council were unable to get some clarification then. I think Mr. Johnson, the Assistant City Controller, clarified the issue of whether or not this type of trust fund could be established and his comments on the record were that all this legislation was doing was establishing an infrastructure trust fund and that any monies that would go into this fund or come out of this fund would have to be approved by City Council and therefore, for those Councilmembers who had some concern about what's going in and what's going out, this certainly would be an appropriate time to address that concern.

Michelle Madoff:

Which is why I changed my vote from no to aye, but I would also see no reason why, at this time, we cannot say that we would not take money out of the capital fund. It's just too costly. When we have an $800 million debt, total debt, in this City, we just can't do it, Bill. And I agree we can say no at that time, but I still think we need input on priorities and what the Administration is doing. That bridge that you've been trying to get for years and years should be a priority. I don't care if the money comes from another source but it can't come from that capital bond, or if it does, we should petition the Administration to do that.

The Chair:

If I may, Michelle, as Mr. Robinson stated a while ago and he's correct, we hashed and re-hashed all of this last Wednesday. We're really repeating ourselves.

Michelle Madoff:

I said the same thing last Wednesday. I still think we need another section in there that says the capital bond money would not be utilized for this second infrastructure trust fund.

Incidentally, have you spoken to the Administration about this, Mr. Robinson?

Mr. Robinson:

I don't understand your question.

Michelle Madoff:

Is there any objection from the Administration about establishing this fund?

Mr. Robinson:

I would suspect not. The persons who are directed to establish it, their names are very specific in the legislation. A representative of the Controller's Office was here Wednesday and indicated to this Council very specifically that there were no legal problems with us establishing a trust fund. That's the only question. Whether or not we want to establish a trust fund. That's all.

Michelle Madoff:

I have no problem with that providing the money from the capital funds don't go in. And you say we'll have the opportunity to do that?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes ma'am.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am voting no precisely because I feel that it is superfluous.

Mr. Givens:

I am voting no on this bill for the same reason and purpose that any monies that we have should go back into the general fund and if we start setting up specific funds for our surplus money to go into, I think we're going to box ourselves in in time to come.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 2305, I'm going to vote no because I think it may be duplication. I do not have any objections to creating a trust fund but I have great concern if that paragraph isn't put in to say it cannot say general funds. My convictions say I should vote no.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like my comments from last Wednesday regarding this bill brought forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS - BILL NO. 2305 - 2/2/83)

Mr. Robinson:

An infrastructure trust fund would be established to repair our bridges, our roads, some of the landslide situations that we have and will allow us the capability of zeroing in on specific kinds of repairs.

As I mentioned before, there are monies that are coming back to the City from our UDAG loans and that money can be tapped as well as Council certainly has the power to put money into that trust fund.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

In the body of the bill, I think all members of Council received some very specific instructions as to how this money should be spent. All the other monies that are in various other code accounts are to be spent in some specific ways. One of the things that this bill makes a decision for is for us to take care of landslides and types of situations such as Rural Street and Blessing Street, etc., and it gives us the capacity to assist in that area. We do not now address those kinds of concerns.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

This is not a contingency fund. The bill, which is very short --

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

MR. PERRY COMMENTS

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

The funds for this trust can come from any of the sources that the City can legally tap. I would assume that you would not put bond funds -- I would assume you would not do that and perhaps Mr. Johnson, from the Controller's Office, can give more specifics.

As I mentioned before, there are a number of programs that we have operating in the City where people are paying back loans to us. Let me give you an example. The City recently loaned $4.5 million to the Kossman Development Corporation to build some ramps out at Parkway Center; twenty-eight years at eight percent interest. When that money begins to come back to us, it is available for us to use. It would seem to me that that is a very good source for those funds and to address Mrs. Madoff's question, the next time we have to make a loan to someone by Mr. Kossman or someone else, you go into this infrastructure trust fund. We had to take other monies to make this loan to Mr. Kossman so he could make a necessary improvement. I'm saying, if we have a special fund that we know that's what those monies are going to be used for.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

No. As I mentioned before, there are a number of dollars that come into the City every year that we do not have calculated into the budget. Mrs. Madoff has mentioned on numerous occasions that monies that come in from the sale of buildings are really not calculated into the budget because we don't know which buildings are being sold. We have monies that we carry over from year to year so I think there's more than enough money to put into a new trust fund and we won't be taking anything away from any funds that are already there.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

No, that is not in the bill. I don't think that would be appropriate.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

It would be up to this Council.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

The bill reads that the Mayor, the Controller and the other persons you mentioned are authorized to establish the fund. To my knowledge they have no power to put money in there. We have the power to put money in there. It's up to this Council. They have the power to establish that fund. We are saying to establish it in a legal constitutional fashion.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

I think since Mr. Johnson is here from the Controller's Office, it might be appropriate to raise some of your concerns with him. For example, can it be established and are we well within our rights because I'm sure that Mr. Johnson and Mr. McGrady are not going to let us establish anything that is illegal.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like to explain my vote very quickly. I think that Mr. Johnson's explanation of what I'm trying to do is adequate. I certainly agree with Mrs. Madoff that there needs to be some other legislation. I anticipate doing that at the appropriate time. I vote aye.

Bill No. 2434

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing additional benefits to beneficiaries of the City of Pittsburgh Policemen's Relief and Pension Fund, Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund, and Municipal Pension Fund who retired prior to January 1, 1983."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

That's the insurance policy that Mr. Stone wants but we're going to vote on it now, right?

Mr. Flaherty:

Without the insurance policy.

Michelle Madoff:

Right, without the insurance policy.

Mr. Flaherty:

It's just fulfilling our commitment.

Michelle Madoff:

Right, because bread could go to five dollars a loaf and I want to be sure that we can amend that to higher than twenty-five in years to come and not put a cap on it.

Mr. Givens:

This is just filling our commitment of the $25 a month that we so indicated in our budget deliberations of 1983. What Mr. Stone was talking about the other day has not come up and I'm sure that will be scrutinized and debated by this Council before we act upon it.

The Chair:

Right. That doesn't include the insurance policy.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 2434 I believe it's important to point out, I believe, that by today Mr. Stone was to give us some concept of whether he was going to pursue looking into three companies. As Mr. Flaherty had stated, those companies would be brought before Council and it had gone out for a fair bid. And my concern is that I would not want to go that route. I want to adhere to our commitment to the retired police beneficiaries because, as I said earlier, we could go to five dollars for a loaf of bread. We're giving him twenty-five dollars now. If we buy a policy, we may be locking ourselves in to a point where we cannot raise that figure and I have great concern over that.

So, I'm going to vote yes on 2434 as it is.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would like to share some very important information with Council and with the public. Very frequently, young couples go out to buy a house and we have not had, until now, a final reading on a water bill. So, they end up sometime later finding they have this huge water bill that was never factored into the closing cost. It appears that the Water Department, through Mr. Chiappetta, is going to start giving a final reading and there will be a $15.00 service charge. I think that is terribly important because my office is constantly swamped when real estate is moving. Of course, right now we've been somewhat at a standstill.

I would think it's important, and I'll notify the Water Department, to notify all the title companies so that people will be saved the annoyance. And we should also notify the realtors that when they close, there is now a service available for a final reading for $15.00 which would save them a lot of headache later on, and thousands of dollars.

Mr. Givens:

Just an observation, Mr. President, that for the past several weeks I've been going into many homes in the City of Pittsburgh and the thermostats have been set at sixty-eight degrees and below with people sitting around with sweaters on. In this room, as vast as it might be, that temperature was seventy-five degrees, even though the thermostat was set differently. Something must happen here. I went over and put the occupation switch on and that ensues the air conditioning to come in. That's more energy than must be wasted. Michelle went over and shut it off because it's on the chilly side.

I ask, then, that the Chief Clerk send a letter from this Council down to our Lands and Buildings and that my colleague over here might put some weight behind it and seriously get into the controls over there and do something to regulate the temperature so we can save and conserve on energy. Thank you.

The Chair:

I thought that was set at a certain temperature.

Michelle Madoff:

I've raised this issue several times. If you go to almost any Councilman's office now, most of them are boxes, they're just tiny little rooms with two or three people working in them, and because they're so hot and they have no control on them, they're running the air conditioning at this time of year, which is a disgrace.

I think we need to have that energy audit report back to us as soon as possible. Open a window instead of putting on the air conditioning.

Mrs. Masloff moved to excuse Mr. Stone for absence from the meeting.

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 2475, every member of Council received a legal opinion from Mr. Pellegrini, our Solicitor, dated February 11, 1983. In light of that opinion, I'd like members of Council to have an opportunity to peruse and absorb Mr. Pellegrini's opinion.

Mr. Robinson moved to recommit Bill No. 2475.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might, I'd just like to have a copy of Mr. Pellegrini's opinion entered into the record today. Thank you.

(OPINION FROM MR. PELLEGRINI, SOLICITOR)

February 11, 1983

Honorable President and Members
City Council
CITY OF PITTSBURGH

Dear Mr. President and Members:

You have requested an opinion as to whether Ordinance No. 28 of 1978 and Bill No. 2475 of 1983 are legal. Ordinance No. 28 of 1978 provides that all boards, authorities, funds and agencies authorized by the City of Pittsburgh shall, inter alia, develop and maintain a business development program for participation by minorities and women and periodically make reports on their programs. Bill No. 2475 requires that the Solicitor impose fines on and revoke contracts with those authorities who fail to make the required reports.

By boards, authorities, funds and agencies, it is assumed that the ordinance refers to those boards that govern Authorities and that are not part of the structure of the City of Pittsburgh, e.g., Zoning Board of Adjustment. Authorities are created pursuant to state enabling legislation. In Commonwealth v. Erie Metropolitan Transit Authority, 444 Pa. 345 (1971), the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania defined the legal status of an Authority. It stated at page 348:

"This Court has consistently held that municipal authorities are not the creatures, agents or representatives of the municipalities which organize them, but rather are 'independent agencies of the Commonwealth and part of its sovereignty.' Whitemarsh Township Authority v. Elwert, 413 Pa. 329, at 332, 196 A.2d 843 (1964); see also Simon Appeal, 408 Pa. 464, 184 A.2d 695 (1962); Tranter v. Allegheny County Authority, 316 Pa. 65, 173 Atl. 289 (1934); Commonwealth ex rel. McCreary v. Major, 343 Pa. 355, 22 A.2d 686 (1941); M.G. Mosites Co. v. Southwestern Penna. Water Authority, 40 Pa. D. & C.2d 251 (Fayette Cty. 1966) . . ."

Because Authorities are independent agencies of the Commonwealth, the City of Pittsburgh has no power to unilaterally impose any requirements upon the Authorities or the Boards that govern them.

Accordingly, it is the opinion of this Department that Ordinance No. 28 of 1978 is to be deemed solely as a voluntary request by the City to the Authority for them to submit reports on their business development programs to the City.

Bill No. 2475 of 1983 which seeks to amend Ordinance 28 of 1978 purports to impose penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirement contained in that ordinance. Initially, it is clear that the Bill is defective in that, a fortiori, the City cannot impose a penalty for failure to supply information when it has no authority to impose that requirement. Moreover, even if Ordinance 28 of 1978 were deemed to be legally binding on the Authorities, Bill No. 2475 requires the Solicitor, by fiat, to impose a fine upon the authorities or their boards when they fail to submit the requested report. No Authority exists for the unilateral imposition of a fine by the Solicitor or an Authority or Board.

Nor can the Solicitor enforce that provision of the Bill that requires the Solicitor to terminate existing contracts with those Authorities which fail to submit the information requested without subjecting the City to damages for breach of contract.

Section 220 of the Home Rule Charter provides that a member of Council shall be appointed to each authority board. To accomplish the purpose of Ordinance 28 of 1978, it is suggested that each Councilmember move at their respective Authority Board meeting to direct the Board staff to submit the requested information to the City.

Very truly yours,

D.R. Pellegrini
City Solicitor

(END - OPINION FROM MR.
PELLEGRINI, SOLICITOR)

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask Mr. Robinson a question?

The Chair:

Certainly.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, did you get your own legal counsel?

Mr. Robinson:

It was my understanding that we were going to wait until we got an opinion from the Law Department.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. But we did vote, I believe, that you would have your own legal counsel. We had five votes for you because that is now the new rule. Will you have enough time between now to discuss with this Council your own counsel?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, I will. But I think it's appropriate for Mr. Pellegrini or someone on his staff to be here Wednesday to not only talk about the opinion but also about Ordinance No. 28.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine. I just want to be sure that we're not back to go. We don't have our own fiscal advisor, we don't have our own legal people unless five people vote for it. You got that from Council and I hope you would exercise it.

The Chair:

Thank you.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Givens presents

Bill No. 2530 WHEREAS, the National Salute to Hospitalized Veterans is organized to recognize and pay tribute to the many men and women in Veterans Administration Medical Centers across the country who are facing personal battles of illness, pain and loneliness; and

WHEREAS, on February 15, the Veterans Administration is celebrating the 1983 National Salute to Hospitalized Veterans at the Highland Drive Medical Center; and

WHEREAS, the Veterans Administration is also celebrating its Thirtieth Anniversary of their Medical Center.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh join the nation in honoring and recognizing the million and a quarter veterans who are admitted each year to Veterans Administration Medical Centers across the country, and extend our most heartfelt thanks for their unselfish gift to this nation; and we wish them a speedy recovery from their personal battles of illness, pain, and loneliness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby commend, honor and recognize the Thirtieth Anniversary of the Highland Drive Medical Center.

Mr. Givens moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I might add a personal note, if I could, Mr. President. I am a volunteer member of that particular hospital and I can acquaint one time when I was in the medical hospital in San Diego after going through serious open heart surgery and the first volunteer came up to me. When you're in the hospital it's just like having someone visit you. The normal medical staff is there continuously, day and night, and they're being paid to take care of you, etc. But when you have a visitor, and I was in this particular part of the country and my whole family and all my friends were back here in the City of Pittsburgh and I was stuck out in the hospital there, and when one of these volunteers came up and offered a little glass of refreshment and a cookie, I felt very emotional about it that somebody cared outside, that somebody wanted to come in and see some of the veterans who were laid up in the hospital.

I recommend to all of our people here, several veterans within our Council group right here, that they take a moment in their busy schedule to go up and visit the veterans hospital during this particular week. Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. To the maker of the motion, may I make a suggestion? When we honor them and we recognize them, should we not be, at the same time, wishing them a recovery from their personal battles of illness, pain and loneliness?

Mr. Givens:

Yes. I'd be more than happy to.

Mr. Stone:

You might put that right after the first resolved. "And we wish them a speedy recovery from their personal battles of illness, pain and loneliness."

The Chair:

We certainly offer congratulations on behalf of City Council for this wonderful group of people. Thank you.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2531 WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh did by resolution in 1966 authorize the creation of a Central Housing and Business Relocation Agency; and

WHEREAS, the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh was designated to carry out the relocation program outlined in the Honorable James Jordan's Resolution No. 81 of April 29, 1966; and

WHEREAS, both the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh and the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh have provided relocation services to both displaced persons and businesses in Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, City Council desires to maintain and financially support one centralized relocation effort.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens, does pledge to work with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh and the Housing Authority of Pittsburgh as well as the concerned citizens, for a Central Relocation Agency to develop an independent relocation program for the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Robinson, from what I heard at the hearing the other day, it would seem most advisable if this Relocation Agency was separate from the Housing Authority which is doing the job now. The Housing Authority Director thought so also and most of the people there did. Do we have any idea who would carry those duties out?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, Councilman Woods and myself, along with Mr. Pietragallo, the Executive Director of the Housing Authority, will be meeting with Mr. Brophy, the Executive Director of the Urban Redevelopment Authority, to develop a model agency and we will discuss not only what the agency should look like, but where it should be housed, what kind of staffing it should have and how it should be funded.

Also, the concerned citizens who called for the hearing will have an opportunity to have input and review our suggestions and proposals and then they will be brought to Council in the form of legislation to actually establish the agency. But I think that most of the persons who are concerned about this issue would like to see a separate agency which is funded by City government.

Mr. Givens:

I appreciate the resolution itself. I guess several Councilmembers are going in the same direction. I have been talking to members of the Urban Redevelopment staff in trying to establish something for the Relocation Agency. At the same time, and of course it was submitted into Council today and will come up this coming Wednesday, for a Department of Relocation. Now, that will have to go to the Mayor for his deliberations or whatever we can do, I think all jointly, together we are trying to go for the same entity. I didn't realize Bill and Ben Woods had this particular resolution and I'm sure they did not know that I had the trend of thought that I was going on and that is to form some type of directorship.

It was very clear to me, and I think all members of Council, at that particular public hearing, wherein the Housing Authority and the Urban Redevelopment Authority was saying that they didn't want this particular agency in their particular authority. So, I felt that because of the restrictive time limit of March 31 when they're going to draw down on that $100,000 that we must put this location someplace. Hopefully, it will come under our Housing Court. But until that comes in and is approved, regardless of what happens, that it happens in a timely fashion is all that I am interested in at this time, I'm sure as other Councilmembers are.

Mr. Woods:

Dick, if I may, both agencies that right now are presently doing it, have enough money with the present staff they have to last the entire 1983 year. That's why we have enough time, we don't have to rush into anything. And that's why Bill and I discussed it with the particular other individuals to make this a resolution that we'll have all year to work on this thing so that we do come up with funding starting January 1, 1984, so that we don't just bang into this thing. That's why we have this as a resolution.

Mr. Givens:

I think it was evident, Ben, at that public hearing that many of the people that testified felt that because there was no Director, because the Relocation Agency, per se, and its staff had been diluted and disseminated primarily into the Housing Authority, but under the Administrative Manager that it was losing continuity. The civilian watchdog of the Relocation Agency also expressed that concern. I don't think we can keep this agency in limbo for one year until we decide what roof we're going to put it under with the Director and with the staff to carry out the relocation. We talk about code enforcement and we talk about people who have to be housed after a particular fire, and when you talk about other things that this particular group had done over the past several years, for example, condemnation by the Health Department, project relocation and property management of some URA and that of Housing Authority property and blight prevention. Blight prevention, this is the agency that did this. Who is going to do our blight prevention this coming spring? And we're right around the corner right now.

I want to know these questions and I think we must deliberate on this very quickly.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to add one more thing. Mr. Givens, they've been doing it under the Housing Authority since 1966, what they're doing right now. And I don't foresee any immediate emergency within ten months. Nothing is going to be any different. If they've done it for sixteen years, I'm sure that they can do it for another ten months. It's as simple as that. It's funded, the money is there. March 1, you use that date, that's two and a half weeks away, nothing is going to happen. They're going to be there.

The Chair:

Ben, the Housing Authority will continue to perform that function until the new agency is --

Mr. Woods:

Right. Like they've done for the last sixteen years, Mr. President.

Mr. Givens:

But they're doing it without a Director and they're doing it, as people indicated here at the public hearing, without adequate staff.

Mr. Woods:

Dick, they're doing it with the same Director that they've had for sixteen years. The Director of the Housing Authority. He might be a different individual, but it's the same person that they've had for the last sixteen years.

Mr. Givens:

The Staff Director of the Relocation Agency, there's no one particular individual that's in charge of that. It's been disseminated into a major branch of the Housing Authority over there.

The Chair:

Dick, we really don't have any choice until the new agency is set up. Somebody has to do it.

Mr. Givens:

That's right.

The Chair:

And until you set up the new agency they're going to have to do it.

Mr. Givens:

And I think this Council, along with the Mayor and the two Authorities, should get into this very quickly and decide what is going to happen.

Mr. Robinson:

Just one quick comment in reference to Mr. Givens' suggestion that we move with dispatch. The City Charter indicates that if a new unit of government is initiated by City Council that the legislation must be submitted to the Mayor and the Mayor has thirty days in which to react. Since I've been on this Council, the Mayor has never reacted in less than thirty days. So, even if we want to move with dispatch, we cannot do it any less than thirty days from the day that your bill goes into Committee. And it would seem to me that if we're going to establish an agency that might spend almost a half a million dollars that we don't want to throw it together with paper clips and scotch tape, that we don't want to accentuate the problem that already exists, that we want to make sure that it's put in place properly, that it's housed properly, and that we follow all of the rules and regulations because I think that the people who complained, their complaint was that the agency was not put together right and they wanted us to put it together right. And I think that suggests that we need to take some time.

Mr. Givens:

I beg to agree with you. This Council created a Department of Economic Development. It has now been put into the Urban Redevelopment Authority. I hear from Councilman Robinson that he gets very concerned about the economic development within the City of Pittsburgh. When you create a directorship, you're given the greatest authority that this Council can ever give. I'll just leave it lay there.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I have a floor motion that members of City Council respectfully request and send a letter to Warner Cable, locally and their main office, respectfully, and I say that three times, request, and I say that again, request, because we do not have the authority to mandate, that they change their practice of notifying their customers, or to give their customers thirty days notice before they have any rate increases over which Warner has jurisdiction and Council does not, and I believe that's called pay service.

As you know, Warner has increased their pay service to their consumers, to their clients. The people are up in arms. All of us have received correspondence, mail, telephone calls, very disturbed, and while they have the right under law to raise the rates at any time for pay service, I think as a Council that voted for them we at least have the right to request that they give somebody thirty days notice when they're going to increase their fees. What is happening is that they go to somebody's house, they solicit their business, they put in the cable two weeks later, and then the month they get bill the rate isn't what they signed up for. And since we cannot control them, we have no jurisdiction over law, at least we, as a responsible representative of the community, ask that Warner give everybody thirty days notice from the time they sign up. And that further, they move immediately to improve their service department which is in terrible disarray. I have numerous letters in my office about people who are business people, lawyers particularly, who have taken two or three days of work, were told they would be home between say two and four or ten and noon. Nobody shows up, nobody bothers to call and tell them they're not going to show up, nobody answers their telephone for twenty to thirty minutes when there's a complaint. I think we have a responsibility on this Council to respectfully request that Warner act a little more responsible in the areas in which we do not have jurisdiction. Because in the areas that we do have jurisdiction, we will take their behavior into consideration. That is a motion. A floor motion. Can we have a second?

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

The Chair:

In regards to the hearing we had with the people from Warner and several residents of the City of Pittsburgh, most of the second part of what you said was discussed and I gather that at that hearing we were told that they were going to conform and those things wouldn't happen in the future.

Michelle Madoff:

They are happening, Mr. President.

The Chair:

You're probably right.

The first one was in regards to the rate increase, a flat rate increase. I thought that was a matter for Council to approve or disapprove.

Michelle Madoff:

No, sir. There's two sections of rate increases. One that Warner has jurisdiction all by themselves and that's on pay cable.

The Chair:

Are you talking about paid movies?

Michelle Madoff:

Right. I believe so, but you can clarify that. But it's on the pay end. They can raise it today again, if they want, and tomorrow again. As long as people are dumb enough to buy it and pay those kind of rates if they want it.

The Chair:

But Michelle, if they want to raise a movie to ten dollars and somebody wants to pay the ten dollars --

Michelle Madoff:

That's fine. I have no objections to that. If somebody wants to pay it, that's their problem. But I'm saying that they should at least have the common decency not to put it in today and when the bill arrives a week later to have the rate go up. We can't mandate them. We can't make them do it. But we have the right, as a Council, to send an official letter as we do on many issues, to many legislators, to many bodies, making a request that they give everybody thirty days notice.

How would you like to have your friends and neighbors, and I'm sure they've told you, or yourself, Mr. DePasquale, if you had Warner Cable, and you're solicited one week, two weeks later it's put in and the very next week you get your bill and it isn't what you bought. Don't you think common decency would indicate that you should have thirty days notice? I see you're agreeing with me.

All we're doing is making a request. We cannot mandate it, but I think that Council can reflect on the response that we get from Warner as to what decision we make when they come before us for their rate increase over which we have jurisdiction.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, just a minute. In the matter of the only increase that Warner has made so far, when they sent their bills out, they notified each person that as of the next bill they would have a rate increase. I have documentation as to that. If people didn't read the notices that came with their bills that's unfortunate. Nobody receives more complaints than I do and I follow every single one up. Warner has had problems, they've had growing pains and I'm the first one to admit that. And when they're doing the wrong thing I'm the first one to tell them. But I think they're cleaning up their act considerably. You can call Warner today. They are staggering their billing dates so that all bills don't come due at the same time and they don't get all kinds of complaints at the same time. By and large, Warner is trying very, very hard. People are having complaints. As I said, they're having growing pains and they're having all kinds of problems, but they are cleaning their act up. They've added a whole new bank of telephones. This is a whole new system in Pittsburgh. They have something like 63,000 homes that they've wired and they are trying very, very hard to do a good job. There are complaints and I've followed every single one up and they've cleaned them up as best they can. I'm not saying they're perfect and there probably is a lot of room for complaint. But I think it behooves us all to follow them up when we hear them.

Mr. Flaherty:

I certainly agree with

Councilwoman Masloff that Warner has had their growing pains. Unfortunately, it has been the public that has ached a lot during that growing process. I know that my office is still receiving complaints in regard to the operation of Warner Cable. Some of the complaints are in regard to what Councilwoman Michelle Madoff's resolution is in regard to. That's why I wholeheartedly support it. I think that Council certainly has to enhance its reputation in how it is dealing also with Warner Cable. And though this is strictly an advisory measure, I think it is one that will go a long way toward telling the public that this Council certainly has sensitivity to the plight it has had with Warner Cable and, hopefully, Warner Cable will respond to Council's plea and perhaps also show more sensibility and sensitivity.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the reason I am putting forth a very strong emphasis on the issue of notification of rate increase is that many people who are buying the Warner service are buying because they don't get out. It's their form of entertainment. They probably splurge and take it away from food in some instances because they feel it puts them in touch with the world, and like most people, including all members of Council, many of us do not read the fine print when we get a bill from the PUC saying that our rate increase has gone up on our electric bill or our gas bill. I think it needs a big pink slip that says, "Please be advised that while you bought your cable last week from us, or three weeks ago, and you've just installed it this week, that your rates have gone up since and we want you to be aware of it", because people have called my office saying that they are now cancelling. And they said that at this hearing because they bought it at one price and they're paying it at a double price. And I think that it does not hurt to go on record, Councilwoman Masloff, to say yes, as Councilman Flaherty says, we have sensitivity to the public, that we want two things. One, that they promise they're going to get their act together and improve their service.

And I can tell you that I have a letter from an attorney that arrived in my office three days ago. I happen to know him and that's why he sent it to me, I don't know him well. If you want some arguments on how disastrous Warner is, here is what has happened to me, I cannot take this time away from my practice, and he's really up in arms. And this is three days old.

The other one is the issue that calls are coming in in droves saying, "I'm cancelling." They think we're the ones raising the rates. We are not, of course, because we have no control over paid television. And why would you take the position that you would not even want to request this be done, I cannot imagine. You almost sound like you're the advocat for Warner, anything they do is fine and they're really improving, but you're on their board. I have defended you at the Advisory Board Meeting when you were accused of politicising the issue of asking for a lower rate for senior citizens. I said that that was not true. Sophie Masloff introduced it because it was the appropriate time to do it. I think that I supported you when you were right and I defended you and I think it's only fair that you show the public what side you're on. Either you're on Warner's or on their's.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. Invariably, we have people say they shouldn't attack the other, but we get it depending on whether they agree with you or not. I think that Councilperson Masloff has made a very valid point in the sense that it's been her committee, she's watched it, she's observed it. We have here in the form of a resolution, and I don't know why it wasn't preceded by a letter or a telephone call to Warner saying that these are some of the complaints we've had and can you respond to this matter and see what's involved before we start the program are you still beating your wife theory.

I'm told here today, and we've filed charges and prosecuted and now we're ready for sentence on Warner without whether or not the facts are correct. It's been told by the Committeeperson that notice is given of rate increases. We're told now by someone else, and I have no documentation on that although just recently we had Warner here and they indicated they would be willing to comply with everything. I don't know why we always need resolutions unless we're politicizing. It would appear to me that what ought to be done is a mere letter to them to find out what's involved without trying to make a big harangue here in Council about it all the time and then accusing someone else of doing the thing that that person themselves are doing.

The Chair:

Mr. Stone, if I may, I won't dispute with you on the right of a resolution, but at the same time, there are some real serious problems down there. I hear about them and I know you and everybody else hears them. I have one in particular. I've always prided myself on my credit rating and the last three payments I made to Warner I was told they didn't receive and unless they received them by a certain date they were going to pull my TV out. This is three times running now. So, it's happened to me and it's happened to a lot of other people and I'm just wondering if they're going to get that act together soon.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, that's a problem with all businesses. I have cable TV and when my rate was increased, I opened up the bill and it says your rate is going to be increased in one month, the next billing date. I haven't had one complaint. I'm still new on this Council and I realize a lot don't know I'm a Councilman. But I haven't had any complaints about Warner's rate increases. The one that's proposed I've had, but not their billing dates or their services or whatever. But I was notified when my rate increase went in.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it's very unfortunate that we're in an election at this time because I'm not saying anything now that I didn't say some time ago. There was a hearing here before Council. I'm being accused of politicizing. We had a public hearing and uniformly the people that were here complaining said exactly what I'm saying today and Warner did indeed get up and say they are going to get their act together. They have not got their act together. That is why I am making this floor resolution today. There was a play or a book or a movie called Promises, Promises. It's easy to promise anything but they have to know that this Council will take into consideration their interaction with their consumers as to what will happen when we go to vote. I don't think reiterating our position will hurt anything, number one. And number two, I would like to know how my esteemed colleague, Mr. Stone, knows that nobody contacted Warner to say, "What are you doing to make things better and why are you still beating your wife?" Because indeed I did speak to them personally and advised the people who have called me to speak to them and furthermore, I can substantiate that I have turned every complaint that I have gotten over to Brother Richard Emenecker who has done a tremendous job of following up and Brother Richard will tell you the complaints are still coming in. So, what are we so afraid of to take the side of the public just to reinforce the issue that we want to see them move in the right direction and not take Mr. DePasquale's television out after three months of threatening.

Mr. O'Malley:

Call for the vote.

The Chair:

Before we call the vote, I want to get clear myself. Are we talking about drafting a letter to Warner or a resolution?

Mr. O'Malley:

We're talking about doing what Warner already does. It's redundant and it's ridiculous. Could we call for the vote please?

The Chair:

Michelle, I'll ask you one more time. Are we talking about drafting a letter to Warner or resolution?

Michelle Madoff:

Sir, it's a floor motion because under law I did not have a resolution prepared and I did a floor motion and I'm requesting that we draft a letter respectfully requesting that Warner improve and that we're still getting complaints. And I don't think that's so terrible in asking that not only do they perhaps put their notice in their bill saying your rates are going to go up, but put in a special slip so that people will see it and that they start giving some better service.

You may recall, Mr. President and members of Council who were at that hearing, that they pointed out that they have now discharged many of their installers but they are now starting to hire people to handle the complaints and they admitted they do have problems. They have not addressed the problems and I think it's time that we just reinforced our position to put them on notice. And I don't see anything wrong with that.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if I might. As Chairman of the Department of Public Works wherein the Cable Bureau comes from, and as Michelle Madoff so indicated, people are concerned. I've received probably as many calls if not more calls along with Sophie, within the Council here, on these complaints. Again, they're referred to Brother Richard Emenecker. That telephone number is 255-2084 if they would like to call him direct.

We have set up a procedure. Our own Council's committee on Cable Bureau wherein if the citizens do have these complaints, it's funneled into Brother Richard Emenecker. Through that Council's committee we sit down and discuss these in an orderly fashion. If we are to shoot from the hip as we're trying to do here right now, we're not going to have an orderly fashion of business between this Council, the customers out there and Warner Cable. We have that mechanism, it was well thought out. In the Ordinance of the City of Pittsburgh it's established and if we follow those procedures I think everything will be worked out.

March 8, I believe it is, there will be a public hearing in this Council where all the Councilpeople are invited to review the three year review of Warner. And I'm sure some of these things are going to come up and concrete action is going to be taken. I'm not for anyone not being notified of some changes in their bills. However, I receive many bills that I do not receive any prior notification of my utility bills, etc., going up. This is a practice that should be corrected.

Mr. Flaherty:

If Michelle would entertain a slight amendment that I have. Some of the complaints that I have had have been from new subscribers to cable. No sooner are they hooked for cable that a week or two afterwards prior to even receiving their first bill they are notified of a rate increase. I would just wish to amend it that it also be included in the letter that when new subscribers are signed up that when they sign up they are told that there will be a rate increase in the near future or within the thirty day period.

Michelle Madoff:

I certainly accept that amendment.

Mr. Stone:

Call the question.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask a question? Point of information? I'm going to pay you a compliment, but don't take it personally. Whenever we have a vote on Council where we have a contractor that is related to you, if memory serves me well, in the four and a half years that I have been on this Council, you have always said, "I cannot vote on that issue".

The Chair:

It's because I feel it's a conflict. I think it's written in the Charter that you can't vote if it's a relative. And half the contractors in Pittsburgh are related.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you know that we have a member of this Council who has a member of their family employed by Warner? And therefore it is a conflict of interest for that member to vote on anything to do with Warner Cable.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, I have a daughter that is twenty-three years of age who, through no undertakings of my own, sought employment within that type of work that is normally conducted by any cable company. That is a pole climber, etc. She went out on the market like any other individual woman did, as you, Michelle, so many times advocated wanting women's rights. Well, here it is, hon. My daughter went out there in all sincerity, was in the marketplace with the men and she competed. She was the best pole climber that OIC every had. She was employed by Warner and her dad had nothing to do with it. In fact, I submit to you, Michelle, that if you go back and look at the records as to how this Councilman voted on that particular franchise, I did not vote for Warner —

Michelle Madoff:

Your daughter wasn't working there then.

Mr. Givens:

I will not, unless the Legal Department tells me —

Michelle Madoff:

May I have a legal opinion on that?

Mr. Givens:

Please, Michelle. I'm talking now. Will you leave me talk? Will you please? Will you do that, Michelle? I'd appreciate it very much.

Mr. President, it's a very serious note, it's a very serious accusation that Michelle made.

The Chair:

The Chair rules that it's not a conflict, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

I ask that Mike Perry and our Legal Department to see if there's any conflict of interest in the fact that she is not my dependent any longer, nor has been for many, many years, and I don't think anyone's family should be —

The Chair:

First of all, Mr. Givens, you're not voting on a rate increase or anything that affects the public in regards to money. So, certainly you can vote on the drafting of a letter to Warner.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I have a daughter who works for television and she asked me if I would speak to Warner. I said definitely not and she's now working in Tampa, Florida for another commercial station.

Mr. Givens:

May I say, Mr. President, that I have eight children and all but one are living in the City of Pittsburgh and darn it I want them to stay right here in the City of Pittsburgh. I have eight grandchildren and in our immediately family there's something like forty some grandchildren that my mother has. They work in banks, they work in every entity within this government. If I am to sit here and be judged as Michelle is trying to judge me, then I say that she is wrong. And I will put her to the test. And I will put our Legal Department to the test. I cannot vote for anything that comes up in Duquesne Light because I have brothers in Duquesne Light Company or anything else that comes before this Council, no, unless they have stock, unless they're a director, unless there's somebody who's making very strong decision making matters, or the president of the company, then I think there's problem.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I maintain that if a member of your family works for a company it is your responsibility to abstain from voting.

The Chair:

Roll call vote, please.

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye because it's pro-consumer and pro-public interest.

Mr. Givens:

I'm abstaining on this vote and I'd like to say why I'm abstaining. Again, there's a suggestion coming up, shooting from the hip, put before this Council on what should be done. There is a mechanism that has been designed in the ordinance of the City of Pittsburgh as to how this thing should correctly be accomplished. I follow the ordinance that has been laid down by the City of Pittsburgh and this is not in accordance with that particular ordinance. So I abstain.

Mrs. Masloff:

I vote no because it's a complete waste of time and an exercise in futility.

Mr. O'Malley:

I agree with Sophie Masloff that Michelle is asking for something to be done that Warner has been doing since they've been in business. I think the resolution is ridiculous and redundant.

I vote no and I'd also like to add one more comment. I've worked with Mr. Givens for three years. I think he has integrity and I think he is a very honest gentleman and I think it was a cheap shot.

Mr. Woods:

I'm pro-public. I'm for the public and that's why I'm voting no because I don't want to mislead them, like we have any control.

The Chair:

I was undecided until Mr. Givens brought the fact out that we're going to have a hearing March 8 for the three year in-depth study of Warner. So, I'll vote no.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm glad this is being televised.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. I don't believe that the meeting that Mr. Givens is referring to is a public hearing. I believe in the ordinance that the Superintendent of the Cable Bureau is supposed to do a three year review. Brother Richard Emenecker was here and indicated that he was going to design a procedure that could involve members of Council. We have yet to see what that procedure is and I think Council ought to be aware that the review that he is conducting is not a public hearing and there is no structured input for Council. If Mr. Givens or anyone else on this Council wants a hearing on Warner Cablevision, they're going to have to call it themselves.

Mr. Givens:

This review is going to be conducted in the views of a public hearing and both written and verbal testimony will be submitted at that review.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3 NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mrs. Masloff Mr. Woods

Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Stone

Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I now wish to ask that a public hearing please be scheduled inviting knowledgeable representatives from Warner-Amex Corporation from the Pittsburgh Pirate Club and from the City Solicitor's Office in regard to, primarily, the recent major stock transaction between Warner-Amex and the Pirate ballclub.

When the transaction occurred on January 14, it was within three weeks that the new Stadium agreement was finally enacted.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Flaherty, are you making a motion?

Mr. Flaherty:

I believe we need some clarification. It was always my understanding that a member of Council could ask for a public hearing.

Mr. Robinson:

I wanted to second your motion and you were going into an explanation.

Mr. Flaherty:

Very good. I just want to explain why I'm doing this. I feel --

The Chair:

Excuse me, Mr. Flaherty. We're talking about a motion that has been seconded. What exactly is the motion?

Mr. Flaherty:

To hold a public hearing inviting knowledgeable representatives from the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club and from Warner-Amex and also a representative from the City Solicitor's Office because I believe that there are quite a few questions that are certainly in the public's interest that I'm sure that probably a few members of Council could put to the respective representatives.

I'm going to be extremely concise. As I'm sure we are all aware, on January 14 Warner-Amex purchased forty-eight percent of the Pirate stock. And this was within three weeks of the final enactment of the new Stadium agreement. I sort of saw a red flag then.

I have to say that last Sunday when I was reading the New York Times on February 6, there was an article in the sports of the Times by Murray Chase which caused me to see a shaking red flag. It shed some information that I was not aware of previously and it states the Galbreaths in that they had considered the option of selling the majority of their stocks to Warner Cable and it goes on further stating to Dan Galbreath in saying, "We'll probably just go into it for now with forty-eight percent" he explained. But as we go on down the road, maybe there will be something more.

I think we are broaching upon a very serious public policy issue because, as I'm sure all members of Council recall, in July during the public hearing representatives from the Pirates said that they were not going to sell the club and we heard numerous arguments from the Pirates Ball Club as to why they were in such very dire financial straits. We also heard from the Pirates that they could not see any foreseeable impact that cable television would have on the financial condition of the club and there is just a lot of serious issues. I myself found it grating that within three weeks after we, I'm speaking of Council as a whole and the Mayor's Office, gave the Pirates a new Stadium agreement and before the ink was even dry they were reshuffling their stock. I think there's very serious questions to be posed as to if the value of the Pirates stock was greatly increased due to the new Stadium agreement. Referring again to Murray Chase's New York Times article, there are certainly strong indications in there that the stock was greatly increased. There's quotes to that effect because of the Stadium agreement.

So, what it comes down to essentially is that I would like to know when conversations, negotiations, were first broached in regard to a stock transaction. I think this is information that could have been extremely crucial as to this Council's deliberative weighing of a new Stadium issue and I am certainly not going to prejudge any actions here because we simply do not have the information. And that information can only be provided to us by representatives from the Pirates and from Warner-Amex. And I would hope that they would act in the good faith that this City has certainly acted towards them and their corporate bloodline.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty, if I may, we're all aware of the fact that twenty-five people can sign a petition to request a hearing from City Council. Now, my curiosity is that I'm under the impression that any Councilperson can request a hearing and it's my prerogative to set that hearing. I think it's obviously the part of the Chair to follow that request and to honor it.

You asked for a motion and it was seconded. I wonder if that was necessary. I don't think but I'd like to ask the Parliamentarian. Does Council have to give a majority vote on Mr. Flaherty's request or should the Council Chair honor that request while it's being made?

Parliamentarian:

I'll read the Council rule on public hearing. Rule 15 - Public hearings may be granted to petitioners and remonstrance any other matter affecting public businesses which are the jurisdiction of Council. Such hearings shall be held on the day at such time that may be fixed by the President of Council. The President shall preside at all such hearings.

Michelle Madoff:

You haven't answered the question. Can a member of Council request a hearing?

Parliamentarian:

The rule says that a member can request one.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, if I may. Past practice, since I've been here, was when one member asked it was granted. I've asked for a couple and it was granted.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask a question, Mr. President? I have two questions but I'll try to be brief.

Mr. Flaherty, I think you left something out and I'd like clarification. Am I wrong in my understand that when we had the Galbreaths here and we asked the question are you going to sell your team, they said no. Did they not say that they would not sell it? Wasn't that part of the agreement, that they were not going to sell?

Mr. Flaherty:

That's one of the issues that is of primary importance. There is certainly a section, Section 4203, which I think needs to be interpreted in the legal sense where it says that the City has to be notified if the Pirates permit any other corporation to merge into it or sell all or substantially all its assets or institute proceedings for its liquidation.

I think we need some guidance on this. I'm sure that the representative from the City Solicitor's Office at the public hearing could perhaps give us some guidance on it.

Michelle Madoff:

Am I correct?

Mr. Flaherty:

Your are correct but I don't think we should open the can of worms here.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to know if my memory was correct.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. I think you are asking and you are certainly touching upon a most important issue.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't want to pursue it, I just wanted to ask the question.

The Chair:

Are we going to have a vote on this, Mr. Parliamentarian?

Parliamentarian:

It's been indicated that past practice does not require a vote.

Michelle Madoff:

But I would like to request a vote. I think the reason we should request a vote is getting back again to whose side is this Council on. The public's or the private side? Every member of this Council was severely chastised by many of our own supporters saying that we voted not in their interest. I believe that we voted not for a good or bad contract but the choice between a bad and a worse. If the Galbreaths didn't own the Stadium, we owned it.

I would also like to go on record as a matter of integrity that I had received, unbeknownst to me, a $250.00 contribution from Galbreaths and after that vote, I returned the money saying that I could not keep the money in light of the fact that I had voted with them. That's what I call integrity. And if I had somebody in my family who worked for the Galbreaths, I would abstain from voting. I think we ought to take a vote right now to show how we feel about having a hearing.

The Chair:

I'm going to overrule you, Michelle, and take the prerogative of the Chair of setting a hearing date.

Mr. Woods:

And I totally resent that everything that Mrs. Madoff says is, "Are you on the side of the public or are you not?" Every damn vote we make in this Council. She's running for Council again, fine. But give the political speeches out in the fund raisers or out in the community groups. Not here.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the word has come to me that there is a concerted effort on the members of people either running campaigns or working for campaigns to brand everything I say as politicizing. I am not saying anything different now than I have said for four and a half years. It's a good ploy but it won't fly.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, you can set that meeting anytime you want to. I think there was a motion on this floor that this Council did not have an opportunity to vote on. It's a significant report and I think there's some dialogue that can be made here.

I would hope that Mr. Flaherty would put this and digest this in some type of form and submit it to yourself, as President of Council, and to get a legal report back. He raises some issue. But before I want to go into a public hearing I want to hear what some of these legal questions might be, especially on this contractual relationship between the City of Pittsburgh and that of the Pirates management and their particular team.

The Chair:

If I may interrupt you, Mr. Givens. I think that's the purpose of the hearing.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. That is exactly the purpose of the hearing.

Mr. Givens:

Who has the floor here, Mr. President? Leave me say what I have to say and I'll be off and you can say, or Mr. Flaherty can say whatever he wants. I don't want to rehash what we went through here for about an eight or ten hour meeting on the Stadium itself. The team, you know as well as I do, had lost ten to eleven million dollars over this period of time. Much of that was because of the City's lack of responsibility. There's an overtone that's being made by Mr. Flaherty saying that the team's stock might have shot right up after this transaction happened. But the fact remains that this team was going to leave. The fact remains that it's City of Pittsburgh's responsibility to bring road systems into that Stadium as every person who attends that Stadium knows. We have never tied in that road system out there and that affects the people who want to come in and do it. A hotel was supposed to be built on that site. The Stadium condition in itself was never clarified. And they were all the major issues and above everything else, the amenities that came out of that particular agreement, the amenities of the sale of sixteen medallions at $1 million, the playback viewer, the field conditions, the seating arrangements, you name it.

Yes, you talk about a Stadium and a public hearing and the local issues that are going to be brought before us. There was a motion on this floor to approve or disapprove that. I assume that motion is still here.

The Chair:

I stated very emphatically that I would set a hearing.

Mr. Givens:

One more minute, Mr. President, one more minute. Everyone else can speak here but when I want to speak everyone wants to jump in.

I indicated that when any citizen has a complaint within the City of Pittsburgh they mail that complaint, generally speaking, to the Chief Clerk or to one of these Councilmen here at the table. What do we do with that complaint or that petition. The thing is that if I receive a complaint, if I receive a petition, I give it to the Chief Clerk. We always send it to that department that has the legal responsibility to answer us back. After we get a report from the Department, Mr. Flaherty has brought up a good point, he's saying that the Legal Department is involved here. I would think and I would hope that the Legal Department should make a report back on this. Then once we get that legal proceedings about the contractual relationship between the City of Pittsburgh and the Three Rivers Management or the Pirates Association, that prior to this Councilman wanting to go into a public hearing and waste a lot of time possibly, I want to hear what the legal issues are. If I find after that letter report back from our Legal Department that there are issues at stake then I think, Mr. President, you should then ask for a public hearing. But up until that time, I would say that I want to get this legal report. That is my position. There is a vote on the floor unless that vote is going to be removed per you conversation that you would like to have a public hearing. But there is a motion on the floor.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I am in my right as substantiated by the opinion --

Mr. Givens:

Tom, did you not put a motion on the floor? What happened to the motion?

Mr. Flaherty:

I withdraw the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

I withdraw my second.

Mr. Flaherty:

Now, I as an elected public official am completely within my rights in asking for a public hearing. I don't agree with what Councilman Givens has said about a legal ruling coming anytime but I'm asking for a public opinion. And there isn't going to be anyway that anyone is going to try to quash this public hearing and trying to get legal argument and keeping the meat of the table. That's where I think Councilman Givens and the direction he's leading into, and I'll be very blunt about it, he's going to try to quash a public hearing. I'm an elected public representative. The City Solicitor is in an elected public representative and I am asking for a public hearing on this issue and at that public hearing we will have ample time to hear from all the legal lease experts and all the people that are pro-Pirate or pro-Warner or pro-public interest. But we will have a public hearing, Mr. Givens.

The Chair:

You're both out of order.

Are there any more motions or resolution?

Mr. Stone moved to approved the minutes from Monday, February 7, 1983.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Woods

Council adjourned.

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA

Monday, February 21, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2567 WHEREAS, The month of February has been designated as Afro-American History Month in the City of Pittsburgh by the Mayor and

Council; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is committed to senior citizens of all wards, races, colors and sexes through its extensive recreation and leisure time programs; and

WHEREAS, the National Caucus and Center on Black Aged, Incorporated has launched a nation-wide campaign specifically to address issues and concerns of black Americans who are senior citizens; and

WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Caucus and Center on Black Aged has designated the week of February 20th through the 27th as "Black Senior Citizens' Week".

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of its citizens do honor and recognize the accomplishments and achievements of black senior citizens and furthermore does place its support to all positive programs and efforts designated to aid senior citizens.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council, as our City Clerk read the resolution, you are aware that the many contributions that senior citizens have made to this City are being recognized in this resolution and specifically those contributions made by our black senior citizens. The organization that is represented here today, the National Caucus and Center on Black Aged, the Western Pennsylvania Chapter, is an organization made up of men and women who have certainly dedicated their lives to making this a better city and men and women who certainly know what it is like to be a senior citizen but also, more importantly, what it's like to make a tremendous contribution to this City, to this area, and to work along with government in trying to make things better for those who are coming after them.

With the indulgence of Council, Miss Mamie Lee who is the local organizing coordinator, is here and I'd like her to come forward to accept this gold seal copy of the resolution and have a few words. Also in attendance today with her are Mr. Frank Samms, who is a member of the local chapter, Miss Ann Sawyer Berkley, who is a poet and writer and member of the chapter, Miss Juanita McCarter who is a charter member of the Pittsburgh chapter, Mr. John Wilson, who is also a charter member and Mr. Ron Suber, who handles the public relation for this organization. If those individuals would come forward along with Miss Lee to accept the gold seal copies of the resolution and to have a few words for Council.

This organization is relatively new on the national scale and I think it's going to be one of the more significant organizations across the country and here in the City to specifically address some of the concerns of the black aged.

Miss Lee:

President of City Council, resolution maker, Councilman Bill Robinson, members of City Council and senior citizens, as a local organizing coordinator for the National Black Caucus of the Black Aged, which is housed in Washington, D.C., I sincerely thank you for the resolution passed today. Your resolution, along with the Mayor's proclamation, will bring attention to the contributions made by Pittsburgh's black elderly during this week of National Afro-American History Month.

We have asked that this week be proclaimed as Black Senior Citizens Week to encourage churches, families and organizations to pay tribute and give special recognition to their elder members. We are asking all Pittsburghers to pay tribute to their elderly neighbors at home and in their workplace. Your resolution will help generate more public awareness of the aging in our communities as older people are the fastest growing segment in all of our communities. Your resolution will further emphasize our black senior citizens roles as educators and teachers, parents and grandparents, clergy, professionals, craftsmen, businessmen and women, role models, particularly as survivors and as the stability in our communities.

We have had success stories published in the Pittsburgh Courier recently on our grass root black aged and will continue to do so on a regular basis. We will develop programs to bring together children who need grandparents and older persons who need grandchildren and younger friends to learn from each other and help each other, fostering in both a feeling of self esteem and self worth.

We would like to encourage Pittsburghers to take the time out now to strengthen ties with older members of your family, to strengthen ties with older members of your neighborhoods, and to give them their flowers while they are living, recognizing and thanking them for their contributions. It is a time to tap the knowledge skills and experience that our black elders have. They are a significant resource for our communities and for our children and yours. It is also a time that all of us, particularly our families and those in decision making positions as well as the members of the local chapter of the Black Caucus for the Aged, to do whatever is necessary to improve the lives of our elderly. Get involved. Help our elderly stay active, independent and productive. Get them registered to vote and take them to the polls. Turn their skills and talents in directions useful to all of us. Help them to be a meaningful part of our neighborhoods, of your friendships and of our families. Protect them from crime, fraud and abuse. You can start by reaching out to your elder relatives and to your elder neighbors. Be a friend to someone isolated.

Again, a sincere thanks for this resolution passed today. This is a meaningful beginning for the recognition for the black aged and for all elderly in the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mamie, and congratulations.

Mr. Woods presents

Bill No. 2568 WHEREAS, Judge Louis Bechtle has ordered all Federal Highway money for the entire state of Pennsylvania to be impounded; and

WHEREAS, Judge Bechtle took such action because of the State's refusal to institute an auto emissions testing program for the Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Allentown area; and

WHEREAS, despite the unfairness of the testing program, the State has been unsuccessful in it's appeal to the United States Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, the loss of these funds will eliminate construction of many needed highway and bridge projects in 1983; and

WHEREAS, the list of projects that cannot go forward because of the freeze includes the East Street Valley, North Shore and Cross Town Expressways, the Bloomfield Bridge, Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge, McArdle Roadway and Grant Street and Arlington Avenue; and

WHEREAS, the region's economy is faced with a 15 percent unemployment and cannot bare the loss of the jobs such projects would create.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh urges the General Assembly to pass the needed legislation for the auto emissions tests in order to allow Judge Bechtle to release the funds for the Federally aided projects.

Mr. Woods moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, I want everyone to understand and I want this made clear to everybody that I am not in favor of this type of legislation. The reason I'm urging everyone to vote for it is because our backs are against the wall. I had some phone calls asking me how I could be for this. It's one of these things that you have to bite the bullet and just pass it and urge the legislator to pass it. It went all the way to the Supreme Court, we've lost, at the end of that subject we have to go on. We need this money. We have all these projects tied up that's going to create employment and that's why I urge my Councilmembers to support this resolution and pass it on to Harrisburg to the Legislators.

The Chair:

If I may, Councilman Woods, I believe we're on record as having urged Judge Rechte to release those funds. I'm not opposed to them passing the emissions bill, but I'm just saying that we're on record asking to release those funds. We haven't heard anything, obviously.

Michelle Madoff:

As the resident environmentalist, I concur completely with Mr. Woods. I think that our backs are against the wall and I think that he is absolutely one thousand percent correct when he says that he does not believe, as I do not believe, that we have a mobile source problem in Allegheny County. Not only don't I believe it, but I can document it. I tried to get a member of the Air Pollution Bureau here today but, as you know, this is a legal holiday, it's Presidents Day. They would tell you what I know to be fact. And that is that we do not have a significant number of pollution days in Allegheny County or in the City of Pittsburgh, and I notice there are two reporters sitting in the audience who have been listening to me since 1969 and they know that I know what I'm talking about because I've never given them figures unless I documented them.

The facts remain that mobile sources are created in high density areas such as Philadelphia where you have tremendous high-rises, or New York City, or California where you don't have transportation. And what is happening is that in this area, we don't have maybe more than three days a year that we have any significant level and certainly not a health hazard.

I think it might be interesting to note how this all came into being. How did we ever make the automobile the villain and how did this consent order get signed? We ought to shed some light on that. There is a group called the Christmas Seal League, headed by Mr. Donahue. And Mr. Donahue was very instrumental in seeing that the automobile was the villain for air pollution controls. The National Christmas Seal Association have frowned on the actions of the local Christmas Seal and I can say this and document every word that I am saying. And because they were powerful people, powerful industrious in the community, and because many of the people who sit on the boards comprising the regulations were either the medical directors of U.S. Steel and medical doctors of various corporations and executives of the steel industry, in order to look for a scapegoat, the automobile was made the scapegoat.

I agree with you, Ben, our backs are against the wall. We don't have any choice and yet, when we do go for inspection, I guess we're forced into this program, but nevertheless, I guess it will not hurt us. Perhaps in the long run we will benefit indirectly by having our pollution control equipment checked, but I think it's a very sad day that there's significant things that we can be doing and we've been blackmailed into this program.

The Chair:

I think we're all aware, Michelle, why the emissions bill passed and thanks for elaborating.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I am in opposition to the resolution. I feel that we should be standing behind our State Representatives and our State Senators. I believe that it's common sense that the areas of Allegheny County, Philadelphia and Allentown, are being blatantly discriminated against. This is the first time that I can ever recall that a mandate of this impact is trying to be forced upon certain constituencies. I have real problems just on the constitutional arguments in that it is so obviously non-uniform. Certainly the freeze on the federal funds is causing problems as far as the construction for the vital projects in the Pittsburgh area. But I think it's an issue that our Representatives in Harrisburg are extremely close to. It's my understanding that they feel that certain options still can be exercised and I think that they have made a very valiant stand and I think that they should be entitled to see the battle through to its completion until all options are exercised. I think its extremely important that we're going to put a crushing responsibility and a very heavy toll, a heavy cost, on our consumers, on our constituency. This is something that certainly has to be weighed in the balance as far as the need for the go ahead on the construction sites. It's my understanding that probably, even when all these options are exercised, that unfortunately this program probably will be adopted by the general assembly. And probably without the votes of the constituencies that are being discriminated against. If that be so, then that is the democracy of the majority rules. But I don't think that we should be a part of it. It's our constituencies, our people, that are being impacted. It's a very small percentage of the state and even if we go down with the ship, I think we should go down fighting.

The Chair:

Obviously these funds should be released somehow, somehow. I don't know if this is the route to go because the feelings of the Pennsylvania Delegation and the State Legislature are very strong against this emissions act and I don't think they're going to pass it no matter what we do here today or what anyone else does.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. A couple of weeks ago I think I mentioned at a Wednesday meeting that I was actively working on this program through S.P.R.P.C. And I think the remarks that have been made here pretty much crystalize what's involved and it all boils down to Mr. Woods' very choice words, and that is the matter of the lesser of two evils.

Relative to this particular matter at this time, the emissions bill, I think the Allegheny County Delegation has been correct in their opposition of it to date for two reasons. Number one, it's going to cost more than most people think. Secondly, there is some serious question whether or not, after expending the sums to comply with the emissions bill, whether it really offers any material advantage or relief in the area.

But we are faced with this problem. It is true that the cure is probably worse than the disease, but we are mindful and should be mindful that we just recently passed a gas bill in Pennsylvania, roughly five cents. We just passed the federal gas bill of an additional five cents. We're not excluded from that one. We will pay it and unfortunately, with the way the consent order applies, and there's been no legal way yet to get around it. And the last one was, hopefully, that the Congress will change it. And having been at the Federal briefing two weeks ago at Washington, D.C., it's my understanding from the powers to be there, both Congressional as well as UMPTA and highway people, that it was not likely that that route will be any relief. Therefore, we're again faced with the matter that the citizens of Allegheny County and Pittsburgh are faced with five cent gas tax on the state level. They're faced with five cent increase per gallon on the federal level but can't share it. There is now involved in this particular region some $250 million. It's the kind of money that we just can't let pass and secondly, at a moment right now when unemployment is at its height, it would appear to me that, as Mr. Woods has said, I'd like to end it. And that is, rather than go down with the ship, let's try to save the ship so that we can save our roads and get use of the payment of funds that we're paying for the five cents to the state and to the federal and let's get on with the East Street Valley Expressway which is now nearly some twenty years in frustration. And those people in that area need some help from us today.

But, again, I'd like to end it as Mr. Woods began it. This is the lesser of evils at this time and we have to bite the bullet at the moment.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I had occasion to discuss this matter with Mr. Woods in some detail and basically agree with his approach at this point. One of the projects that is mentioned in the resolution is the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. All members of Council are aware of the difficulties that we have experienced here in the City with attempting to build a new bridge on Pennsylvania Avenue. I won't recount all the frustrations we have met to date but certainly Judge Bechtle's decision to tie up our highway funds has indeed made the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge a prisoner to one more situation. Without those funds it's going to be very difficult for the City of Pittsburgh to complete this project. Mr. Woods and Mr. Givens have been very active with people on the North Side and with the businesses on the North Side in trying to address the whole problem of the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. The problem is growing each day and as we have tried to find solutions, Mr. Woods has suggested that we at least get behind the effort to free up the funds, possibly could build the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. If we do not get the funds from Judge Bechtle and if this City is still committed to the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge, we're going to have to look to our own resources. I am prepared to introduce legislation to take money from another project to build the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. I would hope that Mr. Woods' initiative and support of this Council would make that move unnecessary. I am prepared to ask the Post Office Department not to open their new facility until the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. In fact, I've already sent a letter to the Post Master General.

The point I'm trying to make is that while I do not necessarily agree on whether or not there should be the imposition of these emission test on our constituents, I certainly agree that the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge, which is almost twelve years in coming, should be built, should be built yesterday. And unless this Council is prepared to dip into other project funds, to pass a tax increase, to look for a bank loan, it seems to me that the almost $100 million that Judge Bechtel has tied up is the key to financing the construction of the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. The design work is complete. All we need now is the money to go forward with construction. Every day we wait, the cost of that bridge goes up. It's roughly $4 million today, tomorrow it may be $4.1 million.

I support Mr. Woods' resolution because I believe it will be another attempt to get the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge completed. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'm a little confused. My understanding is that Harrisburg has exhausted every avenue open to it and that we are now in a situation of having to choose whether to have inspections, which I believe are somewhat irresponsible in an area such as ours. I don't think it's irresponsible, Councilman Flaherty, in Philadelphia because Philadelphia does have an automobile emission mobile source problem. It's like mandating salt pile in Puerto Rico in case they ever get a snowstorm.

The situation is that we are sort of a discrimination of the highest order. What we need to do in addition to the support of your resolution, Mr. Woods, is send a letter to EPA Region 3, to the Allegheny County Air Pollution Bureau and to the President of the United States and EPA in Washington stating the facts, and the facts are available from the Air Pollution Bureau. We don't have a mobile source problem in Allegheny County and it is absolutely insane to punish local people because you want to have Philadelphia cleaned up, because you want to have New York cleaned. I'm just saying that this is the issue that I am trying to zero in on, and I think we all are, but let's take it a step further. If there is still a chance of getting Reaganomics to act responsibly, then let's see if we can get the message across not to punish us and not to cut up our funds by sending a message from this Council to say that we can document the fact that this isn't our problem.

Mr. Woods:

Call the question.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed and I just want to add that in concise terms I will not succumb to the blackmail of an extreme case of discriminatory judicial overreach and I think it's important that we support our State Representatives and State Senators in Harrisburg who have a much closer ear to the pulse of the problem and to the concerns of our constituents.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no on the issue and I would state that the cost to each citizen of the City of Pittsburgh is going to hit them right in their pocketbook. I'm looking at families, low income, middle income, two and three automobiles, because the needs of transportation today and that each one of these might be faced with hundreds of dollars of cost. I think our legislative body, both here and Allegheny and Philadelphia County, three counties have, in fact, in this state of sixty-seven counties have been holding this thing at bay for this period of time. I would hope that we could give them all the support we could and hope that the courts would reconsider, even though they're at a impasse at this particular time. I have to appreciate all the roads that are being held up at this particular time and the cost it's going to be for extension on these particular roads. But, at the same time, I think we have to support those Legislators from both the House and the Senate of Allegheny County who have been supporting this particular measure, and I reserve the right, Mr. President, on this particular vote, at some time in the future to comment on this particular vote as to whether or not I would want to continue that support in the near future.

The Chair:

Everybody was given the opportunity to discuss so from here on in, let's vote and no more comments, please.

Michelle Madoff:

That's a little difficult. Everybody else has spoken, now you're going to stop —

The Chair:

You spoke three times on it, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll tell you what. I'll get you a copy of Robert's Rule for your birthday.

The Chair:

You're allowed to discuss, you discussed it. You entered your discussion.

Michelle Madoff:

Five minutes. I just want to make a comment on my vote.

I completely agree with Mr. Woods that we are in a bind, but we need that money. Until it can be proven to me that we've exhausted every source, every possibility of changing this asinine regulation which impacts on our residents only and not address the real issue, I will vote no. And at a future time, if we find that we've exhausted every other avenue and that we have no other alternative, then I will vote to go with it simply because we don't have any choice and I repeat, we've been blackmailed into a corner.

Mrs. Masloff:

It's my understanding that the highest court of the land has turned us down. We have no choice. I vote aye.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye and I just want to make a comment. I think some of my colleagues are playing Russian Roulette with the Bloomfield Bridge and McArde Roadway, Grant Street, Arlington, and I think we have to get these projects finished. I'm in complete agreement with Councilman Woods.

Mr. Stone:

We waited on the skybus. Originally it was $80 million. We're not in it yet and we have an abortive skybus system and it's close to $500 million. We could sure use that $420 million that we've wasted by waiting.

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye, of course. The people who voted no and who said that they want to talk to their Legislators, if they would talk to their Legislators, they'd tell you that it's over. They're just holding up the vote. Every Legislator that I've talked to said there's no other recourse. It's over. They're going to eventually vote for it. But just like Mr. Flaherty made the statement, "The public, I have to worry about the public, the consumer." That's all well and good in election year when you're running for office. But face facts. It's over. Quit politicking.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the resolution?

And on the question, "Shall the resolution pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Robinson

Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 6

NOES 3

(MR. FLAHERTY, MR. GIVENS AND MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the resolution passed finally.

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2569 WHEREAS, the Pittsburgh branch of the N.A.A.C.P. recently held elections for branch office's; and

WHEREAS, The N.A.A.C.P. was founded in 1909 and presently has over 500,000 members throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, their primary objective is to achieve, through peaceful and lawful means equal citizenship right's for all American's by eliminating segregation and discrimination in housing, employment, transportation, voting, schools and the courts; and

WHEREAS, the N.A.A.C.P. is open to all persons of all races, and religion's who believe in the principles and goals of the organization.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the members of Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizen's of Pittsburgh hereby recognize and commend the members of the N.A.A.C.P. for their success in promoting unity, friendship, and equal citizenship right's for all.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Obviously, we all want to congratulate the N.A.A.C.P. on their great deeds now and throughout the years. I believe the installation of officers is this Saturday and I'll be there to present the plaque and any other Councilmember is obviously welcome to come because I believe they've extended an open invitation.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might add to your kind words, as a life member of the Pittsburgh Branch N.A.A.C.P., I certainly am very grateful that this resolution has been introduced. I think all of us are very much aware of the historical efforts of the N.A.A.C.P., not only here in this City but across the country, to provide equal employment opportunity, better housing and a fair opportunity for all Americans. I think during these times of great economic crises and social upheaval an organization who has the strength and substance such as N.A.A.C.P. can be of immeasurable value to the City of Pittsburgh in its attempts to provide equal employment opportunity and other areas of social equality. And I would hope that each member of Council would take some time out from their schedule on Saturday to attend the inspiration ceremonies at Bethel AME Church which is in the Hill District at 2:00 and to join with leaders in the black community in recognizing those people who have been selected to serve on the Board and people who certainly are dedicated to the progress of this City, but beyond that, who are dedicated to the progress and security of all people in our City. And I commend those people who are elected and I certainly stand ready to do what I can to assist them in their efforts.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, I hope you will not be offended by what I'm about to say. I, too, am a lifetime member of the N.A.A.C.P. and I was asked to join before an election so I could sit on the dias with all the people who were running that year and I refused to do that. Right after the lunch I went over and paid my fee for the lifetime membership in full and I don't think people should join the N.A.A.C.P. for political reasons or for personal grandiosement and I resent the comments that were made here. I would not normally have said this, but I resent the comments that are constantly made here that because it's an election, people here are making political statements. I've never said what I'm telling you today. I felt it was in bad taste that people who were running, there were several dozens of people, practically one hundred people sitting on the dias because they just signed up so that they could sit at the N.A.A.C.P. dinner. I want people to give from their hearts.

Again, I resent those kinds of comments coming out of here all the time by other members of Council.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, three weeks ago Reverend Simms, who is our MBE Coordinator and Mr. Pellegrini, who is our City Solicitor, appeared before Council relative to what is known as the United States Steel Project. At that time, Reverend Simms indicated that he would be able to have for Council within a two week period a report on the Minority Business Participation Program in that project and what would be done as the responsibilities under that project were transferred to a new group. That new group was going to be called Five Hundred Grant Street Associates.

Three weeks have passed and to my knowledge, unless the City Clerk has some new information, Reverend Simms has not appeared before Council, nor has he forwarded any information, nor has he given any indication that he will provide that information to this Council. I think it would be appropriate to find out from the City Clerk what, if any, efforts he has initiated to get that information for Council.

Mr. Perry:

I've spoken to Mr. Simms on Friday and he indicated to me that he will get that report over to you today. I spoke to him today and he said it was forthcoming.

Mr. Robinson:

The only comment I have, Mr. President, is that I think that when information of this type is requested, that Department Heads and others should understand the seriousness of the request. I think the Charter and the rules of Council provide for a number of ways of getting information that we need. When Reverend Simms was here, I very specifically asked him if he could have that information for us within a two week period. He said there would be no difficulty, that he would have it. We have not gotten that information from Reverend Simms.

We passed a very important piece of legislation in this Council based on his word and his assurance that he would have to us that information. If indeed this Council cannot take the word of our Department Heads and representatives of the Administration, then I think we're going to find ourselves in a position where the cooperation that is supposed to exist between the executive and the legislative branch of government is going to be brought into question. And, hopefully, members of this Council will understand the seriousness of what I'm saying.

Reverend Simms was here. The record reflects that. And I think all reasonable attempts have been made to hear that information from him and for whatever reasons, it has not been made available. I would hope that if other means are necessary to secure it, that Council will seriously entertain those other means.

The Chair:

Thank you.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2561

Report of the Committee on Finance for February 16, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions with an affirmative recommendation.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2402

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the filing of a Community Development statement by the City of Pittsburgh with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for a grant in connection with the 1983 Community Development Block Grant Program; providing for the execution of Grant Contracts and for the filing of other data; providing for required assurances; providing for execution of payment vouchers on Letter of Credit and for certification of authorized signatures; creating a Special Trust Fund in connection with the Project; providing for the deposit of the funds in a bank account and providing for payment of expenses within categories."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

On Council Bill 2402, I have two comments then I'd like to make an amendment.

If Council will review the material in front of them, that section of the bill that specifically deals with the Unspecified Local Option Fund, I believe on the fourth or fifth page, these are funds that Mr. Stone was so gracious to make sure we've had over the last few years. In 1983 it's projected that that fund will be $751,000. Council should be aware that that is significantly below what we normally have. I did ask Director Lurcott, our Director of Planning, to explore the possibility of raising that to $1 million. That would be $1 million that this Council would have direct control over. I have not had any word from Director Lurcott on that suggestion and I would assume if the bill is coming forward with the amount $751,000, that some decision was made that it should remain $751,000.

I would hope that members of Council would be aware that this $751,000 is going to be the only Community Development Block Grant monies that we will have direct control over unless we choose not to authorize the expenditure of funds in one of the other line items, which is a great possibility. There are several line items which could be added to the Unspecified Local Option and take us up to close to $1 million. I want to share that with members of Council that it has been well over $1 million and they have been reduced significantly this year in part because of the reduction of funds from the federal government, but also because there are other projects that are listed in the documents that are going to eat up.

One other comment and then I will make my motion. Relative to Section 9 of this bill which reads, "The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to deposit funds referred to in this Resolution in the Pittsburgh National Bank". Without re-hashing my comments from last Wednesday, I'd like to make a motion to delete Section 9.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

I'm not so sure who the depository is. You have to designate some depository in a letter of credit to come before Council. Contrary to that, I have no problem with it. I think it may need another amendment after that.

While I'm on the subject, Mr. Robinson questioned the New World Bank situation. I met with the Finance Officer on Friday on that very issue and it is my understanding that a request for bids went to New World Bank. They didn't respond then and as of last Friday. We've got to put that back in motion and even though they didn't respond, we want to give them an added opportunity to respond with their decision and then it will be back to where it was before.

Mr. O'Malley:

I would like to add to what Councilman Robinson is talking about. We are spending $20,493,000 in CD funds and I'm sure most of the projects are picked by the department heads and submitted to the Administration for their okay. Myself along with many members of Council go out into communities week after week and talk to the people that live in the area and they come to us with projects that they would like to see at least initiated and started and completed in their neighborhood. I've never seen a department head out at any of the meetings with the exception of Lou Gaetano. I'm not so sure this Council should not have a greater input into how this $20 million is spent because a lot of these projects are certainly needed, but I think this Council should have a great deal more input on who is spending this $20 million, let alone cut us back one-half million dollars. This $751,000, which is supposed to be divided up amongst nine members of Council which we feel is necessary --

Michelle Madoff:

Wait a minute. I never got any of that.

Mr. O'Malley:

Michelle, you know what I'm talking about.

I would like to make one closing comment. I think this Council should certainly have an input into next year's funds or not pass the bill at all or take it over completely.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think I told this Council sometime ago that we need a fiscal advisor and --

The Chair:

Michelle, does it relate to this bill?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, it does, Mr. President. I said that I would follow through on this at budget time, that if we didn't get a fiscal advisor, I would be willing to pay for it out of my own pocket. I advertised for a fiscal advisor or somebody who is public spirit-minded and who would be willing to work for very little and as a fiscal advisor I would take $5,000.00 out of my own salary.

Now the thing that disturbs me here is Councilman O'Malley talking about $20 million. Don't you think a fiscal advisor might be helpful to us in how to do these projects. The most cost-effective person would probably save us their whole salary in one year. Look how we spent $35,000 on a bikeway on Beechwood Boulevard -- the thing never stayed down!

The Chair:

Michelle, you mentioned this area about 50,000 times already.

Michelle Madoff:

I know I have and I'll keep mentioning it because everytime I bring this up my esteemed colleagues say it comes from the Mayor's Office.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I am going to ask that if we can drop Section 9, I think I will make another amendment which will read, "The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to deposit funds referred to in this resolution in an appropriate institution or institutions." The New World National Bank shall be one of those institutions.

Mr. Stone:

I'm trying to get at the same thing you're getting at. I'm not so sure that they have the necessary funds anyhow. If you left the New World off and just dealt in that general language, you will accomplish the same thing.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me tell you what my concern is. This is on the amendment. Aside from I think the City's obvious commitment to Minority Business Development and our obvious commitment to put money in financial institutions that we have to be careful that we don't assume that if these financial institutions, these minority financial institutions, don't apply, don't appear to be interested, that we are relieved from our obligation to put something there. I'm not sure of the process the New World National Bank was asked to go through, but I do know that we have a commitment to Minority Business Development and we have a commitment to put funds in New World National Bank. So, they shouldn't have to apply for anything. The money should be there. Some money should be there.

Mr. Stone:

I think what the problem was was the one who handed out the material, hand delivered one, was under the impression that everyone had to compete on the bids. Relative to Dwelling House and New World, because of their unique circumstances, they are not competing with the other banks. It was our commitment to give them an assist because of the group that they served.

Mr. Robinson:

You know, I think it would be fair that if twenty percent of this $20 million were put in New World National Bank, I think that it's very easy for us to fulfill our commitment if we are aggressive on our end. It would appear that we have made a commitment to New World National Bank and now we're asking New World National Bank to enforce our commitment. That's putting a double burden on them. There's no reason whatsoever that this $20 million should be coming into the City and be completely designated for Pittsburgh National Bank or any other bank in face of the fact that we already have a previous commitment to put money in New World National Bank for some very sound reasons.

Mr. Stone:

Bill, I don't think you understand what I'm saying. Most of the CD money comes in on letters of credit. Letters of credit are not monies that are there for them to use on a long haul. The New World Bank nor Dwelling House Savings can use money that has a short term life. They need to have the longer life to it so they can turn it over in order to make the funds. That's the uniqueness of the market and I was one of the first to see that they got funds when this whole program started when they were over on Fifth Avenue. We've always tried to respect that end of it.

As far as getting the monies there, there's no question, that had the support of the Treasurer, the Finance Officer and the Mayor's Office as of Friday relative to that matter. I think there was a confusion, it's now cleared up. But the additional thing is, on these particular funds, these are letters of credit and, likewise, they are reimbursable funds. We advance the money and get it back. In short, they would not have the money for any period of time for which they could use it. And rather than limit it where you give it to them and they can't use these kinds of funds, I'm just saying from our overall City funds that's it's our commitment that they be funded in the nature in which we made our commitment.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Stone, you said that a portion of these funds, Community Development Block Grant Funds, come by way of letter of credit. And the same comment came up Wednesday. What portion of this $20 million is not going to come by way of letter of credit? Because that money certainly can be placed in New World National Bank.

Mr. Stone:

That may or may not be true. What I'm trying to get across to you is that these funds, the way they come and the way they are for reimbursement, they wouldn't be there long. All the New World Bank would be is a conduit. In and out in a matter of days, maximum a month. I don't think that's the kind of funds that they need in order to usefully carry out the needs that they have.

Mr. Robinson:

Banking is banking. I've never received any notification from New World National Bank that they couldn't handle short term funds. I have no knowledge of this meeting you said you had Friday. I have no knowledge of any commitment the City of Pittsburgh made to New World National Bank as of Friday. There is nothing in writing before us about any commitment. And I think rather than talk about verbal commitments and what we're going to do and what we think we want to do, let's look at the $20 million, $20 million that we're applying for. Let's look at the fact that we're designating it all to go to Pittsburgh National Bank. Let's look at the fact that we have a previous commitment to put money in New World National Bank. Either this City is going to put money there or we're not. We're not going to be able to fool people by meetings on Friday that are explained to us on Monday with people who are not here to talk about what their commitments are. Either we're committed or we're not committed.

If my amendment to delete Section 9 is upheld, then I'm going to make another amendment and hopefully it will be supported, and then if your meeting on Friday had any substance to it, there will be money in New World National Bank soon. Very quickly.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Robinson, I'm going to try again. I'm trying to help to carry out the intent. At this point, I've exhausted my patience with you, I'm going to let you do it any way you want.

Mr. Robinson:

I don't think it's a question, Mr. Stone, of you being impatient with me. I don't think that's an issue before this Council.

Mr. Stone:

I'm trying to help. You asked me on Wednesday to check and I did exactly as I was asked.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Stone, you also indicated you would give it to me. You indicated you would meet with me. You did not meet with me.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Robinson, you spoke, now you let me speak. It was not my understanding I was to meet with anyone other than to meet with the Finance Officer --

Mr. Robinson:

It's on the record, Mr. Stone. It is on the record. You said you would meet with me. It's on the record. And I'll get a copy for you.

The Chair:

Let's move on the amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like the motion clarified.

The Chair:

You want to delete Section 9, correct Mr. Robinson?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, sir. "The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to deposit funds referred to in this resolution in the Pittsburgh National Bank." I want to delete that.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no and for reasons so state here that the World Bank had an opportunity to take in these type of funds. What I've been able to determine is that they want long term type of lending agreements. This is very short, in and out, and something that they don't want to really deal in, from what knowledge has been given to me so far. I vote no.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote yes and if we had a fiscal advisor we would have had that information for Mr. Givens.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 6

NOES 2

(MR. GIVENS AND MR. O'MALLEY
VOTING NO)
(MR. STONE ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the amendment passed finally.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, do you have a further amendment?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, Mr. President. I make the motion to add a Section 9 which would read, "The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to deposit funds referred to in this resolution in an appropriate institution or institutions. The New World National Bank shall be one of those institutions."

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question in regard to the amendment. Are you specifying in the amendment the numbers of dollars or percentage of dollars that should be deposited in the New World Bank?

Mr. Robinson:

No, I think Mr. Stone's concerns about whether or not a portion of this money can be put in New World Bank is well taken. Certainly the vast majority of the money does come in by letter of credit. But I think there a significant portion of this money that does not come in by letter of credit, probably about $5 million, a portion of which or all of which could be put in New World National Bank. I think the thing that we should keep in mind is if we have a commitment to New World National Bank and that commitment has not yet been carried out, it is appropriate for us once more to designate that we want a specific portion of some new monies to go in there. So a portion of the $20 million can be put in New World Bank and it will not jeopardize the City at all. It will not jeopardize other institutions with whom we do business.

Mr. Flaherty:

I believe that you addressed the reason why I had asked the question. It's obvious that the Administration in the past has not acted in the utmost manner to guarantee the deposit of funds for the New World Bank and it seems imperative to me that perhaps we should put some teeth into the amendment because I don't see any indication of a change of heart or attitude that in the future that they will act in conforming to the intention and the good faith of the amendment.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Stone has indicated that he had a meeting with representatives of the Administration on Friday. I will accept Mr. Stone's word that there will be some action forthcoming. I do believe that your comments are well taken, but rather than try at this point to designate which portion of these funds are not going to come by way of letter of credit, and since Mr. Stone has not provided us with that information, I will rely upon his word and the word of the people in the Administration that they understand the intent of Council and that in the very near future a designated amount will be there.

I will also say this. If indeed there is no money in New World National Bank committed out of this $20 million by the time we receive it, I will initiate the appropriate legislative action and I think everybody on this Council will have an opportunity to make their feelings known about our commitment to Minority Business Development.

Mr. Flaherty:

How soon would that be, approximately?

Mr. Robinson:

I would anticipate that we should be receiving these monies within a thirty day period and within that period I would hope that the commitment that Mr. Stone is referring to will be manifest by some kind of agreement between the City of Pittsburgh and New World National Bank. So, I would say within thirty days, I will review the situation and hopefully, Mr. Stone and I will be able to talk about it. I'm sure we'll be able to do something.

The Chair:

Michelle, I think that amendment is rather clear, but if you have something to add --

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, I would like to see your motion amended to read, "The City Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to deposit funds referred to in this resolution in an appropriate institution" and either say "including New World Bank" or just leave it closed at "an appropriate institution".

A lot has come out today. What is this nonsense about New World Bank not wanting long term or short term money? I think they want any money because, like everybody else, they can invest it in sources that all banks have access to. I personally will call New World Bank in which I have money and I am a stockholder, and I will ask them whether they will turn down short term money and then I would suggest, Mr. Robinson, that not thirty days, but next Monday, that there is a resolution before this Council to honor a commitment that we've already made repeatedly, that we will put some funds in New World Bank even though it is not competitive because we have a thirty-three and one third percent black population in this community. And I would suggest respectfully that you do it either one of two ways. Either an appropriate institution, period. Or an appropriate institution including New World Bank.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, do you want to withdraw your amendment?

Mr. Robinson:

No.

The Chair:

Okay. The amendment stands.

Mr. Robinson:

Her second suggestion, I think, is covered by exactly what I said. It says the New World National Bank shall be one of those institutions.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry. I thought you said -- That's not how you read it the second time, Bill. Thank you.

Mr. Robinson:

Just one other comment, if I might, Mr. Chairman. I don't think that anyone should interpret my actions today to exclude New World National Bank from participating in any other kinds of programs we have in the City where the Mayor or the appropriate financial officials or Mr. Stone, our Finance Chairman, determined that money should be deposited there. I'm only making reference to the $20 million that we'll be receiving by way of our Community Development Block Grant Program.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, in line with a couple of my colleagues' statements over the last few months about abstaining from voting on anything they have interest in or where they're relations or whatever, Mrs. Madoff just made a statement that she has stock in New World Bank. Well, I feel that she should abstain from voting on this amendment.

Michelle Madoff:

May I address that, Mr. President? My stock is $100. I declare it openly. I do it on my disclosure. I do it on the ethics thing that I have to do in the state. And if we're going to get into that, when we get to the Warner Cable hearing, I want to declare every member of this Council who has a relative working there -- I do not have a relative working for New World Bank.

The Chair:

Question called for.

Mr. Stone:

I vote aye with the understanding that I'm voting for it because Mr. Robinson wants it. I would rather he followed my words of caution though.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the amendment passed finally.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on this same bill, I'd like to offer an amendment which would move $240,000, this is on page six, under Housing and Redevelopment Authority continued. It will remove $240,000 from UR-83-17, Pittsburgh Business Assistance Revolving Loan Fund, and add $240,000 to City Council, which is on the previous page, City Council, CC-83-01, Unspecified Local Options. In effect, what we would be doing is reducing the Pittsburgh Business Assistance Revolving Loan Fund to $500,000 and increasing the Unspecified Local Options for City Council from $751,000 to $991,000.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record, the reason I'm voting no on Bill No. 2461 is because it is a Zoo bill without trust fund and the City of Pittsburgh residents are picking up all the deficits for the suburbanites.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. The only reason I'm voting for it is because there's the present need and we have to keep and maintain the Zoo as it should be and if we don't fix it now it may cost us ten times more later than paying for it now. I think being responsible as a City official, I have no alternative than to vote for the needed money now.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, on Bill No. 2216, the Carrick high-rise, I would like to make a motion to recommit Bill No. 2216 to be held for thirty days for consideration of the citizens of Carrick and to investigate the allegations that have been brought to our attention during the Council's public hearing some two and a half weeks ago.

The Chair:

What allegations are you referring to?

Mr. Givens:

Many allegations have been brought up and distributed. I think you received a copy, I received a copy. I'm trying to look into these allegations but it's probably going to be even more than thirty days before I can get at the bottom of it and review some of the concerns of the citizens of Carrick.

Mr. Flaherty:

What are some of the allegations?

Mr. O'Malley:

I think the main allegation Mr. Givens is talking about is impropriety of a zoning change in 1966 which really should be dealt with by the courts and not by this Council.

Mr. Givens:

I have a motion on the floor to recommit Bill No. 2216.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I will second it just to open it up for discussion and hopefully Councilman Givens will address more the heart of his motion.

Mr. Givens:

I think I indicated exactly what it was, the allegations. On the bill itself, I will discuss the bill itself and the merits of the high-rise in Carrick. But my motion stands to recommit it. I indicated last Wednesday some of those reasons.

Mr. Flaherty:

Would you please briefly reiterate? Tell us some of those reasons.

Mr. Givens:

There's noise pollution, flammable liquids, sewerage, to name a few.

The Chair:

If I may take the prerogative, if I was still here Wednesday, I had to go to a doctor's appointment and, unfortunately, the meeting went a little longer than I thought it would go, at the same time, I would have voted for a hold motion then. Not for the reasons Mr. Givens has given but because of reasons I was shown by the people in that area in regards to their opposition and where there was a possibility I thought, even though remote, of a compromise, going to another area up above where Foodland is on Stewart Avenue, or whatever. But that would be my only reason for a hold motion hoping that there could be some sort of compromise made and maybe the high-rise put in a different location. But I'll be quick to say that if there could be no compromise made, I would vote for the high-rise because I want to be consistent. I've never voted against one and I'm not going to start now. But the reasons given by the people in that area, those in opposition, are very sound reasons and they came from the heart and I certainly appreciate their sentiments and feel that they had a very good cause in regards to the opposition. But at the same time, I repeat, I would have voted for the high-rise but hoping that they could have made a compromise and placed it in a different area which would have satisfied everybody.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if Councilmembers will check the information in front of them, they will see that this bill was presented in Council on December 20, 1982. This bill has been before Council for a good period of time. I did hold the bill so that we could get some additional information. We had a public hearing at which time members of the Carrick community came in and I think it was one of the longest hearings we have had. Certainly a number of allegations, accusations and concerns were raised. I think every member of this Council has been bombarded with phone calls and letters, pro and con, on this project. There are those who want it and there are those who don't want it.

When the bill was in Council last Wednesday for a vote, I made a motion to disapprove. And I made that motion because I thought there were some serious questions raised. I wasn't quite sure that all those answers were given to the people who called for the hearing. Not one member of this Council supported that motion to disapprove. I then made a motion to approve and every member of this Council supported that with Mr. Givens raising some comments, some questions, I believe some of the same questions he's raising today.

The point I'm trying to present is that certainly this bill has been before this Council long enough for all the accusations, all the concerns, to be addressed. Certainly every member of this Council has had an appropriate opportunity to investigate, to call for whatever information they needed, and certainly the people of the Carrick community have had more than enough opportunity to let us know what their concerns are.

Some members of this Council, I believe, received some communication from some people in the Carrick community who have suggested that we have dealt with them unfairly. These communications are from people who are not in favor of the project. There was a suggestion in one communication that if we didn't vote this project down, they would take some other actions. I can only assume that they mean other legal actions. This Council in the past has been confronted with the same situation, where we have not acted in a certain group's interest. They have proceeded in a legal fashion to have this matter resolved in court. That is certainly the right of anyone who lives in the Carrick community or anyone else in the City of Pittsburgh if they choose to do so. I would hope, though, that this Council would not do anything to encourage anyone to take legal action based upon the notion that we have been unfair, that this Council has been unfair, that we have not deliberated on this matter and that members of this Council are not voting their conscience. When I asked for the motion to disapprove, I did that without any knowledge of how a member on this Council stood and I did not ask anybody on this Council to vote for or against the bill. When there was silence, I interpret that to mean that members of this Council were in favor of this bill. When I made the motion to approve, everyone who wanted to vote in favor of it did, and I think the record will reflect that this Council, by an overwhelming majority, is in support of this project. If there are members of this Council who have changed their minds between Wednesday and Monday, we will find out when it's time to vote. But I hope that we will be fair, not only to the people in Carrick, but fair to ourselves and other people in the City of Pittsburgh because I think we certainly have had an open process and one that has allowed everyone to have their say. This Council has voted and we have been fair.

Mr. O'Malley:

Call for the vote.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommittal?

And on the question, "Shall the recommittal pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Givens:

On the bill itself, No. 2216, you brought up one of the major points that I was going to discuss and that is the fact when a particular community is split, or we receive information that is conflicting in nature, and that the public hearing was only two or two and a half weeks ago, that most of this only became knowledgeable to us at that particular time. If the Council people did not address themselves to go up to the site and look at some of the conditions that surround that, then I think they're being misled to some degree.

But the big thing on the community itself, we've had many cases come before this Council wherein there were great divisions on both sides of many issues. I can think of Allegheny Community College for one. The University of Pittsburgh for another. Other high-rises on the North Side. We had great divisions of people who came into this Council to be heard. And we repeatedly would send that back out to the community for a resolve.

Why then, on this particular Carrick case, did we not try to attempt to do this? Why then did we not see that all the citizens out there had all the information and were able to investigate everything and have the various Administrators from the City of Pittsburgh go out and justify the allegation? What is the great big rush on this one particular issue that we turn around and give these people a little bit more time? They only had their day in this Council two and a half weeks ago. I submit that this Council is moving very rapidly in an area that should require some investigation.

With that, Mr. President, on the bill itself, 2216, I'm concerned about the cost of over some $4 million for 66 some elderly people to be housed, in a public housing for the elderly. I feel that someplace, somewhere, some of us must sit down, both at the local level of government, state, and at the federal level, and determine how this money can be used much more adequately to help our elderly population, to help them as we find out here in taking care of their sicknesses, in taking care of their heat, because they can't heat their particular homes right now, in taking care of their food and housing requirements. We are, in fact, driving elderly out of their own homes that they want to remain in and herding them into institutions because to help a small minority of people, a small minority of our total population, can never fit in these houses. I submit to this Council that we must look for better means of spreading that some $4 million out over the greatest population of the City of Pittsburgh and, in fact, of this Country.

I'd like to continue, Mr. President. I don't like institutions, number one. I don't like our elderly citizens to be put in these institutions when in fact it breaks up the unity of the family. I'm concerned about the cost on this particular thing. Statements were made to us on some other projects throughout the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, and for the record I would like to enter it. In Bedford, PA, elderly housing, sixty some people, the cost is only $1.5 million. Pittsburgh, PA, for 39 units, family housing, $1.3 million. For Broadhead, right here in the City of Pittsburgh, 448 townhouses, $4 million. Northview Heights, Pittsburgh, 1,000 units of family housing, $10 million. Allentown, 104 units, elderly housing, $4.5 million. Carrick, 66 units of elderly housing and the cost of almost some $4 million.

Why is Carrick high-rise costing so much money to build? The design on that high-rise is something I'm a little bit concerned about also, Mr. President. I think the neighborhoods have a right to determine their own destiny. Too many people in Carrick are saying that they do not want this particular facility there for whatever reasons, and I think these people ought to be heard. There's legal questions that have been raised. The community involvement, many people in Carrick feel that they have been deceived and I think this has to be addressed.

Also, Mr. President, this particular high-rise has been refused in many years gone by. And this particular time it came by very quickly. Yes, Mr. Robinson said sure it was before us in December. And that was during our heaviest point of our financial deliberations on our budget. Yes, it came before us and a hearing, a public hearing, and yes, we did receive some additional information. But all of us have to know and understand that so many hearings that we've had, some concerted hearings that we've had in the last couple weeks, we only have the opportunity almost a week before, the week of, to go out and really do any investigative work. And I would ask by the raising of the hands of this Council, if they so want to indicate, how many of them have been on the site, how many of them walked over the physical facility out there to see what it looks like? —

The Chair:

We were all there. We're all aware of it. Mr. Givens, everybody is aware of everything you're saying now. You're just repeating. This was all brought out at the hearing.

Mr. Givens:

I am not repeating, Mr. President. There have been many debates that have gone on in this Council for forty-five minutes, one hour, where one person spoke. I will be finished in about ten minutes, if you give me the time, please.

As I have indicated, Mr. President, this neighborhood and the City Administration, the Housing Authority of the City of Pittsburgh, in years gone by the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, while he was a Councilmember here, many of us that were here, supported the people in Carrick in refusing what was going on up there right now. I'm still concerned and always have been concerned on high-rises for the elderly that go up to the eight-story variety. We've had many of them in this City, that the people and the residents came in and fought the height for one reason, for the security of the people.

I am concerned, if any of you have walked over that particular site, to see that the flammable liquids that are stored close by in an automotive repair shop there and it's something that must be addressed along with the noise and the pollution. But if anyone was on that site and looked out and saw what's around it, I wouldn't want my dear mother to be looking out at a car wrecking lot right next door in the last years of her life, and I don't think these people want it either. If the high-rise is to go in that location or if the high-rise is to go into Carrick, I submit that we look at some other sites that the Carrick people themselves said that the high-rise should go. Don't try to build it in this particular location because it's to a disadvantage to the people and the residents that will be living there.

We have sewage problems and I have great concerns and sympathy for the people who have homes in back of that particular building and the one apartment building to the side of it, to have an eight-story sky-scraper literally sitting in your back yard. It's not right and it's not just to those people. Sure, it's zoned to accommodate that type of housing. But at the same time, if any one of us drive up along Brownsville Road, we can see that the highest buildings in the whole area are something like three and four stories. Why isn't this three or four stories and to blend in with the rest of the area up there.

Again, Mr. President, I have to comment on what you said on the community and the community involvement. I think we should hold this thing, but as the Council so indicated, they do not want to. I also must indicate to all the Councilpeople here the track record public housing in our neighborhood. One only has to go into many areas and find out that there is a lot of dis-repair in those particular neighborhoods and, in fact, the housing itself.

If they're coming in and asking this Council for millions of dollars each year to try to maintain the present housing that we have, how then can we afford to go out and spend almost $4 million new federal dollars on a new structure when in fact we have housing here and the Housing Authority that is dilapidated, falling down, rat infested, cockroaches and you name it. I submit, Mr. President, that we should hold this bill and deliberate on it for thirty days giving everyone the ample opportunity to investigate and reconsider this particular high-rise. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

First of all, we're beyond the motion to hold, we're going to vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I am in support of the resolution and I'll try to be extremely brief but I believe that there needs to be some clarification for the record and for the people that are from Carrick here and for the public in general. I don't think this Council is acting in any more expeditious fashion in regard to this high-rise for the elderly than it has in the past on comparable housing for the elderly. I think it's important to put that into perspective.

We are certainly all aware, and there's no reason to really get into speechifying as to the need for adequate housing for the elderly. I respect the residents from Carrick that came forward and stated their objections. Some of them, I thought, were most eloquent and I felt bad for those people the way that this Council acted on Wednesday without saying a word, and I was part impartial to that. But today, I am addressing their objections, and in a nutshell, we heard they were in regard to cost and to noise pollution and to fire and to toxic waste. I believe for the most part that the so-called City experts at the public hearing addressed those concerns. Perhaps not as fully or as substantially as the critics of the high-rise would want. But it was sufficient enough as far as my vote. I had viewed the site. I had heard from the immediate residents of the area on my walking tour of that area and I have to say that perhaps there could be a better site. But when we talk about the issue of housing for the elderly or housing for the handicapped or housing for the juvenile offenders or any sort of transitional housing, there is always a better spot. But we are in the real world and sometimes we have to go with compromises as to what is best for serving an immediate problem and serving those that are in need.

In response to my colleague, Councilman Givens, who I'm sure is very sincere in his arguments, if we were to look for a place that would have no noise, no pollution, no fire hazards, no lack of costs, the only place I could think of is the cemetery. And I think it's crucial to keep in mind that senior citizens, for sixty, seventy, eighty years, have lived with noise pollution and costs and perhaps not the best access to food, and if we were to change that it might be such a cultural shock it could be their demise. These people are like anybody else, let them experience the full world. I'm content in my view that the high-rise on Brownsville Road is certainly a step up and certainly one of the most charitable and important things that the government does for its elderly. It gives them a decent home and if the cost is $4 million, that's a drop in the bucket as far as federal funds and it's not for sixty-six elderly people. In the life of that high-rise it may bring comfort and joy to thousands of our elderly and I support it.

The Chair:

Your points are well taken, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to make one comment. Basically, I was trying to say that this unit is going to cost some $4 million. I submit to this whole Council that if you look in any high-rise, and we have very limited high-rises for the elderly in this City, that there are many, many thousands of elderly sitting out there that aren't getting any help at all. Who is going to help them? It's nice if you know somebody and get in the high-rise. But if you don't know anybody, you're not going to get in that high-rise.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I don't know if you're aware, but I would like to share with this Council that a number of hate letters are circulating about members of this Council who indicated, and as you did yourself, Mr. President, that if you were called upon to vote you would vote for the senior citizen high-rise. We have never rejected one in this Council. I'd like to point out, Councilwoman Masloff and I were just discussing that the one in Squirrel Hill, the Greenfield area, the ones over a slag-heap, a slag-heap, where there are senior citizens living who are thrilled to be there because they live better than they are living in other places and these people are moving out of fine homes in Squirrel Hill.

And I think we should not diminish the people who do have some genuine objections, not those of the high-rise location but those of other issues. If there is a genuine concern about noise pollution, if there's a genuine concern about sewage, and I believe there was on sewage, if there's a genuine concern about a lack of police protection, that should have no bearing on this high-rise. Twenty-five signatures of any people in any community can have a hearing before this Council and I know as President you would not deny them that hearing. They're separate and apart issues.

I think it's important that we vote for the senior citizen high-rise and get on with it because no matter what we do in biting the bullet, there are going to be people who are going to vote against us and hate us, there are going to be people that love us. No matter which side you take, the others aren't going to be with you. But I think we have to treat everybody equally and fairly and that if they have genuine concerns on other issues we have to hear those concerns.

The Chair:

You better be a little thick-skinned because you're going to continue to get it. I have a party, I don't know if it's a man or woman, who sends me a card about every week, obviously never signs his name, and last week he referred to me as a dago-wop-mafia-jew. I don't know what that is. Maybe somebody can give me a definition.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd just like to make a couple quick comments about some of the things Mr. Givens said, and certainly I want to let everyone know I take serious his concerns. First of all, Mr. Givens made some comments concerning public housing. I think that all of us should be very sensitive about making comments concerning the conditions of public housing in this City because to a certain extent it reflects upon the people who live there. That is a very sensitive issue. It's a very touchy issue. It has all kinds of ramifications and I would hope that any comments we make about public housing we make them specifically in reference to attempts to improve the conditions and perhaps not say anything that might insult or inflame someone who lives in public housing.

Also, about the conditions of public housing, in 1983, our Community Development Block Grant Fund Program, which we just approved the application for, provides for over $2 million for modernization of our public housing units. And I'm sure Mr. Woods and the members of that Board are going to do everything they can to see that that money is spent wisely. That is not enough money and it obviously is not going to solve all the problems but I'm sure there are enough people in public housing to keep Mr. Woods' feet to the fire that the $2 million will not be wasted.

Also, the issue of researching the subject, if Council remembers, we had a research coordinator, Mr. Al D'Alessandro, who served in that capacity about a year or so ago. Without getting into any specifics of Mr. D'Alessandro's responsibilities, certainly Council selected him to research issues of importance for this Council. We presently do not have a research coordinator. Mr. D'Alessandro was promoted and a well-deserved promotion. Mr. Givens' concern about research, I think, should be addressed in terms of making sure that we have staff people on our staff here in Council who can do research work. And I think we ought to address ourselves to finding a replacement for Mr. D'Alessandro because this issue is going to keep coming up. Having someone who is assigned to do research, we need it, we need it as much as we need anything else around here, and I think Mr. Givens is right on target in terms of Council, perhaps, not having the capacity to do all the research we need.

The last concern relates to something that Mrs. Madoff touched upon, and that is the letter, the innuendoes, the suggestions of personal conflicts of interest. We often get these kinds of letters and I think that the record should reflect that if there is a member of this Council who has a conflict of interest, if there's a member of this Council who is doing something that is not proper and not in accordance with the Home Rule Charter, that the people who have that information should take it to the appropriate authorities. I don't think any member of this Council should stand intimidated by any community group, any organization or any individual in the performance of their duty. We're protected by the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. And I don't think anyone should take lightly our obligation to vote our conscience and our obligation to do that without fear of intimidation. If there are people on this Council who have conflicts of interest or who are operating in a fashion that is not consistent with the law, the people who have that information have an obligation. If they're concerned about the public, they have an obligation to take that information to the appropriate authorities so it can be processed. I, as one member of this Council, don't have any conflicts of interest in reference to this project and do not feel intimidated by any suggestions that any of my colleagues do or I might. And I would hope that my vote would be interpreted as one that took into consideration the pros and the cons and that I was swayed ultimately by what appears to be an overwhelming interest on the part of this Council to support this project and an overwhelming interest on the part of this Council to find the appropriate remedies to the problems that Mr. Givens raised. If the petitioners, if the people who are against this project are sincere, then we will be seeing them again in court because they will exercise their right to try to stop this project at the next level. And I certainly respect their right to do so, but it's rather obvious, in the interest of fairness, that this Council move forward and vote for this project at this time.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, for the record, one comment. This Council has, on many occasions, turned back by a vote of this Council various high-rises for the City of Pittsburgh, several of them in Squirrel Hill, and most of them because of fire, the maintenance room, the type of occupancy that these people are going to have to live in, the traffic pollution and everything else. So, this Council is on record of turning down high-rises for the elderly. It is not the first time and it's not the first time this Councilman has voted against this particular high-rise when in fact it affects people living in and around that particular high-rise.

I'm going to continue my research on this and report back to this Council in a timely fashion.

Michelle Madoff:

Question called for.

Mr. Stone:

I vote aye for the following reason. When this program began, I happened to have had the opportunity to be Chairman of the Planning and one of the demands that the Chairman of that Committee that I had requested was that the Section 8 in the City of Pittsburgh be geographically distributed.

The advantages of the program are quite obvious but need repeating in this sense. Those particular elderly people who have spent all of their useful working life in this City are entitled to the benefits of this program which requires of them only to pay thirty percent of their income as their monthly rent. In addition, when the housing is open in Section 8, the elderly presently are living in large homes which they could not give up. This gives them an opportunity to move into the homes and there after opening the homes to younger couples afterwards.

Relative to this Section 8 program, regretfully the federal government is cutting it out and we have no choice but to go forward now. When the Carrick high-rise for the elderly was originally intended on Sankey Avenue, we voted that one down. This is now the zero hour. There is no opportunity and not any more money after this to be carrying out this kind of program. So, it's now or never because the federal funds are drying up.

The elderly of Carrick are entitled to the benefits. And so that there be a clear understanding of what's involved, I supported the Moore School Project and have been on that for roughly ten years. In it's final analysis, it will not be what I originally intended, namely, if we tear it down and build up a Section 8 housing program. Nevertheless, seventy some units will be there to receive elderly people.

Relative to Allentown, that one is not exactly as they had wanted, but nevertheless, some seventy units will be open for the elderly. It is my belief that sixty-six elderly in the Carrick, like every other area of the City of Pittsburgh, are entitled to the benefits.

The Chair:

I appreciate the fact that Council has a very difficult decision to make today, obviously, myself included. But as I stated earlier, I will be consistent and vote aye.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 2565

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for February 16, 1983 transmitting one ordinance and two resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2361

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Seven - Business Licensing, Article V - Trade Occupations, Chapter 741 Warm Air Contractors, Chapter 743 Welders, Chapter 745 Stationary Engineers, Chapter 747 Electrical Contractors, Chapter 749 Sign Contractors, Chapter 701 General Provisions, Chapter 713 Pawn Brokers, Chapter 715 Junk Dealers, Chapter 717 Antique or Second Hand Dealers, Chapter 719 Vendors and Peddlers, Chapter 721 Transient Merchants, Chapter 723 Trade Fairs, Chapter 763 Parking Lots, Chapter 765 Commercial Refuse, Chapter 771 Amusement Places and Producers; Chapter 773 Sunday Activities, Chapter 777 Mechanical Amusement Devices and Chapter 779 Public Dance Halls and Dances."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Bill No. 2361, I'd like to make an amendment to that bill that already has passed. I had to step outside for just a second. This was in Committee on Wednesday and approved, but it has to be read into the records.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, the bill has been approved. I don't know if we can amend it after the approval or not.

Mr. Givens:

This was read into Committee, it should have been placed in the bill then. I asked that to be done Wednesday, I shouldn't even be reading it right now.

I am addressing the Chief Clerk: When I read this, I read it verbatim on Wednesday. Why isn't it in the bill?

Mr. Perry:

It had to be amended. It wasn't amended in Committee.

Mr. Stone:

Point of order. He is correct. He was to bring the correction here and as Chairman on Wednesday, he wanted to make the amendments there. I told him to make a copy, give us all a copy, and he would make the amendment here in fairness.

Mr. Givens:

All I want to do is amend that.

Mr. Stone:

It was not supposed to be included yet. You're just supposed to have your bill. You're making the amendment today.

Mr. Givens:

That's what I was trying to do but I was cut short.

Michelle Madoff:

We voted on the bill already.

The Chair:

Mr. Stone, he wants an amendment on a bill that's already passed. He had his opportunity and, unfortunately, he walked out of the room.

Mr. Givens:

The bills are still on the floor, they're still before us.

The Chair:

The bills are not before us. The bills have been passed, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Parliamentarian, I'll ask you one more time. Can we amend a bill that's already been passed?

Parliamentarian:

This bill has been passed. If Councilman Givens introduces an amendment for the next time, then the bill can --

Michelle Madoff:

Any bill can be amended.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, may I move to waive the rule so we don't get into parliamentary procedure on a very simple issue?

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Okay. Now the amendment, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

I amend Bill No. 2361, Section 745.01, the word "liquid" should be added to 745.01 "as a substance subject to licensing along with water, gas and steam".

Section 745.04 should be amended by adding the word "the license persons in charge of or operating. The aforesaid equipment must be located on the same premises where said equipment is located during such operations or control".

Number three, the last sentence of Section 745.06 should be deleted. We ask that the City continue to notify engineers when their licenses are about to expire so that forgetfulness does not produce an expired license. This was submitted on behalf of the International Union of Operating Engineers.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

Discussion. Mr. President, I'd like to discuss why I think Mr. Givens' motion is out of order at this point. I think that if we're going to follow the rules that we have to follow them based on their intent. The intent of the rules are to give us an orderly process in which we can conduct our business. Mr. Givens, like every other member of this Council, had an opportunity to submit his amendment at the appropriate time.

Mr. Givens:

And I did.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Givens did give to each member of Council a copy of his amendment. Mr. Givens did read it to us last Wednesday as he did today. When it came time to discuss the bills in the appropriate Committee, Public Safety, Mr. Givens exercised his prerogative to be absent from the room, absent from the vote. He returned during a process in which the Chair was requesting bills from another Committee. Mr. Givens insisted on offering his amendment.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Robinson, you insist on a lot of things in this Council, believe me.

Mr. Robinson:

I think that Mr. Givens is straining the procedures by requesting at this time to have us consider this amendment. If his amendment is worthy, then his amendment should be sent through the normal channels and the normal process. Mr. Givens went through a great deal of effort to encourage Mr. Woods and Mr. O'Malley and others to hold the bill a week or so ago so that he would have an appropriate opportunity to offer an amendment. They did that. I think he is straining the procedures of this Council to now request us to consider an amendment on a bill that has already been passed when the sponsor of that amendment left the Chambers, was not present during the voting, and did not request that the Chair hold the vote on that bill until he returned. Then he came back and inconveniences every member of this Council while we're trying to consider bills and Lands and Buildings.

I am opposed for that reason only. I think Mr. Givens should be requested and admonished by the Chair to follow the rules.

The Chair:

I think I made it rather clear, Mr. Robinson, that he had no right to leave the room instead of presenting his amendment and that the amendment was out of order in regard to the bill having already been passed. He asked for a waiver and apparently the Parliamentarian says if it was voted he could get it.

Mr. Givens:

We waived the rules, Mr. President.

The Chair:

We waived the rules. Alright. Now we're voting on the amendment.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm looking at the amendment Mr. Givens put on that will amend Section 745.04 and I can't find this 745.04 in the bill.

I agree with Mr. Robinson. Mr. Givens should use the appropriate channels to amend the bill, he should introduce this amendment next Wednesday when we have the appropriate time to look over the amendments.

The Chair:

Roll call vote on the amendment.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am voting aye because the amendments are technical amendments requested by the International Stationary Engineers Union and I don't see what the big ruckus is all about.

The Chair:

I agree with you.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote aye for the content. However, I would like to see that the numbers are corrected. I think Mr. O'Malley points out that they are not the correct numbers on the bill. Is that correct? May I suggest that while we all are in support of the basic technical things that we correct the numbers? How do we vote on it if the numbers are incorrect?

Mr. Stone:

Jim, it's not the whole bill. The original bill is in the Code. He's adding an amendment to the Code.

The Chair:

I should vote nay to discourage this type of action in the future but I'll vote aye because I think, as Mr. Flaherty said, it's not that important.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the amendment?

And on the question, "Shall the amendment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Which was read.

Mr. Stone:

This may or may not be necessary but there's what I think is an abbreviation and it ought to be corrected. They use the spelling of Boro for Borough of Mt. Oliver. I'm not so sure that's the way they identify it or not. I'll make the motion which is that if it turns out that they need the full spelling, Borough, that we approve that.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask the Clerk something? After the last meeting on Wednesday, you were to meet with Mr. Daryl Smith directly after the meeting. He said he didn't know what you wanted to do about office space for staff. On Bill 2420, that would address the issue. Did you meet with him? He said he would meet with you right after the meeting.

Mr. Perry:

No, I didn't meet with him. I sent him a letter about putting a partition in that one room.

Michelle Madoff:

And he now knows where the partitions are to go? Has he agreed to do it?

Mr. Perry:

Yes. He said he'll do it.

Michelle Madoff:

He said he would do it. Would you give me a letter to that effect today? I may not be here in the coming years but I don't think any member can serve their constituency working the way we do, holed up. And I think it is important that we have space that we can function.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, in regard to 2420, the share of the appropriation is for improvements for the public's accommodations, not for office space for Councilmembers.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I asked the time and he said that he would meet with Mr. Perry and I think that's been an ongoing issue. If anybody ought to complain it's you. Your office has six people in it and you can barely turn around sometimes.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, but the public should take priority over our own offices.

The Chair:

I agree with Mr. Flaherty.

Michelle Madoff:

I agree with Mr. Flaherty, the public should take priority and you cannot service your constituency with six people in a room.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm the one who's doing it, not you.

Michelle Madoff:

I can't serve my constituency with the situation that I have.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the reappointments.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. Perry, do you have an updated list of all the boards and commissions and who serves on them? I'd like to know what percentage are women, what percentage are minority, and what percentage are handicapped, because the last time these names were introduced I picketed the Mayor's Office saying, "Women have brains, too". I would like to know how many are women on these commissions and boards and until I have that I would not vote on them.

Mr. Stone:

Call the question.

Mr. Flaherty:

I abstain on all of them because the majority of the individuals I am not aware of their expertise or anything in regard to their pending appointment and also I agree —

Mr. Stone:

Wait, Tom. These are reappointments. It's not on all of them. Just the reappointees. The ones who have been serving.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I have not had adequate time to digest the information on the reappointments and I concur wholeheartedly with Councilwoman Michelle Madoff, I think it's about time we start to have an equitable proportion of blacks and females on all boards and commission.

Mr. Givens:

I had an opportunity on the ones that are going to be rescheduled that they have been before this Council when I was here, maybe Tom has not had this opportunity. I've had these records on my desk for over a week and I have again reviewed them and I agree to their renomination at this time.

Mr. O'Malley:

Since these are Mayor Caliguiri's appointments, there's no doubt in my mind that Mayor Caliguiri is going to ask the most qualified people to serve. I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, Council will be aware that some time ago I requested that the City Clerk contact the Mayor's Office to determine the vacancies on the boards and commissions and ask the Mayor to please fill them with all haste. The Mayor has not done that. There's still a number of boards and commissions where there are vacancies.

Council will be aware that I introduced a resolution today pursuant to the Home Rule Charter so that Council can fill all of those vacancies on those boards and commissions and I will be submitting some information to the President of Council Wednesday indicating that Mrs. Madoff should be appointed to a board or commission.

So, I'm going to have to, with a great deal of regret, abstain because I think the issue is beyond whether minorities and women are on this board, it's beyond whether or not the people are qualified. I think it's a real serious question about the process that's being utilized to put people on these boards and commissions. And if we're going to fill those vacancies, let's fill them. And I think if we do fill all of them, Mr. Flaherty's concerns will be addressed, Mrs. Madoff's concerns will be addressed, and Mr. O'Malley's concerns will be addressed also, because I'm sure the Mayor is not going to take anyone who is not qualified to serve. So, I'll have to abstain.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the reappointments?

And on the question, "Shall the reappointments pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Stone	(Pres't)

AYES 5 NOES none

(MR. FLAHERTY, MICHELLE MADOFF
AND MR. ROBINSON ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the reappointments were approved.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, in response to my colleague, Mr. O'Malley, who introduced a bill and he's saying that he was the one who brought to the Mayor's attention the idea of having a women's commission, which the Mayor has established, I would like to ask my colleagues whether they don't feel that there are a number of qualified women in the City who are just as qualified as the people who are being appointed that are men who are being reappointed. I'm sure there are a lot of minorities, women, and handicapped people who are every bit as qualified, if we wanted to find them.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I have a request for Council as a whole and I would ask the City Clerk if he would address a letter to Warner Cable. I have received some criticisms and I believe, first of all, I would need some clarification and I would hope that it would be the concern of the entire Council. One of the primary reasons I feel that Council as a whole awarded the able contract to Warner was their promise to provide a meaningful, equitable participation for minority stockholders. I'm sure as we all recall, they earmarked twenty percent of their stock for minority interest which would be relegated to seventeen minority organizations. We are now entering the third year of the Warner Cable Contract. It is my understanding that there has not been hardly any impact whatsoever or any accrument to those seventeen organizations.

It is simply a request that Warner would voluntarily submit to Council what is happening in regard to those twenty percent of minority stockholders.

And on the motion of Mr. Stone

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, February 28, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. President, for interrupting the meeting. We had a time frame problem, and I wonder if Mary Hall will join me. I'm going to do something that's long overdue. As you know, a number of months ago my office decided that we would honor women by having a Woman of the Month Award, City of Pittsburgh women. The Women's Political Caucus would like to do a county-wide, and a state-wide, and a national-wide. They felt the idea was superb, and they're going to do it on a much wider scale. I talked to the Mayor, and the Mayor has arranged to have duplicates of all the resolutions mounted in a prominent place in the lobby of the City-County Building so that not only will the people who received the awards be honored but other people will know that they've been honored as they walk by.

Today, we are going to honor a very special lady posthumously, Bosanka Evosevic. Her mother wanted to be here, wants the award, the resolution and will put it in her restaurant, but she felt emotionally she just couldn't handle the trauma; and in her place Mary Hall — has graciously and Mary Hall, as you know, is with the Mayor's Task Force on Women in Renaissance II, is an old friend of mine, a staunch supporter of women, I think knew Bosanka. She will see that Bosanka's mother receives the award, and I will read it, and then I would like to know whether Mr. Stone would grace us with some comments and whether the President would make some comments. May I read the award.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 2634 WHEREAS, the role of women needs to be expanded in society; and

WHEREAS, the accomplishments and achievements, both professionally and personally, of women in our society have largely been underrated; and

WHEREAS, Bosanka Evosevic was the first Pittsburgher to serve in the Peace Corps, hosted the television program "Faith in Today's World," was a retired Vice-Principal of South High School on the South Side and co-owner with her mother of Sarah's Restaurant on Tenth Street; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Evosevic was a former member of the Human Relations Commission, the South Side Community Council, the Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation, the City's Bicentennial Commission; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Evosevic was a member of the National Organization for Women and one of the first members of NOW in Pittsburgh, was active in women's studies at the University of Pittsburgh, Duquesne University, and Community College of Allegheny County; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Evosevic was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges, was a semi-finalist in the Vogue Prix de Paris, a White House Fellows semi-finalist in 1965, a Fulbright grantee in 1961, and winner of a Carnegie Fellowship in 1968, was named one of the Outstanding Young Women in America in 1969, and was awarded the Wilson College Centennial Citation and the Pittsburgh Hand in Hand Award in the 1970's.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby posthumously recognize her as "Woman of the Month" because of her dedicated service to the citizens of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the Resolution.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.
Which motion prevailed.

Mary Hall:

On behalf the Mayor's Task Force on Women in Renaissance II and on behalf of Bosanka's family, I'm very honored today to receive this award in her behalf. As you remember, on October 20th when we established the Mayor's Task Force on Renaissance II, we dedicated that event to Bosanka's memory. The Post Gazette article noting her passing at that time described her most appropriately as a renaissance woman who combined academics with a vibrant interest in public affairs and equal rights, and we at the task force will be guided by her memory and by her inspiration, and I want to commend Councilwoman Madoff and this Council for instituting this award. Thank you very much.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, will you say something?

The Chair:

If I may, the Evosevic family was very close to me. I knew Sarah and Bertha from the time she was a little girl and a little lady, and I might say that I consider her and thought that she was one of the most brilliant women in the City of Pittsburgh, if not the entire United States of America. Tragically, Bosanka became very ill, I believe, about ten or nine years ago, and she never quite got over it, and eventually it caused her death. Pittsburgh is certainly going to miss Bosanka, and all of those fighting for women's rights are going to miss her, because she was in the forefront many, many years ago and did a terrific job. I might add that her mother and I, I guess we've been close friends for 25 years, a finer woman never lived, and she's taken the death of Bosanka rather, rather hard, and that's the reason she couldn't be here today. She's a wonderful woman. You're all familiar with her restaurant on the South Side. She's just a nice person.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may, I've had the distinct honor to have been born and raised with Bosanka Evosevic. Bosanka and her mother and family have all been members of the Holy Trinity Serbian Orthodox Church of Pittsburgh, and I think that in mentioning this award relative to Bosanka, it would be an understatement to say that she was involved. She was involved in perhaps anything and everything in which the needs of people were concerned. She was active in the South Side in our South Side Community Council; she was active in the South Side relative to our South Side Chamber of Commerce; she was active in the South Side in anything that concerned the South Side. She made an effort, as some of you may recall, to run for City Council the City of Pittsburgh. That was because of her burning desire in hopes that she might be able to do even more for the people of the City of Pittsburgh. This is the second award she has received posthumously, and I believe that the reason for that is not that anyone did not believe that she was deserving of an award, but rather because of her vitality and her efforts perhaps everyone thought she would never pass; but as fate would have it, she did pass, but at this time we are remembering her for all of the efforts that she has given. She has been throughout her life a pathfinder. She has been everywhere, as her record might indicate, to Africa, Europe and as well all over the United States of America and Canada. It is for me an honor that we are honoring her at this time, first as a citizen of the City of Pittsburgh, and as a dedicated member of the Holy Trinity Church where she served and served well. It is indeed a proud factor that one of our members has received this award and I join in it.

The Chair:

I'd like to thank Michelle and all the other members of Council for taking part in this action, and certainly Mary Hall. Thank you, Mary.

The Chair:

Mr. Clerk, do we need a majority vote in Council to issue a subpoena?

Mr. Perry:

Yes, sir.

The Chair:

Then I'd like to ask a question. Mr. Robinson, are you saying that these people refuse to give this information?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I think the record will reflect both Mrs. Brown and Reverend Simms have been asked on several occasions to produce documents for this Council. I should indicate that these are public documents that should be available under the Freedom of Information Act. These are documents that are available to everyone in the City of Pittsburgh. It seems to me that when Council makes a reasonable request of a department head, that that information should be forthcoming. I reluctantly have prepared these subpoenas, because it appears that there is not going to be any kind of voluntary attempt to supply Council with this information, nor have I heard from our City Solicitor that he is going to assist us in getting us this information. It seems to me that this is the appropriate procedure to follow.

The Chair:

I don't quite follow you. You are saying that this is public information, yet at the same time they refuse to give us this information? Now we have access to it without them?

Mr. Robinson:

Not to my knowledge.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may, I'd like to be a little cautious on the use of subpoena power. By the way, I don't know that he's asking — he's requesting a subpoena, but he doesn't issue it; the Council issues a subpoena, but aside from that, the request for information, I don't fault that. I don't know that we have from the record that anyone's refusing to give it so much as I think there's been a lot of confusion and we ought to get it. I would question the need of a subpoena, however. I don't know, if they don't have it when they're here, that the subpoena is going to produce anything more than they have unless we have some evidence that there is some willful or malicious desire not to produce the information. I just think that the subpoena thing might just be a little strong at this point. I'm not thwarting or not attempting to thwart the attempt to get information now.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, we are not going to know if it's malicious, intentional or not until a subpoena is issued. It is unfortunate that many members of this Council have asked for information. We all know this is a strong Mayor system and a weak Council, but it takes five votes of this Council to show that we really are a body. We get blamed for everything in the paper, no matter whether the Mayor fills jobs for police; and we vote for the appropriations, the jobs aren't filled, we're the ones that are blamed when we go out in the circuit. You know that, Mr. President, and if we're going to take the responsibility, if our heads are to be on the guillotine, then we have the responsibility to get that information and to support a colleague when that colleague cannot get information repeatedly. There is no reason why we cannot support a subpoena and for once and for all, as Councilman Flaherty would say, play hard-ball and say we really mean it; we're not just going to be puppets and window dressing.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I wholeheartedly support Councilman Robinson's resolution. In my mind, it has gone on entirely too long that certain members of Council have posed questions to Reverend Simms, to other members of the Administration regarding pertinent information on minority hiring. As far as I am concerned, we have received a run-around for the past years. I have very strong suspicions as to if the records or the documents actually are being kept, and I think this is another classic example as to if this Council is going to ask as members of the legislative body or are they going to act as a rubber stamp for the Mayor. It's an extremely crucial issue, perhaps one of the most pressing social issues in this City, and I think this Council should have the backbone and support Councilman Robinson.

The Chair:

Bill, I have a question to ask. Do we have reason to question that the Administration is not carrying out the minority program in the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

The Chair:

Do we have proof of that?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. Yes. These subpoenas, I think, will show us what documentation the Administration does or does not have. If Council will remember, Reverend Simms was before us about three weeks ago, and he indicated that he would return with information specifically relative to 500 Grant Street Associates. Reverend Simms did not return, and he did not provide this Council with that information. Mrs. Brown has been repeatedly requested to forward information to this Council relative to the Zoological Parks Commission's Minority Business Enterprise Program, and I think it's fair to assume if a department head does not comply with your wish, that either the information is not there, or they have some good reason not to comply. The subpoena is an appropriate tool to gather information. It's an appropriate tool to use when all other reasonable means have been exhausted, and I think all other reasonable means have been exhausted with these two particular individuals to get information from them that I've indicated to you was public information. Now, I would suspect that if, as a member of this Council, a member of this legislative body, I cannot get this information from them, I would be no more successful as a private citizen requesting that information from them; because certainly as a member of Council, I would daresay there's some official capacity in which I am operating, and if they refuse to respond to this Council, then I think there are other steps to take. I would hope that the volunteer efforts that all this Council has talked about in terms of getting information on minority business development would prevail upon Reverend Simms and Mrs. Brown. Evidently, to-date, those attempts have failed. I would hope that the attempts that our Solicitor, Mr. Pellegrini, said he would initiate would prevail upon Mrs. Brown and Reverend Simms. To-date they have not, so a subpoena is an appropriate tool at this point, unless there's someone on this Council or someone in the Administration that has the information that this Council and myself have been requesting for a long period of time.

The Chair:

Mr. O'Malley.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to support my colleague, Mr. Robinson. I think the use of a subpoena in this Council is long overdue, and I certainly think that we, as elected officials and a counter-balance to the Administration, certainly have the right to any and all information concerning City government. A lot of times when we request information, that information has not been forthcoming, and I think that it's time that this Council exert some of our authority in requesting information, because a lot of times, we are the court of last result. I certainly support Councilman Robinson's efforts in his behalf.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

Yes, Mr. President. Early on in my career as a Councilman, as a young Councilperson and my first year here, I had very strong and the same type of problems apparently that Mr. Robinson is having right now where then I threatened the Superintendent Coll and the Police Department for certain records. The threat of using subpoena, it's according to our Home Rule Charter that this Council can subpoena anybody into this Council, and I would go along with Councilman Robinson. I just would ask for one appeal before any of us use any right to subpoena. Someone mentioned that we do have a strong Mayor form of government within this City which is well recognized. Has an appeal, Bill, been made to the Mayor in this regard when a department head refuses, because in my particular case, I went to the Mayor on the day that I was going to do it and asked him if he did not provide these records that I was going to ask, then, the Council to subpoena these records. I just appeal to Councilman Robinson if he has not made a direct appeal to the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh and I'll ask him to forestall this until he would, at least, do that and even keep this meeting open, Mr. President, not terminate this meeting at the end of the day, giving the Mayor time to respond. I would like to hear from Bill if he has so done this.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Givens, I think that the record would reflect that Councilman Robinson has attempted to follow all the procedures to respect every elected official in the City and to only solicit that information which is rightfully due to me as a Councilman. I say that in answer to your question, because I certainly have made several attempts to let the Mayor know what my personal concerns were relative to minority business development and also what my concerns were as a member of this Council. I don't think anyone should believe that I have not attempted to communicate with the top Administrator of the City relative to information I need. In fact, at last Monday's meeting with the Mayor that we have every Monday, the Mayor was not present, but his assistant, Mr. Talarico, was present; and the Administration is presenting two bills relative to the North Shore Project. I requested that those bills not be introduced into my Committee, Planning, Housing and Development, until the Urban Redevelopment Authority addresses the issue of minority business participation and forward to this Council the necessary documents to show us that they have a program that is operating. I did not introduce those bills, I did not entertain them. Those bills were introduced into this Council by a member of Council. Now I don't know why that member of Council introduced them, perhaps out of courtesy to the Administration, perhaps they believed in those bills, but I refused to introduce them because I didn't feel that as Chairman of Planning, Housing and Development I was able to get the appropriate information from our Urban Redevelopment Authority about our Minority Business Enterprise Program; and when those bills come into committee, I'm going to raise the same concerns, because I'm not going to vote for them until that information comes to this Council, and I'm not going to entertain any additional bills for the Urban Redevelopment Authority until they file with this Council their Minority Business Enterprise plan and they file with us some progress reports. So, yes, Mr. Givens, the Mayor is fully aware of my concern and this Council's concern about minority business development, and I would not have asked to have these subpoenas issued if there was another way to get that information.

The Chair:

In that respect, we'll get to you in a second, Mr. Flaherty. I was just wondering, I don't care that much for a subpoena action myself, as Mr. Stone stated. I was just wondering, Bill, if we couldn't ask these people to come in one more time--

Michelle Madoff:

No, no.

The Chair:

--and if they absolutely refuse-- Look, I'm asking Mr. Robinson--then I would also go along with a subpoena, but at the present time I can't and I just think we ought to give them one more chance.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I think everyone on this Council knows I'm fair and honest and certainly reasonable. I have to decline your offer. I think it's time for us to take some positive action. I think both the people in question have had more than enough opportunity to voluntarily cooperate, and I think it would be an insult to this Council at this point to ask them to come before us once more.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, in all fairness, I've talked to both parties, and they seem to think that they want to give you the answers but you don't want to accept the answers. I'm only saying what they're imparting to me.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, without disrespecting yourself or this Council or anyone in the Administration, I have no knowledge of those conversations that you just related to. I have not had any conversations with Reverend Simms or Mrs. Brown relative to these subpoenas or relative to the information that's contained therein, and that's up to this very moment I have not talked to them.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just care to regress in that in saying I believe that the accountability and the controls as to if we are going to have equitable and fair minority participation, that even in the beginning it is askew or it was askew. A point of reference is that we are asking Mayor's Office to watch the Mayor's Office. That's like asking a fox to watch the chickens, so, I think Council was very lax in the first place in agreeing to allowing the Mayor's Office, in this example, Reverend Simms, whose office is immediately adjacent to the Mayor's Office, to enforce a very sensitive issue of equitable Minority Participation Review Committee. I believe that this Council can go a long step toward correcting that problem also, by supporting Councilman Robinson's resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

One quick question, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens has his hand up. Mr. Givens.

Michelle Madoff:

No, he didn't.

Mr. Givens:

No.

The Chair:

Okay, this is it.

Michelle Madoff:

One quick question. Councilman Robinson in a very gentlemanly way said that he did not introduce two bills at the Mayor's meeting and asked that they be held, that he would not introduce them through his Committee on the North Shore, sir?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

And I wanted to know who introduced them. Is it true that you introduced them, Mr. DePasquale?

The Chair:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. O'Malley:

Call for the vote.

The Chair:

Because I don't think we have the right to withhold any bills from the Mayor's Office.

Michelle Madoff:

That's the decision that we make when we have to subpoena to get information.

Mr. O'Malley:

Call for the vote.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the subpoena?

Mrs. Masloff:

Well, I think the subpoena and the threatened subpoena is a little strong, and now that we're this close to a subpoena, I think we ought to give them one more chance. I vote no.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye, and I think every member of this Council should have all the information required to do their job properly.

Mr. Stone:

I would like before I vote to make this comment. I do not object to Mr. Robinson getting the information he desires. The City has made a commitment to minority female representation; they're entitled to it. We should not give lip service to it. My problem is more a procedural one, and that is that I foresee that if we do this kind of thing at this time that we're going to have a rash of subpoenas, and I don't think that's in the best interest of the City. I do, however, feel that there should be a strong letter to the individuals involved. I have not seen where anyone said they will not supply the information, and I think that a letter ought to be sent from this Council instead of a subpoena, will you provide the answer, and if they say yes, when will you supply it. I don't know at this point whether it's a refusal or whether they just couldn't meet the timetable, but as far as getting information, it's not my intent, as I stated earlier, to thwart the attaining of information. I just think the use of the subpoena power at this point and in this instance is going to lead to something that is going to be worse to handle than the present problem, and at that point, I vote no.

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye, because I know Mr. Robinson's been asking for some time for this information, and he hasn't gotten it.

Mr. Given:

Mr. President, sometimes it's nice to be on the end of the line where you can hear what your other fellow colleagues say. Mr. President, I enjoy you and Councilman Stone and Sophie Masloff in the fact that this is the first time that the subpoena has been brought to my attention. It's a very degrading position to take on any of us. I have looked at that same subpoena issue myself. I'd want that letter to go indicating if these records are not brought forward, but then the subpoena would be such. As the vote is coming down right now, it doesn't make much difference how I vote on this particular issue, and the fact that there will a subpoena. However, before that subpoena is issued, I would hope that the Mayor would respond to this Council, and I hope that those documents, public documents as so indicated here by Mr. Robinson, will be on our desks before this day is over; and for that reason, Mr. President, I vote no.

The Chair:

Summer Youth Employment Program, upon certain terms and conditions, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, Bill No. 2516, does anyone know whether that bill will include furniture as well as rental space and where the furniture would come from? That's on the CETA Program renting the Law and Finance Building for a period of time or the Jones Law Building, I'm sorry.

Mr. Stone:

It's only a rental.

Mr. Perry:

One thousand square feet.

Michelle Madoff:

Does anybody know where the furnishings are going to come from? They must have some old furniture there that we could use.

Mr. Stone:

It's only tables.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, that's what I said. I wonder if we cannot have to buy it, whether it's going to be there, whether they will have it there. Does anybody know that? I don't want to hold the bill up. Could you just get that information for me? Whose bill is this?

The Chair:

It should be in Supplies.

Michelle Madoff:

My concern is that we don't go out and buy new tables for thousands of dollars. Could you just check what kind of equipment they're going to have in the facility.

Mr. Stone:

Michelle, they can't buy it unless they come back here.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I would assume that for $50,000 they could get the old tables and chairs that are there now.

Mr. Woods:

We'll get them downstairs; they'll have them.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on Council Bill 2511, 2512 and 2513, if Council will remember, some weeks ago we made a request to the Urban Redevelopment Authority to send to us a tax status statement relative to all properties that they were transferring due to the fact that a number of people buying those properties were having difficulty once they purchased the property in addressing the issue of back taxes. I did discuss this issue with Mr. Noonan and Mr. Brophy from URA, and they indicated that this was a common problem that in part related to some difficulty in the County Assessor's Office and that they have approximately 1600 such cases on their files, and they indicated that they would prefer to send a letter explaining the problem and have this letter included in the record, and that if any member of Council is approached by anyone who has purchased URA property who is having tax problems, to please forward their name, address, and phone number to Mr. Noonan.

Evidently, this issue is going have to be resolved possibly in court because it involves the County Assessor's Office perhaps not properly processing tax information, and, therefore the Urban Redevelopment Authority and our City Solicitor's Office do not have the necessary information to make an adequate determination of the tax status of properties that we are selling. As I understand it, several attempts have been made to get the Commissioners and other appropriate county officials involved in resolving this issue, but to-date it has not been resolved. I am concerned that the people who are buying this URA property are being in some instances intimidated once they purchase the property and then get these gigantic bills for back taxes, taxes which, in effect, should be forgiven, because once URA takes over the property, the taxes are supposed to be forgiven. It's a serious problem and one that hopefully can be resolved. Mr. Noonan and Mr. Brophy assured me that they will continue to work with Mr. Pellegrini in our Law Department and work with the County Solicitor, as well as persons in the County Assessor's Office, in trying to resolve this problem, so I would like to have this letter included in the record along with those bills. Thank you.

(LETTER CONCERNING BACK TAXES)

February 28, 1983
255-6660

The Honorable William Russell Robinson
Member of Council
City of Pittsburgh
City-County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

RE: Sales of URA Properties Tax
Information

Dear Councilman Robinson:

Thank you for having taken the time to discuss with Paul Brophy and me the real estate tax issue which are the subject of your recent letter to Paul.

As I explained to you last Friday, the real issue relative to the many complaints you have received is the fact that the real estate taxes and liens are not being stricken from the records of either the County or the City even when they are shown to be exempt.

A brief outline of URA procedure when acquiring and disposing of a property might better help you understand what happens.

When URA acquires a property, it pays the pro rata share of the taxes due for the year in which the property is acquired and requires that other taxes due and owing are satisfied. We then get an insurance title policy.

URA then files, with the County Assessor's Office, a request for exemption from taxes during the period we own the property. (We argue that we are non-taxable by law regardless of the exemption request, but we follow the City/County established procedure in order to conform to their request). We are then at the mercy of the taxing bodies' procedures. Sometimes the exemptions are granted expeditiously; other times we might wait for months. To the best of my knowledge, we have never been refused.

Now the problems really start.

Even though the property is in an exempt classification, the taxes continue to be assessed. Additionally, even though the previous taxes had been satisfied, they probably were not stricken from the City or County records.

Now URA sells the property. We know the property has been exempt during our ownership and we can convey clear title. However, since the taxes were evidently still being wrongfully assessed during that period, there is a mounting tax debt on the record against the property and the new owner keeps getting tax bills which should never have gone out. This is when the complaints start. Eventually, the taxes reach an amount which triggers City/County liens and foreclosure notices. The complaints become more vocal.

In the meantime, URA staff assures the new owners that the taxes are not their responsibility and we immediately take steps to straighten out the matter. The City or County are contacted, they agree the taxes are not due, and abate their legal actions. However, the taxes are not stricken and the same thing happens to the same owners the following year. An it will continue to happen until the records are straightened out.

The URA presently has 1,600 cases similar to the problems outlined above. We have been striving for several years to resolve the problem. We are now working through and with the City Solicitor's Office to see if we can do so.

I would ask that sales of URA-owned property not be held up in Council because of the tax problems. We are on top of them. However, in the final analysis, we do not control the taxing bodies' staffs and can only do so much.

Very truly yours,

John L. Noonan, Director
Real Estate Division

Bill No. 2633

Report of the Committee on Public

Safety for February 23, 1983 transmitting one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2537

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Seven 'Business Licensing', Article IX 'Amusement Businesses', Chapter 771, 'Amusement Places and Producers', Section 771.08 'Minors Playing Pool; Obscenity.' by providing regulations prohibiting minors in Amusement Arcades during certain specified hours of school days."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

As many members are aware, there was an editorial in this morning's paper, I was called last week by the Post for my viewpoint. I think there are some errors in the editorial in that they're implying that we're going to put a tremendous burden on City police. The facts remain if you get one or two or three arcade owners who violate blatantly this law, and they do have recourse to the courts to begin with, the others will follow suit. I have talked to the arcade owners themselves, and for the most part, with one exception, I have had all of them say that they are do not permit, will not permit, and do not want students in their arcade in the day. One of the those people was Richard Cohen who was one of the Mayor's assistants and does have an arcade, so I don't think we're putting any burden on the City police

It talks about truancies, and this is a flawed piece of legislation, and the concept that we had a ruling from the Mayor, from the Administrative Law Department. I've talked to some legal counsel, and they agree with me that, as Mr. Pellegrini said, he doesn't know what the ruling will be as to whether it will be held to be legal or not legal, but he does know that they will appeal that bill; and that bill will take three more years in court in all likelihood; and meanwhile, the magnet, the drawing card, the impetus for our youth to cut school and go in packs or in groups of a number of truantries are to the arcades, so I want to lead that bill.

As you know, I did introduce another bill because I've been asked and told that the bill does not go far enough, that what we're doing is discriminating against the arcade owners who have six machines because that is our bill, and what is going to happen is that they're going to go to the places where there's only one machine whether it's a pinball or a video machine and so on. The argument has been thrown out that, why don't we regulate department stores and say kids can't go into department stores, but the fact remains children do not cut class and are not truants for the same drive, the same verve, the same impetus as they are to go to play video arcades, to play video machines, to play pinball machines. Youngsters are seen in these facilities with coins, rolls of quarters. There's no money left in the sugar jar anymore when people aren't at home miscellaneous change isn't in the house anymore; and I think that we have a responsibility to this community to help the School Board. We can no longer say that we have nothing to do with schools, but to say we just want to support them by passing this piece of legislation which will help enforce the truancy law; and I stand by my bill and hope that the second companion bill will also pass.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

To follow up on what Councilwoman Michelle Madoff has said, I agree with some of the things that she has said. I am not in support of the bill, but I believe that Michelle did say that the real problem is truancy, and I don't think arcades cause truancy, and I believe that there are sufficient laws on truancy; and I think there is a lot of credence to the argument that it tends to discriminate against arcades if you are going to prohibit individuals under 18 from going into an arcade during traditional school hours, and you are not going to prohibit that individual from attending a show or from going to a department store or to the pizza shop; so I have real problems in that the bill tends to just single out arcade shops, and I also have problems. I know that Michelle is going to introduce another bill. It has been introduced, and this Council has not acted yet on that bill, there's certainly no guarantee that this Council is going to pass that bill; and so if we were, for example, to pass this bill and not pass her bill, then this bill would look quite foolish on the books, and so I have a real problem with putting the cart in front of the horse.

The Chair:

If I may make a comment, I feel similar to Mr. Flaherty in regards to the discriminatory part of the bill. As I told you earlier, anything we can do to aid the cause in regards to children playing truancy or spending that money foolishly I'd certainly go along with, but I'm wondering if the bill would really be legal and would have any teeth with just saying arcades if you're not being completely open and above board in saying all businesses or all places or all establishments should bar children during school hours, because obviously, if they're in there not with their parents, they are cutting classes, or they are playing truancy, because obviously, if the child is in there by himself and the parent isn't with them, the parent doesn't know they're there. I would think anyway.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think it's necessary to respond to both you and to my esteemed colleague. This is not a bill that came out of the head of Zeus. It is not Michelle Madoff's bill. I didn't dream it up. It was a off-shoot of the original zoning bill.

The Chair:

Michelle, first of all, nobody's arguing with your intent of the bill. Your intent of the bill is good, and we all agree with that.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to elucidate on how to the bill came into being. The people who came to our hearing, the people from the Homewood-Brushton area that asked to be heard on the arcades and the banning of video machines in arcades and have subsequently asked, you know we're both out there in the community right now because of the time of year, and we're everywhere and we're in every part of the City; and I've had parents come over to me and say, "We support you completely; thank you for introducing the bill." Whether it's Brookline, whether it's Carrick, no matter what part of the city it is in, they feel that the impetus, the thing that is drawing the children out of the class and having them become truant at this point in time are these video machines. It was the will of the communities that we introduce this kind of legislation. It's was our own Zoning Board, Mr. Jim Brown, who said,

"I have four kids. As far as I'm concerned, anything over four," because he needed a number which he could make arcade legislation legal by changing or amending or having a companion bill that says no video machines or no mechanical devices, we then expand the bill.

I will be very truthful. The reason that I don't want to hold this bill is at least we're starting something. We're saying to those who have the most to lose, who have licenses; and I am surprised because most of the people in the business say we agree. The person who helped me draft the bill was an owner of an arcade, and he said he doesn't want them. He supports the parents. He has children; and I wonder whether the person who wrote this in the Post-Gazette has any children; and I bet you he's not married and doesn't have any kids. He doesn't realize when the kids get to be teenagers they tell you they're anywhere, they're in the library studying, and they go where the attractions are, and the attractions are at this point in time the video machines.

The Chair:

I only have one other comment to make, if I may. When I went to Schenley High School, if we cut a class and we walked down Centre Avenue, I remember Officer Laulis, he would hustle you right back up school, and if you didn't go back up to school, you took a ride in the paddy wagon. They don't have that today. You don't have those policemen out there doing that. You don't have anybody overseeing these kids.

Michelle Madoff:

That's why I'm introducing this bill. You just gave me the best argument for introducing it; we don't have that today.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, as I've shared with members of Council —

The Chair:

That might be a good argument to have more cops and might get more police.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, this Council voted for them. The Administration hasn't put them on.

The Chair:

It's never too late. Go ahead. I'm sorry, Mr. Robinson. Mr. Robinson has the floor.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council, as I have indicated on several occasions, I think that one of the issues we cannot lose sight of is the fact that the primary responsibility for keeping young people in school belongs with the School Board itself here in the City of Pittsburgh. We have an elected School Board. They have a very specific responsibility, and making sure that young people are in school during school hours is one of those responsibilities. We also cannot forget that the parents of all school-age children are obligated by law to make sure that their children are in school during school hours. There is an appropriate state law which addresses this concern, and while I'm appreciative of the frustration of many of the people throughout the city in terms of getting their youngsters to school and keeping them in school, I think we need to be very cautious in taking any steps to involve ourselves in what could be considered School Board matters or School Board business. We are not primarily responsible for young people being in school or being out of school. Unfortunately, the school system has not responded to any of our inquiries concerning this matter. I don't know what that silence indicates, but it would at least indicate that they're not too terribly concerned. I've read things in the paper and I've heard things about School Board officials being concerned about this problem, but we have not heard from the President of the School Board, Doctor Engel; we have not heard from Doctor Wallace, the Superintendent; we have not even heard from any of the School Board members who represent the various people who came in and protested. I would just hope that in considering this bill that we take those factors into consideration and also that this Council would send some type of communication to Dr. Engel and Dr. Wallace expressing our concern that the School Board, the school system in the City of Pittsburgh address the issue of truancy, that they address the issue of having adequate personnel to supervise these young people, that they address the issue of seeking the assistance of other governmental agencies.

There has been a great deal of constituent pressure on all members of Council, myself included, to do something, and I suspect it is because video arcades have become a menace to many people across this country, not just in reference to young people not going to school, but in terms of adults who seem to be addicted; and if anyone watches television regularly, you know there have been a number of specials done on this issue. Some people are even suggesting that there are people who have to play these video machines for some type of psychological therapy. I think we just ought to be careful that we don't get pulled into this discussion of a current social phenomenon, the video arcade, that we don't be misled into believing that if, indeed, the school system is unwilling or unprepared to address this issue, that we have some sort of overriding obligation to run in and try to solve their problems.

The school system recently proposed an expansive building program which I assume can only be accomplished by taking monies out of their treasury, getting monies from other governmental sources or by increasing the millage. If, indeed, they have plans to build new buildings, they should have plans for the youngsters who are to go into those buildings; and I would hope that we would encourage them to first hire adequate personnel to make sure that our young people are in school and to make sure they're in school during school hours before they build one more schoolhouse, so that this Council is not confronted next year or next week with another request from citizens to do something that our school system should do.

On Wednesday, I indicated that I was willing to support this bill. I support it reluctantly, because I think that when we begin to step into those areas that are specifically dictated by some other governmental body, that we have to be careful what we're doing. I will support it, but I hope that each member of this Council will at least give some serious consideration to what I said, and will encourage the school system to address its own problems.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Robinson. Mr. Stone.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, there is by virtue of an opinion from the City Solicitor some serious legal problems. In fact, he says, based on the present state of the legal record, that he feels it's illegal. He recommends a holding of the bill pending the decision in the case that's now before the appeals court. Judging by what conversations and exchanges we had last Wednesday, it appears to me that his opinion does not cover all of the other possible grounds for appeal in declaring this matter an illegal thing. For us in the face of that opinion from our legal solicitor to pass what is in his interpretation perhaps an illegal bill is less than logical, less than sensible, and especially for a legislative body who's supposed to be setting an example for the community, and that's not to mention the potential financial burdens. The penalty is that we revoke your license. Anyone who has a business and you revoke that license, they are incurring a loss of income; so the question is, if you took my license away and you deprived me of money, should you not pay in the event that you are incorrect?

I don't think this is a question of whether we are for or against children in arcades. I think everybody on this Council is opposed to it, and we ought to let the record show that, but the question is, does this bill accomplish what is attempted to be started here, and to hear people say we ought to pass it even it's illegal, so what, we'll never hear about it, I think is incorrect; and I can't subscribe to that theory, because, number one, we don't accomplish the end we want, and it certainly doesn't benefit the intended beneficiaries. I'm mindful of the time when there was an attempt to stop "Deep Throat" in the City of Pittsburgh, and there was a bill passed that was illegal, and it was known to be one that shouldn't have been passed. It was enforced, and the only one that benefited was the X-rated movie house who netted some $75,000 because of the free publicity they got; and I think when we're getting to this one when you're depriving people of their rights and business or their individual liberties, you have to be extremely careful, and I think that we need to rely on our City Solicitor so that we're not hurting but rather helping what we intend to do.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, before you call for a vote, Mr. Stone offends my sensibilities when he talks about we have the opinion of our legal counsel. As you know, sir, we have been out on the trail this time of year I repeat, and in many places that I go the question, particularly in Councilman Flaherty's own district, is repeatedly asked, "How do you feel about Council having its own full-time legal counsel as we're directed and allowed to do in the Home Rule Charter?" Now, when Mr. Stone says we can go to our Legal Department, I scoff, because they are not our Legal Department; they are the Administration's Legal Department, and they are hired by the Administration and fired by the Administration. It reminds me of the old joke about Davey Lawrence, it's said that he when asked a question of his Law Department, by taking a note out of his right pocket, he wanted a yes answer, and if he took it out of his left pocket, he wanted a no answer. Now, that's a standing joke. I don't know if it has any bearing and truth; but I do feel that there is a difference of conflict of interest. This Council should have its own full-time legal counsel, we should have our own fiscal advisor, and I will be coming up a third year with a bill to that effect; and so I don't want to hear from any member of what the Mayor's Law Department has told them, because why is Mr. Robinson introducing a bill today to subpoena people because he can't get the information, and the Mayor's Legal Department isn't saying you'd better give it, and on that I rest my case, and I think the public are going to be heard from. They'll have their say in the letters to the editor.

The Chair:

I've only run into two people in Pittsburgh who aren't running for City Council.

Michelle Madoff:

That is not far from the truth, Mr. DePasquale.

The Chair:

Must be a good job. Everybody wants it.

Sophie Masloff:

No is right. I agree with my colleagues. I've seen more kids standing in front of McDonald's than I've seen in any video shop, so if you're going to look for kids, you can find them in McDonald's first. No.

Mr. Woods:

I voted yes on Wednesday, but I'm going to change my vote to no, because this other legislation that was introduced, I can't be for that, and so I felt I'd just be hypocritical if I vote yes on this, so I vote no on this bill, and I'll be voting no next Wednesday on the other bill.

The Chair:

At the risk of saying I'm against children, I'll vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff Mr. Robinson

AYES 2 NOES 7

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record, the vote does not surprise me.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson presents:

Bill No. 2635 Resolution appointing The Honorable Michelle Madoff as a Member of the Commission on Human Relations, City of Pittsburgh for a term to expire on December 31, 1986.

Michelle Madoff:

Michelle Madoff declines the honor. I appreciate and I thank Mr. Robinson for his gracious consideration of me for that position; however, I think the members of Council should serve where they have the greatest expertise. I don't think anybody in this room would deny the fact that I probably have greater expertise in environmental matters than anybody on this Council. I have been denied the opportunity to serve on ALCOSAN. Mr. Depasquale, since you're Chairman of ALCOSAN where the patronage jobs are located, where families are hired, you know darn well I'd investigate it, and know I will not be relegated to some entity just to satisfy and just to take on the Mayor. I think the Mayor has a responsibility to appoint me to something where I can best serve with my expertise. He will not do it because he's afraid of me.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might, with all due respect to Mrs. Madoff and other members of Council, I think I made my position quite clear over the last couple of weeks relative to my understanding of the Home Rule Charter as it relates to members of this Council serving on boards and commissions. Mrs. Madoff is the only member of this Council who does not serve on a board or commission. Certainly, the Mayor has the prerogative to appoint members on boards and commissions and that is well established in the Home Rule Charter. Council also has the prerogative of filling all vacancies on boards and commissions if the Mayor has not done so, and this Council is presently considering legislation to fill all those vacancies. It seems to me that if we are going to maintain some credibility, that it is essential that members of Council be afforded every and all prerogatives that are provided to them by law. My concern is not to take on the Mayor; my concern is not to satisfy Mrs. Madoff; my concern is not to take lightly the Home Rule Charter. The vacancy to which I have recommended Mrs. Madoff to be appointed has been vacant for more than 60 days. The Charter very specifically, very specifically indicates that if there are any vacancies that exist for more than 60 days, that this Council is in power to fill them. Mr. Woods indicated that he spoke to the Mayor, and correct me if I'm wrong, Mr. Woods, last week, and the Mayor indicated that he was taking appropriate action to fill all vacancies. Well, that certainly is what Councilman Robinson has requested, and that's certainly what this Council has requested. I don't know the Mayor's motivation for doing that, but if he does that and it's his prerogative to do it, then God bless him, and I will support it; but this Council has prerogatives, and I don't think anyone on this Council should ever walk away from their prerogatives, and I don't think we should be intimidated by the Administration to walk away. This Administration submits names to us for consideration. We have the ability to submit names and take action. If Mrs. Madoff feels that she does not want to serve and will not serve, I certainly will respect her right to do that, but I'm going to protect her right to serve on one of those boards or commissions, and if not on Human Relations, on some board and commission, and if she's not appointed to a board or commission, this Council ought to take the appropriate action to see to it that she is appointed for all of our sakes and all of our credibility.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I would like to echo the sentiments of Mr. Robinson. When the Mayor doesn't fill the vacancies, we do have that right, and I am honored that he found me worthy of that particular commission. I have had, I believe, an outstanding record, almost a 1,000 or 1,010 percent vote in this area, and I'm flattered that he would think me worthy of this particular position; but I don't want to be the instrument by which you assert and this Council asserts itself, as we justly should, and see that the Mayor fulfilled his obligation and fill these authorities, nor will I be the person, when we know full well that when Mr. Bulls was appointed originally, in my naivete, I came to this Council when I was here four and a half years ago and said, "I have this expertise, and I would like to help," and I didn't realize what all the goodies were and the perks and the trips and all the little things that were on that board, and no way was my expertise going to be used. Then, when another vacancy was available, Mr. O'Malley, who I hold in high esteem, was appointed in my place when I have the expertise, and I am not going to be sitting here saying just shove me into any old commission just to meet the Mayor's requirements or because Council wants to assert itself. I'm going to serve where I have my knowledge and my expertise, and if they can't put me where I can do some good, I'm not going to be window dressing, as pretty as I am, for anybody else --

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. O'Malley has been a most active member of that board down there, and he's done a terrific job.

Michelle Madoff:

-- and he's does a great job. It's not a slur at Mr. O'Malley. I told him at the time that I thought, I had no objections to him. I just felt I should have had that job.

The Chair:

Mr. O'Malley.

Mr. O'Malley:

Yes, I'd just like to make a few remarks in response to Mrs. Madoff's remarks about ALCOSAN. First of all, I think there's a few things she should know about ALCOSAN. One, it's the finest run authority in the country. Two, the authority has not raised rates in the past seven years. It's the only authority in government body that has not raised rates in seven years. If anything, we are having problems with the federal government securing additional funds so we can go on an expansion and remodernization program, because ALCOSAN is known throughout the country as being one of the finest authorities in the country; and our air pollution quality is over and above standards, so we're having problems securing additional federal funds, and just in light of those three things, being on the board of ALCOSAN for the past year and a half, I feel ALCOSAN is getting along fine without Ms. Madoff on the board.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out that ALCOSAN met its standards and changed its name from ALCOSTENCH to ALCOSAN in the community because of the efforts of Michelle Madoff and other people to see that they cleaned up their garbage. They are doing a creditable job, as far I know, but I will tell you if I were there, I would know a lot more.

Mr. Flaherty:

Who says that ALCOSAN is the best authority in the country? I always hear this, and who says it?

The Chair:

Jim O'Malley and I.

Mr. Flaherty:

Jim O'Malley. Well, as long as we got that on the record.

Mr. O'Malley:

What I'm going to do, Tommy, I'm going to furnish you with the reports that are put out by the National Sanitation Authorities.

Mr. Flaherty:

And they say it's the best in the country.

Mr. O'Malley:

It's among the best authorities in the country.

Michelle Madoff:

I have no problem with ALCOSAN. I'm just singling them out to say that's where my expertise is, and while I have no objections to you serving on it, I think there will be another vacancy and I could serve on it.

The Chair presents:

Bill No. 2636 Resolution approving the appointment of Ms. Dorthea Mason of 931 Clarissa Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219 to fill a term on the Human Relations Commission to expire March 1984.

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2637 Resolution approving the appointment of Pinkie Reeds of 1001 Premier Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15201 to the Human Relations Commission for a term to expire March 1987.

Which was read.

Also,

No. 2638 Resolution approving the appointment of William P. Gallagher to fill a term on the Human Relations Commission to expire March 1984.

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2639 Resolution approving the appointment of Ruth Drescher to fill a term on the Human Relations Commission to expire March 1984.

Which was read.

The Chair:

Motion to hold for two weeks for review.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair presents:

Bill No. 2636 WHEREAS, the Diocese of Pittsburgh will observe Catholic Schools Week during March 6 to March 12, 1983; and

WHEREAS, there are 15,541 students educated in 48 elementary and secondary schools in the City of Pittsburgh who are given a value-centered education in a Christian environment; and

WHEREAS, Catholic School students are instructed in human knowledge and skills valued indeed for their own worth but seen simultaneously as deriving their most profound significance from God's plan for his creation.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor

and the Members of Pittsburgh City Council hereby designate the week of March 6 to March 12, 1983, as Catholic Schools Week in the City of Pittsburgh to draw attention to the importance of teaching religious truth and values in the school program so that the life of faith will illumine the knowledge which students gradually gain of the world, of life, and of mankind.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the Resolution.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might very quickly, I'd just like to share with Council an issue that I think is of tremendous importance, and that's the issue of Community Action Pittsburgh. Every member of this Council is aware of the difficulties that CAPI is experiencing and the efforts on the part of many people to resolve those difficulties. In the interest of the public and in the interest of the credibility of City government, I would again request that the President of this Council and the Mayor of the City convene a meeting with Council, the Mayor, and the representatives of Community Action Pittsburgh to identify what problems they might be having, both technical and managerial, and to offer what assistance we might, based primarily on the fact that it is the government of the City of Pittsburgh which has the responsibility of designating the agency which receives the funds that CAPI receives.

The Chair:

Bill, if I may, I talked to the man. He's going to give me the time on that tomorrow.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, let me also --

Michelle Madoff:

The time for what, Mr. President?

The Chair:

The time for the meeting.

Michelle Madoff:

We're going to have a hearing tomorrow?

The Chair:

No, a meeting. Bill's asking for a meeting with the man.

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, if I might continue. I have some copies of some letters that I have forwarded to the Secretary of the Department of Community Affairs, Ms. Shirley Dennis, to Mayor Richard Caliguiri, relative to the issue of CAPI status, the audit report, the evaluations, both of which have been subjects of news articles. The secretary of the CAPI board, it would seem to me that, rather than continue to haggle over the designation of CAPI, to haggle over whether or not this City Administration and this Council's going to assist CAPI, the appropriate thing would be for this Council to authorize an investigation into the status of Community Action Pittsburgh and to ask the appropriate people to come before this body so that we can determine what exactly is going on at Community Action Pittsburgh. As everyone knows, this is a very delicate and sensitive issue and one that many people would prefer not to address, but if we are going to be concerned with the taxpayers' money, in this instance we're talking about maybe $3 million, I think that we have to be honest and above board in identifying the problems and trying to find a solution. There's a great possibility that Community Action Pittsburgh will not be functioning beyond the first quarter of this year. There's a great possibility that some agency within City government might be asked to take over those responsibilities. Those are two good reasons in addition to the ones I already mentioned as to why this Council should take a very strong stand and authorize an investigation to get to the facts so that we, as a body, this Council, have our own information and can make a judgment on our own. There is, and I'd like to close on this note, there is some question as to whether or not Community Action Pittsburgh should be the designated agency. I think the question is whether or not City government has, in fact, designated Community Action Pittsburgh, and if we did designate them, what process did we use? I think it's very essential for us to clarify what role City government is going to have in the operation of any programs designed to eliminate poverty, because certainly Community Action Pittsburgh is servicing the same constituency that the City of Pittsburgh services. I prevail upon this Council to seriously consider the investigatory route and to establish an investigative process before state authorities or county authorities take it upon themselves to investigate this agency. I think we ought to be in the forefront of that effort, and I'd like to submit these letters, and encourage Council to initiate an investigation.

(LETTERS CONCERNING CAPI)

November 18, 1982

Ms. Shirley M. Dennis, Secy.
Dept. of Community Affairs
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Harrisburg, PA 17120

Dear Ms. Dennis:

On October 19, 1982, members of your staff, under the supervision of Mr. James Edwards, initiated an evaluation/audit of Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc.

I was present at the entrance interview and shared with your staff my perceptions and observation relative to the operation of CAPI (Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc.).

As Secretary of the CAPI Board, I am very interested in the results of that evaluation/audit and would appreciate a copy of same.

I believe the credibility of the CAPI Board and staff, as well as that of those elected officials who serve on the Board, must be maintained.

The evaluation/audit will assist me in correcting any deficiencies and to address other issues concerning the fiscal responsibility of Board members and staff.

Your cooperation will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

William Russell Robinson, Chairman
Planning, Housing and Development

Ms. Shirley M. Dennis, Secretary
Department of Community Affairs

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17120

Dear Ms. Dennis:

On November 18, 1982 I forwarded a letter to your attention relative to the status of Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc.

As Secretary of the Board I was concerned about the states evaluation of our management and fiscal capacity.

I am again requesting your cooperation in securing all document relative to the audits and evaluations of Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc. for 1982 and 1983.

Your assistance will be appreciated. I am ready to take the appropriate actions needed necessary to correct any and all deficiencies.

Yours respectfully,

Honorable Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor
City of Pittsburgh
513 City-County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Your Honor:

As an elected official of the City of Pittsburgh and the Secretary for Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc., I respectfully request the assistance of your office in providing Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc. with the necessary technical and financial assistance to perform those functions assigned by the Board of Directors.

As the agency designated by the City of Pittsburgh to receive "traditional anti-poverty" funds and funds from the Commonwealth Department of Community Affairs, I feel it is incumbent upon City Government to be involved in the positive process of addressing CAPI's fiscal and managerial problems.

At your leisure I would like to discuss matters relative to CAPI, and explore means of mutual cooperation.

The recent Commonwealth Department of Community Affairs evaluation and audit necessitate the City of Pittsburgh becoming more substantially involved with CAPI.

Yours respectfully,

William Russell Robinson
Chairman, Planning, Housing and

Ms. Shirley M. Dennis, Secretary
Department of Community Affairs
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Harrisburg, PA 17120

Dear Ms. Dennis:

I am writing again to seek your cooperation, and assistance relative to the Commonwealth mandated evaluation and fiscal audit of Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc.

After a great deal of difficulty, I have obtained a copy of both documents.

While I am not prepared to respond, nor do I perceive it to be my obligation to respond, I am very much alarmed by the findings and the recommendations.

I believe that an investigation into the allegations would be appropriate, and I will be doing the same. The Council of the City of Pittsburgh has investigative powers that can be brought to bear.

If CAPI is to be a viable agency, it must have credibility.

Yours respectfully,

William Russell Robinson
Chairman, Planning, Housing and Development and Secretary,
Community Action Pittsburgh

(END OF LETTERS)

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I concur with what some of the reaction that Councilman Robinson has had regarding the CAPI state audit, but I would want to stress a few points. I think perhaps it is beyond the stage where this City Council and this Mayor's Office should be treated with any credibility in dealing with CAPI. I say this Council as a body and the Mayor's Office are one of the primary reasons that CAPI is in the trouble that it is in now. I'm talking about Council as a body. Some members of Council have shown more interest in CAPI than others members of Council, but I have certain reservations about Council investigating CAPI. Those reservations are based on my strong belief that CAPI has become so politicized with interrelationships, certainly with City Council and perhaps through the Mayor's Office, so I am very cautious in supporting a Council investigation. I think perhaps since the Department of Community Affairs is certainly more removed and probably more objective of the situation than City Council is, perhaps we should just wait a few more days to see how CAPI responds to the audit from the Department of Community Affairs, and then I think we should wait to see what the Department of Community Affairs suggests as far as who should be the agency to channel, the anti-poverty funds under what state law or what mandates this City, this Council, this City Administration plays in who shall be the designate.

The Chair:

Thank you, Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

Yes, Mr. President, I have a concern that this Council had voted upon one Paul McDermott of our Department of Public Works to give him an exclusion from living within the City of Pittsburgh as required by our own Home Rule Charter. Paul's time has expired as of some date in the first part of January. I'd ask, then, Mr. Chief Clerk, if he could come up before this body on this coming Wednesday and explain to us why he cannot move into the City and why he has not been able to sell his house. I think that might be a problem but one that we must address.

The Chair:

That's really the problem as I understand he's having trouble selling the house, and moving in the new one.

Mr. Givens:

He can extend that or --

The Chair:

Have him up Wednesday Mike, and we'll have him explain it, okay.

Mr. Robinson moved to approve the minutes of Monday, February 14, 1983.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council Adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, March 7, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and Members of Council, it's a distinct pleasure to be able to introduce this resolution today to honor the Reverend J. A. Williams to Baptist Temple Church here in the City of Pittsburgh. Reverend Williams is one of the most distinguished pastors in our community and has served the Pittsburgh community for more than 38 years and I think it's a tribute to him and our community that he is still with us and is still serving and I was honored to be at his church on Sunday and have the pleasure of the fellowship of being with him and the members of his congregation and I thought it would be a fitting tribute during this anniversary month at Baptist Temple to have Reverend Williams come in and receive this resolution. I'd like to read this resolution and have Reverend Williams come forward and accept it, and perhaps he has comments.

Also, I'd just like to recognize a State Representative, Joseph Preston, from the 24th Legislative District who is a member of Reverend Williams' church and certainly one of our outstanding Legislators here in the Pittsburgh area.

One other person from the church who is here is Miss Mabel Milner who has been very active in putting together the total celebration for Reverend Williams and I'd like to also acknowledge her presence.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2664 WHEREAS, the Reverend J. A. Williams, Pastor of the Baptist Temple Church of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania has dedicated more than most to the service of God; and

WHEREAS, his outstanding contributions to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Young Men's Christian Association and active participation in numerous community endeavors have brought honor to his service and to Baptist Temple Church; and

WHEREAS, he is now one of the "Senior Pastors" in the Pittsburgh Community and in the local, state and national religious associations he has served; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh is proud and honored, as are his family, friends and associates, that he has devoted nearly a half century to our community.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of its citizens do recognize and honor the Reverend J. A. Williams on the occasion of his Thirty-eighth Anniversary of his pastorate of Baptist Temple Church, Homewood-Brushton, City of Pittsburgh and wish him continued good health, peace of mind and God's blessings.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Reverend Williams:

Councilman Robinson, and to all of you faithful servants of our City, I'd like to say to you that I'm very happy to be here. I feel very humble by what you have said and done in reference to my service in the City and yet I'm very thankful to be a part of such a lovely City as Pittsburgh.

I have attended Council meetings on one or two occasions. I especially remember when Mr. Mason, I believe, was the Chairman at that time. I always regarded him as a very fine friend.

Having served in the City at the Baptist Temple Church, it's been my delight to be concerned about the things of the City and endeavor to help to keep those in office who had helped to make this one of the fine cities of Pennsylvania and, of course, the nation. It has been a joy to serve with these people. I've served when Mr. Barr was the Mayor, on the Committee of Human Resources as vice-president, and when he resigned from that position I took his place until Mayor Flaherty came in. At that time, I resigned from that position but my interest in the on-going of this City and all of its activities has been the center of my heart.

I want to thank you for this consideration you've given me and wish to assure you that if I'm around another 38 years, I'll be doing the same thing, doing all I can to help you to do the job you have chosen to allow us to elect you to do. May God bless you in all of your endeavors. It's my hope and prayer. Thank you.

The Chair:

I know we all want to join in congratulating Reverend Williams on his thirty years or better as Pastor.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2641 An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title One - Administrative, Article VII, Procedures, Chapter 161, by adding Section 161.20 RESIDENCY AND MINORITY REQUIREMENTS ON CERTAIN CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Givens presented

No. 2642 Resolution providing for the waiver of the residency requirement for Paul J. McDermott to be employed on a month-to-month basis until September 1, 1983 as Assistant Director of Engineering, Department of Public Works.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Givens moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

When the original legislation was passed to authorize Mr. McDermott to remain a City employee we put a six month time limit on that employment. The six months have passed, and my interpretation is that Mr. McDermott should have removed himself or been removed from the City's payroll as of the six month period and therefore, Mr. Givens' legislation is not in order.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Robinson, you're absolutely correct. There were some administrative procedures, a letter did come up, in fact, from the Department of Public Works notifying Council that this pending termination was due and no action came from this Council for whatever reasons. I'm not going to go into that particular issue. But they did respond.

I think what has to be done right now, either Mr. McDermott has to be extended or, as of today, he'll have to be terminated. I think you have to look at what he was brought into that department for.

I have reservations about anyone living outside the City. We have policemen, we have firemen, that the City is investigating, Mr. President. And they just don't do this for a couple of months or so but two and three years. These people are being sought after.

Now, if we're not to tolerate our policemen and firemen and other City employees living outside the City, then we must enforce upon all the workers of the City to get in here and get in here as quickly as possible if they are in fact hired from outside. The excuse of having two households is not a good enough excuse I'm afraid. Mr. McDermott must make a final decision and must make it, I feel, very, very quickly. I, in my times, have had to have two households. One where I relocated at and one where I was leaving from. These are the problems in a society where you have a lot of mobility. With that mobility comes expenses and costs and sometimes the individual must incur those particular costs.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order.

Mr. Givens:

The point of order is that we have a problem here that the individual himself had corresponded, that the Director had corresponded. The Council, for whatever reasons, did not receive this information. I'm not going to point the finger at myself or anybody else. It was just something that happened. It was an honest mistake as far as I'm concerned. Something should be done about it and hopefully we can debate this issue this Wednesday.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, if I may. You're talking about two different situations altogether. If they're investigating firemen or any other person who supposedly doesn't live in the City, they have to prove it and that's something else.

In regard to Mr. McDermott, I don't believe he ever lived in the City. He asked for a waiver and said that within six months he would be situated in the City. I presume the six months is up and Mr. McDermott is not in the City for whatever reasons. I've been led to believe that he can't sell his home and therefore can't purchase another one. I'm not saying that the gentleman hasn't tried. But there is a six month period and we've passed that six month period and there are people in the City raising questions, asking questions, as to why we're making this exception and why we even made it in the first place. Councilman Stone, as I recall, has been very consistent in regard to any non-resident working for the City of Pittsburgh. We did make an exception here but we're beyond that six month period now.

Mr. Givens:

I'd just like to comment for one minute. That's the intensity that the City has, in fact, gone to court and other methods to assure that people are, in fact, residing within the City of Pittsburgh. If that intensity is there, then I think it is also intensity to get someone to locate in the City who has employment. I think this is an exceptional situation. We need his expertise, but at the same time, something must be done and done very quickly.

Mr. Flaherty:

Point of order. I concur with Councilman Robinson's point of order and I would want to add that I question the legality of introducing this bill seeing that we have not had an opinion from the Solicitor's Office yet. It seems extremely clear to me that this Council only gave a six month extension, which I understand expired around the first of the year. It seems extremely clear to me that Mr. McDermott has been on the City payroll without any authority of this Council. And only this Council, in this case, can give the authority for him to receive that check. The way I see it, this is an issue beyond Mr. McDermott, it's an issue of residency requirements. But it's also an issue of this Council being subverted by someone else from the Department of Personnel or from the Mayor's Office or from the Department of Public Works because they continue to pay this person and have him on the payroll.

I see our City Solicitor is here and I would like to know, since this is a pressing matter and since we requested an opinion last Wednesday, when we are going to get an opinion on it.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, as the individual who originally --

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, could we ask that of our City Solicitor because we had requested an opinion and I would think it would expeditious to have an opinion.

The Chair:

Mr. Pellegrini, you heard the question.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I was speaking. You recognized me.

Mr. Flaherty:

I will yield to Councilman Robinson. I'm sorry.

Mr. Robinson:

I just want to ask a couple questions. I think that it's important that Council remember that I was the individual to allow Mr. McDermott to stay on the City payroll for six months because I felt that it was fair to him, since he was employed, and was employed under some unusual circumstances. He was employed and we were asked to waive the requirements.

Mr. Stone, I think, raised a very important question around the whole issue of giving waivers and the potential consequences of Mr. McDermott's situation. Here we are today, six months later, after having given Mr. McDermott an opportunity to move into the City and sell his house, but he has not done that. It seems to me that the point is moot. Mr. McDermott stopped being an employee of the City of Pittsburgh the day his six months ran out and that Mr. Flaherty's point is well taken. Mr. McDermott has been on the City payroll without authorization since that time.

Mr. Givens, it was not necessary for this Council to respond to Mr. McDermott or respond to Mr. Gaetano or respond to anybody. Mr. McDermott understood the circumstances. His boss, Mr. Gaetano, understood the circumstances. The Mayor understood the circumstances and so did the Personnel Department. Mr. Stone, I think, was very clear when he indicated his objections to us taking this approach at all. And I suggested that six months was a more reasonable period of time than to simply say give him an open ended period, because that was suggested, to sort of let him go from month to month. Six months have passed. To me, the issue is moot. The legislation is out of order and to some extent, the discussion of this issue at this point is out of order.

Just one other comment, if I might, Mr. President. I certainly am not intending any of my comments today or last Wednesday to be a reflection on Mr. McDermott. I said to Mr. McDermott last Wednesday that I would not be able to support him remaining on the City payroll if he were not a City employee and that I had originally made the motion to give him six months. I recognize all the difficulties that people have in trying to sell their homes and moving into the City. I believe the Administration should have taken all that into consideration before Mr. McDermott was hired. And that if anyone has jeopardized Mr. McDermott, it has not been this Council. But I don't want anything to be interpreted that I am trying to deal unfairly with Paul McDermott.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, you know there are times when any body of government sometimes has to go beyond its boundaries for help. I know Mr. McDermott's experience with the company he was with. The only reason we could get him at the money we have him is because he was, I guess, at the age where he was somewhat thinking of taking it a little bit easier although I know he's been working very hard. He has been most helpful and I don't know what would have happened on that landslide and I presume he will be needed if, indeed, we get into any kind of legislative action. I think at this time it would be very unwise for the City to let him go.

But I'd like to point out something in addition to that. I have a house for sale. My house is not moving, houses are not moving --

The Chair:

Point of order, Michelle. We're really not voting on whether Mr. McDermott is going to remain on the payroll or not. --

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I realize that I am female and other members were allowed to speak. I just want my right to be able to speak.

The Chair:

The issue that was raised by Councilman Robinson was that the man can no longer be employed by the City of Pittsburgh. He's well beyond the six month period. Mr. Flaherty asked for an opinion from the City Solicitor.

Michelle Madoff:

May I address that issue, Mr. President, or are you going to discriminate against women as usual?

The Chair:

What does selling your house have to do with Mr. McDermott?

Michelle Madoff:

I will get to the point if you are patient and not rude as you usually are.

The Chair:

You're being rude. You're completely out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

Did you get another letter from my attorney? You've had two now. Do you want a third?

The Chair:

Sue me 54 times.

Michelle Madoff:

May I finish what I started, Mr. President?

The Chair:

You're out of order, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not out of order.

The Chair:

You are out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I am addressing the issue of the six month stay. If our City can see to it that people who cannot pay their mortgages get exceptions, and well they should, we know that is going on. I don't see how you can discriminate against one person who also cannot sell his house.

Wasn't that simpler than your screaming?

The Chair:

I don't see what the relevance is at all.

Michelle Madoff:

You wouldn't. It would take a brain.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Unless this resolution is enacted, Mr. McDermott will have to be terminated. There is nothing improper about the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. Givens:

A bill has been introduced only. We will debate and discuss that particular bill this coming Wednesday. All this dialogue that we're having right now, we should have on every bill that we introduce. And that's not so. I don't think it's upon this Council or any member of this Council to stop a bill from being introduced into this Council so it can be debated. I can't see any questions about the bill not being legal.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question for the Solicitor. Under what authority is Mr. McDermott on the City payroll as of today?

Mr. Pellegrini:

None.

Mr. Flaherty:

Should he be on the City payroll?

Mr. Pellegrini:

My understanding is that there was an error in the transmission of some documents. He should not be on the City payroll today.

Mr. Flaherty:

Are you aware of anyone in the Administration that is going to correct the error?

Mr. Pellegrini:

My understanding is that this resolution today would correct that. First of all, it would make no sense with the resolution in, we'll find out by next Monday whether it's successful or not to terminate Mr. McDermott. If this resolution does not pass extending his time, he will be terminated. There's no other way.

Mr. Givens:

Just one thing, Mr. President. This is in my particular committee and the fact that I knew about a week or so ago that Mr. McDermott, I asked him to write me a letter to this Council, addressed to Council, of some of the problems he was having in selling that house, etc. I think we're all human beings in here and we know there's problems out there in the real estate market. When that letter was not forthcoming, I brought in the discussion before the whole body of this Council so it didn't drag on for another five or six months with none of us even knowing about it. So, I did do what was proper. The only thing that I ask right now is that we have a bill before us and this coming Wednesday we will discuss that bill.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order. Point of order. Both Mr. Givens and Mr. Pellegrini, I believe, are incorrect. There is a procedure, and I'm sure Mr. Pellegrini is very much aware of that, to introduce legislation into this body. And I think Mr. Pellegrini would agree that you don't introduce legislation in opposition to the rules.

My point is that if the rules prohibit the introduction of this legislation, then you can't even introduce it, Mr. Givens, and it has nothing to do with your prerogative as a member of Council to introduce legislation. We're talking about a specific piece of legislation.

Once more, we set a time limit on Mr. McDermott. Read back through the records and review the legislation. The day the six months ended, Mr. McDermott's employment with the City ended. It's not in question today whether or not Mr. McDermott is an employee. Mr. McDermott is not an employee. And if Mr. McDermott has been paid beyond the six month period, Mr. McDermott owes to the City of Pittsburgh whatever monies he has received.

If we proceed to try to consider this legislation today, I believe we're in violation of our own rules. It has nothing to do with the merits of Mr. McDermott's situation. We, as the Council of this City, passed a resolution very specifically saying under what circumstances we wanted Pauld McDermott hired. Those circumstances no longer exist. Mr. McDermott is not an employee of the City of Pittsburgh and if you introduce legislation, it would seem to me you would have to introduce legislation to get us to waive the residency requirements again, and until we waive them, he is not an employee of the City of Pittsburgh. And I would hope that Mr. Pellegrini would advise Mr. McDermott to terminate his employment just as soon as possible until we can determine how much money is owed to us, until we can determine, in fact, if Mr. McDermott has been jeopardized by someone in the Administration not informing him that he had six months.

One comment on Mrs. Madoff's concern about his expertise. Mr. McDermott can be hired by the City of Pittsburgh as a consultant. And I'm sure there is someone else in the United States of America, or maybe in this City, that can help us with the very specific things he's doing. So, if we want Mr. McDermott's expertise, hire him as a consultant. Mr. McDermott is not an employee of the City of Pittsburgh and I would hope that this Council would not continue him and not continue this discussion because it strains the whole issue of whether or not non-residents of this City should be employed in the City of Pittsburgh. He had a specific waiver. The time is up. That's it.

The Chair:

One more comment then we're going to go on.

Mr. Pellegrini, can Mr. Givens introduce the legislation? Mr. Robinson feels he can't.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Mr. Givens can introduce the legislation.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Let me explain. Let me finish. What you're talking about is that you can't introduce the same piece of legislation twice in a Council session. Once it's defeated it cannot be raised again. You can always amend or introduce a piece of legislation amending legislation. This Council does it every week by increasing the amounts in a piece of legislation, raising it from $345,000 to $445,000 on a Public Works contract. You're allowed to amend this piece of legislation.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. Pellegrini, the point that Councilman Robinson is making is that this legislation is air-tight illogical because Mr. McDermott legally should not be on the payroll so how can we give him an extension. You yourself said he shouldn't be on the payroll so how can we say we are going to extend your tenure with the City when it's a simple fact that I think we all agree on that he shouldn't even be on the payroll. It's illogical.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Mr. McDermott has not been formally terminated off the payroll. There is a formal action of termination. So, he's still on the payroll and it's within the discretion of Council to grant the extension.

We have police officers that we had to go through a whole Civil Service Commission hearing, we knew that lived outside the City and we had to go through that proceeding. Until he's formally terminated, he's still on the payroll. If you're thinking that there's a hiatus, there isn't. But there is nothing illegal about passing this legislation.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. I've been quoted as being opposed to the waiver when it first came in and that is true. Since I have been on this Council, I've never voted for a non-City resident to work in a City position. In addition to that, I've never voted for a waiver in this City of Pittsburgh and that record will stay unblemished so long as I'm on this Council. But in fairness to the issue before us, as the Solicitor has indicated, Mr. McDermott is still on the payroll and if that is to be corrected, the motion that Mr. Givens is making is a proper one because it is saying you continue it from where it left off. That's the proper kind of motion if you want to extend it past that time. I would have hoped, however, that that motion would have come before the other one expired, which would probably have been more sensible. It's not that way, but the motion he's introducing, I personally don't see it as a contradiction. I see it as an attempt, if you agree with it, and as I indicated, I'm telling everybody in advance that I will not agree with it.

As far as the order is concerned, what that motion is saying is he's still there even though maybe he should have been terminated and in order to clean up the record, so to speak, we're seeing it continue. Therefore, you cover the period from when the six months was over to the time that this comes through for approval and, if granted, would give the extension period. In that sense, I think it can be introduced.

The Chair:

As far as I'm concerned, I think most members of Council should be satisfied in regard to the answer of the City Solicitor. You may not agree with it, but Mr. Givens will have the right to introduce that legislation on Wednesday.

Mr. Flaherty:

Point of order. Could we have a roll call on the motion to waive Rule 8?

Mr. Woods:

Tom, what you're asking then is instead of discussing this issue on Wednesday you want to wait to weeks to discuss it? In other words, he'll stay on the payroll longer. Is that what you're asking?

Mr. Flaherty:

You know he's going to stay on the payroll.

Mr. Woods:

You want to discuss it in two weeks then?

Mr. Flaherty:

Could we just have a roll call vote? I'll explain my reasons.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't know what we're voting on. Are we voting to have it this Wednesday instead of two weeks Wednesday?

Mr. Flaherty:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

You don't want it this Wednesday?

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm going to explain myself, Michelle, if you'll let me.

Michelle Madoff:

I just want to make sure I understood what we were voting on.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote no and the reason why I am opposing this is because I think that a longer period of time will allow the Administration to show a good faith effort to the moral of the rank and file workers in this City, all of them, that they are not playing a very blatant, preferential, elitist game with them because the only time that there is ever a waiver on any City employees' residency requirement is when the Mayor calls over to members of City Council. And I think it's about time this Council show all four thousand employees in this City that we hold them all with the same respect and the dignity regardless of who is bringing pressure on us.

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye and my reasons are very obvious. I think those same employees that Mr. Flaherty is talking about are wanting to see this thing resolved very quickly. And I think it should be resolved as quickly as possible. Delaying it just means that he's going to be in a limbo type situation. I think this Council should bite the bullet and vote it up or vote it down.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote yes and I'd just like to state that if there is a problem with Mr. McDermott's residency that we should clear it up as soon as possible.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote no to waive Rule 8 and I'd just like to give a quick explanation of why. It seems to me that the initial controversy surrounding Mr. McDermott's waiver was lengthy and was very involved. The controversy surrounding the extension was very lengthy and involved. To rush through this now not only jeopardizes Mr. McDermott but it jeopardizes other persons who we might have to consider for waivers in the future. I vote no on waiving Rule 8.

Mr. Stone:

I'm at a loss to understand how you can object to man being continued and then hold it so he stays on longer. In order to be somewhat consistent, I vote yes on this motion only.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 7

NOES 2

(MR. FLAHERTY AND MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Also,

No. 2643 An Ordinance providing for the notification of plant closings, reductions or relocations.

Mr. Givens:

If I might, on the introduction of the plant closing notification I have one or two comments. This Wednesday, I'll be asking —

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order. I believe the rules specify that bills that are introduced on Monday cannot be discussed any sooner than the succeeding Wednesday.

Mr. Givens:

I have to beg Mr. Robinson's comment right there. We've just been discussing a bill that was just introduced here and I would like to make my comments if I might.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, Mr. Robinson is right but we did make an exception a while ago. Why don't we just edit it and on Wednesday we'll discuss the bill. We're going to get into a long debate today when we're really going to do our work on Wednesday.

Mr. Givens:

I had no debate. I just felt that what's going to happen with this, hopefully, will be cooperation between business —

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, we'll discuss it in Committee on Wednesday.

Mr. Givens:

Thank you, Mr. President.

Also,

No. 2644 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Conn Construction Company, in the amount of $2,886.80 in payment for extra work furnished for the benefit of the City in connection with the Rehabilitation of the Mission Street Bridge; and providing for the payment thereof. Funds are available in Code Account PW 78-14, 4-01-05-0460-78, Emergency Repairs - Bridges.

Also,

No. 2645 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Mosites Construction Company, in the amount of $3,558.48, in payment for extra work furnished for the benefit of the City in connection with the Rehabilitation of the Larimer Avenue Bridge over Washington Boulevard; and providing for the payment thereof. Funds are available in Code Account PW 78-14, 4-01-05-0460-78, Emergency Repairs - Bridges.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 2646 Resolution granting unto Rohrich Cadillac, Inc., their successors and assigns, the right and privilege to construct, maintain and use at their own cost and expense two (2) Bay Windows to the existing structure along West Liberty Avenue at 2116 West Liberty Avenue in the 19th Ward, City of Pittsburgh.

Also,

No. 2647 Communication from Louis R. Gaetano, Director, Department of Public Works requesting interim approval for Lawrence E. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2572 Resolution approving the appointment of Wallace Merrell of 511 Clemeshaw Avenue to the Board of Code Review for a term to expire December 31, 1985.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the appointment.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I abstain for the reason that I am not on any board or commission appointed by the Mayor.

Mr. Perry:

We also have a subpoena issued to the Reverend James Simms to attend this meeting at 2:00.

The Chair:

Is Mr. Simms here?

Mr. Pellegrini:

He's available, Mr. DePasquale.

The Chair:

Reverend Simms, if you would please come up front.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, point of clarification and procedure. Perhaps the Parliamentarian and/or Mr. Pellegrini can indicate whether or not Reverend Simms has to be sworn before he presents his material.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There's no necessity that he be sworn.

Mr. Robinson:

Why not?

Mr. Pellegrini:

If you want him sworn you can, but there's no necessity.

Mr. Robinson:

Why not? Why isn't there any necessity?

The Chair:

I don't think anybody has the authority to swear him in.

Mr. Robinson:

If we have the authority to issue a subpoena we also have the authority to swear people in. Don't talk to me like I'm crazy. I know that.

Mr. Stone:

He said if you want it, go ahead.

Mr. Robinson:

The President has said that we don't have the authority. Where do you interpret that, Mr. President, that we don't have the authority to swear people in?

The Chair:

I didn't know we were a court of law but you seem to think we are.

Mr. Robinson:

We have the power to investigate and the power to subpoena.

Mr. Pellegrini:

You have the power to subpoena and if you would want him to take the testimony under oath, I think an oath could be arranged. I don't have the language but I think we could find it some here. But I don't think there's any necessity for it. If you want it, it could be done.

Mr. Robinson:

Again, Danny. Why isn't there any necessity?

Mr. Pellegrini:

There is never a requirement that when you give testimony that it be sworn. If you'd like to have it sworn, it can be. There's a lot of administrative hearings where the testimony isn't sworn.

The Chair:

Mr. Pellegrini, in the interest of saving time, could we ask Mr. Simms to be sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth? I think it's as simple as that.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, perhaps you, as one of the persons who signed the subpoena and as President of this Council, and presiding officer, should swear Reverend Simms.

The Chair:

Reverend Simms, would you raise your right hand, please?

Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Reverend Simms:

I do.

The Chair:

Thank you, Reverend Simms.

Mr. Simms, you've been subpoenaed here to answer certain questions by Councilman Robinson that he says in the past you refused to answer. We'll have Mr. Robinson ask those questions again and I would presume you would answer them.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, point of order. I know it's not going to make any difference if I say this but I'll say it anyway. Councilman Robinson is a member of this body, Councilman Robinson only acts as a member of this body, and it would not be proper for you to suggest that Councilman Robinson is the only one who has any questions of Reverend Simms. This total body had an opportunity to vote on the subpoena. This body subpoenaed Reverend Simms. Councilman Robinson introduced the legislation. I think the record should reflect that, Mr. President, so that everyone understands the seriousness —

The Chair:

If you want to get technical, there was a majority vote --

Mr. Robinson:

I'm not getting technical. I'm trying to follow the procedures, Mr. President.

The Chair:

I'm trying to follow procedure to. There was a majority vote, I voted negatively, yet I signed that order and now you are the one who requested the questions. We're asking you to ask Mr. Simms the questions.

Mr. Robinson:

I don't think you can presume, Mr. President, that there's no one else on this Council that might have questions.

The Chair:

If anybody else has questions they'll be free to ask them. I thought I'd give you the courtesy since you were the one who initiated this.

Mr. Robinson:

If you're giving me the courtesy then give me the courtesy as a member of this Council.

The Chair:

I will do that.

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you very much, Mr. President.

The Chair:

Is there anybody on this Council, other than Mr. Robinson, who wants to ask Mr. Simms any questions?

Mr. Stone:

Let him proceed first to find out where we're going.

Mr. Robinson:

Reverend Simms, there are some specific documents that were requested in the subpoena. Do you have those documents?

Reverend Simms:

In response to the documents requested in the subpoena, those documents do not exist, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Let me ask that question another way, and this is simply for point of clarification. The subpoena specifically requested the Minority Business Development plans, program and procedures for and in relation to the sale or transfer of Parcel A, City of Pittsburgh. Do you have those documents?

Reverend Simms:

Those documents do not exist.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Question two was all documents pertaining to the transfer of Parcel A, City of Pittsburgh, to 500 Grant Street Associates. Do you have those documents?

Reverend Simms:

Those documents do not exist.

Mr. Robinson:

Question three, all documents pertaining to the Minority Business Development proposals and programs of 500 Grant Street Associates. Do you have those documents?

Reverend Simms:

Those documents do not exist.

Mr. Robinson:

One other question on this matter. Are you aware of any agreements, arrangements that were made relative to Minority Business Participation in the Grant Street Project?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Do you have any of those documents?

Reverend Simms:

In response to the questions listed in the subpoena, and on the advice of the City Solicitor, the documents asked for in the subpoena, as I indicated, do not exist. Materials relevant to the development of the project, there is information regarding the development of the project, Minority Business Participation, and other relevant information on that. The question is, one, as to whether or not, given the restrictions of the subpoena, do we have those documents, and the answer, as I said to the first few of the questions, Councilman, has -- those do not exist, but there is additional information related to the project, not to those specific areas of request.

Mr. Robinson:

You indicated that the City Solicitor advised you?

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. Robinson:

Did he advise relative to the subpoenas or relative to the documents?

Reverend Simms:

To every item listed in the subpoena.

Mr. Robinson:

Did the City Solicitor advise you relative to whether or not you should obey the subpoena?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, he did.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Are you aware of the City Solicitor's written opinion relative to the subpoenas?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. You're fully familiar with it?

Reverend Simms:

I am aware of it, yes.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. On the last page, and let me read this to you, and if it's familiar, just please say it is. "Reverend Simms has informed me -- "and this is Mr. Pellegrini, I assume, writing it. His name is signed to this document. "Reverend Simms has informed me that he would be happy to forward to Councilman Robinson all information requested, and Director Brown informed me she would ask the Human Relations Commission to break out M.B.E. participation at the Zoo once the subpoena issue is resolved." Is that your understanding of at least what you would do, can do, will do?

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. Robinson:

The opinion made some references to your understanding of my original request of you for information on Minority Business Development. Let me read this to you again. This is on the front page of the opinion. The record should reflect that Council received this opinion this morning from Mr. Pellegrini, just this morning from Mr. Pellegrini. It reads, "When Councilman Robinson pursued this legalistic mechanism for obtaining information, it forced those individuals under subpoena to respond only in accord with the strict mandates of the subpoena. It's unfortunate that such an approach must be followed, but since a subpoena is a narrow, technical document when it requests information, it requires a narrow, technical approach on those to whom subpoenas were issued." Did Mr. Pellegrini discuss with you the subpoenas prior to today?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, he did.

Mr. Robinson:

Did he discuss with you his interpretation of the subpoena?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, he did.

Mr. Robinson:

Is it your understanding that this legalistic approach is unfortunate?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, it is.

Mr. Robinson:

If it's unfortunate, why do you think it's unfortunate?

Reverend Simms:

In my opinion, I think that there are other ways, other channels of communication that we have at our disposal to achieve what I consider to be the same result.

Mr. Robinson:

In specific reference to the issues raised in the subpoena, did you or did you not in this Council Chamber about three or four weeks ago indicate that you would bring back to us in two weeks information on 500 Grant Street Associates and Parcel A?

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. Robinson:

Did you bring that information back to this Council?

Reverend Simms:

I sent it to you.

Mr. Robinson:

Did you bring that information back to this Council?

Reverend Simms:

The request was to get the information back.

Mr. Robinson:

Did you bring the information back to this Council?

Reverend Simms:

I sent the information to you.

Mr. Robinson:

You did not bring it back to this Council.

Reverend Simms:

I sent it to you.

Mr. Robinson:

You did not bring it back to this Council.

The Chair:

I think it's clear he sent it to you, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. The request of Reverend Simms was made by this Council, not by Councilman Robinson. The information was not forwarded to this Council, and I don't believe there's anybody on this Council that received a copy of it, so no one on this Council knows what you sent to the meeting. I did receive something from you.

Reverend Simms:

The question that you asked of me, in order to respond to it at the time that I was asked them, I had asked the City Clerk to please forward to me the record of Council for that day so that we could adequately address the question asked. It was from the record of Council that my response to you was made, and that response from the record of Council was sent to you.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, I have a couple of other questions, if I might. You indicated you alluded to the fact there was some other ways by which the information could be gained. To some extent, since you said this information doesn't exist, I have some serious problems with you originally saying that you could bring it back here in two weeks. Did you get the information to me within a two-week period?

Reverend Simms:

I'm not quite sure of the exact dates, Councilman.

Mr. Robinson:

I think the record should reflect that you did not get it back to me within two weeks. The City Clerk contacted you on several occasions, but I will stand by the date on the memorandum that you sent to me. I believe it was beyond the two-week period. Again you alluded to voluntary methods. It's my understanding --

Reverend Simms:

I think other methods.

Mr. Robinson:

Other methods. Let me talk about the volunteer methods. It was my understanding that both you and Mr. Pellegrini would be in contact with our boards and authorities relative to forwarding information voluntarily to this Council on their Minority Business Enterprise Program. Has that been done?

Reverend Simms:

Would you repeat that question? I'm not sure what you're asking.

Mr. Robinson:

It's my understanding that you and Mr. Pellegrini, our City Solicitor, were going to work on trying to get the boards and authorities of the City of Pittsburgh to voluntarily forward information to this Council relative to Minority Business Participation, and I'd like to know, have you and Mr. Pellegrini accomplished that goal? Have you started that task, rather?

Reverend Simms:

Since we're speaking under oath here, Councilman Robinson, I want to be certain that I understand whether or not you're talking about a formal request made of the Solicitor and myself, or are we talking about the ongoing process of the M.B.E. Program of the City. Is this a formal request that you're talking about?

Mr. Robinson:

At a Wednesday session both you and Mr. Pellegrini, along with several of my colleagues, Mr. Stone, Mr. DePasquale, I believe Mr. O'Malley, suggested that we could get this information voluntarily; and I indicated that I was more than willing to go along with that procedure if you and Mr. Pellegrini agreed. It was my understanding, Reverend, that you had agreed.

Reverend Simms:

Fine.

Mr. Robinson:

Is my understanding correct?

Reverend Simms:

As a part of the ongoing efforts to gather information and to make sure that it has gotten to the proper people on time, we have ongoing discussions and ongoing important mechanisms involved with the authorities and other departments where applicable, and that material should be coming to you in a timely fashion, an ongoing method. It shouldn't be anything that would be sporadic or hit and miss. It should be coming in a timely manner to you.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. On the front page again of the legal opinion Mr. Pellegrini makes reference to the fact that I was knowledgeable of certain information and refused to accept it, and let me read to you what he said. "Both Reverend Simms and Director Brown are perplexed by the issuance of these subpoenas. They believe they had complied with the specific request for information received from Councilman Robinson for which he requested Council issue subpoenas. As explained to him, other information he requested either did not exist or the request was so nebulous that they were unable to respond."

Let me say for the record that that is a lie, and I use that word with a great deal of compassion for your official position as a minister, and I would assume that Mr. Pellegrini would stand responsible for the words here written, but if the suggestion is that someone told me that certain information did not exist, that is a lie. Again, I am taking very serious this Minority Business Enterprise Program. The first time that I learned that this information did not exist is when you, Reverend Simms, under oath said it did not exist, and I certainly respect your position and your integrity. If it does not exist, it does not exist; and I have been trying to find out for some time whether it exists, and I appreciate the fact that you finally said it does not exist, but the record should reflect that perhaps Mr. Pellegrini in his aggressiveness is suggesting something about my integrity that I certainly don't appreciate, because there's no evidence that Councilman Robinson has ever been told this information does not exist. I do have a communication from Mrs. Brown which says -- and I'll deal with this on Wednesday -- which says her board, the Zoological Parks Commission, has no responsibility in the area of Minority Business Development. I'll deal with that on Wednesday. I just thought the record should reflect that, and I'm a little concerned about this opinion going beyond the realms of legal issues and perhaps some personalities issues, and I would hope that both the City Solicitor and I would refrain from anything of that regard.

Just a couple of other comments, Reverend. Mr. Pellegrini's opinion also says, and I continue, "They considered the matter settled. I have, however, informed both of them that, no matter how chagrined they may be, they are compelled to follow the strict mandates of the subpoena." When Mr. Pellegrini was advising you relative to these subpoenas, in what capacity was he advising you?

Reverend Simms:

As City Solicitor.

Mr. Robinson:

And is it your understanding that he was authorized to advise you pursuant to these subpoenas?

Reverend Simms:

"On a subpoena which I would consider to be a legal document, yes."

Mr. Robinson:

Did you ever think that perhaps you should hire your own outside legal counsel?

Reverend Simms:

No.

Mr. Robinson:

You didn't feel that was appropriate?

Reverend Simms:

I didn't think it was necessary.

Mr. Robinson:

For what reason?

Reverend Simms:

I represent the City, and Mr. Pellegrini is City Solicitor.

Mr. Robinson:

Well, who does Mr. Pellegrini represent?

Reverend Simms:

I would suspect the interest of the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

The Administration.

Mr. Robinson:

The reason I raised this question is, Mr. Pellegrini advised you, but he didn't advise me, or at least he didn't advise me on this aspect of the subpoenas, so I'm concerned. Mr. Pellegrini -- and let me read this to you, Reverend. It's on the front page again of this legal opinion. "A subpoena directed to Reverend James Simms, Assistant Executive Secretary to the Mayor, compelling him to attend a session of Council on March 7 at 2:00 p.m. as well as another subpoena directed to Louise Brown, Director, Department of Parks and Recreation to appear before a Council session on March 9, 1983 have been forwarded to me for review." Did you forward this subpoena to Mr. Pellegrini?

Reverend Simms:

No, I did not.

Mr. Robinson:

Do you know who forwarded it to him?

Reverend Simms:

No, I do not.

Mr. Robinson:

Did you contact Mr. Pellegrini?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I did.

Mr. Robinson:

Perhaps I'll have some questions for him later on. He has here, "forwarded to me for review," because this Council did not ask Mr. Pellegrini to review anything, and the record should reflect that. Also, Mr. Pellegrini was requested to send to this Council documentation relative to how a subpoena should be issued. Mr. Pellegrini sent that information, and Councilman Robinson prepared his subpoena in accordance with what Mr. Pellegrini told him to do. Now, Mr. Pellegrini is telling me that there's something wrong with the subpoena. I got a lot of problems with that, because if Mr. Pellegrini is representing the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh, he should have talked to somebody on this Council. Are you aware, Reverend, of anyone on this Council that Mr. Pellegrini talked to about your subpoena?

Reverend Simms:

The response that I made to the earlier question as to whether or not the documentation that you asked for did or did not exist speaks to the point that you're raising, which again is a technical matter about the information asked for in the subpoena, and that is really the issue of whether or not the information that you asked for in Parcel A, City of Pittsburgh and Grant Street Associates exists, and that is the question that was raised to Mr. Pellegrini. How can we respond to, how can I, anyway, adequately respond to the questions that were asked of me? When, again, dealing with the legal, technical document, we'd have to respond within those restrictions.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Are you aware that Mr. Pellegrini has taken it upon himself to suggest that we rescind the subpoenas to both you and Mrs. Brown?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Are you aware that Mr. Pellegrini has attached to his opinion some letters relative to this total issue?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Are you aware that he's already drafted up the proposed resolutions to rescind the subpoenas?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Are you aware that he has taken it upon himself to draft up some subpoenas that he thinks would be more appropriate?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I am.

Mr. Robinson:

Did you discuss these matters with Mr. Pellegrini?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I have.

Mr. Robinson:

And you agree with that approach?

Reverend Simms:

Yes, I do.

Mr. Robinson:

Could you tell us why you decided to obey the subpoena?

Reverend Simms:

The opinion and the advice that I had in talking with legal counsel is that Council does have the authority to issue the subpoena, even though there is some question about the technical nature of it and the content of it, the information asked, but at the same time, I think out of respect for Council and out of respect for the deliberations of this body, I'm here.

Mr. Robinson:

Just one other area of concern, if

I might, Mr. President. Reverend Simms has indicated that the material that Mr. Pellegrini forwarded to us does represent some collaboration in that he accepts the notion that there's other ways to get the information; and correct me, Reverend Simms, if I'm wrong I'm not trying to speak for you. If, indeed, we accept the opinion and the attached documents as being true and we take what Reverend Simms has said as true, then we have a small inconsistency. It would be impossible for Reverend Simms to produce the material requested by voluntary means or any other means if the documents don't exist, and Reverend Simms has said they don't exist. Mr. Pellegrini and Reverend Simms have said they'd be more than happy to supply Councilman Robinson with this information by some other means.

The point I'm trying to make raise is that the documents either exist or they don't exist, and either we can get them or we can't, and either Councilman Robinson can get them or he can't. I don't believe that they can have it both ways. I will accept Reverend Simms's sworn statement that the documents that I requested in this subpoena do not exist; and I will respect him for that, and I have no further questions for him.

Mr. O'Malley:

First of all, Reverend Simms, I think myself, who voted in favor of the subpoena, owes you a personal apology. I certainly think you're an honorable man. I think there's a lot of double talk going on at this Council table today. It seems to me if I take this — it's going to take a few minutes on this here. The first piece of information that Councilman Robinson requested was the Minority Business Development plans programs, and procedures for and in relation to the sale or transfer of Parcel A, City of Pittsburgh.

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. O'Malley:

Now, the answer I received from the Solicitor states that the City of Pittsburgh never owned Parcel A, so, obviously, what Councilman Robinson was asking for you couldn't produce.

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. O'Malley:

Second part the subpoena that Councilman Robinson requests is that all documents pertaining to the transfer of Parcel A, City of Pittsburgh to 500 Grant Street Associates. Answer from the Solicitor. "In addition to the comments in relation to the first item above, Urban Redevelopment Authority never transferred Parcel A to 500 Grant Street Associates. Parcel A is still under the possession of the Port Authority." Obviously, you couldn't furnish that information.

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. O'Malley:

Question three. Mr. Robinson requested the subpoena shall request all documents pertaining to Minority Business Development proposals and programs of 500 Grant Street Associates. Answer from our Solicitor. "No separate documents existed as to the Minority Business Development Program of 500 Grant Street. It assumes that the program was already in existence at the time United States Steel Corporation was the developer or previous developer of the projects because," and I go on further to state what the Solicitor says. "Because the correct information was not requested from Council, the subpoena issued to Reverend Simms should be rescinded," which I agree with, and I apologize for issuing it or being part of it, "and a new subpoena issued requesting the following information," and I'm not going to bore everybody with the following information. It is my understanding that you will furnish this Council with the following information that is requested.

Reverend Simms:

That's correct.

Mr. O'Malley:

I stated before, I think it was a lot of double talk; and I stated at this Council table that prior to a Councilperson issuing a subpoena, and that we should convene a post agenda, that the Councilperson that requests information, the rest of us should be present to know if in actuality that information is available, which in this case seems like a waste of my time, certainly a waste of this Council's time, and a waste of the public's time asking for information issuing a subpoena that does not exist —

Mr. Robinson:

Point of personal privilege.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm not finished.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of personal privilege.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm making my statement, I feel --

Mr. Robinson:

Point of personal privilege.

The Chair:

What is your personal privilege?

Mr. Robinson:

My personal privilege is Mr. O'Malley has taken it upon himself to become very personal --

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm not making it personal.

Mr. Robinson:

You have, Mr. O'Malley. You are making a personal comment.

Mr. O'Malley:

You wasted my time and you wasted --

Mr. Robinson:

You are making a personal comment, and I don't appreciate it.

The Chair:

You're out of order, Mr. Robinson. You've been talking all the time on this Council today, and --

Mr. Robinson:

I have an opportunity to respond, Mr. President. The rules provide for that. I will not sit here and be insulted by Councilman O'Malley.

Mr. O'Malley:

Councilman O'Malley —

Mr. Robinson:

It is not necessary, Councilman.

Mr. O'Malley:

— is issuing a statement, and when he's finished, you can respond.

Mr. Robinson:

It is not necessary to insult anybody on this Council.

Mr. O'Malley:

Nobody's insulting you.

The Chair:

You're both out of order.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm sorry you wasted my time.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm quite capable of making my own decisions.

The Chair:

If I may, I'm going to call this meeting to be adjourned.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm not going to be insulted by you, and any remarks that you make that are insulting —

The Chair:

Gentlemen, there is no sense going on with the meeting. Mr.

O'Malley, Mr. Robinson, you're both out of order. Mr. Simms, you've been asked here to give some information today and answer some questions. I heard you very emphatically, you did not have that information, you couldn't answer the question. As far I'm concerned, Mr. Simms, you're dismissed. Thank you.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to finish. I have one more statement, Mr. President.

The Chair:

You're beating a dead horse to death. The man said he doesn't have the information.

Reverend Simms:

Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we go on with business?

Mr. Robinson:

I have a point of personal privilege.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, Mr. Robinson.

The Chair:

You've made yourself clear.

Mr. Robinson:

I have a point of personal privilege.

The Chair:

What else are you going to say, Mr. Robinson? We'll listen to you.

Mr. Robinson:

I think at some point somebody on this Council, since the Chair refuses to do it, should take it upon himself to suggest that it is not necessary for any member of this Council to insult or to attempt to embarrass anybody to make an excuse for their own actions. Councilman O'Malley voted openly and honestly for that subpoena. Councilman O'Malley has been present at every public request that I have made for information, and for him to sit here and suggest things about me and my integrity, I will not stand for it, and I would hope that the Chair would admonish Councilman O'Malley and anyone else on this Council who feels they can make personal remarks about a colleague, as an excuse for their own ineptitude.

The Chair:

You have said on numerous occasions, Mr. Robinson, yourself, you have embarrassed and belittled Council members —

Mr. Robinson:

That is not true, Mr. President.

The Chair:

— and they never asked for an apology.

Mr. Robinson:

That is not true. Have I ever called anybody a name, Mr. President? Have I ever called any member on this Council out of their name? I suggest that the Chair, that the Chair —

The Chair:

Do you feel there's an apology in order, Mr. O'Malley? Will you make the apology? If not, we'll move on.

Mr. O'Malley:

I stand by my statement that it was a waste of time issuing the subpoenas.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just want to ask that, regardless of how trying, perhaps, that a member of Council is compelled to be in getting information, I would hope that all members of Council would show a little patience and respect the courtesies and initiative of other members of Council; and even though Councilman Robinson has been spending a lot of time to get his information, perhaps he is not receiving the answers to the questions adequately that he is answering.

Michelle Madoff:

And I would respectfully request that all members of Council remain for my resolution.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone moved to suspend Rule 8 for all committees providing for the mailing of printed copies of all ordinances and resolutions to each member of Council at least 48 hours previous to their consideration by Council after the return of such papers from Committee.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Objection. Roll call vote. I'm objecting to getting the bills ten minutes before we come in here. I'm just objecting, Mike. You don't get the help you need..

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye because I've had the opportunity. We have these bills right in Council and we can go out and look at them any time we want.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye because a lot of time the postage is a waste of time. Any one of us can walk twenty feet into the Clerk's Office and request the bills.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. Mike, which bills are those?

Mr. Perry:

These are the ones that were affirmed on Wednesday.

Mr. O'Malley:

So we've had them for what, ten days now?

Mr. Robinson:

Does this include 2437?

Mr. Perry:

Yes.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information again. We haven't voted on 2437, correct?

The Chair:

We haven't voted. We have a waiver.

Mr. Robinson:

This is the amendment?

Mr. Stone:

If I may, Mr. President. All this is is waiving Rule 8 which requires 48 hours notice of every bill that is printed for you in this pack.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to have to vote no and my reason for voting no is that this Council requested through Mr. Buckley, our Budget Controller, information from Mr. Schillo and from the Mayor and Mr. Schmeiser relative to Council Bill 2437. Every member of Council received a copy of that memorandum. It was very specific in what it requested. It not only requested that the Treasurer and the Mayor and our Finance Director separate out the bills for us. That is, which bills are 1982 bills, which bills are 1983. We also asked him to verify that those bills should have been paid in 1982. We also requested that they give to us information that specifically tells us what the surplus was in 1982. As every member of this Council knows, the surplus has changed. It's gone from $16 million to $18 million and possibly could be $25 million.

We also asked to have a determination made as to how the surplus was arrived at, what procedures were used. It's my understanding from Mr. Buckley that that information is not yet available to Council and I think to move forward on these bills or to make any amendments on them without getting the proper information from the Mayor's Office, from the Treasurer and Finance Director, it's inappropriate. It is my understanding that this information will be available in two weeks. I think what we ought to do is hold Council Bill 2437 for two weeks.

We're talking about the monies of the people of the City of Pittsburgh and what's being done with their tax money.

The Chair:

Point of order, Mr. Robinson. Why don't you bring that up when we're voting on the bills. We're voting strictly on the amendment and the waiver now.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 6 NOES 3

(MR. LAHERTY, MICHELLE MADOFF
AND MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2658

Report of the Committee on Finance for March 2, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2437

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution carrying over balances or portions thereof remaining in certain code accounts for the year 1982 to the same code accounts for the year 1983." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2553

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending and supplementing portions of Resolution No. 1383 of 1982, entitled, 'A Resolution making appropriations to pay the expenses of conducting the public business of the City of Pittsburgh and for meeting the debt charges thereof for the fiscal year, beginning January 1, 1983 and ending December 31, 1983, by correcting the appropriation amounts for various code accounts.'"

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2554

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending and supplementing portions of Various Pages of Resolution No. 1384 of 1982, entitled, 'A Resolution fixing the number of officers and employees of the City of Pittsburgh and the rate of compensation thereof, and setting minimum levels for designated positions,'" passed in Council on December 27, 1982."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Are these companion bills, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

On these bills, Mr. Robinson, I suggest that we hold them because, as you stated, you made that request. I raised the issue initially saying how could we vote, we didn't know what it was. Fortunately, you jumped in and helped me with it. Now we're got a request in. Mr. Buckley has been unable to get the information and as you just stated, we have a memo saying that we will not have this information for two weeks, but Mr. O'Malley can go in and get it at any time, so when he gets it, I hope he'll share with the rest of his colleagues.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. Mr. Stone indicated that 2554 was a companion to 2437 —

Mr. Stone:

Hold on, Bill. Let me get them all for you. Bill Nos. 2437, 2553 and 2554.

The Chair:

They're all companion bills.

Mr. Robinson moved to recommit Bill Nos. 2437, 2553 and 2554.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. What is happening in these three bills is nothing more than we do every year. What we're trying to do is to keep those expenditures which were incurred in '82 in '82 so that you don't end up with an inflated surplus in '83 then spend the monies and find out you still have an account payable for '82.

It is in order. It's done every year and the problem I have with it now is that this thing has already dragged too long. We may be getting into a problem in passage. I would respectfully request my colleagues not to delay this matter and to move on it today.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't believe what I'm hearing here today. Everybody said they had the information, they studied, they knew what was happening. The information isn't available for two more weeks according to the Budget Office. I vote to recommit. I also want to point out the inconsistencies of this group.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote aye and I'd just like to give an explanation of why I'm voting aye. I think it was rather obvious last Wednesday that myself and several members of this Council did not have sufficient information to make an intelligent decision on Council Bills 2437, 2553 and 2554. Our budget staff, I think, went to some length to at least assure me that the kind of information I needed would be available by Monday. So as not to strain my own credibility, it seems that if the Administration can make an error in calculating the surplus for 1982, then certainly we can call into question the process they used, which we do not know and they have been unwilling to share with us, and we have not been very diligent on this Council in trying to find out. And I lay that at the feet of Mr. Stone, our Finance Chairman.

I also think that since the surplus that the Administration found itself with in '82 has increased from $16 million to approximately $18 million and we still don't know the process that we should find out because maybe we have a lot more money in this City than we know about and maybe we can do some important things that have to be done and again, since the Administration will not provide us with that information, I lay that responsibility at the feet of our Finance Chairman, Mr. Stone, who introduced these bills and who has supported them.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may. You're reiterating what you said just about five minutes ago.

Mr. Robinson:

I believe, Mr. Chairman, that the rules provide me with this opportunity.

The Chair:

You've already said it, but if you care to say it again.

Mr. Robinson:

I believe I am allowed to explain my motion.

Thirdly, it seems to me that when this Council is advised by its staff that it can secure information and make it available to you, then it's only prudent for us to wait for that information before we make such an important decision as the one we're about to make.

Also, we have no assurances that the bills that are here listed are bills from 1982. We have no assurances that, in fact, bills from 1983 aren't included or that we have, in a sense, double billed. In other words, provided extra money. That is, instead of a bill being put in this budget or this document for $50,000, in fact, there's $100,000 in here. The budget surplus in the City of Pittsburgh for 1982 is probably in excess of $20 million. And the fact that this Council and the Administration refuses to discuss the process they used, I think, strains our credibility and I would request that our Finance Chairman, Mr. Stone, seriously consider recommitting these bills until he could explain what process was used, until he could explain whether or not all these bills are 1982 bills and whether or not he could explain how much the surplus really is, because Mr. Stone is one of the people who assured this Council that we were supporting a bare bones budget in 1982 and we would be barely able to make it. And I saw this because it's on the record. $16 million surplus. That's an error. That's a heck of an error. And if the same people who made that error put these bills together, then I certainly want to know what process they are using. And I think we're entitled to know that.

I think we also have to keep in mind that some years ago our Supplies Director indebted this City for $800,000. And we had to go through the painstaking task and Mr. Stone was the one that led the charge to make sure that every single bill was a current bill and was in the year that it was supposed to be in and only paid for that year. And he indicated that if any bills were not for that year that this City would not honor them and he as Finance Chairman would not honor them. I'm asking Mr. Stone to again be as diligent. This is a very serious matter. And regardless of the politics involved, we're talking about the tax dollars of the people of the City of Pittsburgh. Mr. Stone and the Mayor have announced a $1.7 million jobs program. They're going to use money, they want to use money to —

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, you are completely out of order.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm saying to you that if that money is added to the surplus and all the other money is added to the surplus, we're going to get some better idea of what amount of money is available in this City. And to rush these bills through and to pretend this is something we do every year, that this is a normal process, is simply not true. It is not true. It is not fair and this is not the way we should be dealing with the taxpayers' money. If we do not want to get the right information, then let us say that we do not care whether the Administration forwards it because in two weeks, if the information is not here, where are we going to be? Will Mr. Stone ask for that information? Will Mr. Stone demand that information? And what if that information reveals that our surplus was $25 million. And what if it reveals that some of these bills are not due in 1982 but they're due in 1983?

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, I believe you made your point. Are you finished?

Mr. Robinson:

I am not finished, Mr. President. I'm not finished on this issue. I will respect the Chair, but I am not finished on this issue. I am voting to recommit 2437, 2553 and 2554. Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, relative to this particular matter, whether anyone wants to believe it or not, it is the same process that's followed every year. Relative to these bills, there is no bill here that is an '83 bill, it's '82 bills. Proper accounting requires that instead of deflating your expenditures in '82 and inflating them in '83 so you can get comparables year to year, you must ascertain all of your '82 bills. And that's all this bill is designed to do. It's nothing new, nothing mysterious, nothing unusual, nothing unique. In fact, it's so ordinary it's probably been done this way for the last thirty years.

Relative to this bill, I vote against any recommitment.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommitment?

And on the question, "Shall the recommitment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills themselves?

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like to know if our Finance Chairman has any indication as to when this Council can receive the information it requested or if he's aware of the information this Council requested.

Mr. Stone:

I've asked for all '82 bills and it's represented to me that these are all '82 bills and it will go then to the Controller's Office and, at that point, the Controller will bounce back everything that's not an '82 bill. And I don't see that there's any problems with it at all.

Mr. Robinson:

Is the Finance Chairman aware of the information that was requested of the Finance Department, the Mayor's Office and the Treasurer? The written request. Is the Finance Chairman aware of that?

Mr. Stone:

You're asking, then, for information?

Mr. Robinson:

It was my understanding, and perhaps the City Clerk has a copy of it. This is getting bizarre. Do you mean to tell me that this Council did not make an official request for the information I've been speaking about? Is that what I am led to believe? That there was no official request from this Council? If that's the case, I have a memorandum in my office that was officially typed and sent. If that means the President of this Council and you as the Finance Chairman were unaware of it, then I am hard pressed to understand why it was prepared and why I was told the information would not be available for two weeks.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Robinson, I'm at a loss to understand what you're all shook about.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm all shook up about the process, Mr. Stone.

Mr. Stone:

Alright. All I asked you, was there some definition to what you were saying. You explain it to me and we'll go from there. But you can't be vague and expect me to answer your question.

Mr. Robinson:

Would the City Clerk produce the memo?

If I might, Mr. President, I'd like to respond to Mr. Stone's concern because I would assume, from what he has said, he's unaware of this memo.

Mr. Stone:

I didn't say that. I'm trying to identify what you were talking about.

Mr. Robinson:

I said I assume that, Mr. Stone. That's why I asked for the memo. The memo is dated March 2, 1983 from Mr. Jack Buckley, Budget Controller, to Stephen Schillo, Deputy Director, City Treasurer, with copies to Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor, Ronald C. Schmeiser,

Director, Department of Finance, and it reads:

The subject is a request for information concerning unencumbered carry-overs.

At the Finance Committee Meeting of March 2, 1983, a request was made from Council that your office provide names of the supplier of goods and/or services, dates, invoices, received by Departments and date paid, if applicable, to support the request carry-over amounts from various code accounts by Friday, March 4, 1983 at 12:00.

Also, you are requested to provide the exact amount of the 1982 surplus after the carry-over amounts and how you arrived at the amounts.

Your prompt reply will be greatly appreciated.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, would you care to share with this Council what Mr. Buckley told us today?

Mr. Robinson:

I would like to know if this was sent officially by the Council of the City of Pittsburgh and whether or not our Finance Chairman and our President were aware of it.

Mr. Stone:

That was a request you put in for some of you for information.

Mr. Robinson:

No, no. I didn't ask whether it was a request from some of us. I want to know if this is a request from Council.

Mr. Stone:

I didn't need any information.

Mr. Robinson:

I just want to know if this was a request from Council. Mr. President, was this a request from Council?

The Chair:

To the best of my knowledge, it apparently was your request.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Stone, was this a request from Council?

Mr. Stone:

We did not vote on it, Bill. That's what I'm trying to get across to you.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. Then I think the record should reflect, and I hate to do this, but there are some staff people who talked to me about this matter. I don't want to embarrass them, but they gave me the impression that at least the information I wanted I should get, and that they were instructed to get it for me. I didn't get it. And I made it clear on Wednesday, openly and honestly, that I thought I ought to have the information before Monday and I was assured by the Chair on Wednesday that I would have it by Friday. Friday has come and gone. Saturday has come and gone. Sunday has come and gone. It is now Monday. And you mean to tell me that there are people on this Council who are unaware of this? It strains the credibility of this Council and if anybody is going to be led to believe that only Councilman Robinson wants to know about the budget and about the surplus, I'm not going to sit here and allow that to occur in the face of this document. If we need to proceed further with this, maybe we need to call those staff people forward and ask them to divulge the names of the people who perpetrated what is evidently a hoax. I don't appreciate it as a member of this Council. I take the business of this City serious. And when I make a request, I make it in public and I make it very seriously.

The Chair:

Where's the hoax involved? I don't follow what you're talking about.

Mr. Robinson:

This document supposedly represents what Council wants, and it was written in that spirit. What Mr. Stone has suggested is he didn't need any information. I didn't understand that Mr. Stone was the only person on this Council to get information. It was my understanding we work as a body. And as our Finance Chairman, he could make requests for every last one of us. And when we make financial requests, we make it with an understanding from the Director of the Department and with the Chairman of that Committee.

The Chair:

Bill, you asked for the information, you got the information.

Mr. Robinson:

No, sir. The information is not here. The information won't be available for two weeks. And that is verbal. That's a verbal communication. I had to go and seek that information out. Mr. Stone didn't tell me. I had to go seek it out from the same staff person that wrote this memo.

Do we want to talk about who wrote this memo and why they wrote it and who instructed them to write it? We're talking about millions of dollars in the City of Pittsburgh and evidently someone feels they can just slide it on by without the appropriate information being available because we do it in a normal course of events. This is not the normal course of events, Mr. Stone, by any stretch of the imagination. This is not the normal course of events.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I was the one that originally brought this to Council's attention when the bill came up. I stated at that time, and I repeat, that we did not know how many months we were carrying over if indeed, as Mr. Stone says, it's the '82 budget. I asked my own director, Director Cosentino of Water. Is it for the month of December? Is it for August, September, October, November, December? How many months is it for? He said he did not know, he would give me that information. I then went to Mr. Buckley because it was a motion of this Council unanimously that we not vote, that we send it back to the Budget Office and get the information so that we could vote today. We did not get that information and only learned, as Mr. Robinson has just stated, Mr. Buckley is upset because he can't do his job and he wants to do a good job, that he cannot get this information for two weeks. And I might add, Mr. President, that in the former year when I said that we would have a $15.3 surplus I was pooh-poohed and we had 16, now it appears to be $17 or $18 million. This is a disgrace that this Council is trying to railroad this through with Mr. Stone say, "I don't need information. I understand.", and Councilman O'Malley saying, "Well, I can get this information any time I need it." This is a hoax and a fraud and you're right, Mr. Robinson.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye and I'd just like to make a comment on Mrs. Madoff's statement. I take care of my committees, I get all the pertinent information that Councilman Jim O'Malley requests. If Mrs. Madoff can't do the same then that's her personal problem, not mine.

Michelle Madoff:

That is not true, Mr. O'Malley. You didn't get the information you're just voting the party line.

The Chair:

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2559

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh to submit an application for financial assistance in the cumulative amount of $8,180,317 to the Pennsylvania Department of Community Affairs for the North Shore Project."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2560

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a Fourth Amendatory Cooperation Agreement for the North Shore Redevelopment Project providing for the conveyance of certain property, clarification of provisions for the construction and dedication of certain public improvements, the abandonment of certain water and sewer lines, zoning changes, the installation of street lighting, the conveyance of certain air rights, the waiver of fees and charges for certain permits and licenses, and for certain changes in the financing of the Project."

Mr. Robinson:

On Council 2559, and 2560, I make a motion to recommit.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote no, and the reasons being that if we recommit it might put the application for the funding in jeopardy.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the recommitment?

And on the question, "Shall the recommitment pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

(MR. GIVENS, MRS. MASLOFF, MR. O'MALLEY, MR. STONE, MR. WOODS, AND MR. DEPASQUALE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

And on the bills themselves?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, to my knowledge we have not received from the Urban Redevelopment Authority any documentation as to the nature of the Minority Business Enterprise Program, and I'd just like to make Council aware that my original objection to the bills on North Shore being introduced was that there was no documentation relative to the Minority Business Enterprise Programs, which are required by law.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

Michelle Madoff presented

Bill No. 2661

Report of the Committee on Water for March 2, 1983 transmitting one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2538

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Three, Water, Article V, Chapter 333, Section 3, Ferrule Charge, by clarifying the property owner's liability."

Which was read.

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Flaherty presented

Bill No. 2662

Report of the Committee on Lands and Buildings for March 2, 1983 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation

Bill No. 2532

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements for architectural/engineering services and a Contract or Contracts for construction in connection with Renovations to the Fire Department headquarters, 6th Floor, Public Safety Buildings; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

I'm going to say it one more time. Aye to vote the bill up, nay to sustain the negative recommendation.

Mr. Stone:

Mike, what was the vote Wednesday?

Mr. Perry:

I believe it was four-five. Ayes four, noes five.

The Chair:

All right, it's aye to pass the bill and nay to sustain the negative recommendation.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed, and the reason why is because the Director of Lands and Buildings told this Council that he had only contacted that one architect that was awarded the contract, and I believe that we should have more competition in the awarding of the bids; and I also feel that we could receive a more economical contract, and it would certainly save on tax dollars if we had more competition.

Michelle Madoff:

I think we needed to deliver a message to the Lands and Buildings Director, and we did, but I don't think we can hold up the Fire Department offices, so I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote no. One, because I agree with Mr. Flaherty on the whole bid procedure; I don't think that we had enough bids. Two, I think that we could get a lower price, at least $10 thousand; and three, I'm not quite sure of the necessity of these repairs, given some of the other repairs that need to be made in the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff presents

WHEREAS, in 1981 Michelle Madoff presented a resolution to City Council to cause Council to hire a qualified fiscal advisor and said resolution was defeated; and

WHEREAS, on October 18, 1982, Pittsburgh City Council passed a floor motion presented by Michelle Madoff to grant approval for a qualified fiscal advisor to evaluate the 1983 Budget; and

WHEREAS, no such person was hired as directed by a majority of this Council; and

WHEREAS, the Council, pursuant to Article 3 of the Charter of Pittsburgh, is the Legislative Branch of City government and as such, has the duty to exercise independent fiscal judgment; and

WHEREAS, Council is frequently confronted with major issues that require a high degree of expertise in economics and general fiscal matters; and

WHEREAS, the only advice regularly available to Council is from the administrative, legal, and fiscal staff of the Executive Branch, which obviates this Council's duty to the public to collect all of the facts, analyze those facts, and exercise independent judgment; and

WHEREAS, in the past, this Council has been criticized by the public for voting without proper input on issues; and

WHEREAS, the City has alternative tax proposals to evaluate from time to time; and

WHEREAS, the City of Pittsburgh now has a Principal Bond Indebtedness, Unfunded Pensions for police, fire and other City employees, and Workmen's Compensation debts, all of which require expert analysis; and

WHEREAS, Council will shortly be called upon to vote upon another bond for Capital expenditures of $30 million in 1983 for City projects and only $29 million will be paid on the existing debt service; and

WHEREAS, Council will also be called upon to review the rate structure of Warner Cable and decide whether or not to grant a rate increase; and

WHEREAS, the City is undertaking a development on the North Shore, which will involve votes by Council on fiscal matters; and

WHEREAS, the City has undertaken a major study to decide which course to pursue in addressing the severe problems of Pittsburgh's deteriorating water lines and sewage systems and is talking about the possibility of creating a Water Authority; and

WHEREAS, it is Council's duty and responsibility to vote on the budget and all expenditures on a day-to-day basis and on other fiscal matters; and

WHEREAS, it is a conflict of interest and a breach of public trust for the legislative body of the City to rely upon the Executive Branch for legal and fiscal advice; and

WHEREAS, the law requires Council to be thoroughly versed in regard to fiscal matters and analyze the issues from an independent perspective, so that Council may be best advised as to the facts, figures and conclusions that are pertinent to Council's decision-making process to permit Council to vote in the public's best interest.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that Council hire a qualified fiscal advisor with a background in economics, tax and municipal management to review the budgets and reports prepared by the Executive Branch and advise the entire Council on fiscal matters and to be paid a competitive salary from the 1983 Budget.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I'm going to vote against this resolution for a couple of reasons. Some of these whereas's, by voting for them, you're saying that, in fact, happened, and I'm not going to be part of that one, but aside from that — for example here's one here.

"Whereas, in the past, this Council has been criticized by the public for voting without proper input on issues." I don't think you have to be a genius in this City to know the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh are complaining more about the antics and what's going on in this Council than they are about any of these matters.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you vote for a fiscal officer if that were out, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

No.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't think so.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am supporting it because I think oftentimes the antics in this Council are grounded in semantics, and I think it is an issue that is commendable. I think it's no new idea to the public that this Council certainly needs a fiscal advisor. The Mayor consistently month after month for the past few years has consistently come into this Chamber and has run over Council simply because he has the expertise and the staff. This Council's going to be faced with hearings in regard to Warner Cable's request to raise their rates. This body, I think it's sort of funny myself to say this body will be assuming the responsibility, and we will certainly be a form that is comparable to the PUC. Having served in Harrisburg as a State Representative, I know how intricate and complex the PUC hearings are; and this body has taken it upon itself in a comparable setting to weigh a possible rate increase for Warner Cable. I think it's in the best interest of City taxpayers and certainly subscribers to Warner Cable that this Council have the best expertise possible. Otherwise, if we don't, they are going to bury us with their expertise, and they are going to make a strong case, and we had better be on our toes and be able to represent our constituencies, and make sure they have a fair hearing.

The Chair:

If I may, this is about the third time we've voiced our opinion on this fiscal advisor, so I would like if we'd just vote and no further comments, because I believe they're —

Michelle Madoff:

People are allowed to explain their vote, sir.

The Chair:

You're allowed to explain it. It's the third time you've explained it. You're going to come up with it four or five more times, and we're going to hear the same speech again.

Michelle Madoff:

Oh, I won't be coming up with it four or five times, you can be sure of it.

You can be sure of it.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens is voting.

Mr. Givens:

Yes, Mr. President, I'd like to vote no on this particular resolution, and my questions are very simple. I've been able to get information, any information I've wanted. We increased our salaries and positions within our own Department of Finance, within the Council of the City of Pittsburgh; and three, that I have personally hired a person that's very knowledgeable within this particular field of work, and I think that's what all of us have to do if we want this type of expertise. Thirdly, I feel that if there is a need for any consultants along this particular line, that Council within their budget line has money in there that any of the Council people, be it legal or other, can go out and get all the expertise that we need, and until things change to bring that about, I've been to judge in my own mind, working with budgets for some 28 years in the millions and multi-millions of dollars, that I've been able to come up and say what I think, and it's proven, it's fact, year after year after year of what the surpluses are going to be and what everything else is going to be. I feel comfortable with the type of advice that I'm getting right now and my own expertise and knowledge in this particular area, so I vote no, Mr. President.

The Chair:

You make a lot of sense, Mr. Givens. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I will take no longer than Mr. Givens to tell you that this City has an $800 million debt, which is three quarters of a billion dollars, not to count the infrastructure of this City that's going to take a tremendous amount of money for water, sewer, etc. I have consulted with people in other cities who have fiscal advisors, and I would like to read one comment from a consulting firm that says, "Should local government, legislative bodies like the Pittsburgh City Council have independent financial advice when they consider bond and note transactions? The answer is an unqualified yes. City Council has a judiciary responsibility to the taxpayers each time it considers an action to incur debt. This responsibility should extend to a thorough review and an understanding of all aspects of the transaction and of the long-term costs involved. A decision to issue debt probably has a greater long-term impact on the City's fiscal condition than any other single decision City Council makes. For example, Mr. O'Malley, a $10 million borrowing will require the pay-out of more than 20 million including interest charges over a 20-year period. Council's judiciary responsibilities are no more than formalities unless those on Council have specific expertise, I repeat, specific expertise in this area. They have no capacity to exercise independent judgment, and ultimately they must either rubber stamp or blindly reject bond and note transactions. Only an independent financial advisor serving Council insures that its considerations of these matters will be reasonable and responsible." I certainly vote yes.

Mrs. Masloff:

I do vote in the public's best interest, and I don't think we need a fiscal officer. No.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm going to vote aye. I'd just like to relay a message to my colleague Michelle Madoff that I am very well versed in mathematics. I certainly think that this Council can use all the additional help that we can get. A fiscal advisor will go a long way in providing us with the information we need to make important decisions concerning the taxpayers.

Mr. Stone:

I'm faced with a situation, the people asking for expert advice, when expert advice is provided, they don't listen to it. If you had the best fiscal person in the world, there's one basic thing they'll tell you. If you vote for debt, you must likewise vote for tax in order to pay that debt. Now, some people who are asking for fiscal experts haven't even gotten that far, and now we're asked to spend money so that we bring someone here to tell us something so that we can ignore them as well. The answer is no.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Robinson

AYES 4	NOES 5
--------	--------

(MR. GIVENS, MRS. MASLOFF, MR. STONE, MR. WOODS, AND MR. DEPASQUALE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

The Chair:

The motion fails.

And on the motion of Mr. Woods

Council adjourned.

Michelle Madoff:

One moment, please. Before that bill comes up, will we have the information that is due us? Is Mr. Buckley here? That information on the $18 million? Will that be up before that bill is opened?

Mr. Buckley:

I haven't any idea.

Michelle Madoff:

How long will it be?

Mr. Buckley:

Another two weeks.

Michelle Madoff:

We'll have that.

Mr. Buckley:

That's what I said.

Michelle Madoff:

If not, I want to move to hold that bill.

The Chair:

We're just introducing the bill. That's going into Committee Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

I understand. Did somebody just move to waive Rule 8 on that bill?

The Chair:

No.

Also,

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I have two items of Unfinished Business. One is the issue of the subpoena that was issued to Reverend Simms, and he appeared here, I believe it was last Monday, pursuant to that subpoena. I think each member of Council received a document from Reverend Simms dated March 7. This document appears to be the information that we requested by way of subpoena, and the record will reflect that Reverend Simms in answering his questions indicated that the information did not exist. So as not to belabor the point but to get some clarification, I'd like to have this document forwarded to our City Solicitor to determine if this is the information that was requested by way of the subpoena; and if he'd be kind enough to —

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'll speak right now.

Mr. Robinson:

No, I would like to have it submitted to the Solicitor and for him to get back to us next week if he would be willing to do that.

The other item is a citation that I'd like to have Council consider, if the City Clerk will read this please.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2692 Citation for contempt of Council

The Council of the City of Pittsburgh, through its president, does hold in contempt of Council, Mrs. Louise Brown, Chairperson, Zoological Park Commission, for failure to legally appear and legally comply with the provisions of a subpoena issued by Council on February 28, 1983 and requiring her appearance in Council Chambers at 10:00 o'clock, a.m., on Wednesday, March 9, 1983.

The Chair:

Excuse me I understood that she appeared, and yet you're saying that she didn't appear?

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, there seemed to be some question at that meeting. Councilman Stone chaired that meeting. Mr. Pellegrini indicated that he was representing Mrs. Brown, and it's my understanding that he advised her not to forward any information pursuant to the subpoena but that she would be willing to submit information voluntarily. I asked Mr. Stone to please swear her in. He did not swear her in. Mr. Pellegrini offered to make the information available voluntarily. I indicated to Mr. Stone that the subpoena was properly issued and that I didn't think we should accept the information, one, before Mrs. Brown was sworn in, and two, we should not accept it unless it was being tendered to use by way of the subpoena.

The Chair:

She did appear, but she didn't answer questions?

Mr. Robinson:

I would say that there's a question as to whether or not Mrs. Brown legally appeared.

The Chair:

What? Was she in attendance? Was she here?

Mr. Robinson:

Was she in the session? I would say no.

The Chair:

Her body was here, but she wasn't here?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, sir.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may, I'd just like to set this thing in proper posture. It was not that I refused to have her sworn. What had happened, Louise Brown appeared with the City Solicitor as her counsel, and at that time he had a question of jurisdiction; and it is basic that when you contest jurisdiction, you have to contest it right away and then not participate, rather than participate and then contest jurisdiction. I then indicated to Councilman Robinson that if he is going to contest the jurisdiction, he has to contest it at that moment. The City Solicitor then on behalf of Louise Brown indicated that he was contesting jurisdiction, indicating the Committee meetings are not a regular meeting of Council, and he was objecting on those grounds it was the wrong forum; and since, as I gathered, it was a legal, technical request, he was giving a legal, technical answer. At any rate, where he got to was that he said that he would not have her respond under the subpoena because, in his opinion, it was faulty. He then stated that she was there, ready, willing, and able to voluntarily give the information if Councilman Robinson so desired. I then turned to Councilman Robinson and asked him, in view of that, what he wanted. He responded that he did not want the information voluntarily, and he wanted it only under the subpoena, which was given to him. I indicated to all parties at that time that they were deadlocked at that point, and that is whether or not there was jurisdiction or not jurisdiction, and then you go beyond that, and that's where it was, frankly, left as far the posture of the day.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, in response to Mr. Stone's comments, I think two things should also be added to the record at this point. One is I think that we ought to have included in the record at the appropriate place the exact conversation that was held at that time so that all members of Council will be able to evaluate it and also for future reference.

COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON SUBPOENA ISSUED FOR LOUISE BROWN,
DIRECTOR, DEPARTMENT OF PARKS AND RECREATION, FROM THE MEETING OF WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1983.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Before we go ahead, I would like to make a comment.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. Pellegrini, I believe Mrs. Brown should be sworn in.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Before I go ahead, I would like—

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Pellegrini, you are a guest at this table.

The Chair:

Wait just a minute. What the Chair wants to find out— First, let me see what develops here before we get a statement, then I'll get back to you. Mr. Robinson?

Mr. Robinson:

I would like to have Mrs. Brown sworn.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That is what I want to make a comment about.

Mr. Robinson:

No, no, Mr. Pellegrini. Mr. Pellegrini, would you please respect this Council if you can't respect me.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Well, I would just like to make a statement. I do respect this Council.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Pellegrini, would you please respect this Council. My addressing was to the Chair, Mr. Chairman. I would like the Chair to make arrangements to have Mrs. Brown sworn.

The Chair:

Bill, as the Chair understands from the legal opinion that has been written, and also from what I gather Mr. Pellegrini is getting a little excited about, he is contesting the right to be here. In that view, I think we should hear only on that issue only, and, I think that is where he is at. Then, when we get past that issue we will go into the merits of what we are doing.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I asked the Chair to make arrangements to have Mrs. Brown sworn.

The Chair:

I have no alternative but to let him speak if he is contesting. Let me ask him—

Mr. Robinson:

Will the Chair make arrangements to have Mrs. Brown sworn?

The Chair:

Mr. Pellegrini, are you contesting the jurisdiction at this time?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes, but we will appear voluntarily and answer the questions. I just want to make it clear that the subpoena was not issued properly.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I want the Chair to rule on whether or not Mrs. Brown will be sworn.

The Chair:

The Chair cannot rule one way or the other until the contest of jurisdiction is determined. I am not fighting you, but I think he is right there. If he can test the jurisdiction, he has to do it now. He can't participate and test it, that is his problem.

Mr. Robinson:

I have a question of you, the Chair. If Mr. Pellegrini is going to contest jurisdiction, is this Council the court of last resort?

Mr. Pellegrini:

We are going to answer questions, we are prepared to answer your questions.

Mr. Robinson:

I am asking it of the Chair, Mr. Pellegrini. Don't you have any respect for anybody or anything?

The Chair:

Wait. Everybody settle down a second, settle down a second. As I see it, if he contests the jurisdiction and it is not respected, then it would appear to me that the court would have to resolve that issue.

Mr. Robinson:

One other point, point of personal privilege as a member of this Council. Reverend James A. Simms came before this Council on Monday and was sworn by this Council. Mr. Pellegrini, who represents both Mrs. Brown and Reverend Simms, did not raise this objection. Rather than suggest some favoritism, Mr. Pellegrini, I hope you would reconsider now advising Mrs. Brown that we don't have jurisdiction because you did not give the same respect and courtesy to Reverend Simms.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, I want to stay out of the legal issue.

Mr. Robinson:

I will respect the Chair's decision.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Can I respond to that?

The Chair:

No, let the Chair finish for a moment. I think from what he's got on the legal opinion, the tenure of his objection is that if Louise Brown were called, the Director of Parks and Recreation, to the Council, to the legislative session, that would be different than to a committee meeting. That is the distinction between the two so far.

Am I correct there, so far?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That is correct. In my letter of March 7th I specifically stated that Reverend Simms is required to attend Council's session of March 9, 1983 and I requested a new subpoena so that the correct information could be obtained. I think the record should also note that after Monday we gave to Council a list of what we thought was the correct information that we believed Mr. Robinson was after.

The Chair:

Pardon the Chair for a moment. When you gave information, was that in answer to Mr. Simms' subpoena, or to Louise's subpoena?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The information that we gave, we gave voluntarily.

The Chair:

In answer to which subpoena?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Mr. Simms' subpoena.

The Chair:

Okay. I was trying to find out whether you gave something relative to this one too.

Mr. Pellegrini:

But, I would have to say that it wasn't in response to the subpoena, it was voluntary information that we submitted.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order. Point of order. Point of order.

The Chair:

Wait a minute, I want to deal with where I am at right now.

Mr. Robinson:

The Chair indicated that Mr. Pellegrini could respond to the issue of jurisdiction, not talking about Reverend Simms. Now, Mr. Chairman, if we are going to be fair and we are going to talk about jurisdiction and courts of last resort, I implore you to ask our city solicitor, who supposedly represents the Council and the Mayor, to please respect his position of neutrality.

The Chair:

Now we are dealing only with the matter of jurisdiction.

Mr. Pellegrini:

With the matter of jurisdiction, what my opinion stated is that the Council resolution requested Mrs. Brown to appear before Council. Council does not meet on Wednesdays, the Committees of Council meet on Wednesdays. When we pass bond issues, that's why we have to recess the Monday meeting usually until after the Finance Committee meets, it is nothing unusual. But, Mrs. Brown is agreeing to submit to any questions that any councilman has or any councilmember has today. The only issue is that I am trying to preserve the legal argument or the legal position that today the subpoena is not valid, but she will answer any questions.

The Chair:

Okay. Let me see if I am correct here. I want to try something, if I can, so we can get to the substance rather than the technical problems. Are you saying that you will not respond to a subpoena, but you will give whatever is requested?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That is correct.

The Chair:

Okay.

Mr. Robinson:

May I respond? I am sorry Mr.

Pellegrini is taking this position. First of all, I question Mr. Pellegrini's legal right to represent only Reverend Simms and Mrs. Brown, and not have any communication with this Council relative to subpoenas. That is the first thing. So, I think there is a question of some jurisdiction, and also some question as to who Mr. Pellegrini represents. I believe he also represents me, and I have not talked to him on these matters.

Second of all, this Council authorized me to secure legal counsel to address the issue of minority business development. I indicated I would try to avoid that so as not to tax this Council and so as not to tax the credibility of the city. Since Mr. Pellegrini feels that he would like to challenge the subpoena, and since Mrs. Brown in the past has refused to respond to the information; it would seem to me that I have no other recourse but to reject his offer of free information at this time, secure legal counsel, and, unfortunately, see Mr. Pellegrini and Mrs. Brown in court.

The Chair:

So the Chair understands the position here now, where we are at this point, you are saying that based on a legal situation you will not respond to a subpoena, but you will give the same information voluntarily. As I understand from Councilman Robinson, he is saying he wants it done under the subpoena and not voluntarily, as you are suggesting here. I am just trying to get the positions clear so we understand where we are.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Can I clarify that position? It would be impossible to obtain any enforcement of a subpoena when you have the information. The court would then say why--

The Chair:

Hold on a second, let's not get into that.

Mr. Pellegrini:

But, we will provide the information.

The Chair:

That is not the issue.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The issue here is whether or not Mr. Robinson wants information. We are prepared to give him the information today.

Mr. Robinson:

That is your issue, Mr. Pellegrini, that is not my issue.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That is why you issued the subpoena.

Mr. Robinson:

You don't know why I issued the subpoena, Mr. Pellegrini.

The Chair:

Hold on, Mr. Robinson. Mr. Pellegrini, I don't want an argument here. All I want cleared up is how this thing has gotten to where it is right now. Am I stating the issue as it is right now?

Mr. Robinson:

As far as I am concerned, Mr. Chairman, yes.

The Chair:

Okay, that is where it is. He doesn't want the information, other than under the subpoena; and you don't want to give it, other than with the subpoena. We are at a deadlock and there is no reason to continue.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There is no deadlock. He can say he is getting it under the subpoena, I can say I am giving it voluntarily.

The Chair:

That is what you both are saying, it is very clear. I don't think there is any question, you are diametrically opposed and that has to be carried further or forgotten. That is where you are.

END, COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON THE SUBPOENA ISSUED FOR LOUISE BROWN, 3/9/83.

Mr. Robinson:

The second part is that certainly Mrs. Brown was entitled to counsel, and certainly Mr. Pellegrini was entitled to advise his client accordingly. That creates, I think, a problem for us that perhaps cannot be addressed at this moment but certainly needs to be addressed, and that is the issue of who does the City Solicitor represent. The charter is rather clear that the City Solicitor represents both Council and the Administration. Mr. Pellegrini on two occasions has come before this Council representing individuals, Reverend James A. Simms and Mrs. Louise Brown. Mr. Pellegrini has also given to this Council conflicting legal opinions. He gave one opinion as to how to draw up the subpoenas, and they were drawn up in accordance with his opinion. He then sent us another opinion indicating the subpoenas were faulty. It seems to me that for this situation, this legal problem, this technical problem to be resolved, we will have to resolve the issue of who it is that Mr. Pellegrini represents. If this matter were to go on to a court, I think it would be very difficult for Mr. Pellegrini to represent both this Council and Mrs. Brown and/or Reverend Simms. As I mentioned before, perhaps this is an issue that cannot be resolved at this moment, but certainly I think it is one that is going to have to be resolved. I don't think that the situation that Mr. Stone described can be left unresolved, and I don't think he would want to leave it unresolved. I would hope if there is a question about jurisdiction, and certainly I asked Mr. Stone about the jurisdiction issue and never got a response, I would hope that we could resolve the jurisdiction issue. I hope we could resolve the issue about Mr. Pellegrini and who he represents, and I think also we need to resolve the issue of the information in question. Mr. Pellegrini did submit information. I assume he submitted on behalf of Mrs. Brown. The impression was given, and Mr. Stone can correct me if I'm wrong, that the information that Mr. Pellegrini was submitting on behalf of Mrs. Brown represented the information requested in the subpoena. I believe that every member of Council received a copy of that information. Again, in the interests of time and so that we can dispose of this in the proper fashion, it might be advisable, Mr. President, to have Mr. Pellegrini review the materials that he submitted on behalf of Mrs. Brown to let us know if that is the material that we requested by way of subpoena. I think that would be appropriate, and if he could do that next week along with evaluating the material that Reverend Simms sent forward, perhaps we can resolve part of the problem, and that is, can this Council get the information it has requested, whether it be by subpoena or voluntarily.

Mr. O'Malley:

I would like to make a motion at this time to rescind the subpoenas for the following reasons, and this is the opinion I received from the Solicitor regarding Director Brown's subpoena. It says here that —

The Chair:

Excuse me, Mr. O'Malley. First of all, before we got to a motion, there was discussion, so there is no motion.

Mr. O'Malley:

I would like to make a motion to rescind the subpoena.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we have the discussion on what Mr. Robinson said before we get to the motion?

The Chair:

First of all, let's do it right for a change. You do want to have the motion for a citation of contempt?

Mr. Robionson:

Point of order, Mr. President. I don't believe that any motion is in order.

The Chair:

What are we supposed to do?

Mr. Robinson:

I believe that the Chair has the power to proceed.

The Chair:

I'm not holding her in contempt.

Mr. O'Malley:

That would be to proceed to call a vote on the citation?

Mr. Robinson:

No, to issue the citation.

Mr. O'Malley:

Call the vote on whether we can issue the citation.

The Chair:

The man just said that he left it up to my discretion. I said I'm not going to issue a citation.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order, Mr. President. Could I respectfully request that the City Solicitor give us an opinion as to whether or not you have the power to issue this contempt citation?

The Chair:

You're the one that just said I did.

Mr. Robinson:

I respectfully request that the City Solicitor give us his opinion as to whether or not you can issue the contempt citation.

Mr. Stone:

Point of order, if I may. The question needs a little more amplification. You're saying the President alone, or Council?

Mr. Robinson:

No, I'm asking the City Solicitor whether or not the President can issue the contempt citation.

Mr. Stone:

The President alone?

Michelle Madoff:

Or the Councilman. Bill, can we expand it?

Mr. Robinson:

Well, I think the City Solicitor should be able to respond. If he can't respond now, we can delay it until he can.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I can respond right now. Section 808 of the Home Rule Charter provides, "Any witness who refuses to obey a subpoena or refuses to testify under oath or affirmation may be cited for contempt in any court of common pleas having jurisdiction." That's under the Home Rule Charter. The President and this Council doesn't have the authority to find her in contempt, only a court of jurisdiction. I'd like to explain just a couple of things. Number one, we did not draft the subpoenas. The memo I sent —

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order, Mr. President. Point of order.

The Chair:

We asked for a question. Let him answer him or her.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of order, Mr. President.

The Chair:

What's your point of order?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, my point of order is, I requested the Chair to ask Mr. Pellegrini to do one specific thing, which he did. I don't think it's appropriate for Mr. Pellegrini to start talking about another subject at this point. I would like to have an opportunity to respond to what he has said and take the appropriate action.

The Chair:

Okay.

Mr. Pellegrini:

But you won't give anybody else this —

The Chair:

You did say that I don't have the power to issue a citation.

Michelle Madoff:

Bill, are you through?

Mr. Robinson:

No, I am not. If I might, I'd like to withdraw the citation for contempt.

The Chair:

You're withdrawing.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd like to make my motion to rescind the subpoena for the following reasons.

The Chair:

It has already been done. The subpoena, you said. No, he said the subpoena.

Mr. O'Malley:

No, my motion to rescind the subpoena, if Councilman Robinson asked this Council —

The Chair:

I said the subpoena. We're not talking about the contempt citation. He withdrew the contempt citation.

Mr. O'Malley:

Now I want to make a motion to rescind the subpoena.

The Chair:

Is there a second?

Mrs. Masloff:

I second the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

Comment, Mr. President. I believe Mr. O'Malley's motion is out of order. Perhaps its intent is proper, but this Council duly issued those subpoenas. Reverend Simms has already been represented before this Council by Mr. Pellegrini, who is identified as Reverend Simms' counsel. If, indeed, we pass on this motion to rescind these subpoenas, we may find ourselves in court with Mr. Pellegrini representing Reverend Simms and Mrs. Brown and this Council. I think that it would be much more appropriate perhaps for Councilman O'Malley to find some other way to address his concern, but if this Council makes an attempt at this point to rescind the action on those subpoenas, I think we'll be jeopardizing ourselves legally.

Michelle Madoff:

Before we enter a motion, can I have my turn to be heard on the same subject?

Mr. Woods:

One subpoena has already been answered, so that one should be dead as far as this consent is concerned. So we can't withdraw that. That's already been served. He appeared. We're talking about one subpoena.

The Chair:

One to Mrs. Brown.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. President, I'd like to have the Solicitor give me an opinion if my motion to rescind the subpoena is in order at this time.

Mr. Pellegrini:

As long as Councilman Robinson says that his questions were not answered on Mrs. Brown's subpoena, we have an outstanding subpoena in effect. My belief is that your motion is in order.

Mr. O'Malley:

It is in order?

Mr. Pellegrini:

It is in order.

Mr. O'Malley:

Okay. I'd like to state for the following reasons why I'm making a motion to rescind the subpoena. First, in the Solicitor's letter to Council which states, "In regard to the subpoena issued to Director Brown, the subpoena calls for her to appear before Council on March 9, 1983 at 10:00 a.m. Council is not in session on March 9, 1983. The Finance Committee is a body in session. The time for appearance for Director Brown should be rescheduled for a Council session." So it appears that on the subpoena that requested Director Brown to appear in, in essence, it was the wrong time to ask the Director to appear before this body.

The second reason that I'd like to rescind the subpoena is, moreover, the documents requested from Director Brown are impossible to produce, because the Zoological Park Commission issues no contracts, has no employees or staff, and accordingly, cannot have an M.B.E. program. All contracts issued for reconstruction of the Zoo are the City of Pittsburgh contracts. Minority Business Enterprise's involvement in the City contracts is monitored by the Human Relations Commissions, and issues reports that the City Council receives, so that's the reason I'd like to ask for the subpoenas to be rescinded. First of all, they can't have no M.B.E. program, so there can be no reports on that program.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you for recognizing me, Mr. President. I was beginning to think, as a female, I was becoming invisible here, since a number of people down the other side of the room have raised their hands and been heard.

First of all, I think it's very important to address the bottom line of this issue. The issue from my perspective is not the subpoena, and it is not some of the issues that have been raised here, but the issue is that until Mr. Robinson started to play hard-ball and asked for pertinent information from various department heads, particularly Reverend Simms, he did not get the information, but when he issued that request to be here under a subpoena, suddenly that material miraculously appeared; and I think that's a very sad commentary.

I think we absolutely must get clarification. The Home Rule Charter does say that Council can have its own counsel. I've discussed this with Mr. Pellegrini. He informs me that, while we can have our own full-time counsel as advisors, which would be very helpful to somebody like me, when someone says, "Michelle, you don't prepare your bills well," well, I went out and I got an attorney to prepare the one on the fiscal advisor. He's willing to do it now as a favor. I can't go to an attorney all the time and say will you do this for me as a favor. There's a conflict all the time. When I need material, and the Mayor needs material, I'm sure that the Mayor's need would come first. I must admit that I asked Mr. Pellegrini to prepare something for me, and I have from to time to time, and he has been most helpful, assigned it to the Law Department, but there's always a conflict. I'm talking to the issue. The conflict is, for example, the issue was raised the other day, does the Home Rule Charter say that we should have a committee of three, or is, indeed, the Finance Committee --

The Chair:

Michelle, please stay on the subject, please.

Michelle Madoff:

My attorney, Mr. William Scott, says that Mr. Robinson is absolutely correct, that the opinion by Mr. Pellegrini is erroneous and by Mr. Stone is erroneous.

The Chair:

I'm going to call you out of order, and we're going to move on. Mr. Woods, you're not on the citation at all or the subpoena.

Michelle Madoff:

The citation relates to the fact that we don't get information unless we cite people.

Mr. Woods:

I would like to ask Mr. Pellegrini to come up to answer a simple question.

The Chair:

I'm not trying to cut you out, Michelle, but you're off the subject altogether.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not off the subject, Mr. DePasquale. I'm on the subject, because if we don't do this, we don't get information. We get $18 million transferred from 82' to 83', the information won't be ready for two weeks, and this dumb Council voted for it except for three of us.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Pellegrini, since you wrote an opinion, it says that the one subpoena was issued wrong because of the date. Louise Brown has to come to a Committee meeting. Instead of rescinding that subpoena, wouldn't we just have to vote to issue her a new subpoena and have her come in on Monday?

Mr. Pellegrini:

You could, or change the time in one particular subpoena.

Mr. Woods:

How would we change the time?

Mr. Pellegrini:

You just make a motion to change the time in the bill. I'd like to point, out though, on Wednesday I was making a technical objection to the subpoena. It was not only on behalf of Mrs. Brown, but it was on behalf of the City. She was there, though, prepared to answer any question. In fact, we submitted afterwards all the information on the Zoo that she separated out by the City contracts, so in every instance, when my opinion came up, number one, it had told the defects. Number two, it told you how to correct the defects, and number three, that it would be given voluntarily, so we provided a way for Council to get all the information it requested.

Mr. Woods:

Okay, Dan. Dan, in other words, there are two ways we can go about this; we can rescind the subpoena, or we vote to change the date.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Or you can vote to rescind.

Mr. Woods:

All right, but if we don't vote to change the date, it's just a dead subpoena?

Mr. Pellegrini:

It's a dead subpoena.

Mr. Woods:

Thank you.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, I have a question, Dan. It seems to be that Councilman Robinson is hitting upon a very cogent point, and I believe it's the kernel of the dilemma that we find ourselves in, and that's — are you saying that you are serving as counsel to the two individuals that were subpoenaed and also to Council as a body?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No. What I was saying is that when I issued an opinion on March 7th, what I pointed out to Council was that there were defects in the subpoena. Not only did I point the defects; I said if you want to correct these defects, this is the way you do it, and we attached the appropriate legislation to correct those defects. Number three, we said, the opinion said that those individuals had to comply with the subpoenas; they were valid subpoenas. We also said that we would insure that if Council didn't want to use the subpoena route, that the information would be provided. All of that occurred. Council received all the information that it wanted. Where there is no other information available, we went out and we generated information. When you get a subpoena, all you really get is information that's on hand, so the information was generated. We had the Human Relations Commission attend a Council meeting and separate out the contracts on the Zoo. We provided all the information, so, quite frankly, there is nothing more that you can ask for that anyone can possibly give.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. Who had authorized you to be the spokesperson for saying that you or that the Director of Parks would provide the information if Council would not pursue gathering the information under a subpoena? It seems to me that you're showing a strong partiality in this issue.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'd like to disagree.

Mr. Flaherty:

Who authorized you to make that statement? Did the Mayor's Office authorize you to make that statement, because I don't think it should be within the jurisdiction of the City Solicitor's Office to make a judgment as to if the material was in order that was relayed or in regard to strategy that this Council as a whole or any member of Council should take.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The example that I can give you, Councilman Flaherty, is that if this Council would decide to pass the bond issue at a Wednesday session, that I think it would be incumbent on me to tell Council that if you attempted to pass in the name of the City of Pittsburgh a bond issue at the Wednesday session, that you would not have a valid bond issue. These subpoenas were the first subpoenas issued, as far as I can remember, for a Monday session. There were some subpoenas issued in the early '70's for an investigation of the Housing Authority. They were done incorrectly. Councilman Robinson has made a statement that I told him how to draft them. What I did do is there was a request that did come down that said, "How do you draft a subpoena?" I said Council would authorize the issuance of a subpoena, and I would be very happy to draft them. I didn't draft the particular subpoenas. If I did, I would have drafted the subpoenas that I submitted with the bill.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't have an answer to my question. Under whose authority were you saying that the information would be provided without a subpoena? It seems to me that that's completely out of the realm of your protocol or jurisdiction.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, if you take a look at the Home Rule Charter as far as Directors are concerned, if Council request information, Directors are to provide that information. That is really not an interpretation. Mr. Simms is a little different, but Mr. Simms, quite frankly, was aghast that he was under subpoena, because he responded in a letter attached to the subpoena, so he thought that he gave all the information that Council wanted. The question that really — and, in fact, on December 9, Mr. Perry gave to Councilman Robinson a list saying that the Zoological Park Commission did not submit reports and a number of other boards, because they did not have contracts.

The Chair:

Mr. Solicitor, if I may, in that respect, you will guarantee that Mrs. Brown gives us the information that we want, unless she's subpoenaed?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Mrs. Brown is prepared, Mrs. Brown will be sworn, she will come to any Committee of Council, she will give any information that she has, and that was what we were going to do on Wednesday.

The Chair:

Well, that's the point. I don't think there's any need for any further discussion.

Mr. Flaherty:

Point of information is that there will not ever be a reason for any subpoena, then, as long as the City Solicitor, then, will always guarantee that we will get all the information that we request. I think we are making a mockery out of the whole idea, then, of having a subpoena, and the rationale or the flow of the logic would be, all we need is the Solicitor to say this information will be given to us. If that's so, then, and if that's going to be the law of land, then a subpoena is strictly a superfluous matter. When do we need a subpoena, then?

Mr. O'Malley:

When you don't get the information.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, apparently Councilman Robinson feels that we have not received the information, and I think we should extend the courtesy to him, since this is an issue that he has shown the greatest interest in, certainly more interest than any other member on this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I need two questions answered from Mr. Pellegrini, very quickly. Mr. Pellegrini when Mr. Simms was here with you with the subpoena, and attached the information to it, as you just stated, he was shocked that he was subpoenaed, because he had attached all the information?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, I didn't say that.

Michelle Madoff:

You just said that.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, I said he gave a report. The information that was requested, as you recall, was in regard to the sale of the National Building, $1.7 million that we received. Councilman Robinson asked for a report on the M.B.E. Program. He gave him a report that I attached to the letter. The subpoena that was requested requested information in regard to Parcel A. Parcel A was not part of that transaction at all.

Michelle Madoff:

Dan, you don't understand me. I'll try to clarify it. Until the subpoena was issued, Mr. Simms did not supply information on several occasions over periods of time. Is that correct? Various questions were asked he did not supply, is that correct? Yes or no answer.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The answer is no.

Michelle Madoff:

He got up here, and said he didn't have it. How could he have supplied it, if he didn't have it?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Well, I think if you would have read the letter that I sent up, the letter that I sent up said that the information requested was in regard to Parcel A —

Michelle Madoff:

Dan, you're missing my point.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Now, let me finish, was in regard to Parcel A. Parcel A is still in the hands of United States Steel Corporation and the Port Authority. The transaction that he's talking about is the $1 million National transaction.

Michelle Madoff:

But there were other questions asked besides that issue.

Mr. Pellegrini:

All of them were addressed in the opinion.

Michelle Madoff:

That's my question, Dan. Don't skip it; that's exactly my question. Until the subpoena and the questions were asked, Mr. Simms did not provide the information. As a matter of fact, I have 20-20 hearing, and he got up and said, "I don't have the answers to the questions." "Did he not say, "I do not have the answer to some of the questions; they don't exist."?"

Mr. Pelligrini:

The only way that I can respond to that is for you to read the opinion, and if you want a copy, I have a copy here.

Michelle Madoff:

I have read it, and you know that what I just said is fact, and my next question is, supposing this Council, which could never happen because of the makeup of this group, and God forbid the makeup of the next group would go along with whatever the Administration wants, so that if we ever had to go to court, it would be one person or two people or three people of this body going to Commonwealth Court. Would you then represent, say, Louise Brown or Simms or anybody else, or you be representing us, and I think that's the question that Councilman Flaherty's asking.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If this Council ordered, I would cite Mrs. Brown for contempt. What I was trying to avoid —

Michelle Madoff:

That's not my question, Dan. I'm not talking about the contempt and the subpoenas now. I'm saying if we ever go to court, whose side would you be representing? Would you not represent either? Would you step aside and they'd hire a private attorney and we'd have our own private attorney, or would you be representing us, or would you be representing Mr. Simms or —

Mr. Pellegrini:

I would be representing the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

But you can't represent the Council. We're the legislative body.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If Council desired to go to court and it was a vote of the majority of Council to cite an Administrative official or any other official, and I can't envision citing a Director, because under the Charter there's a specific provision that requires Directors to give information to Council.

Michelle Madoff:

But what do you do when they don't?

Mr. Pellegrini:

What you do is you call them up and you get the information.

Michelle Madoff:

And when you do it for a year and you don't get it, then what do you do? Do you think Mr. Robinson is doing this for laughs?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Mr. Robinson at the Wednesday session said he wasn't doing it to get information, so I don't know why Councilman Robinson is doing it.

Michelle Madoff:

Let me tell you where I'm coming from. Let's assume for the sake of argument that Sophie and I are going to take a law suit against our colleagues, and we feel that they've done something pertinent like the $18 million without getting the information, and we're going to court, and we have to have an attorney. Do you represent us, or do we need five votes? We need five votes, right?

Mr. Pellegrini:

If you had five votes, you wouldn't need a law suit, because you could not pass the legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

What happens if the legislation is passed and the legislation is in the worst interest of the public? What if the public is being had, and there's no way for three of us or four of us of minorities to get things done? Who do you represent? I think it's pretty clear.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. O'Malley:

The motion is to rescind the subpoena issued to Director Brown for the following reasons that I gave before, that there is no information available.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am oppose, and the reasons that I am opposed is because in the past half hour there has not been one mention of what is the origin of the subpoena and what is the issue at heart, and the issue at heart is, is this City being true to its commitment to minorities, to blacks, and to women as far as equitable participation in the awarding of contracts. Now, Councilman Robinson is the only minority member of this Council, and he's probably the member closest to the plights and the frustrations of the black community, and as a member who is generally regarded as the spokesman for black concerns on this Council, I feel that it is imperative that we support Councilman Robinson in this quest. I do not see any great concern as far as abuses of power. All Councilman Robinson is asking for is that Louise Brown appear with the pertinent information that he has requested.

In closing, I'm not going to get into the complexities and the intricacies of the arguments that we have heard in the past, and especially in the past half hour, but I am of a very strong conviction that what we are starting to see is a stacked deck in favor of quashing any meaningful investigation as to what this City's actual commitment has been to minorities.

Michelle Madoff:

I presume a no vote is to sustain the subpoenas? Is that correct, that's how you vote it?

The Chair:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

No is to oppose Mr. O'Malley? Is that correct?

The Chair:

Mr. O'Malley made a motion to rescind. Aye to rescind, no not to rescind.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I just said. I think it is a disgrace. I think the public is aware that bills are being passed in this Council, and we can't get information because the majority has cut a deal with the Administration. I vote no.

Mrs. Masloff:

I have not cut a deal with anybody, and my motion is aye.

Mr. O'Malley:

My motion is aye, and it's rather obvious by Mr. Flaherty's statement and Mrs. Madoff's statement that they don't have the slightest idea of what's going on here and what we've been discussing for the past half hour, so I'm going to try and clarify them, one more time.

Michelle Madoff:

We don't need any help from you. We don't need a translator. We already have a translator. We have Mr. Stone.

Mr. O'Malley:

Michelle, will you listen? Let me try and clarify this one more time about the subpoena. It says, "Moreover, the documents requested in the subpoena from Director Brown are impossible to produce, because the Zoological Society Parks Commission issues no contracts, has no employees or staff, and accordingly, it cannot have an M.B.E. Program, so there is no reason for a subpoena in the first place." I vote aye to rescind it.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council, I'm going to vote no. I'd like to explain briefly my comments. I think, first of all, we have a subpoena that is still in force. Mr. Pellegrini has been asked to review the materials that were voluntarily submitted to determine if they comply with the questions asked in the subpoenas, and I assume that he will be kind enough to come back to this Council next Monday with those answers.

As far the Zoological Parks Commission is concerned, I believe both Mr. Pellegrini and Mrs. Brown are incorrect in terms of what the responsibilities of the Zoological Parks Commission are. Both the President of this Council and the Chairperson of Parks and Recreation sit on the Zoological Parks Commission. I think they're well aware that the Zoological Parks Commission not only operates the Aviary but also operates the Zoo. I think everyone on this Council is aware that the Zoological Parks Commission almost every other week submits to this Council invoices for its business activities. I think everyone on this Council is aware that the Zoological Parks Commission does, in fact, operate the Zoo and does operate the Aviary. It's a known fact that both the Zoo and the Aviary have contracts that provide services, the selling of souvenirs, the selling of foodstuff. I don't think there's any doubt that the Zoological Parks Commission does do business and does do business with people of the majority community and can do business with people in the minority community and can do business with women.

Also, I think that Council should be aware that the issue of who Mr. Pellegrini represents is not an issue that will end today. It is a very serious question of whether or not Mr. Pellegrini can represent Mrs. Brown, Reverend Simms, the Mayor, and this Council all at the same time.

I think it's also important to know that Reverend Simms was jeopardized and prejudiced in his appearance before this Council, because Mr. Pellegrini had more than enough opportunity to also request that Reverend Simms provide us the information voluntarily and ask Reverend Simms not to appear. He did not do that. Instead he chose to only advise Mrs. Brown not to legally appear and not to give the information by way of subpoena, and I would hope that Mr. Pellegrini would think on those terms and think on what I'm suggesting perhaps occurred, and I think that it's unfortunate that Reverend Simms did come before this Council and did make an honest attempt to give that information on the advice of Mr. Pellegrini, and then Mrs. Brown was advised to do the opposite.

One last comment on this matter. I don't think anyone on this Council should be led to believe that Mr. Pellegrini's opinions are rulings. Mr. Pellegrini is not a judge. Mr. Pellegrini is not authorized by any court or legislative body to give rulings, or make judgments, and every time we ask him for an opinion, we put him in a position of making a ruling, and he has on several occasions given us conflicting opinions, depending upon who asked for the opinion, depending upon the set of circumstances. It is not fair to Mr.

Pellegrini. It is not fair to the people of this City, and I would hope at the very earliest possible time that this Council and Mr. Pellegrini and the Mayor would sit down and try to work out a reasonable means by which he can serve both of us and serve us adequately. I vote no.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may, I have indicated on more than one occasion that I think Council members are entitled to information, and in the pursuit for information, I have not done anything which would thwart that. When this matter came up of the subpoena, I at that time indicated I was opposed to seeking by subpoenas, and I think the record will indicate that I indicated that once you go into the subpoena, it's not like writing a letter, and what I predicted would happen did happen; and we went into a technical request, and when you send out a request by virtue of subpoena, as I indicated, it's not letter form, it's not something in a loose fashion, it has to be on target what you specifically want; and when you specifically say what you want and where you want it, then in that case you'll get a response.

Now, the City Solicitor in order to protect the Administration's position here and his interpretation of the Home Rule Charter has indicated, number one, particularly on Louise Brown as opposed to Reverend Simms, Reverend Simms was at a legislative meeting, and I think the City Solicitor has indicated that if Louise Brown were called to the legislative meeting, then she would have had to be sworn and testify at that time. She was called to a Committee meeting, so that is his contention on jurisdiction.

He did one other thing which I think is important, and that is he indicated that, in spite of the subpoena, they were ready, willing, and able to give them information and would give that information. Now, the purpose for a subpoena and the purpose for all the background leading up to it was to get information. The information is now being supplied. As far as last Wednesday, I want it clearly understood I did not take a position one way or the other. I was only faced with what was before us at that particular point. We had a stalemate, and as the City Solicitor indicated by virtue of the Home Rule Charter, the breaking of that stalemate would be in the Commonwealth Court as far as the enforcement of the subpoena in view of where we had gotten with it. It is my belief that if all the information has been supplied that they say they have, then there's no worthwhile purpose in going any further with it to a court and expending funds. That's where I stand, and at this point, I'm in favor of the motion.

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye, and likewise, because I feel that the subpoenas were issued, got everybody's attention, and now we have the information, and I think they served their purpose.

The Chair:

Tragically, certain members of Council have chosen to make a racial issue out of the issuance of the subpoena, which I certainly resent. I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of personal privilege. Mr. President, if you were referring to me, I would appreciate if the record would reflect —

The Chair:

I'm referring to Mr. Flaherty's statement and also to your statement. Mr. Flaherty and you make it sound like a racial issue in regard to minorities.

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you, Mr. President. Thank you, Mr. President, I want the record to reflect that, because I'd like to —

The Chair:

I think, if anything, we owe Mr. Simms an apology. He certainly has been in a —

Mr. Robinson:

Point of personal privilege. Point of personal privilege, Mr. President, if you don't mind. I think the record should reflect that the material that was submitted by Mrs. Brown through Mr. Pellegrini was not the material that was requested in the subpoena. It was not the material that was requested in the subpoena. We do not have that material. I did send a letter to Mrs. Brown last Wednesday requesting again the information that was requested in the subpoena, and I would assume, I would assume that she'll be more than happy to supply it.

Your comments about the racial aspect of it I think perhaps is reflective of your own sensitivity on this matter as opposed to anything that Councilman Robinson has said. I have not suggested or said that there was any racial implications, and I said so on Wednesday, Mr. President, and Mr. Stone perhaps will agree. That's why I want the record from Wednesday brought forward, that I felt that Reverend Simms was not treated the same way as Mrs. Brown. That is the truth. He was not treated the same way. Mr. Pellegrini has his opinion as to why that occurred. I have not yet made up my mind as to why that has occurred.

The Chair:

That's all I said and nothing else, and my record speaks for itself on racial matters.

Mr. Robinson:

That's for sure.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Stone	(Pres't)

AYES 5 NOES 3

(MR. FLAHERTY, MICHELLE MADOFF, AND MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion was approved.

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES 0

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2621

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution requesting the President of Council to enforce Article 3, Section 307 (Committees) of the Home Rule Charter, City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. President, I think it should be read into the minutes the Solicitor's answer to Council's request that if, in fact, we are in compliance with the Home Rule Charter, and this is what I received from Mr. Pellegrini. It states, "you have requested an opinion as to whether or not Council's present committee system is in violation of Article 3, Section 307 of the Home Rule Charter. Section 307 of the Home Rule Charter provides that the President of Council shall promptly following the election appoint any necessary committees. Committees shall be composed of at least three members, who shall serve for the term of the Council President, unless the committee is earlier dissolved by the Council President. All members of Council may attend and participate in the Committee meetings. Only Committee members shall be permitted to vote." It states here, "Council's present system is a committee of the whole whereby the President of Council appoints a chairman of the committee, and the rest of the Council members are appointed to that committee. Accordingly, it is the opinion of this Department that since each standing committee of Council has at least three members, the present system of standing committees is in conformance with Section 307 of the Home Rule Charter."

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might, in response to the Solicitor's opinion, the record should reflect that Mr. Pellegrini did not include with his opinion any specific citations of law or rules to indicate that, indeed, we are in compliance with Article 3, Section 307. I specifically make reference to the fact that under the rules of Council, which we adopted in 1982, and to my knowledge will run until 1984, Rule 9B on page 6 reads, "Each standing committee shall be composed of all the members of Council. The chairman of each committee shall be designated by the President of Council to serve for the same length of the term or terms for which the President of Council is elected." I would assume that Mr. Pellegrini is making reference to that rule but did not include it in his opinion.

My point is that the rules of Council do not supersede the Home Rule Charter. The rules of Council are to be enforced and enacted in accordance with the Charter. Now, perhaps we have a problem with these rules inasmuch as the copy of the rules that we approved in 1982 were dated 1978 and to my knowledge have not been updated and not brought into conformance with the Home Rule Charter; so my point is still that we are not in compliance with Article 3, Section 307, and perhaps we need to update our rules so that they are in conformance.

Just one other point, if I might, on this matter. Again, I would like to caution Council not to take Mr. Pellegrini's opinions as rulings. They are opinions, and I think we should view them in that light, and that is why I raise with this Council Rule 9B on page 6 so that you might utilize that section to see whether or not we're in compliance with Article 3, Section 307.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record. I spoke to an attorney who is prepared to give me a written opinion which says that the Home Rule Charter says that each committee should have three people, meaning that we meet prior to the Finance meeting, discuss, and have input from more than one person, and then come to the Finance Committee meeting with some input and ask questions on issues that we don't have. I think the reason the Finance meetings take so long is that we don't have enough staff or input.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to vote aye, and I'd just like to add one other word of explanation. If this Council has been impressed by Mr. Pellegrini's opinion and if this Council believes that there are already nine members on each Council, I would ask this Council to identify for me where in the public record the President of this Council, Mr. DePasquale, ever appointed every member of this Council to everyone else's committee. Since we are so concerned, it appears from Wednesday's vote, that we act as a committee as a whole, Councilman Robinson next Monday will introduce a bill asking the President of Council to appoint everyone to everyone else's committee with the full understanding that we will then obey the rules of Council relative to committee meetings and committee votes. I vote aye on 2621.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Also,

Bill No. 2622

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Section 11 of Resolution No. 1420, effective December 31, 1980, as previously amended by Resolution Nos. 559 and 835 of 1981, and by Resolution Nos. 417 and 830 of 1982 entitled 'Providing for the filing of an application by the City of Pittsburgh with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for a grant in connection with the 1981 Community Development Block Grant Program' so as to decrease line item PW-81-35 'McKinley Park Steps' from $140,000 to $112,944.79 (-

$27,055.21); and further, to decrease line item PW-81-25 'Lower North Side Traffic Plan Implementation' from $200,000 to $154,051.19 (-$45,948.81); and further to increase overall grant amount from $24,925,351.91 to $25,121,582.46 (+$196,230.55 returned from the Department of Housing and Urban Development to City); and further, to add a new line item PW-81-12 'Warrington Avenue.'

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2654

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing an Emergency Jobs Program; authorizing the City Controller to create a special trust fund entitled 'Emergency Jobs Program Trust Fund' (EJPTF); authorizing the transfer into the Emergency Jobs Program Trust Fund of one million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($1,750,000) from the Department of Personnel Code Account 1100-1 Transfer to Emergency Jobs Program Trust Fund; authorizing the Director of the Department of Personnel and Civil Service to make all legitimate expenditures from the Emergency Jobs Program Trust Fund for the purpose of employing unemployed heads of households in the Trust Fund for the purpose of employing heads of households in the City of Pittsburgh; and authorizing the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Personnel and Civil Service to enter into an Agreement or Agreements with the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee at a cost not to exceed $1,100,000, payable from Emergency Jobs Program Trust Fund."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

On 2654, I would like to have my comments forwarded from last Wednesday's meeting, and just reiterate my concern that while this program is perhaps a good step in the direction of trying to alleviate some of the unemployment problems in our City, the unemployment problem is a massive problem and relates to creating permanent jobs. That is the reason I introduced a bill today to reopen the budget so we might examine the true rate of the surplus and examine where we might apply additional funds to permanent job creation.

(MR. ROBINSONS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2654 FROM THE MEETING OF WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1983:)

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. Mr. Stone, does Council Bill, and perhaps Mr. Johnson can answer this for us too, does Council Bill 2655 reopen the budget?

The Chair:

Where are you looking?

Mr. Robinson:

Bill 2655, does that reopen the budget?

The Chair:

Yes. What is happening is that you are opening the budget to increase it by the increase that we got on the sale. You are then using the increase money to put into a special trust fund to finance the Emergency Jobs Program.

Mr. Robinson:

My follow-up question then is that if we pass 2655, is the budget process opened up for consideration of all items that were considered for the 1983 budget, all taxes, all revenues?

The Chair:

The Mayor is asking for the budget to be opened for this purpose, and, to be honest with you, I don't know if that is a general opening or a specific. I think that is your question.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay. I think that question needs to be answered before we take any action on Bill 2655 because if we are reopening the budget, then there are some other items that I would like to have discussed. If we are going to open it for this one item, then I would like to have it open for some other items.

The Chair:

Alright, let me ask this question now. I think all of you must realize that this is an important proposition program, and we must move with dispatch. I don't want to go into a long dissertation on it, let me just give some highlights if I may.

There are some 170 jobs involved. These people will be paid comparable wages for the six months that are there. In addition, they would qualify for unemployment compensation afterwards, which gives to them monies over a long haul, and, in an important occasion the way this is done, it is trying to take care of those who would be less able to take care of themselves at this point. Namely, if there is no one employed in the family past a certain more or less full-time employment, then those are the people who would qualify and will be 18 years and older.

This is an important program. It also addresses some things with the Pittsburgh Clean City Committee that are not done ordinarily and need to be done to help and protect this city and to beautify it. The program is a very good one, and I would hope that we could pass this as soon as possible. I am questioning, for you, Mr. Robinson, if it turns out that it is for the single purpose, whether that creates a problem at this point.

Mr. Robinson:

I'll tell you why it would create a problem.

The Chair:

What I was going to suggest is that we pass it, and, if it turns out that it is general and then it is a question of bringing more in, then we can. But, if we think it is not, then the program ought to go.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me explain to you my unreadiness. I have no problems with Bill 2654, other than I think Council needs to be a little bit more aware of the procedures, and I think some questions need to be raised about who are going to be these 170 people and are they the most needy. I have no problems with the general intent.

The Chair:

Pardon me for a minute. Relative to who it is, in fairness to the Mayor under this program, it is designed to get to those where there is no employment in the house, or at least—assuming someone is doing 20 hours, that is not considered full employment, so there has to be a lack of a substantial income in the house. There is to be a receipt of applications from everyone, and there is, as might be expected, going to be a lot of them. It is then to be put on a computer and to be randomly selected so that no one has any choice in it, other than a mechanical thing, so that it is done that no one can say this one put that person in, or that one put that in. That was one of the things that the Mayor was trying to protect because, obviously, when you are into this kind of program he was trying to be as fair as he might in selection.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, beyond those concerns, and I still think they are valid concerns because this Council did not get sufficient information prior to this program being put together or implemented; I think here is another example of why we need a committee system—we are talking about the worthiness of this project, as opposed to whether it is fiscally sound and whether or not it is servicing the people that need to be served.

I am more concerned about Bill 2655, and I am concerned because of our actions on Monday to rush through the Mayor's request to transfer monies, carry over monies from 1982 to 1983. We did that in the face of requests from this Council—

Michelle Madoff:

No, we didn't do it.

The Chair:

Michelle, you are out of order. Please, let him finish.

Mr. Robinson:

This Council passed legislation to approve that carry-over request when there was obviously an adjustment in the surplus. We did that without any knowledge of how that adjustment was made, we did that without the proper information from the Mayor, the treasurer or the financial people. There is an $18 million surplus, originally there was supposed to be $16 million. I think that that surplus is probably between $20 million and $25 million. If we are going to have a jobs program, maybe we need more than $1 million. Maybe if there is a $5 million or $6 million surplus that is still available, we ought to take that surplus money and create some more jobs, whether it be with the Clean City Committee, within city government, or with some other agencies.

My point very specifically is, if we are going to open the budget to make this adjustment, it should not be done until we get the appropriate information from Mr. Schillo, Mr. Schmeiser and the Mayor, and, until we get an accurate calculation of what this city's surplus actually is. We do not know at this time what that surplus is. Again, I think we will be acting in a fiscally irresponsible fashion to pass this bill simply because it is worthy. On numerous occasions, Mr. Chairman, you have admonished me for introducing bills that are noble and worthy, but haven't been thought out properly. I think this bill, 2655, is an example of that. We are getting in some extra money, and we obviously need it, and out of the clear blue sky we create a program for 170 people without any knowledge at all of how this impacts on our surplus.

I cannot support that kind of progress and that kind of procedure, regardless of the worthiness, and I don't think the worthiness of this has anything to do with it. If we can pass a carry-over bill without adequate information from the administration, and not concern ourselves about it at all, then I think we need to pause at this point because we are getting ready to do the same thing again because it is worthy.

I think we need to deal with fiscal responsibility, and I am very serious about this. If the budget is opened by 2655, then I want to reconsider all the items that we considered in 1982 for the 1983 budget. That is the way it is supposed to be done. If there is another opportunity to reopen the budget, then I think this Council ought to do that, and we ought to get that kind of information from the administration that we have requested before we take any action on 2654 or 2655. I don't see how we can be making decisions on millions and millions of taxpayers' dollars without the appropriate information and without even being concerned that our finance director, our treasurer and the Mayor have not even bothered to supply it to us. We have no written communication indicating that the administration will ever respond to our request to let us know what the surplus actually is.

If we have a surplus, maybe we can create more than 170 jobs. There are thousands of people out there who are out of work. In the minority community it is double what it is in the majority community.

I don't think we are acting in a responsible fashion, and I would respectfully request that before we take any action on 2655, that we get some serious clarification as to whether or not we are reopening the budget, and, if so, that we consider what the total surplus is and consider taking that total surplus and putting it in some sort of fund to create jobs.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. By holding up the bill, are we going to delay the program?

The Chair:

I would say yes.

Mr. Robinson:

The program was delayed by the administration, Mr. DePaquale. The Mayor set this program up. I don't believe anybody on this Council, other than Mr. Stone, even knew it was coming down the pike. That is not fair, that is not even fair.

Mr. DePasquale:

How can you say that, Mr. Robinson? We've known about this program for the last eight months.

Mr. Robinson:

No, we have not.

Mr. DePasquale:

I certainly knew about it, it was no big secret.

Mr. Robinson:

Do you know what the budget surplus is? No one at this table can tell me what the budget surplus is and how it was calculated.

The Chair:

It is my understanding that the budget surplus is in the neighborhood of $18 million.

Bill No. 2655

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Resolution No. 1383 of 1982, making appropriations to pay the expenses of conducting the public business of the City of Pittsburgh for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 1983, by increasing the revenue estimate for the Deed Transfer Tax to three million three hundred and eighty thousand dollars ($3,380,000) and by creating Code Account No. 1100-1 entitled "Transfer to Emergency Job Program Trust Fund", within the Department of Personnel."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

I am voting aye on all bills, but I would like to point out that we have not had that information available yet on the $18 million transfer from the '82 budget to the '83, and there might be more money for the jobs program since we have this almost $20 million surplus.

Mr. Robinson:

Aye on all on bills except 2655. We have not yet received from the Mayor's Office, from the Treasurer, or the Finance Director the information we requested on how the surplus from last year was calculated and also how this $1.7 million was calculated that would come out of the deed transfer tax. It seems to me until we get that kind of information that it is inappropriate to do what we are doing. Also, the City Solicitor was supposed to give us an opinion as to whether or not 2655 reopens the budget. I believe that Council Bill 2655 reopens the budget. I don't know if any other member of Council received an opinion from Mr. Pellegrini, but under these circumstances, I could not support 2655. My vote is no.

Michelle Madoff:

What did the opinion say? Is it open or not open?

Mr. Robinson:

We have not received an opinion from the Solicitor.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, aye on all bills, and this comment on Bill 2654. There has been a meaningful desire that we do something about unemployment, and it is quite obvious that if the federal government is cutting out 1,000 jobs, we cannot possibly pick up those jobs; but on the deed transfer matter, with regard to the Dravo Building, our original estimate was $1 million. It came in at $2.7 million. This is a windfall, so to speak. It is a one-time revenue increase, and this is something we don't have to tax additionally for. It is a one-shot income this year. It's an opportunity for us to supply employment for those hardcore individuals who do not have any employment in their homes at all. It will give 170 jobs for six months to those individuals and give them the opportunity to then still seek income out of unemployment compensation. It is not the answer to it all, and I think the Mayor, myself, and this Council obviously have to be appreciative of that, but yet it is, with the available moneys where we found some funds, a step in the right direction to try to do what we can with what we have; and I am pleased as this point, as I see this vote will pass, I think it is a step in the right direction for the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

(MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Stone:

Pardon me, if I may, just one additional thing, since that's passed. Everybody should know, and if you have anybody who needs it, they're starting to accept applications for this whole week, and they'll be handed in on the 19th of March, and whoever's within hearing distance, it's open to everyone; and in fairness to the Mayor, what he's attempted to do under this program, there will be no opportunity for anyone to pick one. It will be done in a random extraction from the computer, so that we try as much possible that there be no favoritism anywhere along the line, and I think the Mayor's to be commended on that selection.

Mr. Woods:

Bob, I hope you're wrong, because I've been telling everybody, and I read in the newspaper that you can't even apply until March 19th.

Mr. Stone:

No, you get the application, and then it you file it on the 19th.

The Chair:

They're taking applications in several places. Now one's in the lobby of the City-County Building.

Mr. Stone:

You'll be able the whole week to pick up the application.

Mr. Woods:

When was this in the press? Is that what is says?

The Chair:

It was in the paper over the weekend.

Mr. Stone:

What you're going to be able to do, and this is intended to save time, you'll fill it out at home, and then you'll bring it in on the 19th, so everyone has the same time in which to do it. Whether you're first or last in submitting it will not make any difference. It's not first come, first serve.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask Mr. Stone a question? Mr. Stone, when the information comes to us with a surplus, is there a chance that we could have more than a million dollars for an employment program?

Mr. Stone:

I think it's $1.7 million.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, I know. Is there a chance we can have $3.7 million, since we weren't going to have any surplus at all, and I predicted 15.3, it was 16.5; it's now 18. Is there a chance it could go to $3 million?

Mr. Stone:

Well, I think you have to look at those things where you're coming in a budgetary thing. Michelle, I'm kind of frustrated in giving you an explanation, because even if I tell you, somehow you're not going to accept it. A budget should be considered in a two-year period, and —

Michelle Madoff:

Then why do you always hold hearings in November and not in January?

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I'll leave it with that.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it's important that the public know that that money was passed, moved from one year to the next with three Council members abstaining, but the majority ruled, and we were had; the public was had.

Mr. Stone:

Yet some people voted to put the City of Pittsburgh in debt and didn't have the intestinal fortitude to vote for revenues to pay the debt.

The Chair:

It won't do any good, Mr. Stone.

Michelle Madoff:

I think people know what's going on.

Mr. Stone:

I hope they do.

Mr. O'Malley:

I certainly hope so.

Michelle Madoff:

I certainly think they do.

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2623

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution establishing a Cable Communications Training and Internship Program for the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on 2623, I'd like to make an amendment. Council will remember, at the session on Wednesday, there was some concern that our Public Works Department, our Cable Bureau, was not in a position to implement the program contained in that bill because of some restrictions of finances, etc. I think the financial issue can be addressed because there is money in the budget, but in terms of getting assistance from outside organizations, I'd like to amend Section 1 to read, "The Director of the Department of Public Works and the Superintendent of the Cable Bureau, are authorized and directed to develop and establish a Cable Communications Internship Program for the City of Pittsburgh in conjunction and under contract with agencies, organizations and groups".

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Stone:

One more comment, if I may. On 2623, I'm going to vote for it but with the understanding as was brought out on Wednesday that in fairness, he said he can't implement it for six months this year. The program I have no problems with. But when he tells you that he can't put it in, you can't then ball him out for not doing it. That's the point I'm making and as long as that's understood, I'll vote for it.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm in opposition to Bill 2623 which provides for the Cable Communication Internship Program for the City of Pittsburgh.

The reason why I am opposed is that I cannot see the pertinence of each member of Council having an intern in regard to the cable operation here in the City of Pittsburgh. It's my understanding that Warner Cable has a workshop that provides an opportunity for those in the community that have an interest to actually produce their shows there and through communications that I have had with Warner Cable I am even surprised at the leeway and I commend Warner Cable for the leeway that they do extend to the community.

I can't see the relevance of members of Council having a cable intern. I can certainly see the relevance, perhaps, if members of Council had an intern, perhaps, from one of our universities to assist us with our councilmanic responsibilities, but I think we are getting off the track by having a cable intern work with us. I don't think I can give any advice to a cable intern. I don't know hardly anything in regard to cable production. I don't know what advice a cable intern can give to us as to our official duties on Council other than how we may look on TV and what we should do to come across in a more enhancing fashion on TV. That's all well and good for all public officials but I don't think that should receive the official imprimatur of this Council that we have individuals telling us how we should look on TV. I think that's what we have consultants for, the political consultants, and I think they should be hired with private independent money.

So, I'm really at a loss. I have heard the reasons why this is a good program but I can't fully comprehend their meaning nor do I agree with them.

The Chair:

Excuse me. Are these interns going to be paid? Can anybody answer that question?

Mr. Stone:

Yes, they will be paid.

The Chair:

They'll be paid during the training period? I wasn't sure.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. As the sponsor of the bill, I'd like to respond to Mr. Flaherty's concerns. With all due respect to Councilman Flaherty, I can appreciate his lack of information and understanding of cable communications. It is a relatively new technology and I'm sure that many of us have had our first experience with cable by sitting here and having the cameras pointed at us. So, I understand Councilman Flaherty's unreadiness relative to this new technology. Many people are unfamiliar with all these applications and ramifications. I don't think there's anything in the bill which suggests that this is being done for any political reason or any political purpose. I think one example of what I'm saying is the fact that there is not any time restrictions. This is not geared towards making this program available within the next two months or the next six months and I can understand Mr. Flaherty's, perhaps, unreadiness relative, perhaps, to his own campaign and his anxiety in that regard. But let me assure Mr. Flaherty and other members of this Council that certainly we are in a new technological age, and a new technological age relative to communications. What I am proposing is consistent with what is being done across the country at the local level, state level, and at the national level, and this is only intended to provide to members of Council one more tool, to provide to the City one more tool, to be able to do our job a whole lot better.

Just as Mr. Stone, in his wisdom, has made provisions for us to get word processors and be familiar with computers, I'm simply trying to bring us into the modern era and I would hope that Councilmembers would view it in that light and not see this as some attempt to put on some grand production, political or otherwise. I don't think any of us here would be selfish enough to create a program for our own political grandiosement or an order that our own egos and vanity would be stroked. And I certainly am not attempting to do that and I would hope that members of this Council would look at this as simply one more attempt to serve the people of the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, the City has a merit Civil Service, Council has a patronage system. When it came my turn to choose, I refused. I turned it over to Mike Perry and said, "Mike, you run City Council staff, you pick whoever you want. Just make sure that they go through the merit Civil Service test and they're qualified."

My concern with this bill, Mr. Robinson, is Section 3. The Internship Program shall be designated to accomplish the following, —

Mr. O'Malley:

Point of order, Mr. President, point of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm asking Mr. Robinson a question if you don't mind please.

Mr. O'Malley:

Point of order, Michelle. The vote has already been called for, there can be no more discussion.

Michelle Madoff:

I cannot vote without this information. You interrupt all the time to ask questions.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm just saying that Robert's Rules of Order says that —

Michelle Madoff:

I need some information before I can vote.

The Chair:

Tell us why you're for or against it, Michelle. We're not going to debate it, okay?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, would you be willing to —

The Chair:

No more debate. You're out of order, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, would you be willing to provide one internship for each member of Council and just leave it at that?

The Chair:

Go on with the vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you be willing to change the language there?

Mr. Stone:

Point of order.

The Chair:

Point of order. Go on with the vote, please.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

	(Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 2642

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the waiver of the residency requirement for Paul J. McDermott to be employed on a month-to-month basis until 1 September 1983 as Assistant Director of Engineering, Department of Public Works."

Which was read.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mr. President, I would like to make an amendment on Bill 2642 and I'll state my reasons for the amendment, and the amendment reads, retroactive from January 7th up until July 1, 1983 which cuts the original bill on Mr. McDermott's extension by two months, and allow him an additional four months to find residency in the City of Pittsburgh.

The reason for that, it was always my opinion that everybody's expendable, but in this case, after talking extensively to Lou Gaetano, the Director of Public Works, and Mayor Caliguri, I asked him to furnish a list of reasons why Mr. McDermott's employment with the City of Pittsburgh was so essential, and this was the answer that I received, and I'd like to have it read into the record. "The importance of Paul McDermott to the Bureau of Engineering and the City of Pittsburgh is presently emphasized by the current Department of Public Works load and this level of involvement in major projects that are so critical to the City of Pittsburgh." Now, the following is a number of projects that are most likely to involve extensive law suits and will require Mr. McDermott's expertise. First, the Bloomfield Bridge toxic hazardous waste. His expertise is needed for the resolvment of the toxic hazardous waste situation which still needs to be resolved. He is currently attempting to obtain federal funding assistance for the already removed waste material and for the material that is still buried on the site, which must be removed at completion of construction of Pier 4. L.R.T. subway project. Paul has always been the City's representative and project coordinator for this very large project. His efforts to protect the City's interests as they relate to this project has been and is invaluable due to possible settlement of problems in the vicinity of the subway construction on Liberty and Sixth Avenue. His expertise again will be needed. Route 51 rockslide. Immediately following the terrible accident on February 16th, I assigned Mr. McDermott total responsibility for the clean-up efforts. There are already law suits filed, and it's pretty certain that additional suits will follow. Mr. McDermott will be required to testify. The Department of Public Works is now experiencing the largest Capital Construction Program in its history with major projects as the Bloomfield Bridge, McArdle Roadway, Forbes Avenue Bridge, Saw Mill Run Sewer Project, and Route 51 rockslide all under construction, such major projects as Grant Street reconstruction, Warrington Avenue reconstruction, Arlington Avenue design, and the Pennsylvania Bridge about to begin construction. Mr. McDermott's presence on the Department of Public Works staff cannot be overemphasized. At the same time, Pennsylvania Department of Transportation is about to begin construction on Crosstown, North Shore, and North Hills Expressway. It must be coordinated with the Department of Public Works as they relate to our streets and sanitary drainage, numerous involvements with our streets, and our traffic control. Paul is currently in the midst of reorganizing plans for the Bureau of Engineering to attempt to reduce the amount of our construction extras and overruns. So myself, I'm going to leave personalities out this. I feel that Mr. McDermott personally had enough time to move into the City, but under request of Mr. Gaetano and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, I'm going to vote aye for an additional four months, only because I feel it's imperative for the City, and leave personalities out of it.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to add one thing in there if I may, Jim. That is "no longer." In other words, I don't want to here about this again. If he doesn't have it by the end of that time, I want to add in there "no longer." Would that be acceptable to you, Mr. President?

The Chair:

I don't know if that's necessary. It's four months.

Mr. Woods:

I'd like to add one other thing. I believe Mr. Flaherty at last Wednesday's meeting asked the question was he paying wage tax. We were all told no. He has been paying wage tax since he's been employed by the City of Pittsburgh, voluntarily, and he never asked to quit. I think we owe him this courtesy.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record, thank you, Mr. O'Malley, for repeating what I said initially.

The Chair:

Question called for on the amendment.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed and the reason that I am opposed is that it is unfortunate that often times the word importance is used in very relative terms. We have just heard a glowing endorsement of how important Paul McDermott's job is. I'm sure that it is important but in terms of the relative relationship, it is no more important than the job that the fire personnel have or police personnel or the refuse worker or even the lowest paid laborer has in this City. Where importance does play into this matter is that Paul McDermott is fortunate enough to have very powerful and, in a relative sense, very important backers.

Otherwise, the average rank and file employee out of our work force of five thousand would not be given the time of day on this issue. It's very preferential treatment, very elitist treatment, and it should send repercussions throughout the workforce of this City because it is just bad policy, it lets off a bad symbol, and it's bad for morale.

Secondly of all, we're talking about an individual that's in the top one percent of the pay bracket for City employees. That alone shows that it is receiving even more preferential treatment.

I submit that the bottom line is that this Council, as a body, has already put itself on the line, has already acted in what I consider a most critical fashion by granting Mr. McDermott a half year extension. Now we're going to add insult to injury, throw salt in the wounds, and grant the individual another extension. I would venture to say that in four months if he still has not found a place in the City, there would probably still be sentiment on this Council to give him another exception. I believe it's discriminatory to the 4,999 other City employees and I urge my colleagues to vote for what is good for the entire City payroll, not one selected individual who has some big guns behind him.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you for the compliment, Mr. Flaherty. I didn't know that I had friends in high and powerful places. I always felt that I was discriminated against. As a matter of fact, I was promised the endorsement by the powers that be and never got it. I don't think I really have that kind of support. I vote for Mr. McDermott because I know him personally, I knew him before he joined the City, I know his qualifications. I know we're going to be involved in litigation. I think we're going to need him to protect the best interest of all the employees of this City. And that's why I vote for him.

The Chair:

I wonder if we could vote without anymore emotional outbursts, please. Just aye or nay.
Michelle Madoff:

I'm not emotional. I'm just stating a fact.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye and I'd like to say that Councilman Flaherty gives grand speeches but I still have to put what I feel is in the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh first.

Mr. Robinson:

I have to vote no. As Council is aware, I've said on several occasions that the original request for Mr. McDermott to be given a six month extension was sponsored by myself. I felt the six months was more than enough time. Mr. McDermott did not meet the requirements. As far as I'm concerned, he was terminated from employment the day the six months expired and I don't think it's fair or proper or respectful of our other City employees to let him go any further. I vote no and I'd like to have my comments from last Wednesday brought forward, please.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSONS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2642 - 3/9/83)

Mr. Robinson:

Comment, if I might, on the bill itself. I would just like to say that as the person who made the original motion to extend Mr. McDermott's time for six months, I am a bit perplexed because I do understand all the emotional and financial ramifications, as well as the issue of service to the city. But, it seems to me that six months was more than enough time because I believe Council originally was not going to allow Mr. McDermott to become an employee because he was not a city resident. We made a compromise and we voted for that unanimously, except for Mr. Stone who has been consistent in voting no if you don't live in the city. I think that it would be very difficult for me, at this point, to vote for any further extension. If Mr. McDermott is that necessary to the city, I am willing to pay the extra money for his expertise, and I think the people of the city would be willing to.

If Mr. McDermott wants to be a city employee bad enough, he should sell his house and take the loss because there are people within our city who have to be protected. I cannot support the extension, and I have no personal problems with Mr. McDermott, and I have shared these concerns with him in person.

(END - MR. ROBINSONS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2642, 3/9/83)

Mr. Stone:

I think everybody knows how I will vote before I even cast the vote, but let me recite it again, if I may. I have never voted for any non-City resident for any position in the City of Pittsburgh. To my knowledge, I hold a very distinguished record and I will not break that record so long as I'm on City Council. I have never voted for any waivers and after having said that, let me say this much. How I am voting is because of my strong convictions that there are 420,000 people in the City of Pittsburgh and they ought to be given first preference on any jobs in the City of Pittsburgh. But that is in no way an attack, personally or otherwise, on the qualifications of Mr. McDermott. I vote no.

The Chair:

Mr. Stone, your speech is a matter of record. We've held that about twenty times.

Michelle Madoff:

You never smile when I repeat things twenty times, you're smiling when he repeats things twenty times. Can I have a smile?

The Chair:

I've corrected you, too.

Michelle Madoff:

I know but could I have a smile when you do it? You smiled when you corrected him. I want the same kind of smile.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty presented

Bill No. 2698

Report of the Committee on Lands and Buildings for March 9, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2539

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts including the use of existing Contracts for construction in connection with renovations and rehabilitation of various Emergency Medical Services' facilities and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

Mr. Stone:

On Bill 2539, I'd like to move for a new Section 2, and then Section 2 will be the new 3. Section 2 is to read as follows: "The third party payer trust fund, Department of Emergency Medical Services, shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of the 1983 bond sale."

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 2597

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with a professional Real Estate Appraiser or Appraisers for real estate appraisal services in connection with the purchase or sale of real property by the City for the calendar year of 1983 and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2598

Resolution repealing Item C of Resolution number 565, approved June 25, 1980, which authorized the sale of property in the 15th Ward, being a vacant lot and a 2-1/2 Story Frame house at 4540 Gladstone Street, designated as Block 55-P, Lots 271-273, to Bradley R. Lanese, for the sum of $750.00. (Reduced from $2,000.00).

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2599

Resolution repealing Item A of Resolution number 673, approved July 25, 1980, which authorized the sale of property in the 12th Ward, being a vacant lot on Carver Street, near Lowell Street, designated as Block 125-B, Lot 164, to Clarence Underwood, as Trustee for Clarence Underwood, Jr. and Clarence Underwood, for the sum of $550.00.

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2600

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution repealing Resolutions approved on various dates authorizing the sale of property in various Wards of the City of Pittsburgh, in accordance with Act No. 514, as amended, and providing for the forfeiture of hand money."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2601

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain property or properties acquired at tax sale in accordance with Act No. 514 of 1947 as amended."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 8

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

With reference to getting information from our legal counsel, Mr. Danny Pellegrini is preparing for me within the next week, an ordinance or resolution or an amendment to existing bills that would provide for security in parking garages. Outdoor garages that are indoors would have cameras, security, or a guard moving constantly on some kind of vehicle similar to a golf cart that they have in some garages. What is happening in this City in garages is unprecedented, unbelievable, and has got to stop. We need lighting, security, and guards. He will present that bill.

I just want to share that with Council. In light of what happened to Judge Finkelhor, had there been better lighting, I think that might have been prevented.

The other item I would like to share with this Council is that, as Council is aware, I tried to get a bill through to prevent students during school hours — that means is a student is out at noon and has a note from the teacher or principal or identification from their parents saying that school is not in session, vacations and so on, they can go to arcades, but not during school hours. As you know, because of the pending ruling in the courts, I could not pass that legally. I then took it upon myself with the help of our very competent City Clerk and we sent out approximately 250 letters to people who are vendors and all we had available from our Finance Office were a list of distributors. They only went out about a week ago. We have thirteen unknown addresses. I think the Finance Office or the Business Office of the City would like to know that thirteen, and I will turn them over to them, no longer exist.

We also received twenty-five responses from people with little notes attached saying, "I am a good citizen and I will comply voluntarily, or I've always done that, to keep students out of my arcade during school hours." Out of 250, we have phone numbers and I plan to call them all, but I don't know why the City would have inaccurate records.

Those are only distributors. In other words, if a distributor has fifty vending machines that he puts at ten different places, the people who have the machines we have no records of them. These are the only records, there are a handful of them, of the copies of the licenses of people who have vending machines. I would like to point out that if any business ran like the City of Pittsburgh, in two weeks it would be bankrupt, or maybe a week and a half. We do not know who are the vendors. We don't know who the distributors are. But the best list that I have, we are getting a very positive response. However, 25 out of perhaps 3,000 sources is not really sufficiently meaningful to act as a deterrent and I think something has to happen to get information from the City, Mr. Robinson. So, again, I concur with the position that you're in. We don't get information. It doesn't even exist. It's not on computers. The computer may not be working in the Controller's Office, but there are computers in other departments. This is a disgrace.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, on another issue if I might. I'd just like to put into the record a letter concerning the situation at Community Action Pittsburgh. I'd just like to very quickly read this one. It's written to the Acting President, Mrs. Margaret George.

(INSERT - LETTER)

Mrs. Margaret George,

Acting President
Community Action Pittsburgh, Inc.
107 Sixth Street, 9th Floor
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Dear Mrs. George:

I respectfully recommend that the administrative responsibilities of Community Action Pittsburgh be assumed by the Board of Directors, through its Executive Committee, until such time that the Board has addressed all audits and evaluations of the Agency.

Under the present circumstances, such an arrangement would be fair and equitable to all concerned.

The response to all audits and evaluations should come from the Board and all audits and evaluations should be forwarded to the Board.

Yours respectfully,

William Russell Robinson
Chairman
Planning, Housing and Development and Secretary, CAPI

WRR:abb

cc: Byrd R. Brown, Solicitor
Joseph Jackson,
Executive Director

(END - LETTER)

Mr. Robinson:

I just want to submit this as a part of my continuing effort to get this Council and the City to substantively and positively assist Community Action Pittsburgh.

The second letter relates to the ongoing problems with the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge, and I believe Mr. Woods and I will be leaving here shortly to attend a meeting to try to resolve this issue. I'd just like to continue to appraise Council of the necessity for building that bridge. One of the reasons I introduced a bill today to re-open the budget is to explore the possibilities of funding that project this year out of 1983 funds. Thank you.

(INSERT - LETTER)

The Honorable William Robinson
City Council
510 City County Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Councilman Robinson:

As you know, the next scheduled meeting to discuss the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge situation will be on Monday, March 14, 1983 at 4:15 p.m. at Midland Ross Corporation. I expect that everyone who attended the previous meetings will also be in attendance at this important meeting.

The agenda is as follows:

1. Update on the State Auto Emissions Bill.
2. Work assignments agreed upon at meetings of February 14, 1983.
 - a) Department of City Planning.
 - b) Traffic flow plan - Councilman Richard Givens.
 - c) Post Office report by Bill Zakin concerning interaction with Councilman William Robinson and Congressman William Coyne.
3. Alternative funding sources for the Project.
4. Other business/concerns.

5. Wrap-up.

I trust that you will attend. Should you have concerns or questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Ms. Susan Cecchetti, Staff Assistant to the Executive Director, at 322-6448.

Sincerely,

William D. Thompson
Executive Director

Faye Wilson, President
Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge Committee

(END - LETTER)

Michelle Madoff moved to excuse Mr. Givens for absense from the meeting.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Stone moved to approve the minutes of Monday, March 7, 1983.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. O'Malley

Council adjourned.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I asked the City Clerk to have Mr. Pellegrini, our City Solititor, here to continue to try to resolve this issue around the subpoenas that were issued for Reverend Simms and Mrs. Brown.

If Danny could come forward, I just want to, perhaps, get some clarification relative to Mr. Pellegrini's letter that he forwarded to us, dated March 18. It was his opinion. Last week I had asked Mr. Pellegrini to please review the materials that Reverend Simms and Mrs. Brown forwarded to us to determine whether or not this was the material that had been requested under the subpoena. And if I might just read his second paragraph, it says, "The documents submitted were not those requested by their respective subpoenas. As my letter to Council, dated March 7, 1983 stated, the documents requested in both subpoenas did not exist."

My concern at this point is specifically relative to Mrs. Brown. Mr. Pellegrini, in this same opinion, the last full sentence on the first page and ending on the next page, reads, "With regard to Director Brown's response, as my letter of March 7, 1983 also stated, the Zoological Park Commission issues no contracts and has no employees or staff and accordingly, it cannot have an MBE program." That sentence in particular, I think, is causing some problems. One, I don't know if Mr. Pellegrini is aware that Article 4, Chapter 479 of the City Code deals with the Zoological Park Commission and in Section 479.01, Jurisdiction, it reads, "The Zoological Park Commission shall administer and establish policies for the administration of the Pittsburgh Zoo."

I raise that to continue to get to the point of whether or not the Zoological Park Commission conducts business. I also would like to indicate that in 1980, and I have copies of these documents for anyone who would like to see them, in 1980 the Zoological Park Commission of which Mrs. Brown is the Chairperson, did indeed do some business. They signed a contract, a five year contract for concessions. I'm even more concerned now because, evidently, there's some misunderstanding on Mrs. Brown's part that that contract was doing business, that that in fact was evidence of doing business.

Also last week I raised the question as to whether or not the invoices that had been submitted to Council periodically by the Zoological Park Commission are any indication that they are doing business. At that time, Mrs. Brown was unavailable and Mrs. Masloff, who sits on the Board, were unable to provide us with any information as to whether or not the Zoological Park Commission does business.

Without straining the legal points, I would hope that our Solicitor and the other parties who are concerned would address this issue of whether or not the Zoological Park Commission is conducting business so that we can get on with the more important issue of whether or not the Zoological Park Commission has been in compliance with the Mayor's Executive Order No. 1 of 1980 and whether or not the Zoological Park Commission is in compliance with Ordinance 28 of 1978. I don't know what Mr. Pellegrini's response will be, but in as much as he indicated, he represented Mrs. Brown. I would assume that her comments and his comments are reflective of his expert opinion and I'm sort of at a loss now to understand what is the status of the Zoological Park Commission and how that relates to this City's MBE policy.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Number one, I was representing the City, not Mrs. Brown. Number two, the items that were on the agenda last week as well as that contract you're speaking about were really ways in which the Department of Parks and Recreation denominate contracts that used to be issued by the Pittsburgh Zoological Society. I have instructed Mrs. Brown to stop the confusion in the future, not to even use that code account, it's a code account within her department, and not to use that on any City contracts.

The Zoological Commission was enacted prior to the present Home Rule Charter. All the contracts that you're referring to and all the vouchers that you're referring to went through the Department of Supplies. They are issued under the Department of Supplies and they are under the Department of Supplies MBE Program.

As far as phase one of the Zoo is concerned, we provided information, as I recall, that said something like approximately twenty-five percent of the consultants contracts went to an MBE firm and approximately fifteen to sixteen percent of the construction contracts went to an MBE firm. The consultant was done through the Parks and Recreation Department and the contract for the supplies was done through the Supplies Department. But they are not contracts and the Zoological Park Commission is only an advisory agency. It cannot issue contracts. The only one who is authorized to issue contracts are units of government as defined by the Home Rule Charter.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I think again that we have a conflict, and I say this very seriously. Mr. Pellegrini, in trying to represent both the Administration and Council, Mrs. Brown and Reverend Simms, is having a great deal of difficulty, I think, in maintaining any consistency. I think it's rather obvious that the Charter does establish the Zoological Park Commission. It's rather obvious that the President of this Council and the Chairperson of Parks and Recreation sit on that Commission. I think it's rather obvious, if you check through the records, that there were votes taken on the contract in question, the concessions contract, and those votes were taken by the Zoological Commission, that indeed Mrs. Brown's name is made reference to in a letter dated February 13, 1980. It says Mrs. Louise R. Brown, Chairman, Zoological Park Commission. This letter is from Sports Service, which I believe is the company that has the five year contract at the Zoo to provide concessions, etc.

To me it's rather obvious that either the Zoological Park Commission has the authority or they don't. If they don't have the authority, then this contract, I would say, is invalid and that five year contract should be terminated. If they do have the authority, then they are conducting business.

I don't presume to have all the information on the arrangements but Mr. Pellegrini's position, I think, is very inconsistent and it's rather obvious that we are doing business in the City of Pittsburgh at the Pittsburgh Zoo through the Zoological Park Commission and that the employees of the Zoo are under the jurisdiction of the Zoological Park Commission. The Code, in Chapter 479, very specifically spells out jurisdiction for the commission, composition, rules and procedures, powers and duties, and Mr. Pellegrini is the person who's spent a lot of time and effort codifying all the laws in the City of Pittsburgh and I'm sure he was aware at that time that there was a Zoological Park Commission.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Number one, I think my position has been very consistent throughout. The Zoological Park Commission can only serve as an advisory body. It has no powers as a unit of government.

As for my role of codifying the ordinances, I put them in exactly as written before or after the Charter. That I promised the Council. I wasn't going to make any changes in the Charter.

Number two, Mrs. Brown, in regard to those contracts, presentations were made to the Zoological Park Commission and letters were sent. They are an advisory body just as letters were sent to Councilwoman Masloff as part of the Cable Community Advisory Board by the bidders in that situation. It wasn't unusual but in the end it was awarded by the City of Pittsburgh. If you take a look at the resolution under which that contract was issued, it authorizes the Department of Parks and Recreation to enter into contracts.

The Zoological Park Commission is merely a name that they have in their code accounts under the Department of Parks and Recreation to identify expenses at the Zoo. It's a misnomer. If that is causing confusion it should be changed in next year's budget and Mrs. Brown informed me that she is. But they cannot enter into contracts. It has been my position and it has been my consistent provision that they cannot enter into contracts. The information that we provided to you, all of those contracts for the Zoo were entered into by the Department of Parks and Recreation, by the City of Pittsburgh. All the consultants for the Zoo, for the reconstruction of the Zoo, were entered into by the City of Pittsburgh. All the hiring at the Zoo comes through the merit selection under the Department of Personnel.

So, all of those things come through under the City of Pittsburgh. There is not one item that can be done otherwise. For it to occur would be illegal. There's misnomers because of code accounts.

The Chair:

Point of order, Mr. Solicitor. I'm a bit confused to this extent. The Boards and Commissions in the City, such as the URA and the Housing Authority and the Zoological Commission, they do all approve contracts, right? The Zoological Commission is doing nothing different in regard to approving contracts anymore than the URA Board, the Housing Authority Board or any other Board.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Zoological Park Commission is very similar to a Sinking Fund Commission or the other Commissions. They do not have employees or staffs. The Urban Redevelopment Authority and the other Authorities are really independent agencies of the Commonwealth and not the City and they have independent existence separate and apart from that of the City. The Zoological Commission does it as does the Sinking Fund Commission or the other Commissions that we have in the City. They just don't have any employees or can they enter into contracts under the Home Rule Charter.

The Chair:

I'm not talking about entering into contracts. I'm talking about approving contracts such as the concessions.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There are a number of Boards within the City that review contracts and give advice. For instance, this Council had a Community Advisory Committee that gave Council advice on the awarding of the cable franchise. But in the end, the City of Pittsburgh entered into that contract and not the Community Advisory Board Committee.

The Chair:

But specifically, Dan, can the Zoological Commission approve contracts?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No.

The Chair:

Then we were wrong in approving the contract for the concessionaire or any other contracts.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, the concession was entered into by the City of Pittsburgh. If you take a look you'll find all the City types of approvals —

The Chair:

You're right to that extent but there was taken by the Board to approve that contract.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, to recommend. It was like the Community Advisory Board recommended a selection and the proper Administrative Officials were free to accept or reject. It's merely advisory in nature.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Pellegrini is wrong, and I mean wrong in terms of the jurisdiction of the Zoological Park Commission. Section 479.01 of the City Code says specifically, "The Zoological Park Commission shall administer and establish policies for the administration of the Pittsburgh Zoo". That's one point.

Another point is that 479.04, "Powers and Duties - The Zoological Park Commission, acting by a form of its members, shall have the following powers and duties: To appoint with the consent of Council a professional Executive Director of Zoo operations for the Pittsburgh Zoo, which Director shall be eminent in his profession. The Director shall be responsible for the supervision of all current and future Zoo employees, which employees shall be City employees with all rights, benefits, privileges, pertaining thereto; To obtain animals and exhibits and purchase equipment needed for the proper operation and maintenance of the Pittsburgh Zoo; To collect revenues from fees charges for parking and admission to the Pittsburgh Zoo, and from the operation of amusements and the sale of refreshments and souvenirs; To pay all direct and indirect expenses related to the purchase of refreshments, souvenirs, the operation of amusements and the collection of admission and parking fees at the Pittsburgh Zoo; To deposit any surplus funds and collected revenues in a special trust fund established by the City Treasurer for capital expenditures relating to the Pittsburgh Zoo; To submit a projected Operating and separate Capital Budget for the Pittsburgh Zoo to Council each year on the second Monday of the eleventh month of the preceeding year; To submit an annual report to Council for respective Zoo operations disclosing all programs, expenditures, and revenues for the year within ninety days of the end of each fiscal year; To encourage and recruit volunteer assistance to aid in the operation of the Pittsburgh Zoo; To encourage contributions to the Capital Fund, Operating Budget or special funds relating to the Pittsburgh Zoo from private sources; To receive and act upon the complaints and suggestions of residents or voluntary associations; Having such objects and purposes in view as we provide in this chapter."

My point in reading this, Mr. President, is to indicate again that it's rather obvious that the Zoological Park Commission does have jurisdiction to operate the Zoo, that the Zoological Park Commission is not advisory, that the Zoological Park Commission is in fact responsible for operations of the Pittsburgh Zoo. And I think if we get the records of the meetings that preceeded the signing of the contract for the five year concession, you will see it's rather obvious that the Zoological Park Commission was operating in a manner that indicated it was not advisory but they indeed, they indeed awarded a contract. That may have been signed by the Supplies Department but it was authorized by the Zoological Park Commission which, in fact, does business.

Another example is that quarterly we receive from the Controller a list of our anticipated revenues and the actual revenues. Item No. 26 each month is Zoological Commissions and Receipts. We're obviously doing business at the Zoological Park Commission. They're obviously subject to the MBE Program of the City of Pittsburgh. And that contract in 1980 was subject to it. In 1980, Ordinance 28 was already in existence. The Mayor's Executive Order was in existence. These relate to our MBE Program and to suggest that the Zoological Park Commission doesn't do business and is not subject to the MBE Program, I think, strains the truth.

Mr. Pellegrini:

There's two things. Number one, since 1976 it has been our instructions that the Zoological Park Commission only serves in advisory capacity. That's number one. Only serves, despite the language, it only serves in advisory position.

Number two, you are correct that the concession contract was subject to MBE requirement. The MBE requirements were those issued by the Department of Supplies. The Department of Supplies, I assume, followed the MBE requirements.

So, in a lot of ways, what we're really having this discussion about is really nothing. I think you're saying that the Zoological Park Commission is subject to an MBE requirement and I said no because they don't have any employees and they don't have any contracts, but all the contracts that I issued for the Zoo are subject to an MBE requirement. So, it's not a question as to whether or not the contracts of the Zoo are subject to an MBE requirement but who is subject to a report. And the Zoological Park Commission simply has no employees.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if I may interrupt you, what point are you trying to make? I think we're all trying to find that out.

Mr. Robinson:

I think there are several points, Mr. President. I'm sorry if you're unable to follow my line of reasoning.

The Chair:

I don't think anybody else can follow you either.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I don't think you can speak for other members of this Council. If someone serves on the Zoological Park Commission, I don't think that your comments are timely or in order. Thank you very much.

Now, if I might continue, I think Mr. Pellegrini's comments about the Supplies Department following the correct MBE procedures is presumptuous on his part and I don't believe there's any evidence that that occurred.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I didn't say that except on the construction contracts where we showed that they did follow.

Mr. Robinson:

Fine. I don't think there's any indication that the Supplies Department is diligent at all in reference to this five year contract. I think this Council should be aware that the contract that was signed came in as the highest contract, not the lowest, but as the highest bid of all those who bid, which is somewhat unprecedented in this City to accept the highest bidder as opposed to the lowest bidder.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I certainly hope that it would be the highest bid because they were giving us money.

Mr. Robinson:

I don't think that because they're giving us more money is the only justification for accepting the highest bid and giving them a five year contract.

My other point is that while Mr. Pellegrini might be under the impression that the Zoological Park Commission is advisory, I think he should tell us who instructed him that the Zoological Park Commission was advisory, because I don't think there's anything in the Charter or anything in the Code that suggests the Zoological Park Commission is advisory.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Zoological Park Commission is not contained in the Charter, it's changed in the Code. It was pre-Charter. It can only be advisory under the Charter.

Mr. Robinson:

Based on what? You said you were instructed.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, I wasn't instructed, I instructed.

Mr. Robinson:

You instructed who?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Robinson:

Based on what?

Mr. Pellegrini:

On my interpretation of both the Charter and the ordinance.

Mr. Robinson:

When was this? Prior to your legal opinions?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Which one?

Mr. Robinson:

Either one.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think Solicitor Mulvihill discussed that with her several years ago. I didn't and I certainly reiterated it with her several weeks ago when we got into this discussion.

Mr. Robinson:

Were the members of the Zoological Park Commission aware that they were acting in an advisory capacity?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'm sure that they were because if you take a look at that concession contract, you'll find that I signed it, the City Controller signed it, the Department of Parks and Recreation, they don't hire and they don't fire, they don't purchase animals as far as I know. Every time the purchase of animals comes in, it comes in under the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Mr. Robinson:

That's not true, Dan.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think if you take a look you'll find that it's mostly a Department of Parks and Recreation request.

Mr. Robinson:

I think that there needs to be some clarification for the benefit of those who serve on the Zoological Park Commission. I think it's rather obvious that they have not been acting in an advisory capacity. I think that can be proven.

Again, and I say this with all honesty, you signed these contracts, you're advising Mrs. Brown, you're advising this Council. You can't stand on all these legs, Dan. You just can't do it.

Mr. Pellegrini:

With all due respect, I think I'm rather consistent here and who I am advising is taking the official position of the City of Pittsburgh, which is a Charter position. The Charter mandates that I take the position that is in accord with the City of Pittsburgh. The City of Pittsburgh's position is this matter is that the Zoological Park Commission is advisory. It can be nothing else.

Mr. Robinson:

Danny, who provides the legal counsel for the Zoological Park Commission?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The Zoological Park Commission, in the sense that it is an advisory committee, would only advise the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Mr. Robinson:

With legal counsel? Who provides them with legal counsel?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I doesn't have a separate legal existence separate and apart from the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson:

I didn't ask you that. I said, who provides them with legal counsel?

Mr. Pellegrini:

That answer is very important to arrive at the answer. It does not exist separate and apart from the City of Pittsburgh. As providing legal counsel to all agencies of the City, I would be counsel to the Department of Parks and Recreation, my department.

Mr. Robinson:

Based on what authority did you sign the concession contract?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The concession contract, under Title I of the Pittsburgh Code, requires that the City Solicitor sign all contracts of the City of Pittsburgh as well as the City Controller countersign. I am not authorized nor required to sign any contracts from independent agencies such as the Urban Redevelopment Authority or the Housing Authority.

Mr. Robinson:

Were the members of the Zoological Park Commission advised before the signing of this contract in 1980 for concessions that they were operating in an advisory capacity?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I didn't personally advise them, I don't know. But I do know that the decisions were made on how to award it and the ultimate decision was not made by the Zoological Park Commission but by the Director of the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Director of Supplies.

One comment about the contract. On that contract, it was the highest bid because they were going to give us the highest percentage of gross. The length of time was because of improvements, capital improvements that had to be made to the Zoo. Beside the highest percentage of gross that they were going to give to the City, it was also based on the highest amount of capital investment that they were going to place in the Zoo in their concession stands.

So, those were the two things. In fact, I think as I recall, I rejected the first set of bids because they didn't meet the legal requirements of the City.

Mr. Robinson:

You rejected them in what capacity?

Mr. Pellegrini:

As City Solicitor because it was a City contract. I didn't reject, I recommended that they be rejected.

Mr. Robinson:

Did you draft the final document that was signed by the Supplies Department?

Mr. Pellegrini:

As I recall, Ken Fields who was Fiscal Officer at the time, Steve Schillo, Louise Brown, Larry Yatch and myself, initially drafted the initial set of specifications that went out that were attached to the documents.

Mr. Robinson:

And you saw no inconsistency in serving as a Solicitor for the City of Pittsburgh and then as a legal counsel for the Zoological Park Commission, approving the draft and then signing the draft? You saw no inconsistency?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Number one, I was representing the City of Pittsburgh throughout. The Zoological Park Commission was only advisory agency. If they would have recommended someone else who we did not believe, or the Directors did not believe, in their capacity, was the proper ones to sign the contract, it would not have been signed. If they would have, in this case, recommended the lowest responsible bidder and not the highest because we're getting money, we would not have approved that contract in our capacity, and I wasn't Solicitor at the time, in our capacity as officers of the City.

It happened with the Community Cable Advisory Committee that advised this Council. It's not unusual. Everyone is trying to make it unusual but it's not that unusual.

Mr. Robinson:

Is it fair to say that your opinion as to whether or not the Zoological Park Commission is advisory is indeed a legal opinion and not a legal ruling

Mr. Pellegrini:

I think it's a legal ruling as far as the corporate body of the City of Pittsburgh is concerned. In a case called Enright-Cavanaugh and in another case which escapes my mind at the time, it says that legal opinions of the City Solicitor have to be given great weight especially within the corporate body of the City.

Mr. Robinson:

Given great weight?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes. It's not conclusive but —

Mr. Robinson:

If indeed this issue of whether or not the Zoological Park Commission goes to court, let's say this Council decides to go to court to try to determine whether it is voluntary or advisory or not, who would you represent or who would you be available to represent?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Number one, this Council cannot go to court.

Mr. Robinson:

I beg to differ but go ahead.

Mr. Pellegrini:

This Council can only go to court, except in an instance, where it's enforcing matters, for instance, on a subpoena question. That's the only way Council has a right to go to court. They have no legal right separate and apart from that of the City of Pittsburgh. For instance, Congress does not have a right to go to court. The General Assembly does not have the right to go to court.

Michelle Madoff:

You mean as individuals we don't have the right to go to court?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'm talking about Council as a body. And in only those instances and in the Forbes Neighborhood Association case, and there was another case which again escapes my mind, the courts ruled that Council does not have a right independent and apart from the City of Pittsburgh —

Mr. Robinson:

I didn't say separate and independent and apart. I said if this Council decides to go to court to resolve the matter of whether or not the Zoological Park Commission is advisory, who would you be available to represent?

Mr. Pellegrini:

What I'm saying in that situation, this Council could not go to court. An individual Councilman acting as an individual would go to court. Who you would be suing would be the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson:

Who would you be available to represent?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I am not allowed to represent individual Councilman. Period.

Mr. Robinson:

If and when the City of Pittsburgh goes to court, who are you available to represent?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson:

Have you been in court representing the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Yes.

Mr. Robinson:

When you are there, are you representing all of the officials of the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Number one, my main concern is the corporate body known as the City of Pittsburgh. I have represented Councilpeople when they have been sued individually in a number of actions, and we've gotten them out on the basis that you can't be sued. Only the City of Pittsburgh can be sued. We have represented other officials down to lowly employees —

Michelle Madoff:

They said that in North Strabane too.

The Chair:

Please, Michelle.

Mr. Robinson:

Let me just conclude by saying that I would hope that this matter could be resolved in such a fashion that the Zoological Park Commission would voluntarily respond to the question of whether or not they're going to be in compliance with Ordinance 28 of 1978 and whether or not they're going to comply with the Mayor's Executive Order No. 1 of 1980. I certainly respect the right of our Solicitor to his own opinions and I'm sure that the Zoological Park Commission Board will do what is correct. But I think it strains our credibility not to proceed on the assumption, and the very sound assumption, that the Zoological Park Commission has been operating as though it's conducting business and have been doing that in good faith, and there's certainly nothing wrong with that, and that indeed they ought to reassess their position, their status, particularly in light of Executive Order No. 1 and in light of Ordinance 28 of 1978. And I would hope that our Solicitor would be helpful in attempting to get some compliance.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I can represent the Councilman Robinson that no contract for the Zoo, any parts of the Zoo, any concession contracts, any construction contracts, any consultant contracts, will not be done in accordance with the Mayor's Executive Order and that Council will receive reports as to the MBE participation in those projects just as they would receive City reports. If the Councilman is interested to ensure MBE's participation in all aspects of the Zoo, I can assure him that they will be under the same requirements that City contracts are.

Mr. Robinson:

Does that mean also the five year contract that was signed in 1980?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The five year contract signed in 1980, I am not prepared to answer that question, but that was covered under the City's MBE and that was reviewed in the same manner that all City MBE contracts were reviewed. If you're worried that some contracts were not, because of the name Zoological Park Commission, were not subject to an MBE requirement, I can put your mind at ease. All of them were subject to the MBE requirement. From the construction contracts and the reports Mrs. Brown submitted, the numbers were in accord with all the goals that the Mayor sent out. So, I think that concern, I think we're doing that with all the contracts that go on at the Zoo. I keep trying to say that there are no contracts that are not subject to the City's MBE requirement.

Mr. Robinson:

Just one last comment, if I might. Is it your understanding that "subject to" means that you simply make an attempt to see the MBEs are included, or that MBEs are included?

Mr. Pellegrini:

The MBE's requirements on the construction contracts, they are included. In the construction contracts, it's mandated. In the consultants contracts, it's much more difficult and I think this time they were fortunate to get a major consultant that was an MBE and there was twenty-seven percent on the consultant's side. But they do make the effort. On a construction contract in accordance with the Executive Order, they were mandated and they were part of the construction documents.

Mr. Robinson:

But I'm particularly concerned about the concession contract, which I don't believe reflects any MBE participation. It's for five years. That's a long time.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I'm not familiar with that one. I could try to get you the answers on that one. If I had known, I would have provided the answers today.

Mr. Robinson:

I would assume that during that five year period, the Zoological Park Commission, in some capacity, would be able to address the issue of the MBE participation, even though the contract was signed for five years, that they are not excluded from addressing the issue of MBE participation for the remainder of those five years.

Mr. Pellegrini:

The MBE participation on that would be largely in the employment of individuals.

Mr. Robinson:

I don't think you can presume that, Danny.

Mr. Pellegrini:

I will check to find out. I don't want to get into the semantics again, but it wouldn't be the Zoological Park Commission that would check that out. It would be the Department of Parks and Recreation and the Department of Supplies that were required to check it out and see if there's an MBE component to that contract. I will have them check it out because that is a City contract.

Mr. Stone:

Danny, a couple of things real fast so that we don't leave some things unclear here. First of all, you don't do the job of actually approving contracts; you're approving it in form.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right.

Mr. Stone:

Okay, just so we understand that because right on the contract that I got from Mr. Robinson says, "This contract approved as to form and examined by", that's your function.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right.

Mr. Stone:

You don't determine who the particular individuals are.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, unless there is a legal problem with the contract and we reject the bid.

Mr. Stone:

Alright. A couple of other things. This one, as I see the space, there's not one for Parks and Recreation but there is for the Department of Supplies, the Director. But the next question that I'm trying to get here, and I'm not so sure, maybe that's where we are with the problem. If I understand you correctly, you're saying the Zoological Commission as such is advisory and therefore requesting of it this information is not forthcoming because it's not there. They don't contract for themselves.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right.

Mr. Stone:

But on the other hand, if I understand you correctly, you're saying that the Department of Supplies contracts for them.

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, contracts for itself.

Mr. Stone:

Okay, as part of that division. But on the other hand, when they do that, they're subject then to the MBE requirements.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's correct.

Mr. Stone:

So, every contract, whether it's done by Supplies for Parks and Recreation, done by Supplies for the Zoological Commission, still comes under the general executive order.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's right.

Mr. Stone:

Okay. It was coming through as if it was a dodge proposition.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Pellegrini, I have two quick questions. This Council, because of the efforts of Mr. Robinson, was issued the statistics which were vehemently denied as being fact, and turned out to be fact, that indeed minority and women contracts were approximately one quarter percent instead of the fifteen percent that they were supposed to be.

Mr. Pellegrini:

Two as I recall.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry, we checked it with the Director at the time and he apologized profusely and said it was a half percent or a quarter percent and if you took off $6 million for businesses such as oil, gasoline and automobiles, that "minorities are not involved in", then it came to one percent and that the Mayor found this abominable and it was shocking and now he was going to do something about it. And it wasn't until Mr. Robinson forced the issue and we got the information that something happened.

So, my question to you is, in that case, if one member of Council, in light of what you just said, decided to sue the Department for not having lived up to its obligation, who would you represent?

Mr. Pellegrini:

If one member of Council sued the City of Pittsburgh —

Michelle Madoff:

No, sued the Department Head, that would be the City of Pittsburgh then?

Mr. Pellegrini:

No, the Department has no existence separate and apart from the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

That's what I want clarification on.

Mr. Pellegrini:

If one member of Council would sue, you're just a taxpayer suing the City.

Michelle Madoff:

So, in other words, if Mr. Robinson and some people in the community felt that the issue had misrepresented, that one percent was indeed not fifteen percent, and decided to sue the City, you would then represent the City and some other attorney would represent that person in Council, that is, Mr. Robinson or myself or someone else who is suing. Is that correct?

Mr. Pellegrini:

Perhaps the most significant case involving was the impoundment case back in '73 and '74 involving President Nixon impounding funds. A member of Congress, with his own individual attorney, sued President Nixon. You always hear that Legislators sue and Congressmen sue. Generally they are funded by either themselves or something like the Rocky Mountain Foundation or one of those foundations.

Generally what would happen is that if I have to represent, if you would sue or if anybody would sue representing this body, maybe you would want to do it and Councilman Flaherty wouldn't want to do it, he'd file a suit on the other side. But the rule is, Council's individual members have no powers separate and apart from Council.

Michelle Madoff:

To sue the City.

Mr. Pellegrini:

You cannot act in a representative capacity to sue the City.

Michelle Madoff:

Suppose a member of Council wishes to sue another member of Council.

Mr. Pellegrini:

That's a cat and dog fight to be honest.

Michelle Madoff:

Who would you represent?

Mr. Pellegrini:

I wouldn't represent anybody. I'd run.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to be sure. Thank you.

The Chair:

Any other Unfinished Business?

Michelle Madoff:

I have one other issue on Unfinished Business, Mr. DePasquale. When the issue of giving money to minority banks arose, Mr. Robinson, that was your bill to give a percentage to minority banks, I believe the Finance Chairman said that he would not do that. If it meant that the bank in the City of Pittsburgh couldn't take it, he would not go out of the City to give money to a bank out of the City. Is that correct, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

I said that we're not going to look all over the country to give money to banks. We're going to keep the money here to help improve our own economy.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I would like to point out that I will be turning this over to our new Controller, Mr. Flaherty, a list that was given to me about two or three years ago of all the companies that we do business with in the City, and they are in Los Angeles, California, in Rockwell, Illinois, in Wisconsin, etc., and there are hundreds of them, and I just thought we ought to have that for the record. In light of the fact that we're going to be having a public hearing, I believe sponsored by Councilman Flaherty and seconded by myself, that we have a hearing so that we have the same situation here that they have in Boston where we can mandate the hiring of local citizens to create jobs for our own people.

The Chair:

Thank you.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2737

Report of the Committee on Finance for March 16, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2644

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 619, approved July 2, 1981, effective July 13, 1981, as amended by Resolution No. 902, approved September 17, 1981, effective September 22, 1981, entitled, 'Providing for a Contract or Contracts for Step Reconstruction at various locations in the City of Pittsburgh, including private property and other work incidental thereto; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof,' by increasing the project allocation by Seven Thousand ($7,000.00) Dollars."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone

Michelle Madoff
Mrs. Masloff

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 8

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Mr. Woods presented

Bill No. 2739

Report of the Committee on Supplies for March 16, 1983 transmitting one ordinance to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 2507

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title One, Administrative, Chapter 161, Contracts. Sections 161.07, by reducing the amount making a sealed bid procedure unnecessary and conforming the requirement for separate specifications to state law."

Which was read.

The Chair:

With a negative recommendation, vote aye to approve the bill, nay to vote against it. Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am supportive and the reason that I am supporting it is essentially I heard all of the debate in the Committee Meeting on Wednesday and I'm convinced that there's not one good reason to oppose the bill. Essentially what the bill calls for is that is just says that any contract that is going out in excess of $3,000 shall be submitted to the process of having a sealed bid.

I believe that it is good to have this for the sake of accountability purposes. The reason was put forth that if we reduce it from the current Councilmanic amount from $5,000 to $3,000, then we are going to cause more work for Council. Council then would have to consider approximately a few hundred more extra resolutions. I believe all of us on Council know that considering a few hundred extra minor resolutions may tax this body an extra hour over a year's period of time, perhaps two hours. So, I don't believe that's a very compelling argument

More importantly, we heard the argument that by reducing the Councilmanic amount from $5,000 to $3,000 enhances minority participation in the awarding of contracts. And I think if we didn't know it prior to Wednesday, we certainly know it now that that is a very cruel joke. When we see that minorities are only partaking of approximately 1.8 percent of the contracts granted in this City. So, I don't believe that that is a very good argument either.

The bottom line is, I believe that we should support this because it tends to curtail the suspicions or the complacencies of awarding contracts to heavy contributors in a political sense. I'm a firm believer that our process needs firmed up. I believe that this is a step in firming that process up even more. It gives this Council more controls and it builds in more accountability into the system. And the bottom line is, I think the taxpayers will tend to be greatly helped through this because I believe when contracts are given out to heavy political contributors, often times they are greatly inflated in their value and it's a waste of taxpayers' dollars.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I was here in this Council when this bill came in to try to streamline government. I think all of us have to be aware that anything we can do to cut the taxes for the people of the City of Pittsburgh is paramount. I disagree with Mr. Flaherty that these are big contracts, we're talking about $3,000 and $5,000 contracts. As far as contributors go, that is the Democratic system. I believe in this country that if anyone wants to make a donation to anybody that's running for elective office or any charitable institution that he feels free to do so. In fact, our income tax statements even have blocks where you can knock off or you can actually put money set aside for a particular party. So, I can't agree with that particular argument.

However, I do believe in the taxes. Someway, someplace, I think government must do something for not only the minority contractors, but for small businesses that are trying to start out.

I would then ask the Chief Clerk if a letter would go to our Legal Department asking if someplace along the line, either through a company's gross receipts or their net profits, if there could be some imaginary line and I would have to give that an X quality, like $100,000 or whatever the case might be, wherein only certain small business could compete for these very small contracts that might go out. Otherwise, eliminating to some degree the more larger firms that can bid on anything and everything and underbid anybody and everybody. I don't know if that's legal or not but would like, at least, to look into that particular entity. Hopefully, something might come out of that particular dialogue. But for the reasons of this paperwork, for the reasons of saving those tax dollars and trying to streamline the operation of government, I vote no.

Michelle Madoff:

After the fiasco the other day of finding out that minorities and women were receiving less than one percent of the business of the City while we've been lied to for years, thanks to the effort and really staunch pursuance of Mr. Robinson we found out the facts. And when you talk about only $3,000, and when you talk about $3,000 over and over again to the same contractors, who I believe come in as the heavy hitters with the brown bags at election time, I think what we're really saying is the old adage, I think the old comment that Mr. Dirksen made, "A million here and a million there, pretty soon it adds up to real money." I think this Council can devote its time to the few minutes it will take to not only get the name of the corporation but the principles behind it to find out if it's indeed minorities or women. And we should certainly support this bill. I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

When I sponsored Council Bill 2507, I certainly took into consideration that the major reason that the Administration indicated that this bill was necessary was to increase minority participation in the City of Pittsburgh. There were three bills submitted at that time. All of those bills were represented as having the potential to increase minority participation. I don't think there's any evidence that those bills, or any kind of actions that have flown from them, have indeed significantly increased minority participation. That's one of the reasons why I feel that we ought to support 2507.

The second reason is that I think it will give us more accountability in terms of the business activities, particularly in our Supplies Department, and I think it will give us more control over the contracts.

I agree with Mr. Flaherty that it's not going to take more than two or three hours of our time to go over these additional contracts, and I think it's time well spent to make sure that the taxpayers' money is well spent, and to make sure that if we have in the City of Pittsburgh a Minority Business Enterprise Program, that it is effective. Mr. Givens suggested some kind of program that would assure small business people an opportunity to do business with the City. Perhaps what he is referring to is a sheltered market program which I have recommended by way of legislation, and hopefully, this Council will be kind enough to support the whole notion of establishing a Minority Business Enterprise Commission to oversee our total program in the City of Pittsburgh and that they will give support to the whole notion that there should be a sheltered market program which would allow minorities and women to be assured of participation in the business activities of this City, of its Boards and its Authorities.

I think 2507 is very timely and very much needed and I vote yes.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, due to inflation, periodically the amount or the demarcation between those with bid and without bid is increased. That's not unusual, that's been done for many years. Obviously it had to be done with the spiraling inflation that we've had in recent years.

It's been mentioned here that it's only a few minutes of this Council's time. To say that is not to understand the whole process because there's staff of the Administration and staff of our Council who work on these programs. So, we're now talking about not just pennies or a few minutes, we're talking many, many dollars of involvement of a hundred pieces of legislation that come through this Council that have to be taken care of at least three times in our writing and how many times through the Administration.

I think we ought to get down to the other one which, I think, is the meat of it all. Originally, as I understand it, this bill was designed to help the minority and small business individuals or organizations. It did provide an opportunity to help. It is true, and one should not pass that, but the implementation is suspect. Nevertheless, no one has questioned that there still remains the ability to help. I think it would be cruel to cut out the ability to help under the guise that you're trying to help someone when you cut out the ability to help somebody.

I would like my remarks from last Wednesday brought forward and I vote no on this bill.

(BEGINNING - COUNCIL'S REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 2507 - 3/16/83)

The Chair:

Mr. Jacoby, do you have some information for us?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes, we do. We have several handouts and quite a bit of information.

The Chair:

Do you want to hand it out and save us the suspense of guessing what you made?

Michelle Madoff:

Why didn't we have it before today, wasn't it ready?

Mr. Jacoby:

It was just brought off the typewriter about twenty minutes ago.

Michelle Madoff:

Oh, my god, that is like our $18 million that we haven't gotten you to break down yet. It isn't off the typewriter yet.

The Chair:

Alright, let's go back.

Mr. Jacoby:

We have spent the last three weeks gathering data, the last week working quite dilligently pulling together the data you have before you now. Before I go into the details, and while you take a moment to look it over, let me give you a little bit of background on what I have discovered as our position on minority business participation in the Department of Supplies.

Following a variety of discussions with my staff in review of our files, and some discussions with minority vendors, I have attempted to discover what it is that we have been doing to encourage minority participation in city business. I find that there are a variety of things which we have done, some of them not as completely as we would like, but many steps in the right direction. Let me review very briefly some of those with you.

Some of the major things that we have done in response to our difficulty in having minorities doing business with the city, one of the most important things we've done is to amend our bonding requirements in several areas, so that minority firms which are not heavy in capital are able to do business with us. We have ways in bonding—

Michelle Madoff:

You didn't do that, this Council did it. I just want to get that straight.

Mr. Jacoby:

This Council did it, Mr. Yatch did it, the Mayor did it. Collective is we, is the City of Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to be sure what we meant.

Mr. Jacoby:

Believe me, I do not take credit for this person.

The Chair:

Alright, let's get on with it.

Mr. Jacoby:

In many cases, the bonding requirement for purchases under $25,000 have been waived; the bid bond requirement, the amount of the bid bond, in many cases which used to be 50 percent, has been reduced to 10 percent; we have permitted the submission of certified checks in places of bid bonds; we have, in addition to that—in 1981 I believe, raised the amount of formal contract price from $2,000 to $5,000, partially to allow the Supplies Department to contact more minority bidders on smaller purchases. We have participated in the Minority Fair for the last seven years, where we assist minority businesses by advising them on how to bid for city products, what products are available for city bid.

The Chair:

Just a minute, Mr. Jacoby, you were asked to bring information here, the worst thing that could happen to us is to have you bring the information here and people not listen while you are doing it. Until you get order, you just keep quiet. When we get some order at this table, we will open it up.

Michelle Madoff:

I might point out that when Mr. Yatch brought a report he worked on for six months, on the garage, Mr. Stone was not present to listen to it.

The Chair:

Michelle, you were disrupting his delivery—

Michelle Madoff:

No, we were discussing, we were caucusing on the magnitude of how disgusting this report is.

Mr. Woods:

If you would let him finish, then he will go over this report column by column, instead of having your sidebar conversations, then everybody here can understand.

Michelle Madoff:

Fine, and when you have your sidebar conversations I'll—

The Chair:

Michelle, you are out of order now. Mr. Jacoby, you proceed. If you get any more interruptions and sidebars, you are to stop. If anyone wants to start any discussions, leave the table and do your own conference. Proceed.

Mr. Jacoby:

At the Minority Fair, as you can see from the packet of materials we have given you, we have our buyer stationed at the fair all day. Yesterday was the day of the fair. We do encourage people to sign up for our bidders list. As part of the packet are two versions of the list, both in alphabetical order and by commodity listing. We have built a minority vendor list of some 400 vendors over the years, and we do use it.

We have also established policies within our department for the phone quote and the inquiry system, whereby whenever a request to purchase is received in one of those categories, the buyer is instructed to contact every minority that we have on our bidders list for that particular commodity and advise them of the availability of the contract, and to send them out the specifications for that contract before the formal purchasing is completed.

In addition to that, I don't want to go through the variety of associations and committees which we have joined and to which we regularly send members; but our buyers do attend the minority councils and programs on an on-going basis, and they are all advised that it is very, very important in our department that we stress the minority purchasing.

Let me turn now to the sheets that I just gave you. What I want to stress to you is this, it has always been my policy whenever a question is asked of me that I give you a truthful answer, whether it is good, bad or indifferent. What you have in front of you, as has been gathered by my staff, are very truthful answers. What I have already heard from you in quiet discussions is that they are not good. No one is more displeased with them than I am. I reviewed them with the Mayor; he is very displeased with them. I reviewed them with Councilman Woods, and he has also expressed his displeasure with them. Let us go through them right now, and we can all just—

The Chair:

Mr. Jacoby, in fairness, what you are giving us is a report prior to your coming on as the director.

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes, I have now been the director for two months.

The Chair:

You were in in 1983, and these are 1981 and 1982.

Mr. Jacoby:

This is the data that we have available in our office, and that what we could gather information on. Anything prior to the year 1981 has already been stored in our warehouse and would take us several months to reach.

The Chair:

That is not what I was after, I just noticed the years.

Mr. Jacoby:

What we have done is we've broken down our purchases into categories, as we do with all of our normal purchases, and displayed for you the activity that we have had with minority contractors as opposed to that which we have had with majority contractors. As you can see, if you look at certain categories the result is less than satisfactory.

The phone quote is one area, that while there is not significant dollars involved, where the results have been at least palatable perhaps. In the phone quote area, almost 50 percent of all of our inquiries do go to minorities. We have, in 1981, awarded eight of our contracts to minorities through phone quotes, and, in 1982, that number was raised to 17. The disappointing feature is that the dollar amount of those contracts is not significant at all. It does, however, display that in the phone quote system we have been more successful in attracting minority businesses than in the large contract system.

If you look at the contracts under $5,000, you will also see that the number of minority contracts, while it is not large, is a greater percentage than in the very large contracts. In the very large contracts, the results have been abysmal at best.

While I do not make any excuses for these numbers, let me point out for just a moment, however, some rationale for the large contracts. These numbers include various commodities that we purchase in which we know of no minority vendors. These are such items as gasoline, tires, parts to fit General Motors and Dodge cars, and there simply is no one we know of that provides these services. I venture to say that when you ask Exxon and Boron to bid against an independent gasoline dealer it would be hard, if not impossible, for the independent dealer to beat them out on a price. We purchase on the average of $2 million dollars worth of gasoline each year, and that is part of that number.

In the construction contract area, this data basically is not available in our office. The law requires that the Human Relations Commission certify and monitor that all construction contracts include a 15 percent utilization of minority firms within the contracts. What we have done in the small contract items, however, is to break them down and bid them out in their sub-parts, that way hopefully we can attract the minority contractor when we break down the contract into plumbing, heating, electrical components.

The Chair:

George, while you are on that one, can I just touch one thing that always concerned the minority contractors, the genuine people? Are we doing anything to weed out the fronting of minority representation? You know, if you turn around and put a minority person up front and the back influence is someone who can still compete, and they wipe out the sincere minority contractor; what are we doing about that one?

Mr. Jacoby:

The Human Relations Commission, in the construction field, is responsible for certifying the various firms as minority firms or not as minority firms. In our office, when someone comes in and asks to be classified as a minority firm, we have a questionnaire which we ask them to fill out to verify that they are in fact—

The Chair:

But by now they know how to answer those questions, and I am still trying to get to the substance of that.

Mr. Jacoby:

The system is there, does the system work? I would suspect that there are instances where some of that takes place. We do not have a staff to go out and verify the stock ownership of any significant companies, for example.

The Chair:

Okay, we'll address that later. Go ahead.

Mr. Robinson:

Unfortunately, I didn't have a chance to go over this material with Mr. Jacoby in advance, so I hope Council will bear with me as I try to get some information.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. Point of personal privilege. You did not have a chance—is that because you were not approached?

Mr. Robinson:

I didn't have a chance to go over this material with Mr. Jacoby.

Michelle Madoff:

The reason I am interested is I know that Mr. Woods saw it, I didn't see it and I feel there is some kind of preference.

The Chair:

Can I make a suggestion? If you want time, do you have any objections to holding it for a week?

Mr. Robinson:

I believe I can get the information I need right now. If it appears to be too time consuming, I would be more than happy to get the information at a later date.

The Chair:

No, no, I'm just not trying to cut you off, but if you need more time, I'll give you all the time you need.

Mr. Robinson:

I appreciate that.

George, am I correct that the Supplies Department handles construction contracts, service contracts and supplies contracts?

Mr. Jacoby:

We handle them to the extent that we are the vehicle which formally advertises them. We, in many cases, are not the person who writes the specifications, nor do we make determinations who was the lowest responsible bidder. In all cases, when we receive the bids back from the vendors, we forward them on a tab sheet to the requesting department and wait for their recommendation.

Mr. Robinson:

In terms of following up to determine at what status the Minority Business Enterprise Program is, do you have a person in your department that is identified, who has that specific responsibility?

Mr. Jacoby:

I have just identified Debora Miscovich, since my appointment, as that person.

Mr. Robinson:

Are you aware of anyone else that had that responsibility?

Mr. Jacoby:

No, I am not. I don't think it is fair to say that there wasn't anybody, I am not aware of that person.

Mr. Robinson:

Could you try to find that information for us, if there was somebody who was responsible before Miss Miscovich?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Mr. Robinson:

In terms of making sure that the statistics are put together, is there someone on your staff who does that?

Mr. Jacoby:

That would also be Debora Miscovich in the future, yes.

Mr. Robinson:

Is there anyone that you know who was responsible for doing this in the past?

Mr. Jacoby:

Not that I am aware of.

Mr. Robinson:

Could you also get that information for us?

Mr. Jacoby:

I will ask Larry Yatch.

Mr. Robinson:

Well, I am not asking you to get information from people who are not responsible to this Council; Mr. Yatch is not responsible to this council. I would assume that you could look through your records or perhaps ask Mr. Ernest or someone else who is on the staff.

The Chair:

The Chair is kind of taking a stab that he was just appointed, and that this individual thinks that someone who is responsible for that should answer that question, rather than him. He is not dodging you, I think he—

Mr. Robinson:

I understand that, all I am saying is that I am trying to save George perhaps the embarrassment of a person who has no responsibility to the City of Pittsburgh, telling him to you know what.

Mr. Woods:

Bill I'd like to respond to the one question? You asked him who was to get this data—like Debora now is going to do it and keep it up—it is evident that no one did that before because it took them so darn long to get it.

Mr. Robinson:

But that doesn't mean that someone wasn't assigned that responsibility. There was a person in Supplies who was assigned that responsibility back in 1978. I don't know if they continued or if it was changed. If you can get that, I would appreciate it, George.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, in the same vein of what you just mentioned, would you say that this information would not have been forthcoming if you hadn't requested it?

Mr. Robinson:

I'll make a comment on that later.

Also, George, you indicated that there are certain areas that the Supplies Department deals with, where you can't find minority vendors. What do you base that on? You mentioned gasoline and tires.

Mr. Jacoby:

In the bidders list, they are broken down by commodity, and you will see several sections where there are a wide variety of vendors available. The difficulty, and this is my own observations and told to me by my staff, is that in the very, very large items that we purchase, the big dollar items, the staff knows of, I know of, and we have not received bids from minority vendors. I am talking about gasoline delivery, parts delivery, tires, tire service, tire recapping, that type of thing where we traditionally spend large dollars.

Mr. Robinson:

How do you put the minority vendors list together?

Mr. Jacoby:

The minority vendors list is a compilation of many things. First of all, we received from the Human Relations Commission a listing of those firms which they have certified to be minority firms. We have also built the list over the years by our participation in the Minority Trade Fair and from the other minority councils in the area. It has been done piecemeal, as we have been approached by minority firms and as we have been able to seek them out at the fairs and councils.

Mr. Robinson:

But there is a possibility that there are minority firms somewhere that could do some of this work?

Mr. Jacoby:

I think there is a strong probability that there are firms that we do not know about yet, yes.

Mr. Robinson:

Just as one example, there is a minority oil company in Tuskegee, Alabama that owns oil wells and is involved in commercial sale of gasoline products. The reason I raise that is that there are a lot of firms around the country that we may be unaware of, and, depending upon how we put our bidders list together we get certain firms and we exclude other firms. You just might want to check on some way of looking at firms outside the immediate Pittsburgh area which might be of some help to us.

Mr. Jacoby:

Let me say these things. I have looked at the list; I am not yet an expert in the purchasing area, I see glaring deficiencies in the list. For example, the list covers the attorney fields; I am an attorney, I know that there are a great number of minority attorneys out there who are not on this list. There are numerous things which I think we can do to improve the list. I think we need to expand our horizons, as you are saying, and go outside the Western Pennsylvania area; I think we will be able to find other minorities. At this time, however, we do not have them on our list.

Mr. Robinson:

Another concern is, you mentioned the Human Relations Commission and I noticed on your statistics that specifically in reference to construction contracts the Human Relations Commission has some responsibility in enforcing the 15 percent minority participation program. My first question is, the 15 percent minority participation program, what is the origin of that, as you understand it?

Mr. Jacoby:

The origin, as I understand it, has its root in executive order and in councilmanic legislation.

Mr. Robinson:

The executive order I believe you are referring to is the Mayor's Executive Order No. 1 in 1980.

Mr. Woods:

Bill, can I interject something. On the construction contracts, isn't that 15 percent originated in the Pittsburgh Plan of 1970?

Mr. Robinson:

No. George is right, it is in the Mayor's executive order, but it is not rooted in any legislation passed by this Council. To my knowledge, this Council has never passed any legislation setting any percentages for minority participation.

My concern here is not only the point of clarification, but he mentioned something about the Human Relations Commission was under the order of law; correct me if I am wrong, to make sure there is 15 percent in these contracts. I was wondering, what law are you referring to?

Mr. Jacoby:

I was under the impression that there was councilmanic legislation. I am aware, however, of the Mayor's Executive Order, and I assume that that is sufficient for Mr. Gabriel and his staff to enforce that. In fact, I spoke with Mr. Gabriel yesterday and asked him if they had an active monitoring system. He advised me that they did.

Mr. Robinson:

Is it your understanding that the Mayor's executive order is law?

Mr. Jacoby:

It is law to those of us who serve the Mayor, I can tell you that.

Mr. Robinson:

I think it is very important to understand what is required by law in the City of Pittsburgh, relative to minority business participation, and what is not required by law. My point is, is the Mayor's Executive Order No. 1 in 1980 law, law of the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Jacoby:

I really think that the solicitor is the only one competent to answer that.

Mr. Robinson:

Another concern is the role of the Human Relations Commission. Does the Human Relations Commission assist you in trying to identify suppliers or minority businesses?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes, they do.

Mr. Robinson:

Is this by way of the executive order also?

Mr. Jacoby:

Quite frankly, I am not sure the authority for it. I do know that they do supply us on an on-going basis with the names and addresses of those firms which they have certified to be minority firms.

Mr. Robinson:

You might want to check with their solicitors; it is my understanding in talking with Mr. Byrd Brown and Miss Doris Smith, who are the solicitors for the Human Relations Commission, that the commission does not have jurisdiction in the area of minority business development. I shared with them the fact that the commission is working in that area; they might not have jurisdiction, but they are working in the area. You might want to check with them to make sure that we are on firm ground, in terms of whatever kind of assistance they are giving to us.

Just one other concern I have, and that relates to the statistics. Statistics obviously can project various pictures, depending upon who reads them and how they read them. I would like to thank you for putting these together.

Hopefully, we can get these on a timely basis. Before, Council requested them quarterly, if you can accommodate us I would appreciate it. I do think that we should not lose sight of the fact that the statistics here certainly are not reflective of the goal of 15 percent which the Mayor set and which this Council accepted; and that the percentages here are far below probably what any of us would take as acceptable.

I think also it should be noted that the difficulty in putting this material together certainly does not directly relate to any one individual, but relates to a number of individuals. I'll say something I said before, I think that if we have the will to do it we will do it, if we do not have the will to do it we won't do it. I think the four or five years that this program has been in operation, there has not been the will. I think the evidence of that is that the statistics are not only dismal, but the procedures have been haphazard; and I think the coordination and direction have been lacking. I would hope that under your tenure in that office as Director of Supplies, that you could be a bit more diligent perhaps than others in trying to accommodate us.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to congratulate you for your honesty; I respect your integrity in bringing these figures before Council, which are very damaging to the city, and, as you say, they are very dismal. Since we are talking in generalities and not being specific, the figure that distresses me very much, and I would like you to give me some clarification on it, is the material, equipment, supplies contracts over $5,000, where we have the value of minority contracts at $82,000 approximately, and the value of the contracts to other vendors are almost $13 million. Could you tell me roughly what percentage that would be, since I don't have a calculator in front of me?

Mr. Jacoby:

Significantly less than one percent.

Michelle Madoff:

So, less than one percent, Mr. Robinson, is going in dollar amounts in the materials, equipment, supplies contracts over $5,000. Less than one percent.

What I would like for you to clarify for me is that you said the reason for this, you believe, is not out of control or out of anybody's purview in that a lot of it is for major purchases of automobiles and equipment, and not in the hands of minorities because they just haven't had the opportunity, or something like that. I want you to clarify that for me.

Mr. Jacoby:

I do not mean it to be an excuse or an explanation.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I already congratulated you on your integrity, and I don't think you have to justify yourself. I sort of resented your going through this whole song and dance about how wonderful you are and how you go to all these places and try to get the minority things. What I think Mr. Robinson has been saying over and over again in his subpoena action is that we don't get information until we take this kind of action. I think it is very sad, and I commend you for coming in with this information.

Let's get to the issue now. Would you answer my question?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes. What I said is that the make-up of the almost $13 million in supplies, materials and contracts over $5,000 is to some extent items which we know of no minority vendors, large volume.

Michelle Madoff:

What percentage would you say that is?

Mr. Jacoby:

I would say that of that $13 million, when one looks at such items as gasoline, tires, parts; we are talking about annual expenditures of approximately $6 million in those areas.

Michelle Madoff:

Then if we took that as being a ballpark acceptable figure, we are still talking about another $7 million.

Mr. Jacoby:

I am not satisfied, as Councilman Robinson said, I am not satisfied that we cannot find minority vendors in those areas.

Michelle Madoff:

I know. You see, I don't like when someone says if we take this number from that number we get this number, and we don't mention what the number is and the public is listening and they don't know what we are talking about. What we are saying here is that perhaps $6 million is out of the control of the city, and out of the control of a bill that was passed by the administration, which has the power to enforce unless we have enough votes to overrule or veto. And, only of the $7 million, Mr. Robinson, $82,000 went to minorities. Now, give me that percentage.

Mr. Jacoby:

First of all, I am not willing to give up the $7 million.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't want you to give anything up, I just want the percentage of $82,000 of $7 million.

Mr. Jacoby:

That would be about one percent.

Michelle Madoff:

So, at the best possible scenario, at the best possible scenario, while we have a commitment of 15 percent to minorities, we are giving approximately one percent, even if we make excuses and say that the $6 million we have no control over. I think it is abysmal, I think you are honest to say that. I think the person who should be most commended here today is Mr. Robinson for having the guts and the fortitude to take the abuse he is taking—I don't mean from this Council but just the fact that he did subpoena people and how irresponsible he is and all the hassle he is causing the city. If he didn't do these things and if he didn't really ride her, this information would not be forthcoming. There are some days, Mr. Robinson, that I wish I weighed what you do, and I was your height so that I would be treated more politely, and perhaps I could get some information. Being female is obviously a deterrent.

Mr. Flaherty:

In view, George, of these what I believe we all feel are quite appalling statistics, are you still in opposition to Bill No. 2507?

Mr. Jacoby:

Well, Bill 2507, the significant part of it seeks to reduce the formal contracting amount from $5,000 to $3,000. As you can see from the statistics, the area where we do less dismally is the area where we are able to go out on the informal contracting procedure. It would be my opinion that our office would have the ability to contact more minority vendors if the informal contracting amount was increased instead of decreased.

I would like to add, however, that where the Department of Supplies is given that discretion, there is implicit in that a trust that you put in us that we will do that. In other words, the checks and balances are reduced when you give our office wider discretion. While I feel that we could perform better by raising that amount, you must be satisfied that we will in fact do that before you should vote that way.

Mr. Woods:

George, would you explain the legislation that we have talked about?

Mr. Jacoby:

I do not think that this is a problem that can be solved overnight, I don't think it is a problem that can be solved in a matter of months; this is a serious problem that is going to take quite a while to address adequately.

There are two areas which I see, which we can aid our minority operations immediately. One of them, which I found to my dismay, is that we do not advertise our contracts in the Courier. I will begin immediately to advertise in the Courier for all of our contracts and supplies.

The second item is one which I discussed with the Mayor and with Councilman Woods, and that is an area in which I believe we can assist the small minority vendor in quick fashion. In our discussions with my staff and with the minority vendors at the fair yesterday, one of the difficulties, aside from the bonding requirements that we have found, is that small minority vendors who are not heavily capitalized cannot afford to carry the cost of inventory from the time of delivery to the city until the time of payment. That has been a problem with all of our vendors, but when you have an undercapitalized firm it is a particular problem, given today's high interest rates.

In the best circumstances, the city would pay a vendor in anywhere from 30 to 90 days, all things going well. I am not chastising anyone, that is simply a matter of fact in government procedure with the checks and balances, you do not give payment immediately.

What the Mayor has directed me to propose to Council in the form of law, is to establish a Minority Vendor's Revolving Loan Fund to assist in that area. What this would be is a fund, and we will recommend $100,000 to be established in a private entity, which will permit payment of the minority's firm immediately upon delivery of the goods. The firm would then assign their right of payment to the goods from the city to the entity, so that in the normal city procedure that fund would be replenished by the city payment. This would permit the minority firm to receive their payment immediately upon delivery of the goods to the city, and they would not then have to carry the inventory, the floor costs, while the city makes payment.

Councilman Woods has recommended, and I agree, and I know the Mayor agrees, that we attempt to utilize New World Bank as that private paying entity. We will be coming back next week with the proposed legislation to establish this fund.

The Chair:

One addition to that one, if I may. Ray is not here from the Controller's Office, but I talked to you about that routing slip, which is not only for minority contracts, it is more so for them but it is for everybody; if we pick-up the material, the man still has to eat, if you are paying for his material you have to give him something to live on.

The other one is that we'd have to move the payment as quickly as possible. I am getting that routing slip made so we'll find out where the delay is in the system. But, in addition, I think that somewhere along the line you have to exert some effort there to try to see that the bills get to the controller and paid, because the guy still needs some money to function during that delay. If the job is going to take three months, he is three months without any money at all.

Michelle Madoff:

Director, I think you've used all the words that all of us feel—dismal, appalling, try to do better, you've only been there two months, didn't advertise in the Courier, try to give some money to the New World Bank. We all know we have a strong Mayor system, in its essence under the Home Rule Charter a weak City Council system. There has been on the books for a long time legislation that 15 percent of contracts would go to minorities. I think it is despicable, and it makes me want to throw-up, that at zero hour after Mr. Robinson has gotten this information, suddenly the administration is saying let us correct this remedy, let us go to the New World Bank—and Council has said that already—let us go to minority vendors and give them $100,000 rotating fund. Why didn't the Mayor of this city know that one percent of the contracts were going to minorities? Who does he think he is kidding for one minute?

Mr. Jacoby:

No one.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't need a response, that was a statement.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I think it might be helpful to Mr. Jacoby, to Councilman Woods and to the Mayor to perhaps get an input of the people who have had some experience and background in minority business development; one, before they implement this minority revolving loan program, and, two, before they submit legislation to this Council on these matters. I would be remiss if I didn't say that I have been trying to meet with the Mayor for two months to discuss issues of importance to the minority community, and I have been unable to do so. I say that so that we not lose sight of what it is we are trying to do, and so that we not lose sight of the fact that we are supposed to be working in cooperation. I am disappointed that I didn't have an opportunity to review Mr. Jacoby's material, his suggestions and proposals and I would hope that someone in their wisdom would be kind and courteous enough to share with this Council the legislation and the program intent, and if Mr. Jacoby and Councilman Woods are so inclined, I would appreciate their cooperation in meeting with the Mayor to discuss the issues relative to minority business development.

I recognize that the Mayor is very busy and there are many concerns that he has, and I would hope that now that he has some greater recognition of the depth of the problem, that he will be available. I think that Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Woods are to be commended for being able to meet with the Mayor and to be able to move in a timely fashion in a direction that I am sure this total Council is in agreeance with.

The other thing is that I think both Mr. Woods and Mr. Jacoby should be aware that this Council has before it a bill authorizing the Mayor, the Treasurer and the Controller to deposit 30 percent of all City of Pittsburgh funds in a minority controlled financial institution, and to deposit all federal and state funds in a minority controlled institution. I think that we might want to discuss that matter in conjunction with those issues that have been raised here today.

Also, the Mayor has on his desk a proposal to create a Minority Business Opportunity Commission which would take charge of our total minority business program in the City. One of the components would be to set-up a sheltered market program, which means there would be certain contracts that would be set aside for minorities. Hopefully, both of these proposals can be discussed in the spirit of cooperation, and I would hope that Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Woods would support those ideas. Again, I certainly am available any time you two gentlemen can accommodate a meeting with the Mayor, I would appreciate it very much.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, just one point. If I understand the figures correctly, the minority lending institutions could not take 30 percent of our money for the reason that they have some requirements as to how much they are permitted to take.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I think that rather than discuss that issue here, that we are prejudicing the positions of the minority lending institutions by speaking about their capacity without giving them the opportunity to submit any materials to us, or for us to fully explore the ramifications of the legislation.

One of the things that is in the legislation is a procedure for acceptance, and that procedure is that the Treasurer, the Finance Director, the Controller and two members of this Council can consider exceptions to the legislation, which I think would accommodate the concern that you have. But, I don't think anyone should be led to believe that minority financial institutions in this city or in other cities, and there are 52 minority controlled banks in this country not counting the savings and loans, no one should be led to believe that they don't have the capacity to serve the City of Pittsburgh. I don't think anybody should believe that, and I think that if we look at the legislation and seriously review it, I think we'll find that our local institutions and those elsewhere have a capacity to handle our money and to handle our finances, and to handle them well.

The Chair:

So that we don't have any misunderstandings, I want everybody to know that I haven't voted for any non-city resident; as far as I am concerned, I am not going all over the country for lending monies, I am going to stay right here. That is where I'm at, so we all understand it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. Stone, I just want to comment on what Councilman Robinson has said. On Sunday evening I had a conversation with Mildred Glenn who is the President of New World Bank. In concise terms she expressed to me a great deal of frustration, as far as the dealings she has had with the city, as far as trying to free up some city revenues for deposit in the New World Bank. I am of the strong opinion, subsequent to that conversation, that the city is somewhat stonewalling on the issue and trying to hand their hat on some small technical issues.

The Chair:

I want to go back to Bill 2507, I've left it go too far, and the Chair is going to be very restrictive as far as any information beyond Bill 2507.

Michelle Madoff:

Are there women's groups in here as well?

Mr. Jacoby:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

What percentage are women's organizations?

Mr. Jacoby:

I do not know that.

Michelle Madoff:

Probably not even one-quarter of one percent. Would you get me that information please?

The Chair:

Okay, Mr. Robinson, on the bill?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, I would like to make a motion to hold this bill for four weeks.

Michelle Madoff:

You don't want to move on it now?

Mr. Robinson:

No. I want to give Mr. Jacoby, the Mayor and Mr. Woods an opportunity to put together a program and come back to this Council.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you can get it through now. They'll come up with reasons why not to do it. It will pass now, Bill. Why don't we vote on it now, Mr. Robinson? Would you reconsider on this one bill itself?

Mr. Robinson:

For what reason?

Michelle Madoff:

I think it would pass now. At least we could get that through, then we would be able to monitor those contracts.

Mr. Flaherty:

Then we could change it back.

Mr. Robinson:

I withdraw my motion.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, let me tell you in advance so you know where I am coming from, I think the bill in its present structure is defeating what you are attempting to do. I view of that, my vote would be against it.

Mr. Robinson:

I would like to respond to that. In view of the fact that I did not have an opportunity to discuss this matter with Councilman Woods or Mr. Jacoby, I think that it is only fair that I have an opportunity to see what they are proposing.

The Chair:

Let me finish and I will let you rebut. It has been stated by Mr. Jacoby that he has more opportunity to help minority contractors, and which you have indicated that is what you are trying to do. He has admitted that in the past, as far as implementation, it has failed. He is telling you as well, and I am hopeful that we have a commitment from him, that if he has that ability, then he can perform. If we lower it, we are taking away from him the ability to do the thing in the right direction. I think Mr. Flaherty's question was on target along those lines, when he asked it earlier.

Mr. Robinson, if you want to rebut you may.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr Chairman, I think it is rather obvious that Mr. Woods, Mr. Jacoby and the Mayor sat down and put together some type of program. I did not have an opportunity to discuss this matter with any of the gentlemen. I am surprised and shocked by some of their suggestions.

The Chair:

Wait, you are going in--

Mr. Robinson:

You said I could rebut.

The Chair:

The question is whether you are going to hold or not hold, and--

Mr. Robinson:

You said I could rebut.

Michelle Madoff:

You gave a speech on why you wanted it held, now let him speak on whatever he wants.

The Chair:

We were purely on this bill, as to whether we hold it or not hold it, or move it now, that is where we got to on the issue. That is all I spoke to. I don't want to go back and rehash everything else that we did.

Mr. Robinson:

Will I have an opportunity to speak, Mr. Chairman?

The Chair:

You have the floor.

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you, very much. I think in light of the facts I just mentioned, that I will be willing to give to Mr. Woods, the Mayor and Mr. Jacoby the respect that they did not give to this Council, and indicate that in four weeks I would like to see a program, not just some legislation, not just suggestions, but a program that is truly going to serve the best interests of minority business people in this city, and a program that is reflective of both Council and the administrations efforts. I do not believe that what is being proposed now is going to do that, mainly because of the manner in which it was put together.

Again, I don't think anyone on this Council should go away not understanding that Councilman Robinson, for the last two months, has been trying to meet with the Mayor of this city to discuss this very issue, minority business enterprise. I have not had the opportunity to meet with the Mayor or to discuss it with him.

It is Councilman Robinson who moved to hold Bill 2507 for several weeks so that Mr. Woods and Mr. Jacoby could be accommodated to prepare material. Without trying to upstage anybody or rain on anybody's parade, I am still willing to put the interest of minority business people in this city ahead of my own agenda and ahead of the agenda of other parties. I am still willing to wait to see if we could put together a cooperative, comprehensive program. It would seem to me that four weeks is a reasonable period of time.

The Chair:

You are keeping your motion?

Mr. Robinson:

If indeed you have already expressed your concerns to vote against this bill, I think it is only proper for me to remove my motion and make another motion to approve Bill 2507.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll second that.

Discussion. On the bill, it is my belief, as it is yours, Mr. Robinson, and you've expounded on this previously, that when the contracts come before us because of the lesser amount, we will then have the opportunity as a body to inquire as to whether they are indeed minorities. I have requested four years ago that when we get the name of a contractor, the XYZ or the Acme Company, we know who the principles are. It would not be unfitting, since we have a commitment from the administration and this Council, that 15 percent of the contracts are minority contracts, to indicate, as we do sidelot, to indicate minority or female contract.

Furthermore, I think that it would be very important to point out that if you think that after being denied a meeting with the Mayor for two months, and after all the time the Mayor has been in office with this bill pending and he has done nothing; that you are going to get a meeting with him and anything productive will happen, you are indeed a supreme optimist. I think you have been discriminated against, I think the Black community and minorities have been discriminated against. That is why it is very important that we move now on Bill 2507 and find out who cares about enforcing the bill that we voted for and who does not, and we go on record immediately.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am in support of Bill 2507. I believe that the issue, to a certain degree, has been sidetracked by regard for minority concerns. I think it is sort of ironic because I think that the sidetrack, that smokescreen was thrown out on this table a few years ago by the former director of Supplies. He was successful in increasing the amount of a contract before it would go out to competitive bid. He hung his argument on the wonders that an increased councilmanic amount would do for minority interest in this city. I find it ironic now that the issue of minority interest now is coming back to haunt this bill, and it certainly should.

I would like to address what I think is the primary reason why I am opposed, why I am for the bill and am opposed to keeping it at a reduced amount. This is simply a vehicle to take competition out of the bidding process. This is simply a vehicle to call up more contractors, more vendors, more suppliers on the telephone. This is simply a vehicle to call up one individual and have absolutely no competition. It is bad for accountability, it is bad for a system of checks and balances, and it is bad for a system of having built-in controls. I think it certainly opens up the suspicions more of abuse to big political contributors being taken care of as far as contributions and as far as contracts.

As far as the minority issue, I am unalterably opposed to holding this for a month because I find it is very galling that the minority issue concern was the argument that the minority issue concern was the argument that was used to pass this bill three years ago.

I commend the director of Supplies for not attempting to doctor the statistics that he has shown us here today. But, I don't commend your judgment, George, on still trying to pursue this argument that by increasing the amount from $3,000 to $5,000, that it is going to enhance minority participation on contracts in this city. I think that is such an illogical argument. I personally find it galling when you are talking about one percent in the last close to three years that this act has been in effect, to come back in front of this Council and ask for another month. I find a real slap in the face to the Black community.

These people are not getting their fair share of contracts and it is about time this Council starts saying something on it and stops being rubber stamps. I say let's pass Councilman Robinson's bill today, let the administration put forth their foot, let them put forth good faith, good action; and then maybe we can talk about reducing it again. But, to continue to play their ballgame is sheer stupidity and shows a total lack of concern for Black participation in contracts in this city.

The Chair:

If there is no one else, the Chair would like to be the last speaker on this issue.

Mr. Woods:

I have one thing to say. I am against this bill because I disagree with everything that Councilman Flaherty said.

The Chair:

On this particular bill, I want to remove it from all of the other consideration which has been stated is a smokescreen. It is a smokescreen to tie this particular bill into everything else that has been right or wrong. If you are going to help, then you should help sincerely, and not attempt in some other fashion to say you are helping when actually you are hurting.

Relative to this bill, by logic, because of inflation over the years which was 10 to 12 percent every year, anyone in his right mind had to increase that figure because otherwise we would have been spending thousands upon thousands of dollars by having every contract come to this City of Pittsburgh, and come through the Administration, come to this table for us to do all the normal, legal paperwork.

The other one is, it is quite obvious that this bill, by raising it, and no one has refuted that one, that the director has the ability to help if he is given the ability to do it. In order to get the help, the implementation, he must be able to do it. It has been rather forthright and rather candidly stated here that in the past, while the enabling legislation was there, that there was some slippage on the matter of implementation. We have a new director, and he has indicated to us, and I don't know that anyone has found any fault at any time with this particular director's credibility; and, in that sense, if you take away from him the ability to do it, he can't help even if he wants to help. It would appear to me that taking away the smokescreen, getting down to Bill 2507 in its very narrow and limited declaration, is operating against the City and operating against minorities, and not intended to help. In that sense, let's take a vote.

(END - COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2507, 3/16/83)

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, after listening to all the remarks on Wednesday and today,

I don't want to repeat what everyone else says, but just by listening it makes me in even stronger opposition because all my colleagues who are for this went off into side issues, most of them, that have nothing to do with this piece of legislation. Therefore, I vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:
Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3	NOES 5
--------	--------

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Stone	(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Mrs. Masloff presented

Bill No. 2740

Report of the Committee on Parks and Recreation for March 16, 1983 transmitting one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2651

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution designating and encumbering three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) in Parks and Recreation, Code Account 1838, for the Homewood-Brushton Athletic Association and to enter into an agreement with the Homewood-Brushton Athletic Association."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

Would the sponsor of that bill enlighten me a little bit as to how this money is to be utilized? Bill, I think that was you.

Mr. Robinson:

The legislation, I think, Dick, very specifically indicates —

Mr. Givens:

Well, it says the Homewood-Brushton Athletic Association, but what are they to do with the money?

Mr. Robinson:

I believe the legislation very specifically indicates that this money will be used to conduct their summer athletic program. About two or two and a half years ago, some of us in City government made a commitment to the Homewood-Brushton Athletic Association to provide them with some finances. In as much as we were re-naming their home field, which was Homewood Field at that time, we re-named it Willie Stargell Field. And they are the principal organization that uses the field and, in fact, have maintained it on several occasions. The Mayor, Mrs. Masloff and I indicated that we wanted to give them some assist in that regard and we pledged that we would provide them with some money for their summer recreation program.

Mr. Givens:

It mentions that it's for the Homewood-Brushton Athletic Association, but it doesn't mention for what purpose, Bill. That's why I questioned it.

Mr. Robinson:

In the legislation, I believe.

Mr. Givens:

Is there a league there and how many children participate in this league? I guess that's my question.

Mr. Robinson:

A couple of hundred. Basically, it's a baseball league. This will be for their summer baseball league.

Mr. Givens:

Does it encompass the whole Homewood-Brushton area?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Mr. Givens:

Are there several teams in that league?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Mr. Givens:

Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 8 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. Robinson for Mr. O'Malley presented

Bill No. 2741

Report of the Committee on Public Safety for March 16, 1983 transmitting one ordinance and one resolution to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2250

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing a professional study of the Pittsburgh Department of Police and transferring the sum of $50,000.00 from Code Account No. 10, Accounts Payable Prior Years, to Code Account No. 1048, Miscellaneous Services, Department of City Controller." (AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE)

Which was read.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, in regard to the bill concerning a proposed consultant for the Police study, I see that some of the language in Section 1 is erased. Could someone please explain that?

Mr. Perry:

This was amended in Committee at the time.

Mr. Flaherty:

But could someone explain the reasons for the amendments? For example, to delete "the nationally known".

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. Flaherty, the copy that I have here still has "nationally known" included. I believe there was a typing error.

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay. On mine it's deleted. Is that a typing error?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes. In fact, mine reads, "The Mayor and the Superintendent of Police and the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh is authorized and directed to secure the services of a nationally known and professionally qualified and nationally known public safety consultant." Are you talking about the first "nationally known"?

The Chair:

Obviously you only need one in there. They scratched the one out.

Mr. Robinson:

Oh, I'm sorry. I think I know why. We agreed that the City Controller's Office would do that and I believe it was Mr. O'Malley who felt that we did not need to put in there the words "nationally known". That the Controller's Office would go out on a bid procedure and that they certainly would secure someone who had qualifications and knowledge. I think what he didn't want to do is exclude anyone in the City who might be able to do that job. He felt "nationally known" might exclude someone in the City.

Mr. Stone:

There is two "nationally knowns". It was redundant in the first part. "Services by nationally known, professional qualified and nationally known public safety consultant." We're just cleaning up the language. There's no problem.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have another question. Had anyone contacted the City Controller's Office and asked them if they had anyone on the Controller's staff who has the expertise to do this study?

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Johnson, the Deputy Controller, indicated that because of their present staffing levels, they were not able to do all the audits of every City department and unit of government as is required by the Charter. But if they could secure additional funds, they would be able to hire personnel to help them complete any specific audit. In this case, they could do the Police study.

Mr. Flaherty:

But they had not said that they didn't have anyone on the staff as far as the expertise question. They are saying conceivably that they have someone who has the expertise to do this but they are pre-occupied auditing other departments.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Flaherty, I think it was the desire of everybody to have an outside source.

Mr. Robinson:

I believe Mr. McGrady and Mr. Johnson indicated that they though an outside source probably would be better able to do this and that they probably did not have one on their staff to do what we were requesting. They could perform a simple audit, but we're asking for more than an audit. We're asking for a study. Not a simple audit, as they're required to do pursuant to the Charter.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed to Bill 2250. I would want my remarks from Wednesday's Committee Meeting included in the record and I would just want to reiterate that we had Superintendent Coll and in Superintendent Coll's professional opinion, and incidentally, Superintendent Coll was the only professional opinion that I heard on this subject. I believe the majority of members of Council had an opinion on this but I don't think, I could be wrong, but I doubt if any of the members of Council could offer an expert opinion on the Police Department. But Superintendent Coll was very strong in stating that the request for the amount would give us a very simplistic, very broad study and I inferred from his remarks that the study will be completely useless and I translate that to be a total waste of taxpayers' money.

I believe that we on Council are all aware that as far as the number of police we have, it's strictly a political question between this Council and the Mayor's Office and any lobbying efforts that communities can put forward. I think it's very naive to try to put forth to the public that a very simplistic police study is going to enhance their protection in any regard. I see this once again as simply a vehicle for giving a consultant a fat paycheck and in return we aren't going to gain anything.

(BEGINNING - MR. FLAHERTY'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2250 - 3/16/83)

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed to the bill. The reason why I am opposed is, I am sure all members of Council are aware that we had Superintendent Coll appear approximately six weeks ago at this table and we had a very time consuming interrogation, questioning of Superintendent Coll on his views in regard to a consultant study. Superintendent Coll, in very clear language, said that there is no way that we are going to get a credible study for the amount that we have earmarked.

I think it was also obvious from the tone of Superintendent Coll's presentation that this study is not going to have the slightest impact on how he is going to administer the Police Department. So, it escapes me as to what the logic is to earmark the $50,000 for a police study that is not going to have any impact whatsoever. I see it as undoubtedly just a waste of taxpayer's money.

Furthermore, if we are going to have any kind of study or evaluation, I have heard a few different words applied to what this actual consultant study is going to be, but, regardless of what the title is it is something which is clearly within the purview of the City Controller's Office. Granted, the City Controller says that he cannot meet the legal mandates of the Charter to do performance audits every four years on all departments, trusts and agencies because he does not have the staff. Well, if need be, for the $50,000 you could hire two permanent auditors, you could have two more auditors down there that I am sure could do the study on the Police Department. Then, we would have them for 20 or 30 more years to do numerous other studies or evaluations on other departments. I just feel that it is completely asinine on a one shot deal to give $50,000 to a private consultant that is going to do a very cursory study, a very bland, very general study which is not going to have any impact whatsoever on the Police Department.

I would just want to close in saying if anyone feels that there is going to be a sure fix for giving this Council a place to hang their hat, as far as the number of police that this city should have, I think that is very naive. I think all members of Council know that is naive, and I just want to tell the public that that is naive if they believe that any study is going to come up with a foolproof number of police officers this city should have. That is a political question, not a question that a study is going to address.

(END - MR. FLAHERTY'S REMARKS ON
BILL NO. 2250 - 3/16/83)

Mr. Givens:

I vote no on this bill, Mr. President, and I'd like to explain it and differ with my colleague, Mr. Flaherty, in the fact that for twenty-some years I have worked in the police endeavor with a degree in criminology from the Fresno State University which gives me, I think, a certain bit of expertise and one that I've been strongly supported by my vote on this Council for the last four years and that I did not vote on the budget because I felt this Council was not in fact, or the Mayor was not in fact, appropriating enough money.

However, this $50,000 seems very appropriate but it won't even scratch the surface in regard to what really has to be done with the whole police issue. And when you say police, you just can't say police of the City of Pittsburgh. Crime is something that's like a balloon. You hit it on one end and it comes out the other end. It crosses over boundary lines within our hundred and thirty some municipalities we have here today.

I would like, and my reasons for voting no on this particular bill, is that we need, I think, to sit down with county government, state government and local government, at least with the county government and with our own City government along with the court systems, and try to find out what is wrong with our system today and what can we do to upgrade it. We know we're building more jails and need to build more jails. That is not the reasons.

For police, and why I voted the way I did, it's protection. Police are to protect society. They are to protect the citizens within that society. Response time is something that is of a desperate need. If they cannot get there in a sufficient amount of time to stop whatever crime is being committed, then regardless of how many police we have, we're not doing anything.

Crime in itself, the courts, the probation, the paroles, all must guide into this. This only triggers one thought in my mind, Mr. President, and that is the fact that these people are of good standing in this community. We must sit down and discuss this matter fully with all of our particular neighborhood groups and with our police department and get to the core of what is causing it. Seriously, we have to some way get together and make a study of the issues of crime within the City of Pittsburgh and how it affects our residents; and I think if one would talk to people who leave the City and ask them the questions why they have left, you'll find that crime is something that is foremost in their particular mind. For that reason and that reason alone, I think we have our own Police Department, we have our own Superintendent, we have the Mayor, and we have the Council of the City of Pittsburgh that can and should and will address this particular question. It is true that the Controller of the City of Pittsburgh should do a performance audit. However, I think this particular performance audit must go much beyond that particular scope. We must really sit down and broaden our perspective in this so we can have truly a professional dealing into what is happening to crime. There are many plans that have developed in this nation of ours. The Marshall Plan, it was over in Europe where, in fact, we went over and reindustrialized that whole community. Why can we not sit down and do something about crime in our own City? Thank you, Mr. President.

Michelle Madoff:

May I ask a question before I vote? Unfortunately, Councilman O'Malley is not here; perhaps the Finance Chairman can answer; perhaps Mr. Robinson can answer. We have two classes of police to be put on this year. One is to be put on in what month, and when is the second class to be put on?

Mr. Stone:

I think that first one is July and the second is October.

Michelle Madoff:

We budgeted for both classes. Is that correct, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

Right.

Michelle Madoff:

We have budgeted for 80 policemen this year. We are losing 50 by attrition. We're down 105 from what we need now. People are being mugged in garages, on the streets. There was a fiasco in Squirrel Hill a week ago Friday. The pizza parlor where I tried to keep a beer license from going in, they beat up two youngsters. The policemen cannot stand in front of Mineo's all day. The issue, I believe, is a political issue. Originally, I thought, I stated to Councilman Flaherty that I thought 50,000 might be a step in the right direction, at least a first step, but I think you're absolutely right; I've rethought the issue. It is a political issue. We have to have a surplus at the end of the year to make the Administration look good; that is nonsense. This issue is take the $50,000 and go out and hire some policeman; so I'm going to vote opposed to the bill, and I will vote yes for the bill on the kerosene heaters.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to vote aye on all the bills, and I'd like to explain my vote on 2250. I am indeed encouraged that Mr. Flaherty and other members of Council have spend a lot of time since our last budget deliberations thinking about and discussing this issue of the police. Mr. Flaherty is absolutely correct that it is a political issue, but it's an issue that public officials who are politically elected are going to have to resolve. It certainly is not as simplistic as he is suggesting, and I don't think there's anything in the legislation which suggests that this is a simplistic solution to any of the problems that he has identified. The legislation very specifically relates to legalistic capabilities in our Police Department, staffing and employment patterns, and the number of officers and equipment necessary to perform assigned tasks and implement Department of Police policy, procedure, and programs. Certainly if the City Controller's Office was qualified and prepared to do the study over the last four years, they would have done it. The Charter very specifically is requiring that the City Controller do that, and I'm sure that the next City Controller will, in fact, do that.

In fact, I can assure you that the next City Controller will do that. Also, I think it is important to note that when this issue was raised during the last budget deliberations, all members of this Council were in agreement that we needed some updated statistics, that we needed some updated material; the Mayor even agreed. I don't think any of us would want to make political decisions based on a lack of information. We do not now have adequate information as to what capabilities our Police Department has, and with all due respect to Superintendent Coll, I don't think by any stretch of the imagination we should take what he said as being the only source of information that this Council had access to, nor should we assume that members of this Council didn't seek out other professional help in qualifications. I know I certainly did in trying to arrive at some decisions around this particular issue. I would hope that those members of Council who are serious about the issue of the number of police in our City will support other efforts if this one fails, other efforts to get adequate information and to make sure that we are not in any way dissuaded from auditing the Police Department, from reviewing the Police Department, or studying the Police Department for indeed, Councilman Flaherty, political reasons. I think it is essential that the public safety effort in this City be top quality, A No. 1, and that we expend that same effort in making sure that our Police Department is A-No. 1 as we do in other areas. We certainly give out consultant contracts. By no stretch of the imagination did I believe that anyone on this Council would think that at least Councilman Robinson was attempting to give a $50,000 consultant contract. If you did think that, then I've come a long way in five and a half years to be considered in a position of giving out those kinds of contracts. I want to assure everybody that certainly wasn't my intention. But, very seriously, I appreciate everyone's concern in this regard, and I said before my efforts have only been directed towards trying to get us some updated material, trying to put us in a position where we're not constantly arguing with the Mayor about additional police. This Council has been unwilling to go to court around this issue. This Council has been unwilling to set the budget at such a level that the Mayor has to hire the number of police we want. I'm not quite sure what else we're going to do other than simply abdicate our responsibility for public safety in this City. I vote aye, and I'd like to have my comments on 2250 from last Wednesday brought forward, please.

MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2250 FROM THE MEETING OF WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1983.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, the Controller has indicated to me that this bill should be amended to make provisions to have the $50,000 transferred from Code Account 10 into Code Account 1048 in the Controller's Office. I just wanted to share that with the Chair, I didn't know if our Finance Chairman was aware of the Controller's concern. I was going to make a motion to amend the bill to accommodate that.

First of all, I would like to ask the Chair to admonish Councilman Flaherty for the personal remarks that he suggested in reference to the bill. I think Council's rules very specifically indicate that we should not make personal remarks or personal suggestions. I will be more than happy to cite that section of the rules.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you. If I may continue, I think that Councilman Flaherty certainly raises some valid points in reference to the study. But, I think that this Council should be reacquainted with several facts. I don't want to belabor the point.

For the last five years we certainly have tussled with the issue of whether or not we have adequate police in this city and whether or not they are deployed properly. I suggested to this Council that we do a study. At that time there was no serious opposition, not even from Councilman Flaherty or from Councilman O'Malley, who is Chairperson of Public Safety. In fact, Councilman O'Malley agreed there should be some study. So Bill 2250 certainly was introduced in that spirit.

It was my understanding that this Council was not in any serious objection to try and do some study of the Police Department to at least determine if we had adequate police personnel. That is still the intent of the legislation to at least do that.

Another fact is the issue of Superintendent Coll. I am very sorry that Mr. Flaherty raised that issue, but I would be less than candid and honest if I didn't say that Superintendent Coll made no attempt to have any input into this process until this bill was brought before this Council and Councilman—I believe O'Malley or Flaherty asked him to come to the table to share with us his expertise.

At that time, I think it was rather obvious that the superintendent was not qualified to give us information on the cost of a comprehensive study or whether or not there were experts who could give us a study. He certainly shared with us his personal opinion, and I certainly respect that opinion. I mentioned that at that time he had been unavailable to consult with this Council on this issue, but I was very glad that he was here at that time.

I don't think that anyone should be led to believe that Superintendent Coll has shared with this Council his full concerns in this regard, and has shared them in such a fashion that he appreciates what our interest is. And, I say what our interest is, based on how we have voted, because we voted for the study, except for Councilman Flaherty who has been very, very adamant, and certainly he has a right to be that way.

As far as the cost is concerned, I don't think there is anyone here who would deny that we could get a police study for more than $50,000 or less than $50,000. I think the record is rather clear that we agreed that $50,000 was a figure we could come to some sort of understanding on, but that we would not be limited, that we could indeed request additional funds if we felt they were necessary. One of the reasons I believe that Mr. Johnson, the Assistant City Controller, suggested the establishment of a committee was so that concerned people on this Council and in the administration, and in the Police Department could begin to identify the scope of work, and if $50,000 was not adequate we would come back and ask for more.

As far as the impact of this study, I take issue with Mr. Flaherty's concern that the superintendent doesn't feel this will have any impact. I don't think the superintendent has been asked by this Council or by the administration, his official position on the police study. I don't think we should take anything that Superintendent Coll said out of the goodness of his heart when he just happened to be in Council session and Councilman Flaherty just happened to ask him to come to the table, as representing Superintendent Coll's position. I suspect what he said represented what Bob Coll thinks, and I respect that.

I think that certainly Councilman Flaherty is correct that the political decision is going to be made as to how many police we have and where they will be deployed. I would hope that the Mayor would at least read the study, he will at least have the study. And, if he so chooses to use the study, then God bless him. But not to do the study, and to continue to haggle over this issue, does not serve any purpose, other than a political purpose. All of us are smart enough to know that everyone out there wants more police. We can go out and say give them more police, without basing it on facts. I think we ought to at least get some facts.

One other concern, if I might, about the Controller's Office. Taking into consideration Councilman Flaherty's anxiety about the Controller's Office, I would just like to indicate—

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Two, at least.

I would just like to remind Councilman Flaherty that I did introduce a bill into Council on Monday to re-open the budget. One of my purposes in doing that was so that we could seriously discuss the needs of the Controller's Office. Mr. McGrady, our Controller, has indicated on several occasions that he needs more staff. He prepared for us a document indicating that with roughly $700,000 he could hire 33 additional auditors.

If indeed we could re-open the budget—

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

I am bringing it to a close. We could re-open the budget, find him the $700,000, and, Councilman Flaherty, I would be more than happy to at that time withdraw Bill 2250. I would hope you would join me in re-opening the budget and getting 33 additional auditors for the Controller's Office.

MR. FLAHERTY COMMENTS

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, sir.

END, MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2250, 3/16/83.

Mr. Stone:

I am voting aye on all bills, and relative to 2250, I've been a long-time advocate of more police in the City of Pittsburgh, and what we've been experiencing in reduction and if you play with statistics, you can always have statistics say what you want them to say, and I think that offers a bit of caution. I have mentioned on many occasions it's better to spend $2 million to save $100 million in convention business rather than to get for the City of Pittsburgh the possibility of the bad reputation because of some one or two instances; and in that sense, I think that, rather than accept the position of the Superintendent of Police who obviously sits in the position that he cannot come out and ask for more police, he has indicated that's a policy decision it's not for him to make. I think that as far as my personal views are concerned, we need more police, but I'm willing to seek out information which helps to give a better light as to whether we are accurate or inaccurate; and I think that you just can't sit here and do nothing. If it's going to come up every year as it should, then I think we ought to acquire all the best information available year after year so that this is a recurrent decision, but at the same time, I don't think that we should do nothing, and therefore, I'm for it.

Mr. Woods:

I am voting aye on both bills, but on Bill 2250 it really amazes me that few of the Council members that have voted against this are consistently yelling that we should not take the Administration's word for something, that we should go out and get our own consultants, our own attorneys, and now we're doing that, and they're voting no against it. They say Coll is the only professional there; well, that's what we want to do, get another professional. It is a political issue. We don't know if it's going to give us more police, or less police, but the same Councilmen I heard say time and time again that Superintendent Coll works for the Mayor and he's going to say what the Mayor wants him to say, well, that's what he wanted, that's what he said, what the Mayor wanted to him to say. We have enough police if deployed in a proper manner. I vote aye, and I wish the other members would change their vote and vote aye.

Michelle Madoff:

You might get mine if I get some answers.

The Chair:

I'll vote aye on all bills, but I would like to say that, honestly, I believe if the study recommends changes, the changes will not be made, so it's going to be a waste of time. If I was assured those changes are going to be made, I'd feel much happier, but I'll take that chance and vote aye on all bills.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion before — I may change my vote. One moment. Mr. Stone, —

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, we're calling for the vote here.

Michelle Madoff:

I have the right to change my vote. I would like to ask a question.

Mr. Stone:

Point of order. You vote wherever you want. At this point, point of order, we're not up for discussion. Discussion's closed.

The Chair:

Michelle, do you want to change your vote?

Michelle Madoff:

Is the figure for police in the budget this year?

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, point of order. At this point we're voting. The discussion is over.

Michelle Madoff:

One million six hundred thousand dollars. Am I correct in my figure?

The Chair:

Point of order. Mr. Stone is correct. Michelle, we're beyond that, we're voting now on the study.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a great confusion. I believe that there is —

The Chair:

Point of order, Michelle. Do you want to change your vote, or don't you?

Michelle Madoff:

I want to think about it for a moment.

The Chair:

We discussed it for a half an hour. Now, come on.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to think about it for a moment. I have very mixed feelings.

The Chair:

Apparently the vote stands.

Michelle Madoff:

Change my vote. Change my vote to vote with Mr. Robinson.

The Chair:

How are you voting, aye?

Michelle Madoff:

I'm voting for the bill.

The Chair:

All right.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:
Ayes:

Michelle Madoff
Mr. Robinson
Mr. Stone

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

AYES 5

NOES 2

(MR. FLAHERTY AND MR. GIVENS VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2341

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending and supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Eight, Fire Prevention, Chapter 803, Amendments, by prohibiting the use of kerosene heaters in any building except one and two family dwellings, and by limiting the storage of kerosene without a permit to 5 gallons inside a building and 10 gallons outside a building."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 2341, on my bill to ban kerosene heaters in any building except one or two family dwellings and about limiting storage of kerosene so that we will not endanger lives and people living in multiple buildings, Councilman Woods asked that an amendment be put in where we permit them at construction sites that have a valid building or land operation permit. It is in the bill. I just wanted to tell you, Mr. Woods. We did put it in. You were absolutely right and I'm glad you brought it to our attention. That's the only source of heating on the job and I hope the bill will pass.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. Wouldn't that have to be done by way of amendment?

Michelle Madoff:

It is. I just wanted to tell you that it was put in and not forgotten.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Stone
Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Michelle Madoff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Robinson	(Pres't)

AYES 7 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, this is on the reoccurring difficulties of Community Action Pittsburgh, Incorporated. I'd just to share with Council a letter that I received from Mr. Michael A. Donadee, Chief Counsel, Department of Community Affairs, dated March 15, 1983.

"Dear Mr. Robinson:

Secretary Dennis has requested that I respond to your letter of February 28, 1983 regarding Community Action Pittsburgh, Incorporated. This department is willing to cooperate fully with the Pittsburgh City Council on any issues regarding that agency to the extent that we are legally able to do so. As you may be aware, CAPI has recently submitted responses to the audit and administrative review reports prepared by this department. After those responses are reviewed, an appropriate future course of action with respect to this agency will be determined. Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Michael A. Donadee,
Chief Counsel, Department of Community Affairs"

A copy of this letter was sent to the Honorable Shirley M. Dennis, who is the Secretary of Community Affairs for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and Mr. James Edwards, who's in charge of one of the departments under Community Affairs. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

There's a gentleman by the name of Jim Turner, and I'm not sure quite sure what his job is, but I couldn't get hold of the Treasurer of the City; he's on vacation, Mr. Schmeiser, and I couldn't get hold of his assistant, and Mr. Jim Turner came to the phone, and I asked him the same question I'm about to ask Mr. Buckley. Mr. Buckley, is the money on the 1982 that was transferred to '83 ready as yet? It was supposed to be ready in one week. We held up the vote. We then were to have the information in two weeks. Is the two weeks expired now, Mr. Buckley?

Mr. Buckley:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

In two weeks we haven't got the information. The information was, where was the money coming from, where was that $18 million generated, how long were those bills overdue; and he said to me, "I wouldn't have voted on it without that information." I said I didn't either; however, this Council chose to transfer the dollars. We still don't have that information, and I think that is a disgrace.

Mr. Givens:

You wouldn't want to hold up the payments to those people.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I don't want to hold up the payments. I want to know how you come up with surpluses and at whose expense.

Mr. Givens:

I think that surplus is something that should be forthcoming.

Michelle Madoff:

I want to find out at whose expense.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, point of business. I think all of us received a letter from the Ozanam, from its Director indicating a proposal that they had entitled an R.A.I.T., which has been funded by the City for the past four years and was rejected by the Department of Personnel and Civil Service Commission for reasons that they feel are not valid. I'd say to those reasons and why they are invalid in the letter to Georgine Scarpino which I have included, I've read all these particular points. Is there anybody here in Council that is aware of this? Is there anybody in Council who's taken any action on this? If not, then, I would ask that someone from Personnel come up this coming Wednesday and explain why Ozanam is being denied this particular thing, and I would also ask the Chief Clerk if they could bring someone from Ozanam to explain why they are being cut out of this particular program.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask Mr. Perry? Would you please write a note to the Superintendent of Police asking whether it is feasible since we have the money in the budget, it's over a million dollars, $16,600,000, to put on two classes of police, not wait until the end of the year? The money is in the budget. All it will do is create another surplus. I would like to explain why I changed my vote at the same time, because I will be instituting some legal action along the way, and I believe that Mr. Robinson will be supporting me.

Michelle Madoff moved to excuse Mr. O'Malley for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Woods

Council adjourned.

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, March 28, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

ABSENT:

Mr. O'Malley

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

We have with us today Sister Sylvia, Sister Rosita, Sister Adele and Sister Mary Ann. I wonder if they would join me. I believe the Sisters are with the good St. Francis Hospital.

As you know, it has been the custom of our office to issue an award of the month to the Outstanding Woman of the Month. This month we have a double header. The first woman, as you know, was Therese Rocco, the second was Bosanka Evosevic and this week we have Ms. Lena Hotujec and Ms. Rose Larcovic. I should point out before I read the award so that I don't make any mistakes that in the audience we have Lena's husband, Nicholas Hotujec, I wonder if he'd stand, Kathryn Micknowski and Walt Micknowski. And we have Rose's sister, Helen Bursich and we have Chris Larcovic, Rose's daughter. We have the people who have worked in the community and Lena's daughter, Geara Lynn.

It is with great honor and great pleasure that today I would like to read this resolution.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 2783 WHEREAS, the role of women needs to be expanded in society; and

WHEREAS, the accomplishments and achievements, both professionally and personally, of women in our society have largely been underrated; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lena Hotujec and Ms. Rose Larcovic, as volunteer workers, have demonstrated by many years of hard work their concern for Lawrenceville, its people, and its institutions; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hotujec and Ms. Larcovic, as members of many community groups including: Citizens for a Better Environment, Pittsburgh Neighborhood Alliance, Arsenal Board of Trade, and Pittsburgh Alliance for Jobs, have fought to maintain pride in Lawrenceville; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hotujec and Ms. Larcovic have raised funds for many other community groups including: Meals on Wheels, Lawrenceville Economic Action Program, and the Women's Slovene Club; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hotujec and Ms. Larcovic have raised funds and visited the elderly at the Christian Mothers' Group, 57th Street Church, St. Augustine's Church, St. Francis Plaza, St. Justine's Church, St. Mark Dion Church, New Bethel Church, and St. John's Lutheran Church; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Hotujec and Ms. Larcovic have demonstrated concern for those citizens unable to care for themselves: senior citizens, the sick, and widows; and

WHEREAS, they have fought for zoning changes, fought against forced busing and against utility rate increases, fought to deter crime through Block Watch, and fought hard to preserve the pride and character of the Lawrenceville Community;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh recognize Ms. Lena Hotujec and Ms. Rose Larcovic as "Women of the Month" because their dedicated volunteer work has enriched the lives of all the citizens and institutions of Lawrenceville and Pittsburgh.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Stone seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Sister Sylvia:

I feel that there's no better women in the City of Pittsburgh that this could happen to today. We have Lena and Rose together and it couldn't be done without the two of them being together because they're always in it together. No matter what's going on in the community, if Lena's there you're sure to find Rose there. They're inseparable. And they really work hard together. As far as the community things that have been listed there and what they have been doing in the community, every bit of that is really true.

Also, for the hospital which is part of the community, they are working untiringly. Any time there's anything to be done for the hospital, you can be sure that they're out there in the community helping and really going out for St. Francis.

Like I said, it's really worthwhile that this has been done for these two women and it something that should have been done and needs to be done. And I think there are other people in the community that work hard too, but when I think of Lena and Rose, I just have to say that they work mighty, might hard.

Every time there's something,

Lena is there. The other day down the Convention Center, Lena was down there handing out material for St. Francis General Hospital. She came up and said that she gave it all out the night before and that she had to get some more for tonight. That's just how she goes on - untiringly.

So, we do appreciate this happening to Lena and Rose. It couldn't happen to two nicer people. God bless both of you and may you continue on with your work for many, many years because we still need you.

Sister Rosita:

I just want to say congratulations to Lena and Rose. I don't think there could be two more deserving people. I admire Michelle that she had the forethought to give this to these young ladies. We are pleased to have them in the Lawrenceville area because of what they've done for St. Francis and for what they've done for the citizens of Lawrenceville. We at St. Francis feel that we're trying to do out best but I'll tell you, you cannot do it, you cannot do anything for the people of Lawrenceville unless you have the people of Lawrenceville cooperating with you. Certainly Lena and Rose have done this. It's just beautiful, the spirit that we have now in Lawrenceville, with everybody working toward the same end.

We thank the Council and everyone who has been involved in the support you've given us. Thank you.

Michelle Madoff:

This is sort of an unusual award. You know, Therese Rocco and Bosanka Evosovic were very, very well known in the community. What we're trying to do with the award of the month is find people who normally don't get recognized, maybe a little bit in their own community, but they don't get the kind of recognition they should have across this whole City and as Councilmembers, we do run at large, we represent everybody and they represent everybody. And I personally want to thank them for being wonderful friends and for being devoted to the community. I wonder if they'd say something.

Lena Hotujec:

We want to thank you. We appreciate this award and we do love all of you at City Council. Without you, we couldn't get this award. We just want to thank you very, very much. And we want to continue whatever we're doing that's good. Thank you.

Rose Larcovic:

We're called the "Little Roadrunners" and I'm really happy to be honored. I want to thank Council for helping us and thank Michelle Madoff and anybody else. I thank you all and I love you all. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Congratulations, ladies.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2742 Communication from Daryl H. Smith, Director, Department of Lands and Buildings, requesting interim approval for B. Dalfol & Son, Inc., to perform extra work in connection with the Front Steps & Loggia Project at the City-County Building. Cost not to exceed $35,000.00, payable from Capital Project No. LB 82-07 (4-25-15-2015-82) Renovation of Front Steps & Loggia, Department of Lands and Buildings.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Flaherty moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 2743 Resolution providing for a Contract/s including the use of existing Contracts, for construction in connection with rehabilitation of No. 17 Fire Station, Mt. Washington, at a cost not to exceed $365,000.00, chargeable to and payable as follows: LB 83-02 (4-25-01-1956-83) $325,000.00, LB 80-03 (4-25-01-1956-80) $40,000.00, No. 17 Fire Station, Mt. Washington, Dept. of Lands and Buildings.

Also,

No. 2744 Communication from Daryl H. Smith, Director, Dept. of Lands and Buildings, requesting permission for Alice Khalil to attend a seminar on Management Skills for Women in Business at the University of Pittsburgh on May 25, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $220.00, payable from Code Account 1361, Misc. Services, Dept. of Lands and Buildings.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Givens presented

No. 2745 Resolution repealing Res. No. 864, approved 8/24/81, eff. 8/31/81, entitled, "Providing for a Contract or Contracts for repaving and widening of Warrington Avenue from Boggs Avenue to Arlington Avenue including necessary work on private property, necessary waterline work and other work incidental thereto; providing for a Reimbursement Agreement or Agreements with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Dept. of Transportation; and providing for the payment of the cost not to exceed $3,250,000.00, payable from PW81-12 $3,000,000.00 and WD81-14 $250,000.00. Reimbursement received from the Commonwealth of Pa. or the federal government shall be deposited in Capital Fund Account PW 81-12.

Also,

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill that was just introduced on Mercy Hospital with the heliport, won't that have to wait until we pass legislation regulating all heliports?

Mr. Stone:

When it comes up on the agenda we'll discuss it.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I just think somebody ought to tell them that that is pending and that they just don't expect to be coming up shortly. I think we could give them a courtesy call.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2777 Communication from Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with his veto Bill No. 2623 entitled, "Resolution establishing a Cable Communications Training and Internship Program for the City of Pittsburgh."

(MAYOR'S LETTER RE COUNCIL BILL 2623)

March 23, 1983

Honorable President and Members
City Council
CITY OF PITTSBURGH

Dear Mr. President and Members:

I am returning herewith, as vetoed, Council Bill 2623 of 1983 which purports to establish a cable communications training program for the City of Pittsburgh. My objections to the Bill are that it is illegal, it would hamper the operations of the Bureau of Cable Communications and it is unnecessary.

Attached is an opinion from the City Solicitor holding that this Bill is illegal because it violates the Home Rule Charter in that it purports to give Council power to appoint employees of the City when those powers are expressly reserved to administrative officials.

Even if Council Bill 2623 were not illegal, it would impinge upon the efficient operation of the Cable Communications Bureau and its ability to serve the general public. The Cable Bureau has the responsibility to monitor and regulate cable communications in Pittsburgh for the benefit of all residents. Additionally, it coordinates the utilization of the City of Pittsburgh's government communications channel.

The Bureau has estimated that the internship program would cost $250,000 per year for intern salaries, staff to conduct training and supervise the interns, additional television equipment for training and production purposes and other costs for administering the program. This does not even include the cost of outside consultants that this Bill purports to mandate.

The overall impact of the Bill would be to restrict the Cable Bureau's ability to discharge its principal responsibilities by diverting its energies and resources to this unnecessary and costly program.

Furthermore, the Bill serves no discernible need. Warner Cable presently is conducting an internship program with local colleges and universities to give their students practical experience in the area of cable communication. Also, the franchise agreement with Warner provides for the free training and use of five fully equipped and staffed neighborhood television production facilities that can be used by all residents and organizations located within the City of Pittsburgh.

For the above reasons, I return Council Bill 2623 of 1983 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD S. CALIGUIRI

RSC:dk

(END - MAYOR'S LETTER RE COUNCIL BILL NO. 2623)

The Chair:

You heard the veto, vote aye to sustain and nay to override.

Mr. Stone:

If you want to sustain the veto, vote no.

The Chair:

You better get clarification on that. You're voting on a veto. Aye to sustain and nay to override.

Mr. Robinson:

We're voting on the motion, Mr. Stone's motion.

The Chair:

Okay, but you still have a resolution and that's what you're voting on. Right, Mike?

Mr. Perry:

You're voting on the motion to override.

The Chair:

I stand corrected. Aye to override and nay to sustain.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. On Bill 2623, I'd just like to share with members of Council some information that may be helpful in making a decision on the vote.

First, the ability to select trainees rests with the developers and implementors of the program and they are identified in the legislation as the Superintendent of the Cable Bureau and those consultants with whom he would be working, and members of Council would not be involved in the process of selecting any of the interns or trainees.

Also, the Cable Bureau is a part of City government and serves City government as our communications vehicle to inform, educate and instruct the general public. It also serves all units of City government and certainly what is proposed in Council Bill 2623 is an attempt to better prepare us to educate and instruct the general public as well as serve those units of government.

The cost for this effort would be determined by the developers and inasmuch as the program has not yet been developed, we certainly don't know what the costs would be but certainly the monies that we receive pursuant to the franchise fee would be sufficient to establish this program.

Any outside assistance that would be secured can be secured through several means. That is, outside assistance in putting the program together. Whether it comes from many of our colleges or universities or paid consultants, certainly there is expertise outside of government that comes from many sources, some of which we may have to compensate individuals for, some of which might be given to us gratis.

Lastly, I think there is a need for all units of government to be completely familiar with this new technology called cable communications. The necessity to utilize this new technology is rather obvious and the Administration has already begun to move in that direction, and all one need do is watch Channel 17, our government communications channel, to see that indeed the City of Pittsburgh is using quite effectively this new technology.

Also, I think the full utilization of the potential of the Cable Communications Bureau will provide for efficient and up to date government and certainly one of the things that the Bureau is doing is better preparing us to deal with the problems of government and certainly I think we should all remember that the Cable Communications Bureau is a unit of City government for those of us who work in City government to utilize to do our job better.

So, I would just hope that all members of Council would take those facts into consideration prior to voting.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'd like to point out to Mr. Robinson and my colleagues that before we voted on the cable contract, TCI put up a quarter of a million dollars to train cable installers without knowing whether they were going to get the contract or not and they were the company that had the lowest rate on the first level. As you know, when we got to the final vote we really didn't have much choice in this Council. There were only two names recommended to us, that of ATC in New York and Warner. My situation was a matter of which of the two to take and I couldn't go with ATC that showed swim-a-thons and Ugly George and Midnight Blue on their show. At that point, Warner seemed to have the most advanced state of the art. Now we're in a situation that this bill might be a moot bill because if they don't want the contract, if they're looking for a thirty percent increase, why don't they just give us a certified audit and we'll put the contract up for bid again. This may be a moot issue. They may not be the contractor we'll be dealing with.

Mr. Stone moved to override the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am supporting the Mayor's veto and the reason why is that I have heard the arguments, the debate of a few weeks ago, and I have read the Mayor's reasons for the veto of the bill and I still cannot see the necessity for each member of Council to have a cable intern. I have heard that some of the reasons are that this will attempt to facilitate the representation on Council, it will keep the public more informed. I think they are all very laudible arguments but I cannot see their relationship to members of City Council having a cable intern. I think this Council should be working more towards perhaps having a legitimate staff to handle constituent services and for purposes of research.

As was brought out in the Mayor's veto, by each member of Council having a cable intern, this will run in excess of at least a quarter of a million dollars annually. It's important to keep in mind, I don't think we are going to supervise or that we are even capable of supervising or having the expertise to train our cable interns. This is going to fall upon the crushing responsibility of what our current cable personnel now have. It's just going to be an added responsibility. To them, the bottom line is it's going to be an added cost.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no and I'd like my remarks from the last Wednesday session to be brought forward. However, I don't think the concept or the idea is totally wrong that we in Council, as we have other internships come in here to study government, that we cannot have interns come in here to study how the new media of cable communications apprise to government and what those effects are. I think that's very important. I think in such cases Council has contingency funds set up wherein we can help pay for these people. I have to agree in talking with Brother Richard Emenecker that presently our Cable Bureau of the City of Pittsburgh does not have the capability to really sit down on an internship-type basis. For that reason, I vote no and no only. I think there are areas for exploration and future endeavors by this Council and I hope that Councilman Robinson would continue to look into them.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS
ON BILL NO. 2623 - 3/9/83)

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chairman, everything comes down to finances, and we are talking about the five percent, and we only draw down what we are actually using. I think Bill has a very appropriate thing, but using our own bureau people for internships--we've all had internships, I've had them within my own Council--all of us know that it takes us away from our assigned task to help some young aspirant to be more familiar with what is going on within government. It is time consuming, but when there is a production that must be made, do we have the capability? We have to expand it and draw-down some more of this money.

My question is, has this ever been discussed with Brother Richard Emenecker, the Bureau Chief? I ask that to you, Director, and I ask that also to Councilman Robinson.

Director Gaetano:

I have spoken to Brother Richard about it, and Brother Richard stated just everything I have been saying right here. The fact of the matter is, I will need additional people to help. We have a very limited number of camera people right now, and the more departments come in and use this Channel 17, use our government channel, the more my people will be taxed. I will need additional people, and Brother Richard has mentioned that to me, yes.

Mr. Givens:

We have a budget; the budget says five percent of whatever their gross receipts for the first three years, they give us a flat rate, thereafter it is a certain percentage, five percent of the gross thing, and we can go up to that figure. If we go beyond that, then we are going to be tapping into the general revenues. I am trying to think of how that thing reads downstream; that phases out in about 12 years or something.

Director Gaetano:

Something like that, then it phases out and we pay back.

Mr. Givens:

Does anybody recall how that mechanism was set up?

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

It phases out. That is like Emergency Medical Services, it is a beautiful thing. We started under a federal program, now it is part of our actual budget. I just wondered if you can just keep on tacking on into government, you know, the various skills. If the people would stay here in Pittsburgh, I would say great. I think we have something here in the Warner CUBE system, that it is very high technology, the people can be trained, but generally, they will probably be leaving the City of Pittsburgh and moving on to where other systems are being developed. We are looking at people who want to remain here, hopefully, in Pittsburgh. There is a certain moral obligation to train people if we have the capability of doing it.

To approve this, I have no problem with it, I think it is great. But, I think there has to be some controls. I have some problems about Councilman Dick Givens, if I read that properly. I have some problems if, Bill, did I understand you that the Council people will be submitting names of internships?

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Each one, I think you mentioned all of Council, the Mayor, the Controller. I have problems with that for this reason, I don't feel that I am in a capacity, as an elected official, to be having internship. I'll give you an example of that. The state senators of the State of Pennsylvania used to give scholarships out to various people, and it became very political.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I totally agree with that, too.

THE CHAIR COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

I agree with that, but the thing is that people do appeal to you and I have to appreciate that those that were receiving it were ones that were in need of it and had the educational expertise. I think it is something that if it is going to be interns, then I think we should turn it over to the people that are the experts in there, and that is our Bureau of Cable Communications. We are going to have 100 or 200 people coming to us saying that they need this break in life, and I think that has to be administered where the work is actually going to be done, and that is within the Bureau of Cable Communications. The screening process should be done down there. I would hope that this councilman would not be a part of the final selection because I am not technically qualified to say who should get it and who should not get it.

I have one problem with the one sentence.

MR. DE PASQUALE COMMENTS

Mr. Givens:

Yes, Jeep, but when you and I select that person, I have a problem with that.

Has Brother Richard reviewed this specific piece of legislation, Director?

Director Gaetano:

Yes, he has.

(END - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2623, 3/9/83)

Michelle Madoff:

The City of Pittsburgh passed, I believe under the Home Rule Charter, a law that the employees would be handled or hired under Merit Civil Service. Council chose not to abide by that rule and indeed indulges in patronage. We take turns at hiring and when it came to my turn --

The Chair:

Michelle, stay on the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I am on the motion.

The Chair:

You're not on the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I am on the motion.

The Chair:

Go on with the voting. She doesn't want to vote.

Michelle Madoff:

When it came my turn for patronage, I did not accept it and said to Mike Perry, City Clerk, "You go ahead and interview somebody. Just make sure they've had the Merit Civil Service test and pick the person you want."

Because of that and because I do not believe in patronage, I must vote no.

Mr. Stone:

In view of the legal opinion indicating that this is illegal, I vote no.

Mr. Woods:

I vote no for the same reason as Mr. Stone.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the veto?

And on the question, "Shall the veto pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Robinson

AYES 1

NOES 7

VOTING NO:

Mr. Flaherty

Mr. Stone

Mr. Givens

Mr. Woods

Michelle Madoff

Mr. DePasquale

Mrs. Masloff

(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the veto is sustained.

Mr. Givens:

Before we go forward, there's certain papers that are put in front of our desk, Mr. President. Who put these here? Did they clear this through you?

Mr. Perry:

I have no idea.

Mr. Givens:

I think there should be some control then. If people just come up and put papers on these desks for this Council to read, I'm assuming they're coming from either a member of Council or from the Chief Clerk.

Mr. Perry:

I don't know what that is.

Mr. Givens:

Then I think that we should have a little more security control in here.

Woman on side:

I put those papers there. I'm sorry. I didn't know.

Mr. Givens:

Thank you. I would appreciate it, and I'm sure other members of Council would, if you would see either the President or the Chief Clerk prior to putting anything on our desk because anything that appears here is of an official nature as far as this Councilman is concerned. I apologize if you didn't know that.

The Chair:

In the future, give them to the Chief Clerk.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone moved to suspend Rule 8 providing for the mailing of printed copies of all ordinances and resolutions to each member of Council at least 48 hours previous to their consideration by Council after the return of such papers from Committee.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. This is the fifth time since the beginning of this year. Why did it happen, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

We were late on it. That's all.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, that's not an answer.

Why was it not mailed? Why was it not ready? Why did we get out bill just before we got in here?

Mr. Perry:

The files weren't complete.

Michelle Madoff:

Are you having problems with the staff.

Mr. Perry:

No, ma'am.

Michelle Madoff:

You wouldn't say that if you were, would you? It's all patronage. We understand.

Mr. Givens:

Point of order, if I might. This is the standing rules of Council right now, is it not?

The Chair:

It is.

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2778

Report of the Committee on Finance for March 23, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions and two ordinances to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2671

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Scott Brothers Equipment, R.D. #1, Box 200, Coraopolis, PA 15108 in the amount of $1,006.81, in payment for Repair of a Back-Hoe Loader furnished for the benefit of the City and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

On Bill 2671, I would like to point out to Mr. Woods, Supplies Chairman, that we are now paying another thousand dollars to repair a seventeen year old back hoe. We could have bought one for the money that we spent just in the past few months at a repossession that's when you but one for $17,000 and it costs $70,000. We spent thousands on rentals and repairs. I hope you'll look into it, Sir.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 2678

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance supplementing the Pittsburgh Code, Title Six, Conduct, Article Five, Discrimination, Chapter 659, Unlawful Practices, by adding a new section, Public Policy and Records."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson moved to recommit Bill 2678.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2679

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Article III, Depositories, Section 223.01, Distribution of Deposits."

Which was read.

Mr. Robinson:

On Bill 2679, I'd like to offer two amendments.

Mr. Givens:

That was amended on Wednesday, wasn't it, Bill?

Michelle Madoff:

It was my amendment.

Mr. Robinson:

On Wednesday, we did make some adjustments, but I'd like to offer some additional amendments if I might. I forwarded to each member of Council a memo dated March 25, 1983 relative to Bill 2679. Basically what I'd like to do is offer one amendment to delete Section 1B, that portion which reads, "But not to exceed their legal capacity".

Michelle Madoff:

What is your purpose, Mr. Robinson, please? That was my amendment.

Mr. Robinson:

The purpose is to not be redundant. It's rather obvious that we could not place our resources in any financial institution beyond that institution's legal capacity to accept those funds. We're already stating something that's obvious in the law.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, would you like to reverse it and write, "But not less than their legal capacity"?

The Chair:

Do we have a second on Mr. Robinson's motion?

There being no second, the motion doesn't carry.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, Mr. President, I'd like to offer another amendment. In Section 1B add, "But not less than their legal capacity".

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, may I make a comment? If he puts that in, you're going to make the bill illegal. You can't tell that it has to be up to that capacity. I think that the general desire of everyone, as far as I know it right now, is that they be funded up to their legal capacity, but you can't say that it has to be. You're going to make the bill illegal if you do that. I'm just forewarning everybody.

Mr. Robinson:

I offered an amendment to delete the section which said, "But not to exceed their legal capacity" which would in effect, Mr. Stone, have given you the results that you're suggesting. That is that we would allow the normal course of events to dictate the amount of money that would be placed in that institution. I couldn't get a second to that amendment.

Mr. Stone:

I think what's in here is right. But if you say that it can't be less than that then I think you would have a problem. What you said, if you mandate something, you can't do what you can do otherwise. I'm talking about a legal situation. Purely technical, legal results.

Mr. Robinson:

It would also say that we would not want to restate the law by saying, "But not to exceed their legal capacity". It's rather obvious that we can't put any money in any institution beyond its legal capacity.

Mr. Stone:

I think that needs cleared up, Mr. Robinson, because as I understand it, New World can't take $2 million. That one is much less than what it was before.

Mr. Robinson:

But we're not limited to New World National Bank.

Mr. Stone:

I know that. But this is how far this thing has gone. We were talking $2 million last Wednesday and I understand that thing is not even a tenth of that. But at any rate, if it's in, I will vote against this motion and I will also vote against the bill as amended.

The Chair:

Mr. Stone, if I read you right, you're saying we all would hope that they would take it up to the legal capacity but if we put this amendment in, it would take away from them the right to lower it, which they probably won't do, but they still legally have to have that right.

Mr. Robinson:

Then I will withdraw my motion.

Michelle Madoff:

I'll withdraw my second.

Mr. Robinson:

Now I would just like Mr. Stone to be clear that what is in the bill now in Section 1B, "But not to exceed their legal capacity" is redundant and unnecessary.

Mr. Stone:

No, I think it should be there.

Mr. Robinson:

There is no other banking institution that we deal with in the City where we have this type of restriction but into the legislation that authorizes money to be put into it.

Mr. Stone:

But we talked about thirty percent before which was $70 million.

Mr. Robinson:

But the thirty percent has been removed from the bill. There's no percentage in the bill now.

Mr. Stone:

I think that one is past. There has been a motion, it was not seconded. I just talked about the second proposed amendment.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I have a third amendment and that would be to add a Section 1D. If Council will remember, we removed the original Section 1D and I'd like to replace it with a section that will clearly identify what we mean by minority. This definition that I would like to put in this section is consistent with the definition that we used in our Cable Communications Franchise Agreement when we were attempting to identify what we meant by minority. It should read, "Minority shall mean a citizen of the United States of America who is not a member of the Caucasian race and is of Oriental, Asian, African, American Indian, Eskimo, Aleut, Puerto Rican or Mexican American ancestry."

The Chair:

Are we to assume then that white women are not part of minority?

Mr. Robinson:

By way of this definition they would not be.

Mr. Givens:

Bill, is that in the guidelines of the Federal Regulation? Is there anything left out other than what the Federal Government —

Mr. Robinson:

No. This is consistent with what is done at the state, federal and local levels. I said this is the definition that we already have contained in our cable franchise.

Mr. Stone:

Based on that representation, I'll second it.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, I don't think we can let the issue as it stands pass without a comment. Deposited monies by the City of Pittsburgh or all other funds shall be distributed, and we took out thirty percent and my amendment was put in, but not to exceed their legal capacity. We're told that is legal but we're told that less than their legal capacity would not be illegal. I think it's important to point out that until you pressured the Administration to get the figures, we were all under the impression that indeed the Administration was giving or doing their best to obtain fifteen percent for minorities and women on contracts that the City had control over. And what we found out is that the Mayor's people came in and before they even presented the figures said, "We, the Administration, is appalled. We are surprised at what we saw. We, the Mayor, want to do something about it." And now they're saying, "Well, we're going to give them some monies but not to exceed the legal capacity." Well, one dollar wouldn't exceed the legal capacity.

My concern is that we're going to get more rhetoric. It will be another ten years until somebody gets the figures back and we may find out that with all the good intentions, we're back to where we were when we started.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would also care to respond to that. I know that we have had a lot of discussion here in regard to what the legal capacity is. But I have not seen any substantiation, or no one has quoted to me the source that says what the legal capacity is.

Mr. Robinson:

I did. I spoke with Mrs. Mildred Glenn, who is the President of New World National Bank, and she assured me that their capacity is $2 million.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, but from what source or what State regulation says that their capacity is $2 million?

Mr. Robinson:

They are operating under laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States of America and the rules and regulations that are established by the specific institutions designed to control banks determine what their capacity is now. That capacity obviously can change. That is their capacity as of the date that I spoke with Mrs. Glenn.

The Chair:

Excuse me, Mr. Robinson, this is a banking institution, right?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, sir. As I mentioned before, there's nothing in the law which restricts us from putting money in banks in other cities. But we're not talking about New World National Bank. This legislation does not specifically speak to New World National Bank. The money can be put in any minority financial institution. I think Mr. Stone's concern that we keep as much of our money as possible at home is very timely and very important and I think it makes a lot of sense. But we are not here speaking specifically about New World National Bank.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would just want to follow up on something that Michelle Madoff had hit upon and also Councilman Robinson earlier. And that is keeping that language in regard to the legal capacity, the amendment that was added in the Wednesday Committee Meeting which reads, "Not to exceed their legal capacity". It strikes me that it is superfluous language and also the language has absolutely no impact since the capacity of any bank is regulated by a law higher than what this Council can enact.

But the problem I have in keeping that intact in the bill, I think it is sort of mean-spirited and it's a bad symbol, it's bad language because, as Councilman Robinson pointed out earlier, —

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, point of order. There was —

Mr. Flaherty:

Could I please finish, Mr.

President?

Mr. Stone:

Point of order.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, could I please finish? I didn't interrupt Councilman Stone when he was talking. He can respond to me when I'm through talking and if he wishes to correct me then he can.

Mr. Stone:

Point of order.

The Chair:

Point of order.

Mr. Stone:

There was a motion made, it was not seconded. It has passed that issue. Any more discussion on that matter is —

Mr. Flaherty:

That is not my understanding. I did not hear the motion made, otherwise I would have seconded that motion.

Mr. Stone:

The time has passed to second it.

Mr. Flaherty:

Wait. I don't recall that motion. Who made that motion?

Mr. Robinson:

I made the motion to delete that section. There was not a second.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, is there any way that the motion can be made again?

The Chair:

No, Mr. Flaherty.

Parliamentarian:

To reconsider.

Mr. Robinson:

A motion to reconsider that issue?

Mr. Flaherty:

Then I move to reconsider that issue.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would hope that this Council would move to reconsider the issue because, as I was saying earlier, I think that language is superfluous, it serves no meaning. But I think this Council should be most sensitive to the symbolism of that language. I think it reads in a very mean-spirited fashion and we certainly do not put iron-clad superfluous language in regard to any contractual agreements that we have with white-controlled financial institutions in this City and I think we should be sensitive to the language in regard to the legislation that deals with minority-controlled financial institutions.

Mr. Givens:

I think that the wisdom of our federal government, our state government and our banking institutions and that of the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh, I must be concerned that experience has so indicated to us that we should follow these guidelines. I vote no.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't believe what's happening here. Mr. President, the amended language was to amend thirty percent which we were told was illegal. The compromise was to say, but not to exceed their legal capacity. The reason I am supporting Councilman Flaherty's motion to reconsider is that I believe every member of this Council has a right to be heard. And if he inadvertently overlooked that point and wishes to discuss it, he should not be cut off by another Councilmember by say that already passed. I think it needs some discussion in that when I said, "but not less than their legal capacity" and Mr. Robinson introduced that to be sure that some monies would go into minority banks, we were told that was illegal by one member of Council. I don't know that that is indeed illegal. That is not insulting language. And we just seem to have opinions that are put down upon us so that when they want our opinion they'll give it to us. And I think it's very rude and very obvious to people listening to this Council —

The Chair:

Michelle, stay on the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

On the motion, I am trying to say that we ought to give a member of Council who wishes to be heard the opportunity to be heard. And, Mr. President, I am very aware, and so is the public, that this is a very well orchestrated attempt to make it look like I interrupt every time I want to ask a question. And the public is not stupid, Sir.

The Chair:

You didn't have the courtesy to second the motion before, now we hear a half an hour speech.

Michelle Madoff:

Because I raised another issue.

The Chair:

That's how much you cared about it before.

Michelle Madoff:

Just one moment, Mr. President. You made an accusation that needs answering.

The Chair:

Are you voting aye or nay?

Michelle Madoff:

You made an accusation that needs a response. I said no less than their legal capacity and I was told that was illegal.

The Chair:

Go on with the vote.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Michelle Madoff

Mr. Robinson

AYES 3

NOES 5

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens
Mrs. Masloff
Mr. Stone

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

Any further discussion on the bills themselves? If not, they're ready for final motion. Aye to approve and nay to disapprove.

Michelle Madoff:

Can we have some discussion before we vote?

The Chair:

I already asked for discussion and you didn't care to discuss it.

Michelle Madoff:

You just said, "On the bill" and someone said —

The Chair:

I said, "Is there any further discussion on the bills themselves", you did not care to respond. We're now voting on the bills and it's Mr. Flaherty's turn to vote.

Michelle Madoff:

I just wanted to speak but I gave

Mr. Flaherty the opportunity to speak first because he was cut off before.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I'll just explain my vote. I am supporting the measure. I could enthusiastically support it if that superfluous language which was added in regard to the thirty percent language which was deleted but we kept the clarifying amendment, if that was removed. But I am going to support it even though I feel that we are giving the bill a scarlet letter.

Mr. Givens:

You might say there's some who know the greatest wisdom of our federal and state government. I vote yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote aye on Bill 2679 but I would like to say that I would like to see some results not just a lot of verbiage and a lot of window dressing and saying we want to help minority banks. I want to see some money in there and I'm sure Mr. Robinson will follow up on that.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 2681

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution Re-opening the 1983 Budget for consideration of all budgetary items presented and approved during 1982."

Which was read.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote aye on 2681 because I feel that Council should be sensitive and it should have a certain degree of fluidity and we should be in the position to respond to requests from our constituency or the need to change any form or any operation of any of the Departments. The only way that Council can be in a position to be responsive and to act in a responsible form is to have the power to re-open the Budget. This is not a radical move. It's important to keep in mind that on any issue that Council should deem important to re-open the Budget it would take a majority of the members of Council to approve that. Therefore, I vote aye.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no on this particular measure and for the eight years I have sat on this Council we have never in fact re-opened the Budget. It's of an emergency nature. The Budget was open for the purpose of gaining money that was a windfall. This was not anticipated on the sale of one particular building, the U.S. Steel Building, in the City of Pittsburgh. That money, then, was to be put into a jobs corp for the unemployed of the City of Pittsburgh. I think we have to probably go back to the '30's before we would find a situation of the magnitude that we're addressing today. So, for that reason, I think when the Budget is finally deliberated in December and finally voted on, that is the time to cast your vote and only under extreme emergency situations should this Budget be opened back up.

And if I might, Mr. Perry, for the remarks on this particular bill, I would like my comments of a press release that I had made in the year of 1982 be incorporated into my remarks which indicates what Michelle was talking about and that is surplus.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS' PRESS RELEASE - 1982 MESSAGE TO COUNCIL)

The protests are starting to come in. This morning's paper, one taxpayer complained about the size of the proposed tax package. We heard a number of citizens protest during our budget hearings. In recent weeks, I've received quite a few calls and letters from angry taxpayers threatening to move out of the city because of the size of the tax package. The effect of the tax raises on average working and middle-class homeowners will be anywhere from $300 to $500, even with the Council's reductions. During the holiday season, people are busy with family concerns, but the uninformed will be informed when they open their 1982 tax bills. Not only people on fixed incomes, the elderly, and renters, but everyone is in for a rude awakening.

Though the Mayor and this Council have scratched to make necessary budget cuts, the cuts are not enough. If the city ran effectively on $187 million last year, total department expenditures should not increase beyond eight percent to keep pace with wage raises and inflation, and keep operating costs under $202 million.

Yesterday, we were informed of higher revenue estimates in real estate taxes and other revenue sources. And, this will help in the coming year. But, what about the years to come through the mid 80's.

Despite all the administration's economies, the debt service continues to grow annually, as does our unfunded pension liability. Our credit rating has dropped from one of the highest to one of the lowest among major cities. Our population continues to decline and with it our tax base. Not only are we losing roughly $13 million in taxing capacity annually, but we are also losing our young wage-earners, people in their 20's and 30's. Inflation, shrinking federal aid, an eroding tax base, all are driving individuals and young families out of the city, and now this tax package is going to drive them out faster.

While we all are aware of the administration's lobbying efforts to expand Pittsburgh's tax base, the results are uncertain. I am currently investigating alternative revenue-raising methods like a service fee on non-profit institutions such as hospitals and colleges. We have to channel our energies into finding ways to finance local government without placing the burden on the average working and middle-class household.

Adlai Stevenson once said, "The time to stop a revolution is at the beginning". We've already lost about 100,000 people a decade over the last two decades. With a tax package the size of the one proposed, we're going to force more young people and families out of the city. In the last few years, taxpayers in other regions of the country have risen up to fight the assault of burdensome taxation. Come January, when Pittsburgh taxpayers begin to feel the bite of the proposed tax increases, the tax revolt will have begun. Taxpayers will be angry with a Council that did not protect their legitimate interests. Whether they leave the city or revolt, we all lose.

(END - MR. GIVENS' PRESS RELEASE - 1982 MESSAGE TO COUNCIL)

Michelle Madoff:

We have not as yet received information on the $18 million transfer from 1982 to 1983 Budget. I vote yes to re-open the Budget.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote yes and I'd like to have my comments from last Wednesday and the previous Wednesday brought forward, please.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2681 3/23/83)

Mr. Robinson:

I am voting aye, and I would just like to explain my vote by saying that I sponsored this bill for three reasons. One, I think Council needs to be more involved in the budgetary process all the way through. Two, I think it is essential that this Council know what mechanisms, what procedures are being used to determine our budget surpluses. And, three, I think it is incumbent upon this Council to have adequate information prior to making any budgetary decisions, specifically the decision we made recently concerning the carry-over, which had some implications in terms of the size of our surplus. It is rather obvious that the surplus that was projected to us of $16 million has grown within the last eight or nine months. It is being projected now as having been $18 million, it is probably closer to $20 million; and, we have yet to get the adequate information we need to make sound decisions.

Lastly, I think that if we are serious about dealing with some of the problems in this city, namely unemployment, that we need to find out what kind of financial capacity we have to address that problem on a permanent basis. So, I am going to vote aye.

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

I make a motion to amend Bill No. 2704 by deleting 1982 Community Development Block Grant Program Trust Fund and inserting 1983 Community Development Block Grant Program Trust Fund.

Also, the project which was left blank on the original because when the bill was introduced they did not have one, that will be added Project No. 4-40-05-6000-80-901-83-35.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question in regard to that. One of the amendments was adding the Community Development Block Grant Funds for '83. I don't believe we have received any approval from the Planning Commission yet as to what projects the Planning Commission is supportive of. Have we?

Mr. Givens:

Tom, that money comes in in May of this year. All '82 funds for that have been exhausted, as this Council approved, on Warrington Avenue so that we can get moving on that as quickly as possible because that was holding up the whole rapid transit system from the south.

I don't think there's going to be any gaps in here. If there are, there might be a thirty day gap where this particular organization would be unfunded. I think their funding runs out sometime right around the middle of April or so. If there's any additional problems on this bill, I think Council can come back and find some additional money.

Mr. Flaherty:

The only reason why I am very cautious of Council acting in this fashion now is that I think it's imperative that Council keep in mind that we must protect the integrity of all applicants, of all projects for Community Development Block Grant Funds and for the ULO funds. It's my understanding that if we approve this application, this will be the first granting, the first approval that this Council has given to any project to utilize the Community Development Block Grant Funds. And I'm very concerned because I think all members of Council are probably partial and have certain applications, certain programs there that perhaps they were the initiator of in this Council. And it just strikes me as coming in through the back door, grabbing a chunk of that money for one program and before the Planning Commission comes forth with the recommendations for all other applications for Community Block Grant Funds.

So, I would just ask to protect the integrity of the process, to show to all communities and all applicants that we are going to weigh all of their proposals in a uniform, judicial manner. I would ask you, Councilman, why you feel it's so imperative that we act first on this application when it's my understanding there are seventy other applications that are still in the pack.

The Chair:

In that respect, Mr. Givens, I think you should delete the '83, because there's no way you can pass this amendment with '83 in there. They haven't defined what '83 is going to be.

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me. We have already appropriated the 1983 CD Budget in our '83 deliberations. Is that not so, Mr. Stone?

Mr. Stone:

I think you're going to have to recommit, Dick, if you want to get this through. You can't pass a bill based on money to come in. You have to have the money there. It says the '83 funds, I just asked, has not come in yet and you can't pass it until the money is there.

So, what I suggest you do is recommit this until the monies come and when the monies are there, then move it back out.

Mr. Givens:

Okay, then on the advice of our finance people back there, I see them motioning their heads in the same thing as Tom has brought up. I was doing this on the guidance of, I thought our finance people, that it could be done in this particular way.

I will caution this group of colleagues that I think their funding is going to run out prior to the time when the normal federal '83 Block Grant monies come in. Most of the programs that you are talking about, Tom, and people that are asking for this money, I can assure you that this program had started in 1980. If you drove by that particular community, you could see there have been ten new stores added within the last couple of months. They are really moving out like South Side, North Side and some other areas of the City have really moved out.

If we can't find it from Block Grant Fund money, I think I would then ask our Finance Department to go back between now and Wednesday when I'd like to bring this back up on the table again and see if we can get money from some other source.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to add some clarifying remarks. I know of the laudible work that the Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation is doing. The only point I was trying to make was that I don't feel that we should put ourselves in the position of giving preferential treatment to anyone when it comes to Community Development Block Grant Funds.

Mr. Givens:

I think Reggie Young so indicated that they are on that commitment and I'm sure they will be and I would hope that they could continue on with their funding because, as all of us know, much of the critical fund-raising, building, reconstruction starts in March and April of every year and we see the end results sometime in May, June, July.

So, I'll look into it and possibly we can come up with some other funding source between now and Wednesday.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I'd just like this record to show, I don't know if it's coming across yet to Mr. Givens. I'm not speaking against this bill. I'm just telling you you can't do what you're doing under the present way you're doing it. I'm trying to help you by having it recommitted.

Mr. Givens:

Right. I was acting on our own Council's finance advice in amending the bill, so if that is not the legal way to do it then we'll go back and do it the legal way.

Mr. Givens moved to recommit Bill No. 2704.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I request from the City Clerk that a request go to two sources, one to our legal department, Mr. Pellegrini on Bill 2679; I've just conferred with Mr. Robinson. I want to find out if the language "but not less than their legal capacity," providing they meet with all government laws on Section B, is indeed illegal as stated by Mr. Stone. I spoke to the Parliamentarian; he's not sure, and he thinks we need a legal opinion, and I would like five votes from this Council and have one of our own attorneys review that, because I can't keep paying for private counsel. We do not have a fiscal advisor, so I can get a legal opinion from a private attorney? Do I have five votes for that, Mr. President?

Mr. Givens:

Can you read your motion again?

Michelle Madoff:

The motion is to get clarification on the words "but not less than their legal capacity." In other words I'm just concerned that when we change the language to say they could not have 30 percent, which I agreed with, and changed it to minority controlled financial institutions, but not to exceed their legal capacity, Mr. Flaherty found that language offensive, and I concur with him that the language should be changed. Mr. Robinson tried to changed it to "but not less than their capacity," and Mr. Stone said, as an attorney, that it was illegal. That's Mr. Stone's opinion as an attorney. I'd like to hear another attorney's opinion, that of our official attorney to the Administration, not to Council, but since Council doesn't have its own attorney, which we're entitled to under the Home Rule Charter, we do have many attorneys available to us at a $50-an-hour fee, and I think it would take half an hour for somebody to tell us whether that's legal or not, and I would like to get five votes. It used to be that you could go to the President of Council and get permission to hire one of our attorneys, but Mr. Stone made a motion that you couldn't do it without five people, so therefore, I'm asking for five votes.

The Chair:

With the exception, Michelle, I think this is rather clear what you are talking about, and it's in there, and I don't see how any advice from any private attorney is going to change it.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I just spoke to the Parliamentarian, and he said he didn't know if it was illegal, and I think he said we should get a legal opinion, at least.

The Chair:

Is there a second on the motion?

There being no second, the motion fails.

Michelle Madoff:

Mike, would you make sure that we get one from Dan Pellegrini?

Mr. Stone moved to excuse Mr. O'Malley for absence from the meeting.

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council adjourned.

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, April 4, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. O'Malley presents

Bill No. 2818 WHEREAS, the Allegheny County Medical Society Auxiliary was organized in 1923 as a constituent to the State and National

Auxiliaries; and

WHEREAS, they have assisted the Medical Society in its programs for the advancement of medicine and public health; and

WHEREAS, they have aided worthy students in health professions through scholarships, and to raise funds for medical education research and benevolence; and

WHEREAS, in April, 1979, as part of its Community Education Service, the Auxiliary presented its first Health Seminar and Fair for women; and

WHEREAS, this annual seminar has provided Pittsburgh women with an opportunity to hear a distinguished panel of physicians and to ask them questions on topics of current medical interest; and

WHEREAS, the World Health Organization has proclaimed April 7, 1983, as World Health Day.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby declare April 7, 1983, World Health Day in Pittsburgh.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the Resolution.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I just have one question from the author. How does World Health — What is their position on the birth control issue again, do you know?

Mr. O'Malley:

They deal with all aspects of health matters, and certainly in a lot of third world countries. Birth control is a great deal of concern because of the exploding population in some of these countries.

Mr. Givens:

Okay, then register my vote no for that particular resolution. I appreciate all of the other things that they're doing in the world health, but that one particular aspect of it, I cannot appreciate.

The Chair:

Is there anybody here from the World Health Organization to receive the award? Please come up.

Mr. O'Malley:

Mrs. Davis, would you like to say a few words?

Mrs. Davis:

I'd like to thank City Council for proclaiming the day because World Health Organization would like to make you conscious of your health but we would like the people of Pittsburgh to be conscious of good health. That is why we're presenting this seminar in the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County free to the people so that they will become more conscious of good health in the early, middle and later years.

The Chair:

Thank you and congratulations.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council, it gives me great pleasure to read this resolution to be offered in honor of the Continental Society. There are many worthy groups and organizations in our City who are constantly doing what they can to be of service to others and I think this organization exemplifies the good and decent people of our City particularly as it relates to helping our underprivileged youth and certainly the Continental Society has been in the forefront of that effort.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2819 WHEREAS, on Saturday, April 9, 1983, the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Continental Society Incorporated will host the organization's Regional Conference; and

WHEREAS, the Continental's headquartered in Washington, D.C. have assisted disadvantaged and underprivileged youth through out the United States; and

WHEREAS, since October of 1974, when the Continental's were organized in Pittsburgh by Mrs. Catherine R. Green, they have made outstanding contributions to our City.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on behalf of it's citizen, does honor the Continental Society Incorporated and wish them well on the occasion of their Regional Conference to be held in our City; and, offers the resources of the City of Pittsburgh to aid in their quest for a better life for our youth.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might. There are some representatives here from the Continental Society and with your permission and the indulgence of Council, I'd like to have them come forward. Mrs. Catherine Green, who was the organizer of the Pittsburgh Chapter, Meridith R. Reynolds, Mrs. Ruby Buchanan, who is the President of the local chapter, Juniata A. Taylor, the historian, Susie Boon, who is the Vice-President, and two of their friends, Augusta Turner and Mabel Thompson. If they would come forward and have a few words.

Mrs. Catherine Green:

On behalf of the Pittsburgh Chapter of Continentals, I would like to say we are so wonderfully happy that you could find it in your heart to give us this wonderful - I have been calling it proclamation but it's not proclamation so if I am calling it by the wrong name would tell me again what you said it was, resolution -

Michelle Madoff:

Proclamation is fine.

Mrs. Green:

We are so grateful that you did this for us. You have given us something to think about and we shall be eternally grateful for what you have done to help the Pittsburgh Chapter of Continentals. I thank you again.

The Chair:

Congratulations, ladies.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2784 Resolution amending Item C of Resolution No. 128, approved March 3, 1983 for the sale of vacant land in the 3rd Ward on Bedford Avenue, designated as Block and Lot 9-M-245 and 9-S-38 to Charles A. Garfagno and Raymond Hawkins. Amendment is to correct dimensions of 1 lot.

Also,

No. 2785 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain property or properties acquired at tax sale in accordance with Act No. 514 of 1947 as amended.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Givens presented

No. 2786 Resolution amending Section No. 2 of Resolution No. 1226, approved November 22, 1982, effective dated December 3, 1982, entitled, "Vacation of a portion of Calvin Street and Garden Way in the 9th Ward, City of Pittsburgh", by extending the time of payment from 60 days to 180 days.

Also,

No. 2787 Providing for an Agreement or Agreements with Frank Moolin and Associates for Engineering Services in connection with the In-Depth Inspection of the North Avenue and Brighton Road Bridge; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof. Funds are available in Code Account PW 83-07, 4-01-05-0001-83, In-Depth Inspection by Contract. Cost not to exceed $19,900.00, payable from Code Account No. PW 83-07, In-Depth Inspection by Contract.

Also,

No. 2788 Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with Pittsburgh International Engineering, Inc. for Engineering Services in connection with the In-Depth Inspection of the S. 12th Street Bridge; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof. Funds are available in Code Account PW 83-07, 4-01-05-0001-83, In-Depth Inspection by Contract. Cost not to exceed $18,700.00.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Michelle Madoff presented

No. 2789-A Resolution setting the wages for the members of Pittsburgh's Personnel Appeals Board at one hundred ($100.00) dollars per diem beginning January 1, 1984.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I question whether that can be presented because that's a budgetary item. The salary has already been set at budget time.

Michelle Madoff:

You weren't listening, Mr. Stone. It said 1984.

The Chair:

I would think it's entirely out of order myself. It is a budgetary item.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond, Mr. President. I wouldn't want to be out of order. May I respond?

The Chair:

Just respond, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

May I respond, Mr. President?

The Chair:

Certainly you may respond.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. President.

I spoke to Mike Perry who informed me that it was a budgetary matter and could not be addressed in '83. We cannot change the budget, but we can introduce it for '84. And what I'm saying is that if we're paying $8,000 a year in salary for somebody doing two day's work, there's only two complaints. We ought to change the figure to a per diem. We are not dealing with an attorney here, we're dealing with somebody who volunteers as a good neighbor and a good citizen. $100 a day will not make any difference in their overall income and $100 a day per diem should be more than adequate. I realize we cannot change it to '84, but every time I introduce anything, as other Councilmembers here will attest, around budget time nothing happens. So I'm doing it early enough in the year so that when budget time comes, it will be a point that we've already addressed. We can change it for the '84 budget.

The Chair:

To that extent, Michelle, we then can do that we every budgetary item and therefore we'll be dealing with the budget now instead of at budget time. That's why I said it's completely out of order and at budget time we'll take it up.

Michelle Madoff:

It is not out of order, Sir, because the public is saying why are we dealing with the budget right after election in November under great pressure. One year it was the world champions. We didn't get to deal with things like Warner for two weeks before we had to vote. We should be dealing with budgetary matters the day after the beginning of the year. We should start dealing in budgetary matters now, not in November. I think there isn't one person out in the public that would disagree with that. Therefore, I am making that recommendation now. Any other member of this Council can make any other budgetary recommendations for '84.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, I called the point of order on it. Is the Chair ruling?

The Chair:

The Chair rules it's out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, how do I get a legal ruling as to whether it's out of order? Can I have five votes of this Council to hire an attorney to check it?

Mr. Stone:

The Chair has ruled.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm sorry. If the Chair were to rule, everybody would be at the back of the bus.

Mr. Robinson:

You can make a motion to have the ruling of the Chair overruled.

Michelle Madoff moved to overrule the Chair.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I think the Parliamentarian should rule on this. That's why we have such a parliamentarian.

Michelle Madoff:

What procedure do I have to take to overrule the Chair?

Mr. Woods:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. You've already ruled, she moved and it's been seconded. Could we please take the vote?

Michelle Madoff:

"She" is called Michelle Madoff, Mr. Woods.

Mr. Woods:

She already moved, could we please take the vote?

Michelle Madoff:

"She" is called Michelle Madoff. I resent being called she.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Point of order. It's parliamentary procedure that we're talking about whether or not the bill itself can be introduced. Before we have this vote, I would like the Parliamentarian to address the question of whether or not this particular resolution can, in fact, be introduced. If it cannot be, then the Chair has no need to be challenged.

Mr. Woods:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman. You have ruled. The Parliamentarian is out of it right now. You have ruled. Can we please continue with the vote?

The Chair:

Point of order is taken. Move on.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty Mr. Robinson
Michelle Madoff

AYES 3 NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. DePasquale
	(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chief Clerk, I would like a note to the Parliamentarian as to whether or not this resolution was one that could be or should be submitted to this Council. I think this is the first time since I've been here in eight years that something has come about that we cannot discuss it before. I see no restriction on someone putting something in on the budget so it can be discussed at a previous time. It's a motion before us and I would like that opportunity to debate that issue before a particular November or December time frame.

So, I would then ask that that letter go down and see any items that might come before this Council, that we have an opportunity to debate them or, in fact, do they have to wait, as our Finance Chairman, said until the financial discussions on the next year's budget.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Also,

No. 2789 Petition from the owners and operators of Auto Glass establishments, situated in the north, south and eastern areas of the City of Pittsburgh, requesting the enactment of legislation to regulate, license and tax the on-street installation of Auto Glass within the City of Pittsburgh.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Michelle Madoff:

That was to be a public hearing, I believe. They were to have 25 signatures.

Mr. Perry:

They're requesting a hearing.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay, but I'm just introducing it as a public hearing. I do not know enough about that issue to say I want it taxed or not taxed.

Also,

No. 2790 Communication from Richard M. Cosentino, Director, Department of Water, requesting interim approval to make payment for a delivery of sand in the amount of $507.73, payable from Code Account No. 1714, Materials.

Also,

No. 2791 Communication from Richard M. Cosentino, Director, Department of Water, requesting interim approval to make repairs to three metallic locators utilized in the Department of Water, at a cost not to exceed $700.00, payable from Code Account No. 1705, Repairs.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Water.

Also,

No. 2792 An Ordinance amending the Pittsburgh Code, Title Seven - Business Licensing, Article VII - Service Businesses, Chapter 763, Parking Lots, by adding additional safety requirements for the licensing and operation of open and enclosed parking lots.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Michelle Madoff moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mrs. Masloff presented

No. 2793 Communication from Wendy S. Bell, Deputy Director, Department of Parks and Recreation, requesting permission for Mark A. Miller, Pool Coordinator in the Bureau of Maintenance of the Department of Parks and Recreation, to attend an Aquatic Management Program at Rutgers University on April 15-16, 1983, at a cost not to exceed $250.00, payable from C.A. No. 1852, Misc. Services, C.A. No. 1801, Misc. Services and Aviary Trust Fund.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Parks and Recreation.

Mr. O'Malley presented

No. 2795 Resolution transferring to the Emergency Medical Services Communications Project Trust Fund the aggregate sum of $175,375.00 from the following accounts: CA 1423, EMNEAS, EMSEP, EMSTPP, within the Department of EMS.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. O'Malley moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 2796 Resolution providing for the letting of a contract or contracts, or for the use of existing contracts, for the furnishing, delivery and installation of Frequency Modulated Radio Equipment for the Department of Emergency Medical Services and for payment not to exceed $200,000.00.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Supplies.

Mr. O'Malley moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing for consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so the bill will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 2797 Resolution providing for a contract or contracts from time to time in connection with the demolition and removal of condemned buildings and providing for the payment of costs not to exceed $225,000.00. ($225,000 from FD 83-01, 4-27-10-0005-83) Including Site Restoration and Boarding and Party Walls.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Mr. Robinson presented

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Givens:

I have been requesting and asking for a report from the Department of Public Works and also from the Mayor's Office in regard to this. Mike, on behalf of Council and the President of the City of Pittsburgh, I ask that this report be submitted to this Council on the minutes of their last meetings. These people are concerned. We're getting into the flood-stage time of the year right now. They want to know what action is being taken to correct a situation that's been existing for a long, long period of time, some twenty-five to thirty years.

I'd like that request to go out today and to answer it as soon as possible. I think what I'm trying to say, Mr. President, is that we need to sit down in an almost emergency session to review what is happening out there before we do have some catastrophies. And if not anything, to have a health situation problem that would be worse than anything that this City has ever seen.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2811 Communication from Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with his veto of Council Bill No. 2250, entitled, "Authorizing a professional study of the Pittsburgh Department of Police, and transferring the sum of $50,000.00 from C.A. No. 10, to C.A. No. 1048, Department of City Controller.

Which was read, received and filed.

(LETTER FROM THE MAYOR - 3/31/83)

March 31, 1983

The Honorable President and Members
City Council
CITY OF PITTSBURGH

Dear Mr. President and Members:

I am returning herewith, as vetoed, Council Bill 2250 authorizing a professional study of the Pittsburgh Department of Police.

My objections to Council Bill 2250 are that the scope of the study is such that $50,000.00 will not provide the desired information and that the present expertise within the Pittsburgh Police Department would surpass any expertise contracted for $50,000.00; also to obtain an in-depth study of the Pittsburgh Police Department would cost perhaps four times the amount of the proposed appropriation and even then, you could not guarantee results that would be acceptable.

If the objectives of the proponents of the study are to find the optimum number of police for the City of Pittsburgh, it is very unlikely that any study would recommend a "magic" number. The direction that most current studies are moving to is pro-active. That is, to find how you can obtain the most efficient use of your present resources. We initiated this evaluation and we will continue to re-evaluate the deployment of our current manpower.

The basic premise of Council Bill 2250 seems to be in the number of police officers needed. As Mayor, I do not believe we should entrust to an outside consultant the responsibility of determining the size of our Police Department.

For the above reasons, I return Council Bill 2250 of 1983 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD S. CALIGUIRI

/aml

(END OF MAYOR'S LETTER - 3/31/83)

Mr. O'Malley moved to override the Mayor's veto.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Discussion. Mr. President, there is presently one million six hundred thousand dollars sitting in the 1983 budget for police. We will have one class put on, we will lose many police by attrition, we are down below minimum security. As Councilman Stone, our Fiscal Officer, pointedly and many times said, "If we're going to have a safe City and have the Civic Arena functioning, we better have enough police."

This Council has for years argued with the Administration about the fact that we have said we should have 1,500 police. He said 1,400. We put the money in three years running for 1,400 police. Since the Mayor wouldn't fill those jobs, we went to 1,340. Those jobs have still not been filled. We are, I think, at a crucial state with police in the City. I don't know how we resolve this bottleneck unless we have some kind of study that may convince the Mayor that he better hire those people or institute a lawsuit against the Administration to put the police on. Maybe that's what the $50,000 ought to be used for. But somehow or other, we must get more police in the City.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to make a few comments on the Mayor's veto. He states two facts: one, that $50,000 will not provide an adequate study, and I have a tendency to agree with him there but I think it's certainly a step in the right direction. He also addresses the magic number of police officers and I think that's one reason that this Council requested the study as to clarifying in our minds one, if we have a proper number of police officers and two, that if our police officers are disbursed properly. I know as Chairman of Public Safety, when I've talked to other Chiefs of Police in other towns, a lot of the major towns seem to be going back to beat officers. To have a dialogue between the Police Department and the community again, I think, is very important. I'd like to have the study touch on that and also our radio cars. I think it's just as important that we have an adequate number of officers in our detective branch and our narcotic branches.

It seems to me that the more resistance that we get from the Police Department and the more resistance we get from the Administration about this study sort of clarifies in my mind how important this study may be to us.

So, I'd urge my colleagues to vote to override the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I am supporting the veto of the supposed study of the Police Department and my reasons are, to reiterate, Superintendent Coll, in my opinion, implied to Council that he was not going to be that concerned with the results of the study. He also in his professional opinion said that he felt that Council was not appropriating an adequate amount to have a sufficient study. I find it somewhat amusing. I know that some members of Council keep adding ornaments to this Christmas tree. For example, they want this looked into and they want to check into this intricacy of police work, and it goes on and on. All this study is going to be is, at the most, a very general simplistic study. I think we have to be candid with the public. I doubt if any statistics are going to sway the office or going to bring resolve between this Council and the Mayor's Office as to what the magic number of police officers is. This is strictly a question of politics that has to be worked out in a political fashion between Council and the Mayor's Office.

Finally, everyone seems to presume that this study is going to show that the City is woefully inadequate with the number of police officers we are utilizing now. For all we know, this study may come back and shut this Council up as far as their protestations as far as the inadequacies of the Police Department. Perhaps the study will come back, and I think that would be great irony if the study were to come back and say that we do have a sufficient force.

The bottom line is, regardless of what this study says, I think it isn't going to mean one iota to the Mayor, to Superintendent Coll and it isn't going to mean a whole lot to this member of Council, I'll tell you that much, and I think the whole issue has just been a masquerade trying to sell the public on the idea that we on Council are doing something for their safety where, on the other hand, I believe that the study is just a waste of the taxpayers dollars.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. Relative to this particular bill, I do not at all consider it a waste of time for the Mayor and this City Council to discuss the matter of police manpower every year. It's public safety. It's the safety of the constituents within the jurisdiction of the City of Pittsburgh and they should be under constant review from us to find out where we're going.

Any study, even if it be somewhat inadequate as seems to be indicated by the amount of money, is an assist in accomplishing that particular goal. I've maintained for some years that as far as I personally am concerned, I think the City of Pittsburgh needs more police power. It is my full contention, and I've said it many, many times, and even at the expense of being redundant let me repeat it, I believe the City of Pittsburgh ought to have the extra police, even if it costs $2 million, so that we can keep safe that $100 million of convention business that comes into this City every year. We can ill afford to have a slippage in that kind of impression of a City since people, when they're booking, hotels and conventions are always thinking in five to seven year cycles and if you have a problem, you're now losing five to seven years. Can we afford that? I say we cannot.

This study is not going to be an answer to everything. It's just another aid in an effort to keep us all on our toes, the Mayor and this Council, as to whether we do or do not need more police. I think we need them but, nevertheless, I'm willing to listen to someone else who might give us another assist in doing what should be done in a rational, reasonable, and as I see it, a current review and that's every year. I'm going to vote for it.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, as I've indicated when we had debates on this many weeks ago, this $50,000 is just a drop in the bucket and the Mayor and his veto to this Council so indicates likewise that it will cost probably four times that particular amount.

Being a criminologist and trying to keep present with my particular studies that I have, there is hardly a police department consultant group that will come in and tell any police department how many police they'll need. They'll tell you where your weaknesses are primarily and, very generally, they'll even discuss where your strengths are located. How can one obtain the most effective use of your present resources and that is that we have the expertise within our own police department to do that. The basic premise of this bill, 2250, seems to be in the number of police officers needed and I think Mr. Flaherty so indicated that it's a very political issue and it is because in the past four years, I have voted no on the budget of the City of Pittsburgh because I felt politically, intelligently, efficiently and every otherwise that we did not have the adequate number of police officers to support the types of crimes that were happening within the City and the number of responses, some 260,000, 270,000 service calls.

It's the responsibility of this Council to appropriate and provide for the number of police officers that we want. I think this Council has done that in some cases. However, two or three years ago, —

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, we're getting completely away from the veto.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I'm finished almost.

The Chair:

You're also discussing a budgetary item.

Mr. Givens:

I'm at my last and it seems every time I want to say something you interrupt.

The Chair:

But you get off the subject.

Mr. Givens:

I am explaining my vote. I think that's under the right of Robert's Rules of Order which govern this body right here. I would have been finished right now had you not interrupted me and I would appreciate it in the future, if some people can talk forty-five minutes to an hour on one particular subject, one particular bill, please give me the privilege of speaking until I'm finished.

If I am top long then please interrupt me.

As I indicated, it was a vote and I want that to be loud and I want that to be clear to both everyone in this room and everyone who wants to listen. I voted the way I did in the year 1980, 1981 and 1982. In 1983, I did not because it was promised, as Michelle and others so indicated, that there were eighty new police officers that will be hired. There's supposed to be forty of them on board by the end of this June. Hopefully, the forty additional will be aboard. If not, then I think this Council will have some great deliberations in the early part of the fall of this year as to what will happen to the future of the Police Department of the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Mr. Givens, I wish I had a crystal ball and therefore I could vote better on the subject myself. I don't know anywhere where someone said that they're only going to look in the matter whether we need more police or not. I thought it was going to be an overall complete study but apparently it got sidetracked with the guise of how many police we have or how many we don't have.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm a little confused.

The Chair:

Aye to override the veto, no to sustain it.

Mr. Givens:

I vote to override the veto because for four year I voted for more police officers. Now in the year 1983, everyone agreed we will get eighty additional police officers and we'll lose forty some, that's increasing the force. For that reason, I think, and the Mayor did not veto that budget, for that reason I feel, and I assume that he is going to go along with that budget, and as a result, I vote to override the veto. I don't want the study.

The Chair:

From what you said, Mr. Givens, I believe you want the study.

Mr. Givens:

My words weren't to that effect. I was explaining my vote from the past years. My vote as far as the Mayor's veto is to sustain his veto. I vote no.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, while I concur with many of the statements that were made by Councilman Flaherty, who I believe will do a great study when he gets there, I would like to point out that we built a pool in Schenley Park that cost us ten times what we started out to spend and if the study needs more money the money will be available. I think it's a step in the right direction and I vote aye to override the Mayor's veto.

Mrs. Masloff:

For seven years that I've been here we've been trying to get more police. I don't think that this study will make the Mayor give us more so I vote no.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote aye and I'd like to have my comments from last Wednesday included in the record, please.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2250 -
WEDNESDAY, 3/16/83)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, the Controller has indicated to me that this bill should be amended to make provisions to have the $50,000 transferred from Code Account 10 into Code Account 1048 in the Controller's Office. I just wanted to share that with the Chair, I didn't know if our Finance Chairman was aware of the Controller's concern. I was going to make a motion to amend the bill to accommodate that.

First of all, I would like to ask the Chair to admonish Councilman Flaherty for the personal remarks that he suggested in reference to the bill. I think Council's rules very specifically indicate that we should not make personal remarks or personal suggestions. I will be more than happy to cite that section of the rules.

The Chair:

He got a little close, but I don't think he's any worse than we've had before, and our ears aren't that—

Mr. Flaherty:

If it makes Councilman Robinson happy, I apologize, Bill.

Mr. Robinson:

Thank you. If I may continue, I think that Councilman Flaherty certainly raises some valid points in reference to the study. But, I think that this Council should be reacquainted with several facts. I don't want to belabor the point.

For the last five years we certainly have tussled with the issue of whether or not we have adequate police in this city and whether or not they are deployed properly. I suggested to this Council that we do a study. At that time there was no serious opposition, not even from Councilman Flaherty or from Councilman O'Malley, who is Chairperson of Public Safety. In fact, Councilman O'Malley agreed there should be some study. So Bill 2250 certainly was introduced in that spirit.

It was my understanding that this Council was not in any serious objection to try and do some study of the Police Department to at least determine if we had adequate police personnel. That is still the intent of the legislation to at least do that.

Another fact is the issue of Superintendent Coll. I am very sorry that Mr. Flaherty raised that issue, but I would be less than candid and honest if I didn't say that Superintendent Coll made no attempt to have any input into this process until this bill was brought before this Council and Councilman—I believe O'Malley or Flaherty asked him to come to the table to share with us his expertise.

At that time, I think it was rather obvious that the superintendent was not qualified to give us information on the cost of a comprehensive study or whether or not there were experts who could give us a study. He certainly shared with us his personal opinion, and I certainly respect that opinion. I mentioned that at that time he had been unavailable to consult with this Council on this issue, but I was very glad that he was here at that time.

I don't think that anyone should be led to believe that Superintendent Coll has shared with this Council his full concerns in this regard, and has shared them in such a fashion that he appreciates what our interest is. And, I say what our interest is, based on how we have voted, because we voted for the study, except for Councilman Flaherty who has been very, very adamant, and certainly he has a right to be that way.

As far as the cost is concerned, I don't think there is anyone here who would deny that we could get a police study for more than $50,000 or less than $50,000. I think the record is rather clear that we agreed that $50,000 was a figure we could come to some sort of understanding on, but that we would not be limited, that we could indeed request additional funds if we felt they were necessary. One of the reasons I believe that Mr. Johnson, the Assistant City Controller, suggested the establishment of a committee was so that concerned people on this Council and in the administration, and in the Police Department could begin to identify the scope of work, and if $50,000 was not adequate we would come back and ask for more.

As far as the impact of this study, I take issue with Mr. Flaherty's concern that the superintendent doesn't feel this will have any impact. I don't think the superintendent has been asked by this Council or by the administration, his official position on the police study. I don't think we should take anything that Superintendent Coll said out of the goodness of his heart when he just happened to be in Council session and Councilman Flaherty just happened to ask him to come to the table, as representing Superintendent Coll's position. I suspect what he said represented what Bob Coll thinks, and I respect that.

I think that certainly Councilman Flaherty is correct that the political decision is going to be made as to how many police we have and where they will be deployed. I would hope that the Mayor would at least read the study, he will at least have the study. And, if he so chooses to use the study, then God bless him. But not to do the study, and to continue to haggle over this issue, does not serve any purpose, other than a political purpose. All of us are smart enough to know that everyone out there wants more police. We can go out and say give them more police, without basing it on facts. I think we ought to at least get some facts.

One other concern, if I might, about the Controller's Office. Taking into consideration Councilman Flaherty's anxiety about the Controller's Office, I would just like to indicate—

The Chair:

You will remind him there is an obstacle in front.

Mr. Robinson:

Two, at least.

I would just like to remind Councilman Flaherty that I did introduce a bill into Council on Monday to re-open the budget. One of my purposes in doing that was so that we could seriously discuss the needs of the Controller's Office. Mr. McGrady, our Controller, has indicated on several occasions that he needs more staff. He prepared for us a document indicating that with roughly $700,000 he could hire 33 additional auditors.

If indeed we could re-open the budget—

The Chair:

Why don't you bring this to a close and we'll let you go. We are on Bill 2250.

Mr. Robinson:

I am bringing it to a close. We could re-open the budget, find him the $700,000, and, Councilman Flaherty, I would be more than happy to at that time withdraw Bill 2250. I would hope you would join me in re-opening the budget and getting 33 additional auditors for the Controller's Office.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'll buy that.

The Chair:

The Chair has a question. In spite of everything that was said so far on Bill 2250, on the point or off the point, I assume the intent is to get a fair and impartial result.

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, sir.

(END - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2250 - 3/16/83)

Mr. Woods:

I vote aye for the simple reason that I want to know how many police we need. I just don't want to take the Mayor's word for it.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff
Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Robinson

Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods

AYES 5

NOES 4

(MR. FLAHERTY, MR. GIVENS, MRS. MASLOFF, AND MR. DEPASOUALE VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the motion passed finally.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, if I may, and this is probably improper, there was a statement made by my colleague, Mr. Givens, that the promise was made to put on eighty police this year. That's not true. It's a misunderstanding on his part. The Mayor had promised to put on one class this year. We budgeted enough for two classes but the Mayor has only promised one class and I think for the people listening in it should be on the record.

Michelle Madoff:

Would you clarify that, Mr. Woods, please? You said the Mayor has only budgeted one class?

Mr. Woods:

The Mayor has only promised to put on one class. This Council has budgeted to put on two but the day he appeared before Council he promised one class and one class only. He never said anything about two. This Council said something about two.

Mr. Givens:

I stand corrected on that. You're right. If the Mayor would have done that then he should have vetoed the part where we wanted the additional forty people. Had he not, then he would be in violation of that part of the budget which in fact would be the whole budget and maybe Bill Robinson will have his desires to open up this budget sometime during the year.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President —

The Chair:

The matter is closed, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, Mr. Woods was out of order. I would like the same privilege of being out of order

The Chair:

The matter is closed, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

You allowed Mr. Woods to be out of order. I think I should be given the same respect and courtesy.

The Chair:

He made a point of order and he was answered by Mr. Givens.

Michelle Madoff:

Why can't I answer? Do you discriminate against women?

The Chair:

Move on, Mr. Perry.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2812

Report of the Committee on Finance for March 30, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2705

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution transferring the amount of Sixty Thousand ($60,000.00) Dollars from Code Account 1612, Materials to Code Account 1610, Miscellaneous Services, both accounts within the Bureau of Operations, Department of Public Works."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9

NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2712

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of the following warrants: Omslaer Wrecking Co. in the amount of $5,760.00 for demolition and removal of 7041-47 Fielding Way, Contract #25951-F and in the amount of $3,970.00 for demolition and removal of 1620-26 Brodhead Street, Contract #25594-F and Solomon-Tesovich Inc. in the amount of $3,000.00 for demolition and removal of 574-76 Brushton Avenue, Contract #25602-F, without previous authority of law, and providing for the payment thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 2715

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing the selection and employment of legal counsel for Pittsburgh City Council."

Which was read.

The Chair:

On the negative recommendation, to approve vote aye and to vote negatively, vote nay.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote aye because I'm of an extremely strong opinion that the major issues of contention in Council stem over the issues of law. Consistently, it seems that Council comes out on the short end of the arguments because Council consistently puts great faith into the opinion, and that's all it is, the opinion of the City Solicitor. It's important to keep in mind that the City Solicitor serves at the pleasure of the Mayor. I think it's foolhardy to try to say that the City Solicitor is the attorney for all of the City. I think primarily and foremost the Solicitor is the counsel, the attorney for the Mayor and for the Mayor's Administration.

I think if this Council, and I realize that we are under a City Charter which spells out a strong Mayor, weak Council form of representation, I believe that still it's important that whenever Council has an opportunity to enhance its powers and to grow in stature, I think that it should seriously consider moving in that direction. I'm not aware of any abuse that could stem from Council having its own attorney. I think it would only further strengthen our traditional system of checks and balances. I think we are all aware that Congress, our State Senate, our State House, virtually all the legislative bodies in the country have their own counsel. I believe that it is an elementary need and one that this Council, if they're concerned about being truly a body of the people, a body which should have the materials and the expertise to represent the people, then I think they should be supportive of their own counsel.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no for the bill and I'd like to explain the fact that our own Council has a code account set aside for any Councilmember to go out and hire any attorney or any law firm to help them in writing ordinances or codes or in evaluating those decisions that come down from the Administration, in fact, if the simple majority of the Councilmembers disagree with those particular decisions. And I would like my remarks from last Wednesday to be brought forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. GIVENS REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2715 - 3/30/83)

Mr. Givens:

Being I came in late, Mr. Chairman, I have looked into this, and any legislation that I have sponsored personally myself that I felt needed legal attention, and I will give an example. The last one that I sponsored is that on the plant closing. I asked that to go to the Legal Department for an opinion, knowing that there are some possible legal ramifications on that. When it comes back, that is the purpose, then, to modify, to amend the legislation.

There is a fund within Council that all of us can use. It is not substantial, but however, if that wants to be increased, that the wishes or the desire of Council to so do that; so, because of that, and not wanting to add any additional burden on the taxpayers, I vote no on this 2715.

(END - MR. GIVENS' REMARKS ON BILL 2715 - 3/30/83)

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote aye and I'd just like to explain that I think it's important for this Council to have their own legal advice if we're going to maintain an independent body in the Administration. I agree with one of my colleagues that if there is any conflict of opinion between this Council and the Administration, it puts the members of this Council at a distinct disadvantage. I say it's important to have our legal counsel on board. I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote aye and I'd like to explain my vote. I think this bill will help the Solicitor with his growing burden and that growing burden is that the Solicitor has been put in the position of a combatant and what is often times characterized as some sort of war or conflict between the Administration and this Council. And I'm sure both the Administration and this Council have the same purpose in mind as we often differ on issues and that purpose is to serve the people of the City of Pittsburgh to the best of our ability. The Solicitor by law is required to assist both of us in our pursuits and it is unfortunate that on many occasions his opinions are used as fears in our on-going war.

Also, I think that the nature, the complex nature, of many of the issues that come before Council indicate that we should have some on-going legal advice so that we might be better prepared in terms of grafting legislation and addressing some of these issues. Certainly over the last four or five years we've had some major issues come before us that have had legal ramifications where some members of this Council and sometimes this total body have disagreed with the Administration's position and the Solicitor has been of little or no value to us in that regard. That's not a reflection on the Solicitor, that's a reflection on the system.

The Charter does provide for us to have legal counsel and I think those people who struggled hard to put together the Charter understood the necessity for the legislative branch of government to have legal advice. Our primary responsibility is to draft legislation. And I think it does not make good sense for us not to have full-time legal advice.

Finally, I think that Mr. Flaherty's comments on the future growth of this Council and our responsibilities is very timely. I think if we are going to accept our expanding responsibilities, it is going to be necessary for us to draw upon all the resources that we have and the Charter does provide for us to have full-time legal advice, not to represent us in a court of law because that's the Solicitor's job, but to help us in our daily work as legislators. And I think that this bill moves in a positive direction to strengthen to responsible role of Council and to also unburden the City Solicitor. I vote aye.

(BEGINNING - MR. ROBINSON'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2715 - 3/30/83)

Mr. Robinson:

I am voting aye, and I would like to explain my vote. I think that, given the serious nature of the vast majority of issues that we discuss here at this table and on Mondays, that assistance of legal counsel would be most helpful, not only in attempting to draft legislation, but handling those legal problems that come up from time to time. I think it is rather obvious that our Solicitor, under the present circumstances, is not going to be able to adequately serve both Council and the Administration, and that getting adequate and competent legal assistance certainly is something that we need. We do not now have anyone assigned to us, even from the Solicitor's Office, who can work with us on a daily basis. We do have assistance in other areas on our staff, financial people and others and engineering people, but we don't have anyone to give us legal assistance; and as legislators, I think that would be very helpful to us to have competent legal counsel available. It would also avoid the problem of us simply going out and trying to hire our separate legal counsel to give us the opinion that we are looking for. I would anticipate that legal counsel would be in a position to advise Council and to avoid many of the problems that we seem to be having of a legal nature.

(END - MR. ROBINSON'S REMARKS ON
BILL NO. 2715 - 3/30/83)

Mr. Stone:

I'm voting no for the following reasons. While some Councilpeople don't like the decisions of the City Solicitor, no one has yet shown that those legal decisions have been incorrect. And for him to rule otherwise, I don't think anyone really should desire that. I think this Council needs more stature and not more static and more posture. I'm voting no.

Mr. Woods:

I vote no for the same reason Councilman Stone has. I'd also like to add that if we had our own Solicitor for Council, we'd have to have nine of them because we disagree so much amongst ourselves and anyone knows that an attorney will fight whatever case you want him to fight. And the first one who gets to our own attorney, that's the case he'd fight. So, we'd have to have nine in order for us to get along in Council.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Robinson

AYES 4	NOES 5
--------	--------

VOTING NO:

Mr. Givens	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. Stone	(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the bill was defeated.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I would just care to add a comment in regard to the vote if I have your permission.

The Chair:

Go ahead.

Michelle Madoff:

How come he has the permission and I didn't have it?

The Chair:

This isn't a debate. He wants to make a comment. You wanted to make a debate out of it.

Michelle Madoff:

How do you know that? You didn't hear from me.

The Chair:

You're out of order, Michelle Madoff. Go on, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would just care to suggest to the sponsor of the bill, Mr. Robinson, that if he feels so strongly in regard to the issue, I think that perhaps he would want to explore the possibility of amending the City Charter and having the City Solicitor elected. That way, I think the Solicitor would certainly be more accountable to all the people since it would be the electorate that select him and not the Mayor's Office. I would consider doing it myself but I think I have had plenty of experience with ballot questions and it's not that burning of a concern for me at this time.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2730

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant, without previous authority of law, in favor of Pennsylvania Salvors, Inc., in the amount of $2,000.00 in payment for a refund of a cash bond."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a there being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2731

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution creating a Special Trust Fund entitled 'Salvation Army Emergency Food Fund Trust Fund,' (SAEFFTF) in the Payroll Withholding Fund, Mellon Bank, N.A., for the receipt and disbursement of deductions from Payroll Withholding Fund monies."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2733

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an agreement or agreements with various agencies, effective April 1, 1983, for the implementation of the City of Pittsburgh's Summer Youth Employment Program and providing for the payment of the costs thereof."

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2734

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an agreement or agreements for specialized professional services in connection with conduct of negotiations and arbitration proceedings including labor relations advice, representation at negotiating meetings and economic and job evaluation advice, and related personnel matters; and providing for the payment of the cost thereof."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bills passed finally.

Also, with a NEGATIVE recommendation,

Bill No. 2763

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending the Rules of Council, 1982-1984."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

What does that mean? Would the sponsor of the bill please elucidate on that?

Mr. Robinson:

Basically, I have suggested seven changes in our rules that I believe will one, update our present rules, particularly in the area of fines; two, will hopefully give us a better committee structure so that we can handle the work that comes before us, and three, I think it is very important that we not take lightly the rules of Council. Our present rules, to my knowledge, have not been updated since 1976.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I think there was a motion made, and correct me if I am out of order, but I think it by Mr. Givens, I'm not sure, that we take them as separate items. There are some of the items that you suggest, Mr. Robinson, I would support you whole-heartedly —

The Chair:

That was voted down at the meeting, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

I have a great problem with the bill because I support part of it and not part of it. I think it was Councilman Flaherty, you addressed that, Sir, in that there were parts of the bill and parts that you didn't, but you voted for it just because you felt there was enough good in the bill and I'm really sort of torn because I wish we could take the bill in separate sections but the majority of this Council does not want to do the people's business in that order and I will decide when it comes my turn how I wish to vote.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote aye and I would appreciate having my remarks included from Wednesday's Committee Meeting.

Mr. Givens:

I vote no and I also would like my remarks to be brought forward.

Michelle Madoff:

While I don't agree with all of it, I think it's an attempt to make this Council more responsible to the public. I vote aye.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote no because of Section 2, Rule 11. I'm sure that one section would be way one Councilperson could stonewall any legislation that they might not be inclined to have introduced in front of the entire body. I vote no.

Mr. Robinson:

I vote aye and I'd like to have my comments from Wednesday included on 2763.

Mr. Stone:

I vote no and I'd like my remarks brought forward but I'd just like to summarize two points, if I may. In Section 45, etc., that something was brought up already and voted down. It's an attempt to do it the second time and it can't be done within that term. The earlier sections are those items dealing with fines and if you can't control it with what's there, I don't know how you're going to gain respect by increasing it. I'm voting no.

Mr. Woods:

I vote no and I'd like to have my remarks brought forward from Wednesday, but I'd like to add one other thing. I know I have disagreement on this Council. I don't believe that this is the proper way to amend our rules or to change them because, and I could be wrong and I said this on Wednesday, this is a bill, Bill 2763, and what we do here is pass law and I don't believe Council rules are law, whether they're presently law, and I don't believe these would be law. I vote no.

(BEGINNING - COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2763 FROM THE MEETING OF WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 1983)

Mr. Woods:

I don't know if the Rules of Council are presently by law. Are they by ordinance?

Mr. Robinson:

The Rules of Council are approved every time we reorganize by Council.

Mr. Woods:

Another thing. On your changes, Bill, we already voted down the three member committee by legislation a few weeks ago. A lot of things I see no problem with. But, if we presently can't live by the rules we have, and I think all nine of us have a problem with that at one time or another, I can't see by making stricter penalties or whatever, that we are going to start living by them now. I think if we use the present rules we have, and each one of us make up our minds today, if we say let's go by the Rules of Council, we wouldn't have any problems. That is why I am against it.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might respond, Mr. Chairman. First of all, I would like to respond to Mr. Woods' comment about the bill that recently was introduced into Council to require three members to be on each committee; that bill specifically made reference to that portion of the Home Rule Charter which requires three members to be appointed to each committee. While that bill did not pass, I think the charter is very specific that members of Council must be appointed, and three members of Council have not been appointed to each committee. My attempt here is to change our rules, our rules, so that we might have at least three persons appointed to each committee.

As far as obeying the rules and regulations, certainly it is up to the president of Council to enforce the rules and regulations, in fact, that is in the rules and regulations. But, I think that any set of rules and regulations must be updated from time to time. I think that if you take a look at the rules that we are presently operating under, the last time that they were updated probably was in 1976; so this is an attempt to update the rules. I don't think that the suggestions here in any way deal with the issue of enforcement. There have been no proposed changes in the enforcement powers. The president of Council still is obligated to enforce all the Rules of Council.

The one part of this bill I would like to make specific reference to is the portion which deals with the solicitor providing us with a legal opinion on each bill. In the past, various members of Council have requested legal opinions on bills where they personally have had a problem with it. It seems to me that if we are going to be consistent in our legislative functions, that we certainly want the solicitor to give us advice in advance, opinions in advance. That would give us an opportunity, all of us, to look at the solicitor's assessment of the legislation prior to us taking any action on it. I think that would be more consistent.

These proposed changes are in view of the fact that the Rules of Council have not been changed recently, and also, I think it is always good to update your rules so that you can accommodate the orderly processing of business.

The Chair:

May I ask the sponsor of the bill a question? Since you want to increase the fines, what is your purpose for it? What ill are you trying to correct?

Mr. Robinson:

I think that over the last couple of years there have been a number of fines and taxes, etc., in the City of Pittsburgh that have been updated. On several occasions our treasurer and our finance director have indicated the necessity for updating the fines. It seems to me that in today's world, that changing the fines is appropriate. This Council certainly has the power to waive any penalties; but if we are going to be consistent with the whole notion of establishing rules and regulations to operate, then I think you have to make them applicable to the present set of circumstances.

The Chair:

Yes, but if the fine process that is now in force has not been used very often, then what are we attempting to do by the extra $15 and $20?

Mr. Robinson:

Then I think what ought to be considered, and perhaps you've raised a valid point, is that we ought to do away with the fines. I have been on this Council five and one-half years and I can never remember a member of Council being fined. Perhaps your point is well taken, that we ought to do away with the fine system altogether.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. Robinson, I was fined once.

Mr. DePasquale:

We had a lack of a quorum and we fined four or five members.

Mr. Robinson:

Perhaps we should do away with the fines altogether then.

The Chair:

If I may just may make a comment. Relative to the fine situation, to make it higher than what it is, when, as the Chair sees it, and having the opportunity to do this very thing, I think that some of the people who might be subjected to this kind of situation don't welcome it anyway and it is kind of a waste of time to attest to do something, as Mr. Woods has indicated, that is not being enforced at the present time.

Mr. Robinson:

Then they should be removed from the law.

The Chair:

Secondly, relative to that matter of three appointed members to Council, I think that issue has been resolved in this term, and I would think that that one is out of order at this present time, having been disposed of.

Relative to asking the city solicitor to make an opinion on every bill, if that is the case, then all we would have the city solicitor doing is rendering legal opinions when needed and when not needed. I'm thinking that would be cumbersome and abusive, the valuable time that we might get from him. Frankly, my vote is going to be against it.

Mr. Woods:

One more thing on the city solicitor. I'm almost positive, I shouldn't say I am sure, that most legislation that we pass here in Council comes from the administration, from directors and so forth. I am sure that the city solicitor reviews that prior to it coming to us. The only other legislation would be something that we draft ourselves. I can only say this personally, anything that I am drafting I send down to the city solicitor to get it in the proper form. I am sure, almost positive, that almost all members of Council do the same thing.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question. Could you clarify Section 7, where you say that all Standing Committees of Council shall meet twice a month to discuss—

The Chair:

Tom, he is talking about when you get—

Mr. Flaherty:

I am asking Councilman Robinson, it is his bill.

Mr. Robinson:

As it presently stands, the standing Committees do not meet. It would seem to me that given the volume of legislation and the complexity of the legislation that we have, that it would be helpful in transacting our business if standing committees would meet on a regular basis in order that they can make the appropriate reports to the total Council.

Mr. Flaherty:

I thought a standing committee was in every week here at the committee table.

Mr. Robinson:

No. That issue was discussed on several occasions, and certainly a case can be made that when we meet on Wednesday, that this is a committee meeting. I think even if you look at the opinion of the solicitor, there is some confusion as to whether or not when we meet on Wednesday it is a Standing Committee Meeting. As the rules presently provide, standing committees are supposed to have regular meetings. This meeting cannot be both a Standing Committee Meeting and a meeting of the whole, if for no other reason the only person who chairs this committee meeting is the finance chairman, so this is simply the Finance Committee Meeting. If we want to accept that notion, I have no problem with that, but I don't think you can consider our meetings on Wednesdays to be meetings of all the committees. I am suggesting that we separate out the meetings so that the Standing Committee Meetings can meet at least twice a month.

Mr. Flaherty:

Are you aware of, I am not aware of a standing committee ever commencing, outside of our meetings on Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson:

Yes, they have.

Mr. Flaherty:

When?

Mr. Robinson:

The Committee on Planning, Housing and Development.

Mr. Flaherty:

Oh, yes, your committee, that is on Friday mornings. I'm sorry. But outside of that--

Mr. Robinson:

I am unaware of any other committee.

Mr. DePasquale:

For the record, any chairman to call a meeting of his committee at any time and doesn't, that is their problem.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. Chairman, some of these are very good points to put into writing. I think all of us in some form or another have what we call an informal arrangement. For example, I talk with my director on the legislation that is pending before me. If all of us would attend the meetings of the nine o'clock session in the Mayor's Conference Room on Monday at nine o'clock, that is the form that has been set-up for this particular dialogue. All of us, just looking at what we've had so far today, we've held two or three bills, we've tabled one bill, and we can also abstain if we so desire, if we are not clear in our own minds as to what the intention of the bill is, and if it is not explained adequately by our directors when they come down before us. We have between this Wednesday session and Monday's session to again look over any technicalities that we might need.

Not repeating what Ben Woods said, I agree with Ben and his comments, I won't elaborate any more on that, other than if I feel that there is anything that is of a legal nature, I send it immediately down to our Law Department. Then if I am not satisfied, then I have that prerogative to go outside.

Mr. Robinson:

If I might, the suggested changes are being made in order that Council hopefully, if it so desires, would be able to function with rules and regulations that would make our operation more efficient. These rules, as I understand it, are not for the personal accommodation of any member of Council, and certainly my changes are not intended to accommodate any personal member of Council. If Council feels that the present rules and regulations are adequate, certainly I have no objections to that. But, I don't think that we should take lightly the rules that we pass every two years and assume that the rules that were applicable in 1976 would still be applicable today. These suggested changes hopefully can bring attention to the fact that we probably do need to update the rules, and what form would obviously have to be determined by Council. But at least this is my attempt to suggest to Council some changes that we might want to consider, but they are not presented to accommodate any specific member of Council, but simply to accommodate the process.

If I might ask for a point that the Chair could rule on, I was wondering if we might be able to vote on each separate proposed change.

Mr. Flaherty:

You can move for the division of the bill.

The Chair:

If I have the majority to divide the issue, I will.

Mr. Robinson:

Then I make a motion to divide the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I second the motion. I still haven't had my turn to speak on the bill.

The Chair:

Wait a while. We are only on the division, take the vote.

Mr. DePasquale:

Point of order, Mr. Chairman, it is a councilmember's prerogative if he wants to amend the bill, I don't know why we have to vote on if he is allowed to do it.

The Chair:

We are not amending.

Mr. DePasquale:

But he wants to take it separately.

The Chair:

Take the vote.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye, and the reason why, I think we should extend the courtesy to the sponsor of the bill. Second of all, we have seven separate issues which are extremely diverse. It would be a real hodgepodge to try to settle this issue in one vote.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

I think if the author of the bill wanted to decide the major issues that are in here, he should have broken it up into three bills before he started. I vote no.

Mr. Perry:

Michelle Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

Aye.

Mr. Perry:

Mrs. Masloff.

Mrs. Masloff:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. O'Malley. (not present)

Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Aye.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Woods.

Mr. Woods:

I vote no for the same reason I stated, we can't live presently by the rules we've got, I think we should learn to do that before we do any changing.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. DePasquale.

Mr. DePasquale:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Stone, Chairman.

The Chair:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Ayes, three; noes, five.

The Chair:

On the bill, Mr. Robinson, we have a motion and a second.

Michelle Madoff:

On the bill itself, since everyone has addressed it I would like to have my statements included. On the issue of raising penalties, it has been my policy and habit, and even Mr. DePasquale will attest to this, that when I cannot be here I will either have a written note or my aide come in and say I am ill, I have a previous commitment, so that you know in advance that I am not going to be here. If I have not attended when there is not a quorum, then indeed I should be fined under the existing fine. I believe that is what Sophie was referring to, at one time there was not a quorum, somebody didn't notify and that is why there was a fine. That should be taken separately, and I agree. But, since you are not going to do it, I am addressing them all.

With reference to the issue of three appointed members of Council to serve on a committee, I have a legal opinion which I can produce if need be, in writing from an attorney who said that you are absolutely correct, and that the legal opinion of the city, Mr. Pellegrini, is in error' that this Council is not a committee of three. I can prove that very simply by saying, which member of Council, other than myself, is familiar with the number of leaks, the number of valves, how many repairs there are, how many backhoes we have, what the men are working on, what water leaks they are working on each day; perhaps two other people having input on my committee would be productive. Would anybody care to talk about the number of leaks we had in the last 18 months? You don't know, you trust me and you say, Michelle, that is your committee. Many times when I ask a question on someone else's committee, or even introduce legislation on somebody else's committee, I am told to mind your own business, stay to your own shoemaker, it's not your committee—don't stick your nose in it. I think the Home Rule Charter states that you are supposed to stick your nose in it. Three heads are better than one, there should be three people addressing all the various sub-committees, and then bring it before this committee on Wednesday.

On the issue of getting a legal opinion from our Law Department on each bill, if Mr. Robinson's bill to have legal counsel had passed, where we didn't need five votes to get a legal opinion so that each member doesn't have to go out and hire or pay for an attorney, we wouldn't run into the situation that I ran into on the bill that Mr. Dan Pellegrini prepared on the arcades, saying that it is illegal. I now hear from the media that it is being done in Boston and other places; perhaps another opinion may have resolved that. On my bill coming up on the security in parking lots and garages, the bill was drawn up, it was drawn up rather sloppily, I am having it re-done, the attorney who did it is under a great deal of pressure--having a lot of work; if we had our own counsel, as mandated by the Home Rule Charter, allowing us to do that, we would have somebody available to help us. It is very apparent that this bill is going to go down to defeat because the majority of this Council doesn't really give a damn about the public.

The Chair:

On the bill, let's take a vote.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

Aye. I don't agree with all seven issues in the bill, but since, in the wisdom of Council, we've decided to take one vote on all seven of the measures I am supportive overall for change in Council's rules. I would just want to point out that in Section 1, Rule 2, where it says, "Any member of Council that is absent for sickness or other unavoidable causes...", I would hope that would be enforced more. I think there is a great deal of absence from Council, I think the majority of that absence is not due to sickness or to other unavoidable causes. I think that process should be scrutinized more. I think it is imperative that the members of Council attend the meetings, that is primarily what we are receiving our salaries for.

In Section 5, an issue that was not touched upon in the debate, but in my opinion is the most crucial one, I believe that the chairperson of each of the standing committees should have the opportunity to read the bills because I feel that that would just reinforce the entitled jurisdiction that a chairperson should have over the bills in their committee. This is the only body that I have ever seen where consistent courtesy is not extended to the committee chairperson.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Givens.

Mr. Givens:

That is very wonderful that we live right next door to one another here and it only takes about five giant steps where we can go in and talk to one another on any bill that we might have. If one would look down at the bill that we are debating on, it is 2763, that is how many bills have been before us in about the last 12 or 13 months. Can one realize the legal expense involved if we need a legal opinion for each one of them? I think we are here first, and most certainly, to try to keep the tax burden of the people of the City of Pittsburgh down. When Mr. Flaherty mentions about this is the only type of government that he sees, I can look at the government of the federal and our state and see where it goes from one part of the House to another part of the House and to standing committees, and we are still waiting to build bridges and roads and everything else months and months later.

I think we move very rapidly on all of the bills that come before us. When we have a complicated bill, we have public hearings on them and we have months to debate the issue. I vote no.

Mr. Perry:

Michelle Madoff.

Michelle Madoff:

I would agree with Councilman Givens that we sure move rapidly without information, and I vote for the bill, yes.

Mr. Givens:

I didn't say that, Michelle, I said we move rapidly. I get all the information I need, I don't know about you.

Mr. Perry:

Mrs. Masloff.

Mrs. Masloff:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. O'Malley. (not present)

Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Robinson:

Aye.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Woods.

Mr. Woods:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. DePasquale.

Mr. DePasquale:

No.

Mr. Perry:

Mr. Stone, Chairman.

Mr. Stone:

No. And, I would just like to make this comment. There has been a statement made at this table that we are voting purely based on the credibility or reliance on the chairperson. Nothing is further from the truth, especially when that chairman doesn't even know what page in the budget their department relies.

Michelle Madoff:

Is it relevant to know what page the budget is on? How many water leaks do we have in the department, Mr. Stone?

The Chair:

You are out of order, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

No, you are making an accusation, you've done it before, I am not out of order—you are attacking me and I am not going to permit it.

The Chair:

You are out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

Sir, you are out of order. The way you conduct business in this city, you are a disgrace. You don't even care if this city is in financial havoc, you don't really give a damn.

The Chair:

You are out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I sure am, boy.

The Chair:

For someone to make some attack upon someone else, that they don't give a damn, I think people who make those kind of accusations could very well find a solution to their problem if they would look in the mirror.

Michelle Madoff:

When have you looked, do you shave?

The Chair:

The bill fails, we'll move to the next issue.

(END - COUNCIL'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2763, 3/30/83)

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bill?

(RESALE FOR REHAB)"

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as you may recall, on Bills 2717, 2718, 2719 and 2720, all dealing with disposition of property which have been taken from Lands and Buildings and given to URA, I have been promoting since the day I was on this Council after I did a six month study that all citizens of this City should have equal access. Brother Richard has been before this Council and has agreed to give us a complete station, a public service channel, that will all day long, and the Mayor thinks it's a super idea, rotate all the properties we have for sale either in the Vacant Lot Committee, in the Lands and Buildings, or in Urban Redevelopment.

I was told by the Chairman of Finance on Wednesday that I should have that information before Monday so that I could vote. Has anyone gotten an answer back? Did you write a letter, Mr. Perry?

Mr. Perry:

Yes, I did.

Michelle Madoff:

But we didn't get an answer. May I move to hold those four bills? We did not get an answer on those bills.

The Chair:

Is there a second to recommit?

There being no second, we will not recommit.

Michelle Madoff:

May I please have a reminder letter sent to Brother Richard saying that it is imperative that I have an answer to that and I would appreciate if Sophie Masloff, head of the Cable Committee, would please look into that matter. Brother Richard has made a commitment to do that. I want all Pittsburgh residents to have equal access to these bargains, if indeed they are bargains.

Mr. Givens:

On the bills that Michelle had just mentioned here, were those resolutions approved and executions on the contract, distribution of land by and between the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh, the board that I sit on, and they advertise in the local newspapers and those people who are interested, most of these sales, however, went to people who have been very interested and have been working in the 21st Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, the Manchester area of the City of Pittsburgh, and God bless them because without them we wouldn't be as far along as we are.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote no on these bills because I can't and did not get a response from, which would be very important to the citizens of the community giving everybody equal access, even the people who live in those areas who also might want to compete for those properties.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the bills?

And on the question, "Shall the bills pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, there was an editorial in the Press this week, "Video Game Licenses". And they are suggesting that we change the process of our video licensing to locations rather than devices themselves. I think that's a very good point because I have been to some of the arcades and the police are not seeing that there are indeed some licenses on and where we thought they were they are not on. And what is suggested in this editorial is that we license the place to have X number of machines at some figure as opposed to per individual license because, what happens is that they take the machines when people get bored with them and shift them around from one place to another. Many of the people that are dealing in the arcade machines, the video games, are distributors rather than people who actually have them so that they are being shifted consistently and continuously.

A letter was sent by Mike Perry's staff, and I thank him for that and for doing a very fine job, it is Mary Beth doing the job, I believe. We sent a letter which we obtained an interim report of an inventory done by the Police Department and I think it was appropriate because they walk the beat and they knew which private clubs and which places to go into. Although the inventory is not complete, it is inaccurate in some respects. The reason it's inaccurate, we believe, is because of exactly what this editorial is saying. The distributor puts it in one building today, takes it out and puts it in another building next week, and therefore, we don't have any control.

If we license the place itself, then we can be sure of collecting our due taxes. What is happening is that we've now made a Xerox copy, cut them up alphabetically, and I wrote a letter to all the people that they had access to, the Police Department, saying that this is an expanded list. I think we've got more than a hundred responses. At least a hundred responses asking them to voluntarily post a sign saying we do not permit children during school hours to play our video machines, whether it's an arcade or not. And the mail is coming in in droves. We're getting forty or fifty a day. We said by the 8th, so in the next few days we should have a really good count. Then I will take those who have not agreed and turn them over to the community groups and let the community groups who really testified here deal with them as they see fit.

But I think the most important thing is that I would like, and that's what I called you about today and I couldn't remember, Mike, would you please prepare a bill for me that would amend the licensing, the code of licensing procedure to do it per entity, per location than it would be per machine. We found that many of the cards that came back, Mr. President, there are no locations, which is very interesting. And the names don't match the list so we're missing out on thousands of dollars. And what we're going to do, I've made arrangements with the City Treasurer's Office and the Fiscal Advisor, Mr. Schillo, to turn our list over to him. So, in essence, we're doing their work. But I think we ought to be working together and it's a good effort together. And if we change this, it would help his job and I think the paper came up with a credible and a very good solution for which I thank them.

Mr. O'Malley moved to approve the minutes of Monday, March 14, 1983.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Michelle Madoff

Council adjourned.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Chair presents

Bill No. 2850 Communication from Richard S. Caliguiri, Mayor, City of Pittsburgh, returning with his veto of Bill No. 2679 entitled, "Amending the Pittsburgh Code, Article III, Depositories, Section 223.01, Distribution of Deposits, by requiring that a certain amount of deposits be placed in minority controlled financial institutions."

Which was read, received and filed.

(MAYOR'S VETO LETTER - APRIL 7, 1983)

April 7, 1983

Honorable President and Members
City Council
CITY OF PITTSBURGH

Re: Council Bill 2679 - Deposit of Federal and State Funds in Minority Controlled Financial Institutions in Pittsburgh and Across United States

Dear Mr. President and Members:

Council Bill 2679 which requires that certain deposits be made in minority financial institutions has been forwarded to me. This Bill deals with the involvement of minority financial institutions in the economic life of this City which I have repeatedly stated is one of the greatest concerns of my Administration.

During the course of my Administration, I have taken a number of positive steps, together with Council, to support these institutions. Over the years, the City has made substantial deposits in City minority controlled financial institutions. This year when one minority financial institution did not decide to bid on City funds until after bids to act as a depository were accepted, I requested that the City's Leasing Authority use that institution as a depository. Moreover, the City Treasurer is now depositing approximately $800,000 of Federal Wage Withholding Taxes per pay in that institution.

My Administration will continue to see that minority financial institutions located within the City of Pittsburgh receive an appropriate share of City deposits. However, despite its worthy goal, I must veto this Bill for both legal and public policy reasons.

Attached is an opinion of the City Solicitor holding that this Bill violates the Pennsylvania Constitution and the Home Rule Charter.

Even if legal, I would be compelled to veto this Bill. It requires that all Federal and State funds be deposited in a minority controlled financial institution and that City funds be deposited up to the legal limit in minority controlled institutions. In both instances, these funds would be deposited not only in Pittsburgh but in minority controlled financial institutions across the United States. In this time when Pittsburgh needs massive amounts of capital to fund job opportunities, funds should not be moved to banks outside of this area.

For the objections set forth herein, I, therefore, am returning Council Bill 2679 as vetoed.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD S. CALIGUIRI

(END - MAYOR'S VETO LETTER)

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd like to make a motion to suspend the rules so that we might informally discuss Council Bill 2679.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

The Chair:

I don't know if that's in order. I think a motion is called for first.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, you may need the Parliamentarian. Mr. Robinson and I were just discussing this matter.

Relative to this bill, it's my understanding that when it comes back from the Mayor, you have to override it or it's not overridden, so to speak. I indicated to him that that's the only action you can take. You can't even go back. Maybe the Parliamentarian ought to answer that, I don't know.

Parliamentarian:

That is correct, either a motion to sustain or a motion to override is in order.

Mr. Robinson:

Point of information. What is that based on, your statement?

The Chair:

Parliamentary law.

Parliamentarian:

Well, in addition, you have the Home Rule Charter, which says, and this is Section 321, "The Mayor shall sign the legislation within ten days if approved, but if not, shall return it to Council stating objections. Council, at its next meeting, shall reconsider any legislation disapproved by the Mayor and may pass it in spite of the Mayor's disapproval by a two-thirds vote of all the members."

Mr. Woods:

Is there a section in there where we can just take a vote to recommit the Committee?

Mr. Robinson:

I think what he read does not preclude a motion to recommit the bills.

Parliamentarian:

Well, it's the Solicitor's opinion and mine also that the only action on a veto is to sustain or override. The legislative process has been completed to this point.

Mr. Robinson:

Okay, then I would say that the Solicitor's opinion is one that the Chair can accept or not accept and if my motion succeeds to have an informal discussion on the bill, I would request that the Chair make a ruling as to whether or not the bill can be considered to be recommitted, whether or not the Chair would entertain a motion to recommit the bill.

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, if there was no veto on the bill there would be no problem. But there is a veto and therefore we have to follow proper procedure. There's a motion to override the veto.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, if I might, I think that the Charter and the opinion from the Solicitor suggests that the Chair does have the authority. If the Chair is ruling that it will not entertain the motion to suspend the rules or entertain a motion to recommit, then certainly I will accept that, but I think the rules do provide that those kinds of motions can be submitted. But if you won't accept them

The Chair:

That is what the Chair is ruling.

The only business that is on the floor is a motion to override the veto.

Michelle Madoff:

I move to override your decision.

The Chair:

You're out of order, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I'm not out of order. I just checked with the Parliamentarian.

The Chair:

The only business on the floor is a motion to override the veto. Is there a motion to override it?

Mr. Robinson moved to override the Mayor's veto.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

Discussion. Mr. President, in the interest of trying to bring some resolution to the issue of whether or not the City is indeed committed to the whole notion of minority business participation, I'd just like to share a couple of thoughts with Council relative to Council Bill 2679 which specifically indicates that we would be putting a portion of City monies as well as federal funds and state funds in minority controlled institutions. I previously wanted to have this bill discussed informally so that we might find some other way to resolve this issue and hopefully refer it back to Committee to see if indeed we could achieve some reasonable level of deposits in minority institutions.

Since the Chair has ruled that it will not entertain those motions, then I will share with Council that information which I was going to share during the informal discussion. I think that first of all, the bill is consistent with this City's policy, both the policies established by the Administration and this Council to assist in aiding minority businesses, and certainly minority financial institutions are businesses. It has been suggested that the City has made substantial contributions or substantial deposits to minority financial institutions over the last few years. I would submit that if anyone were to look at the records, and I certainly have copies of those records in front of me, you will see that at no time have we had more than one percent of any of our City deposits in any minority institution. In fact, we have had .13, .15, .16, .19. The point I'm trying to make here is that I don't think that we have shown any substantial commitment since 1977 to support minority financial institutions of this City, whether it be the Savings and Loan or the bank. Again, this bill is designed to make sure that that is done irrespective of the personalities involved.

Also, I would hope that the efforts that have been launched to date, to see to it that these institutions have deposits up to their capacity will bear some fruition and that we will be able to do all that we can in that area.

For those who have been helpful in supporting 2679 by way of their votes and by way of their hard work, I certainly would like to thank you and encourage you to continue to support the intents of this bill and I encourage you to override the Mayor's veto.

For those who had an opportunity to read that material which was forwarded to us in support of the veto, I think that we need to look at a couple of areas, and hopefully, in looking at those areas, it will give every member of this Council some opportunity to make an assessment as to whether or not indeed this bill is necessary and whether or not this bill is consistent with what we've been trying to do relative to minority participation, first of all, the area or the concern of whether or not we have been doing things over the last few years to make substantial contributions to minority financial institutions. I don't think the records reflect that, certainly not those records which we have in the Treasurer's Office or the Controller's Office, and I shared with you some of those statistics.

Also, there are some suggestions that the Administration is continuing efforts to make sure that appropriate amounts of City deposits go into these minority financial institutions. Once again, the Mayor has not been willing to share with us what those efforts are, and if they are under way, I would dare say that this Council, as a body, is probably unaware of them and I would encourage the Administration to please share with us what they're doing in that regard.

Lastly, I'd just like to comment on the deposit of federal monies in minority institutions. Council should be aware that there is an office of management and budget circular at the federal level, A-102, Attachment A, which very specifically indicates that the federal government encourages local municipalities to place federal funds in minority financial institutions. Some time ago a bill came before this Council relative to our Community Development Block Grant Funds and I raised this same concern. I would hope that the people in our Community Development Program and those people in the Administration responsible for seeing to it that federal policy is carried out would address the concerns of Circular A-102, Attachment A, and do what is necessary to make sure that a portion of our Community Development Block Grant Funds are placed in minority institutions.

With those comments, I would just encourage my colleagues who have supported 2679 to please continue to do so and to support me and this effort to override the Mayor's veto.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, a vote to override the Mayor's veto would be an aye vote?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to say that I don't entirely agree with my colleague, Councilman Robinson. In the Mayor's opinion to City Council it states that one minority financial institution did not decide to bid on the City funds until after the bids to act on a depository were accepted. That means that they did not ask that City funds could be deposited in that minority institution but the City of Pittsburgh and the Administration requested that the Leasing Authority deposit over $800,000 in that minority institution anyhow. So, I think the Administration is trying but maybe not to the degree that Mr. Robinson would like them to try.

There's also one more paragraph I'd like to read. It says, "Even if this bill was legal, I would be compelled to veto this bill. It requires that all Federal and State funds be deposited in a minority controlled financial institution and that City funds be deposited up to the legal limit in minority controlled institutions. In both instances, these funds would be deposited not only in Pittsburgh" and this is a very important fact, "but in minority controlled financial institutions across the United States." This means we would take our funds outside of Pittsburgh and they would have to be deposited in Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit. "In this time when Pittsburgh needs massive amounts of capital to fund job opportunities, funds should not be moved to banks outside of this area."

One more point. It would also take away where we require the Treasurer to place our tax dollars in our City funds and banks where they earn the highest rate of interest. Mr. Robinson's bill would require us to place our funds in minority institutions that pay absolutely no interest.

I make a motion to sustain the Mayor's veto.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out that I have a list in my possession, in our files, of the corporations and entities that the City does business with, and three-quarters of them are not City businesses. That's number one.

Number two, Mr. O'Malley, is that I don't think you disagree with anybody here that we do want to help the minority banks by putting money to the limit of what they can accept. I'm not arguing that point. It can be amended, I'm just making a point.

The fact that they did not bid goes to the point that Councilman Stone has repeatedly made that sometimes minorities and people who are not as experienced as other groups that come before us, even for foundation grants or money to help their communities, need help in preparing proposals. They didn't understand. That was corrected by the City.

But the most important thing that Mr. O'Malley has addressed was let's give our money to the bank that pays the highest interest. Let me share some information with you. A couple of days ago, before the weekend, I looked in the paper and saw a bank giving eleven percent interest. I can't get eleven percent interest in Pittsburgh so I called the brokerage house and said, "Where are you giving eleven percent interest?" They said, "Well, our job is to do nothing more than to call banks all over the country and find out who is giving the highest rate of interest." I don't remember the second source but the first one was Chicago. Are you then saying, Mr. O'Malley, that since Mellon and other banks where we invest our money don't necessarily spend all their money in Pittsburgh, they spend it everywhere, that we as a City should not look for the best bank? It may be in Atlanta or maybe California. If we're just going to build it on the merit of who gives us the most money and we can do better than a lot of Pittsburgh banks, I don't think that's a valid argument. And the banks here do not just spend their money in Pittsburgh. As a matter of fact, they loan it to Mexico where we're in big problems. We don't even know if we're going to get it paid back.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, I concur for the most part with the speech made by Councilman Robinson who is the sponsor of the bill. Granted, the City Solicitor, the Mayor, even some members of this Council, can continue to nitpick as to the technicalities or the legal questions concerning the deposit of City, State and Federal funds in minority controlled financial institutions. I think we have to keep in perspective the greater good of the City and I think that we certainly have a long way to go in the City. All of us on Council were made aware of the most appalling percentages that were presented to this Council a couple weeks ago as far as the awarding of contracts to contractors that were supposed to provide for minority participation.

We will never be able to break the log-jam as long as we continue to wrap ourselves in the most stringent arguments in opposition to creating a source to opening up the entry gate for blacks in this City. One of the entry gates is to have black controlled financial institutions that are able to compete with or who are on a par with other financial institutions in this City.

In just reviewing the address from the Mayor as to why he is going to veto the bill, I am not aware of any compelling reasons for the veto. I could see if the City was putting forth massive amounts of capital to fund job opportunities. Then, perhaps, that one argument would have some credibility as to why we should deposit only in financial institutions in the City of Pittsburgh.

But I am just incredulous by that line, "In this time when Pittsburgh needs massive amounts of capital to fund job opportunities". I don't know what he's referring to unless that is a reference to the 170 part-time jobs that were created a few weeks ago which had nothing to do with amounts of capital in our financial institutions in the City.

On the opinion from the Solicitor, I would just want to go on record that I would hope in the future the Solicitor give a little bit more due to this Council and a little bit more respect. For example, language which reads, "You have requested an opinion as to the legality of Council Bill No. 2679 which purports to amend Section 223.01". That line "which purports", to me, is receiving the back of the hand from the Solicitor's Office. And I think we should receive a little bit more courtesy on this Council and I for one would hope in the future the Solicitor would act in a little more professional manner with some of the languages that he utilizes.

But beyond the cosmetics of the opinion from the Solicitor, and I could touch upon other language in the bill, it seems once again, whenever we have an argument concerning minority interests or minority jobs or the depositing of funds in minority controlled institutions, there is always an bogus issue that's presented. There is always a smoke-screen. In the Solicitor's opinion, there is, I believe, three references to taking money from the City's financial institutions and spreading it elsewhere in the nation in banks throughout the United States and I have a copy of the bill in front of me and there is no language in regard to the nation or the United States. I think this is the smoke-screen argument that is used this time that is going to put the stake into the heart of what I think is a very minor symbol. It's not even substantial. For the most part it's just some tokenism and here we are debating the merits of whether we should kill a bill of tokenism or not. And that causes me to have serious criticisms of this whole move to veto the bill and I certainly am very critical of the reasons that the Solicitor is attempting to hang the bill on.

In closing, I just wish to say that as long as we continue to deploy legal arguments, there is never going to be even the beginning of equity for minorities in this City. It's about time that members of this Council address not the highest interest rate that we can get on $200,000 or $400,000 which is now deposited in minority financial institutions, a deposit which, incidentally, is tokenism and is a pittance in comparison to the overall deposit of City funds. But I think it's about time that this Council be bold and be innovative and perhaps be courageous and start to make a stand and start to test the parameters of the law and not always be cowering to an opinion from the City Solicitor's Office which, in my opinion, is extremely weak.

I would hope that we would make that stand here today and move to override the veto and if by doing that we are going to create such havoc to the financial state of affairs in this City and cause our money to be dispersed all over the United States and employ strong protectionist speech-making, then I would hope that we would move for the override and if there's problems let the courts decide if there is a problem. This is an issue that is serious enough and it's one of the most serious issues that this Council will face. It is certainly serious enough that it deserves its day in court and I would hope that we would show that sensitivity to the black community.

The Chair:

Mr. Flaherty, if I may. You fail to note these are banking institution laws and not the City's laws. You never said that one time. We're not voting here on City laws. We voting on banking institution laws. There's the violation. Not the City of Pittsburgh. And I think that the veto is based on that if I'm not mistaken.

All I'm saying, Tom, is that they're going to have to change their laws before we can comply.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, all I'm saying is allow this issue, if need be, to have its day in court. As long as we continue to stymie these issues before they're even out of the entry gate, we will not ever know what the parameters of our power is on Council or even what the parameters of the law is in regard to the banks and minority controlled financial interests.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if I might. I enjoin both Councilman Robinson and Councilman Flaherty in some of their remarks as to trying to come up with new innovative ways to try to create what we're talking about here today. However, one must look into the law of existing laws that we have and they must be changed both at the federal, the state and even our own local law itself. The City of Pittsburgh, to my knowledge, has made maximum deposits up to the limits of that particular law. That's a safeguard, I would assume, to the taxpayers of the City of Pittsburgh who we are all responsible for.

I don't know if we're taking this thing out of text. If one would look around and see how many minority banks and institutions we have within the City of Pittsburgh or Allegheny County, I think one would only find a handful that we're talking about. We're not talking about major banks and institutions. So, I think it's to some degree being taken out of proportion. What we can do to generate some more minority institutions is to handle this type of money. But remember, foremost, last and always, that we're supposed to give to the people, all the people, of the City of Pittsburgh, that be minority or not, the highest yield that we can get on any monies that we might have in any financial institutions. For that reason, I'll hold my vote until all of us have time to speak.

Mr. O'Malley:

I just have one short thing to say in regard to the speech given by my colleague, Councilman Flaherty, who is buoyant and has a lot of double talk --

The Chair:

Let's not debate it, Mr. O'Malley, just state facts.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that's unfair.

Mr. O'Malley:

Well, it's obvious to me that Councilman Flaherty didn't read the bill, didn't read the legislation. So, I'm going to read the legislation now so that all my colleagues can understand it and the viewers can understand it.

The legislation states:

"a) All deposits to be made by the City of Pittsburgh of Federal and State Funds, except where provided by specific law or regulation shall be in a minority controlled financial institution.

b) Deposits of all monies by the City of Pittsburgh or all other funds shall be distributed to minority controlled financial institutions, but not to exceed their legal capacity." Which means throughout the United States.

"c) 'Minority Controlled' shall mean: Stockholders whose interest combined, equal a minimum of fifty-one percent (51%).

d) 'Minority' shall mean: A citizen of the United States of America who is not a member of the Caucasian race and is of Oriental, Asian, African, American Indian, Eskimo, Aleut, Puerto Rican, or Mexican American ancestry."

Now, I agree with my colleague, Councilman Robinson, that we should do everything we can to help the minority financial institutions in Pittsburgh, but I don't think this bill is the right way to go about it.

One more comment on what Mr. Flaherty said. He said that he can see no compelling reason not to override the Mayor's veto. Well, let me give him one. In 1982, the City of Pittsburgh made $12,498,854.21 on interest on taxpayers' dollars deposited in our financial institutions. That's $12 million that we don't have to put the additional burden of taxes on the residents of the City of Pittsburgh. I think it's very important that the Treasurer and this Council do what we can to help the minority institutions in Pittsburgh. But I also feel that we owe it to the taxpayers, who are already overburdened, to get the highest rate of dollars so we can keep those taxes lower.

Mr. Stone:

Call the question.

The Chair:

Question called for. Aye to override the veto and nay to sustain it. Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I vote aye and I would just want to add that this will be the last opportunity this year that Council will have the opportunity, as some of us have said, to do all that we can. If we vote to uphold the veto, this measure cannot be brought up again for another year. I think this is a pressing problem and I think we should go with what we have even if it does have some infirmities, but at least we will have it through the entry gate and I'm sure that this Council is prudent enough, that the Mayor is prudent enough, that we will be able to work out any kinks that may develop.

Mr. Given:

I vote no and, in reading all the opinions from our Law Department and that of the feelings of the Mayor, so indicate that we cannot do this legally.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out that as we sit here there are over $51 million sitting in the bank drawing eight and a quarter percent interest in our capital monies that we borrowed that we paid eleven percent for. I think that's interesting when we're talking about this issue.

I think that I'm going to vote to override simply because we can amend it to make it more palatable and as Councilman Flaherty said, at least we have opened the door and we cannot do it the rest of this year, we can amend it to make it so at least some monies, at least our moral responsibility to the minority community has kept faith with what we promised.

Mrs. Masloff:

We're a nation of laws. It's illegal and I vote no.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote no, and I would like to say I hope Councilman Robinson would come back with a bill we can all support.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to vote aye and I will come back with a bill. Whether or not it will be supported will be up to the members of this Council, but I certainly will continue to encourage this Council to pass some type of legislation that will help make real this City's commitment to minority business development.

In explaining my vote, I'd just like to make a couple other comments that I did not make before. I think the suggestion that the City Treasurer or other responsible officials in this City are not going to use their best discretion in depositing the funds of the City of Pittsburgh is, at best, ridiculous. I don't think anyone on this Council or anyone in this City should be led to believe that our Treasurer and other financial people are not attempting to make the best investments and certainly this bill, in no way, restricts them from making the best investments for the City of Pittsburgh.

I also think that if we are sincere and serious about this issue, that we will at least look at the facts, the facts that we as a City, have on hand, and those facts will indicate that we do not have in any minority financial institution in the City of Pittsburgh, the maximum amount of money that they could handle from a City deposit. That is a fact. I think we ought to recognize that. The statistics over the last five or five and a half years will show that our deposits are less than one percent. And even if we take into consideration the capacity of those institutions, we have done little or nothing to encourage deposits in those institutions and I think that all we need do is look at the activities of our Boards and Authorities to substantiate that.

Also, in terms of public policy, I think for at least five years in the City it has been the public policy to make sure that we are operating in such a fashion that we spread our resources among all the segments of the community. Certainly the minority community does represent a portion of this City and is entitled, along with other groups in this City, to participate in the Renaissance, in Renaissance II, and is entitled to have some expectations that the largess of this City will be shared with them and certainly shared in terms of City deposits being put in minority institutions. I am not oblivious to the fact that there are other institutions in this community that might be considered minority institutions and I think Mr. Stone, on several occasions, has eluded to the fact that where possible we need to make sure that all of our small institutions in this City share in our deposits. The records will reflect that we have not been too diligent in that regard and I would hope that Council would give some serious consideration to doing that in the future.

A comment was made relative to the fact that seventy-five percent of the business that the City conducts is outside the City. I think that in terms of where we bank that we do have to depend upon the expertise of the people who handle our finances. If our Treasurer and other responsible parties decide that they want to put the City of Pittsburgh's money in Chicago, and that in Chicago we can achieve our public policy objectives, then I would support that. I don't believe that the only objective of the City of Pittsburgh, from a financial standpoint, is to make money. We are not a private corporation; we are a public corporation. And we have a public purpose to serve. While I recognize that all do not share my commitment, and I'm not suggesting anyone here is in this category, I'm sure that all do not share my commitment to make sure that this City's minority population shares in the profits of this public corporation. But I assure you that they are entitled and I assure you that your returns will be substantial if indeed we make the commitment to put money in financial institutions, minority institutions, up to their limit.

One last comment about federal funds. It seems to me that the Federal Government, both during the Carter Administration and the Reagan Administration, has made it rather clear that they would like to see substantial portions of their monies placed in minority financial institutions. Not to move in that direction, I think the City of Pittsburgh is showing a callous disregard, not just for its minority population, but for the stated policy objectives of the Federal Government in terms of their money.

We're not simply here talking about banking laws or whether or not the City Solicitor is right or wrong. I think we're talking about a public policy issue and that public policy issue is whether or not the minority community in the City of Pittsburgh is going to substantially participate in the operation of the City and substantially participate in the benefits and the dividends of this public corporation which we call the City of Pittsburgh. I would hope that as my colleagues consider that policy in the future, that they will consider all legislation that comes before them relative to the minority community in that spirit.

Just one other comment. I would be remiss if I did not say that the Administration, over the last two months, has vetoed every bill that has been submitted to this Council that deals with minority business participation, which deals with minority employment, which deals with living out our commitment to minorities in the City. Every single bill has been vetoed. Every single bill has received a negative opinion from our Solicitor. I do not believe it's in the best interest of the City of Pittsburgh to continue to move in that direction.

Again, I extend my hand of cooperation to the Administration to sit and try to reason some of these matters. And I would hope that members of this Council would join me in that effort.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, in fairness to everybody to here in these Council Chambers, I don't think there's anyone that's opposed to seeing that monies go into minority institutions. But, last week I expressed some concerns of some of the amendments to the bill which was that we fund no lower than capacity. I thought then that it was illegal and I told Mr. Robinson that I think the bill, even though I was supportive, may find some legal difficulties. In this connection, I'd like to clear up some of the comments that were made here today. First, one on each side of the so-called discussion, there's been some indication it's one percent of our monies but that alone would not be a fair comment because there is a legal capacity that each of our minority institutions can hold — all institutions have a capacity and I think that's forty percent of their assets. But at any rate, the capacities here, as I now understand them, Dwelling House is about $266,000 and New World Bank that was once represented is $4 million. It's my understanding it's $400,000 and I'm not giving a fixation in figures. But nevertheless, there is a capacity and even if we were to take some percentage of the whole City, it could not be given and it would be wrong not to clear that issue up.

On the other hand, I'd just like to make what I consider a fair remark. Relative to Dwelling House and New World Bank, any monies going into those two institutions and the way they operate is like a conduit, into others, they're helping some people in those areas that no other lending institution even wants to go into. So, they are serving a need to the City of Pittsburgh and I would not like that to pass without notice and mention.

Relative to monies going into the New World Bank, for instance, I have been one of the first who made the move to put some monies into that bank. It is true there has been some slippage other than what monies we had wanted to be there. It is also true, and one should not lose sight of that, that these institutions cannot take the in and out that happens every day. They need to have the long-term monies and sometimes that thwarts the ability to fund more than has already been done.

Do we want to help the minority institutions? We obviously do and I don't think there's any question of that. But what's being asked here now is to do an illegal act and I think that is wrong. I think we should continue to help where we can but to go in the face of a legal opinion that tells you no and for Legislators to say, "It's illegal but let's take a chance anyhow" seems to me should come from anybody but a Legislator.

I said time and time again that I will not override a legal opinion. I thought that it had some problems last week even before the City Solicitor made an opinion and he's now ruled on it by doing more legal investigation and research than I. And I say to do this and override it in the face of a legal opinion that says you can't is to pretend to give. And I don't want to be a pretender. If I'm going to give, I'm going to give. And I think to give nothing, to do something that's illegal, is really giving nothing and I'll not be part and parcel of that.

My vote is no and I'd like all of the remarks that I've made relative to this subject in the last couple of weeks brought forward.

(BEGINNING - MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2679)

Mr. Stone:

On Dwelling House, they could get up to $266,000. They have $100,000 now which means the maximum they could get would be -- am I reading $100,000 or $160,000 -- $166,000, that would be the maximum they could get.

If you're talking about rates competitive to what we have, fine. Let me say this to you. There is no question as far as New World Bank and Dwelling House is concerned. From the time I have been on this Council and since I have been Finance Chairman, it has always been my belief that those two institutions should be receiving funds for two reasons. Number one, they need it to get going, and it's an added business. Secondly, because where Dwelling House is located, they're serving a need that needs some attention. So, it's in our best interest instead of subsidizing houses at $40,000 per house, that we funnel money into Dwelling House which is in the area of low and moderate and even hardcore possibilities of development. We ought to be helping them.

The other question is, number one, their capacity as to how much money they could take, that was restricted by law. The third one is how much we can do when there is no competitiveness attached to it.

With what you have here, I think you are creating a problem, and I would like if you would hold it to see what we can do with it, as far as I'm personally concerned. Since I had a meeting, if you will recall, I reported that to Council, and as of now, it's my understanding there are monies in New World Bank since that meeting, is that correct? How much now?

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Bill, the only problem is you are oversimplifying it, and I'm telling you, you have to watch it. These smaller institutions, if you want to play games with them, you give them short-term money and they can't use it because for them, the advantage -- and I have met with their boards and talked to Dwelling House. What they need from us is the monies that is going to lay for a while so that when they get into something, there is a larger possibility of getting interest. The in and out, the paperwork and problems, they are not equipped to handle that kind of thing. So, it needs a kind of funding.

Secondly, with the CD before we got money, now we are getting letters of credit which has frustrated some of that ability. It's saying 30 percent and those that we have cannot possibly reach $70 million. The maximum, as I see it, is now $2,266,000.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

What you're doing is where I'm finding the problem. I'm not adverse to funding the minority institutions in this City. Let's have that very clear. And I have been active in my full time in Council even when New World was in more struggling days on Fifth Avenue. As far as this particular ordinance is concerned, what you are building into is a conflict that can't be resolved. You're saying 30 percent has to go into minority institutions in this City. First of all, they can't take more than $2,266,000 and second, do they want to take them and they didn't bid which is another problem. I think the thing is a little more involved and no one has the ability to get less than competitive interest unless it's done here on some legal fashion, and I'm trying to help it with my

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Mr. Robinson, I can just see you now if we pass it in its present form saying, "The law says because right here it says 30 percent." And we can't reach 30 percent now. I'm not going to build into that contradiction. I want to help it.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

You can't go any further than their capability. If you want to say under the limits of the bank's capability, fine.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

If you're saying that you want to give it up to the capacity of the bank's ability to receive funds, which is practical, logical and legal, then I'm willing to go with that. If you're saying 30 percent, which is absurdity, I'm not going to join in it.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

We can't go 30 percent because they can't receive 30 percent, and if we pass an ordinance that says 30 percent, I'm going to have you back saying, "The law says here -- there is an ordinance that says 30 -- I want to know where the 30 is".

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Right now, the City of Pittsburgh's two institutions that we have in question cannot pick up $70 million.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Dwelling House can go to $266,000. New World Bank is, from Mr. Robinson's figure, $2 million.

MICHELLE MADOFF COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

If I gather what Mr. Schillo has said, he's going to be reaching that in short order.

MR. ROBINSON COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Wait Mr. Robinson. He brings a point. If the Leasing Authority puts money in and we put money in, is that -- do those two make up part of the 40 percent maximum we can go?

MR. SCHILLO COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Hold on one second. As far as the next two pay periods, there is a million and a million, so we're going to reach that, right?

MR. SCHILLO COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Steve, get the documentation for her.

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

I don't see that as a problem, and in fairness, I don't think we have that in --

MR. GIVENS COMMENTS

Mr. Stone:

Let me make this comment so it's also clear. In fairness to Dwelling House and New World, they are not paying us half the ordinary interest. They are paying close to what it is. It's just that that rate is much higher because the others are larger and able to manipulate their money much better. In fairness, it's not a charity situation. I don't want to go that far with it. It is an assist operation and that is why I try to say it's more complicated. If they get the short money, they can't maneuver it. They don't get the best advantage out of what they're doing. If it's large money that they have within their possession, it's a one shot in and one shot out and during that time, it's a matter of collecting interest without the added burden, and that is why you help them meaningfully.

(END - MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2679)

Mr. Woods:

I vote no because the bill can be reintroduced or a similar bill in a short period of eight months when some of these legal problems can be worked out and I think that they can be and it will give us more time to look at what the City is doing this year since this legislation has been introduced and I will support it when these legal problems are worked out in January if the sponsor so introduces it again.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I have two issues that I would like to bring before Council, and I would respectfully request that you give me the same courtesy that you extend to other members before you rule them out of order.

Since it is the consensus of this Council and of the Law Department, Dan Pellegrini, that Council, according to the Home Rule Charter, they only respond to the budget after presentation by the Mayor, and since the budget is not prepared until after the election that's in November, I therefore move that the Council recommend that the Mayor in preparing the 1984 Budget amend the 1984 Budget so that annual salary of the City of Pittsburgh's Personnel Appeals Board be changed from $8,710 plus fringe benefits such as medical, and dental coverage, eye care, and life insurance to only a $100 per diem for each case heard, furthermore, that no consideration be given to a pension for this board. I find it appalling that Dr. Martin Krause, Chairman of the 14th Ward, Democratic party would deem to rip-off the City taxpayers in these times of horrendous unemployment.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I think that's out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

That's my editorial comment. The issue before us is that we ask the Mayor in preparing the 1984 Budget to please amend the budget, not to have an $8,700 salary to people not working, and do it as a $100 a day per diem. That is legal, since we cannot address the budget until after it's prepared, so I'm asking the Mayor be asked to prepare it in that manner. Do I have a second?

The Chair:

You're doing this as a recommendation to the Mayor?

Michelle Madoff:

As a recommendation, do I have a second?

Mr. O'Malley:

I second the motion.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd like to comment. I think that what Mrs. Madoff has suggested speaks to the whole notion that the budget process probably should be changed, but taking into consideration the Administration's prerogative and indeed mandate to prepare for the citizens of this City some sort of budget, I think that if the Mayor and his staff deem it appropriate to continue the Appeals Board and to continue to pursue the pension aspect for the members of that board, then I think that he ought to do that and do it with full knowledge that at least some members of Council are concerned about that.

I think also Council should not lose sight of the fact that is the Council of the City of Pittsburgh which indeed produces the budget each year. It is the Council of the City of Pittsburgh that determines what our revenue will be and what our expenditures will be, and I don't think that it's appropriate at this time to suggest that we want to step on any of the Mayor's prerogatives. I think we ought to have enough sense of responsibility that at the appropriate time we make it publicly known what we think about the Appeals Board, what we think about the pension issue, just as we do each year.

In lieu of asking the Mayor to do anything, I think it would be appropriate for this Council to initiate its budget process as early as possible. There's nothing in the Charter that prohibits us from initiating a budget process which will allow us to get the facts and figures we need so that we can begin to put together the budget that we want and then, if need be, respond to those suggestions that the Mayor has made. I just think that the particular motion is not going to garner the kind of response we're looking for, and I think we are perhaps not accepting our full responsibility as the legislators of the City and the people who make the budget. If this Council doesn't want the Appeals Board, then I think this Council ought to come forth and say we don't want it. I think if this Council wants to change the way it functions, we ought to come forward and say that, and if we don't believe that any member of that Appeals Board should have a pension, we ought come forth and say that, and we ought to do that within the context of our own budget process, and not ask of the Mayor. I don't think that the Mayor will respond at all if we pass this motion. In the past he has not responded to our motions. I think the Mayor is quite aware of his prerogatives, and I think he exercises them to the limit.

The Chair:

If I may, in regards to the pensions, Mr. Robinson, one of the Appeals Board members asked what their status was, and upon a ruling from the Solicitor of the Pension Board, it was stated that an employee must put in 250 working days to qualify for a pension, and I merely said to him at that rate you're going to eliminate quite a few people in the City of Pittsburgh besides the Appeals Board, in fact, just about everybody in the City of Pittsburgh, and that was the only ruling I've been given. That was the only comment that I made.

Mr. Woods:

I totally agree with Councilman Robinson. I don't think we should suggest to the Mayor what he wants to pay anybody or what positions he should appoint. If we want to do this as Council, at budget hearings, then that's when we should do it. We have all our opportunities to raise people's salaries or decrease them, and that's when it should be done.

Mr. Givens:

On this particular subject, is there going to be a vote? I had a question on another subject matter.

Michelle Madoff:

I would just like to point out that as head of the Water Committee for the City of Pittsburgh —

The Chair:

Wait a while. Do we have a recommendation? A vote was called for. Now you're on to another subject.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm responding to the statements made on my bill, on my motion, and what I'm saying, Mr. President, is that in previous years, may I remind Councilman Robinson that I agree with him completely that we ought to be having our own budgetary process as a Council; but there are only three of us, perhaps, or four at the most, who would agree with that, and since we don't have a majority nor a fiscal advisor, it's not a reality; and when I introduced the bill originally, I was voted out of order, because it was an inappropriate bill; but as Chairwoman of the Water Committee, I have repeatedly introduced bills early enough in the year, and I was told they were too early. When I came back during the budget time, I was told it was too late. All I'm doing now, Mr. Robinson, is to say — and I understand, incidentally, from informed sources that the Mayor agrees, and he at one point has suggested a per diem, and another Council had overruled him, that we're just saying in your preparation of the budget, since it has been pointed out that that committee only works maybe one hearing a year, over $8,000 is inappropriate, and that would you please consider it. I don't think that's out of order.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, I have a question for Michelle Madoff. You say that the Mayor told you he agrees with this idea?

Michelle Madoff:

No, I said that I've heard that in previous budgets before I got here that —

Mr. Woods:

I want to put you on a dime. Did the Mayor say this? And if he did, please tell us who he said it to, because I want to find out. I mean, everyone says the Mayor this or this person on that Council. I want to know, did the Mayor say this, yes or no?

Michelle Madoff:

You asked me a question. I'll be happy to answer it. I have heard from informed sources that prior to my getting to Council and your getting to Council and a lot of other people, that this issue had come up some time ago, and the Mayor did indeed, and I have to go back and check on that time, suggest a per diem; and it was the Council that had changed it, and that he is not adverse to a per diem. I am only suggesting that the Mayor look at it and perhaps make it a per diem instead. I'm not telling him what to do. I'm only saying that perhaps it is the wish of this Council that we give our taxpayers who are calling my office and I'm sure calling other offices very upset in this time of unemployment, giving somebody $8,000 a year for doing one day's work; and I was just making it as a recommendation. If members of Council don't want to recommend that to the Mayor, that is their prerogative.

Mr. Woods:

That's not the point I'm trying to make.

Michelle Madoff:

That is the point.

The Chair:

Maybe I can clear the air, Mr. Woods. To the best of my knowledge, that conversation never took place, because I was here, but the Mayor did not want to appoint a member to that board. Due to the fact that the Home Rule Charter mandated it, he then did, but he delayed it as long as he could. It never was discussed, to the best of my knowledge, in regards to what they would be paid or how they would be paid.

Mr. Woods:

In other words, the Mayor never said that he agreed, to your knowledge or to anybody else's knowledge, because no one can name a name.

The Chair:

To pay them per diem?

Michelle Madoff:

And I never said that he did. I said that I had heard that he was of that mind.

Mr. Woods:

You heard. Who did you hear it from?

Michelle Madoff:

Do you tell me everything you hear, Mr. Woods, from everybody in here? Do you share any information with this Council?

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to clarify my second on Mrs. Madoff's motion. I'd just like to say that, one, I feel that we do need an Appeals Board, and that I certainly support an Appeals Board. In this time of fiscal restraints, and we're trying to best utilize the expenditures of the taxpayers dollar, I feel a $100 a day per diem is certainly adequate. That is why I seconded Mrs. Madoff's motion.

Michelle Madoff:

It's only a recommendation. It is not binding. It is only asking the Mayor to consider the wishes of this Council. We don't have to agree that we should change it to $100. All you're doing right now is saying, do you want Marty Krause and Company to get $8,700 and all the benefits, or you want him to get $100 per diem, and you're only making it as a recommendation to the Mayor when he promulgates the 1984 Budget. What is the will of this Council? I call the vote.

The Chair:

I think it's sort of unfair to say somebody's ripping off the Appeals Board in regards to Marty Krause --

Michelle Madoff:

I said that was an editorial comment. We're just asking the Mayor to --

The Chair:

Maybe you should say that the Home Rule Charter ripped us off.

Michelle Madoff:

Maybe you're right, Mr. President. I'm just saying that it is a recommendation when the Mayor promulgates a budget, because we can't address it until it's promulgated. Unfortunately, Mr. Robinson, under the Home Rule Charter, we can't do it. I was voted out of order last time.

The Chair:

You have a motion and a second on a recommendation. Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed, and the reason why that I am opposed is, even though I agree with the intent of the motion that if not the Mayor, then I think certainly Council should ask the pertinent questions at the proper time as to what are the duties of the Personnel and Appeals Board and how consuming those responsibilities are. I believe that the Mayor is aware of some of the criticisms that are being flung at the Board, but I don't think that it is proper for this Council to become involved in what I sense is becoming a question of politics going into a primary. We are all aware that there is a Ward Chairman involved. In fact, there's three politicians, I believe, that are on the Personnel and Appeals Board. I think the appropriate time to question their responsibilities is when the issue is in front of Council, and I would just want to add that I, for one, and perhaps I should know, but I don't know what the modus operandi of the Personnel and Appeals Board is, nor do I know the number of hours that those individuals do put in, and I think that probably most of us on Council are not accurately aware, since we have not had anyone from that Board appear in front of Council; so I, for one, am going to refrain from shooting my arrows until those members of the Board have their fair and legitimate right to appear in front of this Council and tell their side of the story.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, some people within this Council feel like we need a total individual financial staff in order to make up our own budgets. I would submit if we look at the Mayor's budget, and we have a strong-mayor form of government, that we're talking about some $1 million, about $500,000, to try to compete and bring up our own budget. That is an on-going process and one that's a very strenuous one requiring a tremendous amount of personnel. I don't think we're in that business in this Council to do that, although this Council must look over the Mayor's budget and approve or disapprove, and the Mayor has then the right to veto it. I don't think this is the time and the place if we start writing letters, memos, to the Mayor on everything that we want him to do on the particular next year's budget. I think we're going to be doing nothing but letter-writing to the Mayor, so for that reason and to keep it — the fact is that we've been blessed in this particular Administration for only having about six or seven cases come before this Appeals Board. I have been here long enough on this Council, eight some years, wherein I know of many cases have then appealed to this particular Appeals Board or before it was created. I'd like also to say, Mr. President, that I was the author of that particular bill, because the Home Rule Charter so demanded it. My vote is no.

Michelle Madoff:

All I can say, if there are only six or seven cases and we paid over $100,000, that's been very costly, and may I point out to my esteemed colleagues, who I have great esteem for, Councilman Flaherty, that we don't start addressing the budget until after the election in November which leaves us less than nine weeks, which I think is a horrendous way. As Councilman Robinson has pointed out, we need more time. We get into situations where we vote on things like Warner Cable with enough information that would fill this whole room from floor to ceiling in addition to all the multitude of the litany of other issues that we have to address, and no human person can address all those issues unless you start earlier, and that's why I'm addressing it earlier, and I vote aye.

Mrs. Masloff:

I abstain.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd also like to make a comment on my esteemed colleague's dissertations, who I almost constantly and totally disagree with, about this Council should not become involved. I always thought it was the business of the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh to become involved, since we vote and we appropriate all funds and we vote on the entire City payroll and the employees. I also think it's ridiculous that we pay over $8,000 a year for a Board that meets once a month; and also, when my colleague said that this Council was not informed, I would prefer for him to speak for himself. I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to vote aye, but I'd like to qualify that by saying that I think the direction of the motion is most appropriate to address budgetary matters and to attempt to have some influence on the budget that is prepared by the Administration. With all due respect to Mrs. Madoff, I don't think it is fair to the person indicated in the communique that she gave us to present their name today and to suggest that perhaps some action on their part has not been proper. I think Mr. Flaherty is correct in that regard that we need to at least hear from the Appeals Board, which we have never heard from, to get some perspective on what they do and who those members are. That is not to say that what Mrs. Madoff has suggested is not true. It's simply to say that I don't think that this perhaps is the appropriate way to present it. In its present form the motion, the motion in its present form, I cannot support it, and I will vote no.

Michelle Madoff:

You just voted yes, and you changed your vote and voted no.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I will vote yes.

Mr. Woods:

I vote no for the reasons I stated before. It's a budgetary matter, and that's when it should be brought up, and we should not try to throw the monkey on the Mayor's back. If we want to change it, we can so do it; and I also resent the fact, instead of saying the Appeals Board, they keep bringing up the individual's name, one individual's name, and there are other members on that board. They keep taking a shot at one individual, and he had nothing to do with creating that Board or his salary —

Michelle Madoff:

But he's been on the phone every minute.

Mr. Woods:

Would you let me speak, please? — or his salary, and I think it's a cheap shot to keep doing that. I vote no.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. Chairman, my vote should be recorded as no. I am not supporting the motion.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, he has been on the phone calling everybody.

Mr. Robinson:

He hasn't called me.

Michelle Madoff:

He called the Mayor.

The Chair:

Michelle Madoff:

I have one other item. I would like to call to the attention of this esteemed body, and I would respectfully request support that Council introduce a motion, or that I introduce a motion, you support it, requesting the release to Council and the public of the $50,000 municipal study done at the request of Mayor Caliguiri by the Economy League. The Economy League study was completed in December of 1982.

According to Emery Sedlak of the Economy League, the study was paid for by voluntary contributions of local corporations and foundations. It is interesting to note that Mr. Jim Turner, now of the City in the capacity of Assistant Director, Budget and Research, was the project director of the Economy League for this study and was hired by the City two months later in February of 1983.

This report came to my attention because the Allegheny Conference has been attempting to obtain a copy and has been unable to do so to-date. The study, according to knowledgeable sources who have been privy to the study, shows the fiscal situation in Pittsburgh to be in serious straits, and the projection of revenue for upcoming years without a suburban commuter tax is frightening.

My understanding is the study further shows that the regressive taxes, Merchantile and Business Privilege Taxes, paid on gross and paid whether a company makes a profit or not, are encouraging many businesses to locate elsewhere. It is vital to this Council that the study be made available today, since Pittsburgh is confronted with an unemployment rate of over 16 percent, an $800 million debt service, and they need to repair our infrastructure, which will put additional millions of dollars of burden on our already overburdened City taxpayers.

There are those who would say that we're no worse off than any other northeastern city. Untrue. No other city has 129 spokes feeding off the hub. In an article printed in the Los Angeles Times, dated Thursday, March 24, 1983, and it's about a half or three-quarters of a page, the title is "Official Fights Pittsburgh's Money Woes." Ronald Schmeiser, the article was on me, incidentally, but Ronald Schmeiser, Director of Finance, said, "Our costs are going up in the foreseeable future at the rate of $25 million a year. By 1985, we're going to need to raise tax rates, and our rates are just too high already. Pittsburgh residents pay more than other cities who live around here. This discourages people from living in the City. Young people say this, real estate agents hear it all the time; they won't live here because of the higher taxes."

Incidentally —

The Chair:

Michelle, if I may, what point are you trying to make?

Michelle Madoff:

May I finish? I'll be very brief. I want the report, but may I finish, please? I'll be very brief. I received a $40 check from California trying to help fund the debt of the City of Pittsburgh. According to the figures supplied by the Administration of the Council meeting in 1982, it was anticipated that Renaissance II would generate an additional $4.5 million. Allowing for a ripple effect, one could say an additional revenue might total $10 million. However, because of the re-assessment by the County, we are now rebating $10 million a year to City taxpayers and on the re-assessments, so, in effect, we have a wash. In essence, no additional revenue of any significance by Renaissance II. I want to know, these are the things that are in the report. I am appalled that the Administration has not released this report as yet, and since the Economy League is a non-profit organization, I believe their policy of not releasing a report of this magnitude to the public and to the legislative body — that's City Council — who must vote on fiscal matters, I believe, personally — I speak for myself — would mandate that they lose, that's the Economy League, lose their non-profit status, and I will personally look into it. It is a sad commentary when even the Allegheny Conference cannot obtain a copy of this obviously important report.

I would request that Council do its own study for $50,000, but unfortunately, as we all know, Council is not empowered to enter into any contracts. Furthermore, who are these mysterious, anonymous foundations and industries who paid for the Caliguiri study? Where are their names recorded?

Mr. Robinson:

Are you making a motion?

Michelle Madoff:

The motion is that we request the study.

Mr. Robinson:

I second the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Michelle, I know of the Pennsylvania League, and the individual you just mentioned conducted the study on the Urban Redevelopment Authority wherein that study was —

Michelle Madoff:

This is not that study.

Mr. Givens:

— you know, was released.

Michelle Madoff:

This is not released.

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me, I'm talking about the Urban Redevelopment Authority, same units of government that you're talking about, the same individual, Mr. Turner, who had at the time come in and re-evaluated along with the Pennsylvania League all of the various functions of the Urban Redevelopment Authority. They have been implemented, they have been implemented. I don't know if maybe your facts and the fact that that particular study are mixed up or not.

Michelle Madoff:

No, I spoke to Mr. Sedlak, I spoke to the Allegheny Conference, I spoke to Mr. Turner, I've spoken to everyone. It has not been released. It was finished in the end of December. Mr. Turner, who headed the project, is now working for the City. I want that study.

Mr. Givens:

Then they must have had --

Michelle Madoff:

Good reason. I wonder what the good reason is.

Mr. Givens:

They must have had correlating studies being conducted at the same time.

Michelle Madoff:

No, the study has not been released.

The Chair:

What is the motion?

Michelle Madoff:

The motion is to ask that the Mayor release the study.

The Chair:

That the Mayor releases the study. Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm going to support it, but I don't see why if someone would just call the Pennsylvania Economy League --

Michelle Madoff:

I did and they refused.

Mr. Flaherty:

They refused? Why?

Michelle Madoff:

On the basis that the study goes to the person who paid for it, and they said originally it was industry. I called and said, "It can't be. The Allegheny Conference doesn't have a copy." The secretary or the gal who works there went back and looked, came back in 20 minutes, kept me waiting 20 minutes, said, "Oh no, it's the Caliguiri study." I said, "Who paid for it? I didn't remember voting $50,000 for a Caliguiri study." She said, "Oh, some private foundations and some industries did;" but I said, "The Conference can't get it." She said, "I'm sorry, I can't give you a copy." I said, "Who did it?" She said, "Mr. Turner." I said, "Is he in California? I'll call him." She said, "He's now working for the City."

Mr. Flaherty:

Okay, well, I change my vote. I change my vote, then, to no, because I can't consciously attempt to judge or decide on a study that seems to be shrouded in such amorphous circumstances. I don't know what study anyone is talking about.

Michelle Madoff:

You don't want to see the study?

Mr. Flaherty:

For all we know, this study may not even exist.

Michelle Madoff:

It exists.

Mr. Flaherty:

From the information I have heard and the bottom line, I also think that if someone paid for that study, then the Economy League should honor that contract that they have with that individual. The same is if you employ a firm to conduct a poll for you, you only want that firm to give you the results of that poll.

Michelle Madoff:

I think it goes beyond that.

Mr. Flaherty:

I think it's along the same line, and so I vote no.

Mr. Givens:

I would like to say if there is such a study, I'm sure the Mayor must not want to release until possibly they have a time to look at the impact. I can tell you now that the Urban Redevelopment Authority, the same group that Michelle mentions, when they made certain recommendations, that this Councilman did not agree as a board member on some factors that they had brought out; and I would think that this would be something if the Mayor has done this through the corporate community — and we've been encouraged to do this, to make the corporate community, our universities and etc. involved in government and to streamline our government — I think it would probably appear again in the Mayor's 1984 Budget recommendation to this Council which we must then deliberate. However, I'm not going to ask him or force him at this particular time to give that over to us, because sometimes when you read a report, it doesn't really tell you everything behind the lines or behind the scenes. When I received my report, it took almost a good 30 days of my own time when I had time to look over that report and to study it. As soon as the Mayor can give us this report, I'd appreciate it, but I would at this time, I have not anything in writing other than what Michelle has so indicated verbally. As she indicated, some other people have indicated, please give us something in writing from these various departments, and if they say they were a part or a body of it, then I think that adds much more validity and strength to your position.

Michelle Madoff:

Michelle Madoff researched the information. There is a study. I spoke to Mr. Turner who works for the City. He admitted there is a study. Everybody has admitted there is a study. All I'm saying, that it was a municipal study done by the Mayor for $50,000, this Council has to vote on fiscal matters and should see that study. If that study is being hidden, it's being hidden for devious reasons, and the public ought to know it, and I hope P.N.A. will request it.

Mr. Robinson:

I'm going to vote to support this request. I don't think that it's appropriate for us to challenge Mrs. Madoff's integrity in this matter. I don't think she'd have any reason to fabricate the existence of this study. Certainly, the Mayor has his prerogatives to information that he pays for, and certainly his staff has the right to prepare material for him, and he has the right to contract for material; but I think we also have a right to make a legitimate request, particularly in the area of fiscal management, and so I am going to support this request, because the study obviously was geared towards making this City and keeping this City fiscally solvent.

The Chair:

Mr. Stone, if I may, Michelle Madoff has made a motion that a certain study exists that the Mayor has privy to and will not give Council that information. The motion is that the Mayor give us that information.

Mr. Stone:

I'm going to abstain.

Mr. Woods:

I vote no, because I don't know when this $50,000 was spent.

Michelle Madoff:

For the record. I would like to make a prediction that that report will be forthcoming from the Mayor within the next week or so, simply because we've now flushed him out.

Mr. Woods:

Can I ask a question of Michelle Madoff?

Michelle Madoff:

Certainly.

Mr. Woods:

Michelle, when was the legislation passed that we authorized the $3,000?

Michelle Madoff:

We didn't.

Mr. Woods:

You said it was public money. We used our money?

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't say that at all. You weren't listening. In my article, I'll give you a copy of my statement, it does not say that. I said the report cost $50,000. When I asked the young woman, I didn't vote for the money, where did the money come from, she said foundations and private corporations paid for it. I said, "Who are they?" She said she couldn't tell me. I said, "What is the report called?" She said, "The Caliguiri Study," and the Allegheny Conference can't get a copy, and they're very upset.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Michelle Madoff
Mr. Robinson

AYES 2

NOES 4

VOTING NO:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens

Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale

MR. STONE ABSTAINING

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Mr. Robinson

On another subject, if I might. I know members of Council are somewhat tired of hearing the story of CAP, but I'm here to bring you another chapter, a short one. This relates to those persons at Community Action Pittsburgh who are employees or former employees. I'm talking about maybe 150 people who are going to be displaced due to a number of situations that this Council is very much aware of.

My concern and the concern of those employees is that, while the City of Pittsburgh is making numerous efforts to put unemployed people to work and address the unemployment problem, the problem of employment opportunities for former CAP employees seems to have fallen through the cracks; and I would hope that this Council would play a leadership role in trying to identify the number of people at Community Action Pittsburgh who will be out of work or who are out of work, the number of persons who still have grievances, legitimate concerns that should be addressed by the Community Action Pittsburgh Board, and that we attempt to identify some resources that can be utilized to put these people to work and to use the same spirit, the same vigor that we have used to find employment opportunities and search for employment opportunities for others in the City. I think many of the people who work for CAP sort of feel that they have been forgotten in this regard, and I am presenting this matter to Council, because everyone on this Council except Mr. Woods serves on the CAP Board, and certainly the unemployment problem there is as great if not more so than any other problem in the City.

Most of the individuals to be affected are females, heads of households, middle aged, and elderly people, some handicapped people, and not the least of which would be some minority people; and again, I would hope that Council would accept some responsibility to move aggressively to create an outplacement program to make sure that the people who were employed by Community Action Pittsburgh can find employment elsewhere in the City.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, this could carry on a little bit with what Bill has so indicated there, and I don't know if you've all received letters. There was Byrd Brown had the leadership of the Community Action Pittsburgh Board, and what you called it wasn't an executive session or anything. It was his responsibility as our legal counsel to tell the Board, the Community Action Pittsburgh, what their alternatives were. He has set up a meeting and I believe, Bill, for the 19th of April, and encouraging all of us to be there, because it is a fact that the Community Action Pittsburgh has been in existence for some years, 15, 16 years that these people have worked for a major corporation, and now all of sudden they're sitting out in the street wondering what is happening to them, so I can join them in that.

I have two other items, Mr. President, if I might very quickly.

Mr. Flaherty:

Wait. Is this in regard to CAP?

Mr. Givens:

Yes.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I also have something to say in regard to CAP, Councilman Givens. I also wish to add to what Councilman Robinson has said that there are also former and present CAP employees — if there are any present CAP employees; I don't know — that still have unsettled grievances and complaints against CAP, and from the way that I understand the law, I believe that the CAP Board has an obligation to settle those grievances.

I would just want to close in saying that CAP is going to have a very crucial meeting in Council Chambers on Wednesday evening at 7:00 p.m. I think that it's imperative that all members of Council that are on the Board of CAP please attend. I think we are all aware that CAP is through as an organization, but I think that we certainly owe some consideration and respect to the approximately 150 CAP employees that are in this real stage of flux, and I think it's only humane that we all make every effort that we possibly can to attend that very crucial meeting on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Givens:

Two points I have. One, there was a meeting of the citizens group, some 150, 200 people at the Auburn Towers this past week. One of their strong objections was a parklet that's very closely aligned to that particular area, and what I would call the East Liberty Boulevard that goes through that particular area is cut off at the parklet, thus not making its final connection at Frankstown, which would be a dead end. They want that opened up, and as a result, I would then ask for a post agenda, Mike.

The Chair:

Excuse me. Didn't they petition for a hearing?

Mr. Givens:

No, I don't think. They might have in the past, Jeep, and yes, you're right. I think a couple of years back, one or two years back, they have done so. There were fights on both sides of the fence, but I think in order to — this, if you can recall, is where they had a very serious rape where the man was beaten up. There are no lights in park. It's kind of a serious situation.

The Chair:

Make a note, Mike, we'll have a post agenda.

Michelle Madoff:

I think I gave Mike Perry a petition for that.

Mr. Givens:

Excuse me, I'm not finished with the floor. In order to consolidate this, there are many departments that must be involved in it. The Planning Department, Mike, Department of Public Works that has something to do with the opening of the road, in the Department of Public Works the Traffic Division, the Lighting Division, and naturally, Sophie, because it is a park they must go through, the Parks and Recreation should also be there. That's subject number one.

Subject number two is the dangerous conditions we have on our hillsides and our roads today. As we all have known, over the weekend we had one more road closed going up to Mount Washington Boulevard, and that is Sycamore Street. I then ask that the Chief Clerk send a letter to the Department of Public Works, to our Planning Department, and to PennDOT, which also handles federal roads, of all hillsides and, as they use in the language, outcroppings that are of a dangerous nature. Otherwise, Mike, what I'm looking for are dangerous situations that are in our existing highways that we have right now and that they could be identified and put on the map and given to this Council for future planning purposes, so we don't have any more of our pedestrians and people who use vehicles in this City and from out being dangerous. There's a lot of attention being drawn to this and for good reason. We've been probably in a half century in our lowest amount of waterfall, rain, for about a half century. This then opens up many cracks within the earth. Now, we have had an abundance of rainfall just recently. When you get those two combinations, the rain then penetrates deeper into the ground, loosening the foundations of many of these outcroppings and causing the landslides. Mike, I think I mentioned all the departments. Thank you. That's all I have, Mr. President.

And on the motion of Mr. Robinson

Council adjourned.

No. 16

Municipal Record

ONE-HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND COUNCIL

EUGENE P. DePASQUALE President
MICHAEL PERRY City Clerk
LINDA M. JOHNSON ... Asst. City Clerk

Pittsburgh, PA
Monday, April 18, 1983

PRESENT:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

Michelle Madoff:

I wonder if I can have Anne Pride of the Pittsburgh Action Against Rape and Carolyn Frank, Victims of Violent Crime, please come forward.

Michelle Madoff presents

Bill No. 2895 WHEREAS, violent crime has been rising nationally at a rate of five percent each year; and

WHEREAS, one out of every three families in the United States is affected because there is a violent crime committed every 24 seconds; and

WHEREAS, losses from crime costs this country over $75 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, the innocent victims of crime are often ignored, and witnesses are often treated like evidence rather than people; and

WHEREAS, the injuries - financial, physical and psychological - leave many victims of crime devastated; and

WHEREAS, American traditions of compassion, dignity and justice mandate that all citizens of the United States, victims and accused alike, be treated with justice and respect; and

WHEREAS, heretofore such treatment has not been afforded to victims, witnesses and their loved ones or survivors;

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Members of Council of the City of Pittsburgh do hereby proclaim the week of April 17-23, 1983 as:

"VICTIMS RIGHTS WEEK" and urge all citizens and institutions, public and private, to support the establishment and enforcement of victim rights in Pittsburgh through participation in local and state activities commemorating those rights.

Michelle Madoff moved to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff:

I gives me great pride and honor to work together with two very activist women, and I wonder if you'd like to make a comment.

Anne Pride:

I'm Anne Pride from Pittsburgh Action Against Rape, and on behalf of Pittsburgh Action Against Rape, our staff, our Board of Directors, our volunteers, and the nearly 1,500 of our neighbors that we saw as victims who became our clients during last year, I want to thank you very much.

Carolyn Frank:

I'm Carolyn Frank from the Center for Victims of Violent Crime, and I too would like to express my thanks to the members of City Council for their interest in all of the victims of crime that we see at our agency, too, and for taking the time to recognize this week as "National Victims Week." Thank you.

No. 2885 Communication from Raymond E. Johnson, Jr., Deputy City Controller, requesting permission for himself to attend the 1983 Annual Conference of the Municipal Finance Officers Association in Toronto, Ontario from June 11-15, 1983. Cost not to exceed $1,300.00, including a registration fee, chargeable to and payable from Code Account 1048, Misc. Services.

Also,

No. 2886 Communication from Ronald C. Schmeiser, Director, Department of Finance, requesting interim approval for the purchase of additional City and School District of Pittsburgh Individual Earned Income Tax Return Forms and Instruction Booklet for year 1982, at a cost not to exceed $6,220.48, payable from Code Account No. 1064, Supplies and Materials, Dept. of Finance.

Also,

No. 2887 Communication from Ronald C. Schmeiser, Director, Department of Finance, submitting a report of deposits and market value of collateral security pledged by the City Depositories to secure same as of March 31, 1983.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Woods presented

No. 2888 Communication from George Jacoby, Director, Department of Supplies, submitting the Annual Report of Municipal Authorities and report on Examination of Financial Statements for the Equipment Leasing Authority for 1981.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Supplies.

Mr. DePasquale presented

No. 2889 Petition from the residents of Pittsburgh, requesting a public hearing to explore and explain the reason for Council's delay in dealing with the request for a rate increase by Warner

Cable Corporation, also requesting that this be addressed before the May 17, 1983 election.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

The Chair:

If the Chair may, there is no official request from Warner's for a rate increase, so I don't understand people saying they want a hearing on something we haven't even discussed, so, obviously, Mr. Chairman, I think that's completely out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, as you recall and it is a matter of record in the transcripts that I attended --

The Chair:

We're not going to discuss a Warner increase.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm talking about the Warner rate hearing.

The Chair:

No, we're not going to discuss it, because it's not on the agenda. Warner has not asked for an increase.

Michelle Madoff:

Why can't we ask to have it on the agenda?

The Chair:

Warner has not asked for an increase. Do you want to take it up on the post agenda? Not here.

Michelle Madoff:

Why can't we have it on the agenda?

The Chair:

Because Warner's hasn't asked for an increase. If you want to request Warner --

Michelle Madoff:

I think that is not correct. May we get a clarification on that from Brother Richard? I believe they have asked for it, have they not?

The Chair:

Has Warner's officially asked Council to increase the rates?

Brother Emenecker:

On January 4, 1983, Warner sent a letter to the Director of Public Works, whereby they have requested consideration for a new rate structure, but it has to be approved by City Council, and according to the City's ordinance, the Superintendent has 90 days from the date of the request to submit a report to Council. About two weeks ago, I asked for a 30-day extension of that 90 days, because we had not received all the information from Warner. My report will be submitted to Council on May 2. At that time, someone still has to put it on the agenda. I'm simply following the ordinance whereby my report goes to Council now on May 2.

The Chair:

Then there's no fault with that, sir. I'm just saying we haven't been asked to increase the rates.

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, we have been.

The Chair:

We have not been asked. The man just told you the Superintendent has it in his hands, and it's up to him to bring it up to Council. He said they're going to take action, possibly on May 2.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I respectfully repeat what Brother Richard has said that yes, indeed, they've been asked for a rate, he could have been here before, but he needed more information from Warner. He has now stated that he will have after a 30-day extension this information by May 2. May 2 is before the election of May 17. There is a petition before us to have a hearing before the election. May I remind this Council that I asked for the same thing and was voted down.

The Chair:

Can you have a hearing on something that hasn't even been asked for?

Michelle Madoff:

We have had it asked for.

The Chair:

Through who?

Michelle Madoff:

Brother Richard just read the request.

The Chair:

Didn't you just hear the man explain? It's in Public Works, the Department right now. It hasn't been brought to Council. There's a possibility they may not ask for the increase.

Michelle Madoff:

I would be happy to ask this Council --

The Chair:

You can't schedule a hearing on something that hasn't been asked for, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, that's a way of avoiding the issue.

The Chair:

Well, I'm avoiding the issue, then.

Michelle Madoff:

I think you are avoiding the issue. I think people are very upset about it.

Mr. Givens:

I didn't realize Brother Richard was back there, and his letter so explained to Council what was happening. Until we receive that letter on the second of May, as the President of Council so indicated, this Council, in fact, cannot act upon anything until we are officially notified. To have a hearing before all the information is in is to put the cart before the horse.

Mrs. Masloff:

Also, the Advisory Committee won't have their report ready until May 10.

Michelle Madoff:

It could have come in August of last year.

Mr. O'Malley:

Brother Richard, that report you're getting ready for City Council, is that going to be whether you accept or reject Warner Cable's request?

Brother Emenecker:

No. The ordinance states that the Superintendent shall make his recommendations, if any, to City Council and the Mayor within 90 days.

Mr. O'Malley:

Recommendations on what?

Brother Emenecker:

Recommendations on any request for a rate increase.

Mr. O'Malley:

Okay, now, you're going to make your recommendations as to whether we should accept or reject Warner's request, is that right?

Brother Emenecker:

I can't say how the recommendations will --

Mr. O'Malley:

Could you come up here, Brother Richard, please? I'd like to clarify this in my own mind. Warner Cable sent a request for a rate increase to City Council and to yourself?

Brother Emenecker:

That's correct.

Mr. O'Malley:

Okay, now you have 90 days under the contract to review the request and to send it on to City Council?

Brother Emenecker:

That's correct.

Mr. O'Malley:

With an affirmative or negative recommendation?

Brother Emenecker:

No, it doesn't say that. The ordinance says that the Superintendent shall make his recommendations, if any, to the Mayor and Council within 90 days, and I asked for a 30-day extension, because the amount and quality of the information that we received from Warner was not sufficient for me to finalize a report, to even consider making recommendations.

Mr. O'Malley:

Are you getting any additional material you need from Warner?

Brother Emenecker:

Yes.

Mr. O'Malley:

Will you be able to make, in your opinion, a valid judgment on whether they deserve consideration for a rate increase? Are you going to accept or reject the proposal? If you reject their proposal, does it still come before Council?

The Chair:

Excuse me, Mr. O'Malley. I think Brother Richard made it clear on May 2 he's going to give a recommendation. You're asking him to give it now, and he's not prepared to give it now.

Mr. O'Malley:

No, I'm asking him if he --

The Chair:

You asked him what he's going to recommend. He said he's not going to recommend until May 2.

Mr. O'Malley:

Okay. You won't recommend either an increase or that they hold the line or no recommendation?

Brother Emenecker:

At this point in time, I would not like to be put into the constraints of it being a simple yes or no answer, simply because I'm still in the middle of analyzing all the information submitted, so I'd like to stay within the framework of the ordinance, which says that I'll make recommendations, if any, within the 90 days, which is now extended, so I would not like to be tied to it either has to be simply a yes or a no, they deserve it or it should be rejected.

Mrs. Masloff:

The Committee meeting is on the tenth.

Brother Emenecker:

Right, there is another aspect to this. The ordinance also requires the Cable Advisory Committee, which was established by Council, to make a written report to Council concerning a rate increase request. They've already started to review the information. They'll receive my report shortly after you receive it. They're holding their next meeting on May 10, at which time they're going to review my report and the additional Warner information, and then when it's on Council's agenda, they will submit their written report to Council; so you have to by ordinance, you have required recommendations, if any, from me, and you have required a written report from your Committee. I would suggest that you at least get those two documents before you hold public hearings.

Mr. O'Malley:

Okay. Thank you.

The Chair:

I think Brother Emenecker has made that rather clear, but we'll entertain one more question, and that's it.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd like to ask Brother Richard whether or not he will be utilizing staff other than that in his own department.

Brother Emenecker:

We'll be utilizing the staff in the Law Department.

Mr. Robinson:

Do you feel that your staff and the Law Department have all the necessary expertise to evaluate the material that's being submitted?

Brother Emenecker:

At this point in time, yes.

Mr. Robinson:

Are there any provisions in your budget to hire outside consultants to help you in this regard?

Brother Emenecker:

Yes. There are funds that are available if we needed to do that or if Council wishes to that. The bottom line ultimate decision is Council's. The ordinance says they cannot raise the rates without written approval of Council.

The Chair:

Thank you, Brother Richard.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Givens presented

Bill No. 2890

Report of the Committee on Public Works for April 13, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Which was read.

Also,

Bill No. 2800

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the filing of an application by the City of Pittsburgh with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development for a grant in connection with the Lawrence Paint Building Urban Development Action Grant Project; providing for the execution of a Grant Contract and for the filing of requisitions and other data; approving the Lawrence Paint Building Urban Development Action Grant Project; providing for required assurances; providing for execution of payment vouchers on Letter of Credit and for certification of authorized signatures; creating a Special Trust Fund in connection with the Project; and providing for deposit of the funds in a bank account."

Which was read.

Mr. Givens:

On Wednesday I had some discussion, I didn't have liberty to speak, and that was primarily on Bill No. 2800, which was the Lawrence Paint Building, and I was detained with some people that wanted to talk to me at that particular time; and I voted no on that bill because of my not having the opportunity to talk to the group, because the Chair had ruled me out of order, but knowing the Lawrence Paint Building, knowing the Developer, Christopher and what he's trying to do to that.

Reading the article in the Pittsburgh Press on Sunday, it alluded to the UDAG Grant, and that was my main point of interest, that when we give Urban Development Action Grants, then we should be sure that the City of Pittsburgh receives a majority of the people who are going to work in there, and Christopher couldn't come out and say exactly where these people are going to come from. It was assured that it's going to be a local entity, and most of the hires will come locally. This is not the case. When we appropriated some almost $3.4 million for Giant Eagle, they in turn hired many people from Ohio, Teamster drivers. After much pressure has been put on that particular firm, they are now hiring people from our Local 249, and I'm very pleased to hear about that, but I think this Council has to be extremely aware of the fact that when we give Urban Development Action Grants, which is our federal dollars being returned to our communities, from people from our community who paid money in their federal taxes, and I think the people then should share in that.

So I just wanted to make that comment, and also, on Wendy's, that was Bill 2798, the green alignment between the Wendy's parking lot and a very historical church and park right next to it. I talked to the architect on that, and was assured what he is doing in there is, in fact, going to enhance the beauty of that particular area, but I wanted those two comments to be made, Mr. President. Thank you.

Mr. Robinson:

On Bill 2800, I think that Council should be aware that Mr. Givens' concern is a valid one relative to this issue of the employment of local people, particularly in reference to the UDAG program. All the UDAG programs that have been approved by this Council have been supported by documentation that jobs would be developed in substantial numbers. No supporting documentation has ever been given to us that a substantial portion of those jobs will be held by residents of the City of Pittsburgh. In fact, on several occasions we were advised by our own staff that it would be inappropriate for us to address legislatively that concern.

I have been one member of this Council who has always believed that when we're creating job opportunities in the City of Pittsburgh, the people who live in this City certainly should have the first opportunity at those jobs, and that we should do everything within the confines of the law to see to it that that happens.

Without this Council making some amendment to Council Bill 2800, there will be no guarantee that people who live in the City of Pittsburgh will have an opportunity to participate in this particular UDAG. In fact, I think it is kind of ludicrous for us to assume that the developer will take more of an interest in the people who live in the City than we will take. If we do not send a clear signal to the developer and a clear signal to the Urban Redevelopment Authority on this matter of hiring City residents on these projects and making provisions for City residents, it just will not happen. I think that the Urban Redevelopment Authority was well aware when they proposed Council Bill 2800 what the concern of this Council has been relative to making sure that our people, the people who live in this City, have the first opportunity to benefit from these construction projects. Urban did not see fit to send any supporting documentation which would indicate that our people in the City of Pittsburgh are going to have an opportunity to participate in this program. I think it's about time that this Council make up its mind as to who we represent. Either we represent the developers, or we represent the people. If we want to represent both, then let us use the same kind of enthusiasm on behalf of the people in this City who are unemployed that we use on behalf of developers. I don't think there is anyone who can question that our Urban Redevelopment Authority, the Mayor, and this Council have bent over backwards to do everything we can to accommodate developers and to work with them to improve our City.

We have not bent over backwards for people who are unemployed. We have not bent over backwards to make sure that our people benefit from these UDAG projects. I would dare say if you went through the records of the previous UDAG, you would find a substantial portion of those jobs, a substantial portion of the business opportunities have gone to people outside the City of Pittsburgh. I have nothing against people outside the City of Pittsburgh. It's just that I represent people in the City of Pittsburgh and that we need to make a commitment to our people, and we need to begin to start with these Urban Development Action Grant Programs. The primary emphasis of the program is to stimulate the general economy, and I would think that implies stimulating it with local people. Why can't we have local businesses and local workers participate substantially in these UDAG projects? This Lawrence Paint Building Urban Development Action Grant Project to a large extent is a slap in the face to people in this City who have attempted to become a part of its rebirth and its growth, and we have always said when these Urban Development Action Programs have been suggested that they're going to improve the economy, they're going to improve the City. Well, how do you improve the economy and improve the City when you don't take care of the people who need work, people who legitimately are asking us to be a part of this project?

I have some serious reservations about us approving this. I have some serious reservations about the kind of signals that we're sending forward to the citizens of this City by entertaining this proposal, entertaining this bill without seriously addressing the issue of employment for our people.

Mr. Given:

Bill, if I might just respond, just two quick remarks. One, when you get these Urban Development Action Grants, they are HUD grants, and as a result, the federal government doesn't look at the City of Pittsburgh as being a little area. They look at really what we call the greater metropolitan area, which includes all the way into Cleveland. That's why many of these jobs come out of Cleveland, but I think we are incumbent upon ourselves, so that would have to be changed at the federal level if the UDAG grant would go out or be pertinent to only that community at 50 percent or whatever we want to put in. I don't think they'll ever do that, but attempts could be made, but when the company does use this particular money, and we have to look at the reputation of that particular company. Giant Eagle did reverse its trend. I think we all know Christopher up there, what he's been doing up in Mt. Washington, developing Mt. Washington, and I think we have to know that he has been very loyal to the City of Pittsburgh and the great development that he is going to make up there, the community relations and the spirit of the Mt. Washington people with that particular developer; and if you can think that for at least 15 years this particular Lawrence Paint Building has sat down there, an eyesore to the community. We're trying to interconnect Station Square with that whole parcel of land that is completely lying there, undeveloped, at the confluence of the Three Rivers. It's a beautiful area, and I think when we see when it's completed, you'll see what Christopher is trying to do and other people, the Historical Landmark people, and others to develop that land that's been used over there as a scrap yard.

The Chair:

As a member of the URA Board under, the terms of UDAG grants, I believe we can't limit them just to jobs for Pittsburghers. In other words, they wouldn't give us the grant if we did that, correct?

Mr. Given:

Right. They go out some 100 miles. They think regional, like SouthWest Regional as a regional type of

The Chair:

It could work the other way around, say if you give in the County, say if Pittsburghers are allowed to go for jobs there instead of excluding them.

Mr. Flaherty:

I agree wholeheartedly with the results of Councilman Robinson, and I would care to add that the Department of City Planning has great impact and great influence and actually selects the projects that will receive a possible UDAG grant. I think it's imperative to keep in mind that there has been very strong criticism just in the past couple of weeks from the P.N.A., the Pittsburgh Neighborhood Alliance, which has taken City Hall to task as far as where this City is utilizing their UDAG grants; and unfortunately, I think it is becoming too one-sided in that our UDAG's are being used for developments which are of a metropolitan concern instead of trying to utilize the funds for developments in our inner neighborhoods, instead of in the downtown area, or in the periphery of the downtown area.

Approximately a half a year ago, I requested of Gloria Fitzgibbons at the URA a very simple statistic in my mind, just a breakdown of how many City jobs were created in regard to UDAG grants that were granted in the past three years in this City, specifically a ratio of City jobs to non-City jobs. I requested that information again approximately three months ago. I have yet to receive anything. I find it appalling that they don't have this information right at the tip of the desk. I don't believe they have compiled this information. I don't believe that they have been filing it, and that is indicative to me that talk about providing jobs for City residents is just a lot of political hogwash at this Council table when they want to put a grant through that oftentimes is very partial to powerful developers in this City and in this County. I think it's important to keep in mind we have not heard one iota from the County Commissioners or anyone in the County about supporting this City as far as its Commuter Tax or accruing any outside revenues for this City, so I don't think this Council should always be bending over backwards to worry about the metropolitan area.

I, myself, in closing, regretfully have to support what Councilman

Robinson has said, and I imagine that he also has some regrets, because I believe our language does smack of protectionism, but I think in this City we are on our last legs, and this is the only alternative we have, simply because we have not had any cooperation, not just from the County, but also not from our own URA, and I am adamantly opposing any UDAG grants until we receive that primary, essential cooperation.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, it seems to me that a member of this Council, and I would wonder if someone would identify themselves. I don't remember who introduced a bill not too long ago asking that we emulate, I believe it's Boston that has now --

Mr. Flaherty:

I had introduced that, yes.

Michelle Madoff:

What ever happened to that bill, and the Boston bill, as you recall, Mr. President, has passed Boston where they are permitted to hire at 50 percent at least of City people to work in the project, and it is law. Now, why can't we do the same thing?

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, we're going to have a public hearing. I believe that is set for May 26.

Michelle Madoff:

I think that that is where we're probably going to be, it is already law in Boston, and there's precedent set.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, the Supreme Court upheld a challenge also to the Boston ordinance.

Michelle Madoff:

I appreciate that information, and I think that's where the issue is going to lie. I really believe that Mr. Robinson and Councilman Flaherty are absolutely right, we have not dealt with the issue of jobs, but I would hate to put the whole monkey on the back of Chris Passodelis, because I was at the opening, as perhaps others were, of the ground-breaking ceremony, and never in the history of this City have I seen a community so behind a developer with not one objection. He worked with the community. He didn't take anything. He didn't sneak around and get the property. He was open about everything, and I think we have to deal with the issue of the jobs.

Mr. Flaherty:

This is the Lawrence Paint Building.

Michelle Madoff:

I know that's Chris Passodelis's building. That's the Lawrence Paint Building --

Mr. Flaherty:

It's not in Mt. Washington. It's not the same development.

Michelle Madoff:

What I'm saying is that I want to see that not only there but in his own project that we have a law in this City that says 50 percent of the people hired will be City residents, and I think that's the direction we should go in, and at this point, I'm not prepared to single out one developer that really cares about our community and is hurting a lot of others.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to make a quick statement that I think some of my colleagues are mixing apples and oranges. On this Lawrence Paint Building, what we have is an application from a developer for UDAG grants to take a blighted, run-down building that's been sitting over by Station Square for the past ten years and to upgrade that piece of property. It's in a very key point, sitting right off the Three Rivers. I personally talked to the developer myself, and he said he would do everything that he can to hire at least 50 percent City workers, but it's very difficult to require people who lease space off of him to hire all City employees. When you have a UDAG grant, you cannot mandate that people hire City employees. The federal government does not permit it, and all this application is for money which will generate $170,000 a year in additional taxes for the City of Pittsburgh. All this application is is a request to upgrade a very vital piece of property in the City of Pittsburgh, and I would urge my colleagues to vote for it; and the deal with the hiring of City employees, Mr. Flaherty says on May 20 —

Mr. Flaherty:

Twenty Sixth.

Mr. O'Malley:

Twenty-sixth, that this Council puts in the same legislation that Boston put in requiring all the developers to hire 50 percent residents of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, maybe some of what I was about to say has already been said, but relative to this particular project, it's my understanding that what Mr. O'Malley has indicated, this developer has indicated that he will do all within his power to see that City residents are hired.

Relative to the credibility of this particular developer, if all of those of you who are on Council just think back for a moment, there was never one project passed on Mt. Washington because of strong local opposition to it.

Mr. Passodelis did everything out front, was very believable to everybody in that community, tied it all together, was able to amass this whole group of property necessary that I don't think anyone else could have done. He still maintains that credibility with the people there, but in addition to that, and I think the key is that this particular piece of property on which there's a request for a UDAG is the linchpin tying in Station Square, tying in the Paint Building, and possibly the opportunity to tie into the Hill.

It is essential, this is one of the most dynamic things that's been coming around at this particular point. As far as employment, there is no question that that Station Square project, the project he has on the Hill, and the tie-in to this is a major development and providing of jobs in this particular community. It would be so wrong and contrary to everything that everybody wants not to approve this thing at this particular time.

Mr. Givens:

I just have this illegal rate. When I dug into this as a member of the URA

Board, and I went to one of the companies that had a UDAG grant, it's privileged information who works for any particular company and government, and no one else can go in and ask that employer or whoever it might be for the names of their people and where they live and etc. and etc., so I kind of ran into a box wall, but the spirit of the law was met in that particular case, and again I think the spirit of the law will be met in future UDAG's, but it's one that we must ask ourselves to question each time they come up, and if we think of the 50 percent of people working in the City of Pittsburgh, we have to figure where our tradespeople live. I don't know if they all live in the City, I doubt it, and if Boston is a metropolitan area, Pittsburgh is not, it's only 55 square miles. We're one part of 3 million metropolitan area population, where Boston, they cover probably about 90 percent of all the people who live there.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to respond to what Councilman Givens has said, because what he has said is not accurate at all. This City in population is comparable to Boston. That City is not a City of one and a half or two million people. It's in the same bracket as our City, and if the URA is impeded in presenting information to this Council as far as how many City jobs are generated through firms that received UDAG's, then I would appreciate it if they would say that out front instead of always coming in front of this Council and using the argument that this is going to create employment in the City.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am opposed to 2800 because of the 16 percent unemployment we have in the City and because we are receiving absolutely no outside aid. We even have a County Commissioner, William Hunt, who is actually coming out saying he wishes the City would disappear, and here we are worrying about the County and a developer who does have a good reputation, but I think our primary concern should be creating employment for our own and not being concerned with the millions that a developer will be making on down the road.

The Chair:

With all due respect to Mr. Flaherty, let's vote without explanations. That's the second time you gave us that explanation. I appreciate that you can go on and on and on.

Mr. Givens:

I vote aye on all bills. On Bill 2801, one comment if I might, Mr. President, and that is, I wish Mr. Flaherty would have gone over and looked at the stadium on opening day, and he voted no on that one, too.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, I saw all the billboards.

Michelle Madoff:

I vote aye on all bills, and I believe that there's a lot of virtue on both sides of the issue, but I think the broader issue has to be addressed, and it will be, thanks to Councilman Flaherty. I believe it's May 24, Mr. President, and then we'll deal with the —

The Chair:

The twenty-sixth.

Michelle Madoff:

Twenty-sixth, and then we'll deal with the precedents set by Boston at being able to hire 50 percent of Pittsburgh residents, and it has already been held, as he said.

The Chair:

Boston's going to hire 50 percent of Pittsburgh residents?

Michelle Madoff:

Yes, that is the law now. As Mr. Flaherty informed us, it's been upheld in the courts.

The Chair:

You repeat that Boston's going to hire 50 percent Pittsburgh residents?

Michelle Madoff:

That's the law. That is the law.

The Chair:

Boston's going to hire 50 percent Pittsburgh residents?

Michelle Madoff:

Of Boston residents.

The Chair:

That's the third time I asked you, the third time you said yes, Michelle. See, you're not listening.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm not listening because you keep interrupting.

The Chair:

I asked you is Boston going to hire 50 percent Pittsburghers.

Michelle Madoff:

I thought you said local residents. I'm sorry. I assumed you meant local.

The Chair:

Okay, I —

Michelle Madoff:

Boston will hire Boston people. They set a precedent, and hopefully Pittsburgh people will be voting to hire 50 percent local City of Pittsburgh people, not where the zip code says Pittsburgh and they live in Mt. Lebanon or in some other area. I think you know what I meant. I am not any more perfect than you are, Mr. DePasquale.

Mrs. Masloff:

Aye on all bills.

Mr. O'Malley:

Aye on all bills.

Mr. Robinson:

Aye on all bills except 2800. I'd just like to add another comment. I don't think anyone should be led to believe that the issue here is the developer. The issue is not the developer, and I think any comments relative to him or her or them are irrelevant. The issue here as I perceive it is whether or not we are going to have a full commitment helping our own, to assisting them where we can and having an evenhanded development policy. The 16 percent unemployment in our City is obvious to all of us, but in some communities like the minority community it's 35 percent and even higher. I have a great deal of anguish over trying to balance this project against the obvious need for development in our neighborhood, the obvious need for employment, and it's with some reluctance that I cannot support 2800, not because of the project itself, but because of what appears to be a lack of perhaps diligence on the part of the Urban Redevelopment Authority and some City officials to address the present concerns of this City and not just the future concerns. I vote no on 2800.

Mr. Stone:

I vote aye on all bills. Relative to 2800 as well, aye, and I'd just like to mention that I'm voting for that bill because I think it's in the best interests of the City of Pittsburgh. I think it helps the business vitality. I think it provides jobs. It's not the matter of words than providing actual jobs. I think this is a major step in revitalizing that portion of the City of Pittsburgh, and if we're concerned about Dr. Hunt, it will improve the City so well that maybe he'll disappear.

Mr. Woods:

Aye.

The Chair:

Aye on all bills.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I bring before Council today a very, very, very serious problem to which I think I may have a solution.

Mount Washington, as we all know, is a community which is virtually cut off because of the closing of roads and bridges.

The liability to the City if we do not provide a major access to Mount Washington at the earliest possible moment is far greater than the money needed to expedite completion of the McArdle Roadway.

Page CV-12 of the Capital Budget indicates that a total of $7 million is needed to finish the bridge. The figure I got from our own Capital Budget Office today is that it's only four to five. So, we're allowing even a greater number than is anticipated. That's to finish the bridge and that's to finish McArdle Roadway. If the City committed only $2 million now, — does everybody understand that? I notice that Mr.

Woods and our Finance Chairman have left because when I realize that when I speak it's not important. -- If the City committed only $2 million now, the two lanes could be safely open by the end of 1983.

The additional $5 million of the $7 million needed, and now it would appear it would only be another $3 million, for McArdle Roadway is to be used for the replacement of curbs, sewers, decorative lighting, walls and fences. These items can be done any time with a minimum of inconvenience and no closing of the Roadway. They are not life threatening finishing touches.

After speaking to PennDOT, two shifts would assure completion by the end of 1983. We can't go to a third shift; it is not prudent because of the dangers of working at night.

The dollars to finish McArdle Roadway have been tied up because of the Emission Control Legislation. We cannot wait for release of matching funds. We must proceed now in order to expedite progress so that the contract can be let. The final construction drawings are already completed. We can go out on bid right away if we use our own dollars.

Even if the dollars tied up with the Emission Control Legislation are approved shortly, it will still take months to complete the federal red-tape approval of the drawings and plans, the ones that are already available. Roger Carrier of PennDOT has repeatedly stated that even if the Emission Control Legislation were passed today, there is no guarantee that Judge Bechtel would authorize emission dollars for any project until the inspection program has proven to be implemented.

Furthermore, federal dollars authorized for McArdle Roadway can be used for other project. Lord knows we have many of them.

I urge this Council to prevail on the Administration to proceed with advertising for bids immediately.

I know that Mount Washington residents, businesses and developers are presently organizing a monumental hearing. Mr. Woods was aware of it. The hearing was to take place at 2:00 tomorrow afternoon. I told him I knew about it and he informed me that he also knew it was cancelled because they really want to organize thousands of people on the hill. Why should we as Councilmembers who represent the public wait until they have to organize thousands of people? They're concerned with the curtailment of development. They're fearful of what could happen if there were a major fire.

With the closing of McArdle Roadway the two roads which were most frequently used to get to Grandview Avenue were the Ho Chi Minh Trail, that's know as Sycamore Street and you know that's been shut down, and the Goat Trail, which is Greenleaf which is still open. Roay McHugh's column really tells it like it is. And now to add insult to injury, Sycamore Street is closed and there has been a rockslide on the West End Highway.

We cannot turn our backs on Mount Washington. If Council agrees, I will introduce a resolution on Monday, waive Rule 8, and we can have a final vote two weeks from today. That's means that we go to $2 million of our own dollars. That's all we need, $2 million. We are isolating thousands and thousands and thousands of people who could be burned alive in a fire. We have to move and I urge Council to move right now to support the motion. If you support it as a floor motion, someone seconds it, and I will prepare a resolution for Monday.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Givens:

Discussion. Our Legislators are very close. I've been in touch with all of our Legislators. Along with the Mayor and everyone else we've pleaded and done everything. I feel very shortly, and I'm talking about a week or two or three weeks at the most, that it appears that our Legislative Body will come. I think there's been certain amendments attached to this particular bill only that's holding it up right now from going through and it gets back down to the money basis.

To go as Michelle would so indicate, the people of the City of Pittsburgh would pay $2 million and that $2 million would not be reimbursed back to us. Otherwise, if we wait for this week or two for the Commonwealth to do their thing, it means then that we have $2 million extra to do things for people up on top of Mount Washington, things that they have asked us to do up there that we haven't been able to do.

It's not only McArdle Roadway. We have many millions of dollars, I think to the tune of $6 million that are being held back right now on present constructions in many of our neighborhoods. I plead, however, with the people of Mount Washington that their problems have been something that has been erroneous. There will be no more road closings. They do have some minor entrances and exits off of that particular roadway. There is inconvenience, but when one has the beauty to overlook the City of Pittsburgh as they do, I think this Council has been doing everything they can to assure them that they will have good egress to and from the Mount Washington hilltop.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I do not believe that Councilmembers leave an important issue like this. And obviously Mr. Givens wasn't listening. I must repeat two points. We're only talking about $2 million. That $2 million, while it is not reimbursable, the Federal Highway Emissions money can be used for other projects and Lord knows we need other projects. We take money for other things. I cannot think of isolating one complete community. And this man is up for election and he talks about this being political?

The Chair:

Roll call vote on the resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think we need a roll call vote. We don't have the people here to vote. I withdraw my resolution. I will introduce a resolution on Monday.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Michelle Madoff:

Okay. Call the vote. This is a floor motion. Not a resolution.

Mr. Givens:

Point of parliamentary procedures. Can you discuss a bill before it's introduced? I was denied the opportunity of discussing a bill before it was introduced.

Michelle Madoff:

I haven't introduced the bill yet. I want to introduce that on Monday.

Mr. Givens:

You can't discuss anything, any bill, before it's introduced.

Michelle Madoff:

But I can still introduce it, Mike, on Monday? I'm still privileged to introduce it on Monday?

Mr. Perry:

Yes, ma'am.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you.

Mr. Givens:

If you make a vote then, that's a final vote.

Michelle Madoff:

No, it is not a final vote.

Mr. Givens:

Oh, yes it is.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't want this as a final vote.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Michelle Madoff:

One moment. I want the Parliamentarian to rule on this.

The Chair:

Michelle, you're out of order. We're voting.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not out of order. This is a very serious problem.

The Chair:

What do you want him to rule on?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, if it's a final vote I will withdraw my resolution. I want to know if it's a final vote. All I'm doing is making a floor motion that we discuss --

Mr. Givens:

But she's going to introduce the bill.

Michelle Madoff:

I can talk for myself, Mr. Givens. I am not Charlie McCarthy and you are not Edgar Bergen. Nor are you Mr. Stone and you don't have to telegraph.

The Chair:

First of all, Michelle, you're not voting on legislation. You're voting on a recommendation.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Sir. I am saying this is just a recommendation. May I still introduce a resolution on Monday, Mr. Parliamentarian?

Parliamentarian:

This is a sense of Council resolution.

Michelle Madoff:

I can still introduce a resolution on Monday?

Parliamentarian:

So you'd have to really legislate on Monday.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you. I can still introduce my resolution on Monday? Thank you. I just wanted to be sure that by people leaving here and Mr. Givens voting against Mount Washington that we would not immediately eliminate that problem.

Mr. Givens:

Well, I'm glad to think you though I was voting against Mount Washington but I didn't say anything about voting against Mount Washington.

Michelle Madoff:

You just said so, Sir. I only listen very carefully. I have the wax out of my ears.

The Chair:

Get on with the vote.

Mr. Flaherty:

I whole heartedly support the motion. I believe that it is obvious that Council, for too long, has been asleep at the switch as far as what has happened to Mount Washington and I think this is the least sensitivity that we can show to an area that is historically deprived of representation on City Council and that's probably one of the root reasons why Mount Washington is now in the precarious position it is now in.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I have to disagree. In fact, some of the things that have happened up there have been acts of Mother Nature. Some we had foreseen. The Saw Mill Run was something that was programmed. It was a very serious tragedy. The Sycamore Street is one that I brought to the attention of the Department of Public Works and they were planning to do work on that until they had "a minor rock slide". The whole key is that we don't want to lose anymore lives.

I have to expound upon this Council, those who are left here today, that the fact remains that the building of the Roadway is a federally funded, state maintained road. And as a result, this Council is very frustrated and the people of Mount Washington are very frustrated. However, I'll do anything that this Council wishes to do in order to open it up. However, we will not recover the $2 million that we put back in there, and we're talking, hopefully, about a week or two and before they could even draw up the contracts, hopefully, — We're going to put ourselves to a lot of work is what I'm trying to say. The contracts will all be drawn up and everything else. The state will pass their legislation and we'll be back to peg one.

At this particular time, I will abstain until the bill comes up before the Council and it can be discussed with all the people from the various departments here, including that of PennDOT. Mike, when that does come up, if there's not a public hearing, if it's just a Councilmatic hearing, then I want somebody from PennDOT here.

Michelle Madoff:

I repeat, yes, we will lose the $2 million but that money that comes to us in a fixed sum each year from the Federal Government for highways and bridges being built can be used on other projects.

How can we deny the people of Mount Washington for a mere, and I say mere, $2 million? I think, Mr. Givens, you are going to feel the retribution in this election from Mount Washington.

Mr. Givens:

I'm sorry, Michelle, but you might feel it also because when the taxes are raised $2 million and those same people must pay for those taxes, I think they're going to be a little bit mad at you.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'm somewhat astonished that we're willing to consider $2 million for the McArdle Roadway and the relating problems and yet we have not taken this kind of aggressive action on the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. I'd just like to speak on behalf of the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge.

Michelle Madoff:

You're absolutely right, Mr. Robinson. I support you.

Mr. Robinson:

This project is authorized at $2,379,361 and if we're going to take $2 million for a bridge project, I certainly would have to vote for the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge which I might remind Council had been in the planning stages for ten years. I recognize that there are probably a number --

The Chair:

Mr. Robinson, I appreciate your remarks on the Pennsylvania Avenue

Bridge but we're now voting on the McArdle Roadway. I understand what you said and you're 100% correct but --

Mr. Robinson:

I'm trying to explain why I cannot support this motion to consider taking $2 million for McArdle Roadway. If we're going to consider $2 million, then let's consider $2 million for the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge. I vote no.

The Chair:

If I may, why don't you change your resolution and include the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge?

Michelle Madoff:

May I address my colleague, please? Mr. Robinson, you are absolutely right but I think as a man of good faith and compassion you know that this Council has made a commitment, that the first priority, and even our Fiscal Chairman who doesn't see fit to stay until the end of the meetings, has said that that bridge would be a priority bridge, the Pennsylvania Bridge. Any you have my word and you know I don't go back on my word. And I think you have the word of the rest of Council that that would be a priority.

But we're talking about saving lives. What do we do if we have a fire around Grandview Avenue and you have to come up the Goat Trail with fire trucks? How do you justify going to bed at night and sleeping with those people burning? I don't think it's funny folks. I black out on a name because I'm really upset.

The Chair:

After this meeting, if I lived in Mount Washington I'd move in a hurry.

You'd scare the hell out of me.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I would like to live on Mount Washington. I think it's a great place. It's probably the best place in the City.

The Chair:

I'll vote aye but I want to ask the Parliamentarian a question. There's only five people here. Does the majority vote carry or do we need a majority of Council on a recommendation?

Parliamentarian:

Council accepts five as the majority vote.

The Chair:

Is there any further discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. O'Malley
Michelle Madoff	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

AYES 4 NOES 1

(MR. ROBINSON VOTING NO)

(MR. GIVENS ABSTAINING)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

Our Parliamentary rules that we must have a majority of nine, which is five. We don't have it so the motion fails. But I did vote aye, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Thank you, Mr. President, because I think you care about people.

The Chair:

You can tell those people up in Mount Washington who are hanging from the cliffs that I was for them.

Mr. Givens:

I think in the next week or two we'll have that all taken care of with our Legislative Body and McArdle Roadway will be underway.

Michelle Madoff:

If anybody would like to go up Greenleaf on the Goat Trail with me, I'll show you how serious it is.

Mr. O'Malley move to approve the minutes from Monday, March 14, 1983, Monday, March 21, 1983 and Monday, March 28, 1983.

Mr. Givens seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. O'Malley

Council adjourned.

Mr. O'Malley

Mr. Robinson

Mr. Stone

Mr. Woods

Mr. DePasquale

(Pres't)

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESENTATIONS

The Chair:

Mr. Stone is attending a South Western Pennsylvania Regional Planning Commission meeting, therefore, he is not here today.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council, it is a distinct honor today to offer a resolution in recognition of the 20th anniversary of an organization that has done an outstanding job in this community in terms of educating our young people and that organization is the Negro Education Emergency Drive. I feel particularly and personally honored as one of the early recipients of a NEED scholarship which helped me complete my education at Ohio State University. I'm very pleased today to serve on the NEED board. It's a public pleasure and a personal pleasure to present this resolution today to perhaps one of the most unique educational experiments anywhere in the United States and one that has proven that there is a lot to be gained by tapping the total resources of our Pittsburgh community. I'm very proud of all the young people who have come through the need program, some of whom are still in our community, others who have gone throughout the country to serve and many of whom work in our corporate community.

As I said, it's indeed a pleasure today to ask that my colleagues approve this particular resolution and with your indulgence, I would like to read the resolution.

Mr. Robinson presents

Bill No. 2928 WHEREAS, the Negro Educational Emergency Drive, organized by Mrs. James A. Jordan and the late Mrs. Louis J. Reizenstein in nineteen sixty-three, has provided financial assistance to more than five thousand young people in the Pittsburgh community; and

WHEREAS, this supplemental scholarship program for disadvantaged students has made more than eighteen thousand grants over its twenty year history; and

WHEREAS, NEED will be celebrating its twentieth anniversary on April 27, 1983 and will recognize the outstanding contributions of Pittsburgh's corporate and business community to educate and academically prepare the youth of our city.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of its citizens does honor and recognize the accomplishments of the Negro Educational Emergency Drive on the occasion of its twentieth anniversary and supports their efforts to educate the young people of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Robinson moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Robinson:

I'd just like to close by indicating that the two individuals who I originally identified as the founders of this organization were themselves distinguished Pittsburghers. Mrs. Reizenstein, as you know, passed away in 1969 and was a driving force in establishing our Pittsburgh Human Relations Commission and our State Human Relations Commission. Mrs.

Reizenstein recently had an award named in her honor by the Pittsburgh Human Relations Commission, an award which will be given each year to two outstanding Pittsburghers. Mrs. James A. Jordan, of course, is the wife of a former colleague of ours, Councilman Jordan, who is no longer in the City. These two women made an outstanding sacrifice some time ago and certainly we all should feel honored that our City gave birth to this organization, the likes of which do not exist in any other community. I feel very proud that it started here in the City of Pittsburgh.

I'd just like to take a few minutes to recognize some people who are here and ask them to come forward to accept the gold seal copies of this resolution and to share with you, just for a few minutes, some concerns that they have about the youth of our City. Mr. Paul Cryder, who is the Chairman of the Board of NEED, Dr. Herman Reid, the Executive Director and a gentleman who many of you know for his outstanding educational work in our community, Mr. Arthur Cowles, who is on the Board and an outstanding business person in our community, someone who has been a driving force in this effort and has personally committed himself to see to it that NEED survives, Mr. Alex Powell who is with the Steel Workers, a young man who works quietly behind the scenes and has served long and hard on the NEED Board, and also Mrs. Edith Reid, wife of Dr. Reid, I guess you'd call her the power behind the throne, and his son, Mr. Henry Reid. If they would all come forward to accept these gold seal copies, and I believe Mr. Cryder and Mr. Reid would like to share a few words with Council.

Mr. Cryder:

On behalf of the NEED organization and the five thousand plus NEED awardees, I'd like to accept this resolution and thank Council for its involvement in the on-going efforts of NEED. I might mention that over the twenty years, more than $5 million has been raised from every segment of the Pittsburgh community, large corporations, small corporations, clubs and individuals. Without this help, the NEED program could not have succeeded. Thank you very much.

Mr. Reid:

Council and visitors, on behalf of NEED, I want to express deep appreciation for your recognition of this important work. I would also like to say that, as a result of twenty years of experience, the NEED program now is being developed to be used as a national model in other major cities throughout our nation. I think this is a clear example of the kind of public and private sector initiative that can help various communities help their young people to find their place in society. Again, on behalf of the NEED Board of Trustees, thank you.

The Chair:

Thanks to all of you and congratulations.

Mr. Flaherty presents

Bill No. 2929 WHEREAS, members of City Council served as Board Members of Community Action Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, said members acting as directors on the Board of Community Action Pittsburgh bear a direct responsibility for the CAP Program; and

WHEREAS, CAP'S demise has resulted in the layoffs of many conscientious and dedicated employees who provided services to the poor; and

WHEREAS, the majority of these former CAP employees are minorities and females.

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh support those jobless who have been left without any benefits and proposes the establishment of a job referral and placement service in an endeavor to aid their plight; and

LET IT FURTHER BE RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be directed to Ms. Melanie Smith, Director of Personnel and Civil Service, with the expressed desire that she meet with the designated spokespeople of CAP'S unemployed, Hill House, and Urban Redevelopment Authority and report to Council on the program feasibility and fiscal costs of an outplacement project.

Mr. Flaherty moved to adopt the resolution.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. O'Malley:

I just want to say that I wholeheartedly agree with Councilman Flaherty that there's certainly a need for an outplacement project program, especially for CAPI employees. But I would like to know if it would be possible if Mr. Flaherty would consider this amendment to this making it to expand this outplacement program to include all Pittsburghers, especially steelworkers. I think we should have a permanent program.

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I think that is an admirable amendment and I would certainly support that in the form of a separate resolution but I believe that there are certain aspects of the whole CAP dilemma that need our undivided attention. There are close to approximately 160 unemployed because of CAP's demise and we are aware that negotiations are underway between the State and the Hill House. Hill House is going to assume any of the responsibilities that CAP had in the past. So, I would just want to keep the focus of CAP's problem in perspective and would hope that Council would support that.

In closing, I would just want to say that there was great publicity and fanfare approximately six weeks ago when the City came up with the funding for 170 part-time jobs. I find it somewhat incredulous that there has not been a peak in regard to the problem at CAP where a proportionate number of full-time jobs are going right down the drain. Quite a few of those jobs are jobs that took special skills. So, I would certainly hope that Council would equate the two job opportunities and act in a positive fashion on this resolution and also on the report that we receive from the Director of Personnel.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. O'Malley, obviously Council is on record as being certainly in favor of all unemployed people gaining position somewhere. It's certainly a concern of not only Council but the entire City of Pittsburgh. The resolution is more recent and we do serve on that board and I can see the point of stating CAP and only CAP this time. But as far as unemployment goes, I think it goes without saying that all of Council would like to see everybody in Pittsburgh employed.

Mr. Flaherty:

I would just want to add one other aspect of that. Granted, we all have empathy and concern, for example, for the unemployed steelworkers. But with the employees of CAP there is a direct connection. We had a direct responsibility. We were on that Board for the purpose of providing accountability to CAP. For whatever reasons and I think there is enough blame to go around to groups and individuals other than this Council. But regardless, CAP has ended because of the lack of proper controls and accountability. I think that it is important that this Council try to focus in the belief that we had a commitment to CAP that perhaps we did not carry out in the most scrupulous fashion and now we do have an opportunity and I hope that we would be conscientious in that.

Mr. Givens:

If I might, Mr. President, I think Tom and myself, along with some other Councilpeople, have been very interested in CAP and have attended the majority of their meetings and I think we have sympathy and the actual mandates of Community Action Pittsburgh some $6 million and how this was to affect the poor itself. I think the resolution is one that's necessary. If we look at other things that this Council has done, for example, on the Nabisco situation. What we're going to do on the DER situation. This is one that is directly responsible to this legislative body and that is the City of Pittsburgh and the Mayor and this particular Council. As recently as Friday, I talked to the Assistant Director of the Department of Community Affairs of the State of Pennsylvania who just happened to be here for the ground breaking ceremonies on the south shores as well as the north shores of the City of Pittsburgh and there is a little bit of delaying action between the transferrings of the money from Community Action Pittsburgh over to other action agencies within the City. In the meantime, as Tom has pointed out, we have these people, some 150, that have been caught in the the void. They have lost their jobs. They have been laid off, they haven't been fired, they have been laid off because of lack of funds of money. The money is there so I strongly advocate that we do get our personnel people involved in this and we get some direct communication because, as all of us know, we have much difficulty keeping up with our own jobs and I think that our Personnel Department ought to really get someone special on this to bird dog it to its completion.

Mr. Woods:

If I may, Mr. President, I'd like to address Tom. Tom, I'm for this resolution but do you know if there's any talk with Hill House picking up all or part of these employees?

Mr. Flaherty:

It is my understanding that there is negotiations. As far as what the specifics are, I am not that close to the situation. I see us on Council as the vehicle in that we give the directive to the director of personnel to monitor those negotiations. I don't think any of us on Council really, unfortunately, have the time to enter into direct negotiations. But I think we can oversee our experts, those in Personnel, those who have experience in out-placement programs, that they take this strong desire of Council to the Hill House or to any other agency or any other program that perhaps can absorb CAP's unemployed.

Mr. Woods:

That's what I wanted to add, if you would, that we add in here somewhere that the Hill House would meet with the spokesmen for the unemployed.

Mr. Flaherty:

That's fine if you want to put that in there.

The Chair:

If I may, I believe we have them coming in for a post agenda.

Mr. Woods:

I'm adding to this resolution that the Hill House meet with —

Mr. Givens:

If I could respond, I know what some of the problems are, Ben. It's DCA and DCA has been acting through legal counsel for Community Action Pittsburgh. That happens to be Byrd Brown and Company and I think all of us know where he has been the last couple of weeks.

So, there is compassion on the part of that law firm so there is a little bit of a slow down mechanism there. What we're asking here is for our City Personnel Directors to step in and start this action, even if it takes action from our own Legal Department.

Mr. Flaherty:

I concur wholeheartedly with Councilman Woods' amendment and if it's the sentiment of Council, I think we should also add the URA, too, since the URA assumed responsibility of CAP's Weatherization Program which also resulted in some job losses there. There still seems to be a lot of confusion as to if the URA is going to absorb some of the former CAP employees into the Weatherization Program or not. I would just offer the amendment in the final resolve after CAP's unemployed in the third line. Just add "and representatives of the URA and Hill House".

Mr. Woods seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to make one statement for the record if I might. In regards to the URA, this has been taken up with them, they have the names of those people and they have a complete list of all the people to go to work. The complete Weatherization Program came to a complete standstill because of this. As soon as those monies are released, the URA will be able to go into action with that Weatherization Program and first priority for selection of personnel is the people from CAP.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'm in complete with my colleagues. I certainly think that as a Board Member of CAP that members of this Council should aid the unemployed CAP members all they can. But with the sixteen percent unemployment in the City of Pittsburgh, and if we're going to ask Ms. Melanie Smith to get a report to this Council on the feasibility and the fiscal cost of an out-placement program, I think we should show the same concern for all the unemployed people of the City of Pittsburgh. If Councilman Flaherty would like to keep the two separate, I will propose a resolution next Monday for a total out-placement service program.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, I would prefer to keep it separate.

Michelle Madoff:

I think something has been terribly overlooked here, with all due respect to my colleague, Councilman Flaherty. I supported the second year bill for discussion and I support the concept in it's entirety except there is an issue that is overlooked. As you may recall, last week I was given a resolution by some people asking that we consider asking URA and Hill House and, as a matter of fact, I believe Mr. Stone turned to Melanie Smith and said, "Will you look into it, Melanie?" and the issue was word processing training programs, that part of the CAPI money was already involved in a program. There was no money to continue the program. And I told them later that the mistake was to come to us and say what is CAP going to do as opposed to coming to Council and saying, what will Council do in the middle of word processing training programs where people can go to work, they're being given skills and training where they can get jobs to have their funds shut off that we should be looking into monies in that nature.

So, what I think it really boils down to is that the money has got to be taken over by "a responsible agency". We not going to worry about the blame or placing blame. As you say, there's enough to go around everywhere. I think we have to address, number one, the Administration. The Administration has to say whatever funds were allocated to CAP, that are no longer with CAP. As Ben Hayllar told me three years ago when we had this problem, this is not a new problem with CAP. They go out and they hire new directors. He said, "We're going to take over the program in the City". Well, I don't care whether this Council takes it over or whether the Administration takes it over. But somebody has to take over those dollars which are already allocated to us. And we have to address that money to the programs of the people here today and not have --

The Chair:

Michelle, --

Michelle Madoff:

I am not through, Mr. DePasquale.

The Chair:

What you're saying is in Mr. Flaherty's resolution. You're only expounding it.

Michelle Madoff:

It is not in the resolution. What I'm saying is that what we need is to expedite getting the transfer of the dollars that were assigned to CAP and its administrators to the Administration to start having this program go into effect immediately. I want to know where the money is, what state of transit it is in, and I want an answer from the Mayor and from the Administration, and I want it yesterday. Then we can take all the items that you have, the out-placement project, the people who are in word processing programs, and all the other job training things will be part of that money. So, what I'm asking you, in effect, is to expand it to include an emergency letter going to the Administration including the Administration to see that those monies are transferred whether it is to Hill House or to URA or whomever. We want an answer back within a week as to where the money will be and who will be administering that program.

Mr. Flaherty asked me if I would like to amend the bill. The answer is yes. I would like to amend it.

Mr. Flaherty:

What is your language?

Michelle Madoff:

My language would be to add on a further paragraph. "And to further ask the Administration to respond within a week as to when CAPI monies will be spent to address the programs that were being addressed previously and who will be doing it and what they are doing to expedite taking control of the money and what agency will have that money."

Mr. Flaherty:

Well, I think that would be conclusive in the discussions that the Director of Personnel is going to have with CAP's unemployed and with the representative from the Hill House.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Flaherty, with all due respect, I don't have that much faith in Mr. Stone saying to Melanie Smith, "Get back to me with an answer." How many times have people not gotten back to you with answers? I don't think it's good enough. I think a letter has to go to the Mayor saying, "This is a crisis. You should be taking over the leadership since we can't spend that money, we can only appropriate it, and to do something to expedite this program." Have him order Melanie.

Mr. Flaherty:

Michelle, I'm afraid you're going to water down the punch with the amendment.

The Chair:

If you two are going to have a private conversation — Michelle, do you want to enter an amendment?

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to enter an amendment that says, where you have URA and Melanie Smith, enter the Administration as well.

Mr. Flaherty:

She is the Administration.

Michelle Madoff:

She really isn't. Her's is not to wonder why — She does what the Mayor tells her to do.

The Chair:

Is there a second on the amendment?

With no second, the amendment fails.

Mr. Flaherty:

I think Melanie Smith is the Administration and she isn't going to do anything of great significance that is going to be contrary to the Administration.

The Chair:

You're one hundred percent right, Mr. Flaherty. It will do no good trying to get through to her.

Mr. Robinson and then we're going to vote on the resolution.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, if I might, very quickly on the resolution. I wholeheartedly support the resolution without any changes or additions. I think it's unfortunate that this Council is now attempting to address the many problems of CAP when on at least five occasions I have requested that my colleagues and the Administration sit down with CAPI staff and board to work out some of these very problems that are here today. I don't think we're doing ourselves any good or CAP any good to be eulogizing at CAP's funeral and that's what we're doing. If we were going to help in some of the areas that have been suggested here today that help should have been indicated several months ago. I do think, however, it is relevant for us to seriously look at the designation of the local agency to handle Department of Community Affairs funds for 1984. For all intensive purposes, the City of Pittsburgh is not officially involved anymore in the 1983 program except as members of this Council who serve on the Board are involved in the close-out process of those contracts we had with DCA. So, to a large extent, we're beating a very dead horse and I would hope that we would expend some of our energies toward who will be designated in 1984. The City does have a role in that process.

Also, I think it's rather obvious that the Administration of the City is not interested in officially addressing the problems of Community Action Pittsburgh. I think we ought to say that very soberly and very quietly. The Mayor has indicated he has not been involved. The Mayor has indicated he does not want to be involved. Let us leave him alone in this regard for 1983. Let us not embarrass him anymore or embarrass ourselves anymore or give out false hope to former CAP employees that suddenly we're going to be able to solve their problems. I do think this resolution speaks to a specific problem that we can do something about and if other resolutions are needed, then I think they ought to come up separately so that we don't end up not addressing the problems of the specific people who have come to us. The individuals who want this resolution want a very specific thing which we are capable of doing. It will help them solve their immediate problem.

The Chair:

Motion to adopt the resolution with a second. The resolution is adopted.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Robinson, what happens to the money for 1983?

The Chair:

Michelle, you are out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm always out of order, Mr. DePasquale. When I address the public's business I'm always out of order. I want to know what happens to the money in 1983. Mr. Robinson, could you answer that for the public, please?

The Chair:

Could you see her after the meeting, Mr. Robinson, and tell her?

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me, what happened to the '83 dollars, Mr. Robinson? Do you know?

Mr. Robinson:

The Chair has indicated that he would like --

Michelle Madoff:

The Chair always rules the people's business out of order. Thank God he won't be here.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Mr. Givens:

I think all of us in Council had received a letter from the Mayor dated April 27, 1983 in regards to Council Bill 2643 which is a short-term closing plant closing legislation. The Mayor indicates there were reports and taxes on penalties levied or imposed upon them or upon persons in their employ except as expressly provided by acts of the General Assembly and only the Commonwealth can do something about this.

I'd like to say, Mr. President, this legislation is proposed. I am sure, when you set the public hearing on this, and this bill will come up this Wednesday, and I'll ask that time for the public hearing, that there's going to be many questions asked, both pro and con on this bill. So, what the Mayor is saying is, in fact, might not be the final outcome of the bill and because of his legal opinion which was negative to the plant closing, I would ask, and I frame it in this perspective, Mr. President, that the framers of the Pittsburgh Home Rule Charter clearly meant to empower the City to take all the responsible action to ensure full employment of it's citizen. The Preamble to the Charter states that the purpose of this Charter, that's the Home Rule Charter of the City of Pittsburgh, is to be responsible to it's citizens. A responsible city is one which seeks to ensure that all of its citizens' needs are met and a responsible city is one which expects aggressive action from its officials towards the achievement of useful employment.

Section 101 defining Home Rule power says that the City of Pittsburgh has all Home Rule powers and may perform any function and exercise any power not denied the Constitution. The laws and the powers and the functions are presently available to the City or may in the future become available. The powers of the City shall be construed liberal in favor of the City while the State Home Rule Act says that no Home Rule city may engage in commercial business, there is no prohibition from regulating business where essential public purposes involved present zoning codes regulating a business, the building codes, and many other ordinances this City creates for the protection and welfare of our citizens. Nowhere in the City Charter itself is there any limitations to the plant closing notification ordinance. Such an ordinance that seemed to be reasonable attempt to carry out the charges and to the Preamble of the Home Rule Charter that we're working under.

Again, I might say, Mr. President, that you will be setting that public hearing. There are people that are in this audience that are asking for possibly a night hearing in regards to this because many of our folks that we would like to be here, the people on the labor community, have to work during normal business hours and therefore generally don't have their representatives to send to this Council. That is a request from the labor community as well as others. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Givens and other members of Council. I realize it's a very volatile issue and I permitted you to speak but actually, you were completely out of order because it's going to be presented in Committee on Wednesday and that's when it will be discussed.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, I missed a point and that is that we, this Council, hire legal consultants to give us the authority that we need and the legal knowledge and background to counteract, if we say it, that from our present City Solicitor who had signed a letter and I ask at this time, Mr. President, for that action.

The Chair:

Are you putting that in the form of a motion, Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

I'm putting that in the form of a motion. Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

And I'm seconding it. Let's discuss it.

The letter that the Mayor introduced, this bill is already in the record, I mean, the bill has already been introduced. We are going to have a hearing so it is not out of order. It is business that we've already addressed. Previous business. There is an opinion of the Mayor given by the Law Department. There is a letter that Councilman Givens just read. May I point out that it was written by James B. Cunningham, Executive Director of the Government Study Commission.

Mr. Givens:

I can't deny any point that it wasn't written by Mr. James Cunningham. I have been working diligently with Mr. Cunningham on this.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm discussing the motion.

The Chair:

We're not going to discuss something that's coming into Committee this Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

We're discussing the motion of whether we should have some legal counsel.

The Chair:

You're out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

You are not going to railroad us. And you're not going to stall us and you're not going to run over us.

The Chair:

Clerk, call the roll.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. DePasquale, would you respect point of order?

The Chair:

You're completely out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I am not out of order. We are discussing --

The Chair:

You're not going to discuss anything that's coming into Committee on Wednesday.

Michelle Madoff:

The issue is should we hire counsel for Wednesday. That is the vote before us.

The Chair:

Go on with the vote, Mr. Clerk.

Michelle Madoff:

The vote before us is should we have counsel available to give us another opinion that may coincide with the one the Mayor has given.

The Chair:

Go on with the vote.

Michelle Madoff:

I support Mr. Givens' motion and I would like to make a recommendation that Mr. Hornak and John Stemper who work for the group be the attorneys hired at $50 an hour. They're willing to split that fee.

The Chair:

Are you done?

Michelle Madoff:

No. You're done, Sir.

The Chair:

You're the most ignorant person that ever lived. Do you know that? You were completely out of order. You should have been bodily thrown out of this room.

Michelle Madoff:

It won't be the first time I've been thrown out of places better than this.

The Chair:

Like GASP threw you out too.

Go ahead, Mr. Flaherty.

Mr. Flaherty:

I was glad to see that for the sake of the proprietary reasons that Michelle said that the statement that was presented was by James Cunningham and I just want to add that Jim was the Executive Director of the Home Rule Study Commission.

The Chair:

Ladies and gentlemen, I don't think I have to say this but I think that everybody here knows that everybody in Council is very, very concerned about plant closings and is going to do everything in their power to prevent it in the future by giving a certain period of time or warning. This emotionalism I don't appreciate and it was completely out of line. I don't want you to get the impression that I'm trying to stifle anybody. It's going to be discussed Wednesday; we're going to have a hearing on the matter as everybody knows. To carry on and get emotional about it is wrong and is going to mislead everybody here.

Michelle Madoff:

There's a motion before us to hire legal counsel and it's been seconded. Are we going to vote on it or are we not going to vote on it?

The Chair:

We called for a vote fifteen minutes ago but you wouldn't shut up.

Michelle Madoff:

Don't tell me to shut up. It's the people's business and I have every right to discuss it.

The Chair:

Would you repeat your motion, Mr. Givens?

Mr. Givens:

My motion was that the Council, at this meeting, ask that we hire our own legal counsel to help us on this very serious plant closing legislation.

Michelle Madoff:

And I second it.

Mr. Flaherty:

I have a question in regard to the motion, one very concise question. Who had requested an opinion from the Solicitor?

Mr. Givens:

I did when I introduced the legislation. Upon introducing it, I asked for an opinion from the Legal Department as well as it had to go to the Mayor for his approval and he waited the full thirty days because there's creation of a department of government included within that legislation. So, I had asked for it and the submission of the bill itself.

Michelle Madoff:

Excuse me. The request for the counsel was by the group today.

The Chair:

Roll call vote.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd just like to make one quick comment. I think it's ironic that Councilman Givens is asking for us to hire our own legal solicitor to give an opinion on a piece of legislation that our own Legal Department —

Michelle Madoff:

It's not our Legal Department.

Mr. O'Malley:

Well, the Mayor's because a few months ago this Council asked to put up legislation that we hire our own legal attorneys or our own solicitors because many times the difference of opinions we have with the Administration and at that time, if I'm not mistaken, Councilman Givens voted against it.

Mr. Givens:

I did, Jim, because in the Constitution — We cannot have our own Solicitor.

Mr. O'Malley:

We certainly can have our own Solicitor. But I'm going to support Councilman Givens' effort but I think that that piece of legislation that Council should have their own Solicitor should certainly come up again. I vote aye.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, at the risk of sounding redundant and standing on principles, I'm going to vote no and I'm going to vote no because this Council has on several occasions been presented with the opportunity to seriously, very seriously, consider whether we need additional technical help in drafting legislation and addressing issues. This Council was presented with a bill to hire our own legal counsel. The Home Rule Charter very specifically said we have the right to hire that counsel. Some of the same rationalizations that are being used today to hire legal counsel on this specific bill were used to justify hiring legal counsel for this total counsel. If we simply take it bill by bill and issue by issue and personality by personality, we will not have enough money, I as an individual push this concept, have refused to go out and hire separate legal counsel to address the issue of minority business development in this City, even though this Council has given me authorization, because I felt that perhaps there was another way to address it, to now suggest that we're going to hire legal counsel and to suggest that we hire the legal counsel who helped prepare this legislation, is asking for a confrontation that is not going to do anyone any good. If this Council is for plant closing legislation then let this Council vote for it. If this Council is against it, let this Council vote against it. Let us not hide behind lawyers. Let us not hide behind law books. The bill is in Council. The Mayor has given us his ideas. The Mayor has given us his legal opinion from his Solicitor. Let's fish or cut bait. To delay it any longer is not to help the people who legitimately are concerned about their jobs. If this Council is serious about getting legal help to address the people's business, then let us vote for our own legal counsel who is here twenty-four hours a day. I vote no.

Mr. Woods:

Mr. President, I vote no for many of the same reasons Councilman Robinson stated. I've been consistent and I voted no every time for this and I agree with him. I'm going to vote for this legislation. There's going to be amendments and I want to wait until the public hearing. I'm going to vote for it no matter what the Mayor says or no matter what the City Solicitor says. So, I don't need an attorney to tell me whether I'm right or wrong but I'm voting no for us hiring an attorney for this one bill like I voted no every other time.

The Chair:

I agree with Mr. Robinson and Mr. Woods. We should bite the bullet. It's our decision to make. I vote no.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Michelle Madoff
Mr. Givens	Mr. O'Malley

AYES 4	NOES 4
--------	--------

VOTING NO:

Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Woods
Mr. Robinson	Mr. DePasquale (Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, point of information.

The Chair:

That issue is closed, Michelle.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of information, it's not on the issue.

The Chair:

What's the point of information?

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, doesn't this Council have dollars set aside in its budget for legal counsel that are on a list of $50 an hour? And wasn't it the rule that if any member of Council wanted to hire anybody they could come to you and you could okay it on a per issue basis? Now that bill was changed to five members of this Council and while this Council has not supported what Mr. Robinson is absolutely right in stating that we should have —

Mr. Woods:

Mr. Chairman, point of order, please. We've already discussed the motion. Mrs. Madoff is out of order.

Michelle Madoff:

I'm only trying to get on the record for the public that there is money available on an issue basis to hire counsel if we have five votes of this Council. I think that's important for people to know.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Woods for Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2922

Report of the Committee on Finance for April 20, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2732

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution amending Section 2(a) of Resolution No. 955, approved September 24, 1982, entitled, 'Resolution authorizing the granting to the William Penn Association an option to purchase for six months, upon payment of a non-refundable option fee of $10,000.00, certain property in the 12th Ward, City of Pittsburgh, at or near Delafield Avenue and designated as Parcels numbered 1 and 2, for the sum of $180,000.00 and providing for the conveyance of the same', by increasing the period of option from March 24, 1983 to July 22, 1983 upon payment of the sum of $4,000.00 to the City of Pittsburgh by William Penn Association."

Which was read.

Mr. Flaherty:

Mr. President, in regard to Bill 2807, I move to hold for a week and the reason why I am is that I hope the members of Council will recall that I, along with some other members, have requested of Melanie Smith, Director of Personnel, to provide this Council with some background information on the Private Industry Council, specifically a very elementary request as to who serves on that Council. That was two weeks ago. She said it would be up within an hour or two hours and we still haven't received that information.

Michelle Madoff:

Do you have it, Mr. Perry? When did you receive it?

Mr. Perry:

About a week ago.

Michelle Madoff:

Did you give it to everybody?

Mr. Perry:

Yes, ma'am.

Mr. Flaherty:

I still haven't seen it.

Michelle Madoff:

I didn't see it either.

Michelle Madoff:

I move we hold it for a week. We'd like to review it. We don't see any females on it.

Mr. Flaherty:

There's a couple.

Michelle Madoff:

There are? Out of how many? It's like the BOCA Code Review. Nineteen white males.

The Chair:

Excuse me. First of all, Mr. Flaherty said that he wanted to hold. Do you still want to hold or recommit that?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes. I'd like to recommit the bill for a week.

Michelle Madoff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

Bill No. 2820

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Highway Equipment Company, in the amount of Fourteen Thousand Seven Hundred Sixty Four Dollars and Sixty Cents ($14,764.60) in payment for Emergency Repairs to the G660 Gradall

Which was read.

(BEGINNING MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2822 FROM APRIL 20, 1983)

Mr. Stone:

If the Chair may on this particular bill, we are dealing with the LRT System in the City of Pittsburgh, and serving on Southwest Regional Planning Commission and as well serving on the Transportation Task Force relative to skybus and LRT, I think we need to be reminded that, had we gone skybus, we would have been riding in skybus now for three years, it would have cost us $8 million, and right now we are not yet in the LRT System, which is an abortive skybus system. It is going to cost us already, unless it goes over that and it is likely it will, $500 million, $420 million more than originally estimated; and when I hear Commissioner Hunt, who was one of the biggest opponents to skybus, tell us that we will not contribute $40 to the City of Pittsburgh for what he does or does not do in this City, and if he would like the City of Pittsburgh to disappear, I think all of us in the City of Pittsburgh would have hoped that he would have disappeared during the time of the skybus discussion, and right now we would have $420 million in a project to spend elsewhere.

(END OF MR. STONE'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2822 - APRIL 20, 1983)

Also,

Bill No. 2823

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution further amending Resolution No. 1385, approved December 27, 1982, effective January 1, 1983, as amended by Resolution No. 174, approved March 10, 1983, effective March 24, 1983, entitled, 'Adopting and Approving the 1983 Capital Budget and the 1983 Community

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President, I'd would just like to remind Council of the situation that we're going to have to address soon, and I would like Council to have some input into the process early on. As Council, is aware our Chief Magistrate, Mr. Penkower has been nominated by the Governor to fill the unexpired term of Judge Zappala on Common Pleas Court. Assuming that Mr. Penkower will be leaving in the near future to assume those responsibilities, there will be at least one vacancy on our City Court where there will not be an individual there. It seems to me that we might want to prod the Administration to move kind of quickly to identify some person to replace Mr. Penkower as a magistrate, not as a chief magistrate but as a magistrate, so that we might have a full complement of magistrates.

I think it's also important for us to perhaps to remind the Administration that some of the magistrates who are presently sitting, their terms have expired, and they have not been reappointed or replaced; and I think it would be appropriate for us to ask the Administration to make some decision on those particular individuals.

In regard to this whole issue, I think that it is important that we encourage the Administration to use this opportunity to find a minority female who can serve on our City Court. In the past when this issue has been raised the Administration has already made its decision in terms of appointees. I think now is a very appropriate time to ask the Administration to look among the many talented and skilled minority lawyers in our City and to select one. It's an untapped resource, one that is seldom tapped, and I think there are a number of fine young women in our community, minority women who would be more than happy to serve in government and certainly would be a credit to our minor judiciary.

I also think that we need to ask the Administration to move on these matters as quickly as possible in anticipation that Mr. Penkower will probably be sworn in in the not too distant future, but the primary emphasis I think has to be on finding a minority female that can be presented to this Council as an acceptable candidate to serve in our magistrate court. Thank you.

The Chair:

If I may, Mr. Robinson, I think we're being a little premature or you are in regards to Mr. Penkower. He may not be approved, and therefore, we will not have a vacancy. I would suggest that we wait until the appointment is confirmed until we take that action.

Mrs. Masloff:

Also, Mr. President, I believe that unless Mr. Penkower gets both endorsements, I think it's unlikely that he'll be appointed.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, three short issues that I'd like to bring to Council. You know there's been much conversation about Warner Cable improving, and I wouldn't want anybody to say that anything was going on hanky-panky in my office. My Administrative Assistant and her husband, the Guenthers, Harry and Carmen Guenther, have had Warner Cable for a long time, and the last seven months or so, I believe it's seven months, I'll have to check with her, they have only been billed for one-third of their service. Most of the service has not been billed. They have called them and wish it to be corrected.

Mr. Eddie Steinfeld is familiar to all of us. Someone came to his house to put in cable, and he said, "I never ordered it." They cancelled it and sent him a $10 rebate, money he never gave them, which I'd like to give you, Sophie. Perhaps you could give it back to Warner, and his name isn't Stanfeld, it's Steinfeld.

Mrs. Masloff:

Well, the problem here, I know this problem. Mr. Steinfeld demanded some time ago that before they go through his backyard he wanted paid. They said it was not their policy to pay people for right-of-way. Now, I don't know whether this has anything to do with that or not, but I do remember that this issue came up before with Mr. Steinfeld.

Michelle Madoff:

I don't think he has a right-of-way.

Mrs. Masloff:

Yes, they had to go through his yard.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, I don't know anything about it. All I know is he doesn't want it, and they sent him a $10 check as a rebate on a service he didn't order, and if you'd take care of it, I'd appreciate it.

Second item I'd like share with members of Council, if you'd pass this down, please, something rather interesting, very, very, short paragraph, for the record. There's a magazine called the "American City & County," April, 1983, and there's a very small blurb in that it says, "Buying used saves."

Mr. Woods, I know that my friend is to come and see you. She just hasn't had time, she's with Alice Chalmers, she's on the road, but this is the kind of thing she'll be talking to you about.

"Scottsdale, Arizona is finding that used equipment both cuts costs and improves service. The Scottsdale City Council is considering a bid award of $108,125 for a used front-end loader and a used motor grader. Purchase of the equipment would save the city more than $100,000 over the cost of new equipment.

"In December, 1982, the Council authorized the bid call to take advantage of the current slow equipment market. The City's Field Operations Department formed a committee consisting of heavy-equipment operators and mechanics to inspect, operate and evaluate the best buy based on condition, prior use, maintenance, and price."

I discussed this with Mayor Caliguiri two years ago. He gave me his word he would do it. We now have the Supplies Department saying they will look at used equipment, but this committee that even the Mayor suggested to me, it's his suggestion, has never been put in effect. I wonder if you would look into that, and I will introduce a resolution to that effect. Mr. Perry, would you draft it as a resolution, formal one, please?

My last item of business. Everybody read the Pittsburgh Press yesterday, if we had time. They talk about the rats in the downtown area, and a manager at a City bar - restaurant is quoted as saying "Come to our neighborhood along Wood Street at four to five in the morning, you will see the rats running all over the place."

The Chair:

There's quite a few in the afternoon.

Michelle Madoff:

Well, it depends what building we're talking about, and what kind of rats we're referring to, and I'm talking about the four-legged ones, known as rodents. I think it is imperative that whoever handles that committee, would somebody identify —

The Chair:

You suggest we get up four, five in the morning to watch them run?

Mr. Robinson:

That's Public Works.

Michelle Madoff:

Public Works, that would be Mr. Givens. Since he's not here, can we do something about baiting and controlling the rat population in the downtown area? It can become a very serious health problem.

Mrs. Masloff:

The article says they're doing that.

Michelle Madoff:

No, they say they're starting to improve it and things will get better when they have Renaissance II in place, but I don't think we can wait, because rats multiply like rabbits.

Mr. Woods moved to excuse Mr. Stone for absence from the meeting.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Michelle Madoff moved to approve the minutes of Monday, April 4, 1983.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

And on the motion of Mr. Givens

Council adjourned.

The Meeting was opened by the recitation of the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Mr. Givens:

I'd like to put a motion on the floor that right after we have our Pledge of Allegiance that the Councilpeople and those in the room remain standing and that we have one minute of silent prayer and meditation.

The Chair:

Would you all rise, please, and we'll have a silent moment of prayer and meditation.

I presume most of you are aware that we lost one of our better policemen over the weekend, Jack Walsh, who, I found out yesterday morning when I went over to the Stadium, had passed away in his sleep.

Especially for Jack Walsh. Thank you very much.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. O'Malley:

At this time, I'd like to ask Mr. Frannie Walker, the Veteran of Police Association, Gabe Coheres, and Pat McNamara who is President of the Fraternal Order of Police to come up here for a few minutes.

It's an honor for me to put up a resolution honoring our veteran police officers. I think all the men and women in this room know my father and I'd like to acknowledge him at this time. Dad, will you stand up? Jim O'Malley. He's been an active police officer for the past 37 years and he just retired last August. I think he's enjoying his retirement but I think he misses the job.

Now I'd like to read the resolution.

Mr. O'Malley presents

Bill No. 2966 WHEREAS, from the beginning of our nation, law enforcement officers have played vital roles in safeguarding the rights and freedoms of our citizenry; and

WHEREAS, the Veteran Police Association, incorporated into existence since April 10, 1927, is a group of dedicated police officers striving to better conditions for the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh; and

WHEREAS, with the economy pinch so prevalent, these same men carry on with the same dedication, that the City can be proud of these officers who today hold their heads high in the belief that they performed a job well done.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh, wishes to commend the Veteran Police Association for their exceptional dedication and past commitment to the protection of the citizens and for recognition of their steadfast contributions to the excellent law enforcement we have received.

Mr. O'Malley moved to adopt the resolution.

Mrs. Masloff seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Walker:

Mr. Chairman and members of City Council, on behalf of the Veteran Police Association, with great pride we honor this. I don't know if you know it or not but this is the first time in the history of the Veteran Police Association has something like this been done. We really appreciate it, believe me, we do. I don't know if any other organization has ever come in here to thank City Council for what they have done because we need a lot of friends and I know we have a lot of friends sitting here today.

Thank you.

Mr. Coheres:

Mr. Chairman and ladies and gentlemen of Council, thank you on behalf of the Veteran Police Association and its members. The consideration and respect shown here today will long be remembered by our membership. Most of these devoted officers only ask to live their remaining years with pride and dignity. Your thoughtfulness today has restored their faith in humanity.

Thank you again and God bless you all.

Mr. McNamara:

I want to thank the members of Council. This is the first time that I can remember we're coming back to you to say thank you for giving us the $25 for our pensioners for 1983. We appreciate it; we know it took a lot of work.

I can say to all of you that I hope you have a very successful campaign in whatever office you're running for in this coming election because we're certainly going to support you. Thank you very much.

The Chair:

Thank you Fran, Gabe and Pat. Congratulations to all the veteran police.

Michelle Madoff:

I would like to say to the veterans that while we supported you on the $25 for your increase in your pensions, if we have another inflation where bread goes to $25 a loaf, it ins't going to be a one-shot deal from where I sit. We're going to fight for you again.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Mr. Flaherty presented

No. 2930 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Stanely Magic Door, Inc. in the amount of $925.00 for service and repairs to the electric doors at the Ross St. entrance of the City-County Building chargeable to and payable from LB 82-08 (4-25-15-0001-82) Renovations of Various Public Buildings, Dept. of Lands and Buildings. Prior approval granted by Council Bill No. 2533, dated March 3, 1983.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Also,

No. 2931 Resolution repealing Item (G) of Res. No. 189, appr. 3/21/80, for the sale of 2 vacant lots on Bernard Street, 32nd Ward, Block and Lot 96-R-98-100, to Rosetta M. Morrissey, for the sum of $750.00. Resolution is to repeal the sale and return the hand money.

Also,

No. 2932 Resolution repealing Resolutions, approved on various dates, for the sale of properties in various wards, in accordance with Act 514, and providing for the forfeiture of hand money.

Also,

No. 2933 Resolution providing for the filing of a petition or petitions for the sale of certain property or properties acquired at tax sale in accordance with Act No. 514 of 1947 as amended.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Lands and Buildings.

Mr. Givens presented

No. 2934 Resolution further amending Res. No. 1385, appr. Dec. 27, 1982, eff. Jan. 1, 1983, as amended, entitled, "Adopting and Approving the 1983 Capital Budget and the 1983 Community Development Block Grant Program; and approving the 1983 through 1988 Capital Improvement Program," by changing a new line item and adjusting the Summary Totals.

Also,

No. 2935 Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts for the E. Sycamore Street Hillside Stabilization, including necessary work on private property and other work incidental thereto, at a cost not to exceed $500,000.00 chargeable to and payable from Code Account PW 83-31, 4-01-01-0147-83, E. Sycamore Street Hillside Stabilization.

Which were read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Givens moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing consideration of the bills only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bills were introduced so they will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Givens:

This if for Sycamore Street so that we can get that opened back up.

Michelle Madoff:

Point of clarification. Mr. Perry, the bill that I introduced was on the McArdle Roadway. This is on Sycamore. They are not the same. Are there two bills on Sycamore or just one on Sycamore?

Mr. Perry:

There's two. One is a line item in the budget and the other one is for a contract.

Michelle Madoff:

And mine was on McArdle Roadway.

Mr. Perry:

Your's was on McArdle Roadway. Right.

Michelle Madoff:

But they're both relating to Mount Washington but they're both not Sycamore. Is that correct?

Mr. Perry:

That's correct.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out, Mr. Chairman, that at the present moment, and I think we need some very quick clarification, they are allowing pedestrians to walk on Sycamore but they're not allowing cars because cars can be crushed by boulders. What would happen to a pedestrian? I think we need a guard up there because I think it's even more dangerous and I think that's something that cannot wait even until Wednesday and I would ask that the President of Council would please speak to whoever the powers that be to make sure that we either have a policeman or have it chained off or roped off or barricaded off so that no one can walk up that area because if you can get killed in a car with a boulder, you certainly can get killed if you're walking there.

The Chair:

Thank you.

Also,

No. 2936 Resolution providing for a Contract or Contracts for the purchase of Street Lighting Equipment for Liberty Avenue from Stanwix Street to Sixth Avenue - Sixth Avenue from Liberty Avenue to Grant Street in conjunction with the LRT System; and providing for the payment of the cost not to exceed $125,000.00. Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Michelle Madoff presented

No. 2939 Resolution authorizing and directing City Council to appropriate two million ($2,000,000.00) dollars from the operating budget surplus or from unencumbered bond dollars for the purpose of expediting the re-opening of McArdle Roadway, in the event that the auto emissions control bill is not passed, which would release federal funds, within 30 days from enactment of this Resolution.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Michelle Madoff moved to suspend Rule 8 by providing consideration of the bill only until or after the 9th calendar day following the meeting in which the bill was introduced so it will be on the agenda this Wednesday.

Mr. Robinson seconded the motion.

Which motion prevailed.

Also,

No. 2940 Resolution authorizing and directing the Mayor to form a committee consisting of heavy equipment operators and mechanics to inspect, operate, and evaluate used equipment for purchase by the City in order to obtain the best buy based on condition, prior use, maintenance, and price.

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Supplies.

Michelle Madoff:

On that bill, the bill was prepared and there should have been an attachment. We're referring to the Scottsdale, Arizona, City Council that is now doing it and saving millions of dollars for their City. I have copies which I'll attach on Wednesday.

Also,

No. 2941 Resolution providing for the issuance of a warrant in favor of Davison Sand & Gravel Co., 3rd Avenue and 4th Street, New Kensington, PA 15068, in the amount of $507.73 chargeable to and payable from Code Account No. 1714, Materials, Department of Water. Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. Perry, are you having an update kept, a running update, of what those costs are running us a year? We used to have it done by Mr. D'Alessandro and it was turned over to the Budget Office.

Mr. Perry:

Yes, the budget staff.

Michelle Madoff:

They are keeping it? When we have that bill on Wednesday, I would like the update of the claims under $750, over $750 and a breakdown of the departments, particularly the Refuse Department because that seems to be where the greatest claims are. And I would like to know also what the claims against the City have been. Well, I guess that's the claims against the City but we'll then decide if it's been numbers or repairs in the City. We also need incidents as well as dollar figures. I think it's designed that way. We designed it that way originally.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Stone presented

Bill No. 2965

Report of the Committee on Finance for April 27, 1983 transmitting sundry resolutions to Council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 2845

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution authorizing and directing the Mayor to issue and the City Controller to countersign a warrant in the amount of $1,490.22 to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania representing initial payment required for unclaimed funds for the year 1975 pursuant to the provisions of the Deposition of Abandoned and Unclaimed Property Act, Act of August 9, 1971, P.L. 74."

Which was read.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty	Mr. Robinson
Mr. Givens	Mr. Stone
Michelle Madoff	Mr. Woods
Mrs. Masloff	Mr. DePasquale
Mr. O'Malley	(Pres't)

AYES 9 NOES none

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2807

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution providing for an Agreement or Agreements with the County of Allegheny and the Private Industry Council for Pittsburgh and Allegheny County to enable Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh to share the joint costs of the establishment and operation of the Private Industry Council for Pittsburgh and Allegheny County and the Private Sector Initiative Program and providing for the payment of the costs thereof."

Which was read.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, on Bill 2807, as you know in the Finance Meeting I don't know how many of us voted against the bill, not because I think the bill is a bad bill, I think it's an excellent bill, but it has been the position of this Council that we would like to have representation of City people. While the corporations being represented are City corporations who are based here nevertheless within those corporations there are City people. Very frequently in talking particularly to media people, I find that if they do not live in the City sometimes they do not feel the cut that we feel on our finger. We need to have representation on that Board. Fifty percent of the people must live in the City. Furthermore, we need a cross section of representation of women and minorities. Mr. Flaherty requested that list and that list has not been forthcoming. Under the basis of that list, I do not want to see a repetition of the BOCA Code Review Committee where I picketed the Mayor because we had nineteen white males. I want to see some handicapped, some females, some minorities, and I want fifty percent to be City residents so they can relate to the serious fiscal problems that we have in our City that relate to providing the jobs for City residents. Thank you.

The Chair:

I don't want to dispute with you but we are only one-third of the County and when you're asking fifty percent I think that's too much.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, I'd settle for one-third. But we can't even get a list. They won't tell us who the people are.

Mr. Flaherty:

I just want to respond to what our President has said. Even though as far as population we are only one-third of the County's population, I wish to point out that it is a joint study and that we are going to share the cost of the study. So, I believe that it is imperative for that reason alone that half of the members on the Committee reside in the City.

As Councilwoman Michelle Madoff has pointed out, I had requested that information at last Wednesday's Committee Meeting. It seems to me to be a very rudimentary request. We are only talking about twenty-four individuals and I can't support 2807 without that information. I think it's extremely important that our Council start to assert itself as being the legislative body and also the spokespeople for our City constituency. We are all aware of how things have gone haywire as far as the Mayor's efforts and our efforts on trying to acquire some equity as far as a commuter tax or some kind of vehicle for generating revenue from the suburbanites who come and utilize the many facilities that fall strictly on the backs of City taxpayers. I think this is certainly a small way but certainly an imperative way that we can start on the road to equity and I in good conscience cannot support this bill knowing that there may be a possibility that the majority of the people on the Committee reside outside the City.

Michelle Madoff:

Mr. President, may I ask you a question? It was not called to my attention until just now. It says, "the County and the City of Pittsburgh to share the joint costs". Is that equally?

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes.

Michelle Madoff:

I had asked for the list and I would like to ask that the bill be held for one week, please.

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, we had requested the information and I was told by the Director of Personnel that we would have it within a few hours. Here it is six days later and we still don't have it.

Michelle Madoff moved to recommit Bill No. 2807.

Mr. Flaherty seconded the motion.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, on that bill. This matter is something that's already in place. It's only a continuation. It only involves $4,000 and we spent more than that playing around with it back and forth. It seems to me we ought to let that Committee complete what their role is. It's only a matter of $4,000. It's already been functioning now. This is the second year of operation. I think we ought to pass it and get it over with.

Mr. O'Malley:

I'd like to make one statement for my colleagues. I just received a list from Mr. Perry of the people that are appointed to that Board. It says on here that there are four female members including two minorities. It seems, Tom, that out of the twenty-four members, twenty of them live in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Flaherty:

I don't know how you can say that because you have the corporate addresses.

Mr. Flaherty:

No, it has Miss Shelia Connolly, South Avenue, Pittsburgh; Mr. George Cox, Cox Die Company, Pittsburgh, PA

Mr. Flaherty:

Yes, companies.

Mr. O'Malley:

Oh, okay. I follow you now.

Michelle Madoff:

Shelia Connolly does live in the City. Excuse me, Shelia Connolly is leaving the country.

The Chair:

Roll call vote to recommit.

Mr. Flaherty:

I am for recommitting and I would just want to add that even though this study is a continuation, I don't think that we should continue to go along if there is an equity as far as the makeup of that study because the results of that study may not reflect in interest, an equitable interest, a fair interest for the City of Pittsburgh. I think it's absurd if we don't have fair representation on that Committee to continue to push it along and then when the results come, then it's too late if those results are not favorable to the dire straits that we now find ourselves in in the City of Pittsburgh.

I reiterate, it's about time that the City start to assert itself and not be sleeping at the switch. This is why we're in the poor financial condition we're in now. That's why we put the largest tax increase on the people in the City's history a year ago, and it's about time that members of this Council start to represent the interest of the City of Pittsburgh and not be so concerned about the interest primarily of Allegheny County.

Mr. Givens:

I think the bottom underlying thing here is to try to get new industry and new jobs here within the City of Pittsburgh. I had served on a City-County wide corporation which distributed funds and monies equally between the City and the County. Although that money could have gone either way, to the City or to the County, much of that greater share went to the City while I sat on that particular Board.

For the funds of $4,000, I have to agree with Mr. Flaherty on this that the fact that we should not just have corporate names but these people will be serving with no pay. This joint council, the Private Industry Council that's going to be created will be men and women sitting down trying to use their good resources and I'm sure the Mayor, in trying to secure the names that appear on this particular document that's before us, are probably ones that are the most knowledgeable in the business and want to volunteer their time.

So, without reflection upon them, I would still like to know where their home addresses are. I vote aye to hold for at least one more week.

Michelle Madoff:

May I point out that the by-laws of Penn Southwest prohibit them from bringing industry only to the City of Pittsburgh and they must bring it only to a region, southwestern part of the state.

I might also add that I echo all the sentiments that have been stated here by my two colleagues and I would also like to point out that it has been the policy of this Council to generally and most vocally verbalized by one member of this Council who is today saying, "It's only $4,000, it isn't important", to not vote for somebody who didn't live in the City. I think that's inconsistent and I would like to point that out.

I vote to hold.

Mr. O'Malley:

I vote no. When I see people's names on here like Father Robert Duch, Assistant Superintendent of the Schools of the Diocese of the City of Pittsburgh, Ms. Margaret Tyndall, Executive Director of the YWCA of the Greater Pittsburgh area, I think it represents a good cross section of Pittsburghers and Allegheny County.

Mr. Robinson:

Mr. President and members of Council, I think that we need a little bit of clarification and I'd like to explain my vote and by way of that explanation, hopefully, add some perspective to this discussion.

First of all, this particular bill, 2807, is simply providing for the continuation of an on-going program which this Council approved some time ago. This Council approved the City's participation in the Private Industry Council of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County and when we approved that we approved the composition of the Board and this Council was well aware that the City and the County would have to share the responsibility for the Board members. The Council was constructed in accordance with federal guidelines and it was the federal government that mandated that we have this Council in order that we could utilize certain federal funds. So, the present Council is in place. The names that are before Council today are the names of people presently serving and I don't think it would do the City any good or those individuals any good for us to suggest that they be removed and new people appointed and I doubt very much if we would be within our legal rights to do that at this time. So, the Council is already in existence.

Also, I think that we should take into consideration that once this Council goes out of existence, when the funding for it goes out of existence under CETA Title 7, that the Federal Government is offering to the State and to this City an opportunity to participate in a new jobs training program, a new public sector program. At that time, this Council will have an opportunity to approve or reject whether or not the City of Pittsburgh wants to participate. And if we want to participate, we'll have an opportunity to review those requirements that both the State and Federal Government will place on us. I think it is appropriate to raise the question of composition of the Council. I think it's relevant to raise questions as to what they're going to do and I think it's relevant as to what benefit the Council is going to be to the City of Pittsburgh.

But I think they're the right questions at the wrong time. I think what we should do is approve this bill today so that we can pay for the continuation of this Council through the end of 1983 and prior to the establishment of the new Council let the Administration know what our concerns are and to have the kind of input it seems like most members of this Council want to have. Melanie Smith, our Director of Personnel, indicated that prior to the City negotiating any agreement and prior to any legislation being forwarded to us to form a new council that she would share with Pittsburgh City Council the new requirements, the new legislation and that we would have ample opportunity for input. And I think that's fair and I think that's something that we ought to work on.

Based on what I've said, I'm going to have to vote no for recommitment.

The Chair:

Is there any discussion on the motion?

And on the question, "Shall the motion pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mr. Flaherty
Mr. Givens

Michelle Madoff

AYES 3

NOES 6

VOTING NO:

Mrs. Masloff
Mr. O'Malley
Mr. Robinson

Mr. Stone
Mr. Woods
Mr. DePasquale
(Pres't)

And a majority of the votes of Council not being in the affirmative, the motion was defeated.

The Chair:

Roll call vote on the bill itself.

Mr. Flaherty:

I'm voting no on this bill and I would appreciate my reasons for opposition by drawn from my remarks at last Wednesday's Committee Meeting.

(BEGINNING - MR. FLAHERTY'S
REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2807 - 4/27/83)

Mr. Flaherty:

For the time being, I am in opposition simply because I don't have some extremely elementary information. As I said earlier, we are talking about a City-County committee and I believe that we are in a very crucial stage where we have to improve the repertoire between the City and the County which we are all aware of the study that came out just a few weeks ago from the Pennsylvania Economy League which predicts a very dire financial future for the City and I think it is very important since this is a joint City-County venture that this City Council, of all people, at least make sure that we have half of the people on that committee come from the City. I think it's absurd for us not even to question this point when we have every single candidate for County Commissioner slapping us in the face and refusing to aid this City in any way through a commuter tax. It's about time someone in City Hall start to show the leadership to the County that we know how to reciprocate and we know how to get along, but we are going to want a piece of the pie and I think it's assinine for anyone on this Council to let this issue go without having the most simplistic information in front of us.

(END - MR. FLAHERTY'S REMARKS ON BILL NO. 2807 - 4/27/83)

The Chair:

Is there anv further discussion on the bill?

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes:

Mrs. Masloff	Mr. Stone
Mr. O'Malley	Mr. Woods
Mr. Robinson	Mr. DePasquale
	(Pres't)

AYES 6 NOES 3

(MR. FLAHERTY, MR. GIVENS AND MICHELLE MADOFF VOTING NO)

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Also,

Bill No. 2863

A Resolution entitled, "Resolution

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Robinson:

I have a couple concerns, if I might. One is in reference to the Phoenix Hills Shopping Mall which has been closed for some time. As this Council is aware, the City of Pittsburgh particularly through the Urban Redevelopment Authority has made substantial contributions to the development of that shopping mall and the supermarket portion of that mall has been closed for several months due to some financial problems. It's my understanding that the Urban Redevelopment Authority is negotiating with some new owners. I'm concerned because a number of community residents in the Hill District have raised questions about whether or not that shopping center is going to re-open and what kind of commitment the City is going to still have to this effort. The shopping mall complex probably represents the most substantive effort that this City has launched to make sure that minority business thrives in this community and I think it would be helpful if the City Clerk could contact the Urban Redevelopment Authority to find out if new operators have been secured for the shopping center, the shopping store itself, the supermarket, and when that facility is going to be re-opened and what, if any, difficulties the URA is experiencing in opening it.

The second issue relates to our Urban Homesteading Program. As Council is aware, some time ago we did pass an Urban Homesteading Program which included a gift property program. I'd like to have the Clerk contact the Urban Redevelopment Authority and Lands and Buildings to give us an update as to where we stand on signing an agreement to put this program into effect and particularly where we stand in terms of developing our gift property program of that portion of the Urban Homesteading Program which would allow persons to make contributions of property to the City of Pittsburgh. Thank you.

Mr. Givens:

Mr. President, if I might respond, is that the shopping center in the Hill?

Mr. Robinson:

Yes.

Mr. Givens:

The URA has already made a contractual agreement. With all of the funding necessary and the documents that have been signed and it's just a matter of them moving and getting the stock up to date and that was voted on two sessions ago. So, there is a finalizing of all of their paperwork and I would think that hopefully within a few weeks the information should be forthcoming.

Mr. Stone:

Mr. President, if I may. Last Saturday I was part of a parade in the South Side of the City of Pittsburgh and it was brought to my attention that there is presently a strike pending between BFI and the labor organization. But the thing that was the problem is that someone brought to my attention that those BFI vehicles are carrying armed weapons and they're noticeable in the vehicle. I did not see them so I don't want to say that I did. But I'm told by this individual that he saw them and that that's now part of the operation.

I would suggest strongly and request strongly that we notify our Superintendent of Police that he take immediate steps to check out the veracity of this matter, number one. Number two, if armed weapons are being carried in those vehicles that we stop it immediately. This is not time for people to fight out their battles. We're paying for police and they'll carry out the peace keeping mission in the City of Pittsburgh and not individuals if that be the case. I don't want to get into the merits of their discussion. That's for them to handle in proper collective bargaining. But if anyone is carrying any weapons in a vehicle, I want it understood that we're not permitting that by anyone anywhere within the boundaries of the City of Pittsburgh.

The Chair:

Mike, get a hold of Inspector Cunningham over there and Superintendent Coll.

Mrs. Masloff:

Mr. President, I want a report on that matter that was given to me at the end of the meeting last week. The check that was reported from Mr. Stanfield who said that he never had Warner service, I want to report that Mr. Stanfield's mother paid Warner $10 toward the installation of a cable TV. Before the installation occurred, she found she was going to move and called Warner to inform them that she no longer wanted the cable and requested that they refund the money to her son, Edward Stanfield.

In addition, I want a report on the 1100 Grandview Avenue matter. That is considered by the cable company as a condo-complex and any time they wire a complex of this sort, they automatically, as good business and for a short time, hope that everyone will sign up for everything. The residents of a complex then receive all service for a very short time. Later, within five or ten days, a team of service men go and put traps in the electronics so to halt any service that the resident doesn't sign up for. Once the trap is installed, the entire process has been completed. However, this process was followed on Grandview Avenue and the next day, when the complaint was registered here, the servicemen went out and put traps and deprived the residents of a week or ten days of free service.

I just wanted to report on that matter.

The Chair:

Thank you, Sophie.
